

Madam's 1751

Chapter 1751 - 1751 Sorry, You Can't Go In

Qiao Nian's dark eyes swept across Zhong Yiliu's email. Her eyes darkened, but she didn't say anything and closed the email.

Then, she went online to take a look.

Her Weibo post's popularity was still growing. It was originally not a big deal, but because too many people were invested in the drama, the popularity increased.

There were several trending topics about it on the trending list.

Qiao Nian narrowed her eyes. Not very interested in the follow-up comments and private messages she was tagged in, she went offline after roughly reading the public opinion on Weibo.

At this moment, she received a WeChat video call request from the Independent Continent.

Qiao Nian lowered her eyes and stared at a certain person's profile picture that popped up on her phone. She pressed her temples and rubbed her dry eyes. Then, she picked up the earpiece on the table, stuffed it into her cochlea, adjusted her phone on the table, and accepted the video call.

On another side, at the entrance of Rhine Apartments.

A guard in a formal uniform said solemnly, "I'm sorry, you can't enter if you do not live here."

Jiang Xianrou ran over on impulse. At this moment, she was standing at Rhine's entrance and looking at the cars and people entering and leaving. Her face was hot and embarrassed.

She gripped her bag tightly and took a deep breath, then looked at the guard and said very nicely, "A relative of mine lives here. I came to look for her."

Having just let a car with a Beijing license plate pass, the guard turned around and took the time to size her up, as if he didn't believe that she had relatives living there.

After all, Rhine Apartments was no ordinary place.

Those who could live here were not ordinary people.

However, she was well-dressed and did not look like the kind of person who wanted to take the opportunity to sneak in.

After sizing her up, the guard retracted his gaze and said with a straight face, "Then call your relative and ask her to pick you up or call the guard's office. I'll let you in then. Otherwise, you still can't go in."

The Jiang family was reputable in Beijing.

As one of the most outstanding women in the capital, Jiang Xianrou had never suffered such humiliation.

But she knew exactly what sort of place Rhine was.

Although the Jiang family had a reputation and status in the capital, they were nothing in a place like Rhine.

Although all the blood in her body rushed to her brain and she was so angry that she wanted to speak to Qiao Nian immediately, she didn't dare to barge in.

The guard ignored her after telling her to call her relative to let her in.

Jiang Xianrou's face turned cold. She walked to the side and opened her bag, took out her phone, found Qiao Nian's number, and dialed it.

The outcome was obvious.

She had long been blacklisted by Qiao Nian.

She couldn't get through at all.

Her temples bulging, she took a deep breath and walked to the guard's office to borrow his phone. "I'm sorry, my phone is out of service. Can I borrow your phone? I'll ask her to come down and pick me up."

The guard did not expect this as he saw that she was dressed in branded clothes. He looked at her from head to toe and said after a long time, "Wait for me."

Jiang Xianrou wished she could find a hole to hide in. However, she could only stand straight in place with a numb face and pretend not to see the disdain in the guard's eyes.

Fortunately, the guard quickly handed her an old-fashioned black phone. "Hurry up and call her. Get your relative to come down and pick you up."

Chapter 1752 - 1752 Face Slap, Jiang Xianrou Faces Sister Nian

Suppressing her humiliation, she took his phone and searched her contact list looking for Qiao Nian's number. After she found it, she entered it into the borrowed phone. Then, she dialed it.

Beep...

Sure enough, the call went through this time.

Jiang Xianrou let out a shaky breath, and her eyes seemed to be covered in a layer of frost. Her face was cold and she was expressionless as she prepared to call her out and question her.

The guard stood not far away, waiting for her to return his phone.

Jiang Xianrou was ready, and yet...

The phone only rang once before it was hung up.

"I'm sorry, the user you're calling is busy. Please call again later." She heard the mechanical female voice in her ear as if she had been slapped.

Unwilling to give up, she called again.

This time, it was even faster.

"Sorry, the user you're calling is busy. Please call again later..."

She didn't wait for the robotic female voice to finish speaking.

She hung up and called again.

This time, it didn't even ring. A mechanical female voice told her that the user she was calling was busy!

A surge of anger rushed to the top of her head. She was so angry that her shoulders began to tremble, and she wished she could smash the phone.

Qiao Nian!

"What's wrong with you? Your relative didn't answer your call?" The guard had been waiting for her all this time. He had watched her make seven calls, but she seemed to have been ignored by the other party. Now, he could no longer hide his doubts. “Does your relative not live here? Don’t tell me you found the wrong place.”

Jiang Xianrou returned the phone to him silently. She could not say a word in the face of extreme humiliation. Then, she left without even saying thank you.

* * *

Her car was parked by the roadside not far away.

Her footsteps became faster and faster. When she reached the car, she opened the door and got in first before slamming the door shut.

After a bang, she took out her phone from her bag and scrolled Weibo.

Public opinion had begun to turn against her ever since Qiao Nian posted on Weibo.

The Overseas Medical Association’s official Weibo post was filled with doubts after the Pharmacy Association’s announcement of her dismissal on Instagram was screenshotted and posted on Weibo by someone with ulterior motives.

All of this was because of Qiao Nian!

At this moment, her face was as dark as water, and the frost in her eyes was like icicles.

In her anger, coupled with the fact that she was stopped by the guard at the door and could not enter, she lost face. Unable to hold back anymore, she logged into her Weibo and wrote a new post.

[Jiang Xianrou V: I know you’re not satisfied with me joining the Overseas Medical Association, but I think there’s no need to play tricks behind others’ backs. @Zui Guang @Qing University Chinese Medicine Faculty]

Jiang Xianrou was somewhat famous, to begin with. She also participated in many interviews and variety shows as a Qing University top student and Jiang Li's biological sister.

She had a lot of fans on Weibo.

However, she rarely updated her account.

This time, as she had joined the Overseas Medical Association, she had been pushed to the center of attention. Many onlookers were paying close attention to her and waiting for her to speak.

However, no one expected her to be so stubborn!

Without any room for negotiation, she pointed out that Qiao Nian and Elder Huang were stirring up public opinion behind her back and digging a hole for her.

She even tagged them.

Moreover, she tagged the Chinese Medicine Faculty of Qing University!

Chapter 1753 - 1753 Throwing Out the Awards

She did not stay at the entrance of Rhine after she posted her first shot on Weibo.

She threw her phone on the passenger seat and turned the car around. Then, she stepped on the accelerator and drove towards home...

An hour later.

She updated her Weibo account again.

This time, she threw out seven or eight pictures without saying a word.

The netizens clicked on the photos and realized that they were all the medical awards she had received in the past.

Even though she had posted a lot of photos and they looked quite impressive, the netizens were no longer fools.

Someone immediately noticed the 'secret' about the awards that were almost enough to fill up nine grids.

[Riding a Pig to Travel: Erm... Why are they all group awards? Only one or two are her personal awards.]

[Youmi has Rice: It's true. They're almost all group awards. I looked on Baidu. The individual awards for the first and second last place are the kind that doesn't have much value.]

Of course, some people would naturally support her.

This time, she threw out seven or eight photos in one go, shocking many netizens who did not know the truth. This group of people was basically on her side.

[Sun in the Sky: Aren't some people's fans too critical? So what if it's a team award? She's also a member of the team. Team honor isn't her honor? Hehe, it's too ridiculous for some people to look down on a team award!]

[I'm Not Working: Jiang Xianrou threw out the awards to counter Qiao Nian's doubts. Logically speaking, shouldn't Qiao Nian show evidence now? Otherwise, what right do she and her teacher have to attack others online? Traditional Chinese medicine is indeed unrepresentable. I can't stand them using the national artifacts to confuse us. Other than those who are bored and have nothing better to do, who else would use Chinese Medicine?]

There were many Likes and replies under this user's comment.

Some people advised him not to escalate it to the Chinese medicine department or it would be a personal attack on Mr. Huang.

However, the user was very stubborn. Whenever someone replied to him below, he would retort with: "Don't argue with me. If you argue with me, you win! (#`O`)"

Actually, most of the people who replied to him only advised him not to make a mountain out of a molehill. There was no need to make things so ugly before figuring out the situation.

Almost no one said anything harsh.

When he replied, many netizens who didn't understand the cause and effect thought that the person who left a message was an online attacker.

The victim was well-established, and people misunderstood him as someone who was neither servile nor overbearing and spoke up for justice.

Some people who supported him simply pushed him to the top.

* * *

Rhine Apartments.

Qiao Nian's video call lasted for an hour.

Ye Wangchuan had already found the person behind the Chamber of Commerce Alliance and the whereabouts of the missing Wang Fei. He was in the process of wrapping up.

At the same time, he told her when he would be back.

Qiao Nian mainly listened to him. She would occasionally interrupt, but she didn't say much.

Gu San and Mo Dong were also there. Gu San told her a lot about what had happened in the Independent Continent.

Mo Dong, on the other hand, did not say much.

Qiao Nian noticed him sneaking glances at her from time to time.

However, she couldn't be bothered to talk to someone she wasn't familiar with.

Since Mo Dong did not take the initiative to talk to her, she had nothing to say to him either.

Everyone minded their own business and kept their distance from each other.

Chapter 1754 - 1754 Some People Like to Kill Themselves

On the other hand, Mo Dong said goodbye to her in a low voice as she hung up the video call. Qiao Nian didn't care much. Her dark eyes were half-closed as she nodded and hung up casually.

Then, she was bombarded with all kinds of notifications.

Qiao Nian stood up and fetched a glass of water. Then, she sat cross-legged on the chair and glanced at Chen Yuan's message.

Not looking at anyone else's messages, turned on her computer, typed on the keyboard with one hand, and logged into Weibo.

Jiang Xianrou's response was in the top five trending topics.

[Jiang Xianrou V: I know you're not satisfied with me joining the Overseas Medical Association, but I think there's no need to play tricks behind others' backs. @Zhui Guang @Qing University Chinese Medicine Faculty]

Each word was sonorous and powerful as if they were full of confidence.

Qiao Nian was read patiently at first. However, she saw that not only was she tagged, but also the Qing University Chinese Medicine Faculty.

Her words implied that Elder Huang was suppressing an outstanding junior like her!

Qiao Nian's eyes quickly turned cold, and a low pressure brewed between her eyebrows. She was rarely unable to restrain her hostility. However, she was really a little angry now.

At this moment.

After Jiang Xianrou's response, the Overseas Medical Association, which had been silent all this time, also made a post.

The two sides seemed to have come to an agreement.

[Overseas Medical Association V: Photo.jpg]

Qiao Nian opened the photo with her cold and fair hand. It was immediately enlarged on the screen, enough to see the words clearly.

—This is a patent protection certificate for a new drug developed in the medical field.

The first line was very clear. Jiang Xianrou had developed a drug that was recognized by the Pharmacy Association as a secret drug.

Anything that involved the word 'secret' was enough to prove its value!

The words “Ms. Jiang Xianrou” were written on the patent certificate, clearly showing everyone her contribution.

Qiao Nian looked at the certificate thrown out by Jiang Xianrou and the Overseas Medical Association to prove her worth.

Suddenly, she smiled.

Her eyes were still slightly bloodshot from not sleeping well. The corners were slightly red, and her raised eyebrows were surly.

The corners of Qiao Nian’s lips curled up as she stared at the photo.

She really did not expect her to apply for a patent.

The sharpness in Qiao Nian’s eyes was terrifying as she picked up her phone and called Wei Lou. “Do you still have the things I left with you at the beginning?”

...

Public opinion completely reversed after the Overseas Medical Association’s Weibo post was released.

Most people were supporting her and scolding Qiao Nian.

But this was not the end.

Previously, Jiang Xianrou had even tagged the Qing University’s Chinese Medicine Faculty. Now, many people were angrily criticizing the Chinese Medicine Faculty for having trash professors.

In addition, Jiang Xianrou shouted at Elder Huang.

Many people also began to question if a master of the Chinese Medicine Faculty was qualified to be regarded as a master. They questioned if he had a corrupted character and was petty. He could not tolerate outstanding juniors from other majors and even used his authority to deliberately suppress them behind their backs.

Jiang Xianrou and the Overseas Medical Association's combined attack was played beautifully and they managed to change public opinion! It directly reversed the situation that was disadvantageous to them.

There was even a trend of wanting to end the Chinese Medicine Faculty and Elder Huang.

Chapter 1755 - 1755 Jiang Xianrou, Delete Your Post Immediately!

At the Jiang family home.

Jiang Xianrou had just come out of the shower and was drying her hair when Jiang Li called.

She saw the caller ID flashing on her phone but did not want to answer it.

However, Jiang Li was obviously unyielding. He called twice in a row, intending to call until she picked up.

Annoyed, she draped her half-blown hair over her shoulders, walked towards the dressing table, and picked up her phone.

"Hey."

She had just greeted him when Jiang Li immediately said coldly, "Jiang Xianrou, delete your post immediately!"

Jiang Xianrou was already impatient to answer his call as she knew he would definitely say something she didn't like to hear.

Nevertheless, Jiang Li's request had successfully infuriated her. She immediately retorted, "Why didn't you ask Qiao Nian to delete her post? Get this straight. She was the one who caused trouble for me first."

Jiang Li paused for a moment. Then, he asked her calmly, "The Pharmacy Association said that you stole something from them. Is that true?"

This undoubtedly poked at her most secretive and sensitive part.

She almost immediately flew into a rage out of humiliation and asked him, "What did I steal? Do they have evidence? They just said it casually. They didn't even take out any evidence, and you called to question me. Am I your sister or not?"

"Why do I feel that you and Qiao Nian are siblings and I am an outsider?"

Jiang Li knew that she would definitely say this. His voice did not fluctuate much. It was still calm and cold, filled with warning. "I've told you many times not to provoke Nian Nian. You'd better delete your post. Don't blow things up to the point where they can't be cleaned up."

No longer wanting to listen to him, Jiang Xianrou hung up the call in a fit of pique.

She had just hung up when there was a knock on the door.

Turning her phone to silent mode and taking a deep breath, she adjusted her mood and walked over to open the door.

She saw Jiang Yao outside.

"Brother."

Her mood improved a little, and she moved aside to let him in.

Jiang Yao walked in and scanned her room with his handsome eyes. Then, he walked to the desk and dragged out a chair. He leaned slightly to the side but did not sit down as he looked at her. "You posted on Weibo?"

Jiang Xianrou was about to close the door and continue drying her hair when she heard his question. She immediately stopped and looked at him, her eyes already starting to become impatient. "Brother, don't tell me you also want me to delete my post?"

Jiang Yao was stunned.

Seeing his reaction, she could already tell why he was looking for her. She became even more distraught. "Jiang Li just called me and asked me to delete my post. I rejected him."

Jiang Yao became famous at a young age and entered Tian Chen early. Although he was later fired, it was undeniable that he was outstanding in all aspects.

How could such a person not understand the meaning behind his sister's words?

However, he still said to the girl, "It's not that I don't want you to delete your post, but you shouldn't involve the Chinese Medicine Faculty and Old Huang. Old Huang is your elder. After the commotion, many netizens on the Internet went to attack him..."

Jiang Xianrou was unmoved. She had no intention of deleting her Weibo.

She retorted expressionlessly, "They didn't consider my feelings when they left the Overseas Medical Association. They didn't think about whether the netizens would attack me. Why should I consider their feelings?"

Chapter 1756 - 1756 Another Weibo Post

Jiang Yao didn't know why she was so hostile this time. He frowned and tried to reason with her. "Elder Huang only left the Overseas Medical Association and didn't cause trouble for you behind your back as you said on Weibo. Your post implied that Elder Huang is targeting you behind your back..."

“He’s Qiao Nian’s teacher. How would I know if he’s deliberately targeting me behind my back? It’s not like he can’t do it to protect Qiao Nian,” Jiang Xianrou interrupted before he could finish speaking.

After saying that, she didn’t seem to want to talk to Jiang Yao anymore. She walked to the dressing table, picked up the hairdryer, then chased him away coldly. “Brother, I’m going to blow dry my hair.”

Jiang Yao stood rooted to the ground, speechless.

However, she refused to listen. He also couldn’t snatch her phone and forcefully delete her post.

However, this time, she had gone too far by directly involving the Chinese Medicine Faculty and Elder Huang.

After all, they did nothing wrong. They had only left the Overseas Medical Association.

He was originally a member of the association. It was his freedom to stay in the association or leave it. As soon as he posted on Weibo, his private choice turned into him deliberately targeting an outstanding junior. This was more or less ruining her reputation...

Elder Huang was a big shot in Chinese medicine. He contributed a lot to Chinese medicine in his life.

Such a person deserved the respect of the younger generation.

He didn’t want her to not even have the most basic respect for such an older medical expert!

“Xianrou...” Jiang Yao hesitated to ask her to delete her post again.

However, she ignored him and blew dry her hair as if she did not hear him.

Halfway through, her phone on the table lit up. She looked down and saw that it was a message from Jiang Li, but it was a WeChat message.

She didn't need to open it to see a line of small words on the screen.

[Jiang Li: Let me give you another piece of advice. Hurry up and delete your post!]

[Jiang Li: Delete your post. Qiao Nian will let you off for the sake of our family. Don't make things so bad that no one can help you.]

Her beautiful eyes narrowed slightly.

She didn't even bother to reply as she felt that it was ridiculous.

Her eyes were filled with undisguised contempt.

What could Qiao Nian do to her?

She didn't believe she would rush to the door like a hooligan to cause trouble for her!

Jiang Xianrou scoffed. Even if Qiao Nian could do such a thing, she wasn't afraid. At most, she would make things worse. Anyway, public opinion was on her side now. What she wanted was to completely destroy Qiao Nian and the entire Chinese Medicine Faculty.

This was only the first step.

In the future, she would climb higher and walk steadily, trampling all the people who had once looked down on her.

Finished, she put down the hairdryer. However, her phone lit up again at this moment.

This time, it was not WeChat.

Someone was calling.

It was none other than Zhang Yang.

She looked at his name on the caller ID in amusement. She directly hung up, not giving the other party a chance to plead for Qiao Nian.

Calmly opening Weibo, she wrote another post and posted it.

[Jiang Xianrou V: There's no need for everyone to contact me in private. I still have the same attitude. Let's talk directly. Thank you.]

Chapter 1757 - 1757 My Heart Would Hurt After Spending Thirty-Five Yuan If It Was Anyone Else

She felt much better after her latest Weibo post.

In order to prevent more people from bargaining with her, she simply turned off her phone and began to wipe her face with a skincare product.

The corners of her lips even curled up slightly, and she did not hide her victorious stance.

In a cafe in the city center.

Wei Lou had arrived a long time ago.

He found a spot outside and ordered a cup of coffee and peach juice without sugar from the waiter. He would definitely drink the coffee. The cup of peach juice was for Qiao Nian.

He remembered that she didn't like coffee, milk tea, and sweet things.

The shop assistant brought his coffee after a while.

Wei Lou picked up the cup and took a sip. Then, he raised his wrist to look at the time on his watch. There were still five minutes before Qiao Nian's appointment with him.

A certain someone had always been punctual.

He began to look around.

Sure enough, at the bus stop, he saw a familiar figure walking in his direction at a moderate pace.

Quite a lot of people were on the streets this Friday afternoon.

There was no shortage of students and white-collar workers walking by.

The girl walked amongst the crowd.

In the early autumn weather, Qiao Nian walked over in a white sweater. She was wearing a cap that covered her beautiful face and a pair of canvas shoes with no laces. She casually stuffed the laces at the side and slowly walked over.

Earphones were plugged into her ears, and the cables went down her sweater. She didn't look intimidating at all.

However, her aura was strong.

Even though she was dressed very casually, her simple outfit was already eye-catching. She couldn't be ignored.

Wei Lou had not seen her for a long time. Seeing the girl from afar made him feel like a lifetime had passed.

Fortunately, he came back to his senses when Qiao Nian crossed the road not far from the coffee shop.

"Qiao Nian, over here." Wei Lou waved at the girl.

She immediately walked over upon seeing him.

Coincidentally, the shop assistant placed the freshly squeezed fruit juice on the table at this moment.

Qiao Nian pulled out a chair, sat down, and raised her eyebrows as she looked at the young man opposite her with her beautiful eyes. Then, she asked in a familiar tone, "Did you order it for me?"

"Tsk." Wei Lou smiled sloppily as he leaned back and gestured with his chin for her to look at the coffee in front of him. "Who else can I give it to? Only you can spend my money. Others won't even have a chance."

Qiao Nian sat diagonally on the chair, her arm resting on the armrest. Sitting lazily, from this direction she could see the price list from the corner of her eye. Her lips curled up, wild and impatient. "35 yuan is also worth mentioning."

"What? I would've felt the pinch if it was anyone else." He covered his chest exaggeratedly as if his heart was aching.

The corners of Qiao Nian's mouth twitched. Her eyes stung. Coincidentally, her phone was by her hand. She picked it up and found his profile picture, then transferred a sum of money. "Take it."

"I'm just joking." Although Wei Lou said that, he immediately found his phone and beamed with joy when he saw the money she transferred to him. He said improperly, "Thank you for raising me, God Qiao."

God Qiao...

Recently, Qiao Nian had been very sensitive to these two words. She raised her eyebrows and glanced at him. Her voice was slightly hoarse as she spoke. "Return the money to me if you don't want it."

Chapter 1758 - 1758 I'm Not the One Who Wants to Hammer Her to Death, She's the One Who Wants to Hammer Herself to Death

Seeing her speechless reaction, Wei Lou smiled and said, "Don't you know? Recently, everyone has been calling you that on the Internet. Your fans don't call you Chasing Light anymore. They're all calling you God Qiao, Big Boss, and Big Boss Qiao."

Qiao Nian could barely ignore his teasing when she heard the first two names. But she couldn't take it anymore at the last one. She knocked on the table and raised her eyes arrogantly. "Did you bring what I asked for?"

Wei Lou said seriously, "Don't worry. You specifically asked me for it. How can I forget?"

As he spoke, he took out a USB flash drive and handed it to the girl.

Then, he looked at her and straightened his expression. Unlike the cheeky smile from earlier, he now asked her seriously, "Are you planning to hammer her to death this time?"

Qiao Nian took the USB flash drive from him and inserted it into the tablet computer she had brought. Then, she sent the data to the Medical Certification Agency.

It would take some time for the other side to respond.

Qiao Nian wasn't in a hurry. She placed the tablet on her lap and waited for a reply. As she did so, she casually picked up the drink Wei Lou had ordered for her and took a sip. She leaned back lazily, a hint of coldness between her brows as she looked at him with her dark eyes, not avoiding him at all. "It's not that I plan to hammer her to death. She wants to hammer herself to death. I'm just helping her fulfill her wish."

Wei Lou snorted and didn't have any objections. However, he remembered something. "Speaking of which, she's quite good at courting death. People have been buying and selling the small pills on the black market since a few days ago."

Qiao Nian looked at him.

Wei Lou smiled. "You haven't had time to make it since you were in your third year of high school. The black market hasn't seen this medicine for a long time. Now that the small pill appeared again, those people are fighting for it like crazy. They all think it's the same as yours. Many of our old customers bought it.

"The seller is also very good at winning people over. She won't reject them as long as it's someone with a background. She's very good at doing favors." Speaking of this, Wei Lou's smile was a little ambiguous.

Qiao Nian was lazy in the past. She had set a rule that she would only sell three pills a month. It wouldn't exceed this number. Moreover, if they couldn't buy it, they wouldn't be able to buy it.

She wouldn't even give the emperor face.

But Jiang Xianrou was different.

In order to rope in various factions, she sold at least three to four bottles in a few days.

"She placed more than a hundred pills in the black market this time." Wei Lou's voice was soft, and the corners of his eyes and eyebrows revealed contempt for her petty behavior.

The small pill was so precious on the black market because it was rare.

What she did seemed to have short-term benefits, but in fact, her actions were no different from killing the goose that laid the golden eggs and destroying the small pill's value.

If the small pill lost its original value, how much value could the seller have?

She actually did not understand such simple logic.

Wei Lou could only say that she was blinded by benefits.

“A hundred?” Qiao Nian was a little surprised at first. She was surprised that she could make so many fakes in such a short period of time. She didn’t know if she should praise her for her hard work.

Then, she remembered the medicine that Jiang Zongnan gave to Old Master Jiang.

Just one.

It was even packed in a brocade box.

Jiang Xianrou even reminded him repeatedly that this medicine was very rare and that she only got one pill. She would get it for Old Master Jiang when there was more.

She was enlightened.

It turned out that it was not that she did not have more, but in her eyes, her family was only worthy of one pill.

The computer on her lap dinged at this moment. Qiao Nian lowered her eyes. Well, the Medical Certification Agency had replied to her.

Chapter 1759 - 1759 Sister Nian: Thor’s Hammer

1759 Sister Nian: Thor’s Hammer

Wei Lou sat opposite her and watched the girl play with the computer as he took a sip of the coffee and leaned back leisurely. His beautiful peach blossom eyes were half-squinted as he asked in a low voice, “Is the hammer here?”

Qiao Nian opened the email with her fair hand and finished reading it at a glance.

She curled her lips and smiled lazily, then gave him a look and said arrogantly, "Ah, Thor's Hammer."

Wei Lou was stunned. He knew what was going on as he looked at her exquisite and eye-catching face. He immediately shrugged and mourned for Jiang Xianrou for three seconds. "Then, aren't you going to hammer her into a pit?"

Qiao Nian had long lowered her head to do the editing.

Her eyes were cold.

Although she did not say it out loud, she knew what she was doing.

If she threw this hammer, Jiang Xianrou would most likely die.

Seeing that she was quiet, Wei Lou smiled and said, "Oh, I forgot to remind you.

"Jiang Xianrou posted again on Weibo half an hour ago. She publicly told you not to look for her in private if you have anything to say. She told you to talk on the stage."

Qiao Nian's hand speed was fast. In addition, the editing was just a small task for her.

By the time Wei Lou finished speaking, she had already erased the important information from the email, leaving only the reply from the Medical Certification Agency.

She raised her eyes and glanced at him from the corner of her eye. Her long and straight legs rested under the table, and she looked very bandit-like. "Are you here to watch the show?"

Wei Lou's heart almost skipped a beat when she looked at him.

But soon, he remembered that he no longer had a chance. His expression was slightly bitter.

However, he hid it under his sloppy act in the blink of an eye. "Of course not! What kind of person am I? Qiao Nian, don't you believe me?"

Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows. No matter how she looked at it, he seemed to be here to watch the show.

Wei Lou felt uncomfortable under her sharp gaze. He coughed lightly with his curled fist by his mouth and said weakly, "Ahem, I'm not watching the fun. I just want to see if she'll regret it."

He predicted that Jiang Xianrou would definitely regret it later.

Unfortunately, there was no medicine for regret in this world.

Jiang Xianrou did not leave any leeway for others. In the end, it was equivalent to not leaving any leeway for herself!

She couldn't blame anyone for what she did.

He hoped that when she regretted it, she would think about what she did in the beginning.

"That's her business. I'm not worried." Qiao Nian's attitude was cold as if she didn't want to mention her.

Wei Lou retracted his smile and looked at her seriously. "You've already given her a chance. She didn't cherish it and even pulled the Chinese Medicine Faculty and Elder Huang down. She insisted on blowing things up. No one can do anything about it."

Qiao Nian had already edited her post. It was just that she hadn't posted it yet.

However, her hesitation had nothing to do with Jiang Xianrou.

She was just thinking about Jiang Li and Old Master Jiang.

Wei Lou's words reminded her.

This time, not only did Jiang Xianrou involve herself but also innocent people. Qiao Nian restrained the coldness in her eyes. With a light tap of her fair fingertips, she posted on Weibo.

A few seconds later, her phone started ringing non-stop, full of notifications from Weibo.

Ding, ding, ding, ding...

It was so noisy that her head hurt.

Qiao Nian logged out of Weibo without looking at any of the notifications. Then, she found Jiang Li's WeChat and sent him a message.

Chapter 1760 - 1760 What a Slap in the Face

This time, Qiao Nian threw out Thor's Hammer.

It was the medical certification that the Overseas Medical Association had posted on her behalf that issued her a confidential patent certificate.

Originally, everyone had their own opinions on the Internet, and no one had the advantage in public opinion.

Public opinion completely reversed after the Overseas Medical Association posted this certificate.

Many netizens ran to the Qing University's Weibo account to ask Elder Huang and the Chinese Medicine Faculty to apologize after they understood the certificate's weight.

The commotion was huge.

The nosy people were in a hurry. It was as if the Chinese Medicine Faculty had to kneel down and apologize today. They were going to organize a protest and hold banners at the school gate tomorrow to cause trouble.

Until Qiao Nian posted on Weibo.

The situation took a complete turn!

Qiao Nian didn't say much.

It was much more effective than her shouting on the Internet. She only threw out a photo.

The long photo was an email from the Medical Certification Agency.

The private part had been pixelated by Qiao Nian, but it could still be seen.

The email sent from the Medical Certification Agency for Jiang Xianrou's patent certification clearly stated that they had received Qiao Nian's email. After a unanimous discussion, they confirmed that she had committed academic theft and that they would take back her patent certificate. They would also follow up on her academic theft.

Once this email was sent out, no one could compete with it.

Public opinion turned in another direction in the blink of an eye.

The people who had previously asked the Chinese Medicine Faculty to apologize now went to the Overseas Medical Association's Weibo to ask for an explanation.

A small number of people also questioned the email. They wondered if it was sent by the Medical Certification Agency and whether it was fake.

In addition, Qiao Nian was only a freshman in the Chinese Medicine Faculty of Qing University.

Compared to Jiang Xianrou, who had graduated in her fourth year and had been learning from Liang Lu, her qualifications were too shallow.

This time, she obtained a confidential patent certificate. If Jiang Xianrou had stolen her things, it meant that Qiao Nian had made this medicine.

This was too amazing.

Qiao Nian was only a freshman. Even if she had won a medical competition award, it was only a theoretical award, after all, not a field research award.

Therefore, they suspected that the email was fake. The certification agency was also fake. All of it was photoshopped by Qiao Nian.

However, this statement was quickly refuted by the Chinese Medicine Faculty.

Not long after Qiao Nian posted on Weibo, the Chinese Medicine Faculty of Qing University updated their posts. Just like the Overseas Medical Association, they also posted photos.

However, they did not post as much as the Overseas Medical Association.

There were only two screenshots.

The caption read: "Seeking common ground, putting aside differences but always showing respect!"

The netizens clicked on the screenshots. They showed the screenshots that Elder Huang had posted on Instagram previously, but not on Weibo.

There were two S+ papers published by a person with the signature 'Q' in an authoritative medical journal.

There was an uproar on Weibo.

"Q? Qiao?"

"Q is Qiao Nian, right? Q is her initial. It must be Qiao Nian herself."

"This publication is very impressive. A relative of mine who studied abroad told me that those who can publish in such papers are all big shots in the industry. Their level of awesomeness is comparable to an actor getting an Oscar."

"God Qiao."

"I want to know if Jiang Xianrou stole anything. Didn't she say on Weibo just now that she wanted someone to look for her in public? Why isn't she saying anything now?"

"I think she fainted in the toilet."

"I think she fainted in the toilet +1."
