

Madam's 2421

Chapter 2421 Afraid? She's Not Someone to Be Messed With

Victoria Port, Independent Continent.

The sea breeze blew over the blue sea, causing ripples to appear on the water's surface. Seabirds flew across the sea; from time to time, ferries would sail under the blue sky to their destination...

Everything was calm and beautiful.

Not far away, in a green pickup truck, the burly man stuck his head out and looked outside. "Boss, it doesn't look like anyone's lying in ambush. What's Qiao Nian up to?"

With one hand on the steering wheel, the blond man said, "Calm down."

"Why are you looking around? Are we afraid of a little girl? Your reaction is embarrassing our K Organization!"

The burly man blushed at his rough words. He leaned back in his and retorted in a low voice, "I'm not afraid of her. I just didn't expect her to be so bold as to grab Gu Hengbo in the center of the independent continent."

"Tsk." The blond was chewing gum. He placed one hand outside the car window and did not seem to take it to heart. He only snorted. "Are you afraid?"

The burly man's expression changed and he emphasized his nasal voice in embarrassment. "I said I'm not afraid!"

The blond looked at the agreed place not far away, and his expression turned sloppy. He indifferently said, "She's not someone to be trifled with. But it doesn't matter. We're not people to be trifled with, either!"

The burly man was stunned and fell silent.

"The K Organization has never failed before." The blond spat the gum outside the window and rolled it up. Then, he looked at the burly man in the front passenger seat. "This mission failure can be said to be the shame of the organization. We can't go back to see the leader. What if the leader asks if we know who we lost to? Therefore, we have to at least see Miss Qiao before leaving!"

"Boss, will she ambush us?" The burly man was still worried.

The blond's eyes were filled with confidence. "Don't worry. Our submarine is nearby. She can't make us stay!"

On the side of an abandoned dock in Victoria Harbor.

Gu Hengbo was thrown to the ground.

The girl opened the car's door and leaned against the driver's seat to play with her phone. She had found a baseball cap from somewhere. Now, she lowered the brim of the cap low. Her cold white hand tapped on the phone screen as if she was replying to a message.

"Mo Dong said that they sent Elder Feng to the hospital." Ye Wangchuan had just finished answering the call. He casually turned off his Bluetooth earpiece and turned to talk to the girl.

Qiao Nian was still replying to the message. Hearing this, she casually replied, "OK."

Seeing she was still sending messages, Ye Wangchuan pressed the voice message and spoke briefly to the other party.

He could not hear clearly. He only heard Qiao Nian say something about a submarine.

Soon, the sound of tires rubbing against the asphalt was heard. Close to three green pickup trucks were speeding in their direction.

Lying on the ground like a dead fish, Gu Hengbo immediately started struggling. He stared in anticipation in the car's direction. His mouth was with something, but he still tried to call for help.

Ye Wangchuan looked at him struggling desperately and turned to the girl. "Tsk, do you think he still looks like the person in charge of the Level 5 laboratory in the First Research Institute?"

Finished sending her messages, Qiao Nian put her phone in her pocket. Hearing this, she finally looked at the struggling middle-aged man on the ground.

Chapter 2422 Miss Qiao, This Can Be Considered Our Apology

Indifferent, she calmly said, "He's always been such a person. His aloofness was just a tool for him to gain a reputation. He's always been a cowardly person deep down."

Ye Wangchuan looked at the struggling and squirming man on the ground. He suddenly felt that Qiao Nian's description of him was quite accurate.

Gu Hengbo was actually a typical coward. Otherwise, he would not have asked these people to meet so quickly.

After all, the people from the K Organization were on his side!

Three green pickup trucks quickly stopped around their black SUV, and more than a dozen people got out.

Qiao Nian noticed the blond in the lead with one glance. His cornrow hair did not look outstanding among the dozen or so burly men. He even looked a little weak.

However, Qiao Nian could tell that he was the leader!

Jumping out of the car, she raised her baseball cap, revealing an exquisite and cold face, and spoke to him directly. "K Organization?"

"Tsk." The blond was stunned for a moment. Then, he smiled and said, "You even found out about us?"

However, since Qiao Nian knew who they were, he was even more fearless.

He squatted in front of Gu Hengbo, raised his dirty chin, and looked into his eyes. "Isn't this our dear employer? Why are you in such a sorry state? It'll be very embarrassing for us if word gets out that you ended up like this."

"Oh, sob sob sob!" Gu Hengbo struggled even harder. His eyes were bloodshot as if he were asking the blond to save him quickly.

However, the blond ruthlessly stood up and kicked him, then looked up and asked the girl standing by the car, "We're just doing what we were paid to do. Since you've already caught our employer, why don't you kill him to vent your anger?"

Gu Hengbo could not believe his ears. His struggles weakened.

He couldn't believe that the people from the K Organization would actually instigate Qiao Nian to take his life. This was completely different from his imagination! He thought the people from the K Organization would think of a way to save him from Qiao Nian...

Qiao Nian glanced at Gu Hengbo. "I'm afraid I'll dirty my hands."

The blond nodded in agreement. "That's true."

Then, he raised his hand to instruct his subordinates. "What are you waiting for? Hurry up and settle this matter for Miss Qiao!"

"Yes."

A burly man stepped forward and took out a silencer. He aimed it at the fearful man on the ground, who thought his life was about to end.

"Ah!" Gu Hengbo was gagged, and he could not scream.

He suddenly felt something hit him in the chest. Blood flowed back into his brain, and intense pain, shock, regret, and confusion flashed through his mind. He began to spasm, still unable to believe it...

He was clearly the employer, but these people had killed him!

This was different from the agreement.

They... weren't they his people?

However, it was too late for these questions. He could only feel the blood quickly leaving his body. All his blood seemed about to slip away...

Gu Hengbo slowly fell into darkness, filled with regret and unwillingness.

The blond watched as Gu Hengbo slowly closed his eyes. Then, he indifferently met the girl's cold eyes. Smiling, he said, "Miss Qiao, this can be considered our apology."

Chapter 2423 Since You Know Our Background, Don't Mess With Us

Qiao Nian didn't say anything and just looked at him coldly.

She really did not expect him to kill Gu Hengbo. After all, they were partners. The K Organization was as ruthless as the rumors said. They had no morality.

"Since we've already apologized and everyone has met each other, we'll leave now." The blond raised his hand. Soon, a submarine surfaced on the dock. The others began to evacuate in an orderly manner, and he was the last.

Seeing that they were about to leave, Qiao Nian suddenly called out, "Wait."

The blond stopped and calmly turned to look at her. "Miss Qiao, do you have anything else to say?"

"What's your relationship with the reclusive families?" Qiao Nian went straight to the point.

The blond did not expect her to know about this. He looked into her eyes. After a moment, he retracted his gaze and calmly said, "Since you know that we're related to the reclusive families and you also know of their existence, let's part on good terms. There's no need for you to provoke us. It's also convenient for us to let you off!" This meant that he did not take Qiao Nian seriously.

Qiao Nian's eyebrows raised, and she pushed up her baseball cap. Her eyes seemed to hide a ferocious beast that was about to pounce. "Oh? So you're indeed here because of your relationship with the reclusive families. Is it convenient for me to ask who it is?"

The others had already boarded the submarine. Only the blond remained. Someone called out to him.

After telling them to wait for a moment, the blond man looked at Qiao Nian with a serious expression and said, "Someone you're not qualified to come into contact with."

Qiao Nian nodded. She did not seem to be angry. "I understand."

The blond turned around. As he was about to get into the submarine, he seemed to have thought of something and stopped. Turning around, he asked in surprise, "Aren't you going to try to keep us here?"

He thought that since Qiao Nian called them here, she would at least say something to them or take them down a notch.

Unexpectedly, she only chatted with them for a while before allowing them to leave.

Although the blond didn't think that Qiao Nian had any way of stopping them since the submarine was here, the blond man still felt a little uneasy.

He felt that the other party was not such an easy-going person! Qiao Nian leaned back against the car and calmly said, "No."

The blond looked at her deeply and could not tell what was going on. In addition, his subordinates urged him to enter the submarine.

The blond did not waste any more time. "Miss Qiao, I look forward to our next meeting!"

Qiao Nian watched him get into the submarine. The hatch was closed, and it quickly submerged into the sea, creating little waves on the sea's surface.

She turned to the man standing beside her and asked, "Is he dead?"

Ye Wangchuan knew that she was asking about the unconscious Gu Hengbo. He walked over to check and replied, "He's not dead. The bullet missed his heart. However, he's bleeding too much. He'll die if he doesn't get treatment soon."

Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows. Nodding, she sent a message to Guan Yan to arrange for someone to pick him up.

Then, she looked back at the sea. After a moment, she opened the door, sat in the driver's seat, and sent an order: [Intercept].

Chapter 2424 Is This Something a Normal Person Would Do?!

On the submarine.

The burly man approached the blond man and saw that he was thoughtful. He asked, "Boss, what are you doing? Is something wrong?"

"Did she let us go too easily?" the blond whispered.

The burly man did not think much of it. "Are you talking about Qiao Nian? She knows that we're from the K Organization and that we're related to the reclusive families. She should be afraid."

"That's not right." The blond shook his head and looked at him with bright eyes. "Did you see a hint of fear on her face the entire time?" "Huh?"

"I didn't see any fear on her face. On the contrary, her gaze was calm from the beginning to the end. It was even a little... cold."

The blond almost wanted to say: Qiao Nian looked at us as if we were dead men.

As she was looking at a dead person, she maintained a calm attitude the entire time. Even when they were about to leave, she had no intention of making them stay.

Under such circumstances, even if Qiao Nian knew that she couldn't keep them, she should at least try, right?

This attitude was not in line with the girl's profile.

The burly man asked, "Then why do you think she didn't try to keep us there?"

As they spoke, the computer in the submarine began to show an abnormality in the radio waves. The subordinate at the operating table shouted, "Our signal is jammed."

"What's going on!" Tossing Qiao Nian to the back of his mind, the blond quickly walked over and asked his subordinates to try to connect to the Internet.

His subordinate quickly tried it.

At this moment, the blond came back to his senses and recalled Qiao Nian's profile information. He was stunned for a second and then muttered, "Is this why she let us go?"

Qiao Nian was a computer expert and the uncrowned king of hackers. She indeed had the ability to hack into their operating system remotely.

However, their submarine was one of the most advanced at the moment. If the submarine's power was cut, the basic operating equipment could still function, and the submarine would not be affected. They could still activate this equipment.

The blond was wondering if Qiao Nian had underestimated their K Organization.

"Start the basic equipment!" He instructed his two subordinates.

The two of them quickly went to do it.

The submarine's alarm system sounded at this moment.

A red dot appeared on the screen of the operating table, less than ten nautical miles away from them. The red dot was quickly approaching...

The man sitting at the operating table, responsible for reconnecting to the Internet, saw the red dot and quickly reached for the radar camera to see what it was.

As soon as he saw the 'thing' that appeared on the screen, his expression instantly changed. "Boss, it's, it's an interceptor missile!" The blond's expression changed drastically. He suddenly propped himself up on the operating table and stared intently at the missile model on the screen. It was something even he had never seen before. He opened his mouth but was completely speechless.

-Is this f*cking something a normal person would play with!?

Seeing the red dot flashing faster and faster on the screen, the blond immediately ordered with a livid expression, "Quick, let's escape the submarine."

"Everyone, go to the escape pods. Don't take anything. If anyone escapes, it's one..."

Chapter 2425 Who Dares to Make a Move in Victoria Harbor?

A huge wave suddenly rose on the calm sea surface of Victoria Harbor, followed by a muffled explosion.

"Boom!"

The explosion was huge.

The entire high seas domain of the independent continent fell silent. Right after, a commotion ensued at the busy docks.

"Look over there!"

"What happened?"

"Heavens, what's that?"

After a short moment of calm, the birds on the sea level flew up in panic.

Just 300 kilometers away from Victoria Harbor, a submarine was blown up from the bottom of the sea by a missile.

The submarine was blown into countless pieces by a super powerful missile in everyone's vision!

Ye Wangchuan looked at the geyser of water and narrowed his eyes. He turned to look at the girl and asked in a slightly hoarse voice, "A new weapon?"

Unaffected by the explosion, Qiao Nian looked at the overturned submarine not far away and then retracted her gaze. She hummed as she got into the car. "You can say so."

"A submersible missile that can accurately detect targets. I've added radioactive elements to it. They'll have to pay the price even if they run." She buckled herself.

Her phone lit up. Picking it up, she saw that it was a message from Guan Yan.

[Picture.gdp]

Qiao Nian clicked on it.

Xu Yi's handsome face could no longer be seen. His face was covered in bruises. The blond and his subordinates had been quite ruthless.

"Tsk." Qiao Nian looked at the picture with hostility. The corners of her mouth twitched as she looked at the sea. Nothing could be seen anymore.

She didn't know how many people from the blond's group had escaped, but just as she had said, even if they successfully escaped, they would still have to pay a painful price!

Guan Yan quickly replied.

Qiao Nian put down her phone without looking at Guan Yan's message. Then, she grabbed her shoulder bag from the back, unzipped it, and took out her laptop, placing it on her lap.

The computer was turned on quickly. Qiao Nian opened the web browser and entered a name on the search bar.

Yu Qingliu was from a reclusive family.

Martin had told Feng Yu about this person.

She wanted to investigate the background of this reclusive family!

Ye Wangchuan saw that she was focused on the computer and did not disturb her. He waited for Qiao Nian to investigate quietly.

He saw that Qiao Nian had deciphered several databases. After a dazzling series of complicated codes, the girl hit the Enter key.

Next was to wait calmly.

The progress bar did not make them wait long. Soon, it jumped to 100%. A location flashed on the map.

With cold eyes, Qiao Nian slowly put away her computer and said, "Let's go. It's time for us to visit the people from the reclusive families."

"There was a huge explosion in Victoria Harbor?"

"Who dares to openly attack in the high seas of the independent continent?!"

"What day is it today... Just now, someone caused trouble in the city center and rammed into Gu Hengbo's car. Then, someone caused trouble on the high seas. Don't they know that there's an unwritten rule in the independent continent—no faction is allowed to cause trouble on the high seas?"

The news of the unknown explosion at Victoria Harbor spread throughout the independent continent in less than an hour.

Chapter 2426 Sister Nian Directly Goes Looking for Him!

The various large factions of the independent continent were shocked. The moment they received the news, they sent people out to investigate the situation.

Soon, they received first-hand information.

This time, the explosion was from a new type of lethal weapon that had never been seen before.

All the major factions grew careful. They could not wait to find out who was behind it.

Usually, new weapons could only appear in the First Research Institute. However, in the past 20 years, large-scale weapons rarely appeared in the First Research Institute under Feng Yu's management.

Even the former number one weapon manufacturer of the research institute, Xie Tingyun, retired and never left her house... At this moment, a knife hung in the hearts of the various large factions of the independent continent.

Who would be so generous as to create a new missile and blow up a submarine in Victoria Harbor!? They had to get this talent.

In Yu Qingliu's villa.

He was the first to receive news of the explosion in Victoria Harbor.

Yu Qingliu abruptly stood up and looked at his subordinate with a livid expression. His eyes were filled with disbelief. "What did you say?! Someone attacked Victoria Harbor?"

"Yes, Elder Yu." The man in black lowered his head and answered without looking up.

Yu Qingliu used the sofa for support, unable to come back to his senses for some time. "Is she crazy? She even dares to make a move on the high seas of the independent continent.

"Also, does she know the background of the people she attacked? She even dares to provoke the K Organization. Does she want to die?"

The man in black did not say anything and kept his head lowered respectfully.

Yu Qingliu was not talking to him. He was muttering to himself... He had indeed never thought that Qiao Nian would dare to do this.

He had also received news that Qiao Nian had crashed into Gu Hengbo's car in the city center, but Yu Qingliu did not take it to heart.

It was just Gu Hengbo.

He treated the other party as an abandoned pawn from the beginning.

From the moment Gu Hengbo looked for the K Organization and asked them to attack Feng Yu, he had already removed himself from this muddy water... After all, regardless of whether this matter succeeded or not, Gu Hengbo and the Gu family were destined to fall...

"She also used a new weapon," the man in black whispered. "It looks like an interceptor missile that hasn't been seen on the market."

Yu Qingliu looked at him in shock.

The man in black only told him what he knew. He did not say anything else.

Yu Qingliu took a deep breath and adjusted his mood. Just as he was about to instruct him to investigate again, he paused and said, "Wait a moment..."

At this moment, a subordinate quickly ran in. "Elder Yu, someone outside wants to see you."

"Huh!" Yu Qingliu was still in a fit of anger. Now interrupted, his anger naturally erupted. He sneered and said, "They can see me just because they want to? Since when did my place become a market where anyone can come?"

His subordinate was so frightened that he started trembling. Then, he mustered his courage and whispered, "Elder Yu, the other party said that you would definitely be willing to see her."

Yu Qingliu's face was ashen. "Get out!"

He gritted his teeth and added, "S-She said her name is Qiao Nian." Then, he turned to leave.

"Stop!" Yu Qingliu called him back before he left. His expression changed again and again. Finally, he calmed down and said in a deep voice, "Let her in."

Chapter 2427 It's Impossible for Martin to Attack Feng Yu. It's Clear Who's Behind It

It was almost evening when Qiao Nian left Yu Qingliu's villa.

The afterglow of the setting sun was especially beautiful as the burning clouds set in the sky.

Ye Wangchuan had been waiting for her outside.

The afterglow of the setting sun fell on his beige windbreaker, making his face appear gloomy. His eyes were lowered and he was playing with a lighter.

Coincidentally, Qiao Nian came out. Seeing the girl coming out of the villa from the corner of his eye, he put away the lighter and walked towards her. "How was your conversation?"

"He's a sly old fox." Qiao Nian shrugged, her expression relaxed. No emotions could be seen on her face. "I asked him about his relationship with the K Organization. He only admitted that the K Organization is related to the reclusive families to a certain extent, but he didn't admit involvement in this accident."

However, Ye Wangchuan caught a flash of frustration in her eyes. He raised his eyebrows. He could basically guess how unsuccessful their conversation was.

Qiao Nian didn't take it to heart. She opened the car's door and threw her shoulder bag inside. Then, she turned around with a trace of arrogance in her eyes. "But I wasn't expecting him to admit it. It doesn't matter if he admits it or not. I've already installed a listening system on his cell phone and computer. I can remotely control his devices in the future."

Ye Wangchuan walked to the driver's seat. Having just opened the door, he was stunned for a moment. "You..."

"I brought my computer in." Qiao Nian seemed to know what he was going to say and beat him to it. "The Internet and Bluetooth are everywhere now. I don't need to operate it myself. I just need some time for Guan Yan to operate it remotely through my computer."

Ye Wangchuan roughly understood the principle. It was actually Guan Yan who remotely manipulated her computer and hacked Yu Qingliu's computer and cell phone.

"Do you think there's something wrong with Yu Qingliu?" He looked up and asked.

Qiao Nian said without hesitation, "There must be! Gu Hengbo can't hire the K Organization unless someone pulls the strings for him. This person's identity must not be simple. At the very least, the K Organization has to give him face. Other than people from the reclusive families, no one else has the ability."

"Martin and Feng Yu have been friends for many years. Martin wouldn't do such a thing. It's clear who's behind it."

Qiao Nian had already gotten into the car and sat in her seat. She fastened her seatbelt and lowered her eyes, unable to suppress her bloodlust. "As for himself... he probably didn't expect me to find his place. He looked very calm, as if he knew me."

Qiao Nian glanced at him and slowly said, "This person has just come to the independent continent and has never interacted with me. Where did he get to know me?"

Ye Wangchuan also got into the car and closed the door. Hearing this, his lips curled up and he tacitly answered, "You mean he found out about you from Gu Hengbo?"

"No." The girl's sitting posture was casual, or rather, like a big boss.

She looked at him sideways and casually said, "He's here for me!"

"Gu Hengbo is just one of his pawns. He originally wanted to contact the K Organization through Gu Hengbo to attack me. Who knew that Gu Hengbo would go after my teacher and even mess things up in the end..."

Chapter 2428 Feng Yu's Condition Isn't Good

Qiao Nian reckoned that Yu Qingliu and the reclusive families had yet to figure out who was the prey and who was the hunter!

Not wanting to continue dwelling on this matter, she said in a low voice, "I only came to see him today to meet him so that he won't think that I don't know about his existence. In the future, everyone will act openly. He's a smart person and should understand what I mean."

Those who knew her well knew her bottom line.

Yu Qingliu had just arrived at the independent continent and might not know the situation yet.

However, she believed that after this incident, Yu Qingliu should understand where her bottom line was and would not easily attack her people!

At this thought, Qiao Nian frowned and said to Ye Wangchuan, "Let's go to the hospital!"

"Mm."

Ye Wangchuan fastened his seatbelt without saying much. He placed his hand on the steering wheel, stepped on the accelerator, the car turned around, and drove towards the hospital.

In front of the study window on the second floor of the villa.

Yu Qingliu looked as the SUV gradually drove away. His eyes were so dark that it seemed like they could drip water.

Without another word, he returned to his desk, picked up the landline phone on the desk, and made a call.

"Hello, Elder Yu?"

The voice on the other end of the call quickly pulled his consciousness back to reality. Yu Qingliu did not waste any time. "Can you make the new weapons based on the research blueprints you sent to my email?"

Ji Ziyin did not understand why he suddenly asked this. She carefully said, "Of course. But this will take time and some manpower. I definitely can't do it alone. Also, the independent continent doesn't allow private research on weapons..."

"That's enough." Yu Qingliu interrupted her and then ordered coldly, "I'll arrange the manpower and a testing ground for you. Make what I want as soon as possible!"

"But..."

Yu Qingliu impatiently said, "Ji Ziyin, since you want to get benefits from me, you have to show your 'sincerity'.

"The reclusive families will not support a cripple!

"If you can't let me see your value, I won't support a piece of trash. Do you understand?"

"I... understand," the female voice said softly.

Yu Qingliu's heaving chest finally found a place to settle down. His mood improved a little, so his voice softened. "Wait for my arrangements."

With that, he hung up.

Then, he paced back and forth in the study room. After hesitating for a moment, he took out an old-fashioned cell phone from the drawer and called the only number in the contact list.

***

In the hospital.

Feng Yu had already been in the operating room for some time.

Xu Yi and Qin Si were not seriously injured, and they were still young. After getting their wounds treated, they waited in the corridor for Feng Yu's surgery to end.

Other than them, Mo Dong was also there. In addition, Guan Yan was leaning against a staircase at the corner, waiting for news.

As she was standing close to the elevator, she immediately saw Qiao Nian coming out of it. She put away her cell phone and followed her. "Boss, he's been in for more than three hours and hasn't come out yet. I'm afraid his condition isn't good."

Qiao Nian stopped in her tracks and looked at her sideways.

Guan Yan rubbed the space between her eyebrows and looked at her with her beautiful eyes, saying, "A doctor came out halfway. He said that the patient's thigh was seriously injured. He's afraid it's not optimistic."

Chapter 2429 The Doctor Said He Might Have to... Amputate

Qin Si, Mo Dong, and the others also saw the girl rushing over from the elevator.

Qin Si's elbow was bandaged tightly. He was sitting in a wheelchair outside the operating room and receiving an IV. Seeing Qiao Nian, he struggled to get up as he said to the girl, "Sister Qiao, I'm sorry. I didn't take good care of Elder Feng. I let something like this happen to him. I..."

"You're still on the infusion. Don't be agitated." Xu Yi pressed his shoulder and made him sit down. Then, he calmly said to Qiao Nian, "The dean is still in the operating room. His condition isn't good."

"I know." Qiao Nian nodded, indicating that she already knew. Then, she sized up the two injured people. "What about the two of you? Are you alright?"

Xu Yi shrugged. "I'm fine. It's just that my mother was frightened."

Qiao Nian looked at the man in the wheelchair, who appeared even worse. "Are you alright?"

Qin Si first shook his head, then worriedly said, "The doctor said that Elder Feng..."

"On my way here, Guan Yan already told me that his thigh is fractured and he's bleeding internally. The situation isn't optimistic, right?" Qiao Nian said.

Qin Si had been guarding outside. Hearing this, his handsome face became even more guilty. "The doctor said that he might have to... amputate his leg."

Qiao Nian nodded.

Qin Si punched his leg and hugged his head, groaning in pain. "If I had brought Elder Feng to the hospital earlier, his injury wouldn't have worsened like this."

Someone patted his shoulder.

Qin Si calmed down for some reason. He looked up and met the girl's dark eyes. Stunned, he heard the girl's reassuring voice. "Don't worry. I'm here."

Qin Si was dazed. "Sister Qiao, you..."

However, Qiao Nian smiled confidently and said, "Don't forget, I'm also a doctor."

Qin Si's sluggish mind finally came to a realization. He had been so driven by self-blame and guilt that he only now remembered that Qiao Nian was a doctor. And not an ordinary doctor at that!

At this moment, the door of the operating theater opened again. The chief surgeon came out with a sweat-covered forehead. He looked at everyone and then directly asked, "Who's the patient's family member? Come here for a moment."

"I'm his family."

Qiao Nian walked past the others and asked with a dark expression, "How's my teacher's condition?"

"His left femur is fractured, and there's also a steel rebar fragment puncture at his knee accompanied by a tear in the ligament. Moreover, the best surgery time was delayed and the patient is relatively old... After discussion, we came to a comprehensive conclusion-amputation.

"Amputation is the fastest and best way to save the patient's life. It'll also deal with it once and for all. It can avoid unnecessary complications in the future."

"The surgery requires the signature of the patient's family. This is the notice detailing the risks." The doctor took out a contract and handed it to Qiao Nian. He also took out a fountain pen from his chest pocket and handed it to her. "Take a look and see if there are any problems. If there are no problems, sign it."

Qiao Nian took the notice and pen from him, then looked up and said, "I'm sorry, I'm also a doctor. I want to perform this surgery."

"You're a doctor?" The chief surgeon clearly did not understand the situation. He was shocked and could not react for some time.

Chapter 2430 You're Looking for the Dean? He's Not Here

Ye Wangchuan walked over and politely said, "Doctor, let's talk over there."

Feng Yu's chief surgeon saw that he was dressed in extraordinary clothes and looked at the people in the corridor. He hesitated for a moment before following him.

Ten minutes later.

Ye Wangchuan and the chief surgeon returned.

The chief surgeon's attitude had turned around. He walked up to Qiao Nian and said, "I'll prepare the operating room. The surgery will begin in 20 minutes. Is that okay?"

"Sure."

Qiao Nian took off the black rubber band on her wrist and tied up her hair. Then, she handed her shoulder bag to the handsome man and looked up. "Thank you."

Ye Wangchuan skillfully took her bag, curled his lips, and said, "Don't worry. I've already suppressed the news of Elder Feng being hospitalized. No one in the First Research Institute knows about this, and those who know won't tell anyone."

Feng Yu was the dean of the First Research Institute. If news of him being attacked and almost losing his life spread, someone would definitely take the opportunity to cause trouble.

Thus, Ye Wangchuan suppressed the news in advance.

Therefore, so far, other than Xu Yi, no one in the First Research Institute, including Shi Fu, knew anything about this.

"Also, I asked Mo Xi to keep an eye on the Gu family."

Qiao Nian did not expect him to even think of this.

He continued, "Before Elder Feng wakes up, no one from the Gu family can escape. I think the same way as you. Leave Gu Hengbo to Elder Feng to deal with himself."

The ice in Qiao Nian's eyes melted, and her gaze warmed. She pursed her lips and looked at him. This time, she said with sincerity, "Thank you."

"Oh." Qiao Nian thanked him twice in a row. Ye Wangchuan chuckled and said in a low voice, "It's about time. Go change."

"Yeah."

Qiao Nian looked around. The doctors and nurses had begun to prepare for the surgery. She had to go in and change into sterile surgical gowns, disinfect her hands, and prepare.

There was a lot of preparation work before the surgery.

She could not waste any more time.

Hence, Qiao Nian did not stay any longer. She left the outside situation to him and entered the operating room alone.

The operating room did not allow visits. Secondly, to maintain the sterile environment, the door would not be opened to outsiders.

Hence, the moment she entered, the door was closed again. A red "Operation Ongoing, Do Not Disturb" lit up above.

Outside.

The sky was gray.

Shi Fu had not contacted Feng Yu for a day. Just as he walked out of Feng Yu's office, he bumped into Zhou Zhou and the person in charge of the Level 2 laboratory.

They greeted him.

Seeing that they seemed to be looking for Feng Yu, Shi Fu called out to them, "Are you looking for the dean?"

Zhou Zhou stopped in her tracks. She turned around and looked at him in confusion.

Shi Fu calmly explained, "I'm also looking for the dean for something, but unfortunately, he's not around."

"The dean isn't here?" Zhou Zhou frowned as if she had a headache.

She said to the person in charge of the Level 2 laboratory, "Go back. I'll talk to the Deputy Director."

The person in charge of the Level 2 laboratory came to report to Feng Yu about a new project. It was not a big deal. He just bumped into Zhou Zhou on the way and they came together.

Seeing that Zhou Zhou and Shi Fu had something to say, he said tactfully to the two of them, "Then you guys chat. I'll go back to the laboratory."
