

Madam's 2191

Chapter 2191 - 2191 Bright Gate Supports Her, Xie Xinyao's Face Is Swollen

She meant that Ye Wangchuan was just someone from Beijing like Qiao Nian.

No matter how high his status was in Beijing, he was nothing in the independent continent.

A mocking look flashed across Ye Wangchuan's eyes. He looked her in the eye and said in a low and hoarse voice, "Do you think it's enough if I use Bright Gate?"

Bright Gate.

Xie Xinyao instantly shut up.magic

Old Madam Xie, Father Xie, Mother Xie, and the relatives of the Xie family were also in an uproar when Ye Wangchuan mentioned Bright Gate.

All of them sized him up.

Bright Gate...

One of the new noble forces in the independent continent in recent years, it had developed rapidly. It already vaguely had the intention of stepping on the three big families.

The boss of Bright Gate was actually here.

It was Qiao Nian again.

One was the Pharmacy Association, and the other was the Bright Gate...

How many big shots did Qiao Nian know?!

Old Madam Xie and the others had long heard of the news and were not too shocked.

The relatives of the Xie family were more dumbfounded. It could be said that each of them was more shocked than the other.

“But before you worry about these things, you’d better also worry about who changed Auntie’s medicine. It should be easy to investigate when she wakes up.”

Ye Wangchuan came in a hurry. He was wearing a thin sweater and his eyes were lowered. He looked like he was not to be trifled with like Qiao Nian. It was just that he did not show off like Qiao Nian and seemed to restrain himself.

“Miss Xie, are you mentally prepared?”

Xie Xinyao subconsciously met his gaze and immediately looked away in panic. She avoided his gaze. “I don’t have anything to be mentally prepared for. I also want to find out who poisoned Auntie as soon as possible.”

Ye Wangchuan smiled and put his hands in his pockets. Tall and with an outstanding aura, he lowered his eyes and smiled. “Is that so? That’s good.”

Xie Xinyao’s hands trembled, and her mind blanked. Her mind was tense, and she was already a little worried.

However, she could still barely comfort herself.

No, no. As long as Qiao Nian could not save her from the gates of hell, there would be no evidence of the poison in the medicine!

When the time came, she could easily escape unscathed...

* *

The surgery was very, very long.

Xie Tingyun's surgery was already going on for more than ten hours when the sky slightly brightened. Many of the Xie family's relatives could no longer wait.

At this moment, the door of the operating theater opened and a doctor walked out.

Father and Mother Xie immediately rushed over and asked, "Doctor, how was the operation?"

The doctor took off his mask and looked at them. He forced a smile and said, "The surgery went smoothly. The patient's condition is very good. The patient will temporarily be sent to the ICU for observation for a few days after coming out. She can be transferred to a normal ward after the critical period passes."

Father Xie looked relieved, but Mother Xie's expression was complicated. It was clear she was not so happy for Xie Tingyun.

Nan Tianyi had stayed up all night. At this moment, his eyes were still red, and his leg muscles were a little numb, so he did not go over immediately.

However, he immediately relaxed when he heard what the doctor said. His body tilted and he almost embarrassed himself in public.

"Be careful." Fortunately, Ye Wangchuan quickly helped him up.

Chapter 2192 - 2192 Xie Xinyao's Lie Is About to Be Exposed

Nan Tianyi patted his arm gently and the stiff muscles on his face loosened after he stabilized himself. He smiled like he had survived a calamity, but his eyes were already wet. He was so excited that he was incoherent. "I'm fine. It's good that she's fine. It's good that she's fine. That's great!"

The old butler had also stayed up all night. He was old and his body could not hold on like young people. His eyes were also red. He shouted happily, "God bless us. Fortunately, Madam is fine. It's good that she's fine."

Ji Nan and Xie Yun smiled.

Everyone smiled in relief.

The relatives of the Xie family also hoped that Xie Tingyun could survive this time, so after waiting for the entire night, they whispered to each other and reported the good news.

Amidst the joy, only one person's behavior was extremely abnormal.

Xie Xinyao also waited here for the entire night. When the doctor said that Xie Tingyun's surgery was successful and she would wake up soon, her face turned ashen and she could not smile.

She was already stunned.

"She's fine? How can she be fine..." She had not wanted to harm Xie Tingyun's life when she changed her medicine previously, but she was mentally prepared for the seriousness of the doctor's words.

Unexpectedly, the tables had turned.

Xie Tingyun was fine.

Now, she was the one who was about to face danger.

Xie Xinyao could not accept reality. She froze with her head lowered, unable to control her emotions.

Ji Nan noticed her and said something to Xie Yun before walking towards her.

“Xie Xinyao, the doctor said that Aunt’s surgery was successful. Why don’t you look happy? Could it be that you don’t want Aunt to be safe?”

Everyone in the corridor was still immersed in the joy of Xie Tingyun’s successful surgery. Ji Nan’s question attracted their attention.

Mother Xie’s reaction was huge. She immediately stood in front of her daughter and glared at Ji Nan. “What do you mean? Why would Xinyao be unhappy? Did she say she was unhappy?”magic

This time, Ji Nan did not give her face. Turning cynical, with his hands in his pockets, his gaze was firmly locked on Xie Xinyao. “Everyone was celebrating, but she stood alone in the corner not saying anything. I thought she did not want to see Aunt wake up safely.”

Ji Nan made it clear this time.

“Aunt is safe and sound now. We can investigate this matter now. I was almost led astray previously. I suddenly realized that other people could have poisoned her besides the doctor. It seems that others had a chance to poison her too, right?”

“After all, this isn’t the first time Aunt has taken that medicine. Nian Nian sends medicine every month. It’s the end of the month now.”

Ji Nan looked at Xie Xinyao with a burning gaze. “In other words, Aunt has been taking it for a month. If there was a problem with this medicine, there was a problem from the beginning. It can’t have dragged on until now. Then the question is, is there a problem with the medicine, or is someone using this as an excuse to achieve some goal?”

“For example, framing Qiao Nian.”

Xie Xinyao had always refused to admit that Xie Tingyun’s heir was Qiao Nian. She had always thought that Xie Tingyun would leave everything to her in the future.

Ji Nan guessed that someone told her that Qiao Nian was Xie Tingyun's doctor. Xie Tingyun was 'bewitched' by Qiao Nian because of their relationship and left all her connections and assets to her.

Chapter 2193 - 2193 Old Butler: I Remember Miss Xie Came to the Manor Yesterday Afternoon

Xie Xinyao would definitely think that if Xie Tingyun had an accident when treating her illness, this accident would be linked to Qiao Nian.

Then, with Nan Tianyi's loving and doting personality, would he let Qiao Nian off?

Would Nan Tianyi and Xie Tingyun still hand everything to Qiao Nian?

It made sense that Xie Xinyao would do something stupid on impulse!

All the relatives of the Xie family were looking here.

At this moment, the old butler seemed to remember something. He looked in Xie Xinyao's direction and said thoughtfully, "I remember that Miss Xie came to the manor yesterday afternoon. Not long after, she left in a hurry, not even taking a sip of water.

"At the time, I wondered why she left so early. Something happened to Madam not long after."

"What do you mean? Do you mean that Xinyao poisoned the medicine?!" Mother Xie reacted intensely. Her well-maintained face was flushed red, and her eyes were blazing. She stared at the old butler fiercely and ruthlessly, clearly warning him.

"You have to show evidence!"

Mother Xie took a deep breath and patted Xie Xinyao's back silently after she finished speaking, as if telling her not to be afraid.

Then, without giving the old butler any chance to retort, she said confidently, "Tingyun's health hasn't been good recently. I asked Xinyao to visit her more often. Yesterday afternoon, I was the one who called Xinyao and asked her to come back. This can also be used as a reason for you to say that she poisoned her. It's too ridiculous!"

The more Mother Xie spoke, the more agitated she became. Her expression was especially angry. "Xinyao and Tingyun are family. The person Xinyao respected the most when she was young was her Auntie. What reason does she have to poison Tingyun?"

The relatives of the Xie family originally felt that the saying that Xie Xinyao had poisoned her was a little ridiculous. Seeing Mother Xie's huge reaction, they also felt that Ji Nan and the old butler had gone overboard.

Old Madam Xie had been silent the entire time. At this moment, she called out to Mother Xie, who could not take this lying down, "Enough."

"Mom!" Mother Xie shouted angrily.

Old Madam Xie pulled a long face and ignored her.

Mother Xie turned her head away indignantly. She was so angry that she stopped talking.

Old Madam Xie looked at Ji Nan with her old eyes and said with dissatisfaction and coldness, "You have to figure out who's family to you!"

After saying this, she did not give Ji Nan a chance to defend himself. She treated Mother Xie the same way and ignored her.

Old Madam Xie expressed her stance in public again. "What Ji Nan just said is just his own guess. I'll apologize to you on his behalf. You don't have to take the child's words to heart. I'll talk to him nicely when we get back. How can you say such things... It's too damaging to a person's reputation."

The storm was about to be resolved by the old madam.

At this moment.

Nan Tianyi, who had been silent all this while, seemed to have made up his mind. He closed his eyes and opened them again. His bloodshot eyes looked at the old lady who was comforting the Xie family's relatives in the corridor and asked on the spot, "Mom, do you really think Ji Nan is spouting nonsense?"

Old Madam Xie did not expect him to interfere. She turned around and subconsciously frowned, instinctively not answering this question. magic

Nan Tianyi chuckled as if he had seen through them. He no longer looked at her and said indifferently, "If this is what a family is like, I think Tingyun doesn't want to be restrained by 'family' anymore."

Chapter 2194 - 2194 Xie Xinyao Is Slapped

The old lady's expression changed slightly as she realized what he meant. She was about to scold him when Nan Tianyi walked past her.

In front of all the relatives of the Xie family, the corners of his lips were tense. He walked up to Xie Xinyao and asked, "What did you add to the medicine when you gave it to your aunt yesterday?"

Nan Tianyi was very tall, at 1.88 meters. The middle-aged man's tall figure stood in front of her, giving off an extremely strong psychological pressure.

"I..." Xie Xinyao looked up and saw the tense expression on Nan Tianyi's handsome face. Her mind buzzed, and her fingertips trembled uncontrollably again. "I, I didn't."

Mother Xie was shocked. She instinctively wanted to stop Nan Tianyi. "Tianyi, what are you doing?"

"Move aside!"

Nan Tianyi glanced over and dodged her hand. His expression was gloomy. He was really angry.

“I’ll give her a chance to tell the truth now. I won’t let this matter rest if I have to find out myself later!”

Mother Xie’s face was already pale. She looked stunned and opened her mouth. “Tianyi, we’re family...”

Nan Tianyi shook off her hand, furious. “What family?! She can even attack her aunt! I don’t need her to be my family!”

Nan Tianyi’s eyes throbbed in anger. His eyebrows were slightly raised, and his aura was extremely strong. He looked around at all the Xie family members in the corridor, unable to suppress the anger in his voice. “When Tingyun got into trouble this time, what else did you do other than cause a commotion here?!”

“If Nian Nian hadn’t called Elder Zhong in time, Tingyun would have...” Nan Tianyi choked. Then, he gritted his teeth and continued, “Fortunately, Nian Nian didn’t fuss about it. Even so, you stopped her before she and Elder Zhong were about to enter the operating theater... Is this family? I, Nan Tianyi, am not worthy of such a family!”

Everyone in the Xie family could not raise their heads. Old Madam Xie did not expect the person who had always been good-tempered in front of them to be so angry and not give his mother-in-law any face.

Ye Wangchuan walked over and patted his arm.

Nan Tianyi took a deep breath, and the anger burning in his chest paused for a moment. He said expressionlessly, “I must find out who poisoned my wife’s medicine today! I don’t care who she is. Don’t come to me to plead for mercy!”

With that, he turned around and stared at Xie Xinyao with a sharp gaze. “You handed your aunt her medicine and water and saw her take the medicine with your own eyes. Why did you leave immediately after?”

“Is there something wrong with that medicine, or did you add the poison to the water?”

“...” magic

Xie Xinyao bit her lip tightly, her eyes flickering, but she refused to say anything.

Nan Tianyi raised his hand and slapped her hard in the face. “Xie Xinyao, she’s your aunt!”

Bam!

“Nan Tianyi, what are you doing!” Mother Xie’s heart was broken. She bent down to help her up.

Mother Xie was shocked by his hostility and did not dare to help her daughter up.

Chapter 2195 - 2195 Sister Nian: Who Gave You the Medicine?

Xie Xinyao fell down on the hospital’s cold floor. The left side of her face burned with pain. Tears streamed down her face, and her shoulders trembled.

“Don’t call me uncle!” Nan Tianyi was expressionless, his face cold and disgusted. “You’re not worthy of being my niece!”

Xie Xinyao covered her face and sat on the ground in an unprecedented sorry state.

... How did it become like this?

How did things turn out like this?

“I’ll ask you again. Did you poison the water or tamper with the medicine?” Nan Tianyi could not sympathize with her at all. He lowered his head and asked her again.

Xie Xinyao's back was covered in cold sweat. She looked flustered, but she did not dare to admit it.

She knew that once she answered this question, she would undoubtedly admit that she had poisoned her aunt! Once she admitted that she had poisoned her, Nan Tianyi would not let her off easily.

Qiao Nian came out of the operating theater at this moment.

The corridor was so noisy that she heard some of it from inside.

Qiao Nian said, "She must have changed the medicine."

Nan Tianyi turned around and saw the girl walking out of the operating theater taking off her gloves and throwing them into the trash can.

As she lowered her eyes, her long eyelashes covered the greenish-black under her eyes. She stuffed her hands into her pockets.

"If she adds the medicine to the water, it will be easy for Aunt Xie to tell that there's something wrong. She likely added it to the medicine because people are used to swallowing it in one gulp. This way, even if the medicine tastes wrong, they still won't be easily discovered."

"You're out?" Ye Wangchuan had not slept all night, but his eyes were clear. He walked over to the girl's side as if nothing had happened. He unscrewed the cap of the bottle in his hand and handed it to her. There was a mixed gentleness in his eyes, and his voice was low and slow. "Rest and drink some water."

"Okay." Qiao Nian took the mineral water from him and took a big sip. Then, she whispered, "Help me take care of Elder Zhong."

Zhong Yiliu was old. This surgery took more than ten hours. Zhong Yiliu's body could not take it anymore, and he was still sitting on a chair in the operating theater to rest.

The people from the Pharmacy Association had already entered to take care of him.

However, Qiao Nian was still worried and hoped that he would go in and take a look.

“Okay.” Ye Wangchuan took the water bottle from her hand and screwed on the cap again. Then, he tucked her hair behind her ear and said, “Wait for me here. I’ll go in and take a look.”

Seeing that he had entered the operating theater, Qiao Nian looked at the person sitting on the ground and walked over slowly.

“Who gave you the medicine?” Qiao Nian walked over and squatted down.

Her aura was strong.

Xie Xinyao’s eyes flashed as she turned her head away. “I-I don’t know what you’re talking about.”

Qiao Nian knew that she wouldn’t admit it easily. Suddenly, she grabbed her chin and squeezed.

Xie Xinyao opened her mouth in pain.

At this moment, no one saw what the girl did. Qiao Nian let go and Xie Xinyao had already swallowed the thing she had thrown into her mouth.

“Ah.”

Xie Xinyao’s expression suddenly changed. She grabbed her neck with both hands and looked at the girl in horror. She was shocked and furious. “Qiao Nian, what did you feed me?” magic “Poison.” The girl let go of her chin and stood up slightly. Her tone was quite sloppy.

She was really crazy!

There were so many people from the Xie family here, but she still poisoned her in front of everyone.

Chapter 2196 - 2196 Sister Nian Made a Move, Xie Xinyao Admitted to the Poison

Xie Xinyao was stunned at first. Her mind was blank. Then, she immediately tried to vomit out the contents of her stomach when she realized what Qiao Nian had said.

Extremely panicked, tears and snot flowed out. In a sorry state, her image as the eldest daughter of the Xie family was long lost. She was about to go crazy.

“Qiao Nian, you’re crazy.

“Qiao Nian, you...”

Tears streamed down Xie Xinyao’s face, and she couldn’t care less about scolding her anymore. She grabbed her mother’s leg. “Mom, quickly call the doctor and get him to pump my stomach.”

Mother Xie was also dumbfounded. She turned around anxiously to look for the doctor.

At this moment, Qiao Nian reminded them indifferently, “It’s useless to find a doctor for my poison. Unless she takes the antidote, she can only die here today.”

Mother Xie felt as if her acupuncture points had been pressed and she could not move for an instant.

Qiao Nian couldn’t be bothered to look at them. Her face under the surgical gown was cold as she looked at the person in front of her who went limp from fear. Then, she said calmly, “Xie Xinyao, let me ask you again. What did you do to the medicine?”

Xie Xinyao’s eyes were already blurry with tears. She opened her mouth, but before she could speak, the girl calmly stopped her.

“I’m only giving you this one chance. Answer me after you think about it.”

She held a small white pill in her hand, as if she could crush it at any time.

Seeing the pill in her hand, it was as if Qiao Nian was not playing with a pill, but Xie Xinyao's life.

She could still force herself not to admit it under Nan Tianyi's might, but at this moment, her will was visibly declining.

"It was... it was... it was Ji Ziyin." Xie Xinyao gritted her teeth and told the truth. Relieved and even a little resentful, she wished she could see the other party end up like her. "She came to me and told me that you're my aunt's doctor. My aunt acknowledged you as her goddaughter because she's grateful to you for saving her life.

"She dropped me off the other day. After I got out of the car, her driver even slipped me a small bottle with a pill inside.

"At first, I didn't know what the medicine's effect was. Later, when I went to the manor and saw my aunt taking the medicine, I realized that it looked exactly the same as yours, so I... understood what she meant."

Xie Xinyao admitted that she had poisoned Xie Tingyun in front of all her family members. Everyone was dumbfounded. Even Old Madam Xie did not expect her to dare to poison Xie Tingyun!

The old lady swayed and almost lost her balance.

Father Xie quickly supported her and called out, "Mom."

Old Madam Xie seemed to have been scalded by her words. Her lips moved, and she could not squeeze out a word for a long time.

Xie Xinyao, on the other hand, still did not want to admit full responsibility. She raised her head and stared at the girl with hatred. "Qiao Nian, I didn't want to harm you in the beginning. If you want to blame someone, blame yourself for being unpopular. People who don't like you are everywhere! People like you are too arrogant. You don't even know that you've offended someone. Even if I don't poison her, someone will think of a way to make you unable to live in the independent continent..."

"This person is your aunt. Have you never thought of the consequences?" Qiao Nian looked at her coldly.

However, Xie Xinyao seemed to have been poked in her sore spot. She turned her head away and said angrily, "So what?! I never thought that Ji Ziyin would give me poison. I thought it was just an ordinary medicine that would make her vomit and faint. Who knew that it would kill her?"

Qiao Nian only looked at her deeply and smiled coldly. "Only you know best."

Chapter 2197 - 2197 Oh, I Lied to You

"I don't know," Xie Xinyao replied quickly this time, but she didn't dare to look the girl in the eye. "I didn't know that that medicine would kill her! If I had known, I wouldn't have done this."

"Huh."

Qiao Nian licked her lips and suppressed the redness in her eyes. She turned to Nan Tianyi and said, "Uncle Nan, you heard everything."

Nan Tianyi nodded and looked at the person on the ground with a splitting headache. "I heard it. Nian Nian, this matter..."

He wanted to say that this matter involved Xie Xinyao. He wanted to wait for Xie Tingyun to wake up and ask her opinion before deciding how to deal with Xie Xinyao.

Qiao Nian said, "I don't care about this matter. You can handle your family matters yourself. You can deal with her however you want. I still have other things to do."

As she spoke, she let go of Xie Xinyao's chin. The collar of her sweater covered half of her face, and the other half looked cold.

She stood up and seemed to be about to leave.

Xie Xinyao heaved a sigh of relief and fell to the ground, unable to get up. Suddenly, seeing that Qiao Nian was about to leave, she panicked and grabbed the girl's ankle.

"Wait! You can't leave!"

"Qiao Nian, you can't leave."

The girl stopped in her tracks and looked down at her condescendingly. Her exquisite face had "Impatience" written all over it.

Xie Xinyao couldn't care less about her face now. She said in a panic, "Qiao Nian, I've already told you everything. You haven't given me the antidote. Give it to me..."

"The antidote?"

"Didn't you promise to give me the antidote as long as I told you everything?! Qiao Nian, you have to keep your word." Xie Xinyao's beautiful face changed slightly. It was obvious that she was extremely nervous and flustered.

The girl seemed to have just remembered and looked enlightened. She looked into her eyes and shrugged lazily, her attitude casual. "Oh, I lied to you." magic Xie Xinyao was speechless.

Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows as if she was looking at a clown. The corners of her lips curled up as she looked at the woman lying on the ground. "I was lying when I said that it was poison. I didn't expect you to really believe me.

"That's just an ordinary fruit candy."

The little boy had given her a fruit candy this morning. She used it. Unexpectedly, Xie Xinyao really believed it was poison.

She was not acting in a television drama. Who would bring poison with her for no reason?

Xie Xinyao was thinking too much!

Or rather, she was too afraid of death.

Qiao Nian's eyes flashed and her fingertips turned cold.

Xie Xinyao was afraid of death, but she treated other people's lives as worthless. The contrast between the two was the most ridiculous thing.

Qiao Nian sent Ye Wangchuan a WeChat message. Without looking at the Xie family members in the corridor, she walked straight to Nan Tianyi and said in a low voice, "Uncle Nan, I'll leave Xie Xinyao to you."

Nan Tianyi sensed a hint of danger in her tone and asked worriedly, "Nian Nian, where are you going? I'll get the old butler to send you back home."

"Don't worry about me," Qiao Nian replied casually. Her voice was even a little casual and clear. "I'll go back. But I have to do something before that."

Nan Tianyi was stunned.

Ji Nan's heart turned cold and his temples began to tense up when she said she had "to do something".

Chapter 2198 - 2198 Sister Nian: I'll Bear All the Consequences

He knew Qiao Nian's personality too well.

This time, Ji Ziyin stepped on the girl's bottom line.

Since she crossed the line...

* *

Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan left the hospital and returned to the villa.

Qiao Nian was exceptionally quiet on the way back. There was nothing unusual about her. She only made a call halfway.

"Yes, let's capture her first.

"I'll bear all the consequences.

"I'm hanging up."

After she hung up, Ye Wangchuan saw that she was sitting cross-legged in the front passenger seat with her head lowered, playing a game. Her black hair fell and covered her eyebrows, making it impossible to see her eyes and the emotion they displayed.

However, Ye Wangchuan sensed a faint hostility from her.

He raised his eyebrows and placed his hand on the steering wheel. His thin lips twitched, but he did not ask her how she planned to deal with Ji Ziyin.

Because no matter what Qiao Nian wanted to do, he would back her up.

Even if Qiao Nian wanted to... pierce the 'sky' of the independent continent.

He would accompany her to the end.

On the road in the center of the independent continent.

Ji Ziyin's private car had just left the clubhouse and drove steadily for a while.

Suddenly, a green jeep appeared on the road.

"What's wrong with them?" The driver driving sensed that something was wrong with the jeep approaching them and asked curiously.

In the blink of an eye, the green jeep was already driving beside them.

Sitting in the back, Ji Ziyin had just raised her head from her phone and had yet to see which car the chauffeur was talking about.

The jeep that had been moving side by side with them for a minute suddenly turned crazily and stopped in front of them. magic

"Ah!" No matter how experienced the Ji family's chauffeur was, he could not help but break out in a cold sweat. He screamed and hurriedly stepped on the brakes.

Ji Ziyin felt the car shake violently and was almost thrown out.

However, even if she was lucky not to be thrown out, she still leaned forward uncontrollably and her forehead hit the back of the chair.

Ji Ziyin's vision darkened from the collision, then she slowly regained her senses. Covering her forehead with her hand, her eyes filled with frustration. "What happened?"

The chauffeur was also frightened.

“Miss, that car suddenly stopped in front. I’ll go take a look.” The chauffeur opened the car door and cursed.

Ji Ziyin realized that something was wrong, but it was too late.

This was the independent continent. The Ji family’s private car had a special license plate number. Ordinary people would not dare to attack her when they saw it.

Why did a car suddenly stop them today?

Ji Ziyin’s eyebrows twitched as she shouted, “Don’t open the door!”

“What?” The chauffeur had already unbuckled his seatbelt and unlocked the door. The door had already opened a crack.

The moment he turned around, a young woman got out of the jeep. The woman’s hand, which had painted fingernails, was quickly inserted in the crack. Then, she smiled at Ji Ziyin. “Miss Ji, what a coincidence. We meet again.”

Ji Ziyin’s face paled when she saw the woman’s smiling but bright and moving face. She knew this person.

It was the woman who broke into the private room of the Mountain Sea Pavilion that day and crippled one of Ji Hongyuan’s hands.

Ji Ziyin immediately hid her phone behind her and made a random call in a panic.

Pretending to be calm, she replied, “The Sixth Elder isn’t with me. It’s useless for you to look for me.”

Guan Yan had already knocked out the chauffeur with a hand knife. At this moment, standing calmly by the door and looking at her with bright eyes, she burst out laughing. "Who told you I'm here for that old man? Miss Ji, today I came especially for you."

Chapter 2199 - 2199 What If I Don't Make a Choice

Ji Ziyin's heart raced. Already with a bad feeling, she could only try her best to stall for time.

"Oh, why are you looking for me?"

Guan Yan looked into the car and saw her left hand, which she was trying hard to hide behind her back. She supported her chin with a smile and said, "Miss Ji is on the phone?"

Ji Ziyin stiffened. She could not pretend anymore. Her almond-shaped eyes were still trying their best to look calm, as if she wanted to see what she had to say.

Guan Yan was not in a hurry. She lazily played with her Polish roll earring and then said with a smile, "Why can't you learn? Didn't I tell you last time? I wouldn't have come for you if I was afraid of your Ji family. You just don't like to listen to others."

Her tone was lazy and a little reproachful. A man's bones would melt upon hearing it. Unfortunately, Ji Ziyin had seen her 'savage' side before, and her heart was in her throat. She was not in the mood to admire a beauty's charm.

"Our boss is looking for you."

Guan Yan left the unconscious driver behind and walked to the back of the car where Ji Ziyin was sitting.

Ji Ziyin's hair stood on end. She was still hoping that the security system in the car would stall her.

Unexpectedly, Guan Yan tried to open the door but did not manage to. Not in a hurry, she hummed and made a call.

Ji Ziyin did not hear what she said clearly.

She was quiet for a few seconds before warning in a low voice, "I'm not the Sixth Elder. I advise you not to be too arrogant."

Outside, Guan Yan had already asked for clear instructions. She whispered to the person on the other end of the cell phone, "Okay, Boss. Bye~"

Hanging up, she took out something that looked like a laser pointer from her bag. At the same time, she asked casually, "What did you just say? I didn't hear you clearly."

In the car, Ji Ziyin vaguely heard the faint sound of the lock opening. She tensed up, her nerves drawn like a bow, as if they would snap open at any moment.

A "click" sounded at this moment, and the door finally opened.

Ji Ziyin watched as the other party easily opened the door and leaned inside to look at her. She still looked friendly as she asked, "Miss Ji, are you coming with me yourself, or should I knock you out and take you away? Choose one."

Ji Ziyin heard Ji Xiao's weak voice on the other end of the call. "Ziyin, what happened on your end? Why do I hear voices? Who are you talking to?"

"Ziyin, where are you? I'll look for you immediately."

Ji Ziyin had an idea.

Her eyes flashed as she raised her head to look at Guan Yan and said calmly, "What if I don't make a choice?"

Guan Yan raised her eyebrows and dragged out a long "oh" like she was looking at a fool.

“But there’s no one our boss can’t invite over. Miss Ji doesn’t seem to be a difficult person to invite over. Since you’re not choosing, I can only choose for you.”

“Qiao...”

Ji Ziyin knew that they were under the diamond big boss, and the person behind the diamond big boss was Qiao Nian.

She had just spoken a word when her neck suddenly turned cold and a sharp pain numbed her entire body from the back of her neck. Ji Ziyin’s vision darkened, and she did not know what happened next.

Guan Yan watched coldly as the girl slid into the back of the car like a pool of mud. She casually discarded the needle and coolly informed the person in the jeep, “How long are you going to watch? Hurry up and get down to work.”

Chapter 2200 - 2200 Oh, Marriage? Alright!

She glanced at Ji Ziyin, raising her slender eyebrows, and pursed her red lips in disdain. “I’ll leave this woman to you. I don’t want to go back and take a shower.”

She was a clean freak.

Ji Ziyin looked like a decent person on the outside, but she was a dark dog on the inside. She would find it dirty to even touch Ji Ziyin. If she had to send her back, she would definitely break a layer of skin when she returned.

Soon, a person got out of the car. He had dyed bird’s nest hair and looked sloppy.

Guan Yan watched as he dragged Ji Ziyin into the car and walked to the side to make a call. “Boss, it’s done. How can I hand the ‘goods’ to you?”

“Send her to the villa.” The girl’s voice was calm. Who else could it be but Qiao Nian?

Guan Yan looked up at the sky, and the corners of her mouth twitched. Her figure was exquisite and curvaceous, and she was very proud. Such a lively beauty had a bad temper.

“You want me to send her to Bright Gate’s nest? Boss...” Guan Yan could not help but say, “Will our Red Alliance and the Black Mandala follow Bright Gate in the future?”

She was used to fighting alone and being unrestrained. She did not want to be controlled.

Qiao Nian seemed stunned by her question. Then, Guan Yan heard the sound of a chair being dragged. It seemed that Qiao Nian had just come out of the shower.

“No, they’re our partners.”

“Oh.” Guan Yan felt better and immediately said, “A marriage? Alright!”

Guan Yan raised her wrist to look at the time and then said, “Boss, I’ll be right there. Get ready to pick her up.”

* *

In the four-story villa.

Qiao Nian had just taken a shower and changed into a set of home clothes. Then, she walked straight to the fridge.

She was on the phone along the way. Also present, Qin Si, Gu San, and the others were too embarrassed to disturb her.

After finishing the call, Qiao Nian casually placed her phone on the counter, opened the fridge, and took out a bottle of mineral water. Unscrewing the cap, she took a sip before returning to the living room.

Qin Si couldn't hold it in anymore. He craned his neck and asked, "Sister Qiao, who were you talking to? Why did I hear the word 'marriage'? Who wants to marry into the family?"

Qiao Nian was walking back casually. Now, her eyebrows twitched. She subconsciously looked at the man sitting on the sofa and playing with his phone.

Qin Si followed her gaze and happened to see a certain someone.

The corners of his mouth twitched. "Master Wang?"

The only child of the Ye family was going to get married?

Qin Si's first reaction was that he could not accept this. However, he thought about it and supported his chin with his hand. He nodded seriously. "Master Wang can indeed marry into the family. Anyway, there's still the little devil. I think Elder Ye might agree."

Anyway, Elder Ye often scolded Master Wang for being unfilial.

If Master Wang could trick Sister Qiao into the family, Elder Ye would most likely pack up his eldest grandson and give him away.

Ye Wangchuan put down his phone and looked up as if he had just noticed them. "Huh? What?"

Qiao Nian decisively changed the awkward topic before Qin Si could. "Does Bright Gate have an abandoned factory?"

"Why are you looking for an abandoned factory?" Ye Wangchuan did not continue asking.

Qiao Nian walked over slowly and placed the water bottle on the table. Her eyes were lazy, and her voice was a little hoarse from not sleeping well. "To deal with someone."

Ye Wangchuan immediately understood. "What kind of abandoned factory do you want?"

“It must be deserted and quiet.” Qiao Nian’s requirements were not low.magic

Ye Wangchuan nodded and immediately instructed Gu San, “Go and get Mo Dong to vacate a place.”
