

Madam's 2141

Chapter 2141 - 2141 Trash, Mother Xie Is Too Embarrassed

Gu San also chimed in, "Young Master Qin, you didn't remember wrongly. This brand is under Miss Qiao. Some time ago, Cheng Feng Corporation even gave Miss Qiao many new products. It's just that Miss Qiao doesn't like to wear them usually. They're piled up in the storeroom of our villa."

"Oh." Qin Si deliberately glanced at Mother Xie and Xie Xinyao and said in surprise, "Those are not second-hand?"

Gu San knew his personality too well. "Young Master Qin, what are you talking about? Miss Qiao can't even finish putting on all her new products. How can she use second-hand ones?"

"I see." Qin Si patted his head and smiled at Mother Xie and Xie Xinyao. "I'm sorry, the two of you. Our Sister Qiao doesn't care about second-hand goods. Why don't you take this brooch back? If she wants these things, even if they're not from this brand, I can give them to her. It's just a brooch. Our family is poor, but we can still afford it."

The Qin family was famous for being rich in Beijing!

Qin Si had grown up in a honey pot. Everyone in Beijing knew that Young Master Qin was not short of money.

A brooch worth more than a million yuan might only be worth one yuan or two yuan in Qin Si's eyes. He usually liked to shout that he was poor. He was just talking glibly and entertaining himself.

He really did not lack money.

However, even if a child raised by the Qin family did not lack money, they did not like to flaunt their wealth like a nouveau riche.

When he said that his family was poor, he was clearly mocking Mother Xie and Xie Xinyao. He was just using words to mock and disgust them.

Another reason was that Qin Si was defending Qiao Nian.

He usually could not bear to let Qiao Nian suffer. How could he tolerate outsiders publicly making a cheap shot and a cheap trick to disgust her?

Ye Wangchuan was calmer. However, his eyes were dark as he looked at Mother Xie and Xie Xinyao. His smile also faded. "Maybe they're not short of money."

What could be the reason for a person who did not lack money to send a second-hand good to congratulate someone? It could only be that they looked down on the other party from the bottom of their hearts!

Mother Xie explained awkwardly, "I'm sorry, I took the wrong gift."

Xie Xinyao clenched her fists. She was so humiliated that she wished she could retaliate.

"Sister-in-law, did you really take the wrong gift?"

Xie Tingyun was not stupid at all to be able to enter the research institute and the laboratory back then. It was just that she had always tolerated the Xie family.

Mother Xie was her sister-in-law.

As long as Mother Xie did not go overboard, she would usually tolerate her.

But this time, Xie Tingyun was extremely disappointed in her.

Her emotions faded a lot as she looked at Mother Xie, and she said indifferently, "I'll get Tianyi to send you back."

"Tingyun!" Mother Xie was shocked and hurriedly tried to defend her actions.

Xie Tingyun clearly did not want to talk to her anymore. She said concisely, "Let me make things clear today. My arrangements and plans are my business. The Xie family has no right to interfere. Even if the Old Madam comes, she can't interfere, let alone you and my brother!"

Mother Xie's expression changed, and her face twitched violently.

Xie Tingyun had never spoken so harshly.

She did not give her any face this time.

"Also, I gave Xinyao a chance. She didn't pass. This is what she's made for in the research institute. Even if I teach her, she can only reach this level. You don't have to think about those things. She won't be able to learn anything from me."

If Xie Xinyao had been unfazed by everything that had been said previously, she could not accept it at all now that Xie Tingyun said that.

She couldn't help but ask, "What about her?"

Chapter 2142 - 2142 Sister Nian: We're Not Close. Take Your Things

Xie Xinyao pointed at Qiao Nian and said indignantly, "Aunt, you said that I'm not worthy. Then is she worthy of your teaching?"

Xie Tingyun was not trying to discourage her. She had also tried her best to express her intentions tactfully. She did not expect Xie Xinyao to have such a big reaction.

She was silent for a moment as she looked into the angry Xie Xinyao's eyes and said indifferently, "Did you enter the Level 8 laboratory in three months?"

Silence. magic

"If I remember correctly, it took you eight years to enter the Level 8 laboratory. The difference between you and her is as great as between three months and eight years."

Xie Tingyun was very direct. "What is a genius? A genius is a minority favored by the heavens. I'm not looking down on you. I'm just telling you this fact. Some people are born with talents that ordinary people like us don't have.

"You, on the other hand, have no talent."

You have no talent!

Xie Xinyao felt as if she had been slapped in the face. Her face turned red, and she could barely control her anger and unhappiness.

She said to Mother Xie with a straight face, "Mom, let's go."

"Xinyao, don't be rash." Mother Xie was obviously still hesitating.

Xie Tingyun's connections were extraordinary even for the Xie family. How could Mother Xie be willing to give these to an outsider? Even now, she still thought that since Xie Tingyun did not have a child, everything that belonged to her should go to her daughter.

"Are you leaving or not?" Xie Xinyao had been competitive since she was young and had grown up being flattered by others. She could not take this lying down. She stomped her feet and waved her hand. "If you're not leaving, I'll leave!"

She couldn't even be bothered to say goodbye to Xie Tingyun and Nan Tianyi as she left.

"Xinyao." Madam Xie panicked. About to chase after her, she did not forget to smooth things over. "Tingyun, we'll visit you another day."

Before Xie Tingyun could speak, Qiao Nian blocked her way and stuffed the box she took back from Nan Tianyi into her hand. Her eyes were sharp as she curled her lips and said impatiently, "This gift is too much for me. I can't accept it. Take it back."

Mother Xie was furious. She did not want to fall out with Qiao Nian because of Xie Tingyun. She should have said a few more hypocritical words, but Xie Xinyao left quickly and was about to disappear from her view. Not caring about anything else, she could only take back the box and say awkwardly, "Auntie will give you something else another day."

Qiao Nian put her hands in her pockets after returning the gift. Unable to hide her sloppy bandit aura, she raised her eyebrows and said frivolously, "There's no need."

Mother Xie met her dark eyes as the girl said casually, "We're not that close. I don't take things from strangers."

It was obvious who the stranger was!

Qiao Nian almost engraved the word 'stranger' on her face.

Mother Xie's face heated up. After all, she was from one of the three big families of the independent continent. She valued reputation and dignity.

She tried to hold it in, but she could not. She grabbed her things and walked away quickly.

Xie Tingyun watched them leave and apologized to Qiao Nian tiredly. "Nian Nian, I'm sorry. I didn't expect them to do this. If I had known, I wouldn't have invited them."

Wasn't this causing trouble for others?

However, Xie Tingyun had indeed not expected Mother Xie to do such an unseemly thing. She had called the Xie family over because she wanted to introduce Qiao Nian to Mother Xie and the others so that they could pave the way for her in the future.

"It's fine." Qiao Nian did not take it to heart. After comforting Xie Tingyun, she lowered her eyes and said to Nan Tianyi, "Let's go in."

Chapter 2143 - 2143 Elder Zhong, Do You Know This Person?

There were more than 30 tables in the banquet hall, and every one of them was filled.

It could be seen how much Nan Tianyi and Xie Tingyun valued this time.

At the main table.

Zhong Yiliu and Ji Lingfeng sat at the same table.

The Ji family had nothing to do with the Pharmacy Association, but everyone was considered from the independent continent and knew each other.

Therefore, Ji Lingfeng still greeted the other party politely, "Elder Zhong, long time no see. Aren't you living in Country M all year round? Previously, many people invited you to their banquets, but you didn't have time to come back. Why are you free to make a special trip this time?"

The Ji family had received Xie Tingyun's invitation.

However, Xie Tingyun hadn't even said anything about her family. The news the Ji family had received was similar to the information Mother Xie and the others had found.

The other party's surname was Qiao.

Ji Lingfeng's gaze drifted away and landed on Feng Yu at the next table.

Feng Yu was talking to Zhou Zhou. From time to time, someone would go over with a wine glass to greet Feng Yu...

Ji Lingfeng retracted his gaze. His deep and refined face was expressionless, but his eyes narrowed thoughtfully.

Zhong Yiliu wasn't familiar with him, but since he encountered him on such a social occasion, he still maintained his basic manners. He touched his teacup and smiled. "Emperor Ji, you're too polite. It's difficult for you to remember an old man like me. There's nothing special about my attendance this time. Coincidentally, I had something to do in the independent continent, so I came over to join the fun. A friend invited me over for a meal. I didn't expect so many people to come today. She told me that it was a casual meal."

Ji Lingfeng narrowed his eyes again and he didn't say anything.

At the mention of Qiao Nian, Zhong Yiliu liked her visibly. His smile deepened as he said, "I knew that today was her filiation banquet. In the end, I came in a hurry and didn't bring a gift. I can only compensate her next time."

Ji Lingfeng already guessed in his heart. He looked at him and asked, "Elder Zhong, the person you're talking about is... Qiao Nian?"

Zhong Yiliu lived in Country M and didn't know much about the outside world.

He rarely came to the independent continent, so he naturally didn't know what had happened recently, including the conflict between Qiao Nian and the Ji family.

At the mention of Qiao Nian's name, his eyes revealed an obvious surprise. "Do you know her too?"

Ji Lingfeng lowered his eyes slightly to hide his emotions and chuckled before admitting readily, "Yes."

Zhong Yiliu wasn't stupid. Seeing that there seemed to be a hidden meaning in his words, he cleverly stopped and only said politely, "That's too much of a coincidence."

A few people from the major factions of the independent continent were also at this table.

At first, no one dared to speak casually.

Seeing that Ji Lingfeng and Zhong Yiliu were chatting, those people relaxed a little and leaned forward to talk.

However, they didn't dare to speak to Ji Lingfeng directly. Instead, they changed the topic to Zhong Yiliu. It looked like they were chatting with Zhong Yiliu, but they actually wanted to take the opportunity to get close to Ji Lingfeng.

"Elder Zhong, do you know this person?" magic

Someone said, "I heard that the Xie family is equivalent to announcing the heir this time. Tsk~ Who would have thought that the heir of the Xie family wasn't Xie Xinyao?"

"That's right. I don't know what kind of person they are. To be valued so much by Xie Tingyun and Nan Tianyi, and they even held a banquet to introduce them to everyone."

In the end, the man who spoke showed off. "Since the Xie family found an outsider, there must be something unusual about them. We'll know when we see this person later."

Chapter 2144 - 2144 Master Wang, Which Table Should We Sit At?

Zhong Yiliu ignored them. He drank the tea leisurely and looked calm.

It was as if what these people said had nothing to do with him.

Ji Lingfeng didn't care about what they said. Instead, he tilted his head and asked Zhong Yiliu casually, "Elder Zhong, you know Qiao Nian. What kind of person do you think she is?"

Ji Lingfeng wasn't a simple person in the independent continent. Even the Pharmacy Association couldn't offend him.

Zhong Yiliu thought for a moment. "Are you talking about Qiao Nian?"

Ji Lingfeng nodded gently. He didn't rush him. magic

The other people at the table looked at Zhong Yiliu. All of them were filled with curiosity. They really wanted to know some news about the heir of the Xie family.

Zhong Yiliu's expression was serious as he looked at Ji Lingfeng and the other curious people seriously. He only replied calmly, "Oh, she's a genius."

Everyone at the table was in an uproar.

"Genius?" Someone couldn't help but ask in confusion, "Elder Zhong, what do you mean by that?"

"That's right, Elder Zhong. What's a genius? Genius isn't a word to describe a person."

They thought that Zhong Yiliu would say that the other party was a sensible and kind person. No one expected Zhong Yiliu's evaluation of Qiao Nian to be only one word—genius!

Zhong Yiliu was unwilling to continue. He shut his mouth and waited for the banquet to begin.

On the other side, outside the banquet hall.

Xie Tingyun held Qiao Nian's hand and whispered something to her.

"Nian Nian, you should have experienced this long ago. Unfortunately..." She seemed to want to mention Ji Qing, but she only smiled and gently stroked the girl's hair. "Today is a happy day. I shouldn't have mentioned this."

"Follow me later. I'll introduce you to some elders."

“Yes.” Qiao Nian didn’t seem to mind her half-sentence. She was very good-tempered.

The heartache in Xie Tingyun’s eyes intensified. Then, she continued, “I know you don’t like these occasions. I’ve discussed it with your Uncle Nan. We didn’t want to make such a scene in the beginning, but this is the fastest way to introduce you to the people in the independent continent. In the end, we chose to eat this method. Nian Nian, do you mind?”

Qiao Nian entered the banquet hall with Xie Tingyun, Nan Tianyi, and the others.

The gazes of the people from 30 tables fell on her.

She pressed down on her baseball cap, restrained her bandit aura, and replied to Xie Tingyun gently, “Aunt Xie, I don’t mind.”

Xie Tingyun’s heart was filled with soft motherly love at seeing how sensible she was.

Since they had already entered, Xie Tingyun didn’t say anything else. She wanted to bring Qiao Nian to get to know her connections in the independent continent.

Qiao Nian looked at Ye Wangchuan, Qin Si, and the others, pursed her lips, and said helplessly, “I’ll go with Aunt Xie first. What about you?”

Ye Wangchuan had one hand in his pocket, his bearing especially outstanding. He smiled at her. “Uncle Nan has arranged a seat for us. Don’t worry about us.”

Qiao Nian let out a “hmm” and added before she left, “I’ll look for you when I’m done.”

“Mm.”

Ye Wangchuan nodded.

Only then did the girl restrain her unruliness and follow Xie Tingyun.

...

Qiao Nian walked away.

Qin Si and Gu San were at a loss for what to do now.

Qin Si had seen many such occasions in Beijing, so it was fine to him. He looked up at the noble and lazy man and asked softly, "Master Wang, what table should we sit at?"

Chapter 2145 - 2145 Master Wang's Identity Can't Be Covered Anymore

"Over there." Ye Wangchuan pointed at Feng Yu's table.

Nan Tianyi also arranged the main table for them. He even thoughtfully arranged for them to sit at the same table as Feng Yu.

He only found out about Nan Tianyi's arrangements at the door.

However, as the hosts today, Nan Tianyi and Xie Tingyun were extremely busy. He couldn't trouble the two of them to change their table. Ye Wangchuan looked at the main table not far away and pursed his lips. A headache seemed to flash in his deep eyes as he brought Qin Si and Gu San over.

The table Feng Yu was at was indeed the main table. The people Nan Tianyi had arranged to sit at this table were all big shots of the independent continent.

Xue Zhu, Xu Yi, Shen Qingfeng, Old Madam Shen, and the others did not dare to speak nonsense, especially the three people from Team 10. They basically placed their hands on their knees obediently, sitting like primary school students. Their backs were straight, and they only listened attentively and didn't speak anything unless asked.

It wasn't until Ye Wangchuan walked over that the peace at the table was broken. "I'm sorry, is it convenient for me to join you?"

His appearance was outstanding, and his voice was elegant and pleasant, attracting the attention of everyone at the table.

Old Madam Shen heaved a sigh of relief upon seeing them. She even greeted Ye Wangchuan, “Xiao Ye, you’re sitting here too? That’s great. Sit, sit. Where are you sitting? Why don’t you sit at my side?”

She got a simple understanding of Ye Wangchuan, Qin Si, and the others when she met them at the door. The Shen Family did not have connections with the big bosses in the independent continent.

Old Madam Shen was not familiar with any of the people at the table. Therefore, upon Ye Wangchuan and the others sitting at her table, she smiled and greeted them warmly, as if she had bumped into someone familiar.

Ye Wangchuan didn’t stand on ceremony. He pulled out his seat appropriately and sat beside Old Madam Shen.

Old Madam Shen guessed that he and Qiao Nian weren’t just friends. She even joked with a smile, “Xiao Ye, are you and Miss Qiao friends from Country Z?”

Although the Shen Family wasn’t ranked in the independent continent, Old Madam Shen still knew the people in the independent continent better.

She knew that there was no one like Ye Wangchuan on the independent continent. Otherwise, she would definitely remember that Ye Wangchuan, Qin Si, and the others might have come from Beijing with Qiao Nian.

“I guess so.” Ye Wangchuan had a good temper. His tone was gentle and he was very cultured.

Old Madam Shen heaved a sigh of relief. She finally found someone who was at the same level as her family. “The independent continent is actually similar to Beijing. You don’t have to be too restrained. We all know each other...”

She was familiarizing Ye Wangchuan with the situation in the independent continent.

The few people who had been pestering Feng Yu to chat finally left. He turned around and saw three more people at the table.

He didn't know Qin Si and Gu San.

However, the young man's ostentatious handsome face was especially familiar to him. "Xiao Ye?"

Feng Yu was slightly shocked and didn't notice what Old Madam Shen was talking to Ye Wangchuan about. He immediately asked, "You're also in the independent continent? Have you seen your teacher? Your teacher talks about you every day and says that you haven't contacted him in a long time. You only sent him a letter the last time... No, don't tell me you were already in the independent continent the last time you sent a letter?"

"...I came over for something." Ye Wangchuan pinched the bridge of his nose, feeling a headache coming on. magic

Old Madam Shen fell silent when Feng Yu called Ye Wangchuan 'Xiao Ye'. She was simply dumbfounded. She had never thought that Ye Wangchuan and Feng Yu knew each other.

Chapter 2146 - 2146 Master Wang, Your Identity Has Been Exposed

Not everyone knew Feng Yu.

To a certain extent, he and Zhong Yiliu were academic lunatics. They usually interacted with like-minded people.

For example, some important students and the heads of laboratories in the First Research Institute.

Zhou Zhou was also surprised. She looked at them, especially Ye Wangchuan, and said, "Dean, do you know Mr. Ye?"

She had heard from Qiao Nian that he was her boyfriend.

At first, she thought that Ye Wangchuan was just a descendant of a big family in Beijing. This time, he had come to the independent continent with Qiao Nian.

In the end, their dean actually knew him. It seemed like she had guessed wrongly again.

However, Zhou Zhou soon calmed down.

How could the big boss's boyfriend be a bumpkin from Beijing?

In her understanding, it was normal that Ye Wangchuan wasn't an ordinary person.

At the same time, Qin Si asked Ye Wangchuan softly, "Master Wang, what's going on? You still know this... Huh?"

He still didn't know Feng Yu's identity. He only saw that Feng Yu was quite old and called him politely, "Senior."

"Yes," Feng Yu replied to Zhou Zhou first. He glanced at Ye Wangchuan and exposed his tricks without giving him any face. "Do you remember that Shi Fu once had a disciple he loved very much? It was him. He left after staying in the research institute for two years, causing Shi Fu to still be unable to forget him. He often sighs, saying that there are no good seedlings in the research institute. He doesn't have the mood to teach students anymore."

Ye Wangchuan's talent wasn't inferior to Qiao Nian's. Furthermore, his research direction was more compatible with Shi Fu's semiconductor research. At one point, Shi Fu thought that he had found a successor and wished he could teach him everything.

In the eyes of the people of the independent continent, this was an opportunity that they couldn't get even if they begged.

In the end, he didn't like to learn. He ran away after staying in the research institute for two years.

Shi Fu couldn't contact him and was very passive.

After all, the more top-notch a teacher was, the more they would have the chance to mentor a top-notch seedling. When they looked back at those students with average talent, they would more or less be a little dispirited.

Shi Fu had previously mentioned to him that Master Cheng and Ye Wangchuan had written a recommendation letter for Qiao Nian.

He thought that Ye Wangchuan was in Country Z. Unexpectedly, he was in the independent continent and had just not appeared!

"He's the first person not from the independent continent to enter the First Research Institute. He has broken many records in the research institute. He ran a semiconductor experiment that became a starting teaching material for the following laboratories." Feng Yu only glanced at Ye Wangchuan from the corner of his eye after he finished speaking.

It was as if he wanted to explain.

Qin Si and Gu San had long looked at each other in surprise.

Master Wang stayed at the First Research Institute for two years?

He was the first person to break the rules of the research institute?

Damn, they all thought that Sister Qiao was the first to do it, but in the end, it was Master Wang...

Qin Si said faintly, "By the way, Master Wang, does Sister Qiao know about you? Your identity is hidden too deeply."

He thought that since he and Gu San didn't know, Qiao Nian must have been kept in the dark as well.

Unexpectedly, the noble and lazy man pondered seriously for a moment before looking up at him. "She probably guessed it."

Qiao Nian had never asked him directly.

However, his guess was probably close to the mark.

Qin Si was completely speechless. He touched his earlobe and stopped talking.

Fine, he didn't dare to ask any more questions!

Chapter 2147 - 2147 Old Madam Xie Suddenly Went to the Hospital

On the other side.

Qiao Nian got to know Xie Tingyun's various connections.

In addition to some people from the research institute, she also knew the Chamber of Commerce Alliance, the Arbitration Alliance, and the Hacker Alliance.

Qiao Nian didn't interact much with the people from the Chamber of Commerce Alliance and the Arbitration Alliance. However, she had interacted with the Hacker Alliance not long ago because of Xu Yi's mother.

When Xie Tingyun introduced the two sides, the people from the Hacker Alliance looked at Qiao Nian in confusion and wanted to talk to her.

However, the venue wasn't suitable.

The other party was also smart, so he didn't show a particularly familiar relationship with Qiao Nian in public.

The purpose of Xie Tingyun's banquet was mainly to introduce her connections to Qiao Nian and indirectly announce her successor.

Therefore, eating wasn't the main point.

Throughout the meal, she basically introduced Qiao Nian to all the relevant forces in the independent continent.

The filiation banquet was meant to be a meal.

At 12:30 PM, the guests had basically finished eating, and some people left one after another.

Xie Tingyun also looked tired. "Nian Nian, next is someone from the Ji family, Ji Lingfeng. You... you can get to know each other."

She introduced all the connections she knew to Qiao Nian and specially placed the Ji family last.

Qiao Nian held a glass of champagne the entire time she accompanied her.

At this moment, a trace of coldness flashed across her dark eyes. She stopped in her tracks, which was rare, and rejected Xie Tingyun's good intentions. "Aunt Xie, there's no need."

Xie Tingyun looked at her and hesitated.

Qiao Nian knew what she was thinking and said indifferently, "...I don't have anything I need to know about them. I've already said what I needed to say."

Xie Tingyun looked at her deeply and saw that Qiao Nian was quite serious. Then, she looked at Ji Lingfeng's table and sighed. "I won't try to persuade you since you've decided."

"Then, Elder Zhong of the Pharmacy Association, we..." magic

She wanted to say that Zhong Yiliu was also at that table. At the very least, Qiao Nian could greet Zhong Yiliu with her.

Before she could finish, Nan Tianyi suddenly walked quickly in their direction with an ugly expression.

A hint of hesitation flashed on Nan Tianyi's face when he looked at Qiao Nian. However, it was an urgent matter, so he couldn't delay. He said to Xie Tingyun, "Oh no, Mom fainted."

"What?!" Xie Tingyun looked stunned. Clearly, she hadn't expected this.

Nan Tianyi could only keep it short. He lowered his voice and said, "Xie Yun just called to say that Mom fainted and has been sent to the hospital."

Xie Tingyun's eyelids twitched. She placed the champagne glass on the table at the side and said impatiently, "It's almost over here. How about this? You go to the hospital first. I'll go when it's over here."

Nan Tianyi had the same thought. He nodded apologetically at the girl and then said gently, "Nian Nian, I'm sorry. Your aunt's mother has always been healthy. Now that she's suddenly hospitalized, we have to go to the hospital to take a look."

Qiao Nian also put down her champagne glass. Her clear eyes were clear as she asked him calmly, "Do you need help?"

Nan Tianyi was about to decline when he recalled Qiao Nian's medical skills. He felt a little guilty asking Qiao Nian to look at Old Madam Xie.

Nan Tianyi nodded. "Thank you, Nian Nian."

Qiao Nian put one hand in her pocket and said coolly, "It's no trouble. I'll tell my friends."

Chapter 2148 - 2148 Or Do You Have Something You Need Aunt to Come Over For?

The banquet was about to end and many people had already left.

Nan Tianyi made some arrangements.

Qiao Nian went over to tell Ye Wangchuan and the others.

The group rushed to the hospital.

In the hospital ward.

An old lady was lying weakly on the bed. Xie Xinyao was covering her with a blanket.

Old Madam Xie was about the same age as Old Madam Shen. Her hair was already white at the temples, but she took better care of herself than Old Madam Shen. Obviously, she lived a pampered life.

Xie Xinyao covered the old lady with a blanket. The old lady even patted the back of her hand, as if to comfort her.

After a while.

Xie Yun and Ji Nan arrived first.

Xie Yun barged into the ward and saw the old woman on the bed. She shouted anxiously, "Mom."

Ji Nan came in a step later. He was stunned for a moment when he saw Old Madam Xie's pale but energetic face. He called out to her calmly, "Grandma."

The two of them entered one after another.

Xie Yun did not notice that although Old Madam Xie looked weak, she could not hide her bright eyes. She first went to check on her. Then, she asked Mother Xie and Father Xie, "What did the doctor say? What's wrong with my mother? Her body has always been strong. Why did she faint? Did you check on Mom?"

She asked a few questions in a row quickly and anxiously, clearly angry. She obviously blamed Mother Xie and Father Xie for not taking good care of the old lady.

Mother Xie had yet to explain when the old lady on the bed suddenly called out, "Xiao Yun."

She forced herself to sit up, but she could not exert any strength in her arms and started coughing.

Xie Yun was so frightened that she couldn't settle the score with Mother Xie and Father Xie. She could only walk over quickly to support the old lady, angry and heartbroken. "Why aren't you resting? Why are you sitting up? Lie down quickly."

The old lady insisted. "I know my body. The doctor just came over and said that I was thinking too much and didn't rest well, so I accidentally fainted. It has nothing to do with Hui Lan and the rest."

Hui Lan was Mother Xie's maiden name.

Since the old lady had already said so, no matter how angry Xie Yun was, she could not flare up.

She propped up the pillow and helped the old lady sit up. Only then did she pull a long face and stop talking.magic

A little embarrassed, the old lady looked out and hesitated for a second before saying weakly, "T-Tingyun and the others haven't arrived yet?"

Ji Nan had been serving tea to the old lady at the side. Hearing this, a trace of mockery flashed across his handsome and outstanding face. He seemed to understand why the old lady had suddenly "fainted" at home.

Ever since he found out that Qiao Nian was his biological cousin, he decided not to see her for a while. He had not sorted out his emotions yet.

At this moment, Ji Nan couldn't help but interrupt when brought water to the old lady. "Grandma, you're already sick. Don't worry too much."

The old lady frowned slightly and opened her mouth to say something, but Ji Nan stuffed the cup into her hand and interrupted her elegantly. "Aunt is an adult. She knows that you're hospitalized and will definitely rush over as soon as she's done with things at her side. Don't worry about Aunt. The most important thing is to take good care of your body."

He narrowed his eyes and added in front of everyone in the Xie family, "Or do you have something that you need Aunt to come over for?"

Chapter 2149 - 2149 Our God Qiao Didn't Even Want Mine. It's Indeed Not For Outsiders to Cut the Line

The Ji family had received Xie Tingyun's invitation, so Xie Yun naturally knew that Xie Tingyun wanted to acknowledge Qiao Nian as her goddaughter. She was not a brainless person to be able to sit firmly in the position of Madam Ji.

Xie Yun immediately realized what her son meant.

Her face immediately darkened after a momentary shock. She looked at Mother Xie, Father Xie, Xie Xinyao, and the others with sharp eyes. She was furious. "Who taught you to do this?!" magic Mother Xie, Father Xie, and Xie Xinyao did not expect Ji Nan to expose their little scheme. They stood awkwardly and did not think of a way to explain.

Xie Yun was so angry that she saw stars. She held her forehead and almost fainted from anger.

She took out her phone and was about to walk out. "I'll call Tingyun and tell them not to come."

"Stop right there!" The old lady saw that the farce was about to end before it even started. She sat up anxiously. This time, she moved too fast and it involved her chest area. It really hurt her lungs. The old lady couldn't take the stimulation and coughed violently. "Come back. Are you trying to anger me to death?"

"Mom." Xie Yun saw that she did not seem to be pretending. After all, she was her biological mother. No matter how angry she was, she could not force her to death.

Anxious, she asked Ji Nan to quickly find a doctor.

She put down her phone and quickly walked back to the bed to calm the old lady down.

Father Xie and Mother Xie heaved a sigh of relief and quickly gathered around to compete for performance.

Ji Nan felt a headache coming on upon seeing the chaotic scene in the ward. Helpless, he went out to call the doctor and found an opportunity to send a message to Qiao Nian.

Qiao Nian's car had just arrived outside the hospital.

Ye Wangchuan stopped the car steadily. Seeing that the girl was about to unbuckle her seatbelt, he said worriedly, "Do you want me to accompany you?"

Qiao Nian's hand unbuckling the seatbelt paused and she raised her eyebrows.

Qin Si said bluntly from behind, "That's right, Sister Qiao. I think it's too much of a coincidence that the old lady of the Xie family 'fainted'. Why don't you let Master Wang accompany you?"

Qiao Nian finished unbuckling her seatbelt. Then, she opened the door and turned around. Her oval face under the brim of her cap was exquisite and eye-catching. Arrogant and wild, her voice was low and hoarse. "There's no need. They only have one goal. I know what I'm doing. I'm here just in case. I can help if the old lady is really sick. That's all."

"You..." Ye Wangchuan knew her better. His thin lips curled up slightly as he was about to speak.

Qiao Nian's beautiful eyes looked in his direction. Their eyes met, and both of them knew what the other was thinking.

Qiao Nian admitted frankly, "If things are really as I think, at most, I'll make things clear. I never wanted their wealth, anyway."

Ye Wangchuan smiled.

He placed his hand on the steering wheel and said lazily, "Our God Qiao doesn't even want my things. It's indeed not their turn to cut the line."

He was talking about the Xie family. They thought that Qiao Nian was coveting Xie Tingyun's connections and family assets, so they did not want to let Xie Tingyun acknowledge her.

In fact, he knew that Qiao Nian did not care about those things.

If she wanted them, there was no need for outsiders to give them to her. Many people, including the Ye family, Yuan Yongqin, Nie Mi, and Master Cheng, wanted Qiao Nian to inherit their mantle.

Xie Tingyun was able to persuade Qiao Nian this time because of Ji Qing's old photo.

Otherwise, there was a high chance that Qiao Nian would not agree to this entire affair.

However, some people from the Xie family did not appreciate it and insisted on destroying this luck.

Chapter 2150 Sister Nian Saw Ji Nan's Message

Ye Wangchuan smiled and watched the girl follow Xie Tingyun and Nan Tianyi into the hospital.

He was in a good mood. His deep eyes were half-closed, and his lips curled up. He said to the two people in the car, "Why do you think some people are always so short-sighted and only see the immediate benefits? They always pick up sesame seeds and throw away watermelons."

Qin Si was not stupid. He had already noticed something from Qiao Nian's few words just now. He sneered. He looked down on the Xie family, so he did not hide his arrogance. "What else? They're blind!"

Why would Sister Qiao covet the Xie family's connections and assets? Since she could enter the Level 8 laboratory and her journey had been smooth sailing, wouldn't she surely have some backing?

Those people were really bloody sick in the head!

There was no cure for them!

"Tianyi, do you think my mother will be fine?" Xie Tingyun had a lot on her mind along the way. She was worried about the old lady's health.

Xie Yun did not have the chance to call her. She still did not know what Old Madam Xie was up to. She thought that Old Madam Xie had really fainted because of her poor health.

Nan Tianyi comforted her. "Don't worry, Mom will definitely be fine."

"Is that so?" The worry on Xie Tingyun's face clearly did not decrease much. She was obviously still anxious.

Nan Tianyi did not know how to comfort her. From the corner of his eye, he looked at the girl who was walking with them and hurriedly said to her, "Definitely. Look, Nian Nian is also here."

Xie Tingyun's expression relaxed a little when she looked at Qiao Nian.

Nan Tianyi keenly caught the change in her expression. He smiled again and supported her, then said gently, "With Nian Nian around, Mom will definitely be fine."

"Mm."

This time, Xie Tingyun nodded.

...

The old lady's ward was on the eighth floor.

The three of them entered the elevator.

Along the way, it was mainly Xie Tingyun talking and Nan Tianyi listening.

Qiao Nian pulled up the hood of her jacket and stood in the corner tactfully, playing with her phone.

Just then, Ji Nan's message came in.

She clicked on it.

—[Ji Nan: Be careful. These people are all waiting for you to come.]

Tsk!

What a grand lineup!

Why didn't she know that she had such a big show on the independent continent and needed a group of people to wait for her to go over?

Qiao Nian leaned against the side and narrowed her eyes. She stared at the message for a few seconds before chuckling and putting her phone back into her pocket.

Coincidentally, the elevator reached the right floor at this moment.

Qiao Nian slowly followed Xie Tingyun and Nan Tianyi out.

In the ward.

The doctor had already arrived.

The doctor did a checkup on the old lady. After confirming that the old lady was only coughing violently because she was anxious and her movements were too exaggerated, he prepared to leave.

Ji Nan had already returned.

He was in charge of sending the doctor out.

Before Ji Nan left, he lowered his voice and softly asked the old lady's attending doctor, "Doctor, my grandmother's health..."

The doctor stopped in his tracks and was a little hesitant. However, due to Old Madam Xie's previous instructions, he could only repeat what Old Madam Xie had said. "Young Master Ji, don't worry. Old Madam has been thinking too much. Coupled with the fact that she hasn't been sleeping well recently and her appetite is average, her nutrition can't keep up, so she fainted from palpitations. Your family should communicate with Old Madam more and see what she's worried about to relieve the knot in her heart. Old Madam's health will naturally recover."

"Oh, I see." Ji Nan revealed a faint smile.
