

Madam's 1851

Chapter 1851 - 1851 Sister Nian Has Long Arrived in the Independent Continent

“Aren’t you too indulgent of Ji Ziyin?” That person was not tactful at all. “She, Ji Xiao, and the rest are about to form a small force in the family. If I remember correctly, our family still has a direct descendant who has wandered outside.”

The elder’s words carried weight. He looked at Ji Lingfeng. “There are still people in the family’s direct line of descent. There’s no reason for a collateral branch to replace the direct line of descent.”

A direct descendant was a direct descendant, and a collateral branch was a collateral branch!

No matter how bad the direct descendants were, they were still the direct descendants. No matter how outstanding the collateral branches were, they were still collateral branches.

There was a difference in status!

“Of course, this is only my personal opinion. Patriarch, think about it carefully. I won’t disturb you.”

Then, he walked out with his walking stick.

He Lin waited for everyone to leave before brewing a cup of strong tea for Ji Lingfeng. He carefully observed the man’s expression before saying softly, “Patriarch, have some tea.”

“Mhm.” Ji Lingfeng picked up the teacup. There was nothing unusual about his appearance.

He took a sip of tea and put down the teacup. Then, he looked at He Lin with his dark eyes and asked, “Have you found out the identity of the Miracle Doctor that Ji Nan found?”

"I haven't had the time to investigate. I'll report to you immediately after I find out." After He Lin placed the tea on the table, he stood respectfully at the side.

Ji Lingfeng responded and picked up his teacup to take a sip. He casually asked, "By the way, have you contacted the person I asked you to contact previously?"

He Lin reacted quickly and immediately realized that he was talking about Qiao Nian.

He immediately frowned and his expression became awkward. "I, I sent a message to Young Miss, but..."

Ji Lingfeng glanced at him suspiciously. "But what?"

He Lin braced himself and continued, "But Young Miss didn't reply to me."

Ji Lingfeng was stunned and could not react in time.

He Lin's old face was hot and flustered. He was embarrassed. He wished he could find a hole to hide in. He said softly, "I told Young Miss the reason I contacted her and even asked her to meet me. But she never replied to me."

He hesitated for a moment and raised his guess. "Patriarch, do you think Young Miss didn't receive the message?"

He was sure that his message had been sent successfully.

Moreover, it showed that the other party had read it. It was obvious that Qiao Nian had received the message and read it.

However, He Lin waited and waited, but there was no reply.

There hadn't been a single message for the past two days! magic

Not to mention asking to meet him!

Qiao Nian didn't even ask about the Ji family of the Independent Continent. Her indifferent attitude made it seem like she already knew her background!

He Lin was filled with doubts.

He didn't think that Qiao Nian would know her background.

If Qiao Nian knew that she was a direct descendant of the Independent Continent's Ji family, what reason would she have to not acknowledge her family?

She could still return to Beijing and the Jiang Family as if nothing had happened... This in itself did not make sense!

Therefore, He Lin felt that Qiao Nian must not know her background.

He only suspected another possibility—Qiao Nian might not have seen the message.

The reason why the message showed that it had been sent and the other party had read it was that his cell phone was broken.

He Lin still didn't know that the girl he was thinking about was already in the Independent Continent.

She was also the Miracle Doctor that Ji Nan had found!

Qiao Nian was in Ji Nan's car. She supported her chin with one hand and played with her phone with the other.

If Ji Nan took a closer look, he would realize that the chat software she logged into was completely different from the chat software on the market.

It was red with an "S" symbol.

After Qiao Nian logged in, she went straight to Guan Yan and sent a message.

[Sun: Help me investigate the people behind the Wolf's Head Association.]

Chapter 1852 - 1852 By the Way, How Do You Want to Enter the First Research Institute?

Guan Yan replied instantly: [???

[Guan Yan: Why are you investigating the forces of the Independent Continent? Are you in the Independent Continent?]

Qiao Nian's eyes were filled with arrogance and tyranny as she lowered her eyelashes without replying.

After a while.

Seeing that she did not reply, another message popped up in the dialog box.

[Guan Yan: Wait, I'll check for you immediately.]

There were as many factions in the Independent Continent as the vast sea of stars, especially small factions.

For example, the Wolf's Head Association that came knocking on her door this time, and the underground organization that went to the hotel to knock on her door last time... These were considered forces of the Independent Continent.

However, not many people knew about them because they were too unpresentable. Only those who wanted to take the crooked path would be associated with these organizations.

Guan Yan was different from Slim Waist Control and the others. Slim Waist Control stayed in the illegal district all year round, but she did not. She spent more time traveling in the Independent Continent.

This was also the reason why Qiao Nian looked for her.

However, Guan Yan did not completely understand all the forces in the Independent Continent and the people behind them.

She still needed time to check. magic

Qiao Nian replied with a simple "Mm". Just then, a new message popped up on her cell phone.

It was still the kind that didn't show a number.

She paused and clicked on it.

[Miss Qiao, I'm He Lin, the person who contacted you previously. I'm the Ji family's butler. Miss Qiao, have you seen the message I sent you previously?]

Cold and frustrated emotions flashed across Qiao Nian's eyes. She was quite impatient and wanted to blacklist He Lin.

This kind of phone number without a number could not be blocked.

However, the system in Qiao Nian's cell phone was made by her. Its interception function was top-notch. This was also the reason why she was rarely harassed by advertisements.

"SN."

Just as she blocked the number of the Ji family's butler, Ji Nan, who had been looking ahead and driving, glanced in her direction. His handsome face revealed a hesitant expression. He asked after hesitating for a moment, "You know someone from Bright Gate?"

Qiao Nian supported her chin with one hand and lowered her eyes. She was still setting up her cell phone's anti-harassment system. Hearing this, she only raised her eyes slightly and replied casually.

Ji Nan didn't know what to say. "I just saw someone from Bright Gate. That Mo Dong should be from Bright Gate, right?"

Qiao Nian came back to her senses and finally looked up at him with her dark eyes. She paused for a moment and didn't hide anything. "Yes."

Ji Nan was even more surprised. "How did you know someone from Bright Gate despite being in the capital? Could it be that the Torre they touched from the Chamber of Commerce Alliance last time was really related to you?"

Bright Gate was not to be trifled with in the Independent Continent.

Ji Nan really couldn't understand how Qiao Nian knew such a dangerous force.

"That last time had nothing to do with me. They were looking for Torre for something." The girl's voice was clear as she leaned against the back of the chair. Her sitting posture was very relaxed, and it was obvious that she trusted Ji Nan very much.

Originally worried that she would get involved with a dangerous force like Bright Gate, Ji Nan also relaxed upon seeing her relaxed expression.

The young man's gentle eyebrows relaxed as he looked at her with his handsome eyes. Then, he changed the topic. "By the way, you told me last time that you wanted to enter the First Research Institute?"

"What happened? Why did you think of entering the First Research Institute?" Ji Nan was very worried about her.

Chapter 1853 - 1853 Only One Selection Every Three Years, Outsiders Once Entered

Qiao Nian had just blacklisted He Lin when she thought of the message he sent her previously. Then, she saw Ji Nan's concerned expression.

Qiao Nian was distracted for a moment, but it was only for a moment. Then, she restrained the glimmer in her eyes, put her phone back, and replied vaguely, "I suddenly want to enter it. There's no other reason."

Ji Nan was not stupid. Otherwise, he would not have been able to thrive in the financial world. He was known as the younger version of the stock market's Warren Buffett.

Although the baseball cap covered the girl's eyes, he could still see that she was distracted when he mentioned the First Research Institute.

Something must have happened to her!

Logically speaking, the First Research Institute was a taboo existence to the major families of the Independent Continent. They wouldn't casually mention it to outsiders. magic

However, Ji Nan couldn't explain why. He especially liked Qiao Nian and was soft-hearted. He didn't even want to pursue the matter to the end. "It's very difficult to enter the number one research institute in the Independent Continent. This research institute gathers the most cutting-edge technology and resources of the continent. The Ji family only has one slot every three years, and we also need to pass the assessment. If the person we recommend doesn't pass the assessment, they won't be able to enter either. The Ji Ziyin you saw at the banquet entered the research institute three years ago. She specializes in black gunpowder. No one has been able to enter the research institute in the past two years... I'm afraid it'll be even harder for you to enter since you're not from the independent Continent."

This kind of power center that involved an entire continent would definitely not allow outsiders to enter.

That was the rule.

"You can't enter unless you're from the Independent Continent?" Qiao Nian didn't know about this. This was the first time she was hearing this rule.

"In principle, yes." Ji Nan couldn't bear to disappoint her. He thought about it again and continued, "But there are also exceptions. I know of a person in the First Research Institute who isn't from the Independent Continent. He's from the illegal district. He came to the Independent Continent in his early years and, for some reason, participated in the assessment later on. He became the first place in the assessment back then and naturally entered the research institute... I remember that it caused quite a stir at that time. It's just that that person didn't stay long. He only stayed in the First Research Institute for less than a year before leaving."

Ji Nan reminisced. It was obvious that he did not really remember this matter.

"It's said that the First Research Institute changed the rules for him a few times during his year there. He was a very talented person."

"Who?" Qiao Nian had a strange feeling, but she couldn't tell the exact reason.

Someone from the illegal district...

Ji Nan shook his head. "I don't know. The matters of the First Research Institute have always been confidential in the Independent Continent. I don't pay much attention to their matters."

He smiled upon seeing that Qiao Nian seemed to be deep in thought. "If you want to know, I'll help you ask Ji Ziyin later. She should know."

Ji Nan and Ji Ziyin's relationship was very ordinary. If Qiao Nian wasn't interested in this, he probably wouldn't look for Ji Ziyin even once a year.

However, Qiao Nian shook her head and pulled down her baseball cap, seemingly uninterested. "No need. I just asked casually."

Ji Nan glanced at her as he drove.

Chapter 1854 - 1854 If Qiao Nian Represents the Nan Family in the Assessment

He paused for a moment and then said, "But the Nan family has never been involved in these things. I'll help you ask my uncle-in-law. He might be willing to recommend you."

It had been almost twenty years since the Nan family had recommended anyone to participate in the assessment of the First Research Institute.

This also caused some newly risen small forces in the Independent Continent to think that this was why they declined.

After all, the First Research Institute was too important.

The Nan family had not had a single person participate in the past twenty years. Compared to the Ji family who could send a person to the First Research Institute every three years, they seemed a little down and out...

However, those who knew the inside story knew that the Nan family had few members and did not like to cultivate their own power like the other two families.

Under such circumstances, no one from the Nan family could participate in the assessment.

Qiao Nian indeed had something in mind for the First Research Institute, so she didn't stand on ceremony with him. Looking up at him with her dark eyes, she nodded and said softly, "Thank you."

Ji Nan smiled. He was in a good mood. "You don't have to be so polite with me. I'm already very grateful that you're willing to come over."

Looking at the girl, although he didn't want to give her too much pressure, for Qiao Nian's sake, he still said in a low voice, "Actually, as long as you have a way to treat my aunt... No, there's no need to treat her. As long as you can reduce her pain, my uncle should be willing to help you."

Xie Tingyun and Nan Tianyi were famous for having a good relationship.

The two of them had been married for twenty years and had been living in seclusion in a manor that was isolated from the world.

When Xie Tingyun was young, she was too exhausted from doing research, causing her to be infertile. magic

As the only male in this generation of the Nan family, Nan Tianyi was under a certain amount of pressure in this aspect.

However, he forcefully resisted the pressure.

Xie Tingyun was not in good health, so he accompanied her to live in seclusion for 20 years.

Xie Tingyun had never been able to get pregnant, so he had never had a child.

It could be seen how good their relationship was.

That was why Ji Nan said that if Qiao Nian could reduce his aunt's pain, even if she couldn't cure her, Nan Tianyi would very likely be willing to recommend her and think of a way to let Qiao Nian participate in the assessment of the First Research Institute...

However, for Qiao Nian to represent the Nan family in the First Research Institute's assessment...

There was a high chance that the Independent Continent would have another commotion.

After all, no one from the Nan family had participated in the assessment in the past twenty years.

But the moment they did, they would discover that it was an outsider.

The explosiveness of two consecutive heavy bombs would definitely make the Independent Continent lively again.

At that time, all the major forces would probably focus on Qiao Nian again and think of ways to investigate her thoroughly.

Ji Nan's car had already driven into a beautiful manor before she could reply.

"We're here," Ji Nan said as he parked the car. He unbuckled his seatbelt and turned around to say to the girl, "Let's get out of the car first."

Qiao Nian looked outside and saw a very beautiful, white four-story villa.

She unbuckled her seatbelt, picked up her backpack, and got out of the car.

Ye Wangchuan's messages came one after another, as punctual as if he had installed surveillance cameras to monitor her.

[Y: Are you there yet?]

Qiao Nian looked down at the WeChat message on her phone. For a moment, she suspected that he had installed a location tracker on her phone.

However, she knew very well that the possibility of someone installing a location tracker on her phone without her noticing was almost zero.

It could only be said that he knew her too well.

He had calculated her whereabouts clearly.

Chapter 1855 - 1855 Sister Nian: No Need, I'll See the Patient First

Qiao Nian casually replied as she followed Ji Nan toward the villa.

[QN: I just arrived. I'm about to go over to see the patient.]

Then, she turned her phone to silent mode and put it in her pocket.

With Ji Nan leading the way, Qiao Nian soon arrived outside the ward.

Nan Tianyi, Xie Yun, and the Nan family's butler were all there waiting for them.

When everyone saw Ji Nan leading a girl over, they immediately perked up and almost reacted at the same time. They looked in Ji Nan's direction—

However, be it Nan Tianyi, Xie Yun, or the old butler, the three of them only took a glance at Ji Nan before ignoring him. They could not wait to see the person walking behind him.

Young!

Very young!

This was Nan Tianyi and the old butler's first impression of Qiao Nian.

Then, the old butler frowned. He looked suspiciously behind the girl as if he thought someone was supposed to be behind her.

However, to his disappointment, there was no one.

Only Ji Nan and Qiao Nian were there.

"Rao City's Miracle Doctor is so young?" He couldn't help but mutter.

His voice wasn't loud.

Perhaps only Nan Tianyi and Xie Yun, who were beside him, could hear it.

Xie Yun also saw the girl. She wasn't as surprised as them and was more composed. "Ji Nan said that she's the creator of the small pill on the black market. Since she can make this medicine, we'll have to believe her."

Nan Tianyi's expression was complicated, but he didn't say anything. His voice was deep as he said, "It's useless even if you don't believe her. Tingyun can't wait anymore. Let's leave it at that. Even if the chance is slim, I still want to give it a try. What if..."

When he said 'what if', his voice was so bitter.

The bitter Xie Yun couldn't help but look at him. Then, she looked away and sighed helplessly. Her thoughts drifted away and she felt a little sad.

Her marriage was like a pool of stagnant water. Other than benefits, there was almost no relationship between husband and wife.

If she was sick...

Ji Lingfeng would probably never be like Nan Tianyi, who was nervous for her and would do anything for her.

They did not have such a relationship.

Xie Yun only felt uncomfortable for a moment, but she quickly got over it and comforted him. "I've seen this friend of Ji Nan's. She's quite a surprising person. Don't be too pessimistic. Perhaps there will be a miracle."

"Yes." Nan Tianyi smiled elegantly and gently. He looked at the two people walking over, especially the girl at the back. He looked forward to it from the bottom of his heart. "If there's a miracle... I can thank that Miracle Doctor until I die."

They arrived in front of them at this moment.

Ji Nan greeted the two of them.

The butler also greeted him respectfully.

Ji Nan asked Xie Yun, "Where's Aunt?"

"Your aunt took her medicine and went to bed." Xie Yun had been taking care of Xie Tingyun at Nan Tianyi's place for the past few days. Next, she looked at the girl behind him with a gentle gaze and said to him, "Ji Nan, do you want to bring your friend to rest? She just arrived. She should be very tired, right? Let's make her a cup of tea, and she can sit down to rest for a while..."

Qiao Nian saw the friendly expression on the woman's face, which was similar to Ji Nan's. She pursed her lips and pulled the shoulder bag on her back, then rejected her professionally. "No need. Let's see the patient first."

Ji Nan knew that she was quite busy and did not like to chat too much, so he did not delay things.

He spoke briefly to Nan Tianyi before leading Qiao Nian to his aunt's room...

Chapter 1856 - 1856 No One Could Expect the Person Before Their Eyes to Be a Weapon Expert

Ji Nan and Qiao Nian went in.

The three people standing outside looked at each other.

The butler spoke first. "Sir, let's go in too!"

Nan Tianyi pressed a finger between his eyebrows and then sighed. "Forget it!" magic

He turned to look at Xie Yun and said, "Let's go in and take a look too."

"Okay." Xie Yun walked in first.

Nan Tianyi and the butler followed her inside.

In the room.

Qiao Nian asked Ji Nan to open the curtains and the window to let the light in. Then, she put down her shoulder bag and took out a hand pad.

Previously, the windows in the room were tightly closed, and there was no ventilation. The light was dim, and it was impossible to see the situation inside clearly.

It was not until the light shone inside that Qiao Nian saw the woman lying on the bed clearly.

The woman was in her early forties. She was so thin that only her bones were left. She looked sickly as she lay on the bed with her eyes closed.

Her face was haggard and yellow, and her lips were dry and cracked, but it could not hide the woman's elegant and dignified facial features.

This was a very beautiful woman.

Even Qiao Nian couldn't help but take another look at her. She was beautiful, not aggressive, and she had a very comforting temperament.

No one would have thought that such a beautiful and sickly woman would be an expert in nuclear weapons.

"Aunt?" Ji Nan walked over after opening the curtains and gently woke her up. "Aunt, wake up. My friend is here to treat you."

Xie Tingyun was a light sleeper. She had long been woken up by the sounds in the room. At this moment, her willowy eyebrows furrowed slightly as she slowly opened her eyes.

Her eardrum started to buzz and hurt again the moment she opened her eyes.

Even though her body was in extreme pain, Xie Tingyun endured it and struggled to sit up. "Why didn't you tell me earlier..."

Before Ji Nan could do it, the quick-witted Nan Tianyi quickly walked to the bed and skillfully helped the woman up. He even scolded her gently. "Why are you showing off again? Didn't I tell you to call me when you want to get up? I'll help you up."

However, the corners of her lips curled up unconsciously. She couldn't hide the happiness on her sickly face.

Xie Yun, who was walking behind, saw this scene and felt sad. She forced a smile and pretended to be relaxed. "Tingyun, Ji Nan's friend is here to treat you. Cooperate with Miss Qiao later. Don't feel pressured. We're just here to take a look."

Only then did Xie Tingyun notice the girl standing not far away. The girl looked very young. She was wearing a baseball cap and was dressed thinly. She was also holding a hand pad to take her pulse. She was stunned for a moment, clearly a little surprised. Perhaps she did not expect Ji Nan's doctor friend to be so young...

However, she didn't say anything. She nodded kindly in Qiao Nian's direction, stretched out her wrist from under the blanket, and chuckled. "Sorry to trouble you."

Qiao Nian did not waste any time and said to Ji Nan, "Excuse me." Then, she dragged a stool to the bed, placed the cushion under Xie Tingyun's wrist, and began to take her pulse.

The people of the Independent Continent knew about the existence of Chinese Medicine.

However, most people only used Western Medicine.

Western Medicine's stethoscope looked more reliable than other methods of checking one's pulse.

The old butler's heart sank upon seeing this. It was evident that he did not trust Qiao Nian's ability.

Chapter 1857 - 1857 Sister Nian: One Person Can Stay

However, Xie Yun and Nan Tianyi didn't say anything. Qiao Nian was someone Ji Nan had found. Even though he didn't believe that this girl who looked to be less than 20 years old could treat his wife's illness, he could only anxiously wait for the results...

A minute passed.

Qiao Nian lowered her eyes, looking calm and composed. She had no intention of speaking at all as if she was still focused on taking her pulse.

On the other hand, Nan Tianyi's heart was in turmoil. He gradually became nervous and couldn't help but ask, "Miss Qiao, how's my wife's illness? Is there any way?"

Ji Nan also looked nervously in the girl's direction.

Qiao Nian changed her hand and again placed two fingers on Xie Tingyun's wrist. She then retracted her hand and narrowed her dark eyes. "You've delayed it for too long. It's a little late."

Nan Tianyi's determined face revealed a bitter expression. He was not surprised.

However, the butler was a little angry. He kept looking at Qiao Nian. There were a few times he wanted to say something, but he kept quiet.

Why did Young Master Ji find such a person to treat Madam?

It was fine if this so-called Miracle Doctor didn't have any real ability, but she actually said the truth so bluntly in front of Madam.

"SN..." Ji Nan had never thought that Qiao Nian would definitely be able to cure his aunt. From the beginning, he only held onto one-ten-thousandth of hope and wanted to give it a try. However, he still felt terrible when he heard the result. He couldn't help but ask if she could think of a way.

The girl in the baseball cap stood up and put her hands in her sweater pockets. She didn't look at the people in the room with different expressions and continued calmly, "There's a nodule on her neck. This nodule is pressing down on her arteries and blood vessels, causing the patient to have difficulty breathing and unbearable pain. It's a little late to detect it. The nodule has already worsened, but fortunately, it's not too late..."

Qiao Nian knew why Ji Nan looked for her as soon as she examined Xie Tingyun.

The location of the malignant nodule on Xie Tingyun's body was very tricky. It was close to the aorta of the neck. If anyone were to operate in this location, they might cut into the aorta.

She could still live a little longer if she did not undergo surgery.

If she did, she might die on the operating table.

However, Western Medicine's method of dealing with tumors and nodules was to perform surgery to remove malignant tissue.

If the patient could not undergo surgery, then, no matter how powerful Western Medicine was, they could not do anything about this situation. They could only watch helplessly...

The old Chinese Medicine was more gentle and diverse in this aspect.

Qiao Nian happened to have read the relevant ancient books in the Pharmacy Association. There was indeed an ancient acupuncture technique applicable to Xie Tingyun's situation.

Xie Tingyun could try the acupuncture technique recorded in the ancient Yellow Emperor Herb Book.

"I'll give her acupuncture to see if it works." magic

Qiao Nian did not waste any time. She went to grab her shoulder bag, unzipped it, took out the acupuncture bag, and returned to the bed.

Then, she looked at the stunned people in the room again, who had yet to react.

Qiao Nian raised the corners of her eyes and chased them away. "One person can stay. The rest of you can leave."

Only then did everyone come back to their senses as if they had woken up from a dream.

Xie Yun was the first to react. She was unable to hide her excitement and hurriedly pulled Ji Nan out. "Ah, right, right. Ji Nan, let's go out first. Just leave your uncle to accompany her."

Chapter 1858 - 1858 You Look Like a Friend I Know

"I'll go out first." The butler was the most shocked person, but he definitely hoped that Qiao Nian would have a way to treat Xie Tingyun's illness. He almost rushed out.

Ji Nan was dragged out in the blink of an eye.

The butler also went out and closed the door for them.

Nan Tianyi finally recovered from his shock at this moment. His eyes were filled with joy and worry, afraid that the trace of hope that was painstakingly ignited would be gone. He even spoke carefully, afraid that Qiao Nian would change her words. "Miss Qiao, do you really have a way to treat my wife's illness?"

Previously, he had been very polite to Qiao Nian, but his previous politeness was based on the fact that she was hired by Ji Nan and was Ji Nan's friend. His attitude was polite, but he did not pay much attention to her.

But now, it was like he had finally grabbed a piece of driftwood after drawing for a long time. He couldn't care less about his image.

"I'll try." Qiao Nian didn't say anything else as she opened the acupuncture bag and took out a thin needle that shone coldly. She sat back on the bed and whispered to the woman on the bed, "It will hurt a little. Bear with it for a while and it will pass."

At first, Xie Tingyun did not have any hope for her illness. She might have chosen to give up long ago if not for her husband running around seeking treatment for her... Now that she heard that someone could cure her illness, she was slightly stunned and could not help but look carefully at the person who spoke.

The girl's eyebrows were exquisite, and her face under the brim of her cap was extremely beautiful and eye-catching.

It was the kind of face that was hard to forget after seeing it once.

Qiao Nian was wearing a baseball cap. Xie Tingyun had just woken up and was still in a daze. Coupled with the torture of her illness, she did not see Qiao Nian's face clearly. magic

After she saw it clearly, she was in a daze for a moment before blurting out, "Xiao Qing?"

Before Qiao Nian could react, Nan Tianyi grabbed his wife's hand and covered her with a blanket. Then, he said in a low voice, "Tingyun, what are you talking about? You've got the wrong person again."

He knew who she was talking about.

There had once been someone as famous as Xie Tingyun in weapon manufacturing in the Independent Continent. That person was a legendary figure that only appeared once in a hundred years in the Ji family.

Unfortunately, that person died young.

Xie Tingyun was one of the few people in the Independent Continent who still remembered Ji Qing.

In a daze, she took a closer look at the girl, but it was as if she had been pulled back to reality. She smiled bitterly and apologized. "I'm sorry, Miss Qiao. You look like an old friend of mine. I was wrong. Don't take it to heart."

Qiao Nian's originally casual expression became a little more serious. She tilted her head and glanced at the woman on the bed. Then, without saying anything else, she nodded, sat down, and said in a gentler voice, "Auntie Xie, I'm about to start. Are you ready?"

"Yes." Xie Tingyun was sick and looked very weak. She had only sat up for a while, but her back was already drenched in a hot sweat. However, her eyes were still very friendly and kind. She said gently, "I'm ready. You can start."

Qiao Nian nodded, and the light in her eyes darkened. Her slightly nonchalant attitude changed. From the moment she started to perform acupuncture on Xie Tingyun, her aura had also changed, becoming serious...

She did not waste any time and began to perform acupuncture.

Chapter 1859 - 1859 Sister Nian: I'll Stay in a Hotel

An hour passed.

In the corridor outside.

The butler kept pacing back and forth. He had gone from patient to anxious.

He stopped at the door and pricked up his ears to hear what was going on inside, but he did not hear any sound even after listening for a long time. magic

The butler frowned and became even more worried.

That Miss Qiao said there was a way to treat Madam's illness. Could it be that she was bragging?

That would be too evil!

Ji Nan and his mother ignored him.

Xie Yun waited for an hour and looked at the time on her watch. She couldn't help but turn her head and ask her son, "Why aren't they out yet? Ji Nan, do you think Miss Qiao can do it?"

She originally thought that Ji Nan would definitely comfort her and tell her that there was no problem.

Unexpectedly, the refined and handsome young man replied without thinking, "I don't know."

Xie Yun's lips twitched. Glaring, she was about to ridicule him when the door opened.

Nan Tianyi was the first to come out.

Xie Yun and Ji Nan both stood up straight and looked in their direction.

“Miss Qiao, thank you so much for today. I don’t know how to thank you. I’ll remember this favor. If you need anything in the future, just ask,” Nan Tianyi said sincerely.

He was unable to conceal his joy, and his face was filled with smiles.

The butler, Ji Nan, and the rest were stunned upon seeing his smile. After all, ever since Xie Tingyun fell sick, they had not seen Nan Tianyi look so relaxed for a long time.

“SN.” Ji Nan quickly walked to Qiao Nian’s side and greeted her without asking how the situation was.

Qiao Nian seemed to know what he wanted to ask. She raised her hand and said concisely, “I performed acupuncture on your aunt. The effect is alright.

“She needs long-term treatment. I’ll come over every two days to give her acupuncture. I’ll prescribe her medicine when her condition stabilizes.”

But more than that, he felt joy.

An indescribable joy from the bottom of his heart!

Nan Tianyi was more mature and calm than him. Although he was happier than anyone else at this moment, he forced himself to calm down and thanked the girl. Then, he asked with concern, “Where does Miss Qiao live? Why don’t you stay here? I’ll get the butler to tidy up a room for you.”

Of course, he hoped that Qiao Nian could stay. This way, it would be more convenient for his wife to receive acupuncture.

After all, he saw Xie Tingyun regain some color and fall asleep after Qiao Nian performed the acupuncture.

Even if Qiao Nian could not cure his wife’s illness in the end, as long as his wife was no longer tortured, Nan Tianyi wished he could treat the person in front of him as a distinguished guest.

“...I’ll go clean up the room immediately.” The butler didn’t need an order.

Qiao Nian picked up her shoulder bag and rejected him directly. “I’m staying in a hotel.”

Although Nan Tianyi was a little disappointed, he still respected the girl’s decision. He said gently, “Which hotel is Miss Qiao staying at? I’ll send you there.”

Qiao Nian gave him the address.

Nan Tianyi went to get his car keys.

Ji Nan quickly followed and said, “Mom, Uncle and I will send SN back to the hotel.”

Xie Yun naturally had no objections.

Soon, Nan Tianyi returned with the car keys, and the three of them left the manor.

Intercontinental Hotel.

Qiao Nian went to the front desk to check at the moment she arrived at the hotel.

She handed her identity card to the front desk person. The person asked her to wait for a moment and used the computer to check her check-in information.

Ji Nan whispered from the side, “I’ll tell Uncle about you wanting to enter the First Research Institute later. He should be willing to help.”

Qiao Nian originally had one hand in her pocket and was quite cool. She leaned against the front desk and waited for the hotel's front desk to return her identity card.

Hearing this, she raised her head and looked at him seriously. "Thank you."

Her voice was low and hoarse.

However, he could tell that she was interested.

Ji Nan looked at the girl's clear eyes and smiled. "You don't have to thank me. I'm the one who should be thanking you. Fortunately, you were willing to come over. Otherwise, I wouldn't know what to do."

Qiao Nian briefly explained Xie Tingyun's physical condition to him.

As they spoke, the front desk person completed the check-in procedures for Qiao Nian. She returned her identity card with both hands and then handed her the room card.

Her smile was sweet and gentle. "Hello, VIP. Your room is Room 3306 on the 33rd floor. This is your room card. Please take it."

Qiao Nian took the ID card and room card from her.

The front desk person asked gently again, "Do you need us to bring you up?"

"No, thank you." Qiao Nian rejected the front desk person's good intentions as she put her identity card into her shoulder bag and held the room card in her hand.

She turned around and looked at Ji Nan. Her fair and eye-catching face was hidden under her baseball cap. "You can go back first. I can go up by myself. I'll go to the manor on time tomorrow to give Auntie Xie acupuncture."

Ji Nan was surprised at the way Qiao Nian addressed his aunt.

He had known her for several years. Qiao Nian had a mild personality and was slow to warm up to others. She was very calm when interacting with people she was familiar with, let alone strangers she had only met once.

Ji Nan didn't expect her to be so concerned about Xie Tingyun.

After being stunned for a moment, he quickly came back to his senses. He looked in the direction of the elevator uneasily and turned to ask the girl, "You really don't need me to go up with you?"

Since she insisted, Ji Nan didn't delay her any longer. He stuffed the Independent Continent pass into her hands and said, "You have to be careful when staying in a hotel alone. Remember to not open the door to strangers. Call me. I have a house not far from here. I'll be staying there for the next few days. I can get here in ten minutes."

Qiao Nian looked at him lazily.

This was the first time she realized that Ji Nan was actually like a nagging mother.

She thought that Gu San was the only one who had this problem. She did not expect Ji Nan to have it too. He loved to nag and was especially like a nagging mother.

"Send me a message before you leave tomorrow. I'll come to pick you up." Ji Nan reminded her of many things in one go. In the end, he did not forget to remind Qiao Nian to look for him tomorrow.

Qiao Nian gave him an OK sign and said coolly, "Goodbye." Then, she pulled down her baseball cap and walked towards the elevator...

Watching her enter the elevator, Ji Nan picked up his phone and called Nan Tianyi, who was waiting outside. "SN has settled the check-in procedures. Yes, I'll be right out."

Then, he walked out.
