

Madam's 2091

Chapter 2091 - 2091 Qin Si: The Red Alliance Have Such a Business???

Qin Si finally couldn't hold back his curiosity. He stood up and spun to look at Mo Xi and Gu San. "Do you think Sister Qiao is looking for the Ji family? She said she didn't see Ji Hongyuan, but she also said she was done with her business... I don't understand. Do you understand?"

Gu San shook his head honestly. "I don't understand."

He didn't understand at all.

Mo Xi smiled, looking quite cultured. "It's better if we don't ask too much."

"But I'm curious. I'm dying of curiosity!" Qin Si looked around. "Where's Master Wang? Did he go out?"

"Master Wang left with the Hacker Alliance. He hasn't returned yet," Mo Dong added solemnly.

He had been leaning against the wall. The scar on his face looked exceptionally terrifying, giving off an unapproachable aura.

His presence was very strong.

However, no matter how strong his presence was outside, he had to be careful in front of Qiao Nian. Previously, when Mo Xi spoke to Qiao Nian, he didn't say much.

It wasn't until Qiao Nian went upstairs that he spoke. "Young Master Qin, Miss Qiao naturally has her reasons for doing things. She said it's done. Don't worry anymore."

Mo Xi gave him a sidelong glance and teased with a smile, "You didn't have this attitude in the past. When did you start to trust Miss Qiao so much?"

Mo Dong remained silent.

However, with his attitude just now, he was clearly subdued by Qiao Nian. He was a loyal fan of hers now. magic

It was brainless trust!

Mo Dong's cell phone rang at this moment. He stood up straight after accepting the call and listening for a moment. "What did you say? Is the information accurate?"

Qin Si, Gu San, and Mo Xi looked at him at the same time.

Mo Dong didn't even notice. He strode to the side and asked anxiously, "Go and ask around again. Send me a message when you figure it out."

When he turned back, Mo Xi asked him seriously, "What's wrong?"

Mo Dong shook his head. For the time being, he refused to tell them. "I'm still waiting for confirmation. I'll tell you when they confirm it."

"What exactly is it? Why are you leaving us hanging? Can't you just say it?" Qin Si said.

Mo Dong still refused to say.

Fortunately, the other party replied back very quickly.

The moment Mo Dong's cell phone vibrated, he immediately opened the message. His scarred face lit up, and he was in high spirits. He looked up and glanced at the three people waiting for his message. He smiled, which was rare. He was exceptionally smug. "I knew Miss Qiao would definitely settle things properly."

“Huh?” Qin Si and Mo Xi were confused.

Gu San couldn't hold it in anymore. “Mo Dong, can you just say it? Don't leave us hanging. My heart isn't good.”

“Miss Qiao wasn't lying. She indeed didn't meet Ji Hongyuan, but she did finish her business...”

Mo Dong had said that he wouldn't leave them hanging, but he still deliberately paused for a second. Seeing them so anxious, he smiled and said, “Someone broke Ji Hongyuan's right hand, and he's still in the hospital receiving emergency treatment. According to the information of our people in the hospital, Ji Hongyuan can't keep his right hand anymore. The other party wanted one of his hands from the beginning.”

“You're saying that Sister Qiao did it?” Qin Si didn't believe it. “The Red Alliance have such a business in the Independent Continent?”

To him, no matter how powerful the Red Alliance was, they were just a hacker organization. In the world of the Internet, they could do whatever they wanted. In the real world, these hackers were all like weak chickens.

In a one-on-one situation, a top-notch hacker might not be able to defeat a strong ordinary person.

Chapter 2092 - 2092 Xie Xinyao Is Indeed Creating Trouble Behind Sister Nian's Back

Even if Qiao Nian was Sun from the Red Alliance, she couldn't break one of Ji Hongyuan's hands.

Qin Si was extremely surprised. His first reaction was not to believe this had anything to do with Qiao Nian.

Mo Xi looked at him calmly. “Tell us everything in one go. Don't leave us hanging.”

Mo Dong nodded. “The force behind this attack wasn't the Red Alliance, but an unimaginable force—the diamond big boss Q from the illegal district. magic

“I don’t need to say anything else. You should understand what I mean, right?”

It was impossible for the diamond big boss to suddenly appear, let alone target the Ji family and Ji Hongyuan. There was only one possibility.

Qiao Nian’s identity had been exposed!

Qin Si finally reacted. He cursed, “F*ck!”

His expression became indescribable. He looked at them and muttered, “How did those fools from the Qiao Family have the guts to offend Sister Qiao in Rao City? This f*cking... it’s a miracle of life that they can survive until now!”

Apart from the Qiao Family, there was also Jiang Xianrou and Tang Wanru... Those people were all looking for trouble.

If the big boss hadn’t taken care of Old Master Jiang and Jiang Li, with Jiang Xianrou’s previous actions, a thousand lives wouldn’t have been enough to compensate her.

However, Big Boss Qiao’s identities were really... one more awesome than the other. His small heart could not take it anymore.

Qin Si now had a powerful feeling that he might not even blink if anyone told him that Qiao Nian was the richest person in the world.

In her room.

Qiao Nian took a shower, changed into her nightgown, and came out of the bathroom.

She dried her dripping hair as she walked to the desk. She pulled out a chair and sat down casually.

The phone on the desk lit up.

Qiao Nian picked it up and checked it, realizing that it was a message from Xue Zhu.

[Qiao Nian, are you coming to the laboratory tomorrow?]

The message had been sent a minute ago.

She lowered her dark eyelashes and rested her chin on her hand, then replied lazily: [Yes.]

Then, she took a look at the chat group. It had 99+ messages since the afternoon.

Qiao Nian casually entered the chat group and skimmed through the messages.

She was usually not very interested in group chat messages. When she read them, she did not take them seriously. She only glanced at them to pass the time.

They were saying that Xie Xinyao was targeting her again.

Qiao Nian didn't care much about Xie Xinyao, so she didn't care much about what she did.

She was about to put the phone down when Xue Zhu sent another message.

She might have been typing a message to her just now.

Qiao Nian opened the chat box again. Indeed, Xue Zhu had sent her a series of messages.

[Xie Xinyao went to the deputy director today to sue you. She said that you used your connections to bully the members of the Level 8 laboratory. She even said that you came in late and left early every other day, causing a bad impact on the others. Although Senior Brother Cao and Senior Brother Han spoke up for you, she has many lackeys. When the mentor arrived, they kept bad-mouthing you. They were just short of asking him to chase you out of the Level 8 laboratory...]

[She even explicitly suggested to the mentor that she wanted to join the semiconductor project. She recommended herself and said that she was more suitable than you.]

[At that time, everyone in the level 8 laboratory was watching. You weren't around in the afternoon, and the mentor seemed to be a little angry because of her provocation. In short, she started a scene. In the end, it evolved into her wanting to compete with you to see who was more suitable for the semiconductor project.]

Chapter 2093 - 2093 How About You Learn to Post on Your Moments? This Style Doesn't Suit You

[Qiao Nian, you have to come to the laboratory tomorrow. Otherwise, you will be automatically disqualified from the project.]

[Xie Xinyao will replace you and join that project with Senior Brother Cao and the others.]

A portion of Qiao Nian's hair was still wet. Her raven-black hair fell over her brow bones. Her beautiful eyes were slightly sharp as she lazily read the message. After she finished it, her lips curved in a smile.

Xue Zhu was still typing.

Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows and replied unhurriedly.

[Q: I'll wait and see.]

Xue Zhu stopped typing. It took her a long time to reply with an emoji of a big boss kneeling.

Qiao Nian glanced at it and put her phone away to charge.

Then, she picked up the towel and dried her dripping hair again. As she turned on her computer, she told Guan Yan to send the people who had participated in dealing with Ji Hongyuan back to the illegal district first, then organize their people in the Independent Continent and lay low for a while.

Guan Yan's reply arrived very quickly. She told Qiao Nian that she had already arranged everything.

If the Ji family wanted to look for them, they would probably have to go to the illegal district.

The illegal district was not part of the independent continent, and large forces were based there. No matter how powerful the Ji family was in the independent continent, they were helpless in the illegal district.

Relieved, Qiao Nian turned off the computer and readied to sleep.

Unexpectedly, her cell phone rang again.

Qiao Nian frowned slightly and picked it up. She patiently accepted the call when she saw the caller ID.

"Shoot."

"Did you have a conflict with the Ji family?" Lu Zhi's gentle and elegant voice came through.

Qiao Nian replied casually as she walked towards the bed, "Huh?"

"The Ji family asked me to teach you a lesson on their behalf." Lu Zhi's voice seemed to come from the office. The surroundings felt a little empty. He said with a faint smile, "Qiao, how do you think I should teach you a lesson?"

Qiao Nian paused for a moment and said casually, "Up to you."

Lu Zhi smiled again. "Are you that impatient?"

Qiao Nian looked at the time. "It's half-past nine at night here. I need to sleep."

Lu Zhi had always been difficult to communicate with.

Indeed.

He continued as if he didn't understand. "Why don't you give my latest WeChat Moments a Like and I'll settle this matter for you?"

"Huh?"

Qiao Nian patiently took a look at his WeChat Moments.

She did not have many WeChat friends. She looked around but did not see anything from Lu Zhi. On second thought, she slapped her head and recalled that she had blocked his WeChat Moments previously.

Hence, she clicked on a certain someone's profile picture and especially clicked on his WeChat Moments.

Lu Zhi had just posted a hot WeChat post two hours ago with a heart.

[Lu Zhi: I've waited in the wind and rain. Like a butterfly waiting for flowers, a seabird waiting for the blue sky, and a fish waiting for water. I'm waiting for you.]

The corner of Qiao Nian's mouth twitched. She had wanted to give him a thumbs up out of friendship, but unfortunately, her aesthetic taste didn't allow it. Hence, she silently left and asked him, "Lu Zhi, why don't you learn how to post on your social media? This style isn't suitable for you."

Other than his legs being disabled, his face was actually not bad. It was just that his aesthetic standards were terrible.

After Qiao Nian finished speaking, without waiting for him to speak, she frowned. She was really sleepy. "I won't talk to you anymore. I'm hanging up."

She hung up, turned her phone to silent mode, turned off the lights, and went to bed.magic

Chapter 2094 - 2094 Jian Jin: I Didn't! Don't Spout Nonsense!

On the other side, at the illegal district's Tian Chen headquarters.

Lu Zhi realized half a beat later that Qiao Nian had hung up. His lips were still curved up slightly, and his eyes were half-closed, looking very relaxed.

If he wasn't sitting in a wheelchair with a heavy blanket draped over his legs, he would definitely be a handsome man.

When Jian Jin came in, she saw Lu Zhi sitting there in a good mood, looking at his cell phone and laughing softly. She raised her eyebrows and asked, "Boss, what happened? Why are you smiling so happily?"

Lu Zhi looked up and realized that she had entered. His smile faded a little, but he still couldn't hide his good mood. He asked, "Have you seen my WeChat Moments?"

"...Not yet. Have you posted something on your WeChat Moments? Let me take a look." Jian Jin took out her phone and scrolled through her WeChat Moments. Soon, she found the romantic WeChat Moments Lu Zhi had posted two hours ago. Her lips twitched. She looked at him and commented, "... Uh, it's very unique."

Lu Zhi asked her with interest, "What style do you think suits me?"

Jian Jin narrowed her eyes, doubting her ears. "Boss, do you want to change your style?"

Lu Zhi was quite busy every day. Sometimes, he was so busy that he didn't even have time to sleep!

However, this did not affect the speed at which he kept updating his WeChat Moments. Every day, he bombarded her WeChat Moments with romantic words he found who knows where. At one point, she almost blocked him.

"Is my current style not good?" Lu Zhi raised his eyebrows. He was gentle and elegant, but with his eyebrows raised, in an instant, he gave off the vibe of a refined scum.

He turned his wheelchair, returned to his desk, and casually placed his phone on the table. magic

Jian Jin didn't know how to answer him for a moment. "It's not a bad idea. No matter what, it's too unique. Most people won't be able to accept it."

"I thought she wasn't an ordinary person," Lu Zhi replied in a low voice.

Jian Jin didn't hear what he said clearly, but she caught the "she" and immediately understood what was going on.

"Are you talking about Qiao? Did she say anything about you?"

Lu Zhi didn't hide it from her. "I asked her to like my WeChat Moments, but she refused. She even said that this style doesn't suit me."

That image had already appeared in Jian Jin's mind. She could almost imagine how irritable Qiao Nian must have been when she saw Lu Zhi's social media post. How she had suppressed her frustration and tactfully reminded him to change his style.

She couldn't help but want to laugh. Indeed, she laughed out loud impolitely.

Meeting Lu Zhi's gaze, Jian Jin hurriedly covered her mouth with her hand and coughed to ease the awkwardness. "I think Qiao might not be used to your expression, Boss. Everyone in Country Z is reserved. Qiao has grown up in Country Z. She just can't understand you."

She finished by saying, "Why don't you be more reserved?"

Lu Zhi supported his chin on his hand thoughtfully and came to a conclusion. "Are you asking me to make things clearer on my WeChat Moments in the future?"

Jian Jin was speechless. I didn't! Don't spout nonsense!

However, Lu Zhi couldn't see through her rejection. "I understand. I'll be more clear next time."

He tidied up the documents on the table and placed them neatly at the side. Then, he instructed Jian Jin, "Tell the Ji family that we're working with the diamond big boss and it's not convenient for us to make a move. Tell them to think of a way themselves."

Chapter 2095 - 2095 Lu Zhi's Amateur Confession

"Sure."

Before Jian Jin left, she placed her hand on the door handle. Curiosity finally prevailed. She turned back to look at the man and asked, "Boss, is it convenient for me to ask? How do you plan to post on your Moments next..."

Lu Zhi was indeed very busy.

He was in charge of the entire Tian Chen alone. He had not gotten to where he was today acting as gently and simply as he looked.

At this moment, he patiently met Jian Jin's eyes, as if he was thinking about this question seriously. In the end, he answered seriously, "I love you."

Jian Jin was momentarily dazed.

However, she understood what Lu Zhi was saying and composed herself in the blink of an eye. She couldn't help but laugh. "Boss, go ahead. I'll go out."

She closed the door and ran out. When she reached the elevator, she couldn't help but laugh out loud. Then, she sent Qiao Nian a message, gloating.

[Baby, I think Boss misunderstood.]

After sending this message, she put her phone away with a smile and waited to watch the show.

She guessed that with her boss's aesthetic standards and his elementary school style of confession, Qiao Nian might never understand what he meant for the rest of her life.

I love you?

He didn't say who he loved!

Qiao must have thought that he was having another seizure!

Jian Jin smiled, then called someone from Tian Chen to go with her to see the person from the Ji family.

She had already put away her smile when she walked into the meeting room. Her face was tense, and she looked like what outsiders usually saw.

At the hospital.

The Ji family received a reply from Lu Zhi. Unexpectedly, Lu Zhi, who had always been on good terms with them, made it clear that he wanted to protect Qiao Nian and was unwilling to help.

He Lin heaved a sigh of relief and conveyed the news to the others. Then, he stood at the side with his nose lowered.

“Patriarch.” Someone could no longer hold back. He stepped forward and said with a straight face, “The other party is too arrogant. We can’t suffer in silence. All the major factions in the independent continent know that our Sixth Elder’s hand was broken in public. If we don’t do anything, what will they think of the Ji family in the future? What about our reputation?”

Ji Lingfeng’s expression did not change. He glanced at him from the corner of his eye and asked casually, “Then why don’t you avenge the Sixth Elder?”

The man’s expression froze and he fell silent.

What a joke. He didn’t know that Qiao Nian had a background in the illegal district and might even be the diamond big boss.

He could teach that bumpkin from Country Z a lesson, and make the family proud. Why not?

However, the other party was clearly bold and arrogant. Moreover, she had the backing of the diamond big boss. She even dared to touch Ji Hongyuan. He admitted that his status in the Ji family was not as high as Ji Hongyuan’s. How could he dare to continue speaking?

“Patriarch, we can’t just let this go, right?!” The person who spoke this time was another elder of the family. Just like Ji Hongyuan, he was highly respected. His words carried a lot of weight.

As soon as he spoke, the others looked at Ji Lingfeng again.

Ji Xiao and Ji Ziyin’s reactions were especially obvious.

Although Ji Ziyin clenched her fists tightly on the surface to make herself look less outstanding, she was actually more anxious than anyone else. magic

... Qiao Nian was actually the diamond big boss Q in the illegal district.

She had never thought of this before.

Right now, Ji Ziyin could only hope that the Ji family could ruthlessly beat the other party into the mud this time. It would be best if she could never get up again.

Chapter 2096 - 2096 Bright Gate's Master Is Supposedly Surnamed Ye

Otherwise, with the ability Qiao Nian had displayed now and the fact that she was a direct descendant of the Ji family, once Qiao Nian returned to the family, with her powerful blood ties, there would no longer be a place for Ji Ziyin to stand in the Ji family.

Seeing that Ji Lingfeng had yet to express his stance, Ji Ziyin stepped forward and quietly added fuel to the fire. "When those people barged into the private room, Sixth Elder mentioned the Ji family several times, but they did not take us seriously at all. They even said that if they were afraid of the Ji family, they would not have come looking for us."

As soon as she finished speaking, anger could be seen on the faces of the other members of the family. All of them were furious.

Ji Lingfeng glanced at her imperceptibly.

Ji Ziyin lowered her head and fell silent, as if she had just recounted the details without any deeper meaning.

"This matter..." Ji Lingfeng was thinking about how to deal with it when someone entered.

"Patriarch." That person ran very quickly. It was obvious that the matter was urgent. He approached in two or three steps and panted. Ignoring his image and rules, he said anxiously, "Patriarch, something has happened! Several of our Ji family businesses have been damaged. They're all under the Sixth Elder's name. Also, Sixth Elder's son just got into a car accident and was urgently sent to the hospital."

"What!"

Ji Lingfeng stood up abruptly, his usually cold expression finally changing.

"Who did this!"

The corners of his eyes turned slightly cold as he looked at the underling with his dark brown eyes, his tone cold.

Deep down, he wanted to protect Qiao Nian. At the very least, he had maintained a neutral attitude after this incident.

However, with everyone in the family watching, he couldn't make it too obvious.

However, if it was Qiao Nian who did it this time... Ji Lingfeng's eyes turned slightly cold, and the corners of his mouth had already drooped. "It's her again?"

"No."

The news of Ji Hongyuan's right hand being broken had long spread throughout the entire family. That person was smart and instantly understood who Ji Lingfeng was asking. He immediately shook his head, then looked up and said anxiously, "It was Bright Gate. Someone from Bright Gate did it."

"Bright Gate?" Ji Lingfeng took a deep breath and narrowed his eyes, looking very dangerous.

Ji Ziyin was also at a loss.

Why was Bright Gate involved too?

At this moment, someone else ran in. It was the bodyguard stationed outside.

The 1.9-meter-tall bodyguard was like an iron tower. He said in a low voice, "Patriarch and elders, there's a man outside who claims to be from the Bright Gate with the surname Ye. He wants to see you."

Ji Lingfeng paused for a second before saying, "Let him in."

The place was now filled with members of the Ji family. If outsiders wanted to enter, they had to force their way in or inform Ji Lingfeng.

"Patriarch, do you know this person?" Ji Xiao asked softly.

"Heh." Ji Lingfeng sneered and glanced at him as if he was looking at a fool. "It's said that Bright Gate's Master is surnamed Ye."

Everyone was speechless.

They all looked towards the entrance.

In other words, the Bright Gate destroyed all of Ji Hongyuan's businesses. Before they could settle the score with the other party, the other party had come looking for them.

This...

Everyone had doubts—what exactly was going on this year? Why was each one more arrogant and bold than the other? Didn't they care about the consequences?!

...

Ye Wangchuan had come alone.

He walked in casually.

The young man looked to be in his twenties. His face was exceptionally good-looking, not inferior to anyone in the entertainment industry. However, he had an indescribable noble and lazy aura, making him look even more outstanding.

Chapter 2097 - 2097 Master Wang Personally Came to Warn Him

This was the first time the Ji family, including Ji Lingfeng, had seen the person behind the Bright Gate. None of them had expected the other party to be so young.

Moreover, his appearance was so outstanding.

Ye Wangchuan walked in and then stopped. He looked at Ji Lingfeng with his soul-stirring eyes and smiled. "Mr. Ji, nice to meet you."

It was rare for Ji Lingfeng to not beat around the bush. Instead, his eyes turned slightly cold as he said, "First, you destroyed my Ji family's businesses, and now you came looking for us. Does Bright Gate not take us seriously, or do you want to officially declare war on us?"

Ye Wangchuan remained calm and composed. He was not suppressed by Ji Lingfeng's aura at all. Instead, he seemed to be at ease. "Didn't the Ji family declare war on me first?"

Ji Lingfeng frowned.

Ji Ziyin had many feelings.

He Lin looked at him. He seemed to have thought of something and suddenly looked up.

"What do you mean?" Ji Lingfeng still asked.

Ye Wangchuan looked at him with eyes that were a little cold, and his smile faded. "The Ji family attacked my girlfriend's father first. I thought that you wanted to declare war on Bright Gate. In return, of course, Bright Gate has to return the favor to the Sixth Elder."

His tone was still as cold and lazy as ever. His tone was casual as if he was just chatting with them. "It's a pity that the Sixth Elder is already so old. His biological father is long gone. Otherwise, I should have asked the Sixth Elder to put himself in my girlfriend's shoes."

He smiled again. "Fortunately, the Sixth Elder has a son."

How arrogant was this!

Girlfriend, car accident... The truth was obvious.

Everyone in the room was nervous. No one had expected the people from Bright Gate to come looking for them to settle scores!

The bloodline of the direct line of descent that their family had never acknowledged was actually related to Bright Gate's master.

This... magic

In the past, Qiao Nian knew Feng Yu from the research institute, and now, she knew the master of Bright Gate. She was also the diamond big boss in the illegal district. Moreover, she had now entered the level 8 laboratory of the First Research Institute to learn from Shi Fu.

All of this added up. Previously, everyone had looked down on Qiao Nian and thought that she was just a bumpkin not worthy of the Ji family. They began to regret it now.

They regretted that when Qiao Nian came to look for them, they all chose to stand on Ji Hongyuan's side and didn't stop him from saying that he wanted to cut ties with her.

“Are you here to tell me this?” At this moment, Ji Lingfeng no longer looked as sharp as before, as if he had seen through Ye Wangchuan’s intentions. “Are you telling us not to do anything to her? Will you risk everything to have a direct conflict with the Ji family for her and make us pay the price?”

“It depends on what Mr. Ji thinks.” Ye Wangchuan didn’t admit it, but he didn’t deny it either.

This meaning was already very obvious.

He just didn’t want to see the Ji family play a cheap shot behind Qiao Nian’s back. Hence, he didn’t hesitate to visit them personally. Even if he had to lose his horse, he had to intimidate the Ji family and make them fear him before they did anything.

Ji Lingfeng closed his eyes, then opened them again and waved his hand. “I understand. You can leave.”

Ye Wangchuan did not stay any longer. Before leaving, he looked in Ji Ziyin and Ji Xiao’s direction.

Just one look made Ji Xiao and Ji Ziyin feel as if they had fallen into an icehouse.

“My girlfriend doesn’t like to cause trouble, but she’s not afraid of trouble either. If anyone attacks her and her family again, I’ll definitely return the favor tenfold or a hundredfold! I mean what I say.”

Chapter 2098 - 2098 Master Wang Already Knows

Qiao Nian had already fallen asleep when Ye Wangchuan returned.

Mo Dong and Mo Xi were busy for a while. Then, they left without waiting for Ye Wangchuan to return.

Only Gu San and Qin Si were left in the villa.

Gu San was making delicious food for everyone in the small kitchen. When he came out with the bowls and chopsticks, he saw a noble and lazy man walking in.

“Master Wang, you’re back.” He hurriedly put down the bowl and chopsticks and strode forward, eager to share the news with him. “Have you heard? Miss Qiao...”

Ye Wangchuan walked straight to the sofa. His eyebrows did not move, and he looked exceptionally calm. “I know.”

“Damn, you’re back?” Qin Si was nestled on the sofa, playing games while waiting for Qiao Nian to wake up for dinner.

He had just finished a round when he looked up and saw Ye Wangchuan entering. He informed Zhang Yang and Tang Ning and exited the game.

Qin Si and Gu San had the same reaction. They both said eagerly, “Mo Dong and Mo Xi have gone back. Sister Qiao is sleeping upstairs. She came back an hour and a half earlier than you. She’s probably still sleeping. By the way, do you know...”

Gu San was following behind Ye Wangchuan. Hearing this, he said gloomily, “Master Wang already knows.”

“Oh.” Qin Si was a little depressed. He wanted to surprise Ye Wangchuan.

However, he immediately perked up again, his eyes bright. “You know about Ji Hongyuan, but you definitely don’t know that Sister Qiao is the diamond big boss in the illegal district. She’s that Q. The one we investigated previously.

“Old Bo has been investigating her for three years, but he hasn’t found a single hair on her head. I didn’t expect Q to be by our side, staying with us all day long.” Qin Si sighed. “Tsk, if we have to say, Sister Qiao is still the best! If Bo Jingxing knew that Sister Qiao is the diamond big boss Q in the illegal district, he would be so depressed!”

His tone was filled with smugness. He was clearly proud of learning of Qiao Nian's identity before Bo Jingxing.

Ye Wangchuan had already taken off his jacket and sat on the sofa. Gu San made him a cup of coffee and brought it over. He held the coffee cup in his hand and lowered his head. The hot coffee steam covered his facial features. No emotion could be seen on his handsome face as he lazily took a sip.

Qin Si asked upon seeing his reaction, "Master Wang, why aren't you saying anything? Sister Qiao is the diamond big boss in the illegal district..."

Indeed.

The truth was extremely tortuous!

"I knew it long ago." Ye Wangchuan put down his cup unhurriedly and looked up slightly. His dark eyes were still half-squinted, lazy, and casual.

Qin Si's mouth twitched. He couldn't help but think of Bo Jingxing, who still didn't know. "You knew long ago that Sister Qiao was the diamond big boss? How early?"

"Half a year ago?" Ye Wangchuan thought for a while and met his eyes openly. "I forgot."

"..."

Qin Si silently lit a candle for Bo Jingxing and the group of people from the Ninth Branch who were still investigating the diamond big boss. Then, he gave the man a thumbs up. "Master Wang, do you think Old Bo and Luo Qing will fight you to the death if they find out..."

The Ninth Branch had been investigating the diamond big boss bitterly, but their boss had long known their identity. magic

He just didn't say anything!

Ye Wangchuan placed his hand on his leg and leaned his head back against the sofa. After a moment, he said, "...It involves her privacy. I won't tell anyone until she asks me to. Unless she wants you to know one day."

Chapter 2099 - 2099 If Master Wang Makes a Move, Ji Hongyuan Won't Be Able to Make a Comeback

Qin Si was originally a little angry. Hearing this, the resentment in his heart instantly dissipated. He slapped his forehead, feeling that he was too petty.

"I didn't mean that, either."

Qiao Nian being the diamond big boss in the illegal district involved her privacy. Both Ye Wangchuan and Qiao Nian had the right to choose if they wanted to disclose it or not.

Qin Si understood this and changed the topic. "By the way, Master Wang, where did you go just now? All of us were waiting for Sister Qiao to return. You went out for a long time. Sister Qiao even asked about you."

When Qiao Nian returned, she asked and found out that Ye Wangchuan had gone out. She didn't say much.

She was too tired and went upstairs to catch up on her sleep.

Ye Wangchuan's eyes darkened. He picked up his phone and saw the reply from the people from Bright Gate.

—[Master Wang, we've already cleaned up the forces of Ji Hongyuan's lineage in the independent continent.]

Ye Wangchuan didn't reply. He lowered his gaze and rubbed his fingers against the screen. His eyes turned a little gentle. "I just went out for a while."

Qin Si wanted to ask him for details. magic

Ye Wangchuan stood up and patted his shoulder, already brushing past him. "I'll go back to my room to take a shower."

Qin Si was stunned for a second.

When he came back to his senses, Ye Wangchuan had already left.

He had already run away. How could he ask more?

Qin Si had a vague feeling that Ye Wangchuan might have done something big. The matter was related to the Ji family and Qiao Nian. However, he shook his head and did not dwell on it.

He turned to Gu San, who was busy in the kitchen, and said, "I'm going back to my room to play games. Don't call me for dinner tonight. I want to stay up all night to score points~"

Gu San poked his head out of the kitchen, but Qin Si had already taken his cell phone and slipped back to his room.

The next day.

Qiao Nian woke up naturally.

The sky was already bright outside.

Qiao Nian got out of bed, splashed cold water on her face, and brushed her teeth. She felt much more awake.

She changed her clothes, put on a scarf, and picked up her phone to look at the time.

8:05 A.M.

Still 25 minutes until it was time to clock in at the research institute.

Qiao Nian blinked, suppressing her frustration. She took her things out and, before leaving, put on the black baseball cap on the table.

Downstairs.

Ye Wangchuan was already there.

He was only wearing a light blue low-collared sweater, revealing his fair collarbone.

“Good morning.”

Qiao Nian glanced at him. She had already looked away, but when she noticed his clothes, she glanced at him again. Her voice was still hoarse as she had just woken up. “Good morning.”

Ye Wangchuan noticed that she was looking at him and smiled. There didn’t seem to be anything wrong. He lazily pulled out a chair for her and placed a glass of milk in front of the seat. “Have breakfast first?”

Qiao Nian looked at the time. It was a little rushed.

She frowned and shook her head. “It’s too late. I’m not eating anymore.”

Before Ye Wangchuan could speak, Qiao Nian quickly walked over and took the glass of milk from him. She drank it in one gulp. Then, she put the glass back on the table and wiped her mouth. “I have something to do at the research institute today. I can't be late. I've drunk the milk. Forget about breakfast."

It was rare for Ye Wangchuan to see her in such a hurry, so he didn't ask her what was so urgent. He only instructed Gu San, who quickly packed up the toasted bread and a can of fruit juice.

Ye Wangchuan picked up his car keys and breakfast, then walked in front. "Let's go. I'll send you off."

Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows. In the end, she put her hands in her pockets and followed him.

Chapter 2100 - 2100 Xie Xinyao Is Waiting to Make a Fool of Us

This wasn't the first time Ye Wangchuan sent her to the research institute. He knew the way there by heart.

In less than twenty minutes, he parked the car steadily on the road opposite the research institute and watched as the girl unbuckled her seatbelt, grabbed her shoulder bag, and got out of the car.

He rolled down the window and said very naturally, "I'll pick you up in the afternoon."

Having just closed the door, Qiao Nian turned around and frowned. She was about to say that there was no need, but she changed her words. "Okay."

The phone in her pocket vibrated as soon as she finished speaking.

Qiao Nian took it out and looked down at the screen.

It was Xue Zhu.

She didn't pick up.

She waved at the man in the car and then coolly walked towards the research institute. "I'm going in."

Ye Wangchuan watched as the girl entered the research institute. Then, he rolled up the window, turned the car around, and drove away.

...

In the research institute.

Level 8 laboratory.

The people from the Level 8 laboratory arrived early today.

The members, who usually only arrived at 8:20 AM, arrived around 8:00 AM today.

Shen Qingfeng, Xue Zhu, and Xu Yi also arrived early to gather with Cao Yanhua and Han Cheng.

At the same time, there were also many people on Xie Xinyao's side, and they were all official members of the Level 8 laboratory.

Comparing the two sides, Cao Yanhua and the others immediately looked weak and shabby.

Xie Xinyao had arrived early and had changed into an experimental gown. Tall and with an outstanding appearance, she was especially eye-catching among the group, and people would notice her at a glance.

"Senior Brother Cao, is Qiao Nian not here yet?" Xie Xinyao had been chatting with the little fatty and the others. Seeing that it was almost half-past eight, she raised her chin and asked Cao Yanhua.

Previously, she had always been polite to Cao Yanhua, but this time, her tone was especially arrogant. It was obvious that she was very dissatisfied that he was not on her side this time.

Cao Yanhua's dark face looked honest, but he had his own opinions. He said neither servile nor overbearing as he replied, "It's not even half-past eight. There's no hurry."

Xie Xinyao's eyes turned cold. Without saying anything, she turned around and continued chatting with the person next to her.

Meanwhile, Xu Yi and the others were in a world of ice and fire.

Even Han Cheng couldn't help but ask Xue Zhu, "Junior Sister Xue, haven't you contacted Qiao Nian?"
magic

Xue Zhu had just called Qiao Nian. She shook her head, looking worried. "I called her, but she didn't pick up."

Xu Yi frowned, his usually handsome face darkening. He straightened his back and said, "I'll go out and take a look."

"Don't be rash." Shen Qingfeng grabbed his arm and stopped him. "Xie Xinyao and the others will be even more smug."

Xu Yi frowned and turned to look at him.

Shen Qingfeng said calmly, "They're waiting to laugh at us."

Xu Yi looked to the other side. Xie Xinyao and they seemed to be chatting, but in fact, she kept glancing in their direction. She was clearly paying attention to their movements at all times.

As long as he went out to look for Qiao Niao, Xie Xinyao would definitely mock them. She would probably even say that Qiao Nian had become a deserter.

Suppressing the ball of anger in his chest, Xu Yi sat back down silently with a straight face.

Fortunately, Qiao Nian did not make them wait long.

Two minutes before 8:30, a girl wearing a baseball cap appeared punctually at the entrance of the Level 8 laboratory.
