

Madam's 2361

Chapter 2361 - 2361 Sister Nian Finally Found What She Was Looking For!

At first, Qiao Nian could not find any clues related to Ji Qing. It was not until she flipped through a laboratory record book that she found a form that Ji Qing had left behind to record the experimental project.

Qiao Nian took out the form from her notebook and sized it up through the incandescent light in the archive room.

This page of experimental records was very similar to the one Feng Yu showed her, except that the time recorded was different.

The two pages of paper looked like an ordinary or even useless application record written before the experiment.

Qiao Nian narrowed her eyes and looked at the light for a long time. Finally, she realized what was wrong with it!

The seemingly ordinary numbers and characters were connected together—it was Morse code!

Moreover, she had seen this style of Morse code once.

It was the same as the Morse code that Ji Qing had left behind in the black box of the plane that Ye Wangchuan found.

... This was a clue that Ji Qing had deliberately left behind.

She might have known that someone would clean up all the traces she left in the First Research Institute, so she especially sandwiched this inconspicuous daily experiment record form in the record book in the archives room and waited for the day it was discovered.

This was because ordinary people could not understand the encrypted words on it at all.

Ji Qing was not afraid of being discovered.

Ordinary people would only think that this paper was an experimental application form that others had missed.

Qiao Nian immediately narrowed her eyes upon realizing this. She carefully put away the experimental application form sandwiched between the inner pages of the folded page. With a serious expression, she placed it in her bag and zipped it up.

At this moment, Ye Wangchuan called.

Qiao Nian saw the phone screen light up on the table from the corner of the eye. After sorting out all the information on the table and stacking them neatly to the side, she picked up the phone. "Hello."

"Still busy?" The man's voice was charming.

Qiao Nian picked up her bag absent-mindedly. "Yes, I'm almost done."

Ye Wangchuan seemed to think for a moment and then asked, "Ye Shan wants to treat you to a meal. Are you going?"

Who... was Ye Shan?

Qiao Nian's mind was filled with the Morse code Ji Qing left behind. She had to think for a long time before remembering who he was talking about. Then, she said without much interest, "She wants to treat me to a meal?"

Ye Wangchuan almost seemed to see the impatience lingering between the girl's eyebrows. She was cold and impatient, but she still patiently talked to him.

The corners of his lips could not help but curl up as he casually said, "Yes. The Old Master personally spoke up against her. She probably lost too much face last time and wants to ease her relationship with you."

"Mm," Qiao Nian replied casually. In fact, she did not listen much and was thinking about other things.

"By the way, the collaboration between the Ye family and the Chamber of Commerce Alliance has been settled. The Old Master is quite happy and told me many times that he wants to thank you." His tone was slightly teasing as he said in a low and tactful voice, "Goddess Qiao, it looks like I'm a stable freeloader in everyone's eyes..."

Qiao Nian finally registered what he said. She looked at the sky outside and prepared to leave. Pausing, she said, "No one will think you're a freeloader if you tell them your hidden identity."

She was talking about Ye Wangchuan's identity as the leader of the independent continent's Bright Gate.

Chapter 2362 - 2362 Principles? Whatever Nian Nian Says

Old Master Ye and Ye Lan still did not know Ye Wangchuan's secret identity. She estimated that Old Master Ye might have guessed a little, but Aunt Ye... was probably still in the dark.

Qiao Nian put the chair back and heard a low laugh from the other end of the call. "Forget it. I'm quite used to freeloading.

"After all... free food nourishes your stomach!"

Qiao Nian paused and her eyelids twitched.

Ye Wangchuan asked before she could say anything, "By the way, about Ye Shan treating you to a meal..."

"I'm not going." Qiao Nian slung her bag over her shoulder and signed her name on the registration book at the door.

The name was written in a bold and unrestrained manner. It was very similar to her personality. At a glance, one could tell that she was arrogant and unrestrained.

After signing her name and returning the blue fountain pen, Qiao Nian said as she walked out, "I have to go back and check something."

As she walked out, she saw people from the First Research Institute secretly looking at her.

Qiao Nian did not mind. She lowered her eyes and thought for a moment before adding, "Help me tell Grandpa that I'm a little busy at the moment."

Outside the First Research Institute.

An off-road vehicle was parked on the road. The man opened the window and rested his elbows on the side. His eyes were filled with a mixture of gentleness as he said, "He's beside me. You'll see him when you come out."

Old Master Ye was originally eavesdropping on the conversation. Being suddenly called out by Ye Wangchuan, he blushed and sat up straight in all seriousness.

Ye Wangchuan glanced at him sideways. The corners of his mouth curled up as he continued to talk to the person on the other end of the call. "He missed you and came to the villa to look for you. He insisted on coming with me to pick you up when he found that you were not around."

Old Master Ye raised his eyebrows, his eyes spitting fire.

This unfilial grandson!

How could he betray his grandfather like this?!

Everyone said that they would side with outsiders. He had not even tricked her back yet, but he was already on her side!

Although Old Master Ye was furious and wanted to argue with him, Ye Wangchuan was still on the phone with Qiao Nian. He could only endure it.

He endured it for a few minutes.

The man finally finished the call and put down his phone.

“The next time you speak nonsense to Nian Nian, I’ll block all your credit cards!” Old Master Ye impatiently waited for him to hang up and then immediately threatened him.

“I won’t have the money to buy her gifts then.” Ye Wangchuan put down his cell phone and turned on the air conditioner, then adjusted the temperature to the one that Qiao Nian was used to. Then, he continued, “I have no objections if you’re not afraid that your granddaughter-in-law will run away with someone.”

Old Master Ye’s face turned as red as a pig’s liver. He slapped him on the head and said in a loud voice, “You young brat, stop pretending with me! Do you not have the money to buy her a gift? Do you think I’m old and muddle-headed? Can’t you tell?”

Ye Wangchuan was suddenly slapped by him. He rubbed his eyebrows and said helplessly, “By the way, Nian Nian doesn’t want Ye Shan’s treat.”

He thought that Old Master Ye would say something, but who knew that Ye Maoshan would not even blink and would only say without any principles, “So be it. I’ll just let Ye Shan know.”

Ye Wangchuan glanced at him sideways.

However, Ye Maoshan waved his hand indifferently. “She deserves it if Nian Nian doesn’t want to give her face. She can’t blame anyone else.”

Chapter 2363 - 2363 Qiao Nian Wants to Decrypt the Morse Code

Ye Wangchuan looked at him and finally understood.

Old Master Ye had no principles with Qiao Nian. Ye Shan had probably found the wrong person to persuade him...

Ye Maoshan looked at the girl slowly walking out of the First Research Institute. He turned to him and said, "I'm going back to Beijing soon. When I'm not here, you have to take good care of Qiao Nian. I'll teach you a lesson if I find out that you treat Nian Nian badly."

Ye Wangchuan estimated that he would return to Beijing after dealing with the overseas businesses.

After all, with his status, people would become suspicious if he did not return to Beijing quickly.

Therefore, Ye Wangchuan was not surprised to hear that he was going back. He looked at the person approaching them. "Don't worry, I'll take good care of her."

Old Master Ye looked at him deeply and slowly retracted his gaze. Then, he continued to look at the girl, feeling a little comforted.

Qiao Nian wanted to investigate Ji Qing's past. Although Old Master Ye did not know what tricks were hidden, he understood that this matter was very dangerous.

The Ye family's power was in the country, but overseas... he was powerless.

However, he knew that Ye Wangchuan was quite powerful in the independent continent. With his protection, it would be safer for Qiao Nian to investigate this matter.

Old Master Ye's expression gradually turned serious. "Take good care of her."

“Mm,” Ye Wangchuan agreed again.

Qiao Nian quickly got into the car.

Ye Wangchuan then drove back to the villa.

After returning to the villa, Qiao Nian immediately returned to her room to solve the Morse code.

Moreover, she called Feng Yu and asked him to send her the form he found. It was useful for her.

After receiving Qiao Nian’s call, Feng Yu put down what he was doing and rushed to her place in less than an hour. He handed the test form that Ji Qing had left behind to the girl and then asked her if she had discovered anything.

Qiao Nian only asked him to wait downstairs.

Feng Yu did not pursue the matter upon seeing her frown. Instead, he handed the form to her and went to the living room downstairs to wait for news.

Old Master Ye had not left after returning from the First Research Institute. Coincidentally, Feng Yu came. The two of them were of the same age, so Ye Wangchuan introduced them to each other.

They got along very well.

From the local customs of Beijing to some personal hobbies, bird rearing, calligraphy, and so on...

Qin Si could not interrupt them and took the opportunity to ask the man who was pouring tea. “Master Wang, why did Sister Qiao go to her room as soon as she returned?”

He pouted and gestured at Feng Yu. Then, he touched his earlobe. "And the dean of the First Research Institute. Why did he run over in a hurry? I think he gave Sister Qiao something. Do you know what Sister Qiao is busy with upstairs?"

Ye Wangchuan personally made tea for the two elders and lazily replied, "Go cut a plate of fruits if you have nothing to do."

Qin Si was speechless.

Ye Wangchuan walked past him to serve tea to the two old men.

Qin Si scratched his head as he looked at his back. He went to the kitchen to find fruits.

Gu San was not at home today. He seemed to be helping Mo Dong with something. He did not know what was going on. There was no one at home to serve tea and water. Even as a young master who did not do any chores, Qin Si could only do it himself. Fortunately, he had been a helper for some time before and was quite agile.

Chapter 2364 - 2364 Ji Ziyin Fell Over with Gu Hengbo

Qin Si quickly cut a plate of fruits and brought it out. He placed it on the coffee table in front of Feng Yu and Ye Maoshan. "Elder Ye, Dean Feng, take your time chatting. I won't disturb you. I'll go back to my room."

He was quite perceptive. He put down the fruit platter and slipped back to his room to play games.

At the same time.

Ji Ziyin's situation was worlds apart.

Gu Hengbo suddenly failed. Under wave after wave of stone hammers, his reputation in the independent continent collapsed.

Gu Hengbo's failure had brought up Bai Hui's matter.

Bai Hui exposed Gu Hengbo for using his authority to gild Ji Ziyin. In an instant, rumors about the Ji family and Ji Ziyin spread.

Some people even suspected that Ji Ziyin was an idiot who did not have any skills and that all her research results were obtained by seizing other people's research results...

Once this rumor spread, Ji Ziyin was like a cat on a hot tin roof every day and could not sleep at night.

She also tried to contact Bai Hui, hoping that the other party would stand up and 'clarify' for her.

However, Bai Hui did not answer her call. She answered it once before but hung up the moment she heard her name.

Her attitude was unyielding!

No matter how angry Ji Ziyin was, she knew that Bai Hui would not stand up to clear her name this time.

She did not think that she had made a big mistake in this matter. In her eyes, the independent continent was a world where the strong preyed on the weak.

People like Bai Hui and Xu Yi, who had no background or backing, were destined to be trampled on.

She was just an ordinary person among millions of people.

Besides, she had never asked Gu Hengbo to steal Bai Hui's research results for her. It was all Gu Hengbo informing her that there was an 'extra' research result.

Of course, Ji Ziyin knew the origin of these research results. However, it was a waste not to take free pickings.

She was not the main perpetrator. Bai Hui did not have to be so dissatisfied and malicious towards her...

Ji Ziyin had been placed under house arrest during this period. She wanted to personally talk to Bai Hui to at least salvage her reputation.

However, what frustrated her was that she could not get out at all, let alone talk to Bai Hui herself.

Ji Ziyin received a call from Ji Xiao just as she was feeling extremely frustrated.

"Hey!"

"Have you seen the Patriarch?"

Ji Ziyin was baffled. "Patriarch is coming to look for me?"

Ji Xiao was silent for a long time.official website novelfullbo0k He seemed to be having a hard time.
"You're on your own."

He hung up before Ji Ziyin could figure out what he meant.

She listened to the busy tone and was thinking about what was going on when there was a knock on the door. The servant jogged over to see who it was.

Ji Ziyin turned around and saw Ji Lingfeng at the door.

"Patriarch?"

"Your father removed Ji Ziyin from the younger generation." At Ji Nan's house, Xie Yun suddenly came to visit and said this as soon as she sat down.

Ji Nan was wearing casual clothes and was getting water for her. He was extremely surprised to hear this. "Hasn't he always thought highly of Ji Ziyin?"

Xie Yun took the water from him and scoffed at this statement. "Heh, everyone in the family thinks that he values Ji Ziyin. I'm afraid Ji Ziyin thinks so too."

Xie Yun elegantly took a sip of water before continuing, "All these years, Ji Ziyin has always relied on him to intimidate others outside and has never taken you seriously. In fact... who does she think she is?! I just can't be bothered to argue with her."

Chapter 2365 - 2365 Ji Ziyin Is About to Be Returned to Her Origin

"What do you mean?" Ji Nan was slightly stunned to hear this. He put the glass of water down and looked at his mother, who was sitting on the sofa, in confusion.

Didn't his father always think highly of Ji Ziyin?

This was something that not only the Ji family knew, but everyone in the independent continent knew. Otherwise, Ji Ziyin would not have gone from a side branch family member to the leader of the main family's younger generation...

Ji Nan frowned and tightened his grip on the cup. He kept feeling that he had touched a secret. It was just that this secret was hidden too deeply. He could not pry into its full appearance with just a few clues... This made him a little uncomfortable!

“Will those old things in the family agree with Ji Ziyin being removed from the younger generation? I’m afraid they’ll cause trouble again.” Ji Nan paused and thought of something more important.

“Don’t tell me you really think your father cares about these people?” Xie Yun gracefully lowered her head and took another sip of tea. Her elegant face did not have many traces of time, but it exuded the charm of a mature woman.

There were almost no lines around her eyes, but she was old, after all. One could vaguely tell her age from her experienced eyes.

She was not young!

Ji Nan was rooted to the ground, still unable to figure out the twists and turns.

Xie Yun did not expect him to immediately understand Ji Lingfeng’s thoughts. “Your father has made up his mind this time. Just watch. It’s useless for them to make a fuss. Ji Hongyuan, Ji Xiao, and the others around Ji Ziyin are just a motley crew. If your father really wants to remove Ji Ziyin from the younger generation, none of them can change the outcome!”

Ji Nan was silent. He asked after a moment, “Then, isn’t Ji Ziyin finished?”

“Tsk.” Xie Yun snorted. “This position doesn’t belong to her, to begin with. To put it bluntly, she was just lucky to replace someone else for more than 20 years. She’s already done enough! Now, she’s just beaten back to her original state...”

Ji Nan and Ji Ziyin had been familiar with each other for many years.

Xie Yun spoke casually and simply, but Ji Nan knew it in his heart. This outcome was undoubtedly a blow to Ji Ziyin, and she would not be able to accept it.

Xie Yun seemed to know what he was thinking. She sized him up, gracefully tidied her shawl, lowered her eyes, and said, "Some people stay in positions that don't belong to them for too long and think that everything should belong to them. Now, she has time to calm down and look at herself in the mirror!"

A crow was a crow. Even if it stole the phoenix's clothes and put them on, they would not become the phoenix.

A once-in-a-century genius of the Ji family?

Ha, what a huge joke!

She was not worthy.

At the same time, at Ji Ziyin's house.

Ji Lingfeng had already left.

Ji Ziyin was sitting on the ground with tears streaming down her face.

The old servant saw her crying silently. In the end, she could not bear it and walked forward to help her. "Eldest Miss, the ground is cold. Get up first."

Ji Ziyin did not move as if she did not hear her.

The old servant tried to help her up, but she refused. After the last attempt, she could only let go and sigh deeply. "Miss, I'll make you a cup of hot coffee. You're better now. Remember to drink some to warm your body."

Then, she walked to the kitchen to make a cup of coffee for Ji Ziyin and stood beside her for a while.

In the end, the old servant returned to the living room, took off her apron, folded it, and tiptoed out.

As she left, she even considerately closed the door.

Chapter 2366 The Blame Comes Unprovoked

A soft click sounded from the door lock.

Ji Ziyin slowly raised her head. Her eyes were already swollen like walnuts, and her original appearance could not be seen. She looked to be in a lot of agony.

Sitting on the cold floor alone, she recalled the scene two hours ago. She still felt that it had only happened a second ago.

Ji Ziyin really could not understand why Ji Lingfeng would be so heartless to remove her from the younger generation this time!

She had grown up by his side. Due to the halo of a genius, Ji Lingfeng had always been amiable to her.

She had gotten to where she was today step by step because Ji Lingfeng valued her! However, all of this came to an abrupt end two hours ago...

She was about to be beaten back to her original state and was no longer the leader of the young generation chosen by the Ji family.

Without this identity, how could a small branch member like her gain a foothold in the Ji family? She would only return to being a pitiful little girl that no one cared about.

A Ji Ziyin who was nothing at all!

The beautiful woman's gaze gradually turned ruthless. She wiped her face with her hand and stood up. Then, she stumbled to the sofa and found her phone.

She called Ji Xiao first.

This was because Ji Xiao had called to 'remind' her before Ji Lingfeng arrived.

Ji Xiao must know something...

"Toot-toot."

The dial tone rang seven or eight times.

The call was finally picked up, and she could not wait to say, "Hello. I..."

The mechanical girl interrupted her. "I'm sorry, the user you called can't answer your call for the time being. Please call again later."

Ji Ziyin gritted her teeth and called Ji Xiao again with a cold expression.

But the result was the same.

"I'm sorry, the user you called..."

Ji Ziyin hung up.

She picked up her coat from the sofa and sent a voice message to Lu Yiming as she walked out. "Yiming, I have something to tell you. I'll wait for you at 36 Lilac Road. Y-You have to come. I have something very important to tell you."

Just in case Lu Yiming refused to come, Ji Ziyin even sent a long paragraph of text. The general meaning was that they had known each other for so many years and their relationship had always been there. If she encountered a troublesome matter, she hoped that Lu Yiming would come out and talk to her. Even if he couldn't help, at least he wouldn't let her face it alone.

Ji Ziyin typed the message and sent it out.

She was relieved to see that Lu Yiming had read it.

Lu Yiming was different from Lu Zhi.

Lu Zhi looked kind on the outside but was ruthless on the inside. However, Lu Yiming was a soft-hearted person.

Ji Ziyin was certain that as long as Lu Yiming saw her message, he would definitely come to see her. She wanted to take this opportunity to ask him to help her check if Qiao Nian was involved...

Qiao Nian did not know that someone was blaming her for their fall from fame.

She was in seclusion, comparing the form she had found in the archives room with Feng Yu's form.

After comparing them, she could basically confirm that the two forms were a complete Morse code, and it was the high-level Morse code that Ji Qing often used.

It would take time to solve it.

Qiao Nian took out a small notebook, found a pen, and began to translate each character.

This thing required a lot of patience. If she made even the slightest mistake, she would have to start it again.

She had always been focused on her work.

Once she focused on something, she would not pay attention to outside factors. She would not care about any commotion outside.

Chapter 2367 Qiao Nian Is Still Not Out By Midnight

During this period, Feng Yu could not wait downstairs anymore and came up to look for her. However, after knocking on the door, Qiao Nian was so focused on decrypting the Morse code that she did not have the time to open the door for him. She only said through the locked door, "Wait a little longer. I'm not done yet."

Feng Yu stood at her door for a few minutes before quietly going down.

Downstairs in the living room.

Qin Si came out to drink water after playing a game. Seeing that Feng Yu and Ye Maoshan had yet to leave, he walked over and said to the man sitting on the sofa in surprise, "Sister Qiao isn't out yet?"

Ye Wangchuan was holding a tablet as if he was looking at something. Hearing this, he placed the tablet on his knees and supported his chin with his hand. Looking in the direction of the second floor, he lazily said, "No."

"Psst. What's she busy with up there?" Qin Si glanced at Feng Yu. "I think Dean Feng has been waiting for almost three hours."

It was almost dark outside, but Feng Yu still did not leave.

Qin Si looked at the sky and then at the two big Buddhas in the living room. He thought for a moment and belatedly said, "At this time, the Dean and Elder Ye will definitely have to eat before leaving. Master Wang, what are you preparing for them? It won't be hotpot again, right? Sister Qiao likes to eat it, but I'm a little tired of eating it for every meal recently."

Ye Wangchuan casually placed the tablet on the sofa and stood up. Then, he said, "We'll go out. Gu San is not at home. There are no ingredients."

"Oh, that's true." Qin Si touched his stomach, seeming a little hungry. He muttered to himself, "I wonder when Sister Qiao will be done."

Although Ye Wangchuan did not know what Qiao Nian had found in the research institute, from the looks of it, it was quite important.

He narrowed his eyes, looking noble and lazy. He stuffed his hands into his pockets and lazily said, "Let's wait."

He waited for the entire night.

Seeing that Qiao Nian was still not out at 10:30 PM, Feng Yu took the initiative to go back and wait for news.

Old Master Ye accompanied Ye Wangchuan to send him out.

He refused to give up.

He waited in the living room for another hour.

It was almost midnight.

Old Master Ye could not take it anymore. He was too embarrassed to wait at Ye Wangchuan's place for the night. Hence, he called Ye Lan and asked her to pick him up.

He also left the villa before midnight.

Gu San did not return.

Only Ye Wangchuan, Qin Si, and Qiao Nian were in the villa.

Qiao Nian was locked in her room. Only Ye Wangchuan and Qin Si were left downstairs.

Ye Wangchuan was fine and did not say that he was hungry.

At first, Qin Si could still wait patiently. Later on, when he was really hungry, he ran to the kitchen to rummage through the cabinets to find convenient food.

He came out after cooking a bowl of instant noodles. His famished heart finally calmed down.

As Qin Si carried the instant noodles to the dining room, he did not forget to ask the man still waiting when he passed by the living room, "Master Wang, do you want a bowl? Where's Sister Qiao? Do you want me to send a bowl of instant noodles up?"

Ye Wangchuan looked at the bowl of instant noodles and then at the time. It was one in the morning. He rubbed the space between his eyebrows. He had a headache, but he still knew the girl's personality. "Eat your food. Don't disturb her."

"What about you? You're not eating either?" Qin Si opened the lid and a fragrance wafted over. He impatiently tore open his chopsticks, pulled out a chair, and sat down.

Then, he asked the thin man, "Are you really not eating?"

Chapter 2368 Sister Nian Didn't Sleep All Night

Ye Wangchuan's eyebrows did not move. His eyelashes were longer than a woman's and were as beautiful as snow. He only raised his eyelids to glance at Qin Si before retracting his gaze. "No. Eat it yourself."

Qiao Nian had not eaten yet, so he would fast with her!

"Oh, alright. You and Sister Qiao are both gods. Neither of you is hungry. But I'm hungry. I'll eat a bowl of instant noodles to fill my stomach first..."

Qin Si guessed that even if he asked further, he would just be reminded of how single he was. Therefore, he was especially smart this time and did not ask Ye Wangchuan why he was not eating.

After saying his piece, he buried his head in the bowl and did not ask anything he should not ask.

The next morning, at eleven o'clock.

Qiao Nian came out of the room, exhausted from not sleeping the entire night. She was carrying a black leather notebook in her hand.

Gu San was preparing lunch. He had just asked Ye Wangchuan if he should prepare Miss Qiao's portion.

Turning around and seeing the girl coming down the stairs, Gu San shouted in surprise, "Miss Qiao, you're out?"

Qin Si had just finished a video conference when he heard Gu San's voice. He immediately came out. "Sister Qiao is out? Where?"

There was no need for Gu San to say anything.

Qin Si saw the person coming down from the second floor.

Qiao Nian was still dressed the same as yesterday. It was obvious that she had not slept the entire night. She exuded the frustration of sleep deprivation.

Qin Si stopped talking upon seeing her.

Ye Wangchuan reacted quickly. He immediately got up and went to the kitchen to get her the milk that had been heated in the microwave. He walked to the girl and handed her the mug. "Drink something warm first. Otherwise, your stomach will feel uncomfortable later."

Qiao Nian took it and found it warm to the touch. Her fatigue lessened a little as she carried the mug to the living room.

She said, "Elder Feng, Grandpa Ye, and the others..."

Ye Wangchuan's heart ached when he saw the green under the girl's eyes. He walked over and said, "They didn't wait for you last night. They went back first."

Qiao Nian rubbed her forehead, feeling a headache. "Yesterday..."

Ye Wangchuan handed her a stomach medicine and lowered his eyes. His deep eyes were filled with gentleness. "I've explained it to Elder Feng and the Old Master for you. They know that you didn't do it on purpose. Before Elder Feng left, he told me to ask you to call him if you found anything. As for the Old Master... You know him. What objections can he have? You don't have to worry about him thinking too much. He's at most afraid that you're too busy and didn't eat well or rest well."

This was not a casual remark. Ye Maoshan called early in the morning to ask him what time Qiao Nian was done.

If he had not changed the topic, with Ye Maoshan's personality, if he had heard that Qiao Nian had not slept the entire night and still had not come out, he would definitely have come to the villa again.

Fortunately, Qiao Nian came out at noon.

"They're flying in the afternoon. Are you seeing them off?" Ye Wangchuan pondered for a moment and was about to say, "Forget it. Rest at home. I'll go in your place..."

Only then did Qiao Nian calm down from her headache. "Aunt Ye and the others are leaving?"

"Mm. They've already settled their matters on the independent continent. It's about time to go back." Ye Wangchuan thought of something. "By the way, the Old Master left Ye Keji and Wang Fei behind. He said that if you need people, they can help a little."

Qiao Nian did not expect Old Master Ye to leave some people behind to help her.

Feng Yu called just as she was thinking about this in a daze.

Chapter 2369 Sister Nian: It's Morse Code

Qiao Nian casually picked it up. Her voice was hoarse from sleep deprivation. "Hello."

Ye Wangchuan saw that she was answering a call and waited.

On the other end of the call, Feng Yu did not know what to say. The girl changed her posture and sat down. She crossed her legs and said with a serious expression, "I just got up. I found it. Wait for me. I'll immediately send it to you."

Found it?

Ye Wangchuan raised his eyebrows and looked at the black leather notebook in her hand.

The notebook was about the size of a palm. It was tightly fastened with a leather clasp. If one did not open it, they would not be able to tell what was inside.

He had just retracted his gaze when the girl's clear voice sounded again. "Okay, I'll hang up first."

Qiao Nian hung up. Then, she undid the leather buckle and opened the notebook...

She had no intention of hiding it the entire time.

She openly displayed the contents of the notebook.

Ye Wangchuan saw dense characters written in black. In the end, they were underlined and summarized into a string of words.

Qiao Nian's handwriting was easy to recognize.

The characters danced in the air. Her style was very strong.

This should be what she had found out last night.

Ye Wangchuan did not deliberately look at it. He was far away and could not see the words clearly.

After doing all this, she closed the notebook and placed it on the sofa beside her.

Qin Si couldn't help but ask, "Sister Qiao, you were working on this last night without sleeping? What's this?"

Qiao Nian put down the notebook and looked up. "Morse code."

"Morse code?" So advanced...

"To be precise, it's a high-level Morse code derived from the principle of Morse code." The girl said casually, "Have you heard of encrypted words?"

"Of course, I've heard of this." Qin Si was from a famous family, after all. He had more or less come into contact with these things, but not much.

Qiao Nian nodded. Her cold white hand pulled down the zipper of her collar as she continued, "In wartime, people often used encrypted words to send messages. These encrypted words are collectively called Morse code. However, ordinary Morse codes are not difficult to solve. The most difficult password is the encrypted words created by a code master based on the principle of Morse code. I usually call these encrypted words "High-level Morse code"! High-level Morse codes are related to one's personal habits. This kind of code is not easy to solve..."

Even she had spent a day and night to barely crack the encrypted text Ji Qing left behind.

Qin Si obviously listened. He used his cell phone to search for information about Morse code.

"You found the encrypted text Auntie left behind?" Ye Wangchuan knew Morse code very well. He looked at the girl and asked in a clear voice.

"I found it." Qiao Nian took out two forms from the compartment of the notebook and handed them to him. "I found this from a registration form. Elder Feng gave me a similar record form previously, but I didn't see anything fishy about it. Yesterday, I had a flash of inspiration and thought of Morse code, so I took it out and tried it. As expected, there are encrypted words inside."

Ye Wangchuan took the two registration forms from her. He saw nothing different about them from their appearance.

Chapter 2370: I Promised to Buy Chen Chen a Model Toy

However, the principle of Morse Code was extremely complicated. It was normal for one not to be able to see anything unusual from the outside.

He looked down at the two forms before returning them to Qiao Nian.

Qiao Nian calmly took them and put them back into the black hard leather notebook. Then, she looked up and asked, "What time are Aunt Ye and the others leaving?"

Ye Wangchuan was still thinking about what she had found out. "Six in the evening. "

Ye Maoshan's original plan was to leave at 2?.30 PM.

Yesterday, he did not wait for Qiao Nian to come out of the villa. When he returned, he changed the time to six in the evening.

He probably wanted to see Qiao Nian before leaving.

Ye Wangchuan could read the Old Master's mind, but he wanted Qiao Nian to rest more.

After all, when they returned to Beijing, the Old Master could meet them however he wanted. There was no need to meet them before leaving.

At this moment, Qiao Nian stood up with her eyes lowered and coolly said,

"There's just enough time. I promised Chen Chen that I would give him a Metaverse model. We'll go shopping in the afternoon so I can buy it. I can pass it to the Old Master and Aunt Ye and ask them to help me send it back to him."

"You're going to send them off?" Ye Wangchuan frowned and stood up with her. Qiao Nian was not short.

However, compared to Ye Wangchuan, who was more than 1.8 meters tall, she was not tall enough.

However, her aura was strong.

In Qin Si's words, she had the aura of a criminal.

Therefore, Qiao Nian had no intention of being suppressed when she stood beside Ye Wangchuan. They were people with strong auras. Standing together, they looked quite harmonious to outsiders.

Qiao Nian put her hand in her pocket and looked away, not looking into his eyes; she was not good at expressing herself. "I'll come back to catch up on my sleep after sending Aunt Ye and the rest off. It won't delay me either."

The corners of Ye Wangchuan's mouth curled up, and the light in his eyes flickered. He looked at the person in front of him without blinking. "Yes, I'll tell the Old Master. He'll definitely be delighted to know that you're sending him off."

"Oh." Qiao Nian avoided his gaze and uncomfortably pulled down the brim of her baseball cap. From her expression, her emotions did not seem to have any fluctuations. She was still as cool as ever.

However, Ye Wangchuan knew that she valued Ye Maoshan and Ye Lan.

He walked to the side to call Old Master Ye.

The atmosphere in the business district of the independent continent was still very rich. This was the center of wealth in the world, so people naturally gathered from all over the world.

After parking the car, Ye Wangchuan acted like a gentleman, opened the door for the girl, and said, "Let's go. We're here."

"Okay." Qiao Nian grabbed her cell phone and got out of the car without taking anything. She walked side by side with him into the mall.

In a high-end restaurant across the street not far from this business district.

The melodious orchestral music in the cafeteria was elegant and charming. One could see the cafeteria's high-end atmosphere.

Ji Ziyin sat by the window and looked at her watch from time to time.

The waiter had already served two cups of coffee.

The coffee in front of Ji Ziyin had already turned cold. She called the waiter to serve new cups of coffee.

When the waiter brought the new coffee, the person she was waiting for appeared in her vision.

"Yiming, over here." Ji Ziyin smiled and raised her hand.

Lu Yiming was dressed casually today and looked especially refreshing. After seeing her, Lu Yiming walked in her direction and stopped at her table. Then, he pulled out the chair opposite her and sat down..
