

Madam's 1821

Chapter 1821: Jian Xianrou Should Get at Least 15 Years

If Qiao Nian was willing to give in for her, she would have done so long ago.

She had never given in and continued to suppress the He family. How could she give in now?

Jian Xianrou was simply a piece of trash!

His eyes suddenly turned ruthless. He stared at the burly man and said in a low and hoarse voice, "Tell our people that I want her to get a heavier sentence. The heavier the better! I wouldn't have ended up like this if it weren't for her. Since we're hopeless, she can forget about living well!"

"I got it."

After Brother Qiao left, He Congming took out his phone and searched for a contact number. He found Ji Ziyin's number and made a call.

His first call went unanswered.

He Congming made a second call.

After the phone rang a dozen times, Ji Ziyin was finally willing to pick up. "What's the matter? I'm at the research institute. I'll talk to you when I get back."

His first call went unanswered.

He Congming made a second call.

After the phone rang a dozen times, Ji Ziyin was finally willing to pick up. "What's the matter? I'm at the research institute. I'll talk to you when I get back."

"Miss Ji," He Congming called out. He had no intention of hanging up. He leaned back in his chair. He wasn't so careful now that he didn't have any expectations. His voice was hoarse as he said to her, "The He family is finished."

Ji Ziyin was shocked at first. She paused for a few seconds before frowning and saying unhappily, "What are you talking about? How can the He family be finished?"

"After you returned to the Independent Continent, the He family was raided several times and even targeted by several forces. I tried to contact you, but I couldn't reach you. Now, it's difficult to do anything... Miss Ji, only you can take back your batch of goods in Beijing now. I have no way out."

He Congming didn't want to continue talking to Ji Ziyin.

He hung up the call expressionlessly as the judge banged his gavel and shouted, "Silence!"

He sat in his seat and looked coldly at Jian Xianrou, who was standing in the center, with a bone-chilling gaze.

Since the He family was finished, she could forget about living well!

The court trial was not at all as tense and intense as one might have imagined.

Qiao Nian watched as the lawyers from both sides bickered on stage. The lawyer Tang Wanru had hired was no match for He Congming's lawyer.

He was beaten up so badly that he couldn't even fight back. It could be seen that he was just like a useless embroidered pillow.

At first, Jiang Xianrou could still stand calmly with her back straight. Later, when she realized that the situation was not right, her expression became worse and worse. Gradually, she could not stand still anymore and looked back at the stands searching for her mother.

Unfortunately, at this point, Tang Wanru had no choice. Her face was pale and she was sweating profusely. "Didn't he tell me that it would work? What happened? How did this happen..

On the stage.

Lawyers from both sides had already finished speaking.

The lawyer hired by the He family laid out all kinds of legal provisions. The evidence chain was very strong, and he did not show any mercy. He refuted until the lawyer hired by Tang Wanru could not continue.

Lawyer Huang, whom Tang Wanru had found, had tried his best to provide evidence to refute with some legal provisions for the defense of innocence.

However, the things he took out were like child's play compared to the other side. They were useless.

The judges had already begun to communicate with each other. It was obvious that they were on the plaintiff's side and were already discussing her sentencing.

"Jiang Xianrou should get at least 15 years."

In the corner of the last row, Ye Wangchuan looked like a painting. His aura was lazy and noble, like a painting of mountains and rivers..

Chapter 1822: Jiang Xianrou Collapsed

After saying that, he looked in the girl's direction, his deep eyes focused on her. "How many years do you want her to be sentenced?"

Only Young Master Ye could ask such a question.

Qiao Nian glanced in his direction and met his gaze. Then, she retracted her gaze and pulled down her cap, not paying much attention to it.

"I won't interfere in her matters.

"She should be sentenced to a few years. This is the basic respect for the old master and Jiang Li, so I won't interfere."

She would not stand up for her.

She didn't lie to the He family. She came today purely to see the results.

However, at this moment, Qiao Nian suddenly wasn't interested anymore. She stood up, picked up her phone, and said to the man beside her, "Let's go."

"You're not going to wait for the verdict?" Ye Wangchuan raised his eyebrows in surprise.

Qiao Nian hummed. Coincidentally, her phone vibrated at this moment. She glanced at the caller ID and hung up. Then, she replied casually, "I'm not staying anymore."

Ye Wangchuan stood up as well and did not try to persuade her. He only bent down and picked up the earphones she had left on the chair lazily. "Since you don't want to see it anymore, let's go. Zhang Yang said that you didn't go to his birthday party. He wants to treat you to a meal. Gu San and Qin Si are also there. They're at Lan Pavilion. They booked a private room and are waiting for you."

Qiao Nian had just hung up on Ji Nan when he sent her another message. It seemed like something urgent had happened, and she hadn't had time to look at it.

Qiao Nian looked up at him upon hearing this. Her beautiful black eyes seemed to be able to see through people's hearts.

Zhang Yang had booked a private room at Lan Pavilion, and Qin Si, Gu San, and the others were all there. With a little thought, she knew what was going on. Someone must have arranged it. He was afraid that she would be in a bad mood after leaving the court, so he deliberately used Zhang Yang's birthday as an excuse to invite her for a meal.

Initially, Qiao Nian's mood had been a little affected. But the unhappiness dissipated at this moment.

"Mm." She narrowed her eyes and pursed her lips before agreeing.

Then, she walked forward with one hand in her pocket. "Let's go."

Ye Wangchuan looked back at the court before leaving with the girl. magic

The verdict came out less than half an hour after they left.

It was even heavier than the 15 years Ye Wangchuan had guessed.

The court sentenced Jiang Xianrou to 20 years in prison.O

Jiang Xianrou immediately collapsed to the ground.

Tang Wanru wasn't any better. She cried and shouted for an appeal, refusing to accept this outcome.

The court was in a mess.

Jiang Yao and the other relatives did not expect the court to give such a heavy sentence. They could not accept this outcome for a moment.

Only Jiang Li silently put on his mask. He didn't show any special reaction and didn't seem surprised.

“Jiang Li, could it be Qiao—

After all, Jiang Xianrou was his biological sister. With such a heavy sentence this time, no matter how disappointed he was, it was impossible for him not to be worried about her.

Hence, when he saw that Jiang Li was about to leave, he couldn't help but reach out and grab the other party's arm.

Jiang Li didn't wait for him to finish. He turned around and looked at him seriously. “What are you trying to say? Are you saying that Nian Nian did it?

That Nian Nian affected her verdict?”

Jiang Yao was speechless. “That's not what I meant.”

“Then what do you mean?” Jiang Li pushed his hand away expressionlessly and said indifferently, “Jian Xianrou sold fake medicine and caused someone's death. According to the legal procedure, she would be sentenced to at least 15 years, but you insisted on defending her innocence. She also didn't show any signs of repentance. It's normal for the court to sentence her severely. 20 years was the result of your choice..”

Chapter 1823: The Reason Ji Nan Was Urgently Looking For Sister Nian

“Jiang Yao, you don't know Nian Nian at all. If she wants to do something, Jian Xianrou doesn't even need to be sentenced. It's even possible for her to be sentenced to life imprisonment.

“...She didn't have to do this, and she never did. You were the ones who didn't care about family from the beginning, not her.”

Jiang Li did not want to continue after saying this. He felt equally uncomfortable, so, after pushing Jiang Yao's hand away, he left the court.

Jiang Yao was left standing there for a long time.

* * *

At this moment, in the Ji Family.

Ji Ziyin was no longer in the mood to stay in the research institute after she answered He Congming's call, so she changed her clothes and went out.

She received news from Beijing the moment she walked out.

Jiang Xianrou's verdict was out.

20 years.

Her hand paused when she reached to open the car door, stunned for a moment. She now roughly understood what He Congming meant when he called her.

It seemed that Qiao Nian was unwilling to compromise.

Ji Ziyin was more or less surprised.

Halfway through, He Congming even called her to plead with her and ask her to do Qiao Nian a favor.

At that time, although she was unhappy, she still agreed because of the importance of the He family to her.

Did He Congming not tell Qiao Nian that she was willing to owe her a favor? Or was Qiao Nian unwilling to give her face?

Ji Ziyin flipped through the news and could not confirm what was going on for a moment.

In her heart, she believed in the first possibility—He Congming hadn't told Qiao Nian!

Otherwise, who would believe that there was anyone in this world who would reject a favor from the Ji family?

Ji Ziyin tried to call He Congming again, but he did not pick up. She slowly put her phone away. She was thinking about what was going on when she received a call from Ji Xiao.

Ji Ziyin's expression changed slightly and she immediately picked up. "Hello, Second Uncle? Hmm? I just came out of the research institute and was about to go back. Hmm, tell me."

It was unknown what the other party said, but Ji Ziyin frowned and her relaxed expression turned serious. "You mean the Xie family? I understand. I know a few famous doctors. I'll come over to discuss it with you immediately."

Ji Ziyin hung up the call and reached for the car door again. She was no longer thinking about the situation in the He family and Beijing. Her mind was filled with the Xie person's illness.

There were hundreds of factions of various sizes in the Independent Continent. The Ji Family was naturally one of the top forces, but it was not that there were no families comparable to them.

The Xie family was one of them.

Other than them, there was also the Nan family, an ancient martial arts family.

Xie Tingyun, who was sick this time, had a very important status. Not only was she from the Xie family, but she had also married into the Nan family. She could be said to be a very important person.

If one could get her support, he could at least rope in the power of two of the top three families in the Independent Continent. magic

Of course, Ji Ziyin was unwilling to give up such a good opportunity. After getting into the car, she contacted a famous doctor she knew and drove to Ji Xiao's place.

She still had to discuss it with him.

After all, other than being a very important person, Xie Tingyun was also Xie Yun's sister, Ji Nan's aunt.

If she wanted Xie Tingyun and the Nan family to owe her a favor, she had to find an opportunity for Ji Xiao to speak up.

However, Ji Ziyin was not too worried that the Xie family would not give her face.

This was because she had already found out that Xie Tingyun had a rare type of cancer this time. It was only found out three months ago. If the doctors could find a way, they would have resolved it long ago and would not let the news spread! Since the news had leaked, it meant that the people the Xie family found were useless...

Since their people were useless, Ji Ziyin wouldn't let go of such a good opportunity!

Chapter 1824: Sister Nian: I'll Pull a Friend In

The next day.

Qiao Nian received another message from Ji Nan.

[SN, do you have time to come to the Independent Continent?]

Qiao Nian propped her chin with her hand and narrowed her eyes as she read his random message, casually thinking about how to reply to him.

Qin Si called out from the living room, "Sister Qiao, shall we team up and play games? We're short of one, so we're waiting for you."

Qiao Nian typed a message back with her fair hand.

After replying to Ji Nan's message, she held her mug and walked into the living room unhurriedly.

The apartment was quite large, but no matter how big it was, it could not host so many people.

At this moment, Qin Si and Zhang Yang occupied the black leather circular sofa, while Ye Lan and Bo Jingxing occupied a corner. The four of them occupied almost the entire sofa.

Qiao Nian walked over and realized that there was no place for her to sit. Thus, she dragged a stool over and said to Qin Si, "Pull me in."

She often teamed up with Qin Si and the others to play games, so she was basically familiar with the people on the team.

Qin Si had a wide social network, but he never pulled in random people.

Every time he pulled Qiao Nian in to play, the number of people was usually fixed.

For example, Zhang Yang, Tang Ning, and a few people from his small circle.

In any case, they were all familiar with each other. Usually, they would not spout nonsense. They only played games and did not gossip.

Qiao Nian was happy and relaxed. Occasionally, she would play with them.

Of course, she didn't have much time to play. She would occasionally ask Qin Si to pull her in to play a round. If something happened at the last minute, she would tell them and leave.

Everyone had already cultivated a basic tacit understanding of the game.

"I sent an invitation. Did you receive it?" Qin Si had run over early in the morning to play games with Qiao Nian.

He even specially dragged Zhang Yang along.

Zhang Yang couldn't wait to have a chance to interact more with the big shots and was very willing to play with them.

At this moment, he immediately introduced the teammates to her. "Miss Qiao, the fish that can fly is Tang Ning. The other two are Young Master Qin and me."

Qiao Nian hummed and entered the game. Then, she raised her eyebrows and looked at Qin Si. "Why is there one less person?"

"Uh... You didn't come for a long time, so I didn't call anyone." Qin Si raised his phone. "Wait, I'll send a message in the chat group."

Qiao Nian seemed to have thought of something and stopped him. "I know someone. I'll pull him in."

That was the first time she was calling someone to play with them. He was stunned for a moment before nodding, indicating that he had no objections.

Zhang Yang and the others would not have any objections.

Qiao Nian clicked on her gaming friend. He was linked to WeChat.

There were not many people on her WeChat friends' list, and she did not have more than ten friends in the game.

Coincidentally, one of the profile pictures was lit up, showing that it was online.

Qiao Nian sent him a team invitation.

After a while, her WeChat lit up with a new message.

[Xu Jishen: ?]

[Xu Jishen: Miss Qiao, I just received a team invitation in the game. Is that you?] magic Qiao Nian's words were concise. She only typed a few words.

[QN: Our team is just short of one person. Do you want to come?]

There was no response from him, but soon, the game interface showed that Xu Jishen had entered their team.

"Who is this?" Qin Si couldn't help but ask when he saw an unfamiliar nickname.

Xu Jishen fell silent for a moment when he heard his voice, but his brain reacted quite quickly. He immediately said, "Young Master Qin, it's me, Xu Jishen.."

Chapter 1825: Infiltrating the Capital's Circle in This Way

Su Huaiyuan belonged to Rao City. The Xu family's power was also distributed between there and Shuangjiang City. It did not involve Beijing.

Therefore, Xu Jishen was not close to the Beijing circle.

In addition, it was not easy to enter it. He was foreign to this group and could not be bothered to lower himself to others. He had only interacted with Jiang Yao and had not interacted much with the other forces in the capital.

He hadn't even entered the periphery of the capital, let alone come into contact with Qin Si's small circle.

Xu Jishen had heard of Qin Si and had met him on many occasions, but he had never spoken to him.

He never expected that he would successfully break into the capital's circle in this way.

He was someone Qiao Nian had pulled in. Qin Si gave him face and started chatting. Zhang Yang also joined in.

Tang Ning was from Rao City.

They were all young people. After a while, they got to know each other.

Qiao Nian didn't say much. Basically, she listened to them chat and flipped through the items in her gaming backpack.

Qin Si chatted with Xu Jishen for a while before starting the game.

Xu Jishen's gaming skills were not bad, and with Qiao Nian leading the team, they won in less than 20 minutes. magic

Qiao Nian exited the game after a round upon seeing that Ji Nan had replied. She said to them, "Wait for me. I'll reply to a message."

On the other side, Ye Lan and Bo Jingxing were almost done chatting.

She had come over in the morning mainly to ask Ye Wangchuan about some details on the Independent Continent. She did not expect Bo Jingxing to be there.

She had a good relationship with Bo Zheng, so she asked about the health of his elders.

Everyone chatted for a while.

She saw that Qiao Nian had been playing games with Qin Si and the others, so she didn't interrupt the young people's entertainment.

It just so happened that Qiao Nian wasn't playing anymore.

Ye Lan quickly asked her, "Nian Nian, are you free on Friday?"

"Friday?" Qiao Nian was still looking down at her phone, her mind elsewhere.

Ye Lan knew her personality and did not mind it. She smiled and said, "Yes, our company is holding an annual meeting this Friday. We're going to the beach to play. Do you want to go? I'll reserve a room for you."

After the capital entered October, the weather gradually turned cold, especially in the past few days. It was almost November, so the weather was even colder.

Ye Lan had always had the habit of going to the south for a vacation in the winter. This time, she decided to go to an island for the company's annual meeting.

The weather there was good and relaxing. It was suitable for a vacation.

She planned to bring Ye Qichen along, but he made a fuss about wanting his sister to go with him again. Otherwise, he wouldn't go.

She also wanted to go on a vacation with Qiao Nian, so she asked her.

After making two cups of coffee, Ye Wangchuan took one for himself and handed the other cup to the girl. "Have some hot coffee."

There was still a hint of confusion in Qiao Nian's eyes. She was still thinking about Friday's arrangements when she was quickly pulled back to reality by the cup of coffee in front of her.

She reached out to take it, but Ye Wangchuan took the mug away for her and placed it on the table beside her.

White smoke was still rising from the freshly brewed coffee. His entire hand warmed up as he held it.

Qiao Nian was only wearing a light blue sweater. Her palms were slightly cold, and so were her fingertips.

Now holding a cup of hot coffee in her hand, her entire body felt warm..

Chapter 1826: Do You Have Time to Come to the Independent Continent?

She narrowed her eyes lazily. Her dark eyelashes drooped, and her shoulders relaxed. After some thought, she said to Ye Lan, "I can't on Friday. I have an exam."

Qin Si and the others waited for a long time, but Qiao Nian didn't come back. Thus, they created a small team and started another round.

At this moment, hearing the word 'exam', Qin Si pricked up his ears and interrupted, "Sister Qiao, you still have to take an exam?"

She seemed to have only been to school a few times.

Exam...

She just needed to not fail.

However, as soon as this thought appeared in his mind, he immediately extinguished it.

God Qiao excelled at exams.

Qin Si felt that his mouth was too loose. In order to avoid slapping himself in the face, he quickly tried to save his dignity. "Hiss, that's true. Qing University's final exams are coming up soon. Who's that Wen guy? Oh, Wen Ziyu. He's graduating after this year's exams. He seems to be taking the path of finance in the future. Also...

After talking about a few more people, he turned his head and looked at the girl curiously. "Sister Qiao, which path do you plan to take in the future? Chinese medicine?" magic

He still couldn't imagine Qiao Nian wearing a white coat and standing in front of the counter to get medicine for someone.

Putting everything else aside, with Qiao Nian's bandit aura, she didn't look like a simple Chinese physician at all. She looked out of place no matter how one looked at her.

"Why don't you take the scientific research path?" He stretched his legs and said casually, "Master Cheng said to Bo Jingxing several times that you're a good seedling. To be honest, Sister Qiao, it's a waste for you not to be a scientist with that brain of yours."

Qiao Nian glanced at him indifferently and said lazily, "It's quite a waste for me to be a scientist."

Qin Si was speechless.

He scratched the back of his head and felt that what she said made sense!

He had nothing to say.

Qiao Nian spoke to him lazily. She was obviously much more polite when she spoke to Ye Lan. "Auntie Ye, I won't be going. Have fun."

Ye Lan was just asking. She had long guessed that Qiao Nian might not be able to go, so she didn't have any special regrets. She just felt a little sad. "Alright, then. I'll find another time for our family to have fun when you're on vacation."

She spoke especially smoothly.

It was so smooth that Qiao Nian only realized that she had said "family."

However, she did not think much of it when she saw Ye Lan's smile. She lowered her eyes and looked at her phone again.

Ji Nan's message was still displayed on her screen.

Qiao Nian frowned, showing a little frustration. She didn't reply immediately.

Ye Wangchuan happened to be standing beside her. If he looked at her slightly, he would be able to see the message on her phone.

He had no intention of peeking, but he saw it anyway.

[Ji Nan: My aunt's condition has worsened very badly. I want you to come over and take a look at her. Do you have time to come to the Independent

Continent?]

The words “Independent Continent” were very conspicuous.

Ye Wangchuan narrowed his eyes.

Ji Nan?

He thought about Ji Nan’s interpersonal relationships and immediately knew who he was talking about—Xie Tingyun.

She was the proudest daughter of the Xie family and the only person worthy of his attention.

The Xie and Ji families were two of the top three families in the Independent Continent. However, unlike the other two families, the Xie family did not rely on their own strength to crush the other forces to become one of the top families. Instead, they relied on wealth and marriage.

The Xie family was very good at using marriage alliances to consolidate their status.

In the Independent Continent, any faction with some power was more or less related to them..

Chapter 1827: Sister Nian, You’re Exposed Again!

For example, the Ji family. magic

Xie Yun, the daughter of the main Xie family, married Ji Lingfeng.

The other daughter of the Xie family, Xie Tingyun, was married to another family among the three major forces, the Nan family.

Moreover, the difference between them was that other than marrying well, Xie Yun did not have any other ability. She was more like a rich and idle wife.

Xie Tingyun was an expert in smelting when she was young.

Don't think that smelting sounds a little simple.

It is actually a very powerful skill. The raw materials for the truly powerful weapons in the world now involved smelting technology.

The more sophisticated a weapon was, the more it involved manual manufacturing.

However, Xie Tingyun could be called a master in this aspect.

There was once a person on the Independent Continent who was as famous as Xie Tingyun. He was also a genius among geniuses in this aspect. However, many rumors about that person had been deliberately erased. He only knew that someone as famous as Xie Tingyun in weapon manufacturing existed.

He recalled the news that MO Nan had sent recently. It seemed to be about Xie Tingyun's illness, but he did not pay much attention to it.

Unexpectedly, Ji Nan asked Qiao Nian for help.

"You're going to the Independent Continent?" He lowered his head. His voice wasn't loud, and only Qiao Nian could hear him.

Qiao Nian was staring at Ji Nan's message. She hadn't decided yet. Hearing his question, she looked up and happened to meet the man's firm and smooth chin. She retracted her gaze and took her phone away in annoyance. "I don't know."

"Qing University's final exams are coming up soon. At the very least, I can't miss the exams. Also, Aunt Yuan asked me to draft a design for her. She's waiting for me to give it to her. Also..."

Qiao Nian calculated the things on her plate and realized that it was full to bursting.

She did not even notice that the man's eyes had gradually darkened. He raised his eyebrows and suddenly asked in a low and hoarse voice, "Design draft? Huh? What design draft?"

Qiao Nian paused and realized what she had said. The nerves at the back of her head tensed up, and her head suddenly hurt.

"So SEVEN's genius designer, S, is you?"

There was only one brand under Cheng Feng Corporation that required design work.

The high-end jewelry brand SEVEN.

All that was left was real estate.

Yuan Yongqin couldn't possibly come to Qiao Nian for a real state design blueprint, so it was obvious what the design draft was for.

The designers of SEVEN were all world-renowned. All of them had names.

Only one person had never shown his face. He was very mysterious.

Ye Lan was still a die-hard fan of this designer and liked to collect his works.

That designer only had an English code name, S.

Previously, he had used Ye Qichen's name to buy a necklace for Qiao Nian. It was also designed by S.

Now that he thought about it carefully, everything was so obvious—S was Qiao Nian!

What S stood for was not what the outside world guessed.

It was an abbreviation for Sun.

With a certain someone's trouble-loving personality, she might have chosen this name for convenience. For example, the thesis she published in the medical journal also used an abbreviation of her name.

He couldn't help but laugh. The corners of his mouth curled up as he looked at the girl with his deep eyes. "God Qiao, I'm very curious. What were you thinking when you received the necklace that birthday?"

Receiving her own design on her birthday...

This was the first time Ye Wangchuan had suffered a setback in this aspect, and it was even at the hands of his girlfriend. This feeling was really indescribably complicated..

Chapter 1828: Sister Nian Still Couldn't Withstand It

Qiao Nian was a little stunned. Her movements were a little slow, and her usually arrogant eyes were restrained. Her black eyelashes drooped, and her fingers pressed against the brim of her cap. She didn't know where to put her hands. In any case, her eyes weren't looking in his direction. "Huh?"

He leaned against her gracefully and looked at her with a smile, quietly waiting for her 'explanation'.

At first, Qiao Nian resisted the urge to say anything.

After a minute, she still couldn't hold on. She raised her hands in surrender. "I didn't think much of it. I just felt a little surprised at that time, and then it was nothing."

"You were just a little surprised?" Ye Wangchuan's voice was slightly raised. It was ambiguous and a little seductive.

Qiao Nian had never been forced to this extent before. On second thought, she felt that something was wrong. She looked at him steadily. “No, there was no need for me to tell you at that time, right? We weren’t familiar with each other yet...”

They weren’t that close back then, were they?

Qiao Nian thought about it carefully. They really didn’t seem to be close back then.

At that time, she was just Jiang Li’s ‘troublesome friend’. Her villa had not been renovated and she was staying at Jiang Li’s place.

Although they lived under the same roof, they usually minded their own business. At most, they would greet each other. It seemed normal that she did not say anything. magic Ye Wangchuan was angered by her self-righteous words and his eyes darkened. He looked handsome and gentle. He did not look angry, but the pressure he exerted was so strong that it was impossible to ignore.

He leaned forward slightly, his face almost touching hers. He lowered his head, his handsome face so close that Qiao Nian could almost feel his breath on her face.

“Why do I remember that we were quite close? For example, God Qiao has emphasized to me more than once that we’re... good friends.”

Qiao Nian was speechless.

“We’re already good friends, and you’re still saying that we’re not close. I’m a little sad.”

He put his hand on his chest as he spoke. There was no sadness in his lazy and teasing expression. It was obvious that he was just teasing her.

Ye Wangchuan had always been said to be the third most attractive thing in the capital. Only the color of the sky and water could compare to his appearance. It could be seen how good-looking he was.

Now that they were so close to each other, and that his face was magnified infinitely in front of her eyes, Qiao Nian suddenly felt a little hot. Her gaze swept across the corners of his lips, which were curled up into a faint smile. It was quite dangerous and perverse.

A voice interrupted them at this moment.

It was Qin Si.

“Ahem! I don’t want to interrupt the two of you, but Master Wang and Sister Qiao, can you go back to your room if you want to talk about love? I understand that you’re in the honeymoon period, but you have to consider the feelings of us single people. I feel quite uncomfortable...”

He had died eight times in the game just now because he was distracted and did not have the heart to play.

He dared to make a sound, but Zhang Yang did not dare to. He sensibly pretended not to see it.

Gu San poured a glass of water for Qin Si and quickly advised him, “Young Master Qin, drink some water.”

Ye Lan, on the other hand, looked gratified. She was like an elder watching a show.

Bo Jingxing leaned back on the sofa and crossed his legs, refined and handsome. “Isn’t that so? No one said anything. You’re the only one who has a problem. Hurry up and drink some water to cool yourself down. I’ll tell Auntie later that you want to fall in love so that you won’t be jealous of others all day.”

Qin Si thought of his mother and his relatives and immediately begged for mercy. “No, please let me go..”

Chapter 1829: Chasing Everyone Away

Ye Wangchuan looked at the noisy people in the living room as he picked up the coffee cup beside him and lowered his head to take a sip. He looked at them with his deep eyes and asked bluntly, “Shouldn’t you guys leave?”

“I just got here—” Qin Si was dumbfounded.

Where should they go?

However, Ye Wangchuan did not give him a chance. He took out his phone and said, “I remember Auntie Qin telling me the day before yesterday to keep an eye out for suitable candidates for you. Speaking of which, I suddenly remember a few good ones—”

Qin Si stood up before he could finish speaking and immediately said to Qiao Nian, “Well, Sister Qiao, I suddenly remembered that I have something to do at home. I won’t disturb you anymore. I’ll leave first.”

He picked up his things and slipped away as he spoke.

Zhang Yang was a smart person. He was the second to stand up, saying he had something to do at home. magic

It was meaningless for Bo Jingxing to stay since Qin Si and Zhang Yang were leaving. Thus, he left with Zhang Yang.

She couldn’t wait for the two youngsters to spend more time together. How could she stay and be a third wheel? She picked up her bag and said that she had a meeting at the company before leaving.

In the blink of an eye, all the people had left. The noisy living room fell silent.

Gu San was also very perceptive. He immediately started to pack his things. "Master Wang, I'll clean up this place."

Then, he grabbed coffee and tea cups on the table and put them into the kitchen sink.

In the blink of an eye, only the two of them were left in the huge living room.

Qiao Nian picked up her phone and stood up, then took the cup of coffee that he had given her and said naturally, "I'll go upstairs to reply to a message."

During the interlude just now, Ji Nan sent her a message urging her. He seemed to be in a hurry, so she planned to call him back to ask about the situation.

Ye Wangchuan guessed that she was going up to reply to Ji Nan's message. He nodded slightly and did not stop her from leaving. Instead, he whispered, "If you want to go, I'll go with you this time."

"We'll see." Qiao Nian frowned and looked at him again. "I'm not sure if I'll go."

"I've been quite busy recently. I might not have time."

However, she owed Ji Nan a huge favor from when she went to the Independent Continent previously.

Therefore, she could not ignore this matter.

"I'll ask him about the situation first."

In a secluded manor on the Independent Continent.

Ji Nan went out to answer a call.

After a while, Xie Yun also came out.

Seeing that he had finished the call and was walking back, she stopped him and asked casually, "Who called?"

"A friend of mine."

Ji Nan had just ended the call with Qiao Nian. He had roughly told her about Xie Tingyun's condition. Qiao Nian didn't answer him immediately. She only said that she would think about it and then get back to him.

For some reason, Ji Nan felt that she would come to take a look at his aunt.

He finally relaxed after being tense for the past few days. He looked at his mother and asked softly, "Is Aunt asleep?"

"Yes, she took some medicine and just fell asleep." Xie Yun looked worried at the mention of her sister. She sighed and said, "This is the first time she has fallen asleep in the past few days. Those painkillers are useless. What should we do if this continues?"

Ji Nan also felt sorry for his aunt. After all, Xie Tingyun was one of the many people in the family who supported him when he did not want to learn black gunpowder technology..

Chapter 1830: My Friend Promised to Come!

He had loved and respected his aunt since he was young.

She was like his second mother.

How could Ji Nan take it when Xie Tingyun had an evil illness?

“Speaking of which, Ji Xiao called me just now. He said he knows Master Carlo from the Overseas Medical Association and asked if I wanted him to ask for help. He can invite Master Carlo over. I haven’t agreed to it yet, but with your aunt’s situation, I...”

Xie Yun was from a prestigious family, after all.

Although she was not as talented as Xie Tingyun, she was not a rich lady who only knew how to dress up.

Being in the center of power, she naturally understood some people’s thoughts and tricks.

Xie Yun took a deep breath and looked at Ji Nan with a serious expression. After some thinking, she said, “Ji Xiao would never call me for no reason. I think the person who knows Master Carlo is not him, but Ji Ziyin.” magic

She smiled. However, her smile was quite disdainful as she looked down on Ji Ziyin’s dark tricks. “Hmph, she sure knows how to use her brain. She knows that your aunt’s identity is special and wants to use this opportunity to rope in the Nan family! Your uncle-in-law’s family has never participated in the Independent Continent’s power struggles. However, your uncle-in-law might be willing to owe her a huge favor if she can help your aunt. Then, she can rise to the next level in the Ji family...”

“It doesn’t matter. I don’t care about these things.” Ji Nan didn’t care much.

Xie Yun was both angry and amused. “You! She’s about to fight to the death for your place, but you don’t take it to heart! Forget it. She thinks she’s valued by your father because of her talent in black gunpowder, but actually, she’s just a shadow!

However, Ji Xiao and the others treat her like a treasure and want to promote her.”

This wasn't Ji Nan's first time hearing this story from her. He couldn't help but ask curiously, "Mom, what do you mean by my aunt?"

Xie Yun's expression suddenly became lost, as if she was reminiscing. In short, it was very complicated. "She... she's a very special person."

Ji Nan listened attentively, thinking that she would continue.

Unexpectedly, Xie Yun suddenly changed the topic. "By the way, regarding Master Carlo, do you think I should agree?"

She rubbed her aching head. She was helpless in this situation. "I don't like her methods, but we've looked for all the famous doctors we can find. Your aunt's condition hasn't improved at all.

It's even starting to worsen. If this continues, I'm really worried..."

Xie Yun and Xie Tingyun grew up together and were biological sisters. Their relationship was extraordinary.

Xie Yun secretly disliked Ji Ziyin's backers in the family, but for the sake of her family, she still wanted to give it a try even though she knew that the other party had ill intentions. Even if there was a one in ten thousand chance, what if... Who could say for sure?

What if this Master Carlo was really capable?

She took out her phone to reply to Ji Xiao.

However, Ji Nan's phone rang at this moment.

He looked at the message and immediately revealed a happy expression. Then, he stopped her.

“Mom, stop. My friend agreed to come to take a look at Aunt!”

Xie Yun was stunned. “Your friend? The friend you just called? She’s a doctor?”.
