

Madam's 1961

Chapter 1961 - 1961 Found the Post from Four Years Ago

The poster's name was X.

Unknown.

The title of the post was very simple and crude—[On the Feasibility of a New Calculation Method for Radar Detection].

Ji Ziyin felt as if she had obtained a treasure.

She impatiently clicked on it. The post was posted on an afternoon four years ago. The person who posted it recorded his thoughts in the post.

'He' suggested that the propagation time of the echo pulse in the sample would also change, resulting in the echo position moving.

Then, a new algorithm was proposed. It was called the super algorithm.

At that time, the person who posted the thread clearly only casually recorded some of their scattered thoughts. The content was relatively loose, and they did not give specific experimental data to prove the possibility of a new algorithm proposed...

Therefore, not many people noticed this post at that time.

No one replied to it.

Ji Ziyin looked through the entire post and only saw one or two replies. They were even asking irrelevant questions.

And this 'X' seemed to have a very cold personality. Even though two people replied, 'he' did not care much. 'He' only replied to one person.

Ji Ziyin looked at the reply.

[Indigo Collar: Little kid, your algorithm is quite interesting. Do you have time to experiment and verify it?]

Below was X's concise reply.

[X: I'm not free now. We'll talk about it later.]

Ji Ziyin's heart was beating very fast. She could almost hear the vibrations in her chest knocking against her veins.

She read the thread again. The 'super algorithm' proposed by X was only a semi-finished product, but she could confirm that Team 10's super algorithm was derived from this semi-finished product. It had just been perfected on the basis of this semi-finished product.

In other words, Qiao Nian and the others had plagiarized!

Ji Ziyin confirmed this repeatedly and immediately sent a message to the forum without any hesitation.

In the message, she explained the situation of the research institute's group examination in detail. She also attached a link to X's post to prove that she was not spouting nonsense.

After Ji Ziyin finished doing this, she waited for feedback from the forum in peace.

She also knew how many people Qiao Nian and the others had provoked this time.

It was over for them. magic

Team 10 had actually plagiarized from someone on the WLA forum. Once the WLA found out, they would definitely deal with it.

How would Qiao Nian and the members of Team 10 explain all of this?

Ji Ziyin suddenly wanted to watch the drama.

Qiao Nian still didn't know that she had gotten first place in the group examination. Before she walked out of the First Research Institute, many people were already eyeing her.

Someone called her from behind as soon as she walked out of the research institute. "Qiao Nian."

The girl walking out with her hands in her pockets stopped and looked back.

Xu Yi ran over quickly. A thin layer of sweat broke out on his fair forehead, and his cold face under the sun was especially handsome.

Stopping in front of the girl, he placed his hand on his knee and panted slightly. When his breathing was even, Xu Yi stuffed something into the girl's hand. "For you."

The thing he stuffed into her hand was hard, sharp, and a little rough.

Qiao Nian looked down and saw that it was a black key.

She understood it almost instantly.

Level 8 laboratory key.

“Shen Qingfeng asked me to bring it to you. We agreed that it was best to leave this to you.” Xu Yi’s thin lips, which were pursed all year round, made him appear distant.

He was a man of few words. After delivering the key, he waved at the girl. “I’ll go back first.”

Qiao Nian watched him leave and put away the key. Then, she restrained the emotions in her eyes and turned around to continue on her way...

Chapter 1962 - 1962 Master Wang, You Seem to Have Some Competition

Across the road.

A black Buick was parked quietly under a large, leafy tree.

In the car.

Qin Si placed his hand on the steering wheel and accidentally saw what happened. “Master Wang, that kid is trying to get close to her. I think he even stuffed something into Sister Qiao’s hand. Do you want to ask her when she gets here?”

Sitting in the front passenger seat, Ye Wangchuan rolled down the window. His handsome face was calm and composed as he saw the girl walking over from the other side of the road, as if he was not in a hurry at all. “There’s no need.”

“Tsk.” Qin Si glanced at him, not understanding if he was too confident or trusted Qiao Nian too much. He was about to say that Qiao Nian had also accepted the “gift” from the other party.

Ye Wangchuan said calmly, “A woman who has been seen by a lion will not fall in love with a wild dog.”

Qin Si was stunned for a full second before he realized what he meant.

He was inexplicably stuffed with dog food. He was about to retort that the kid was not bad-looking and was from the First Research Institute. How could he be a 'wild dog'?

However, before Qin Si could speak, the backseat door was opened from the outside. magic

Then, the girl quickly got into the car.

"What are you guys talking about?" Qiao Nian closed the door and casually opened the window to let in fresh air.

"It's nothing. We were just chatting."

Ye Wangchuan casually handed over the fresh orange juice he had already bought and changed the topic. "How was the group assessment today?"

"By the way, I almost forgot," Qin Si added. He turned to look at her. "Sister Qiao, how are your results for the group exam today?"

Qiao Nian took the water from him and inserted the straw. After taking a small sip, her shoulders relaxed, she nestled in her seat and narrowed her eyes lazily.

"First place.

"I was lucky. It happened to be an A+."

The last sentence was the answer to Qin Si's question about her results.

She spoke casually as if she was purely lucky to have gotten an A+.

He was not sure if there were any better results than A, such as S.

However, Qiao Nian had only gotten an A+. He was more inclined to believe that the First Research Institute's group assessment did not have the S grade. The highest was A.

At this moment, Qiao Nian's cell phone vibrated.

She thought that Xue Zhu and the others were looking for her, so she did not answer Qin Si. She took out her phone and looked down.

Fortunately, Ye Wangchuan answered his question very 'considerately'. "The highest score in the First Research Institute's group assessment history is an A. If I remember correctly, no one has ever gotten a score higher than A in the group assessment. This time, it should be the first A+ in the First Research Institute's group assessment."

Qin Si was completely speechless. He looked at Qiao Nian, who was playing with her phone. He couldn't help but mutter, "She broke a record in the first round of the assessment for the research institute, and a record in the second round. After entering the research institute, she also broke a record in her first group assessment... Why do I f*cking feel that Sister Qiao entered the First Research Institute to break records!"

Qiao Nian's results were f*cking ridiculous!

Everyone had the same number of noses and eyes. Why was her brain so useful? Why didn't he have such a useful brain?

Just as Qin Si was still angry and depressed, Ye Wangchuan knocked on the steering wheel and reminded him, "Alright. Let's go back first."

"Okay." Qin Si concealed his depressing feelings and started the car. He turned the car around and drove towards his residence.

Chapter 1963 - 1963 X's True Identity

While they were talking, the girl sitting in the back row was looking down and playing with her phone.

No one knew what she was looking at, but Qiao Nian did not participate in their conversation along the way and kept replying to messages.

Qiao Nian received another message just as the car was about to reach home.

This time, it was from the WLA forum.

Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows slightly and clicked on it.

It was a screenshot of a report that the WLA forum had forwarded to her. It listed evidence that someone had discovered a newcomer from the First Research Institute plagiarizing her.

The WLA forum's administrator left her a message and asked her very politely if it was true.

Qiao Nian leaned back in her seat and held her phone. Her aura was unrestrained, and there was a rare frivolity between her eyebrows. She quickly typed a reply.

[There is no plagiarism.]

If Ji Ziyin was here at this moment, she would definitely see her nickname in the chat box.

X.

In the afternoon.

Nan Tianyi also heard that Qiao Nian achieved a good result in the group examination. He took the initiative to call her and said that he had booked a private room in the Intercontinental Hotel. They would have dinner tonight to celebrate.

Qiao Nian had never been able to reject the kindness of her elders, so she agreed.

However, she said she would bring two friends over.

She asked Nan Tianyi who would be there tonight. After confirming that only Ji Nan, Xie Tingyun, Xie Yun, and the others would be there, she informed Ye Wangchuan and Qin Si.

Bo Jingxing had returned to Beijing the day before yesterday, saying that he needed to go back to settle some matters.

Gu San followed him back.

Therefore, only Qin Si was still here.

Night.

Qiao Nian brought the two of them as promised.

In the private room.

Ji Nan, Xie Yun, and the others had already arrived.

Nan Tianyi even specially came out to pick them up. When everyone was there, the waiter immediately served all kinds of dishes.

Ye Wangchuan was wearing a khaki windbreaker today. The hem was very long, making him look even more slender and extraordinary.

As soon as he entered the private room, he pulled out a chair for the girl. When Qiao Nian walked over and sat down, he pushed the chair in and pulled out the seat beside her to sit down.

After sitting down, he got the waiter to serve her a cup of warm water. He replaced the wine glass in front of Qiao Nian with it.

Then, he looked up and explained to Nan Tianyi and the others politely, "She can't drink cold drinks for the next few days. I'll drink a few glasses on her behalf later. Do you mind?"

Xie Tingyun had long heard from Nan Tianyi that someone would pick Qiao Nian up every time she came to the manor.

He was Qiao Nian's boyfriend.

Xie Tingyun had long heard of Qiao Nian's 'boyfriend', who had never appeared before. Today, upon seeing his series of actions, she became more and more satisfied. She smiled and asked the girl, "Nian Nian, who is this?"

Xie Yun was actually also looking at Ye Wangchuan.

At first, she thought that her son and Qiao Nian were just short of breaking through the window paper. On the surface, they were friends, but in private, they might develop some feelings for each other.

Who knew that she would bring her 'boyfriend' along?

She sized up her son's 'love rival'. Although every mother thought that her son was the most outstanding man, at this moment, Xie Yun had to admit that the man in front of her was outstanding. She couldn't find any fault with him.

She also teased, "Miss Qiao, why don't you introduce us?"

Chapter 1964 - 1964 Introducing Ye Wangchuan to Nan Tianyi and the Others

1964 Introducing Ye Wangchuan to Nan Tianyi and the Others

Qiao Nian had just put down her phone. Upon hearing this, she looked up and saw that everyone was looking at her, waiting for her to introduce him.

She suddenly felt a little frustrated. Not used to it, she held her cup and paused for a second. Her voice was slightly hoarse as she spoke. "Ye Wangchuan. The other is my friend, Qin Si."

Upon thinking about it, she felt that this introduction was a little too dry. So, she added, "None of them are from the Independent Continent. They came with me this time."

She introduced Ye Wangchuan and Qin Si to Xie Yun and the others. Then, she turned her head and introduced the people sitting opposite her to them.

"This is Auntie Xie." She introduced Xie Tingyun first, then Xie Yun, Ji Nan, and Nan Tianyi.

This time, other than them, the old butler also came.

The old butler did not take a seat at first. He served tea to everyone at the side.

After Qiao Nian introduced him, her gaze landed on him. She did not look down on him at all and seriously introduced him to Ye Wangchuan and Qin Si.

The old butler was a little flattered. He couldn't raise his head when he thought about his attitude towards her in the beginning. His face grew hot.

Fortunately, Nan Tianyi noticed and patted his shoulder silently, comforting his excited and sorry state.

Only then did the old butler calm down. When he looked at Qiao Nian again, his eyes were much more loving. No longer as awkward as before, he asked the girl gently, "Miss Qiao, do you want more water? Let me add more water for you."

Qiao Nian didn't say anything and handed him the cup.

The old butler heaved a sigh of relief and relaxed further. He quickly poured some hot water and placed the cup by the girl's hand again.

Ye Wangchuan could not be bad at socializing to thrive in Beijing.

He rarely encountered occasions where he needed to socialize, but as long as he did, his social skills were not inferior to Qin Si's.

Qin Si was even more cheerful and talkative.

He was great at livening up the atmosphere.

Nan Tianyi did not know their background, but through the conversation during the meal, he vaguely felt that the two friends Qiao Nian had brought were not from the Independent Continent.

Especially Qiao Nian's boyfriend, Little Ye.

It was obvious that he was not an ordinary person.

At the very least, the other party could easily chat about any topic he brought up.

Even when he talked about some things in the First Research Institute, the other party knew them like the back of his hand. It was as if he knew the inside story.

Both of them liked to invest in stocks.

Previously, Qin Si had even said that he wanted to give Qiao Nian a stock. Therefore, when he met Ji Nan, who was good at speculating in the financial market, the two of them hit it off pretty well.

Ji Nan told him a lot about stock trading. He even gave him a few stocks and they added each other as friends.

Qiao Nian, on the other hand, was the least talkative. She mainly listened to them as she ate her food.

Nan Tianyi probably did not know what type of dishes she liked to eat. Basically, he ordered one of every type. magic Coincidentally, there was Qiao Nian's favorite spicy chicken.

Ye Wangchuan chatted with Nan Tianyi, Xie Tingyun, and Xie Yun while putting food into the girl's bowl from time to time.

He always picked up a few more dishes when Qiao Nian was about to finish her bowl, especially the spicy chicken that she liked. Later on, he simply moved the dish closer to the girl so that she could get it more easily.

Chapter 1965 - 1965 The Ji Family Is Not Done!

After the meal, he picked up a lot of food for Qiao Nian. He didn't eat much and even accompanied Nan Tianyi to drink two glasses of baijiu—the strong distilled spirit unavoidable at Chinese social functions.

Upon seeing that his earlobes were slightly red, Qiao Nian put down her chopsticks and took away his wine glass. She then asked the waiter to serve a cup of sobering tea.

Next, she said to Nan Tianyi, "Uncle Nan, drink less."

"I know." Nan Tianyi couldn't help but laugh when he saw her interference. His thick eyebrows and tiger eyes were a little amused.

He wanted to tease the girl again, but his wife slapped his thigh under the table and rebuked him, "Why are you drinking again? I remember you saying you've quit drinking."

“Nian Nian got first place. Aren’t I happy?”

Xie Tingyun was a little speechless. “Then, why are you forcing Little Ye to drink?”

Nan Tianyi was not afraid of anything but his wife. He immediately told Ye Wangchuan that he did not want to drink anymore and quickly apologized to her. “I’m not drinking anymore.”

Xie Tingyun glanced at him again before feeling satisfied.

At this moment, Qiao Nian stood up, picked up her phone, and said to them, “I’m going to the washroom.”

Qin Si was deep in conversation with Ji Nan when he noticed her. He straightforwardly asked, “Sister Qiao, do you want me to accompany you?”

He immediately covered his mouth as soon as he finished speaking. “Ahem, pretend I didn’t say anything. Be careful.”

Ye Wangchuan was more at ease. He only reminded the girl softly, “Send me a WeChat message.”

Qiao Nian was only going to the washroom. She did not expect them to have such a big reaction. She was a little taken aback. However, she pulled out a chair and replied casually. magic

Then, she greeted Xie Tingyun and left.

* * *

Outside the private room.

Qiao Nian didn't go far.

She went to the washroom and came out after washing her hands.

She was on her way back when someone stopped her.

Qiao Nian subconsciously frowned and stopped upon hearing this voice.

He Lin quickly followed and stood in front of her. After interacting with her a few times before, he understood the girl's personality better now. Not wasting his breath, he said concisely, "Young Miss, the Sixth Elder is waiting for you in the private room."

"I'm not seeing him."

As expected, the girl had no intention of meeting him.

She was about to walk around him when He Lin stopped her and said anxiously, "Young Miss, you should see the Sixth Elder. We've been following you for a day."

Qiao Nian stopped in her tracks and turned to look at him. Her eyes were extremely dark, as if a ferocious beast was about to pounce. "You followed me?"

He Lin was suddenly frightened by her. However, he had been by Ji Lingfeng's side for many years, after all. He had not lived this long for nothing.

After a moment of daze, he quickly calmed down, but his heart was still trembling a little. Not daring to look at Qiao Nian, He Lin lowered his head and quickly said, "Young Miss, don't misunderstand. We just want to talk to you about something. We don't mean to threaten you."

Ha, he wasn't threatening her?

However, he pointed out that they had been following her.

Wasn't this a threat?

What was it, then?

A warning?

Warning her to meet him?

The corners of Qiao Nian's mouth curled up into a fierce smile. An evil aura quickly spread around her, and her eyes grew cold and dry...

If not for the fact that Nan Tianyi, Xie Tingyun, and the others were still in a private room not far away, she might have asked He Lin on the spot.

However, she did not plan to return to the Ji family and did not want to alarm them.

Qiao Nian took a deep breath to suppress her frustration. Then, she looked up coldly and asked, "Where is he?"

Chapter 1966 - 1966 Sister Nian: Who Told You It Was Impossible?

"The Sixth Elder is waiting for you in private room A1103." He Lin did not dare to look at her.

"Mm."

"I'll take you there."

He Lin quickly led the way for Qiao Nian upon seeing that she was willing to meet the Sixth Elder.

In a private room beside the corridor.

Ji Hongyuan had been waiting here for a long time.

This time, he was not drinking tea. Instead, he was waiting for someone.

He Lin quickly led someone into the private room.

Ji Hongyuan immediately stood up as soon as he saw her. Under his white hair, a pair of turbid eyes revealed a burning light. They did not seem as sharp as before.

“Nian Nian, come in quickly.”

This time, he was enthusiastic and quickly invited Qiao Nian to sit.

He even instructed He Lin, “Get the waiter to pour two cups of coffee.”

He turned around and looked up at the girl gently. “What coffee do you want? Blue Mountain or a sweeter lady’s coffee?”

“I don’t drink coffee.” Qiao Nian walked straight over, but she had no intention of sitting down. She leaned against the chair and bent her long legs, looking a little unruly and lazy. She looked at the white-haired old man with clear black eyes and didn’t say anything else. “Why are you looking for me?”

Ji Hongyuan’s smile froze. He frowned slightly and almost lost control of his temper.

However, when he thought of Qiao Nian’s good results in the group examination, Ji Hongyuan suppressed the unknown anger in his heart.

He forced a warm smile and sat down calmly. Then, he looked at the girl and said gently, "Nian Nian, you're a smart child. I won't beat around the bush with you. After some discussion, we still hope that you can go home. The Ji family is your maternal grandfather's family, and you're also a direct descendant who has wandered outside. As long as you come back, you can name your conditions."

"You don't have any property in the Independent Continent, right?" Ji Hongyuan seemed to have thought of something. He stroked his beard and smiled slightly. "At your age, Ji Ziyin already has her own property and career. Other than that, she grew up under the nurturing of the family's teachers. She used the Ji family's reputation to obtain many honors."

Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows and controlled her temper. Her voice was low. "Then?"

Ji Hongyuan was not afraid that she would not be tempted. "She's from the Ji family's side branch. You're a noble direct descendant. As long as you're willing to come back, your future development won't be worse than hers!"

Ji Hongyuan was not done with the benefits. He decided to take out the big gun.

"This is for you."

"There's 100 million inside. Take it as a greeting gift from me." magic 100 million was not a small sum.

Of course, to the Ji family, 100 million was not worth mentioning.

Ji Hongyuan looked at her with a burning gaze. "What I said just now still counts. As long as you come back, you can name your conditions."

"If I say I want the Patriarch position, can you also give it to me?" Qiao Nian was interested and asked him back, her attitude surly and arrogant.

It was obvious that she did not sincerely want to go back!

As expected, Ji Hongyuan's expression changed slightly upon hearing this.

He Lin also said anxiously, "Young Miss, we're sincerely talking to you this time. It's impossible for you to not return to the Ji family and not acknowledge your roots and ancestors."

"Who told you that?" Qiao Nian glanced at him and put her hands in her pockets. Her expression was casual and her tone was frivolous. She did not hide her thoughts at all.

Chapter 1967 - 1967 In the End, They Still Can't Ignore the Benefits Before Their Eyes

"I've never thought of acknowledging the Ji family. I don't have this thought now, and I won't have it in the future. You don't have to waste your time looking for me in the future.

"Also..."

Qiao Nian picked up the black card.

Ji Hongyuan's eyes flickered, and a disdainful expression was about to flash across his face.

The girl sandwiched the black card between her fingers and returned it to him. The corners of her lips curled up into a knowing coldness, and her voice was dry and hoarse. "I still have some money. Take this back."

Qiao Nian put down the card.

Ji Hongyuan felt as if he had been slapped in the face.

His shrewd old face was a little embarrassed as he watched the girl turn around and leave.

Unable to take it anymore, he slammed the table. "Qiao Nian, I advise you not to do this the hard way!"

At the door, and with her hand at the doorknob, the girl replied without looking back.

"I'm also going to say this to you.

"I have limited patience and a bad temper. If you don't want to cause trouble, don't come looking for me again.

"I'm afraid that the Ji family's blood relationship isn't enough for you to use!"

Ji Hongyuan and He Lin's mouths opened slightly. Before they could recover from their shock, they watched helplessly as the girl opened the door and left in the blink of an eye.

Bang!

As the door of the private room closed.

Ji Hongyuan's face turned red. He was furious. "What kind of attitude is this!! How could such a person appear in the Ji family's direct bloodline!"

The Ji family had always been particular about upbringing and family members had to maintain order outside.

However, Qiao Nian was unruly and difficult to understand...

He Lin did not dare to speak.

He was so angry that he felt dizzy. He supported his forehead with his hand and waited for a moment to pass before grabbing his walking stick to prevent himself from falling. With flickering eyes and a dark face, he instructed He Lin, "Go and find out where she has been staying since she arrived at the Independent Continent.

"It's not safe for a girl to live outside. Find out where she's been living for now. We'll discuss how to talk to her later."

Qiao Nian had been in the Independent Continent for more than a month.

The Ji family knew that Qiao Nian had arrived on the Independent Continent more than a month ago. However, this was the first time Ji Hongyuan thought of asking where she was staying.

He Lin nodded solemnly.

Then, he remembered something and turned to Ji Hongyuan. "Sixth Elder, Miss Ji's birthday is coming up this year. She asked me to ask if you're free? Look..." magic Ji Ziyin was a seedling brought up by Ji Lingfeng.

In the past, Ji Ziyin's birthday was a big deal. At the very least, the Ji family would give her face.

But this time, Ji Hongyuan only raised his hand with little interest. "The young people can play. I'm too old for this."

He Lin was just asking on Ji Ziyin's behalf.

Since Ji Hongyuan was unwilling to give her face, he couldn't do anything. He quickly nodded, indicating that he understood and would pass the message to Ji Ziyin later.

Ji Hongyuan was still thinking about Qiao Nian, so he did not respond. He was thinking about a way to win her over from the Nan family.

Chapter 1968 - 1968 You're from Beijing's Ye Family?

In another private room.

Ye Wangchuan chatted with Nan Tianyi for a while more. Nan Tianyi asked about the big and small matters in Beijing, including the mysterious organization in Country Z, the Ninth Branch.

Ye Wangchuan took off his jacket and draped it over the back of the chair. He was wearing a white shirt, which gave off a noble and distant aura, making him stand out.

He had a good upbringing, so he answered Nan Tianyi's questions one by one.

Nan Tianyi had been observing him for a while. Like Xie Tingyun, the more he looked at him, the more satisfied he was. He asked him with a smile, "Little Ye, your surname is Ye, and you're from Beijing. Ye Maoshan is your..."

The Independent Continent had always been isolated from the world.

However, it did not mean that its residents did not know the outside world. On the contrary, the people of the Independent Continent were sitting steadily on the fishing platform and controlling the various forces outside.

The Ye family was one of the top forces in Beijing.

It also had rare earth resources.

It was not strange for him to know about the Ye family and Old Master Ye.

"He's my grandfather." Ye Wangchuan's expression did not change as he admitted calmly.

Nan Tianyi's brows relaxed slightly and he said, "No wonder. From your speech, I guessed that you had a good upbringing. So you're from Beijing's Ye family."

He was done speaking.

Xie Tingyun poured him a cup of hangover tea and placed it in front of him. "Drink this!"

Nan Tianyi picked it up with a smile and lowered his head to drink.

Xie Tingyun looked up. Her beautiful face was as gentle as water as she whispered to him, "Little Ye, don't listen to his nonsense. If he asks you a question that's difficult to answer, ignore him. He's just curious. He's already so old, but he's still like a hothead. He speaks so casually."

"No. Uncle Nan is a very good person." Ye Wangchuan also picked up the hangover tea and placed his lips on the cup. He lowered his eyes to hide the emotions in them.

He knew very well why Nan Tianyi had asked him so many indirect questions.

It was most likely because of Qiao Nian.

At this moment, Qin Si and Ji Nan were almost done bragging. He turned his head to the person beside him, lowered his voice, and asked, "Master Wang, why isn't Sister Qiao back yet?"

Ye Wangchuan raised his eyelids and leaned back.

He picked up his phone and was about to call the girl when the door opened and Qiao Nian entered the private room. magic

Ye Wangchuan vaguely felt that something was wrong with her aura. It was a little too surly and cold. He narrowed his eyes and asked in a low voice, "What happened?"

“Nothing.” Qiao Nian was already full. Seeing the food in her bowl, she did not touch her chopsticks. She was in a low mood and did not have much appetite. “I met someone.”

Ye Wangchuan raised his eyebrows and looked at her with his deep eyes. He was clearly waiting for her to finish.

Qiao Nian had already finished speaking. Seeing that he was still looking at her, she pursed her lips again. The frustration in her eyes surged and almost spewed out.

“Someone from the Ji family. You don’t know him.”

Ye Wangchuan could roughly guess who she had encountered outside.

“Why didn’t you send me a message?” Ye Wangchuan paused and added helplessly, “I’d have gone looking for you.”

“No need. I made it clear to them.”

They did not speak loudly. They spoke in a voice that only the two of them could hear.

In the eyes of others, it became a whisper between a young couple.

The man was handsome and the woman was beautiful. They were very eye-catching.

Qin Si was already used to it. It did not matter if he ate dog food or not. Anyway, he was full of dog food every day. He was just afraid that he would eat too much and suffer from indigestion.

Chapter 1969 - 1969 They Gave 100 Million, Sister Nian’s Casual Gift Is 100 Million

This was the first time Ji Nan and the others had seen such a situation.

Xie Tingyun looked at them with relish and could not bear to disturb them.

Only Nan Tianyi silently patted Ji Nan's shoulder and comforted him in a low voice. "Don't think about it, kid. Work hard in the future. You might meet the one."

Ji Nan was originally watching the commotion from the side. The ten-foot clueless monk had yet to touch his head when he turned around and was comforted by his uncle.

He was even more confused. His uncle must have thought that he, a single man, was envious of them. He nodded. "This kind of thing depends on fate. If it's not fated, there's no choice."

"I thought you said you didn't like her before?" Nan Tianyi recalled that he had told him about being rejected previously. He had even said that he didn't like anyone. Wasn't this admitting to it?

"What?" Ji Nan was confused again.

Fortunately, Nan Tianyi considered that it was already very tragic that he had 'lost his love' in public, so he did not continue this topic.

He went out to pay the bill.

Before he left, he even got the waiter to pack a portion of spicy chicken. He handed it to Qiao Nian and said, "I saw that you liked this, so I packed another portion for you. You can eat it when you're hungry tonight."

Qiao Nian was surprised to see him with the takeaway box, and she didn't expect him to give it to her. She was surprised, but she accepted Nan Tianyi's good intentions. After a moment of silence, she said, "I'll go give Auntie Xie more acupuncture sections in the next few days."

Nan Tianyi laughed and patted her shoulder. He waved his hand indifferently. "You've just obtained the key to the Level 8 laboratory. You should be very busy these few days. Go busy yourself. We'll talk when you're done."

Since he had said so, Qiao Nian did not insist. She unzipped her bag and took out a bottle of 'gum'. She handed it to him. "These are health supplements. Give them to Aunt Xie. Take one a week. It can last for about three months."

Nan Tianyi saw that it was a bottle of chewing gum. From the outside, it was just an ordinary bottle of chewing gum. He couldn't tell that it was a health supplement.

But he put it away and nodded seriously. "I understand."

Qiao Nian heaved a sigh of relief and took the takeaway box from him. She bade farewell to them with Qin Si and the others and turned to get into the car.

In the car.

Qin Si sighed. "Sister Qiao, don't tell me you gave her 10 small pills?"

Small pills were even harder to buy on the black market after the storm of Jiang Xianrou's fake medicine.

Wei Lou had already raised the price to eight figures, but the price was still rising.

Ten small pills meant that she had spent 100 million yuan.

100 million...

If those people on the black market found out, they would definitely break the railing of the kitchen in the Intercontinental Hotel. Only Sister Qiao could be so generous.

He was not so generous to do this.

Even though he did not lack these 100 million yuan.

“Master Wang, the retired nuclear weapons expert you’re talking about is Auntie Xie?” Qin Si asked as he turned to look at the man in the driver’s seat.

He couldn’t help but say, “Aunt Xie looks gentle and weak. She’s not like the person you mentioned...”

How precious was a nuclear weapons expert?

Moreover, experts at Xie Tingyun’s level were extremely rare.

Such a person should not take a plane when traveling to prevent an accident.

After meeting her, he realized that she was no different from an ordinary person. In fact, her temper was even milder than he expected.

No matter how he looked at it, the other party did not look like a person who played with black gunpowder.magic

Chapter 1970 - 1970 Aunt Xie Is Also a Hidden Big Boss

Ye Wangchuan was driving, so he did not explain much to him. He only said, “Xie Tingyun is the top expert alive now.

“Don’t judge a person by their appearance. She’s not someone you can afford to offend.”

Xie Tingyun was not to be trifled with.

This was also why the Nan family had not contacted the First Research Institute for more than 20 years. This time, Qiao Nian needed to participate in the assessment. Nan Tianyi could immediately ask the First Research Institute and get a spot for her...

Xie Tingyun’s influence in the First Research Institute was definitely not as simple as it seemed.

Her existence was the representative of the powerful generation that had declined and disappeared.

Although most of that generation was like Xie Tingyun and had already hidden their identities, no one was willing to provoke the group behind her.

"I understand," Qin Si said resentfully.

Qiao Nian did not have much of a reaction. Her eyes were calm as she grabbed her cell phone and lowered her head to reply to her messages.

She would have three days off now that the group assessment was over.

After the three-day vacation ended, she still had to return to the First Research Institute. Then, she could enter the Level 8 laboratory to take a look.

Three days later.

Qiao Nian's vacation ended and she returned to the First Research Institute. magic

As soon as she swiped her card and walked inside, she realized that everyone was looking at her strangely.

In the past, when she appeared, some people would look in her direction. However, it was rare for almost everyone to pause what they were doing and whisper to each other as if they were talking about something like today.

Qiao Nian had some guesses. She walked to the small laboratory used by Team 10 without batting an eyelid.

In the small laboratory, Xue Zhu, Shen Qingfeng, and Xu Yi were all there.

Before Qiao Nian entered, she heard Xue Zhu's anxious tone. "Is Qiao Nian not here yet? Should we call her and tell her?"

"I only found out about this when I arrived at the research institute. Why don't I call her?" Shen Qingfeng opened the cabinet anxiously and took out his phone.

Xue Zhu and Shen Qingfeng looked in his direction.

Xu Yi straightened his legs and stood up. "I believe her! No matter what the outside world says, I believe she didn't do it."

"It's not that I don't believe her, I just—" Shen Qingfeng wanted to explain, but Xu Yi interrupted him expressionlessly, "Since you believe her, there's no need to call her. This is an insult to her."

Shen Qingfeng was stunned and speechless for a moment.

Xue Zhu was also silent for a second, wondering if she was too anxious. Then, she saw the girl standing at the door from the corner of her eye.

Qiao Nian was wearing a long-sleeved T-shirt and a denim jacket today. Her thin clothes looked just right on her.

It made her skin look fair and her temperament cold.

She was not wearing a baseball cap today. Her hair was casually tied into a high ponytail, revealing her slender neck. Her swan-like neck was slender and beautiful.

However, even so, her personal aura was still very strong.

There was a distant feeling about her.

“Qiao Nian?” Xue Zhu stood up and called out in a daze after seeing who it was.

No emotion could be seen on the exquisite face of the person standing at the door, and cold air rushed in as she walked forward.
