

Madam's 1741

Chapter 1741 - 1741 Someone Stole My Prescription and Made a Fake

Qiao Nian had already put the medicine back into the box. Without looking at him, she turned to Grandpa Jiang and said, "Grandpa, can I take this medicine back and study it?"

Old Master Jiang had lived for decades and had long cultivated a pair of sharp eyes. Even if he was old, it did not affect his wisdom.

He almost immediately knew that there was something wrong with this medicine when he saw the girl's abnormal reaction!

He knew it, but some things couldn't be said in front of his son. He could only nod. Just now, he had been talking to Qiao Nian in a refreshed manner, but in the blink of an eye, he looked like he wasn't in good spirits. He said tiredly, "Take it back."

Qiao Nian closed it, unzipped her shoulder bag, and threw the box inside. Then, she stood up and said, "Grandpa, I'll go back first."

"Nian Nian, aren't you going to have dinner with us tonight?" Old Master Jiang looked at her firmly, unable to hide his disappointment.

Qiao Nian glanced at Jiang Zongnan and Jiang Yao beside her. She subconsciously pinched the strap of her shoulder bag and rejected him. "Next time."

* * *

Qiao Nian wasn't in a hurry to leave after walking out of the sanatorium. Instead, she found a spot by the road and leaned against the wall. She took out her phone and called Zhong Yiliu.

Zhong Yiliu picked up immediately. "Why are you calling me? What's the matter? Is it related to the Independent Continent again?"

Qiao Nian leaned against the side of the road and looked up slightly. Her eyes looked dark and deep, and no emotions could be seen in them. She asked him casually, "Dean Zhong, has anyone else seen the formula for the small pills I gave you before?"

"You're talking about the formula from last time?" Zhong Yiliu was at the Pharmacy Association. At this moment, he put down what he was busy with and recalled carefully. He said to her, "No, I'm the only one who has seen that formula. I destroyed it after reading it. Why did you suddenly think of this?"

Qiao Nian smiled, but her eyes were a little cold. She seemed to have thought of something and stuck one hand in her pocket. She looked a little annoyed, and her tone became a little surly. "Someone stole my prescription and made a fake."

She did not expect anyone to use their brainpower on this. She could only say that she was a little surprised and admired the other party's endless methods of courting death.

She had always liked to keep things in her head instead of writing them down on paper. Usually, she would destroy things like prescriptions on the spot.

Of course, nothing was absolute.

Back then, she had casually memorized the prescription for the small pill in the Pharmacy Association library. After that, she did not destroy the draft paper. Instead, she sandwiched it in a book she was reading at that time.

Since the other party had stolen it, he must have obtained the formula from somewhere.

Zhong Yiliu did not expect this to happen. After being stunned for a moment, he immediately said, "Wait a moment. I'll get someone to take a look immediately."

"Yes, thank you."

Qiao Nian hung up the call.

In a private room in Lan Ting.

Ruan Sisi and a few friends who were close to Jiang Xianrou were all present. The people from the overseas Medical Association were also present. Among them, the honorary president of the overseas Medical Association, Master Carlos, was sitting at the head of the table.

He was talking to Jiang Xianrou. From his soft and gentle attitude, it was obvious how much he valued her.

Jiang Xianrou's eyelashes were slightly closed the entire time, and the corners of her mouth were curled up slightly. Arrogant and confident, she replied from time to time, neither servile nor overbearing.

Chapter 1742 - 1742 Sister Nian: No Need, I Know Who Took It

They chatted for a while.

Then, her phone lit up on the table.

She reached for it and looked down.

It was a WeChat message from Jiang Yao.

She opened it carelessly.

Then, her heart skipped a beat.

[Jiang Yao: Did you make that medicine yourself?]

Panic flashed across Jiang Xianrou's face, but she quickly calmed down and replied to him: [Brother, what do you mean? If I don't make it myself, who will?]

After thinking about it, she felt that it was not enough and sent another WeChat message.

[Why are you suddenly asking me this? Did Grandpa say something to you?]

Her expression quickly became calmer. She even asked him: [I developed this medicine at the Pharmacy Association. Is there anything wrong?]

She sent a few messages in a row, but Jiang Yao did not reply to her.

She only thought that he was overreacting and did not take him to heart. She placed her phone back on the table.

Ruan Sisi was talking to the people from the Medical Association. Seeing that Jiang Xianrou was playing with her phone, she tilted her head, lowered her voice, and asked in surprise, "What's wrong?"

"Nothing. My brother sent me a message asking where I am," she replied indifferently.

"Oh." Ruan Sisi did not think too much about it. She retracted her gaze and turned back to talk to the others.

Seeing that her curiosity was appeased, Jiang Xianrou's gaze subconsciously drifted to the phone on the table. The phone was silent. Clearly, there was no message.

Jiang Xianrou frowned and felt a little anxious, but she couldn't say what made her uneasy. She forcefully suppressed this uneasiness.

With the prescription in her hands, it was impossible for Qiao Nian to stir up any more trouble!

Her brows slowly relaxed at this thought. She no longer felt conflicted because of Jiang Yao's WeChat message. She turned around and continued to chat with the people from the overseas Medical Association.

* * *

At the same time, on the other side.

Zhong Yiliu called half an hour later.

Qiao Nian looked at the caller ID on her phone screen. She already had an answer, but she still picked up the call.

Zhong Yiliu's deep voice came from the other end of the phone before she could speak. "I asked Robert to take a look. The page you mentioned is indeed gone."

He couldn't hide his anger. "I didn't expect the Pharmacy Association to have such a person! I've already asked them to find out who took the formula."

"There's no need to check."

Qiao Nian looked at the pill in her hand. The white pill looked no different from the medicine on the black market.

However, there was actually a difference between the two. It was just that people who were not of a high enough level could not tell the difference. They had to put it in the laboratory for comparison experiments to find out.

“I know who took it.”

The prescription she left in the Pharmacy Association was only a draft. Although it wrote which medicinal herbs were useful, it did not write the dosage of each medicinal herb.

She had just tried Jiang Xianrou’s pill. At first glance, it looked very similar to her small pill, but the dosage was actually random.

The side effects after eating it would not be obvious at the time, but it was hard to say later.

When it came to medicine... the slightest mistake would cause a huge difference in impact!

After obtaining the prescription, if she was willing to study it carefully and use the laboratory to do experiments on the ingredients, she might be able to produce results.

However, she was eager for quick success. After obtaining the prescription, she did not study it seriously. Instead, she created a fake based on her intuition.

Chapter 1743 - 1743 Doesn't It Explain Everything If They Look For Me?

“Who?” Zhong Yiliu asked.

Qiao Nian’s deep black eyes were cold. Her gaze was so sharp that it was as if a ferocious beast was about to pounce.

The corners of her mouth twitched as she threw the fake pill into the trash can. Her eyes were dry as she said a name. “Jiang Xianrou.”

* * *

The Jiang family.

Jiang Xianrou saw Jiang Yao waiting outside her room with a serious expression when she returned from dinner with the people from the overseas Medical Association.

She stopped in her tracks and then walked over. She smiled and greeted the handsome young man blocking her door. "Brother, why are you back?"

She even turned her head and asked dignifiedly, "Didn't you go to Grandpa's place with Dad? What happened? Weren't you supposed to have dinner with Uncle tonight?"

Jiang Yao looked at her deeply. Seeing that her face was rosy and lustrous, his heart sank and he made way. "Have you discussed it with the overseas Medical Association?"

Jiang Xianrou opened the door and went in. She placed her handbag by the bed and picked up a glass of water from the table. Then, she turned around and replied casually, "We're almost done.

"They're planning to invite me to the association tomorrow with all the major accounts. My title is the same one I told Mother before, an associate director."

She feigned a reserved but confident smile. "Actually, I'm not too happy with the title, but Master Carlos still wants me to accumulate more experience. To make it up to me, he even invited me into his laboratory. I've already agreed."

She had been resentful that Qiao Nian had stepped on her and became Elder Huang's personal disciple for so long.

Jiang Xianrou lowered her head and took a sip of water. Her eyes were shining when she looked up again, and she finally felt a little proud. "Brother, I'll be a partner in Master Carlos's laboratory from now on."

Elder Huang and Master Carlos were both honorary presidents of the overseas Medical Association. They were both famous in the medical world.

But she was different from Qiao Nian.

As a partner in the laboratory, she was on the same level as Master Carlos.

Jiang Yao's heart kept sinking when she excitedly shared the good news with him. He looked at her with dark eyes and asked, "Do you think you can do the laboratory work at your level? Have you thought about it? If you can't do it..."

He had yet to finish speaking when Jiang Xian interrupted him impatiently. "Brother, if you're here to lecture me, there's no need.

"I can enter the Pharmacy Association and get the overseas Medical Association to especially fly to Beijing for me. Naturally, I have enough ability to do the laboratory work. Otherwise, why would they look for me? There are so many capable people outside, but they didn't look for them. The fact that they looked for me explains everything."

Jiang Yao was speechless. He rubbed his temples but still frowned. He looked at her with his dark eyes and changed the topic. "By the way, you said that you developed that medicine?"

Jiang Xianrou did not know what he meant. As soon as she returned, he kept finding trouble with her and pestered her.

She was already a little impatient. Without a word, she walked to the dressing table, opened the drawer, took out a notebook, and handed it to him. "This is the prescription I wrote."

She copied down the prescription she had found in the library in her own handwriting. This time, she showed Jiang Yao what she had copied.

Chapter 1744 - 1744 There Have Been Amazing People in Qing University in the Past Few Years, Each More Awesome Than the Last

She was full of confidence and was not afraid of him asking further questions. She continued in a neutral tone, "I already had an idea when I was studying in Teacher Liang's laboratory. This time, I perfected the previous idea after a month of seclusion at the Pharmacy Association. You're looking at the prescription

I wrote. Brother, if you don't believe me, I can take the medicine I gave Grandpa for a test to see if it's the same."

What she said was reasonable, and she had the prescription as evidence.

Jiang Yao couldn't make up his mind for a moment. He frowned and pursed his thin lips tightly. He looked up at her suspiciously. "But you never told me that you knew how to do this—"

"I know it now." Her expression did not change in the face of his doubts. "I was insensible in the past, but I understand now. I've learned a lot in the past few months at the Pharmacy Association. The people there also praised me for my talent. I've already found my direction. I'll continue in this direction in the future."

She would walk to a higher level and steadily leave Qiao Nian behind.

"By the way, Brother, will you repost it when the overseas Medical Association officially announces my appointment tomorrow?" She looked at him expectantly.

Jiang Yao returned the prescription to her and looked at her deeply. He said meaningfully, "I'll repost it if you made this medicine yourself."

* * *

The next day.

At nine in the morning.

Jiang Xianrou's name was on the latest top official announcement of the overseas Medical Association on Weibo, Instagram, and Twitter. It was very impressive.

There was no need to mention the overseas accounts. Basically, everyone in the medical field had noticed this official announcement from the overseas Medical Association.

She was on the hot topic list on Weibo.

“Wow, she became an associate director of the Overseas Medical Association at such a young age? Amazing.”

“I remember that Liang Lu didn’t even have a title when she entered the Overseas Medical Association. Jiang Xian is actually so powerful. Her treatment is considered the best in the country, right?”

“She’s bringing honor to the country.”

“I searched the Baidu Encyclopedia. She’s from Qing University. Qing University has produced amazing people in the past few years. Each one of them is better than the last.”

“I remember that God Qiao is also a student of Qing University, and she also studies medicine.”

“Uh, God Qiao studies medicine? Why do I remember that she won first place in an international computing competition not long ago? F*ck, f*ck, f*ck, she’s actually studying medicine?”

“Previous poster, you didn’t see wrongly. Not only is Qiao Nian studying medicine, but she’s also studying Chinese medicine. Speaking of which, her teacher is also a big shot in the Overseas Medical Association. He’s a Taishan-style Chinese Medicine master. He’s the kind of medical master that receives state subsidies.”

“Elder Huang.”

“Elder Huang.”

This time, the treatment given to Jiang Xianrou by the Overseas Medical Association was the best treatment for newcomers in the history of the association.

Due to such circumstances, her reputation rose.

Ever since Qiao Nian won the computing competition, everyone paid more attention to some things in the professional field than before.

After a while, Jiang Xianrou finally received the spillover benefits.

Many people also wanted to call this leading figure in the medical field to repost the announcement for the younger generation and encourage them.

* * *

Qing University.

Shen Yugui briefly explained the situation online to Elder Huang.

Elder Huang almost immediately threw down the book he was holding as he stood up. He was unable to hide his anger as he asked, "Why didn't I know about this?"

Chapter 1745 - 1745 Face Slapping! Revoking an Official Announcement

"Previously, the association held a few video conferences to discuss this matter. Teacher, you also objected, but Master Carlos and some people in the association agreed. After that, they didn't seem to discuss it with us and directly decided on this through a vote."

Shen Yugui also joined the Overseas Medical Association three months ago through Elder Huang pulling the strings.

He usually knew more about the association since was a newbie and kept abreast of the news. He thought that his teacher knew about this.

It was only now that he realized that the people in the association had not only ignored him, they had not even asked for his teacher's opinion.

“Jiang Xianrou is from Country Z. Logically speaking, I should be proud of her for being able to enter the association. It’s just that she followed Liang Lu previously. We all know her standard.

“I don’t know what Master Carlos and the others are thinking. Why do they have to recruit her and give her such good treatment? The association’s actions are more or less unfair to others.”

The Overseas Medical Association was a big face in the medical world and had always had a good reputation for meritocracy.

Everyone was also proud to join the association.

However, Jiang Xianrou’s situation really ruined the Overseas Medical Association’s reputation.

Now, Jiang Xianrou appeared to bring glory to the country, but it would be underwhelming once her true strength was exposed. From another perspective, she would be embarrassing the domestic medical world.

After all, in such a professional field, if she did not enter with her own strength, it would be a humiliation to her profession.

Elder Huang had the same thought. He closed his eyes and opened them after a while. His expression was serious as he said, “Wait a minute. I’ll contact the Overseas Medical Association. We’ll talk about it after I clarify the situation. If it really doesn’t work, I can only protect the domestic medical industry’s reputation.”

Although domestic medicine had not developed as rapidly as overseas over the years, it had been trying its best to catch up.

Many people had put in a lot of effort for this.

He didn’t want a rat’s poop to spoil a pot of porridge.

As an elder in the medical field, he had to at least show his attitude and backbone.

The call lasted for half an hour.

Then, Elder Huang put down his phone with a solemn expression. He sighed and turned to his disciple. "Help me edit a Weibo post."

Shen Yugui was shocked and wanted to persuade him. "Teacher, do you want to think about it again?"

"There's nothing to think about. I've already thought about it. Help me edit it." Although Elder Huang's complexion was bad, his expression was calm and steady. He did not hesitate. "Use the Chinese Medicine Department's official account."

Shen Yugui knew what he wanted to do and looked at him again. Seeing that the old man had no intention of changing his mind, he composed himself and nodded.

* * *

Originally, only a portion of people paid attention to Jiang Xianrou's official membership. Most people were actually not very interested in this.

In less than two hours after Elder Huang officially announced his withdrawal from the association, some onlookers finally got the highlight.

"What's going on? Is Elder Huang slapping her and the officials of the Overseas Medical Association in the face?"

“F*ck, there are two official announcements. Just now, they said that Jiang Xianrou was going to become one of the associate directors, and then Elder Huang left. The Overseas Medical Association is in a mess. What’s going on?”

“Why do I smell an inside story?”

Chapter 1746 - 1746 Sister Nian: Oh, So How Does She Deserve It?

“Same here. Why did the Overseas Medical Association recruit Jiang Xianrou? I remember that she doesn’t have any achievements in the medical field. She only won a piano award and entered the Piano Association. Why did she enter the Overseas Medical Association and become an associate director?”

But there were also different voices.

“I don’t understand what the Traditional Chinese Medicine Department is doing. The master is at this age, after all. Jiang Xianrou is from Country Z. What’s the difference between embarrassing her and embarrassing the country? This is a little too much.”

“Could Elder Huang be dissatisfied because Jiang Xianrou studied Western medicine?”

In the end, public opinion gradually evolved.

“I heard from a cousin of mine from Qing University that Elder Huang wanted his last disciple to enter the Overseas Medical Association. In the end, the association didn’t take a fancy to her and turned around to officially announce Jiang Xianrou’s membership. After that, Elder Huang left the association.”

This kind of saying was very convincing, especially when it was ‘I heard it from a certain XXX acquaintance’. It always gave people the feeling that there was an insider, and many people believed it.

The popularity of this matter was pushed to a high point.

Qiao Nian had received news from Slim Waist Control late yesterday that the Red Alliance had found something related to Wei Ying.

She let it go for the time being and worked until midnight before going to bed.

When she woke up, her phone was flooded with all kinds of messages.

Qin Si was the most active.

He even added her to a small group. There were only a few people in the group who were usually good friends. Qiao Nian was also included. At this moment, she opened WeChat and 99+ unread messages.

She didn't read any of them.

She raised her eyebrows and looked at the private message Qin Si had sent her.

"Sister Qiao, something happened to the Chinese Medicine Faculty."

Below was a screenshot of the trending topic he had posted, as well as three official announcements.

Now, the Overseas Medical Association had already responded to Elder Huang and Shen Yugui's withdrawal from the association. They first reposted them on Weibo and simply expressed their regret. Then, they played along.

They were quite harsh!

Qiao Nian had just woken up, and her head was still throbbing. Her eyes darkened when she saw the screenshot Qin Si sent her. Half of her face was hidden in the shadows, and only evil coldness could be seen in the corners of her eyes. She was in a bad mood.

Qiao Nian didn't reply to him, nor did she look at the others' messages. She logged out of WeChat, found the Weibo icon on her phone, logged in, and pulled down the editorial box. Her cold and fair fingers typed a few words and then pressed 'Send'.

[Chasing Light: ([Repost] Overseas Medical Association V: She deserves it) Oh, so how does she deserve it?]

She replied to the first comment below.

[Chasing Light: Don't use an idiom randomly. Read more books, read more newspapers, and sleep more if you're not cultured.]

The traffic on Qiao Nian's account was different from the traffic on the verified account of the Chinese Medicine Faculty. Some fans immediately noticed as soon as she reposted it.

"F*ck, I'm sorry. I couldn't help but read the last sentence."

There was a heated discussion in the comments. They directly suppressed the Overseas Medical Association that wanted to retaliate.

Chapter 1747 - 1747 You Mean I Wrongly Accused Her?

The Jiang family.

Jiang Xianrou's expression became ugly after waking up refreshed early in the morning to the current uncontrollable situation.

"Xianrou, don't think too much."

Yesterday, she had told the entire family that the Overseas Medical Association was going to officially announce her membership today. Jiang Zongnan did not go to the company and specially made time to accompany her to witness this moment.

Who knew that what was originally a good thing would become like this in the blink of an eye?

Jiang Zongnan supported his forehead with his hand. For a moment, he did not know how to comfort her. He could only squeeze out a dry reason. "Elder Huang and the others might have planned to leave the association a long time ago. It was just a coincidence that you happened to join the association at this time."

He could comfort her in this way, but he did not believe that it was just a coincidence.

After all, there was less than an hour between Elder Huang's withdrawal announcement and Jiang Xianrou's official announcement to join the Overseas Medical Association.

No one would believe that Elder Huang did not do it on purpose!

The netizens online did not believe it, either!

Tang Wanru looked pale as she frowned and said, "What do Elder Huang and Shen Yugui mean? Doesn't he know Dad? We see each other all the time, and they're acquaintances. Xianrou, a junior, has never offended him. Must he embarrass her like this?"

Jiang Zongnan glared at her and said sternly, "Alright, stop talking. Elder Huang is a master of Chinese medicine and the number one in the country. We wouldn't target a junior with his reputation. There must be a misunderstanding."

Jiang Yao felt the same.

There must be a reason why Elder Huang and Shen Yugui left the Overseas Medical Association.

However, Jiang Xianrou sneered. Her bright eyes could not hide her hatred. "Heh, what misunderstanding? It's all because of Qiao Nian!"

Jiang Zongnan suddenly frowned. His refined face was a little hesitant. "This shouldn't have anything to do with Nian Nian, right? Nian Nian..."

"Dad!" Jiang Xianrou interrupted him abruptly and handed the phone to him. She said angrily, "Take a look for yourself."

[Chasing Light: [Repost] Oh, so how does she deserve it?]

In less than five minutes, there were already more than a thousand comments under this post.

It could be seen that the further one went, the more heated it was.

"Jiang Yao, take a look."

Jiang Zongnan pursed his lips and showed it to his son. For a moment, he didn't know how to evaluate Qiao Nian's actions.

Jiang Yao also lowered his head to read it and returned the phone to his sister. His handsome face looked troubled and he had a headache. He looked at his sister's angry expression and hesitated for a moment before deciding to follow his thoughts. "Qiao Nian isn't such a person."

Jiang Xianrou suspected that she had heard wrongly.

Jiang Yao actually said that Qiao Nian wasn't such a person?

In other words, she was that kind of person instead?

Jiang Xianrou was so angry that her face turned pale. She bit her lip and looked at him in disbelief. "Brother, do you mean that I'm wrongly accusing her?"

However, Jiang Xianrou was furious and refused to let go of his words. "She was the one who posted on Weibo and said that. Could it be that someone forced her to post on Weibo to mock me?"

"I didn't provoke her when I came back this time, but she slandered me online. You even said that she's not that kind of person. I don't understand. Then what kind of person is she?"

Chapter 1748 - 1748 The Pharmacy Association Fired Jian Xianrou

Jiang Yao had been raised by Old Master Jiang since he was young. He still had the basic gentlemanly demeanor. He disliked arguing with women, let alone his sister.

He frowned. Even though he was a little annoyed, he still explained good-naturedly, "I told you, that's not what I meant. But there's nothing I can do if you want to think that way."

Jiang Xianrou was so angry that her eyes turned red.

Tang Wanru couldn't stand it anymore. She immediately glared at her son unhappily and said in a deep voice, "Yao'er, don't forget that your sister is your family. Qiao Nian has already separated from us and even blocked your number. Why are you standing up for her? She won't accept your kindness no matter how much you stand on her side! On the other hand, this is your sister. Have you ever thought that saying this would hurt her?"

Jiang Yao was distraught and did not have time to explain when Jiang Xianrou's phone buzzed and vibrated.

She suppressed the anger in her heart that she had nowhere to vent and looked down at her phone. She saw that Ruan Sisi had sent her a WeChat voice message, and she sounded quite anxious.

[Xianrou, look at the Pharmacy Association's Instagram.]

Pharmacy Association?

Her heart sank. She couldn't care less about arguing with Jiang Yao and quickly logged out of WeChat to log into her Instagram account.

Far fewer people were on Instagram than on Weibo.

However, there were still many medical enthusiasts following the Pharmacy Association's account.

She looked over and saw the latest update from the Pharmacy Association five minutes ago.

—[After verifying that a member of our association, Jiang Xianrou, has violated the association's rules, we have decided to expel this member from the Pharmacy Association and never recruit her again.]

Her mind went blank. She couldn't believe what she was seeing.

The Pharmacy Association fired her?

Her fingertips were cold, and her heart felt a sharp pain. The pain pierced through her limbs and bones, and she couldn't move for a moment.

Tang Wanru was shocked when she saw her pale face. She hurriedly stood up and asked her, "Xianrou, what's wrong?"

Jiang Xianrou felt as if her throat was blocked. She opened her mouth but could not make a sound. Her eyes were fixed on her mother.

Tang Wanru was even more worried now. She leaned over to look at her phone. Upon seeing the contents clearly, her expression changed slightly. She covered her mouth and suddenly retreated. "The Pharmacy Association fired you?"

Jiang Zongnan was shocked when he heard this. He asked in a low voice, "Xianrou, what's going on?"

His head hurt terribly, and he paced back and forth in frustration. He still thought that this was too strange.

"You were doing well in the Pharmacy Association. Why would they suddenly fire you..."

Jiang Yao was the calmest among the four of them. His eyes were deep and his handsome face was still calm as he took the phone from her. "Let me take a look."

He calmly read the post, then opened the comments section below.

Logically speaking, an organization at the level of the Pharmacy Association would not answer such a message, but they did this time.

The Pharmacy Association also gave a very humiliating answer.

Jiang Yao looked sharply at the pale person and handed the phone over when he saw the Pharmacy Association's answer. His expression was serious as he asked, "The Pharmacy Association said that you stole something. What did you steal?"

Chapter 1749 - 1749 The Reason for Her Being Fired Was a Slap in Her Face

Jiang Xianrou's pupils constricted as she suddenly raised her head, and her hands clenched tightly by her sides. Her heart suddenly sped up, so fast that it seemed about to jump out of her throat.

"I—" She was so nervous that her voice was slightly hoarse.

Jiang Yao seemed to have guessed it and asked her, "The medicine you gave Grandpa—"

Jiang Xianrou shouted before he could finish speaking, "I made that medicine myself!"

Jiang Yao did not expect such a big reaction. He paused and looked into her eyes. "But the Pharmacy Association said that you stole it."

Jiang Xianrou was at a loss for words.

First of all, she did not believe that the Pharmacy Association would discover what she had done in private so quickly.

Secondly, she always thought that even if the Pharmacy Association found out about it, they would at least ask her in private and then deal with it quietly.

After all, the pills were quite mysterious. No one knew who made them.

Since the formulation didn't have an owner, how could the Pharmacy Association be so sure that she did not make it?

No matter how she thought about it, she could not figure out why the Pharmacy Association would not ask her why she said that she had stolen something. Weren't they afraid of a reversal?

After thinking about it, she could only think of one reason. "It's Qiao Nian."

Her voice was very low.

She was so angry that her entire body was trembling, and her shoulders were also trembling non-stop. It was obvious that she was suppressing herself from bursting out.

The rest of the family looked at her.

Jiang Zongnan and Jiang Yao frowned simultaneously.

Why was Qiao Nian involved again?

However, she did not give them a chance to speak and insisted, "She's messing with me on purpose!"

She was very angry this time. It was as if a ball of fire was burning in her chest. It was so hot that she wished she could rush to Rhine and find the culprit to ask her in person.

So angry that she felt dizzy, she didn't stand on ceremony anymore. "She must have asked Dean Zhong to fire me."

She could have gone to the Independent Continent with the Pharmacy Association, but Qiao Nian had called Zhong Yiliu, and she lost the chance to go there.

It was the same this time!

Wasn't this Qiao Nian's usual method?

So angry that her eyes were bloodshot, she stood up and snatched the phone from Jiang Yao's hand. Then, she said expressionlessly, "I'm going out for a while."

* * *

In a laboratory of Country M, Pharmaceutical Association.

"Teacher."

The man walked very quickly and arrived in front of the old man in the blink of an eye. He looked a little anxious as he rushed into the laboratory and said, "The Overseas Medical Association is asking us about what happened on Instagram and what we mean by stealing."

The old man was fully focused on the changes in the potion in the test tube. Thus, he only nodded distractedly.

Robert stood beside him and looked at the test tube on the experiment table. Then, he looked at him worriedly and continued, "Jiang Xianrou also sent me an email asking me why the association fired her. She asked us to show evidence that she violated the association's rules."

Zhong Yiliu's eyebrows did not even twitch when he heard this, as if the dispute outside had nothing to do with him.

He waited for the first drug experiment to be completed before pouring the liquid from the test tube into the sink and then returning the cleaned test tube to the table.

Chapter 1750 - 1750 What Exactly Did She Steal?

Then, he wiped the water off his hands with a towel.

Glancing at his student standing uneasily at the side, he threw the towel back on the experiment table and then asked unhurriedly, "Since when does our Pharmacy Association care about what others think?"

Robert stood rooted to the ground.

Zhong Yiliu said proudly, "We can't control them. The people outside can say whatever they want. We just have to do our own thing. We won't be able to do research anymore if we have to pay attention to the slightest movement. It's useless to do research if you can't calm down. You won't achieve anything."

The Overseas Medical Association had been slapped in the face by them this time. It was said that Master Carlo was contacting other organizations in the medical world, determined to stand up for Jiang Xianrou.

This was also why Robert rushed in impatiently.

Now that he had been taught a lesson by his teacher, his impetuous heart immediately calmed down.

He lowered his head in shame.

After a while, he looked up again and wanted to say something, but he hesitated. In the end, he asked curiously, "Teacher, what did she steal to make you so angry?"

Zhong Yiliu did not want to tell him at first, but seeing that he was indeed curious and there was nothing he could not tell him.

He was not ashamed of such academic theft.

Naturally, there was no need to cover up for the thief.

He simply said, "She stole Q's prescription."

"Q?" Robert was not stupid. He immediately remembered that Jiang Xianrou stayed in the library all day when she came to the Pharmacy Association. She had even asked him about the only Chinese medicine book in the library. For a moment, he did not know what to say. He only muttered, "So it's related to Q. No wonder you're so angry."

Zhong Yiliu had the same attitude toward everyone, but he valued Q from the bottom of his heart.

Robert had been by his side for a long time and knew how much his teacher valued Q.

Unexpectedly, Zhong Yiliu looked at him and corrected him with a cold gaze. "You're wrong. My anger has nothing to do with who she stole from.

"I would still have the same attitude even if she stole the prescription of an ordinary member. Stealing is stealing. Since ancient times, no one has been right in stealing. Most people can have no bottom line, but academics must have a bottom line! The Pharmacy Association will never tolerate such a person..."

Robert was silent for a full minute. He had already made his own judgment in his heart. He nodded at his teacher with a serious expression and said in a low voice, "I understand."

Then, he went out to reply to the emails from Jiang Xianrou and the Overseas Medical Association.

Zhong Yiliu watched him go out, then walked to the side and sat in front of his old desktop computer. He found a contact and sent a message to the person named Q.

* * *

It should be a good thing for her to officially join a large professional medical organization like the Overseas Medical Association, but so many things happened.

In particular, Jiang Xian's joyous occasion was immediately tainted with a layer of haze and became a joke when someone saw the statement of the Pharmacy Association on Instagram and its screenshot posted on Weibo.

After Qiao Nian reposted it on Weibo, she replied to a round of WeChat messages. After washing up, she turned on her computer and saw Zhong Yiliu's message.

[Z: I didn't discuss expelling Jiang Xianrou with you. However, I definitely won't let her stay in the association anymore. Sorry, I'll tell you in advance the next time something like this happens again.]
