

Madam's 1641

Chapter 1641 - 1641 Who Knows How Much Trouble That Thing Will Cause

The Ji family's strength had declined in the past few years, but it was still a powerful existence.

The Ji family's style was the same as the other forces in the independent continent. They kept a low profile.

Many families in Beijing didn't know about the existence of the Ji family. However, those in the know knew how powerful they were.

Many people acknowledged that the illegal district was a miniature version of the independent continent, but the independent continent must be stronger than the illegal district.

!!

Compared to these hidden forces...

The Wen, Shen, and Wei families in Beijing were actually not enough.

If not for Ye Wangchuan, the Ye family would probably not be able to reach the corner of the independent continent like them.

Qiao Nian lowered her eyes, her gaze profound and unreadable.

However, she didn't play with the crest for long. She casually threw the palm-sized Ji family head crest into her black shoulder bag.

That casual attitude was as if it was a worthless little item.

It wasn't the symbol of the Ji family's head that the Ji family had been looking for for 20 years!

Qiao Nian returned to her laptop. The message Jian Jin had sent her was still there.

Ji family.

Ji Qing.

She hadn't considered the two together before, mainly because they seemed unrelated.

She couldn't think of any connection other than the same last name.

This was like catching a few people on the streets. One or two of them had the surname Ma. Could they all be from rich families?

Until now, all the evidence pointed to the independent continent's Ji family.

Only then did Qiao Nian take the connection seriously.

But she now had nothing in her possession other than the family crest she had found through the Morse code in the black box.

If she wanted to figure out what was going on, she would probably have to investigate the Ji family.

At this thought, Qiao Nian couldn't help but feel a throbbing pain in her brain. She rubbed her temples and narrowed her eyes slightly.

Jian Jin happened to send another message at this moment.

[Are you still there, Qiao?]

[Where did you get that picture you just showed me? Did someone send it to you? Who was it? You...]

Qiao Nian didn't read the rest of the message. She typed a few words on the keyboard with one hand and messaged back—

[Q: No. I happened to see it on the black market. I was curious, so I asked.]

Jian Jin didn't seem to think much about it.

After all, there were a lot of miscellaneous items on the black market. All kinds of information could be found in the distribution center. It wasn't impossible for Qiao Nian to accidentally see a photo of the Ji family's crest.

She replied.

[Well, I thought you'd seen the actual thing somewhere. It's no ordinary thing, and if it turns up, there's no telling how much of a stir it'll cause on the independent continent.]

There was some silence.

Qiao Nian placed her pale hand on the keyboard and didn't reply for a long time.

Then, she closed her laptop, got up, and went into the bathroom to blow-dry her hair.

She still had to go to Aunt Chen's house tomorrow to deliver Uncle Chen's medicine. If she was too sloppy, with Aunt Chen's worried personality, she would be worried that she didn't have a good life outside.

In any case, there was no hurry for the crest's matter. Since there were clues, she would slowly investigate.

Coincidentally, Nie Mi had told her he was going to the independent continent soon.

As Qiao Nian walked towards the bathroom, she wondered if she should agree to his request...

Chapter 1642 - 1642 The Road Is Full of People

The next day, Qiao Nian woke up in the morning and went to Aunt Chen's usual stall.

She had just turned the corner when she saw that Aunt Chen's stall was surrounded by onlookers.

The crowd was bustling.

As if they were watching something fun.

Qiao Nian frowned. She pulled down the hood of her jacket, removed her earphones, and walked forward.

"Excuse me, please make way."

She squeezed into the crowd and finally understood why so many people were gathered there.

A luxury car was parked not far from Aunt Chen's stall. A black Bugatti Veyron was definitely an eye-catching existence in a small place like Rao City. Many people probably stopped to watch the commotion because they were attracted by the luxury car parked by the roadside.

Not far away, someone was tugging at Aunt Chen, as if they wanted to force a bag into her hands.

"Madam Fu, this gift of yours is too precious. I really can't accept it."

"This is just a small gift. It's just a small token of my appreciation. Just accept it." A well-dressed noblewoman kept handing things to Aunt Chen.

Aunt Chen's sallow face turned red and she was very uneasy. She clenched her fists and refused to take it. "Take it back. I really can't take it."

She saw Fu Ge bringing his mother over when she came out to set up her stall in the morning.

Aunt Chen thought that they were just going to do something nearby.

Unexpectedly, the two of them walked towards her with gifts. Without a word, they stuffed a pile of gifts into her hands.

How could she accept these things for no reason?

Besides, there was no such thing as a free lunch. She might be poor, but she wasn't unreasonable.

The Fu family had suddenly come looking for her, and it was such a big scene. They were probably up to no good.

She was just a commoner and did not know anyone important. These people must have found her because they wanted to find someone else through her.

She only knew Nian Nian.

The other was her son, Chen Yuan.

Chen Yuan had done well in the college entrance examination this year and entered a famous university. However, the Fu family was a big family in Rao City. How could a big family like theirs come to give him a gift just because Chen Yuan entered a famous school?

Therefore, Aunt Chen wasn't stupid. She more or less guessed that the Fu family was here for Qiao Nian.

She was actually not used to such a scene. Coupled with the fact that there were so many people watching, it made her very nervous. However, she still insisted on not accepting the gifts. "I really don't want it. Take it back. I'm going to set up my stall."

Madam Fu had never seen such a stubborn person. She had a headache about how to make Aunt Chen accept the gifts.

Suddenly, Aunt Chen saw the girl walking over from the corner of her eye. Her eyes lit up and she immediately let go, ignoring the Fu family as she walked towards Qiao Nian.

"Nian Nian, you're here? I..."

She didn't know how to explain the situation to Qiao Nian, because she herself didn't understand why the Fu family had come looking for her.

She was quite worried about Qiao Nian. From the corner of her eye, she looked in the direction of the Fu family. Her plain face was a little embarrassed and at a loss as she whispered to the girl, "Let's go back. I won't set up the stall today. Your Uncle Chen is still waiting for us at home. I'll go buy some groceries. We can leave after lunch if you're not in a hurry?"

Qiao Nian had wanted to see her as well. The sharpness in her eyes disappeared, and she looked gentle and easy to talk to. "Yes, I'm not in a hurry. Let's have lunch together."

Chapter 1643 - 1643 It's Fine, I'll Settle It

"Sure." No longer embarrassed, Aunt Chen immediately beamed and said happily, "I'll go to the market to buy a fish, to make your favorite boiled fish."

"Okay," Qiao Nian replied.

At this moment, the noblewoman, who had hesitated not far away, walked towards them. She greeted the girl awkwardly, "Nian Nian, long time no see. You've grown taller and thinner. You're even more beautiful than before."

Her greetings were very dry. Madam Fu felt embarrassed and uneasy. She wished she could find a hole to hide in.

!!

Except she was forced into a corner.

Yesterday, Fu Sinian told her that Bai Lin's cousin had done something and provoked Qiao Nian.

She hadn't slept well all night.

Over the past year, the Fu family had been going downhill, especially after the female celebrity Fu Sinian raised outside caused trouble. Everyone saw the Ye family's attitude towards them.

The Fu family's already difficult days became even more difficult.

Without the Ye Family's backing, they were struggling even in a small place like Rao City.

She was worried that Wei Xueying's matter would make the Fu family's already difficult path even more difficult. She was even more worried that Ye Wangchuan would vent his anger on them because of this matter... Therefore, after she couldn't sleep last night, she thought about this method.

She wanted to build a good relationship with Aunt Chen, as well as Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan.

Although this method was a little thick-skinned, it was better than doing nothing.

After thinking about this, Madam Fu calmed down a little and forced a smile. She continued, "It's like this. I heard from Fu Ge that Uncle Chen had an operation some time ago. I've always wanted to visit him, but I was so busy that I didn't have time. I finally found time today, so I bought some gifts for Uncle Chen, but Aunt Chen refused to accept them."

Fu Ge used to go to the Qiao Family's house a lot in the past.

Aunt Chen was a helper there, so they knew each other.

However, Aunt Chen only knew Fu Ge and did not have much contact with him, let alone with Madam Fu.

Madam Fu didn't even like Qiao Chen back then, let alone the rest of the Qiao family.

At this moment, she acted as though they were close to each other. Feeling uncomfortable all over, Aunt Chen grabbed her hands and explained to Qiao Nian in a low voice, "Those gifts are too expensive. I-I can't accept them."

The girl was wearing a baseball cap and a light-colored sweater today. She was dressed simply, but her aura could not be ignored.

Fu Ge was standing not far away. He wasn't as thick-skinned as his mother and was too embarrassed to come over.

However, he was looking in the direction of the girl the entire time.

However, the girl didn't even look at him. After listening to their conversation, she patted the back of Aunt Chen's rough hand, hummed softly, and said, "It's fine. I'll settle it."

"Nian Nian, you..." Aunt Chen looked at her again. Although the current situation left her at a loss, she had never thought of asking Qiao Nian to stand up for her.

She was about to muster up the courage to reject Madam Fu when the girl took a step forward and stood in front of her unobtrusively, then said lightly to the noblewoman, "Are these the gifts?"

Madam Fu was still feeling uneasy and worried that Qiao Nian wouldn't be willing to give her face. Now, she immediately pursed her lips and smiled. "Ah, right. I bought some health supplements for Uncle

Chen. They're all nourishing supplements. I specifically asked the doctor, and he said that they're most suitable for patients."

Chapter 1644 - 1644 Face Slap, Transfer the Money to Them!

Qiao Nian glanced at the bag. The paper bag looked very expensive. It was obviously not cheap.

Then, she saw some writing on the package.

Ginseng, antler, and bird's nest?

Tsk. Qiao Nian's black eyes darkened, and her eyes were filled with frustration. She looked a little surly and difficult to approach. "How much did you pay for these things?"

"Huh?" Madam Fu was confused by her question.

The purpose of her gift was to please Aunt Chen and her. It was definitely not for money.

However, Qiao Nian directly asked how much it cost

Madam Fu's face heated up. She felt awkward and a little uneasy. "Qiao Nian, these are the supplements I bought for Uncle Chen..."

"I know." Qiao Nian's expression didn't change at all. She took out her phone from her pocket and asked, "How much?"

Uncle Chen had undergone surgery before Chen Yuan's college entrance examination.

Now, Chen Yuan went to university in Beijing.

Madam Fu belatedly came to visit the person who had finished the surgery with a gift... Anyone with good brains could tell what she was up to.

Qiao Nian didn't know if Wei Xueying knew Bai Lin, whom she had met once before, or if they were relatives. Furthermore, Bai Lin had an ambiguous relationship with Fu Sinian.

She hadn't checked any of that.

However, she could more or less guess what Madam Fu was thinking.

The girl looked like she was about to give her money. Madam Fu didn't know what to do.

She stood frozen to the spot.

With so many onlookers around, her face heated up. She opened her mouth to say something, but when her gaze met the girl's cold black eyes, she could not open her mouth.

She felt guilty. If she said that to a girl, it might be even more embarrassing than now.

But if she accepted the money, wouldn't she have made a wasted trip? "Qiao Nian, I didn't bring these things here for the money. I just want to visit Uncle Chen. After all, Fu Ge knows Aunt Chen. As a junior, he should..."

Madam Fu had yet to sort out her messy thoughts and was talking nonsense. She was still thinking about how to persuade the other party to accept the gifts.

Unexpectedly, Qiao Nian's eyes flashed. She didn't seem to want to argue with her. Holding her phone, her fingers moved quickly.

Before she could finish, she heard the girl's slightly hoarse voice say coldly, "I transferred the money to your bank account. Take a look for yourself."

At the same time, Fu Ge's phone pinged.

He took it out and looked down. Sure enough, there was a transfer of over 10,000 yuan, about the same price as his mother's gift.

The money that had entered his bank card felt like a slap to his face. His expression changed slightly, and his handsome face flushed slightly with embarrassment.

Madam Fu was interrupted by the girl and was still in a daze. Fu Ge had already walked over from behind her and pressed her shoulder. He said in a deep voice, "Mom, stop it. Miss Qiao has already transferred the money to me."

The money had been transferred so quickly?!

Madam Fu was a little stunned, and her eyelids twitched. She was surprised that Qiao Nian had Fu Ge's bank account.

However, this was no longer the time to think about this. Her original plan had been disrupted by the other party's unpredictable actions. For a moment, she didn't know if she should leave or continue pestering her.

Chapter 1645 - 1645 Sister Nian: Ye Wangchuan Is My Boyfriend

Ignoring them, Qiao Nian turned around and said casually to Aunt Chen, "I bought the items. They're all Chinese herbs. Keep them for now. I'll tell you how to use them later."

Although Chinese herbs like ginseng and deer antlers were nourishing, they would have the opposite effect on people like Uncle Chen who was sick in bed all year round.

Chinese medicine emphasized quantity.

If the same prescription was measured differently, the final effect might be very different.

The Fu family didn't understand this at all. They only bought these things in the pharmacy before running over.

Qiao Nian's expression turned cold again. However, she didn't say too much to Madam Fu in front of Aunt Chen.

"I'll help you pack up. We'll go back now." Qiao Nian's voice was very soft. At least, she didn't have the same attitude as Madam Fu.

Aunt Chen watched as the girl quickly began to help her clean up the stall. Not caring less about what Madam Fu and the others wanted to do, she quickly went over and stopped the girl. "Don't, Nian Nian. Sit at the side and rest. I'll do it myself. I'll finish cleaning up quickly."

"It's not like I haven't helped you do this in the past." Qiao Nian acted naturally. She dodged her hand, bent down, picked up a plastic stool, and stacked it together. Then, she quickly packed up the chopsticks.

She didn't put on airs and did it naturally, as if she didn't care about her image.

Fu Ge saw the girl pick up the plastic stools and put the overlapping plastic stools on the cart. She turned around and went to clean up the simple wooden table.

He couldn't help but think of Qiao Chen.

Qiao Chen never did these things. At least when outside, she was like a delicate little princess who usually didn't do anything. She was delicate and gentle, making people want to dote on her.

It was just that these tender feelings would tire him over time.

Sometimes, he would realize that Qiao Nian was completely different from Qiao Chen. However, at that time, he didn't overthink it and wasn't willing to admit that he was blind.

It wasn't until the end that he understood what everyone told him. Madam Fu watched as the girl cleaned up Aunt Chen's stall and said anxiously to him, "Xiao Ge, what are you waiting for?"

Fu Ge took a deep breath. When the girl packed her things and was about to help Aunt Chen push the tricycle away, he suddenly blocked the way.

"Qiao Nian, I..."

"Move."

The girl looked at him impatiently.

Fu Ge couldn't breathe for a moment, but he took a deep breath to calm himself down. With his handsome face, he focused his gaze on the girl and said, "Qiao Nian, I want to treat you to a meal."

There was some silence.

What?

Qiao Nian narrowed her eyes and raised her eyebrows.

However, in the blink of an eye, she smiled. The corners of her lips curled up evilly and irritably. "Fu Ge, are we close?"

Then, she felt bored.

Qiao Nian refused concisely. "No need. My boyfriend will mind."

Fu Ge's expression changed at her first words. He looked even more embarrassed at her second sentence. He had heard a little about it in Qing University but could not enter Beijing's circle. He could only hear the rumors and could not know more.

He clenched his fists tightly at his sides and lowered his voice. "Ye Wangchuan is your..."

Qiao Nian was open and honest, not hiding anything from Aunt Chen. She admitted readily, "Ah, he's my boyfriend."

Fu Ge's mind seemed to have exploded into fireworks and then went blank. His throat was dry, and he was speechless!

Chapter 1646 - 1646 Our Goods in the Independent Continent Were Robbed

In the Ye family's simple courtyard, Ye Maoshan sat on a mahogany chair in the main room instead of fixing flowers and playing with birds. A cup of tea was in front of him. Ye Maoshan picked it up a few times but was not in the mood to drink it, so he put it down in the end.

Beside him sat a dignified and graceful middle-aged woman. She was slightly smaller than Ye Lan, but she was not young either. She was probably in her 40s.

She was wearing a royal blue cheongsam and a light-colored square scarf. Her aura was quite outstanding.

The outline of the Ye family could also be seen in her eyes.

The butler also made her a cup of tea in a set of porcelain-white cups with gold patterns. He didn't make the same clear tea as Ye Maoshan, but a cup of Western black tea in a mellow color.

"Thank you."

Ye Shan thanked the butler politely and took a leisurely sip of tea.

Butler Ye retreated to the side and placed his hand in front of him obediently.

Ye Lan was also there, but she wasn't as relaxed as the other person. She was still in the mood to drink tea at this time.

There was a layer of frost between her eyebrows. Although she was controlling her emotions, her eyes were anxious.

“They’re not back yet, Dad?”

Ye Maoshan looked outside. His heart sank and he shook his head. “Wait a little longer.”

Finally, someone hurried in the direction of the main room.

Ye Maoshan picked up his teacup for the fifth time. Then, he saw the person who came in from the corner of his eye and immediately placed the cup on the table again. He immediately asked, “How is it?”

The person who came in was also about 40. He was neither tall nor short, probably above 1.75 and less than 1.8 meters tall. He looked more rugged than the others in the Ye family, with a square face.

Ye Keji was very respectful to Elder Ye. Even though he had been travel-worn and hadn’t taken a break, he didn’t complain. He immediately said, “Our cargo on Independence has been hijacked. The other team leader, Wang Fei, who was in charge of transporting this cargo, has disappeared with it. Our people on the independent continent haven’t figured out the situation yet. They’re trying to track it down. They’ll tell us when they have news.”

Ye Maoshan stood up and paced around anxiously with his hands clasped behind his back. Then, he stopped and unconsciously looked at him. “That batch... was robbed?”

“Yes.”

Ye Keji wasn’t a direct descendant of the Ye family, but he was also a close relative of the branch family. He was considered a cousin of sorts.

He poured a glass of water and gulped it down. His expression turned grim as he emphasized it to Ye Maoshan. “The situation is that the people responsible for transporting this shipment have also disappeared. We won’t be able to figure out who touched our goods for a while.”

The forces in the independent continent were complicated, even more so than in Beijing.

If they didn't know who did it, there was no way to recover the shipment or figure out why they were robbed.

"I remember that Wang Fei is working for Wangchuan?" Like Ye Keji, Ye Shan was a member of the Ye family branch.

She spoke suddenly, and everyone turned in her direction.

Ye Shan calmly put down the cup of tea and smiled. "Isn't it obvious?" she said lightly, as if joking. "Don't let someone steal the goods and do a disappearing act... everything will be resolved."

Ye Lan frowned and questioned her coldly, "Ye Shan, what do you mean?"

Chapter 1647 - 1647 The Other Party Has Other Plans

"I'm just making a guess. You can think I'm joking, too. There's no need to get so worked up..."

Then, she suddenly said, "I heard that Wangchuan got a little girlfriend recently? This little girlfriend of his is from Rao City, the girl who has been missing from the Jiang family's main branch?"

Ye Lan's frown deepened and her eyes sharpened. "What are you trying to say? If you have something to say, just say it. Don't beat around the bush!"

Ye Shan was different from Ye Keji. Her relationship with the direct line of descent had always been average.

She felt that even if she was a cousin, she was still an elder, after all. Old Master Ye shouldn't have directly passed by her generation and handed the future of the Ye family to a junior.

Therefore, Ye Shan was always targeting her nephew. She would always push the blame on Ye Wangchuan.

This time was the same.

Ye Shan played with her nails disapprovingly. She raised her eyelids and said with a faint smile, "The Ye family's people in the independent continent are all old people from the past. Only this Wang Fei was introduced by him. Now that our goods have been robbed for no reason, and this Wang Fei has even disappeared, it's not too much for me to reasonably suspect Wangchuan, right?"

"You..." Ye Lan's eyelids twitched.

Ye Shan didn't give her a chance to speak and continued calmly, "I'm not against young people dating. It's just that even if they're dating, they shouldn't be focused on dating and forget their own business! It's fine if he likes that girl, but not everyone in our family can have her. At the very least, we have to investigate her background and see if she's clean.

"After all, the Ye family's lifeline is in his hands alone. He's also in charge of the Ninth Branch. This time, the Ye family's goods in the independent continent were robbed..."

She had yet to finish speaking when a voice as cold as frost and faintly sinister sounded.

"This time, the Ye family's goods in the independent continent were robbed. Then?"

Ye Shan's expression changed and she immediately shut up, afraid to say more.

She saw a young man dressed in black walking in from outside the courtyard. The prayer beads on his wrist were exceptionally eye-catching, but they couldn't compare to the man's bad temper.

It was Ye Wangchuan!

Ye Shan's heart jumped. She wasn't sure when the man had arrived and how much he had heard.

Although she had never been close to her nephew, she didn't dare to confront him directly.

After all, compared to Ye Lan and Ye Maoshan, Ye Wangchuan was not a soft-hearted person. If he said that he wanted to touch her, he might really do so.

Ye Wangchuan was followed by Gu San. As soon as Gu San entered, he greeted Old Master Ye, Ye Lan, Ye Keji, and the others. As for Ye Shan, he seemed to not have seen her.

Ye Shan was so angry that her mouth was crooked, but she didn't dare to be impudent in front of Ye Wangchuan.

After Ye Wangchuan walked in, he raised his eyelids and looked at her with his dark eyes. He asked lazily, "What did Eldest Aunt say about my girlfriend?"

Ye Shan's aura immediately deflated. She stammered, unable to hide her embarrassment. She said awkwardly, "I didn't say anything. I just heard that you have a girlfriend and told your aunt that it's best to investigate her identity and background. There are all kinds of people outside now. Families like ours should be careful... If the other party takes a fancy to our background and has other motives..."

Gu San couldn't help but laugh when he heard her words.

Chapter 1648 - 1648 Don't Worry About My Girlfriend!

Eldest Aunt Ye was too ridiculous!

Miss Qiao liked the Ye family's background and wanted to covet the family's assets???

She must have drunk a few pounds of white wine outside to say such brainless words.

Did she know anything about Miss Qiao's background?

With that thought in mind, Gu San looked at Ye Shan's wild appearance and felt that it was not strange for her to say such things.

How could Ye Shan know that Miss Qiao was the Red Alliance's Sun and one of Cheng Feng Corporation's owners? Furthermore, she knew Lu Zhi and the others...

In Ye Shan's eyes, the Ye family was like a ceiling.

The others were all thinking about the Ye family's assets because she had been thinking about these herself! Therefore, she felt that others had the same thoughts as her!

Ye Shan gathered her thoughts a bit more clearly and spoke with a bit more confidence. "And did you know that a shipment of the family's goods is missing from the independent continent? Your man was in charge of the delivery this time, Wang Fei. He has disappeared."

Ye Shan and Ye Keji both had a portion of their people in the independent continent. They were mainly responsible for some of the family's goods.

So this time, Ye Shan followed.

It wasn't easy for her to get a hold of Ye Wangchuan's weakness, so of course, she had to take it out and trample on it. "I didn't agree with you planting a newbie in the first place. The people outside don't know anything, so something will inevitably go wrong. Our goods in the independent continent are so important. Now that something has happened... It's already tiring enough for you to be busy with the Ninth Branch. You even have to manage the independent continent. Why don't you..."

What she meant was that Ye Wangchuan should not interfere with the Ye family's matters in the independent continent.

Ye Wangchuan walked past her. The butler quickly poured him a glass of water, but he didn't drink it. He found a seat and sat down.

Only then did he lift his eyelids and glance sharply at the garrulous Ye Shan. His tone seemed gentle, but there was a cold ruthlessness in it. "Have you been very free recently, Aunt?"

His words shut Ye Shan up.

"I'm just concerned about you." Ye Shan was a little embarrassed and her face was a little hot. In addition, she felt that Ye Wangchuan's attitude towards her was not respectful enough. She suppressed her anger and didn't dare to show it too obviously.

Ye Wangchuan nodded. His eyes darkened as he looked at her again. "I've already gotten someone to investigate Wang Fei's matter. Before the truth is out, you shouldn't keep saying that you're a thief. Otherwise, when the time comes to investigate, you'll be slapping yourself in the face. I don't like to argue, but if you say that in front of everyone, and if this matter has nothing to do with Wang Fei, I'll also be embarrassed if you still have to apologize to a junior at your age."

He seemed to be telling Ye Shan with a few neutral words that if this had nothing to do with his men, then she would have to apologize to Wang Fei!

Ye Shan's face turned the color of a pig's liver, green and red. It was brilliant. She looked at him in disbelief.

Ye Wangchuan let her look as much as she wanted.

"Also, you don't have to worry about my girlfriend's background! Even if my girlfriend is after our family's money, I'll give it to her as long as she wants it."

He even sounded a little regretful. "It's just a shame she won't spend my money yet. If you have a way of getting her to spend mine, I'd love to hear it."

Ye Shan's old face was almost shattered by his words. It was no longer the color of a pig's liver. Her flushed face was about to turn purple. She was about to faint from anger.

Chapter 1649 - 1649 There's Such a Local Product in Rao City?

"I only said a few things in passing. You—"

She had wanted to say that she was just a girlfriend. Did Ye Wangchuan have to embarrass her like this?

Unfortunately, she didn't have the chance to finish her sentence.

Old Master Ye had already coughed and said sternly, "Alright, don't you know how old you are? Why are you still so nosy?"

"Old Master." Ye Shan obviously couldn't take this lying down.

She thought that even if she wasn't as precious as Ye Wangchuan in the family, at the very least, she was better than a country bumpkin from Rao City.

"I said enough. How many more times do you want me to say it before you're willing to shut up?" Old Master Ye clearly didn't like her attitude. He stopped her very seriously and raised his hand. "I'll tell you if there's any progress with the batch of goods from the independent continent. You can go back first today. I'm tired."

Ye Shan took a few deep breaths before pulling a long face. Then, she picked up her bag and left without looking back.

Ye Keji rubbed his nose awkwardly and said to the old master, "Then, I'll leave first. I'll go back and take a shower."

Old Master Ye waved his hand.

After the two of them left, Old Master Ye glared at a certain someone in disagreement and said angrily, "You, you, how many times have I told you? Don't argue with your aunt, you know her personality. Her father took a bullet for me and passed away early. Can't you just let her do this?"

He originally wanted to say that Ye Shan's IQ was only so-so, so why should Ye Wangchuan argue with her?

Ye Wangchuan's eyes were calm as he said noncommittally, "I'll let her win next time."

Next time?

How long would it be?

Was he still planning to embarrass Ye Shan next time?

Old Master Ye glared at him again. Seeing that Ye Wangchuan wasn't even looking at him, he picked up the glass of water and lowered his head to take a sip. He immediately felt bored and pretended to be angry. "Young brat, don't think I don't know. You embarrassed her because your aunt said bad things about Qiao Nian!"

"Tsk."

Ye Wangchuan put down his teacup and looked up at him with a faint smile. He asked leisurely, "Aren't you the same?"

Old Master Ye was speechless.

This unfilial grandson!

However, he snorted and put his hands behind his back without denying it.

He was indeed unhappy when Ye Shan brought Qiao Nian out to talk about something just now. Hence, when she wanted to say something, he forcefully interrupted her and chased her away.

Old Master Ye's thoughts were exposed by him. He held back his anger and rolled his eyes at him, but he didn't want to admit or deny it. He tried his best not to sound so boastful. "Nian Nian just sent me a message. She said that she would come over later to deliver medicine to me."

Worried that Ye Wangchuan wouldn't understand, he coughed again and explained, "It's that health supplement. The small white pill."

He had previously gone to the pharmacy to buy it, but he hadn't been able to buy it.

"The health supplement Nian Nian bought is quite effective. I heard that it's a local specialty from Rao City." Old Master Ye's face was filled with curiosity. "You've been to Rao City before. Have you heard of this local specialty?"

He had heard of local specialties for eating and playing in the past, but he had never heard of medicine being used as a local specialty.

Even if this medicine was a health supplement, he still felt that it was very rare. At least, he had never heard of such a specialty before.

How should he put it?

Old Master Ye couldn't think of a suitable adjective.

After thinking about it, he could only think of it as 'very unique'!

Chapter 1650 - 1650 If There's No Way, I'll Make a Personal Trip to the Independent Continent

Ye Wangchuan was stunned for a moment and didn't answer him immediately.

Old Master Ye picked up his teacup. He wasn't in a hurry, mainly because he didn't think too much about it. He treated the small pill as a local specialty that Qiao Nian had mentioned.

"Speaking of which, that medicine is really good. I've been eating well and sleeping soundly recently. My legs are much stronger than before."

Old Master Ye smiled and turned to Ye Wangchuan. "That's why I told Nian Nian to bring me more. I'll give some to my friends later."

The corners of Gu San's mouth twitched. He couldn't help but ask, "What did Miss Qiao say?"

Old Master Ye saw his strange expression and looked at him strangely. "Nian Nian said that she would bring me two bottles and asked me to deliver them."

Gu San was speechless.

F*ck!

His expression froze. He raised two fingers at Old Master Ye, his facial muscles twitching as he stammered, "Two... two bottles?"

"Miss Qiao said that she would bring two bottles? Two bottles of that small white pill? Two bottles in one go?"

Old Master Ye wasn't stupid. He immediately put down the teacup and looked at him strangely. "Is that medicine very expensive?"

Gu San immediately shook his head.

Old Master Ye rolled his eyes again, feeling more and more that he was strange. "Then why are your hands trembling like a chick's claws? I thought it was very expensive."

Gu San was speechless.

He silently grabbed his hand and wanted to say, "It's not expensive. One pill is only a few million yuan."

The price of two bottles... was enough to buy a courtyard house in Beijing!

However, he didn't dare to say it.

Previously, he had been despised by Master Wang for having a big mouth. This time, Gu San was determined not to say anything. However, he felt especially uncomfortable holding it in. His heart itched, and he really wanted to explain to Old Master Ye what a small pill on the black market was.

Old Master Ye had indeed never thought that the health supplements Qiao Nian had casually given him would be related to the small pills on the black market. Seeing that Gu San was silent, he didn't think too much about it.

However, Ye Lan knew.

She also heard from Old Master Ye that Qiao Nian was going to get him two bottles of 'health supplements'. Her expression was a little calmer than Gu San's. She secretly glanced at her silent nephew and rubbed her temples, then said earnestly, "Dad, if the health supplements Nian Nian gave you are effective, you can keep them for yourself. If you want to give them to your friends, I'll buy you some other nutritional supplements another day."

Although Old Master Ye didn't understand why their attitudes became so strange when they mentioned Rao City's local specialties, he didn't think too much about it. He nodded in confusion and then looked at Ye Wangchuan. "By the way, Nian Nian's plane will arrive at 1:30 PM. Go to the airport and pick her up. Don't let her take a taxi back. I'll call the Imperial Mansion to reserve a private room. We'll treat her to a meal. She definitely didn't eat lunch. The food on the plane isn't delicious, either. I'm afraid she'll go hungry. She's still growing at this age and can't go hungry."

"I understand." Ye Wangchuan stood up and said to Old Master Ye unhurriedly, "I'll get someone to investigate Wang Fei's matter. I'll tell you when there are results."

He thought for a moment and added, "If it really doesn't work out, I'll go to the independent continent myself."

Old Master Ye didn't say anything and urged him to hurry to the airport to pick up Qiao Nian.

Ye Wangchuan didn't delay and gave Gu San a look, and the latter quickly followed him.

As soon as they left, Ye Lan immediately tilted her head and asked Old Master Ye, "Dad, are we still going to the Wei Family's birthday banquet?"

Old Master Ye picked up his teacup again and looked up. He said coldly, "Isn't Nian Nian and Wei Ying on bad terms? We won't go."

Ye Lan understood immediately.

That would be disrespecting Wei Ying!

"I understand." Ye Lan retracted her gaze and stopped asking.
