

Madam's 1991

Chapter 1991 - 1991 God Qiao Slapped His Face!

The Ji family was used to being domineering in the Independent Continent. Everyone was also used to that. Ji Hongyuan had offered five million yuan, but Nan Tianyi had offered 100 million.

It was rare for them to see the Ji family being pressed to the ground and slapped in the face.

Therefore, many people were interested and wished they could have more melon seeds and tea to watch the commotion. They were curious to see how the Ji family would respond.

* * *

In private room 3.

Qiao Nian had just finished speaking.

He Lin quickly turned back to look at the people in the private room.

Ji Hongyuan's old face quickly turned ashen. He slammed the table beside him and suddenly stood up. "She's overturning the sky! She's simply overturning the sky!"

100 million.

How dare she say that so casually?

The atmosphere in the private room was heavy. He Lin did not dare to say a word. He lowered his head and remained silent.

He was not surprised.

Qiao Nian had always been unruly. When he went to private room 4 to deliver tea, he had a feeling that the girl would not lower her head easily.

Unexpectedly, Qiao Nian was so stubborn that she slapped the Sixth Elder.

100 million.

This gameplay was simply provocative.

It was as if she was taunting them to continue.

Although Ji Hongyuan was overly angry, he was no longer triggered. His eyes became even more determined as he walked over, picked up the auction sign, and increased the price expressionlessly.

“200 million.”

It was impossible for the Ji family to lower their heads.

...

The underground auction house was silent.

No one knew what to say when the next bid was announced.

They had never seen anyone increase the price by 100 million.

In private room 4.

Qin Si wiped the water from his mouth. Upon seeing that the person next door really dared to add another 100 million, his eyes widened and he turned to look at the girl sitting lazily playing with the auction card. He had a bad feeling.

“Sister Qiao, don’t tell me...”

Qiao Nian quickly glanced at him. She had already raised the auction card with one hand and said in a low voice, “500 million.”

Qin Si was speechless.

The Qin family was not short of money. The people from the top families in Beijing were not short of money. They were not short of money and had seen a lot of money.

However, Qin Si’s heart was already racing from Qiao Nian’s playstyle. He couldn’t help but feel nervous.

He turned to look at the young man beside him and opened his mouth slightly. “Master Wang, aren’t you going to interfere? I’m afraid that the Ye family will be gone after Sister Qiao’s addition.”

He was joking.

The Ye family was huge. It was just 500 million yuan. Ye Wangchuan really did not lack it.

Moreover, Qin Si knew very well that Qiao Nian was not short of money. Qiao Nian herself had a lot of money. As for how much money she had, he did not know. Anyway, she was not short of 500 million yuan.

As expected, Ye Wangchuan shrugged and spread his hands in a noble and lazy manner. “I can’t control her. Let her be. I’ll take care of her.”

Qin Si was speechless. magic

After all, only their Master Wang could say that he couldn't control his wife so calmly.

It was commonly known as being henpecked.

"500 million?"

"Damn, 500 million?"

"What is the Nan family doing? Are they really going against the Ji family?"

"Someone offered five million yuan, and they offered a hundred million yuan. Someone offered two hundred million yuan, and they offered five hundred million yuan. The Nan family is clearly going to embarrass themselves..." someone said in a low voice.

It was just a meat Ganoderma.

It was not the most precious item at this auction. Why was it being sold at this price?

500 million was undoubtedly an astronomical price!

Anyone with a discerning eye could tell that the two families were officially going against each other!

Chapter 1992 - 1992 The Ji Family Is Here For Me, I'll Explain It to You Later

On the other side.

He Lin turned around again and rubbed his temples. He asked helplessly, "Sixth Elder, I think Young Miss seems to know why we're here. Are we still going to match the price?"

Qiao Nian's unpredictable attitude made it clear that she knew what they were doing at the underground auction and was openly challenging them.

He guessed that if they continued to bid, Qiao Nian would continue to raise the price with them.

This was the first time Ji Hongyuan had encountered such a thorn in his side. He spat out expressionlessly, "Yes!"

Qiao Nian had directly roasted them over the fire. Now, they had no choice but to continue playing.

"600 million."

This time, Ji Hongyuan was much more cautious.

At the very least, they did not add 300 million at a time like Qiao Nian. It was still within a reasonable range. However, they had played it big this time. This "reasonable range" was only for them. To the people below, an addition of 100 million was still very unreasonable.

"800 million."

The girl's lazy voice sounded as soon as Ji Hongyuan finished speaking.

He Lin turned to look at him. He looked like he wanted to say something, but he hesitated.

He felt that since they were all family, there was no need to make a scene like this. If this continued, they would probably destroy all ties.

Ji Hongyuan was determined to suppress Qiao Nian's arrogance. Even though his eyes flickered, his attitude was still very firm.

"900 million."

Qiao Nian didn't waste any time. She added another 100 million and rounded it up. "One billion."

This number had already reached ten digits.

It was indeed a little big.

Ji Hongyuan was about to raise the price when the auctioneer hurriedly went on stage and stopped the auction. He quickly explained, "I'm sorry, the two of you. There's a rule in this underground auction that the maximum price of a collection is one billion. If at one billion it hasn't been decided yet, according to the rules, the two of you have to discuss other gameplay to prevent one party from deliberately raising the price. Do you want to change your method to determine the ownership of this collection?"

The Ji family did not lack a few billion.

If Ji Hongyuan wanted to continue playing with her, she would also dare to continue.

However, the Independent Continent's underground auction had its own rules. It was impossible to let the two sides fall out in their territory.

At this moment, the auctioneer hurriedly went on stage to stop this bottomless increase in price. It could be considered to have stopped the development in time.

Nan Tianyi had been dumbfounded as he watched the situation develop to this point. His heart was already like a mirror. His dignified face looked extremely awful, and his tiger eyes darkened. He was so angry that he whispered, "The Ji family clearly knows that the meat Ganoderma is useful for me, but they still deliberately raised the price with me. What do they mean?"

Qiao Nian did not explain too much. She only said, "Uncle Nan, they're here for me. They're not targeting you on purpose."

"But you don't know them." Nan Tianyi still didn't understand why Ji Hongyuan was targeting Qiao Nian.

He rubbed his furrowed brows and paced back and forth. Then, he stopped and looked at the girl. He guessed, "Could it be that they misunderstood your relationship with Ji Nan?"

Qiao Nian did not expect him to think of Ji Nan. She smiled and leaned back. "No, it has nothing to do with Ji Nan."

"Then..." magic

"I'll explain this to you when we get back." Qiao Nian placed her hand on her lap and threw a numbered card on the table. Then, she stood up and said, "I have to get the meat Ganoderma today. Uncle Nan, do you mind?"

Chapter 1993 - 1993 Why Is It Her Again?

She meant to use the Nan family's name to represent private room 4.

Would Nan Tianyi mind if she did this?

Nan Tianyi quickly understood what she meant and could not help but laugh. He shook his head and said, "Why should I mind that you're bidding for the meat Ganoderma for me? You're good at everything, but you think too little of me.

"Don't worry, I won't cause trouble, and I'm not afraid of trouble. If the Ji family wants to go against me, I'm not afraid of going against them either!" His gaze softened as he looked at Qiao Nian lovingly. "Just do it. There's no need for Little Ye to back me up. I'll back you up today!"

It was only a billion.

As long as it was for Xie Tingyun's health, he could afford to spend more!

"Okay." Qiao Nian nodded slightly and stuffed one hand into her pocket. It was unknown if she took it to heart.

She walked out of the private room, stood out of the stands, and said to the auctioneer outside, “How do we play the game you mentioned just now?” magic Everyone in the underground auction house thought that Nan Tianyi would step forward to resolve the current situation. Unexpectedly, a young girl wearing a baseball cap came out.

The girl was far away and her face could not be seen clearly, but her aura was very strong and unforgettable.

The people below the auction stage whispered to each other.

“This is?”

“When did such a person appear in the Nan family? Aren’t Nan Tianyi and Xie Tingyun childless?”

“Who is this?”

Someone recognized Qiao Nian.

“Could this be the... girl from Country Z who made Torre suffer previously?”

Someone remembered. “I remember that a newcomer entered the First Research Institute this year. It’s also this person. Her name is Qiao Nian?”

All the major factions in the Independent Continent had heard of this name before.

Qiao Nian excelled on the day of the research institute’s assessment and her results were impressive. Everyone knew that there was a record-breaking newcomer at the First Research Institute. A month ago, the major forces were still investigating her background.

“Qiao Nian? Why is it her again?” Someone said what most people were thinking.

It was her again!

She openly went against the Ji family.

She was already standing out, there was no reason for Ji Hongyuan to hide.

In private room 3.

Ji Hongyuan also stood up and said to the auctioneer calmly, “I remember that the underground auction has always used stone gambling to determine the winner. Since we want to bet, I suggest that we bet a little more. Other than the ownership of the meat Ganoderma this time, how about we raise the stakes?”

Since he had personally spoken, the auctioneer naturally had no objections. He mainly asked for the other party’s opinion.

The auctioneer looked at Qiao Nian before he could speak.

The girl had already raised her eyelids and agreed casually. “Sure. What do you want to add?”

Ji Hongyuan finally looked her in the eye. His face was as dark as water as he suggested, “If you lose, you’ll leave the First Research Institute and the Independent Continent. How about that?”

Nan Tianyi’s expression suddenly changed. He shouted anxiously behind the girl, “Qiao Nian, don’t agree.”

Ji Nan had mentioned to him that Qiao Nian had something to do at the First Research Institute.

He guessed that the girl had not finished that task.

The meat Ganoderma was a small thing. If he couldn't get it, he would think of another way.

However, Ji Hongyuan's conditions were too harsh. He was simply targeting the girl!

He was up to no good.

Ye Wangchuan was also watching the girl's reaction. Seeing that the girl seemed to be confident, he pulled Nan Tianyi back and gestured for him to calm down.

Chapter 1994 - 1994 I Want the Ji Family's Secret Recipe for Black Gunpowder

As expected.

Qiao Nian only thought for a moment before agreeing. "Sure."

Ji Hongyuan's tense heart relaxed.

He was about to tell the auctioneer that it was enough.

At this moment, the girl slowly said, "Since I have to leave the First Research Institute if I lose, what if you lose?"

"I won't lose!" Ji Hongyuan was very confident. His turbid eyes seemed to have all the authority.

"Tsk." The girl smiled lightly. There was a mocking and surly aura on her exquisite face. She did not waste her breath on him and said concisely, "If I lose, I'll leave the First Research Institute. If the Ji family loses, how about you give me the secret recipe for black gunpowder?"

Ji Hongyuan suddenly looked at her. Amidst his shock, his eyes were so fierce that he wanted to tear Qiao Nian apart.

Qiao Nian did not care. Their eyes met and her dark eyes darkened. His so-called warning and fierce gaze did not seem to stir her at all. She pulled down her baseball cap and said frivolously, "Don't tell me the Ji family can't afford it?"

Her words cut off all of Ji Hongyuan's escape routes.

It was impossible for Ji Hongyuan to admit that he could not afford to play this game in front of everyone. He represented the Ji family.

After all, in everyone's eyes, Qiao Nian was just a country bumpkin.

As one of the three big families in the Independent Continent, if the Ji family was slapped in the face by a girl with no foundation, they would not dare to accept it.

That would be a huge joke.

However, the Ji family's secret recipe for black gunpowder was no ordinary thing. It was the Ji family's secret.

Ji Hongyuan's mind raced.

He Lin took the opportunity to persuade him in a low voice, "Sixth Elder, why don't we forget about the matter today?" magic

It would have been better if he hadn't said this.

Ji Hongyuan became even more determined. "Hmph, I'll teach her a lesson. How dare a young child ask me for the secret recipe for black gunpowder."

After Ji Hongyuan finished speaking, he said to the auctioneer below, "Sure, I'll bet with you."

The bet was set.

One side was betting on her entire future, and the other was betting on his family's secret recipe. The two sides were filled with hostility.

The auctioneer briefly explained the rules of stone gambling.

The rules were simple.

Whoever bet on the diamonds and jade in the stones would win. There were a total of three stones. The winner with the highest total price could make a request to the loser.

Before the bet began, the auctioneer carefully asked for the requests of both sides again. He confirmed that one side wanted the other to leave the Independent Continent and the First Research Institute, and the other wanted the Ji family's secret formula for black gunpowder.

Seeing that he could not persuade them, he started according to the rules.

Everything on the auction stage was removed. Then, a few hot beauties carried a few inconspicuous stones onto the stage.

More than 20 stones of various sizes were put on the stage.

Moss could be seen on them.

From the outside, these stones looked ordinary, but they were of different sizes and shapes.

Qin Si followed Qiao Nian out to choose stones.

A little uneasy, he asked the girl in a low voice, "Sister Qiao, is it okay for you to make such a big gamble?"

"We've already started playing. If there's a problem, we can only continue playing. We'll take it one step at a time." Qiao Nian looked relaxed and was still in the mood to joke.

Convinced, Qin Si gave her a thumbs up and shut his mouth.

Ji Hongyuan also came out of the private room to pick stones with He Lin.

He looked serious as if he was confident. He did not communicate with the girl the entire time.

Chapter 1995 - 1995 It's Not Easy to Enter the First Research Institute, I Hope You Won't Regret It

When they each chose three stones and were brushing past each other, Ji Hongyuan said to the girl, "It's not easy to enter the First Research Institute. I hope you won't regret it."

Qiao Nian thought that he was going to say something important. She turned around and returned casually, "Same here!"

Thank you for reading on myboxnovel.com

They parted on bad terms.

Ji Hongyuan walked away with a livid expression.

Stone gambling was a unique game in the Independent Continent.

Luck was very important.

In addition, it depended on the viciousness of the people who played stone gambling games!

Ji Hongyuan had lived for so long. He believed that his skill in stone gambling would definitely not lose to a young woman's.

He was very confident in the three stones he chose. He was just waiting for Qiao Nian to finish choosing hers.

Qiao Nian quickly finished choosing her stones.

Since both sides had chosen their stones, the next step was for professionals to cut them open in public to see what material was inside.

Qin Si said that he was not nervous, but his heart still tightened. He turned around nervously and asked Ye Wangchuan, "Master Wang, do you think Sister Qiao can do it?"

"Huh?" Ye Wangchuan ignored him. He was constantly paying attention to the commotion on the stage.

Soon, the underground auction house called in two professionals to deal with the first stone at the same time.

The first was the washing.

The stone Qiao Nian chose was relatively small. It was not as big as Ji Hongyuan's. Furthermore, it was uneven on the outside and looked very ordinary.

After washing the stones, it was time to polish them along the lines.

This was the first stone Qiao Nian and Ji Hongyuan had chosen. Everyone was eager to see the results.

Therefore, almost no one in the underground auction house spoke. They were all focused on the professionals on the stage.

Soon, the two stones were polished.

Ji Hongyuan's stone vaguely revealed a bright yellow texture. It was obvious that there was material inside.

As for Qiao Nian's stone, it was still green after being polished. It was obvious that there was not much hope.

Sure enough, two stones were cut out.

Ji Hongyuan's stone revealed a jade. Qiao Nian's stone did not have anything. It was still stone inside!

They finished cutting the first stone.

Ji Hongyuan's tense face relaxed slightly by an inch. The corners of his lips curled up into a smile. He glanced at the unruly girl not far away. He couldn't breathe and was almost angered.

Next was the second stone.

Under everyone's gaze, the second stone was cut.

Ji Hongyuan's stone had some scraps. The material was not good, but it was better than nothing. magic Qiao Nian's stone was still a rock.

...

This time, the underground auction house exploded.

“The second one is still a rock.”

“Does she know how to gamble on stones? She can’t be messing around, right?”

“Do you think the third stone will still contain jade?”

Two pieces in a row were just stones. Qin Si was not sure, and he didn’t know what to say. His back tensed nervously and he secretly clenched his hands. He stood there and waited for the results of the third stone cutting.

If the result of the third stone was the same, Qiao Nian would definitely lose.

Even if a jade came out of the third stone, Ji Hongyuan had already gotten one previously. She might not win.

Qiao Nian was in a bad situation.

However, Ji Hongyuan was already almost certain of his victory.

He was very relaxed at this moment, waiting for the third stone to be opened.

Chapter 1996 - 1996 Sister Nian: I Don’t Know How to Gamble on Stones, But I Know How to Dig out Diamonds

He was lucky and had sharp eyes. When the third stone was polished, the watery color inside was already visible.

It was obvious that there was something inside the stone.

He looked to the side. After Qiao Nian's stone was polished, it revealed a green stone inside. It looked like it was another failure.

Ji Hongyuan was relieved.

"Are you confident?" Ye Wangchuan asked the girl in a low voice.

Qiao Nian raised her eyes. Her black hair fell and covered her eyebrows as she pursed her red lips and replied seriously, "I don't know how to gamble on stones."

Ye Wangchuan looked at her in surprise.

This was because Qiao Nian never did anything she wasn't confident in.

Since she had suggested asking for the Ji family's secret recipe for black gunpowder, she was clearly confident that she could make Ji Hongyuan suffer!

As expected.

The girl turned her gaze back to the stage and added calmly, "But I have experience digging out diamonds."

Ye Wangchuan had yet to understand what she meant when a cry from below the stage pulled his attention away.

"It's open!"

"Damn, three stones in a row!"

He took a look. It turned out that Ji Hongyuan's last stone had another jade material.

Qiao Nian's stone was still being cut.

The professional cutting the stone had already cut through more than half of it, but he still did not find anything.

Suddenly, the knife touched something solid. He froze and pushed down again, but the knife didn't move.

He changed the angle and cut it from the side.

Ji Hongyuan was completely stunned when he saw what came out. "D-Diamond?"

The crowd went wild!

Pink diamond!

Anyone who knew the industry knew that naturally formed pink diamonds and blue diamonds were the most valuable among diamonds. Pink diamonds and blue diamonds with a few carats were easily worth tens of millions.

The professional quickly exposed the object trapped in the green rock. It was a rough diamond that was dozens of carats. It was sparkling and translucent, shining in front of everyone.

This was not the most shocking thing. magic

The most shocking thing was that this rough diamond was actually a natural pink diamond.

At the same time, the cutting of Ji Hongyuan's stone was also finished. Inside was an emerald-green jade raw material. It looked good.

However, the outcome was already decided!

Qiao Nian only got something from one stone, and Ji Hongyuan got all three stones. However, reality was cruel. Qiao Nian's one stone was enough to crush him!

"F*ck! Sister Qiao, you!" Qin Si's eyes were already wide open. He couldn't find words to describe his mood. It was f*cking ridiculous.

Was this possible?

"I could tell at a glance that the rock was kimberlite. It's a super-basic volcanic rock. Diamonds can easily appear in such rocks." Qiao Nian had one hand in her pocket as if she had already expected this outcome. There was no surprise on her face. She was very calm as she tilted her head and spoke to Ye Wangchuan.

"Is that an explanation?" Ye Wangchuan smiled at her. He retracted his eyebrows and asked casually, "So why didn't I know that you knew how to dig out diamonds?"

"Ahem!" Qiao Nian quickly choked on her saliva.

Avoiding his question, she quickly walked up to the stunned Ji Hongyuan and He Lin. She lowered the brim of her baseball cap and looked at them a little cynically.

"You lost."

Chapter 1997 - 1997 Lost Completely, Wanting to Go Back on His Word

Ji Hongyuan suddenly raised his head. His gaze was so fierce that it seemed like he wanted to eat her up.

However, he could not do anything in front of everyone. He could only clench his fists tightly. The veins on his neck bulged as he let out a shaky breath. "The meat Ganoderma is yours."

“Tsk.” Qiao Nian smiled. Her clear black eyes moved. She didn’t waste any time and asked bluntly, “Have you forgotten something? We didn’t just bet on a meat Ganoderma. Did you suddenly forget the contents of our bet?”

The underground auction house was silent!

Everyone was paying attention to the development.

They were all witnesses to the stone gambling previously. If Qiao Nian had not mentioned it, they would not have remembered what Ji Hongyuan had bet with her.

He bet the Ji family’s secret recipe for black gunpowder!

This bet was not small.

It was soul-stirring!

However, Ji Hongyuan still gambled without hesitation.

This meant that he did not think that the girl could win at all at the beginning. But reality proved that he had lost completely!

The secret recipe for black gunpowder was a top secret of the Ji family.

Ji Hongyuan’s mind buzzed. He couldn’t do anything shameless in public, but he could not possibly take out the secret recipe of the Ji family’s black gunpowder. Stunned, the muscles on his back tensed, and the blood in his chest surged. He panted heavily and glared at the girl, unable to answer for a moment.

At this moment, He Lin stood up and said to Qiao Nian in embarrassment, “Miss... no, Miss Qiao, look, you’ve also gotten what you wanted. Why don’t we... forget about this bet?”

When he said 'forget it', his aura had already fallen to the bottom.

The people in the underground auction house discussed it spiritedly. They did not expect the Ji family to be pressed down and slapped like this today. Their faces were about to be smashed, but they still had to humbly beg for mercy. Forget it...

Of course, Ji Hongyuan heard the whispers. Those discussions were undoubtedly public execution for him, making him unable to stand still for a moment.

Nan Tianyi did not say anything. He only stood beside Qiao Nian and said to her in a low voice, "Qiao Nian, you won this. Do as you see fit. I'll support you no matter what decision you make."

Ye Wangchuan didn't say much. Just standing side by side with Qiao Nian, his aura was difficult to ignore.

Qin Si blinked. In any case, he could not understand the situation in front of him, so he might as well shut up and pay more attention.

He Lin was also embarrassed. In order to hide his embarrassment, he coughed awkwardly and looked up at her. "Yes, Miss Qiao. Why don't we forget it?" magic

"If I was the one who lost today, would the Ji family let it go?" Qiao Nian asked him back.

He Lin was stunned.

This...

Ever since the Sixth Elder returned from the First Research Institute, he had made up his mind to target Young Miss. If the person who won today was the Sixth Elder, He Lin was not sure if Ji Hongyuan would be magnanimous and let her off easily.

His eyes suddenly flickered as he looked at Qiao Nian. He was not as confident as before, but he still mustered his courage. "Miss Qiao, this is just a game. There's no need to take it so seriously."

Qiao Nian did not argue with him. She only looked at Ji Hongyuan and said casually, "If you don't want to take out the Ji family's black gunpowder secret recipe, you can just admit that the Ji family can't afford to lose it. How about that?"

The girl looked at him with her dark eyes, as if she was really waiting for him to beg for mercy like a wolf cub!

Chapter 1998 - 1998 This Time, It's an Official Breakup With the Ji Family

Ji Hongyuan did not expect Qiao Nian to not give him face. He couldn't breathe as his blood rushed to his head. His old face turned red and he almost fainted from anger.

Initially, he could not bring himself to beg the girl for mercy because of his status.

He simply tacitly agreed that He Lin would intercede on his behalf. Thinking that he was an elder, after all, Qiao Nian should be tactful and not dare to completely offend the Ji family.

But from the looks of it, how could it be that she did not dare to offend them?

She probably wanted to completely fall out with the Ji family!

Ji Hongyuan's expression darkened when he understood this. He suddenly waved his hand and said, "Don't worry, I'll give you the secret recipe! I'll get someone to send it to the First Research Institute!"

He Lin's expression changed greatly.

This was the Ji family's secret black gunpowder formula. How could he give it away just like that...

He opened his mouth, but he didn't have time to save the situation.

Ji Hongyuan said coldly, "He Lin, let's go!"

Then, he turned around and left. Anyone could tell that his back view was filled with thunderous anger!

He Lin was in a dilemma. He looked here and there. In the end, he bid farewell to Qiao Nian and hurriedly followed.

After the two of them walked away.

Nan Tianyi took a deep breath and said to the girl with a solemn expression, "Qiao Nian, you've really offended him this time.

"Ji Hongyuan is famous for being irritable and calculative. Now that you've offended him, your future in the Independent Continent will probably be difficult."

He only said this out of concern. Otherwise, he would not have said anything.

Qiao Nian turned around disapprovingly and replied casually, "It doesn't matter. Even if I don't offend him, he won't let me off easily. In that case, let's fall out with each other so that we won't have to greet each other in the future."

Ji Hongyuan came to the underground auction house today and asked He Lin to deliver them tea. He even fought with her for the meat Ganoderma... From his actions, he did not seem to want to get along well with her.

Since Ji Hongyuan wanted to take her down a notch, it just so happened that she also wanted to make an example of him to those restless people in the Ji family.

She did this in case they came looking for her every once in a while and threatened her with the safety of the people around her.

This time, it could be considered that she had officially broken up with the Ji family!

Ji Hongyuan left. magic

The meat Ganoderma naturally fell into Qiao Nian's hands.

Next were the trivial matters that Nan Tianyi had to deal with. Qiao Nian did not want to cause unnecessary trouble, so she did not stay at the underground auction house and left with Ye Wangchuan and the others.

Before leaving, she even took out her black card to pay for the meat Ganoderma. However, Ye Wangchuan had already paid for it.

Qiao Nian put the card back into her bag and did not say anything.

As for the pink diamond, according to the rules, it belonged to her because she had gotten it from stone gambling.

Qiao Nian threw the black card into her backpack and zipped it up. Then, she called Qin Si and told Nan Tianyi that she was leaving.

As Nan Tianyi still had a lot of admin work to settle, he did not ask them to stay.

Soon, Qiao Nian followed Ye Wangchuan and Qin Si out of the underground auction house to the parking lot of the Intercontinental Hotel.

The three of them walked to a black Land Rover.

Qin Si ran to sit in the back row.

Ye Wangchuan opened the door and said to her, "Shall we go back?"

Chapter 1999 - 1999 Diamond Big Boss, Sister Nian, You've Exposed Yourself Again

Qiao Nian was looking at her cell phone along the way, as if she was editing a message and replying to someone. Hearing this, she looked up at him slightly and realized what Ye Wangchuan was talking about.

She nodded and opened the passenger door without objection.

After Qiao Nian got into the car, she fastened her seatbelt and focused on her phone. magic

She had just replied to the message of the Black Mandala member [Indigo Collar] who had privately messaged her.

The other party seemed to be waiting for her reply.

He immediately sent her a new message.

Qiao Nian didn't have time to read it.

Qin Si, sitting in the back row, said excitedly, "Sister Qiao, where's the pink diamond?"

"Huh? It's in my bag."

Qin Si said with interest, "Sister Qiao, why don't you take it out for me to take a look?"

Qiao Nian didn't look at her cell phone. Upon his urging, she took her backpack, unzipped it, and casually took out the pink diamond.

Then, she handed him the rough diamond the size of a pigeon's egg and said casually, "I'll give it to you if you like it."

Dumbfounded, Qin Si looked down at the uneven and uncut rough diamond in his hand and was stunned for a moment. "This thing is worth a lot of money, right? You're giving it to me just like that?"

He estimated the size of the diamond. A diamond of this size could be cut into many perfectly shaped diamonds.

Moreover, natural pink diamonds were very rare. In Beijing's auction house, they were also treasures that noblewomen spent rivers of money to pursue.

The size of the one Qiao Nian casually handed him was worth at least tens of millions.

If he found a famous designer, it might be worth hundreds of millions.

"Okay." After giving him the rough diamond, Qiao Nian put her backpack aside and picked up her phone again. She was looking at the message, so she was a little distracted. "I have a lot of those things. You can have it if you want it."

She said it casually and did not think too much about it.

Qin Si did not think about the illegal district.

Only Ye Wangchuan mentioned it almost as soon as the girl finished speaking. "I remember that there's a famous diamond big boss in the illegal district..."

Qiao Nian's hand stilled. She looked up and their eyes met.

His eyes were deep and dark, and her shadow was imprinted in them. His thin lips curled up slightly, and he smiled faintly as if he knew everything.

She instantly realized that she seemed to have spoken too quickly again.

Feeling frustrated, Qiao Nian pressed a button and the window came down. Placing her arm outside, she didn't answer for a moment.

On the other hand, Qin Si had heard of the diamond big boss in the illegal district. He continued, "Master Wang, are you talking about the one in the illegal district? I've also heard of that person. I heard that that person has a complete diamond production chain. He's quite an impressive person."

"That's right." Ye Wangchuan looked at the person wearing a baseball cap and not saying anything with a faint smile. He said ambiguously, "She shouldn't lack diamonds."

Before Qin Si could think of Qiao Nian, he replied without thinking, "Isn't that obvious? He's already a diamond big boss. How can he lack diamonds? 'He' probably has the most diamonds!"

Ye Wangchuan smiled again.

In no hurry to start the car, he placed his slender and fair hand on the steering wheel and suddenly turned to look at the girl. He chuckled naughtily. "Nian Nian, what do you think?"

Qiao Nian was speechless.

Why did she feel that a certain someone seemed to know everything?

He was so toxic!

She expressionlessly supported her head with her hand and did not say anything or reply to Ye Wangchuan's question.

Chapter 2000 A Friend of the Black Mandala Wants to Ask Sister Nian Out for a Meal

"Speaking of which, why were those people from the Ji family targeting Sister Qiao today? I think there's something wrong with the way that old man looked at Sister Qiao. It's as if he knows her..." Fortunately,

Qin Si thought of something else and did not dwell too much on the 'diamond big boss' gossip. He changed the topic.

Qiao Nian had a chance to catch her breath, so she focused all her attention on her messages.

She held her phone and did not reply for a long time.

On her phone screen was a private message from [Indigo Collar].

[Indigo Collar: Q, are you in the Independent Continent?]

[Q: ?]

This was Qiao Nian's reply a minute ago.

Then, 10 seconds ago, the other party sent another message.

[Indigo Collar: I'm also in the Independent Continent. What a coincidence. Do you have time to meet? Set a time and place. I'll look for you.]

Qiao Nian looked at the private message on her phone and hesitated for a moment. A thought flashed across her beautiful black eyes, but she still rejected the other party's invitation.

[Q: I don't have time for now. We'll see.]

There was no response from [Indigo Collar].

Qiao Nian did not care anymore. She adjusted her seat back and leaned back. She relaxed and closed her eyes to rest.

She woke up early in the morning and her head was still aching. Qiao Nian planned to have a good rest while Ye Wangchuan drove them back.

At the same time, at the First Research Institute.

Feng Yu had just walked away to answer a call. When he came back, he saw that he had been rejected.

Not discouraged, he pulled out a chair, sat down, and typed a reply.

[Indigo Collar: I'll wait for you to ask me out when you're free.]

The girl's profile picture had already darkened when he sent the message. The gray profile picture meant that she had already gone offline.

For the time being, she could not see the new message.

Feng Yu looked at the computer for a while.

Someone happened to knock on the door at this moment.

"Come in."

Casually closing the chat box and exiting the software, he looked up and saw the person who had entered. "What's the matter?"

It was his assistant.

The assistant looked down and said, "Director, the Ji family sent an "Okay."

Feng Yu's assistant was already used to him not participating in the invitation to Ji Ziyin's birthday party. Do you want to go?"

"Ji Ziyin?" Feng Yu thought for a long time before remembering who it was. He adjusted the seat back and placed his hands on the desk, then said casually, "Oh, I don't have time. Help me reject it."

"Okay."

Feng Yu's assistant was already used to him not participating in the favors of the Independent Continent, so he didn't even ask. He nodded and prepared to do it.

In any case, with Feng Yu's current status, he did not need to attend a junior's ordinary birthday party.

"Wait a minute."

Feng Yu asked a random question when he was about to leave, "Where do young people from the Independent Continent like to eat?"

"Huh?"

The assistant turned around with a confused expression. He was clueless.

Why was the director asking about this? magic

Although he had 10,000 doubts in his heart, he thought for a moment and replied seriously, "I think... the Seaview Pavilion?"

"My children like to eat there. Other than eating, there are also private rooms for leisure. Young people can gather and have fun."

Feng Yu nodded and wrote it down. "I understand."

His assistant couldn't help but ask curiously, "Director, are you treating someone to a meal? When? Do you need me to reserve a private room for you?"
