

Madam's 2071

Chapter 2071 - 2071 Don't You Know That Person Is in Country Z's Hacker World?

The people of the Independent Continent had always been arrogant and conceited. They thought that everything in the Independent Continent was the best.

Including hacking skills.

The Hacker Alliance had never taken the computer technology of other countries seriously. In their eyes, the computer defense systems of other countries, other than the Red Alliance, were all small tricks.

Of course, that was in their eyes.

The Red Alliance was a hacker organization in the illegal district and had nothing to do with China.

"... I thought hacking the traffic system would take just about 10 minutes. The defense system of Country Z is not bad." The young man was not stingy with his praise.

Mo Dong's scarred face was expressionless, but he really wanted to tell him that Country Z's computer defense system was terrific. He should take a look at their hackers. That person was one of the top figures in their hacker world. He was only surprised because he had no idea of others' capabilities.

At the thought that the people from the Hacker Alliance did not know Sun's true colors while he did, Mo Dong felt inexplicably happy.

He cleared his messy thoughts and urged the other party to quickly think of a way to investigate deeper. He had to find the person behind it.

As they talked, a car stopped outside the villa, followed by two sets of footsteps.

Mo Dong turned around and saw Ye Wangchuan, who they thought was upstairs, and a girl following behind him.

They could not clearly see the face of the girl because she was wearing a baseball cap, but her aura was strong. One could almost feel the surly aura coming from her.

Mo Dong recognized her at a glance—Qiao Nian!

“Master Wang.” Gu San did not expect Ye Wangchuan to go pick her up. He quickly went forward to greet them. “M-Miss Qiao, you’re back too.”

“Mm.” Qiao Nian was a little surprised to see so many people in the living room and so many computers.

However, she was in a bad mood, so she did not care too much about this. She strode in and placed her black shoulder bag on the sofa, then asked in a low voice, “Does anyone have a desktop computer specializing in hacking?”

The entire living room was silent.

Other than Mo Dong and Mo Xi who knew Qiao Nian from before, the technicians had never seen her before.

Not to mention the people from the Hacker Alliance; they had never seen Qiao Nian.

Ye Wangchuan suddenly brought back a young girl, and as soon as she entered, she even asked for a computer.

All of them looked at each other. They all felt that Qiao Nian was a little ridiculous. magic

Did she know anything about computers?

Any idea what hacking meant?

Hackers were not like children who secretly made some changes on QQ; they were called hackers as long as they knew how to do a few funny programs. A true hacker needed at least 10 or even 20 years of thorough study. They also had to have talent in this aspect. Only such a person could barely touch the threshold of a hacker...

How old was she?

18, 19 years old?

As soon as she arrived, she asked them for a computer specialized in hacking.

Even if they gave her one, would she know how to operate it?

This was what everyone was thinking.

Only Mo Dong, Mo Xi, Qin Si, and the others who knew the inside story felt their hearts skip a beat. They knew that Qiao Nian was serious.

Mo Dong was the first to speak to the young man in front of him. "Can you lend me your computer?"

"Uh..." The young man from the Hacker Alliance was stunned for a moment. He looked at him with wide eyes and asked, "Are you serious?"

"Yes." The scar-faced Mo Dong looked into his eyes. "Very serious."

Chapter 2072 - 2072 Your Sister Nian Speaks With Ability

The young man from the Hacker Alliance took a deep breath and slowly stood up, giving up his computer and seat.

He had a good personal relationship with Mo Dong.

Otherwise, Mo Dong would not have been able to get his help.

Since Mo Dong had asked to borrow his computer, he could not reject him.

After all, their Hacker Alliance might still need the help of Bright Gate and Mo Dong in the future.

“My computer has the Python language system I installed myself. Don’t blame me if she doesn’t know how to use it later.”

After the young man gave up the computer, he especially informed Mo Dong just in case.

“The scripts and programs we use are different from ordinary computers. Be mentally prepared.”

Mo Dong’s eyebrows did not even move. “Don’t worry, she knows how to use it better than you.”

With that, he went to tell Qiao Nian that a computer was available.

The young man from the Hacker Alliance belatedly realized the meaning of his previous sentence. He did not know whether to laugh or cry, but he did not think much of it.

Qiao Nian used the young man’s computer.

After a simple check, she asked Ye Wangchuan about the truck’s license plate and the driver’s basic information.

Then, she began to work on it.

At first, the Hacker Alliance member leaned against the side, looking like he was watching a show. He was prepared to clean up Qiao Nian's mess at any time and give her some pointers.

Unexpectedly, the girl's aura changed the moment she started operating the computer. She was completely focused and her hand speed was shockingly fast.

His worry about her not understanding C language and the hacker-specific Python system installed in his computer was like a joke now.

Qiao Nian knew how to use it.

Just like what Mo Dong said.

She used it better than him!

The young man from the Hacker Alliance was slapped in the face and only watched in silence. Moreover, as Qiao Nian went deeper, he was dazzled. His expression turned from calm to fanatic.

He was not the only one.

The Bright Gate technicians also approached and watched to see if they could learn anything.

No one had expected an ordinary-looking girl to be so awesome at hacking. She was simply heaven-defying!

"Miss Qiao, I made you a glass of orange juice." Gu San came over with a drink and placed the glass on the table beside the girl.

The girl was completely focused on the computer screen and did not notice him.

She was serious.

The others were also watching seriously.

The young man from the Hacker Alliance gradually saw some connections, especially when Qiao Nian pulled up a search software with a red logo. His pupils dilated, and his shoulders trembled with excitement. He grabbed Mo Dong and asked in a suppressed and excited voice, “She’s from the Red Alliance?” magic “Mm.” Mo Dong did not hide this.

It was mainly because Qiao Nian was using the Red Alliance’s stuff. It was useless for him to deny it.

After receiving an affirmative answer, the young man fell into a fanatical excitement again. He muttered, “The Red Alliance Master only has a few members. She’s... Guan Yan? No, Guan Yan is older. I heard that Guan Yan is 27 or 28 years old. She looks like she’s in her first year of university. She can’t be Guan Yan. The remaining Daji and Slim Waist Control are men. She can’t them, either. Then, she’s...”

Chapter 2073 - 2073 Sister Nian Finds the Mastermind’s Identity in Minutes

Qiao Nian’s hacking skills were definitely not at the level of ordinary hackers. There were not many hackers who could defeat this young man.

The answer was obvious!

The young man looked at the girl sitting in front of the computer in shock and astonishment. He was quite smart and did not directly say the answer.

Instead, he looked at Mo Dong and mouthed: Sun!

This time, Mo Dong did not answer him directly, nor did he deny it. “That’s not important. I’ll tell you when I have the chance.”

The young man from the Hacker Alliance understood it almost instantly.

Qiao Nian was Sun!

Otherwise, Mo Dong could directly tell him that he had guessed wrong.

However, Mo Dong did not say that. He only answered ambiguously.

That meant he had guessed correctly!

Everyone in the hacker world knew Sun. Now, the top hacker god was in front of him!

The young man's breathing almost stopped.

He suppressed his excitement and suddenly remembered that some time ago, their Hacker Alliance's database had been hacked.

They had yet to find out the other party's identity.

He now knew who that person was.

It was Sun!

Sun had always been in the Independent Continent!

He knew it. Who else among the hackers could use the Hacker Alliance's database as a backyard? If it was Sun, then everything would be easy to explain.

* *

40 minutes later.

The girl's hands finally stopped. She leaned back and stared at the computer screen.

After a full minute.

She narrowed her eyes, which were filled with a ferocious beast that could not be hidden. She was a little lonely and cold. "I've found it."

Qin Si and the others were waiting for the results.

Ye Wangchuan had also been accompanying her progress.

It was not until the girl spoke that he handed her a cup of warm water. He asked her slowly, "Who is it?"

Qiao Nian took the cup from him and lowered her head to take a sip. It tasted sweet. She looked at it in surprise. She realized that a certain someone had thoughtfully added some glucose to her water. He was probably afraid that she would be too tired, so he replenished the sugar in her body.

Although she was not so tired as to need glucose to keep her alive, at this time, when someone poured her a glass of warm water, a certain part of Qiao Nian's heart suddenly softened. Her surly aura was restrained. At least, she was no longer as cold as when she first arrived.

She slowly put the cup down and closed her eyes. When she opened her eyes again, only coldness could be seen in her gaze. "...Ji Hongyuan." magic

When Qiao Nian found out the culprit's identity, she immediately guessed why he did it.

It was probably another ridiculous reason.

For example, he wanted to teach her a lesson.

Or perhaps, he wanted to dampen her spirit!

This was because the Ji family's Ji Hongyuan had said similar things to her more than once. For example, if she was disobedient, he would attack the Jiang Family in Beijing...

She just did not expect him to really dare to do this.

Qiao Nian's eyes were filled with blood. Her heart was almost on fire. She stood up and pulled out a chair, causing the chair to make a terrible sound as it scraped against the floor.

"Miss Qiao..." Gu San's hair stood on end. He vaguely felt that Qiao Nian had been angered this time. It seemed like her bottom line had been touched this time.

He did not know what Qiao Nian wanted to do, but he realized that Ji Hongyuan might regret it this time.

Qiao Nian went to the living room without a word. She picked up her bag from the sofa and prepared to walk out. "I'm going out for a while."

Chapter 2074 - 2074 Miss Qiao Even Challenged the Chamber of Commerce Alliance

"I'll go with you." Ye Wangchuan picked up his car keys.

Qiao Nian walked to the door and stopped in her tracks.

This time, she was quite determined. She turned her head and looked at him with cold eyes. "No, don't interfere this time. I'll settle it myself."

Then, she turned and left.

The living room of the villa was still extremely quiet. Almost no one made a sound.

Qin Si licked his lips and asked in a daze, "Master Wang, Sister Qiao asked us not to interfere. Are we really not going to interfere this time? How is she going to go against the Ji family alone?"

The girl had already left. Ye Wangchuan was still holding the car keys. At this moment, he lowered his eyes, thinking about something.

Mo Dong, Mo Xi, and Gu San were all looking at him. magic

They were just waiting for his order to take action.

The people from the Hacker Alliance and the Bright Gate were also observing his every move. Everyone in the villa held their breaths, their expressions nervous, and their hearts beat faster.

However, Ye Wangchuan did not order them to do anything. Instead, he hooked his finger around the car key and walked back. He threw the car key on the coffee table and sat on the sofa, then narrowed his dark eyes. "Wait for news."

Gu San did not understand. "Master Wang, are you really not going to help Miss Qiao? Miss Qiao is alone. What if..."

Qin Si thought so, too. He looked at Ye Wangchuan, not understanding what he was doing.

But no matter how they looked at him, Ye Wangchuan's expression did not change. He only indifferently said, "She said that she wants to resolve it herself this time."

"Miss Qiao said that, but we..." Gu San was about to say, "It's over if we don't listen."

Unexpectedly, Ye Wangchuan did not give him a chance to continue. "Since she said so, we'll wait for the news for now. She'll tell us if she needs help."

Qin Si's lips parted, wanting to say something.

“Before she says anything, no one is to interfere.” Ye Wangchuan made the final decision.

He had spoken.

No one in the villa dared to go against his wishes.

Qin Si was anxious and worried. On the other hand, Mo Dong and Mo Xi were calm, looking extremely confident.

Mo Xi even patted Qin Si’s back and said calmly, “Young Master Qin, don’t forget, that’s Miss Qiao! Don’t worry too much.”

Qin Si looked up at him.

Mo Xi met his gaze and said very calmly, “If you saw how Miss Qiao defeated the Chamber of Commerce Alliance alone back then, you wouldn’t be so nervous now.”

“Sister Qiao defeated the Chamber of Commerce Alliance alone? When did this happen? Why didn’t I know?” Qin Si was dumbfounded.

The forces in the Independent Continent were complicated. There were hundreds of forces of various sizes. Among them, there were the top three families and the weaker Shen Family.

Among them, the Chamber of Commerce Alliance was considered a medium-sized faction, but it also had the support of a large faction behind it. It was not to be trifled with.

Qin Si had not followed Ye Wangchuan to the Independent Continent the last time, so he naturally did not know what happened then.

He thought that Qiao Nian had been especially restrained and obedient the last time she came to the Independent Continent with Principal Liang and the others.

Now, it seemed that... the possibility of big boss Qiao being obedient was almost zero.

"It's about what happened before." Mo Xi chatted with him and told him in a few words how Qiao Nian had hacked into the Chamber of Commerce Alliance's system alone and helped them catch Torre.

Qin Si was confused. It was as if he was listening to a story.

Chapter 2075 - 2075 Elder Ye Thought Sister Nian Did Not Know

Mo Xi told him briefly. In the end, he placed his hand on his shoulder and patted him silently. "After all, this time, it involves Miss Qiao's family. It's understandable that Miss Qiao doesn't want us to interfere. Don't worry too much."

"Don't you see that Master Wang is still here?" Mo Xi gestured with his chin at him, lowered his voice, and smiled. "Don't you know how much Master Wang treasures Miss Qiao? If Miss Qiao can't deal with it alone, Master Wang will definitely be much faster than us!"

Qin Si looked at the person sitting on the sofa. He immediately realized that he and Gu San were in a mess because they were too concerned. That was why they did not notice this. Mo Xi knew Master Wang better than them.

After thinking this through, Qin Si was no longer anxious.

He even pulled Gu San to the side to persuade him so that he would not be as anxious as him.

The young man sitting on the sofa did not notice that they were gossiping in private. He took out his cell phone with his cold white hand, lowered his eyes, and called home.

The call was picked up almost instantly.

Soon, Old Master Ye's energetic voice sounded. "Young brat, you still know to call me. How is it? Nian Nian doesn't know, right? Don't tell her, lest she worries."

“Yes, she doesn’t know.” Ye Wangchuan opened a drawer lazily and elegantly, his gaze sweeping at its contents.

He held his cell phone in one hand and grabbed the cigarette box with the other, but in the end, he did not take out a cigarette. Instead, he picked up the chewing gum Gu San bought for Qiao Nian.

It was strawberry flavored.

From a certain brand.

Qiao Nian usually bought this brand of chewing gum.

However, the gum bottle she carried with her was mostly filled with small pills. Occasionally, she would put a few pieces of real chewing gum in it.

Thinking of something, Ye Wangchuan’s thin lips curled up slightly, and his lowered eyes filled with gentleness. Even his cold jawline became gentle.

“It’s good that she doesn’t know.” Old Master Ye still did not know that Ye Wangchuan was coaxing him. He was a little more careful and said, “Don’t tell her. I’ll get someone to investigate this matter. It’s not too late to tell her when I find out who’s behind this and control them.” magic

“I know.” Ye Wangchuan agreed quickly. His lowered eyelashes did not even move as he asked him, “Grandpa, Uncle is...”

“After confirming that it was just a false alarm, he went back to school to do scientific research. Don’t worry! I’ve told Liang Conglin to get someone to watch the school around the clock. They’ll contact me immediately if something happens.”

Old Master Ye had dominated his entire life. This time, Jiang Zongjin was almost injured under his nose, which more or less embarrassed him. His tone was tainted with a hint of a murderous aura. “If those people dare to attack him again, I’ll definitely make sure none of them can escape!”

Qiao Nian was going to marry into the Ye family in the future, and the Jiang Family would be their in-laws.

Their in-law was almost harmed. If word got out, the Ye family would lose face!

“By the way, when are you coming back? Are you still with Nian Nian in Rao City?” Ye Maoshan asked.

Ye Wangchuan brushed it off vaguely. “Anyway, Grandpa, help me take care of Uncle Jiang and the rest of the Jiang Family, especially Old Master Jiang and Jiang Li. You don’t have to care about the rest. If you can take care of them, then do so. If not, forget it.”

Chapter 2076 - 2076 Young Miss, Why Did You Ask Me Out?

Old Master Ye had never understood what his grandson was usually busy with, but he was not worried about Ye Wangchuan. Especially after the Ye family’s goods were robbed last time and Ye Wangchuan showed that he had a close relationship with the Bright Gate of the Independent Continent, Old Master Ye rarely asked about his private matters.

He also did not ask further now. He only instructed him to take good care of Qiao Nian and then hung up.

Ye Wangchuan called him mainly to ask him to help keep an eye on the other members of the Jiang Family so that Ji Hongyuan would not be like a mad dog. Now that the truck did not do the trick this time, if he targeted the other members of the Jiang Family...

If anything happened to Old Master Jiang or Jiang Li, he was afraid that Qiao Nian would do something terrible.

After Ye Wangchuan was done, he lowered his head and played with his cell phone. He found the girl’s profile picture on WeChat and thought for a moment before sending a message.

* *

At a cafe in the center of the Independent Continent.

Qiao Nian sat outside the open-air cafe. The weather in November was very cold, and the climate in the Independent Continent was also very bad.

She was wearing a thin sweater and a jacket, with a white scarf wrapped around her neck. Qiao Nian's hoodie was pulled up. Under the baseball cap, her face was exquisite and outstanding, extremely eye-catching.

A cup of hot cocoa was in front of her, still steaming. There was nothing else. She had not ordered any refreshments.

Her legs were crossed and she kept playing with her cell phone.

She seemed to be waiting for someone.

Cao Yanhua had sent her a message asking if she really was not going to the research institute in the afternoon. He even said that Shi Fu had asked them where she had gone when he came to the laboratory and did not see her. Xie Xinyao took the opportunity to tell Shi Fu something bad about her.

Cao Yanhua did not explain what Xie Xinyao said. He only said that Shi Fu was not very happy and advised her to return to the laboratory in the afternoon if there was nothing important.

Qiao Nian only replied with two words: Something's on.

She was unruly just like when she left in the afternoon. The wildness in her bones could not be suppressed.

Qiao Nian did not read the replies.

Only when Ye Wangchuan asked whether she would be coming back for dinner did the coldness in her eyes dissipate a little.

Qiao Nian lowered her head to reply.

At this moment, the person she had been waiting for finally arrived.

“Y-Young Miss, sorry to keep you waiting.”

Qiao Nian paused typing a reply for now. Instead, she turned off her cell phone and placed it aside. Then, she looked up.

He Lin pulled out the chair opposite her and sat down. He called the shop assistant over with a smile and ordered a cup of coffee for himself.

Seeing that other than ordering a drink, Qiao Nian did not order any exquisite cakes that girls liked, he silently ordered the shop’s two best-selling snacks.

After the shop assistant left...

He Lin could not suppress his excitement anymore. He looked at the girl sitting opposite him and asked, “Young Miss, why did you call me? I thought...” magic

He thought that ever since Qiao Nian broke up with the Ji family last time, there was a high chance that she would never contact him again.

He Lin never expected that the person he did not manage to call out previously would take the initiative to call him and ask him out this time.

Unexpectedly, before he could finish speaking, the girl picked up the hot cocoa and took a sip. After putting it down, she calmly asked, “You guys went for my father?”

He Lin was originally quite happy. But, upon hearing this, he immediately fell silent. He looked at her in shock, as if he did not understand what she was trying to say.

Chapter 2077 - 2077 Giving the Ji Family a Chance to Make a Choice

“Young, Young Miss, what do you mean?”

Seeing his reaction, Qiao Nian knew that Ji Hongyuan probably did this secretly. No one in the Ji family knew about it.

The corners of her mouth curled up and she smiled. Her dry eyes met He Lin’s. “My father almost had a car accident in Beijing yesterday. A big truck driver was tired and almost hit him head-on. Fortunately, he was lucky and dodged at the last moment. However, the driver wasn’t so lucky. I heard he died on the spot.”

At first, He Lin did not understand what Qiao Nian meant. However, he immediately understood what was going on when she finished speaking.

He wasn’t stupid.

Otherwise, he wouldn’t have stood out from many people and become Ji Lingfeng’s trusted right-hand man. With a thought, he knew who was behind this.

Sixth Elder.

He Lin’s heart beat faster. He opened his mouth, not knowing how to reply.

Qiao Nian did not beat around the bush. “I’ve found out who’s behind this.”

He Lin’s heart tightened. He was shocked. He did not expect Qiao Nian to move so quickly and immediately find out the culprit.

His throat dried and his voice became hoarse. "Who is it?"

At this moment, he still felt a little lucky.

After all, Ji Hongyuan had always been clean. It was unlikely that he would be caught red-handed.

Who knew...

As soon as he finished speaking, Qiao Nian casually threw out a name. "Ji Hongyuan." magic

He Lin stood up so quickly that he almost bumped into the table in front of him. The table outside the open-air cafe was simple, to begin with, so his action almost spilled the hot cocoa in front of the girl...

He Lin couldn't care less.

He looked at the girl in surprise, his expression changing again and again. He finally forced a smile, as if to cover it up. "No, that's impossible. Sixth Elder has no reason to do this. Your father is also his relative. He wouldn't do such a thing."

"I'll ask the Ji family about their stance now. Firstly, hand him over. This matter has nothing to do with the Ji family. Secondly, if you don't hand him over, I'll assume that the Ji family is also involved in this matter." Qiao Nian crossed her legs and told him calmly.

However, He Lin couldn't be as calm as her. His heart had long been in turmoil... He knew very well that Qiao Nian had called him out now not only because of the Ji family's attitude.

However, this stance not only determined who the Ji family sided with but also who they would choose this time.

Ji Hongyuan or... her.

Once the Ji family expressed their stance and made a choice...

There would be no way back for both sides.

Of course, He Lin knew that Qiao Nian was still willing to call him out this time to give the Ji family a chance.

The choice was right in front of him.

However, He Lin did not dare to say a word.

Recently, he had more or less figured out the girl's personality and knew that Qiao Nian was not the kind of person who would have an open discussion.

Therefore, after his mind went blank for a moment, he pursed his lips and then said with a solemn expression, "Young Miss, this is too big a matter. It's not something I can make a decision right away. How about this? Wait for me. I'll call the Patriarch and get back to you. Is that okay?"

"Sure." Qiao Nian did not expect He Lin to answer on the Ji family's behalf. She agreed readily, indicating that he could do as he suggested.

He Lin walked to the side to make a call.

Chapter 2078 - 2078 Ji Hongyuan Is Going to Be Unlucky

In the Ji family's manor.

Ji Hongyuan swaggered into the living room and even asked who had called him over, "Did the Patriarch tell you why he called me over?"

The servant only lowered her head and walked in front, not daring to speak nonsense. "Sixth Elder, I don't know. The Patriarch didn't tell me. He only asked me to call you over."

Ji Hongyuan frowned. "The Patriarch didn't tell you anything?" magic

"He didn't," the maid replied vaguely.

Seeing that he couldn't get anything out of her, he felt that things were strange. He raised his head and strode into the living room of the Ji family's manor.

The servant who had led the way had long stopped at the door, not daring to enter casually.

Ji Hongyuan entered alone.

He quickly realized that Ji Lingfeng wasn't the only one in the living room. Many of the older generation of the Ji family were present, and the circular conference table was filled with people.

Everyone was whispering to each other and discussing something.

When everyone saw him enter, they all shut their mouths. They sat upright and expressionless, not making any eye contact with him.

"Patriarch." Ji Hongyuan frowned. Already having sensed that something was amiss, he did not look at anyone else and greeted the man sitting at the master seat.

"Yes." Ji Lingfeng was as gentle and refined as ever. He looked tough, but he was polite to him. "Sixth Uncle, sit."

Ji Hongyuan pulled out the first seat on Ji Lingfeng's left and sat down. As soon as he did, he immediately asked impatiently, "Patriarch, why did you call me over?"

From the looks of it, something big had probably happened in the family today.

However, until now, Ji Hongyuan had yet to receive any news, so he did not know why Ji Lingfeng had called for him.

A servant came in to serve tea.

Ji Lingfeng did not beat around the bush. He placed his hand on the conference table. His eyes were still as dark as usual, and his tone was polite and warm. "Sixth Uncle, Qiao Nian met with He Lin and said that you touched the Jiang Family in Beijing. Is that true? Why didn't I know about this?"

His tone was clearly so polite, but Ji Hongyuan's expression suddenly changed as he looked at him in shock.

Ji Lingfeng's expression did not change. His eyebrows did not move at all. He looked at him and continued, "Qiao Nian asked us for an explanation. What kind of response do you think I should give her?"

"Patriarch." Ji Hongyuan's throat seemed to be pinched by someone, and his Adam's apple bobbed, but he could only squeeze out this word dryly.

Not in a hurry, Ji Lingfeng said elegantly, "Sixth Uncle, take your time. I called you over today to hear the truth from you."

After saying that, he leaned back and picked up the teacup on the table. Then, he lowered his eyes and drank it slowly, clearly giving Ji Hongyuan enough time to think.

Ji Lingfeng took the lead and then stopped talking.

No one at the conference table dared to speak.

There was a moment of silence in the huge living room. The intimidating pressure lingered in the hearts of every Ji family member.

Ji Hongyuan had dominated the Ji family for decades and was already someone who had experienced a lot of hardship.

He had seen all kinds of storms in his life.

At first, he was only shocked that Qiao Nian could find out about him so quickly.

Ji Hongyuan quickly calmed down.

“Patriarch, what do you plan to do with me?” He knew that Ji Lingfeng was not easy to fool, so he made sure to not cause a scene.

Chapter 2079 - 2079 Sixth Uncle, You're Too Extreme

Instead, he readily admitted what he had done. “I did get someone to deal with Qiao Nian’s father. Firstly, I wanted to teach her a lesson. Who asked her to be so impudent in the Ji family last time? Secondly, I also have my own selfish motives. I think that the reason she has come to this point is related to the Ji family’s failure in her education!

“Jiang Zongjin clearly has a good seedling in his hands and hasn’t taught her well, causing her to be as arrogant and lawless as she is now. That’s why I made a move. I wanted to teach him a lesson!”

“Mm.” Ji Lingfeng did not say if he did it right or wrong. He only said, “Sixth Uncle, you went too far.”

Such a calm sentence.

Everyone’s expressions changed, and they subconsciously looked at Ji Lingfeng and Ji Hongyuan.

It was rare for Ji Hongyuan to be so disrespectful in public. A hint of red appeared on Ji Hongyuan’s old face, and his breathing became heavier. His hands under the table were clenched into fists, but facing Ji Lingfeng, he actually concealed the dissatisfaction in his heart and only had a dark expression.

“Patriarch, what do you plan to do with me?”

Ji Lingfeng glanced at him indifferently, as if he felt a little regretful. He placed the teacup on the table and said slowly, "Sixth Uncle, you're my elder and have worked hard for the Ji family for your entire life. As a junior, I don't have a say in how we should deal with you. As the elder in charge of the family's punishment hall, how do you think we should deal with what you've done recently?"

Before Ji Hongyuan could say anything, he reminded indifferently, "Sixth Uncle, the Ji family's secret recipe for black powder is still outside." magic

There was undoubtedly a double meaning to his words!

The Ji family's secret gunpowder formula and the genius of the Ji family's direct line of descent were not in their control, and all of this was definitely related to Ji Hongyuan's arrogance.

While Ji Lingfeng was giving him face, he was also criticizing him!

Ji Hongyuan opened his mouth, his old face looking a little dejected. He said, "I'm willing to be suspended for a year."

A year of suspension was nothing. The key was that after Ji Hongyuan was suspended this time, his status in the Ji family would decrease greatly.

However, Ji Lingfeng smiled and looked at him with a pair of emotionless dark brown eyes. "Sixth Uncle, it's time for you to rest well. How about this? You don't have to worry about the punishment hall anymore. You can rest at home. How about that?"

Ji Hongyuan was completely speechless.

He sat in his seat in a daze for a long time.

He had never expected Ji Lingfeng to punish him so severely. He had directly stripped him of all his power, indirectly expelled him from the main members of the Ji family, and asked him to go back and reflect on himself.

He had only touched Jiang Zongjin.

He was just a bumpkin not from the independent continent!

Did he actually have to bear such serious consequences?

Ji Hongyuan was about to speak up for himself, but then, his gaze met the coldness and dignity under the man's brown eyes.

He swallowed his words and leaned weakly back in his chair. His facial muscles twitched as he squeezed out, "I... accept my punishment."

Ji Lingfeng only glanced at him indifferently and then swept his gaze across the Ji family members in the living room. He smiled and asked casually, "What about you guys? Do you have any objections?"

Under such circumstances, who dared to have any objections?

Everyone shook their heads to show that they had no objections.

Someone mustered his courage and asked him, "Patriarch, will Qiao Nian accept this outcome? What if she continues to pester us?"

Ji Lingfeng did not speak. He only stood up and pushed his chair, saying softly, "The Ji family can't lower their heads for anyone."

Chapter 2080 - 2080 No One in the Ji Family Takes Jiang Zongjin Seriously

On the other side.

He Lin received a call from the Ji family. magic

He told Qiao Nian and quickly picked it up.

Qiao Nian leaned back in her chair and lazily waited for the decision from the Ji family.

Five minutes later.

He Lin walked back with a heavy heart.

Qiao Nian saw his expression and basically guessed the answer.

“Which one did the Ji family choose?”

She had given them two choices.

He Lin quickly looked up at her, as if he had a thousand words to say. In the end, he only said, “The Patriarch has already punished the Sixth Elder and stripped him of his position as an elder of the Punishment Hall. Young Miss, this punishment is already very heavy for the Sixth Elder. He’s the older generation of the Ji family’s direct line of descent and has worked for the Ji family his entire life. The Patriarch can’t hand him over to you.

“He’s already done everything he can to give you an explanation.”

He Lin emphasized the words ‘everything’.

Qiao Nian had been waiting for his final answer with a dark gaze. She was not surprised at this result. She gently pulled down the brim of her baseball cap, revealing her exquisite and eye-catching face with a rather arrogant gaze. “So the Ji family chose the second option?”

He Lin was silent.

Qiao Nian actually gave the Ji family two choices. First, hand over Ji Hongyuan, and this matter would have nothing to do with the Ji family. Second, protect Ji Hongyuan, and she would completely end her relationship with the Ji family.

Although Ji Lingfeng had punished Ji Hongyuan, it was obvious that he did not choose the second option. He only compromised and gave Qiao Nian a different answer.

He would punish Ji Hongyuan in private, but he would not hand him over to Qiao Nian!

“Okay.” Qiao Nian did not pester him anymore. She pulled out the chair and stood up. “I understand.”

Seeing that she was about to leave, He Lin panicked. “Young Miss, there’s no need for you to be enemies with the Ji family like this, right? Your father is fine, and the Sixth Elder has been punished. Why do you have to harp on this matter? Actually, as long as you lower your head slightly, the Ji family is willing to let you go back. If you go back to the Ji family, you’ll be the hope of the family’s direct line of descent. You’ll surpass Miss Ziyin in minutes.”

Previously, he had told Qiao Nian that she had a chance to surpass Ji Ziyin.

Now, he spoke about surpassing Ji Ziyin in minutes.

Indeed.

Qiao Nian had caused too many surprises in the independent continent in less than three months. Now, which faction in the independent continent did not have their eyes on this newcomer from the research institute?

Everyone was trying their best to rope in this heaven-defying newcomer.

Especially ten days ago when Qiao Nian relied on her connection with Feng Yu to enter the Level 8 laboratory and came into contact with the core experimental project led by Shi Fu.

This attracted the attention of the various factions in the independent continent!

Under such circumstances, as long as Qiao Nian was willing to give the Ji family a way out, it was only a matter of time before she returned.

“Young Miss, you really don’t have to be enemies with the Ji family. It won’t do you any good. The Sixth Elder isn’t someone you can touch, either. The Patriarch has already avenged you.”

He Lin knew that Qiao Nian was powerful, but in his heart, no matter how powerful she was, she was only a person, not a god.

The Ji family was a towering tree.

The tree was big and the roots were deep.

If Ji Lingfeng had not stepped up this time, Ji Hongyuan would not have been punished for this matter.

To put it bluntly, Jiang Zongjin was just an ant in the eyes of everyone in the Ji family. He was even more fragile than an ant.
