

Madam's 1691

Chapter 1691 - 1691 I Knocked on the Door and Saw Someone From the Ji Family

Without another word, the blond man took out his phone and made a call.

At the same time, at the Chamber of Commerce Alliance Headquarters, at the president's office.

Torre had just returned to his office and hadn't even sat down when the phone rang.

!!

He took off his leather gloves, his gaze sharp as he picked up the call. "Hey, how'd it go?"

"I quit!"

Torre frowned. He distanced the receiver from his ear and looked at the phone number that had been dialed in from the internal line. His tone was not good. "What do you—"

The other party spoke before he could finish his question.

"I also want to ask you what you mean. Why? Why do you want us brothers to die?!"

The other party was so angry.

Torre was confused. "...What are you talking about? I don't understand."

The other party sneered, seemingly laughing out of anger. He changed his tone and questioned him, "Fine! You don't understand, right? Let me change it to something you understand. Didn't you tell me that Qiao Nian doesn't have a background? Do you know that you almost killed me today?!"

Torre suspected that the other party was deliberately finding fault with him.

Before he could speak, he heard the man's emotional voice on the other end of the phone. "I followed the information you gave me to the hotel. Do you know who I saw when I knocked on the door?"

"Who?" Torre didn't think he would see anyone special. He picked up the file on his desk and asked disapprovingly.

"Hmph!" The other party was so angry that he laughed again. Then, he threw out a name. "Someone from the Ji family."

"I knocked on the door and saw someone from the Ji family."

"Who are you talking about?" Torre had been listening to him distractedly before, but now he put down the document abruptly. His expression was serious, his gaze sharp, shocked, and suspicious.

"I personally saw someone from the Ji Family!"

Torre didn't believe him.

The other party did not care if he believed him or not. He said indignantly, "You told me that she had no background, so I went straight to her door to look for her. In the end, I saw someone from the Ji family. Fortunately, I ran away quickly. If I had run slower, I might have died there today!"

"Are you mistaken? How does an overseas person know someone from the Ji family?" Torre still didn't believe it.

"Hehe, did I see wrongly?" The other party sneered, probably not wanting to talk to him anymore. "President Torre, just take it that I saw wrongly!"

“In short, I don’t know if that person from the Ji family recognized me. I don’t know what to do next. I hope he’s magnanimous and won’t argue with a small fry like me.

“In addition, because of you, we provoked the Ji family for no reason, so we’ll still take the money!”

The Chamber of Commerce Alliance was a medium-sized faction in the Independent Continent. Torre had never been bullied like this before. He was about to say, “You didn’t even do a good job and you still ask me for money?”

“Whoever wants to do it can do it. I don’t dare to touch this matter again. Also... this is money that our brothers risked their lives for. President Torre, don’t bicker with me.”

“You...”

“That’s it. I’m hanging up!”

A busy tone sounded from the receiver. Torre’s face was ashen as he realized that the other party had hung up on him.

His temples throbbed as he slowly put down the receiver. His gaze darkened as he called in his secretary.

“President, do you have any orders?” The secretary looked down and asked him respectfully.

Torre sat in a leather swivel chair with his hands on the desk. He was dressed in a black suit and had a cold expression on his face. His aura was very strong. “Go and check the background information of the group of people from Country Z.”

Chapter 1692 - 1692 Master Wang Discovered That Sister Nian’s in the Independent Continent

The secretary was about to leave when he stopped him again.

“President?”

Torre's face twitched. He placed his hand on his brow bone. Although he didn't believe it, he instructed cautiously, "Especially that girl called Qiao Nian! Get someone to do a good background check on her. See if she has any other backgrounds we don't know about."

Based on the information he had, the people from Country Z were all involved in scientific research or education.

Background?

That did not account for much in the Independent Continent.

However, the Radiant Gang insisted that Qiao Nian was related to the Ji family.

The Ji Family...

Torre couldn't afford to offend such a family.

However, at the same time, he did not believe that a country bumpkin from overseas could be related to the Jis and know someone other than from the side family.

The Radiant Gang people had made it very clear to him over the phone that they saw someone from the Ji family!

The Ji family was very low-key. They were rarely seen at banquets in the Independent Continent. How could one of them be in the room of an overseas girl?

"Check if there's anything different about her other than studying at Qing University."

* * *

In a quiet three-story villa on the Independent Continent.

The white decoration was simple and clear. The furniture was stylish. There was also a one-meter-tall blue and white porcelain vase in the closet. It formed a strong visual impact with the black sofa not far away.

“Master Wang.” Mo Dong had just returned from a call outside. Seeing the young man who hadn’t slept all night and was about to go upstairs to rest, he looked up and reported to him, “Mo Xi just called and told me that Master Cheng’s men offended Torre. Torre seems to have found someone to take revenge.”

Gu San had not rested for a day and night. He had been dozing off just now, so he went to the kitchen to make a pot of tea.

But he came out as soon as he heard Mo Dong’s words.

“Someone from Master Cheng’s team?”

“Yes.” Mo Dong saw that he was holding a cup of tea and took it without hesitation. Gulping it down, he felt much more comfortable. Then, his brows relaxed and he said unhurriedly, “I heard that the person took out a billion yuan to snatch the goods that Torre wanted to buy from the auction. Mo Xi didn’t say the specifics over the phone. I think that’s what he meant.”

Gu San was a generous person and did not mind that he snatched his cup of tea. He turned around and placed the rest of the tea on the table. Then, he was stunned and looked at him in surprise. “There’s such a generous person in Master Cheng’s team?”

Mo Dong walked over and poured himself another cup of tea. This time, he didn’t gulp it down. He took a small sip and looked at Ye Wuchuan, who was walking up the stairs. “That’s what Mo Xi told me.”

At first, his eyes were filled with the hostility of someone who had not slept well. He did not really want to deal with these trivial matters. He wanted Mo Dong and the others to deal with it themselves.

But he frowned slightly and ignored them when Mo Dong said something about taking out a billion guns. He took out his phone, lowered his eyes, and sent a message.

He didn't have to wait long before a message came back.

He looked down.

[QN: No.]

It was a simple word.

Qiao Nian was too lazy to even type a word more.

His thin lips curled up when he saw her concise WeChat message. He seemed to have seen the girl's lazy expression when she replied to his message.

However, his smile froze for a moment. His sharp gaze moved up again as he reread the message he had sent.

[Are you in Rao City?]

Below was Qiao Nian's reply a minute ago: [No.]

The answer was obvious.

Chapter 1693 - 1693 I Changed My Mind!

His fingers holding the phone were slender and beautiful. He paused for a moment and replied: [Y: Be careful outside.]

After the message was sent, he put his phone into the pocket of his windbreaker and turned back. His entire body was filled with hostility, and it was obvious that he was not to be trifled with.

“M-Master Wang?” When Mo Dong saw that he had suddenly returned, he put down the teacup in his hand in a daze and asked him, “Aren’t you going up to catch up on your sleep?”

Ye Wangchuan walked straight to the sofa and found a comfortable place to sit down. Then, he poured out a cigarette and bit it between his lips. He asked lazily, “Where’s Torre?”

Mo Dong had yet to react when Gu San scratched the back of his head in a daze. “The Chamber of Commerce Alliance, right?”

Torre was the president of the Chamber of Commerce Alliance. When he had nothing to do, he would definitely stay in the headquarters and not go anywhere else.

“Catch him.” He touched the lighter, and a cluster of orchid fire lit up. He lowered his head and lit the cigarette. His handsome face was quite dispirited at the moment, but it was a bloody and fierce look.

His entire body exuded a vicious aura.

At first, Mo Dong was stunned and speechless.

Then, he came back to his senses and hurriedly said, “Master Wang, didn’t you say at the beginning that we wouldn’t alert the enemy and would first investigate the person behind him before closing the net? Why did you suddenly...”

His answer was flat. “I’ve changed my mind.”

Mo Dong was confused.

How could Master Wang change his mind about such a big matter? There was no sign before he suddenly changed his mind.

After saying that lazily, Ye Wangchuan ignored him and turned to Gu San. “Which hotel is Master Cheng staying at?”

Gu San's reaction was slower than Mo Dong's. He thought about it habitually. "Paradise Hotel, right?"

Ye Wangchuan picked up his phone and looked at the time. "I'll go over later."

Gu San nodded dumbly.

Mo Dong's eyelids twitched. He had a stomach full of questions.

For example, didn't Master Wang plan to interrogate Torre?

They would be capturing the president of the Chamber of Commerce Alliance in the open. The other forces in the Independent Continent would definitely notice them.

At this juncture, why did Master Wang care about Torre going to the Paradise Hotel?

After Gu San finished speaking, he came back to his senses and wanted to look for his phone. "I'll call Master Cheng and ask if they're at the hotel."

Ye Wangchuan stopped him. "No, I'm not looking for Master Cheng."

Gu San looked at him in confusion.

What do you mean?

He finally asked a more crucial question, "Master Wang, why aren't you going to look for Master Cheng and the others? Then, why are you going to the hotel?"

Mo Dong actually wanted to know this question too. He immediately watched the man's every move, as if he wanted to get an answer.

Under their unblinking gazes, Ye Wangchuan narrowed his eyes and looked at the endless sunset in the distance. He stubbed out the cigarette and threw it into the ashtray. Seemingly in a good mood, he said softly, "Qiao Nian is there."

Mo Dong was dumbfounded.

Gu San was the first to react. He looked happy. "Miss Qiao is in the Independent Continent?"

In his excitement, he paced around and then stopped. "That's not right. Miss Qiao didn't even tell us that she came to the Independent Continent."

Ye Wangchuan chuckled and leaned back. He looked at him lazily and asked, "Have you asked her?"

Gu San said without thinking, "No!"

"That's right." His eyes were dark and thick. "You didn't ask her, so why would she tell you? You didn't tell her that you were going to the Independent Continent, either."

Chapter 1694 - 1694 The Chamber of Commerce Alliance Is Over

"It's because the Independent Continent is too dangerous..." Gu San stopped mid-sentence and immediately understood.

Both sides were thinking of the same thing!

Master Wang and Miss Qiao both thought that the other party would be worried if they said they were going to the Independent Continent, so they did not say anything.

He thought about it and said happily, "I knew it. How could there be such a generous person on Master Cheng's team... At that time, I wanted to say that that person's style of doing things was very similar to Miss Qiao's, but I didn't say anything. I didn't expect it to be her."

Gu San realized something as he finished speaking.

“In other words, the person who spent a billion yuan to snatch the goods is Miss Qiao?” He was in an extremely good mood and muttered to himself, “Master Wang, I’m going to the Paradise Hotel with you later. I want to see Miss Qiao, too. I wonder if she had dinner. If not, I’ll take her to a delicious Chinese restaurant.”

There were people from all over the world in the Independent Continent.

Therefore, restaurants in the Independent Continent were the same. There were dishes from all countries. Country Z’s cuisine was rich and delicious, and it was equally popular in the Independent Continent.

Gu San was talking about a restaurant that specialized in Country Z’s cuisine.

“We’ll talk about it when the time comes.” Ye Wangchuan ignored him and went upstairs to change his clothes and wash his face.

Mo Dong looked at their happy faces and frowned. He didn’t show his dissatisfaction, but he was more or less dissatisfied.

It was that girlfriend who disrupted their plan again!

He didn’t need to use his toes to understand that Master Wang’s sudden change of heart to quickly deal with Torre must have something to do with this Miss Qiao.

Master Wang was worried that the other party would secretly attack her, so he would destroy their nest first!

It was just a woman. He spoiled her too much!

Mo Dong took a deep breath.

He still did not approve of this method of handling things.

They had already thought of a step-by-step plan to infiltrate the enemy's ranks. Qiao Nian's appearance had more or less disrupted their plans.

Now, it seemed that they had to plan again.

But Torre...

Since Master Wang had given the order, they definitely had to capture him!

He was unlucky. Of all people, he had to touch Master Wang's precious girlfriend.

* * *

"SN, how long do you plan to stay in the Independent Continent?" Ji Nan put a piece of duck meat into the girl's bowl and looked up to ask her with a smile.

She didn't like sweets.

The restaurant that Ji Nan had brought her to had just the right amount of sweetness.

Qiao Nian didn't eat much. Basically, after touching each dish, she put down her knife and fork and sat there playing with her phone.

Coincidentally, her phone reminded her that someone was checking her information again.

The corners of her lips curled up into an evil smile. She multitasked as she typed in code. She took the time to answer him, "I'm just investigating something. I'll go back after I investigate that matter. It shouldn't take more than a few days."

She did not expect to find out everything at once.

Her motive for coming to the Independent Continent with Nie Mi and the others was very clear—to check if her mother was a member of the Ji family!

She only wanted to figure this out. As for the twists and turns involving family secrets, it was impossible for a big family like the Jis to be investigated fully in a day or two.

She couldn't stay in the Independent Continent for that long.

She could only investigate the most basic situation first.

Ji Nan was still trying to figure out what she was talking about.

Qiao Nian lifted her eyelids and looked at him with her dark eyes. "Are you full? If you are, I'll go pay the bill."

Then, she explained softly, "I have something on. I have to go back to the hotel."

Chapter 1695 - 1695 Mom, We're Just Friends!

1695 Mom, We're Just Friends!

Ji Nan picked up the jacket on the back of the chair and said gentlemanly, "I'll send you back."

Qiao Nian's phone kept vibrating at a small frequency. She wanted to go back and talk about it, but she was annoyed by the vibrating phone. A thick layer of surliness appeared under her eyes. She picked up her phone with one hand and started typing again.

Ji Nan saw how quickly she wrote the text message.

Seeing that Qiao Nian was busy, he considerably didn't rush her. With the coat draped over his arm, he stood there patiently, waiting for her to finish writing her message.

Five minutes later, the girl finally 'replied'. She picked up her cap, pulled out the chair, and stood up. "I'll go pay the bill."

Seeing that she was done with her work, Ji Nan called out to her, "SN, the security in the Independent Continent is not better than in Jing City. It's not safe for you to go back alone. Let me send you back."

"There's no need." Qiao Nian put on her cap and refused.

However, Ji Nan was exceptionally persistent. He restrained his smile and said with a serious expression, "I'm telling you the truth. The Independent Continent is not safe. I'm worried about you going back alone. Let me send you back."

Qiao Nian twirled her cap around her wrist. She hadn't put it on yet. Hearing his words, she fell silent, raised her eyelids, and finally took a step back. "Alright."

Ji Nan watched her as she went to pay the bill.

His phone on the table rang at this moment.

Ji Nan walked over and picked it up. He lowered his eyes to take a look and dropped his smile. He picked up the call. "Hello, Mom."

He looked up in Qiao Nian's direction and only saw the girl's tall and arrogant back. Ji Nan retracted his gaze and said, "I'm eating outside with a friend."

"A female friend?" Ji Nan rubbed his temples. "No, you don't know her. She's an online friend of mine. I've known her for a few years. I've never met her before, but we're very close. She's no different from a friend in real life."

The other end of the phone said something, but he quickly denied it. "No, we're not in the relationship you think we are. She went to the bar to counter the bill. Forget about the photo."

No matter what, he had only met Qiao Nian twice in reality. Previously, they had only communicated online.

Ji Nan had an indescribable feeling and a natural liking for Qiao Nian.

However, he was very clear.

He knew very well that his love for Qiao Nian was not the kind of love a man would have for a woman. He saw her as his younger sister.

He would want to protect Qiao Nian every time he saw her.

However, from a certain perspective, Ji Nan still did not know why he felt this way.

From what he knew, SN was unfathomable.

SN herself didn't look to have the same kind of soft and cute personality as his little sister at home gave him.

In any case, none of the little sisters from the Ji family's side branches fought for the bill when eating with him.

"... Hmm? A banquet? I don't know if she's free.

“She came with her teachers. She has some private matters to attend to here. She should be leaving in a few days.”

Ji Nan saw the girl walking back. He lowered his voice and said to the person on the other end of the phone in a helpless tone, “Mom, I’m not talking to you anymore. I’m hanging up.”

Coincidentally, Qiao Nian saw him putting down his phone.

Ji Nan picked up his coat again and said to the girl gently, “Let’s go back.”

“Mm.” Qiao Nian didn’t mind and followed him.

Chapter 1696 - 1696 Sister Nian: No, I Don’t Like Taking Photos

Halfway there, Ji Nan thought of something and stopped to ask her, “By the way, SN, do you have a photo on your phone?”

Qiao Nian was dumbfounded.

What?

Photo?

Ji Nan smiled and explained gently, “Do you have your photo on your phone? I want to introduce you to my mother. She’s a good person. I’ll take you to meet her if you’re free.”

The wife of the Ji family’s head in the Independent Continent came from a prestigious family. Xie Yun was not someone that everyone could meet in the Independent Continent.

Ji Nan also remembered that this was Qiao Nian’s first time in the Independent Continent. Even if he didn’t have any intention of being in a relationship with her, it wouldn’t be bad to introduce her to more people.

It would be more convenient for her to work in the Independent Continent later if she caught his mother's eye.

At the very least, small characters like the Radiant Gang wouldn't dare to harass her again.

"I don't mean anything else. I mean, just treat it as getting to know an elder." Ji Nan was afraid that she would misunderstand him, so he explained further.

Qiao Nian immediately figured out why he wanted to do this. However, she hadn't investigated her mother's relationship with the Ji family yet, so it wasn't convenient for her to have too much contact with them for now.

"I don't usually take photos. Sorry."

Ji Nan looked at her deeply. He couldn't tell if she didn't take photos or didn't want to see his mother, but he just smiled. "It's fine if you don't have any. I just thought of asking you."

As he spoke, he continued walking.

Qiao Nian pressed down on her cap and pursed her lips slightly. Catching up with him, she said in a low voice, "I'll finish what I'm doing first. I'll visit Auntie if I have time."

Ji Nan suddenly felt that he had thought too much just now. His handsome face was filled with guilt, but he still smiled. "Okay, let's see your schedule."

He thought for a moment and said, "You can visit her if you have time. Forget it if you don't. Anyway, there will be opportunities in the future. This isn't the only chance."

"Yes." Qiao Nian didn't say anything else. She nodded as if agreeing with him as they walked out of the restaurant.

Chamber of Commerce Alliance Headquarters.

Torre was working on a file when the computer flashed and the screen went black.

He was almost done. This sudden computer malfunction had wasted all his previous efforts.

Unable to suppress his anger, he picked up the phone and was about to make an internal call to ask what was going on.

However, he realized that the computer was not the only thing malfunctioning.

He couldn't even use the internal phone in his office!

Torre stood up abruptly and pushed away from the leather swivel chair. He grabbed his phone and prepared to go out and take a look.

However, someone knocked on the door at this moment.

"Come in."

The secretary rushed in with a flustered expression. "President, all the networks of our Chamber of Commerce Alliance are down."

"Huh?"

"We seem to have been attacked by a hacker! The network, circuits, and security facilities of the headquarters have all been cut off from the main computer console. The main computer has also been infected with a virus and crashed. The entire Alliance has fallen to a standstill. Everyone is in a mess and asking what's going on. Other than the elevator and backup electricity, we can't use anything else."

Torre listened for a long time before he finally got the gist of what he was saying. "You said we were hacked?"

"I think so." The secretary lowered his head, not daring to speak loudly.

"Heh!" Torre was so angry that he almost laughed at this series of events. "We asked the Hacker Alliance for the system, and they still found someone to attack our network? Are they crazy? Or are their brains damaged?!"

Chapter 1697 - 1697 The Computer Was Hacked and the Power Was Cut Off

"This..." The secretary did not dare to say anything. "I don't know either, but we were indeed attacked by a top hacker. Now, all the networks in the alliance are shut down."

Torre kicked the trash can and scowled. "I'll call the Hacker's Alliance right away."

He wanted to ask the other party for an answer.

One call was answered by the boss of the Hacker Alliance.

The Hacker Alliance's influence in the Independent Continent was no less than the Chamber of Commerce Alliance. Although Torre was so angry that his head was about to explode, he still suppressed his anger and tried his best to be as calm as possible. "KZ, did your Hacker Alliance hack the network and power supply of our Chamber of Commerce headquarters?"

The people from the Hacker Alliance were trying to find out if the big shot who hacked into their computers was the legendary Sun.

After being questioned by him, he immediately returned the question unhappily. "What does President Torre mean? Your Chamber of Commerce Alliance's computer has been hacked, and you're looking for me? Why? Does our Hacker Alliance care if your internet power is plugged in? Are you looking for the wrong person!"

Torre's anger eased when figured out that the other person's tone was off, and his own tone softened. "It was not you?"

The leader of the Hacker Alliance laughed. "Our people are all here. Who would touch your computer for no reason? Do we have nothing to do?"

Torre's anger quickly subsided as he realized that he had found the wrong person.

Due to the other party's identity, he was a little embarrassed and explained, "I'm sorry, it's like this. A minute ago, our computers suddenly collapsed and the power was cut off by someone through the main computer. This kind of thing was obviously done by a hacker. I thought it was done by some ignorant hacker on your side, but who knew that there was a mistake..."

"He's not one of us." The boss of the Hacker Alliance did not accept his explanation, but he did not fall out with him. He only said coldly, "You don't even know who you've offended."

"What kind of person is stronger than the Hacker's Alliance in this aspect...?" Torre himself only asked in return.

Unexpectedly, the other party was very rude. "How would I know! Recently, there might be someone in the Independent Continent who's better than our Hacker Alliance."

Better than the Hacker Alliance?

Torre froze.

He didn't have time to ask before the other party hung up unhappily.

He held the phone for a long time and rubbed his temples. "They're not from the Hacker Alliance. They said they didn't do it."

The secretary had been listening to him on his call.

Although he couldn't hear what the other party was saying, he could hear what Torre was saying to them.

He had already guessed it and was at a loss. "President, what should we do now?"

Torre rested his chin on his hand and remained silent.

He didn't know what to do.

It wasn't the Hacker Alliance.

But they were clearly hacked.

Who in the Independent Continent other than the Hacker Alliance would have the ability to shut down their network?

"Have you found the information I asked you to look up?" Torre asked suddenly.

"It's that Qiao Nian. Have you found out about her? Does she have another identity, such as..."

Torre himself thought he was overthinking things. "Like being particularly computer-savvy."

"President, are you saying that Qiao Nian is the one who hacked us?" The secretary understood what he meant and looked incredulous. "No, I just found someone to investigate her. Before I could get a response, the computer went black."

Chapter 1698 - 1698 President, The People From Bright Gate Barged In

Torre felt that it was too much of a coincidence!

However, at this moment, he was still unwilling to think in this direction. He waved his hand and said, "I understand."

The secretary was about to leave when Torre stopped him again. "Find a few more people to investigate her later. Investigate her properly! It's best if you can even investigate her growth in Country Z. I want to get all the information on her as soon as possible."

"I got it."

The secretary nodded and was about to leave.

Suddenly, another bodyguard barged in with an ugly expression and said to them anxiously, "President, bad news. Someone from Bright Gate has barged in!"

"What did you say?"

Torre only felt that today was too fantastical. He even suspected that his ears were playing tricks on him. "Bright Gate?!"

Bright Gate was a very special existence in the Independent Continent.

They didn't belong to any of the three great clans. They were mysterious and solitary, but they were much stronger than mid-level forces like them.

Many people in the Independent Continent privately said that if Bright Gate was given another ten years, they might leap to become one of the top factions in the Independent Continent.

Torre's mind was a mess. He couldn't understand the situation at all.

They had no enmity with Bright Gate. Why would they come looking for them?

What were they all up to!

“Security—”

Torre had only said a word when the bodyguard responded. His expression was ugly, and his eyes revealed despair. “President, you forgot that our Internet system is paralyzed. The people from Bright Gate are barging in. We can’t even close the door outside.”

There were disputes every day in the Independent Continent. High-tech defensive doors were installed in places like the Chamber of Commerce Alliance. These doors could not be opened without weapons.

But today was a special day.

The Chamber of Commerce Alliance’s Headquarters’ main computer was hacked.

The so-called high-tech defense system also required computer control, so at least at this moment, these awesome defense systems were useless!

Torre’s expression changed.

* * *

Outside Paradise Hotel.

A military-green SUV parked quietly on the road.

A man sat in the driver’s seat. He rolled down the window and placed his hand on the side. His gorgeous face had a lazy expression as he looked at the hotel entrance from afar.

People went in and out.

None of them seemed to be the person he was waiting for.

“Master Wang, Mo Dong and the others have Torre under control.” Gu San lowered his voice and spoke.

Ye Wangchuan took out chewing gum from the side. Before he tore open the wrapping paper, he raised his eyebrows and asked in a low and hoarse voice, “Already?”

Mo Dong moved a full two hours faster than he had expected.

Ye Wangchuan glanced in his direction. His eyes were deep, and he almost immediately saw through the situation. “Did something happen to the Chamber of Commerce Alliance?”

“How did you know?!” Stunned, Gu San immediately reported to him, “Yes, Mo Dong and the others said that the Chamber of Commerce Alliance’s network happened to be down at that time, and the internal power was cut off. They almost didn’t spend any effort to go in and find Torre.”

He smacked his lips and sighed. “Tsk, they’re so lucky this time.”

Ye Wangchuan looked at him and clicked his tongue lazily. This was the first time he realized that ‘simple people are happier’. For example, Gu San immediately thought that this ‘accident’ was their good luck.

“As long as you’re happy.”

Gu San suddenly sat up straight at this moment.

“Master Wang, I see Miss Qiao.”

Chapter 1699 - 1699 I’ll Go Over and Take a Look. Wait for Me Here

Qiao Nian had just gotten out of a black Buick.

She was still dressed in the style. Her sweater and cap were pulled tightly, and her legs were wrapped in black pants. They were straight and well-proportioned.

Her personal style was very outstanding.

Gu San could recognize Qiao Nian at a glance.

After Qiao Nian got out of the car, she didn't enter the hotel immediately. Instead, she stood beside the car as if talking to someone. Gu San was stunned.

Soon, he knew who Qiao Nian was talking to.

Ji Nan got out of the car from the other side and walked up to the girl. He then said to call him if she was in trouble.

"Uh, who's the person beside Miss Qiao?" Gu San was dumbfounded. His eyes widened as he asked.

Ye Wangchuan's eyes were dark as he reached out to unbuckle his seatbelt. He didn't look angry. "I'll go over and take a look. Stay in the car and wait for me."

"M-Master Wang?!" Gu San was shocked. He instinctively thought that he was angry.

Gu San was anxious as he watched him get out of the car. He wanted to get out of the car to inform Qiao Nian, but he couldn't go against Master Wang's wishes. An idea flashed through his mind. He quickly found his phone and dialed Qiao Nian's number.

"Answer the phone, Miss Qiao." Gu San had been staring at the girl who was talking to someone at the entrance of the hotel. His face was filled with nervousness, and he was still nagging. "Answer the phone, Miss Qiao. Hurry up and answer the phone..."

* * *

"I won't send you up." Ji Nan's refined and handsome face was quite serious as he talked to the girl. "You can call me if you encounter any trouble in the next few days. My phone is turned on 24 hours a day. Call me anytime."

This was not an ordinary promise. One had to know that he was Ji Nan!

He was from the Ji Family of the Independent Continent.

Qiao Nian nodded and was about to wave goodbye when her phone suddenly rang.

Ji Nan frowned. Thinking that the Radiant Gang was looking for her again, he stood rooted to the ground and said to the girl gently, "SN, look at who's calling."

Annoying!

Qiao Nian's head hurt from the ringing of her phone. She took out her phone and looked down to see the caller ID.

Surprised, she frowned slightly, as if a little confused.

Seeing that her reaction was off, Ji Nan asked her softly, "Who is calling? It's so urgent."

"A friend." Qiao Nian didn't answer the call immediately. Instead, she hung up Gu San's call and put her phone back into her pocket, intending to return the call in her hotel room. She looked up, her dark eyes bright. She was about to say goodbye when, unexpectedly, Ji Nan looked behind her, smiled, and said, "SN, your friend is here."

"Huh?"

Qiao Nian looked at him standing there leisurely with his hands in his pockets as if there was really someone behind her.

Who was it?

She turned her head in confusion. She had thought that she would see Nie Mi or Principal Liang.

Unexpectedly, she saw a tall figure.

He was wearing a long windbreaker, which made him look strong and thin. He was walking towards them, and the prayer beads on his wrist looked even redder against his fair skin.

Ye Wangchuan?

Qiao Nian's eyelids twitched. She instantly understood why Gu San had been calling her crazily. He had even called again after she hung up.

Her phone stopped vibrating almost as soon as the man reached her. It was as quiet as a chicken now.

Chapter 1700 - 1700 Hello, I'm Qiao Nian's Boyfriend

Tsk!

Qiao Nian understood. She looked up and asked, not too surprised, "Why are you here?"

Ye Wangchuan had a good temper. He looked lazy and noble as he lowered his head to talk to her. "I sent you a WeChat message. You probably didn't see it."

Qiao Nian was speechless again.

!!

She slowly picked up her phone and opened WeChat. She looked down and saw that there was indeed a new message from an hour ago.

[Y: I'm going to look for you now.]

Qiao Nian was speechless again.

With the evidence in front of her, Qiao Nian was instantly speechless. She put away her phone and coughed guiltily to hide her embarrassment. "Um, I didn't notice."

Ye Wangchuan helped her adjust her cap. He had no intention of complaining as he slowly lowered his hand and said concisely, "I know, that's why I didn't go in to look for you. I've been waiting outside for you to come back."

Ji Nan smiled. He couldn't help but interrupt when he saw their intimate interaction, "S..."

He quickly changed his words and looked at the girl. "Nian Nian, this is...? Aren't you going to introduce him?"

He and Qiao Nian were both outstanding people.

However, Ji Nan's appearance was the same as Qiao Nian's. He was an exquisite type. Compared to Ye Wangchuan, he was not as sharp.

He was more reserved.

In addition, Ji Nan smiled at everyone and didn't show his emotions easily. His temperament was more gentle, and he didn't have Qiao Nian's strong personal style.

Therefore, his aura was more or less suppressed by Ye Wangchuan's more powerful aura as they stood side by side.

However, Ji Nan was Ji Nan, after all. Even though he was standing with Ye Wangchuan and Qiao Nian, he was not suppressed much. He wasn't ignored, either. He still had a presence.

At this moment, he suddenly asked Qiao Nian a question. His scrutinizing gaze was still on the young man. It wasn't very sharp, but he was definitely not the friendly type.

"Ah, he's..." Qiao Nian's attention was pulled back by Ji Nan. She opened her mouth, thinking about how to introduce Ye Wangchuan.

Ye Wangchuan smiled and walked over. He was the first to extend his hand in a friendly manner, and his tone was polite. "Hello, I'm Ye Wangchuan."

Ye Wangchuan?

Ji Nan's smile did not change, but he was not as calm as he appeared on the surface.

He had been to Country Z before, so he had naturally heard of this name.

However, he had never had the chance to meet him.

Ji Nan did not expect him to meet the other party under such circumstances. He did not extend his hand immediately.

However, Ye Wangchuan didn't show any signs of anger. His left hand was still in midair, and his expression was lazy and casual. He smiled again and said lightly, "Qiao Nian's boyfriend."

Ji Nan was stunned. He instinctively glanced in the girl's direction. His eyes seemed to be asking for confirmation.

Qiao Nian was a little irritated by Ji Nan's questioning gaze, but she didn't hesitate. She nodded at him, tacitly agreeing.

Ji Nan was speechless.

Ye Wangchuan had already introduced himself, and he was Qiao Nian's partner.

Even if Ji Nan still had doubts about him, he could not act unfriendly anymore. Hence, he shook the man's hand. He was refined and handsome. "Hello, I'm Ji Nan. I'm Nian Nian's... friend."

In the end, Ji Nan felt a little upset at his self-introduction, as if he had lost.
