

Madam's 2461

Chapter 2461 This Is Nian Nian, Right?

The next day, Qiao Nian went to the hospital to visit Feng Yu.

She heard a solicitous voice as soon as she walked into the ward. "This is Nian Nian, right?"

Qiao Nian looked up and saw an old lady in her seventies. Her silver hair was neatly combed into a bun and pressed down with a jade hairpin.

She was wearing a Chinese suit embroidered with auspicious clouds. The buttoned suit looked exceptionally dignified. The old lady even tastefully wore a pearl necklace to suppress her nobility.

The three-layered pearls were all about the same size. They were round and bright deep-sea pearls. They were obviously expensive.

While she sized up the old lady, the other party also looked at her.

She noted that Qiao Nian was wearing ordinary clothes. Other than her good looks, there was nothing special about her. She was also wearing a hoodie of an unknown brand. She smiled and waved at Qiao Nian. "What a good-looking girl. Nian Nian, come over quickly and let me take a good look at you."

Qiao Nian casually walked over with raised brows. She looked at the bedridden Feng Yu as if asking who this person was.

Feng Yu had a headache. He propped himself up and reclined on the pillow. Then, he smiled and introduced the old lady. "Qiao Nian, this is Madam Lu."

Seemingly afraid that Qiao Nian did not know who Old Madam Lu was, he thought for a moment before adding, "Old Madam Lu is Lu Zhi's Grandma."

Qiao Nian's expression turned to understanding. On account of Lu Zhi, she greeted the other party politely, "Hello, Qiao Nian."

Madam Lu did not show much expression. She grabbed her hand and sized her up carefully. Then, with an amiable smile, she said, "Xiao Zhi often mentions you. You're really good-looking. No wonder that young brat likes you."

There was a light knock on the door before she could finish speaking.

Feng Yu's frown disappeared the moment he saw who it was. He took the initiative to call the person in. "Xiao Ye, you're here too."

"Nian Nian bought you some fruits. I took some time to bring them." He placed the bags of fruits and health supplements on the bedside table.

Then, he turned around and looked at Madam Lu. His gaze slid down and landed on the girl's hand that the old lady was holding. He smiled and ambiguously said, "Looks like I came at the wrong time..."

"It's the right time. Why wouldn't it be?" After he finished speaking with a smile, Feng Yu turned to the enthusiastic Madam Lu, as if embarrassed. "Let me introduce you. This is Shi Fu's student, Xiao Ye. Xiao Ye is also from Beijing. He's Nian Nian's boyfriend."

Madam Lu's expression immediately turned ugly. She sized up the man in front of her.

The man was tall and elegant. He wore a white shirt under his windbreaker. This person was not inferior to Lu Zhi in terms of appearance and facial features. His aura was even on par with Lu Zhi's...

For a moment, Madam Lu could not figure out who the other party was.

As she was deep in thought, Ye Wangchuan was the first to break the awkwardness. He greeted her unhurriedly, "Matriarch Lu."

Madam Lu subconsciously let go of Qiao Nian's hand and awkwardly said, "I knew it. Nian Nian is so good-looking. How can she not have a boyfriend? Indeed, having a boyfriend is not bad."

Qiao Nian ignored her and went out to find the doctor to ask about Feng Yu's condition. She found out from the doctor that Feng Yu was recovering well.

She then looked at the medical report.

Qiao Nian was relieved upon seeing that all the health data parameters had stabilized.

Chapter 2462 The Embarrassed Matriarch Lu

In the ward.

Only Madam Lu, Feng Yu, and Ye Wangchuan were left.

Madam Lu pulled over a chair and sat in front of the bed, looking at the man peeling fruits for Feng Yu.

She saw that the man was only looking down and peeling fruits seriously.

Finally, she couldn't help but say, "Elder Feng, you know why I'm here. We've known each other for decades. I've risked my old face to beg you today. Can you help me get Qiao..."

Feng Yu interrupted her, "It's not that I don't want to help you. This matter involves her. Even if I'm her teacher, I can't make the decision for her."

"But as long as you speak to her, I believe..." Old Madam Lu did not finish her sentence.

Feng Yu sternly rejected her again. "Matriarch Lu, I've made it very clear. If this was my matter, I would definitely give in on account of our many years of acquaintance, but this matter involves..."

He looked at the man who was still peeling fruits with his head lowered. Rubbing his eyebrows, he looked at Old Madam Lu firmly and bluntly said, "This matter involves Qiao Nian. I can't make the decision for her."

"If you really want her help, you can talk to her nicely. If she's willing to help you, she'll help you. If she's not willing to help you, there's nothing I can do."

Ye Wangchuan finished peeling the orange and cut it into small pieces on a plate. Then, he handed the plate to Feng Yu and lazily said, "Elder Feng, eat this orange."

Feng Yu's mouth twitched. He touched his nose and took the plate from him. His heart was a mess, afraid that this kid would think that he had called Old Madam Lu here.

He did not immediately eat the orange. Instead, he looked at Old Madam Lu solemnly again.

He continued, "I don't know what Lu Yiming did to make Lu Zhi angry, but in the end, this is your Lu family's matter. I'm unwilling to let my disciple involve herself in this matter. I hope you can understand my painstaking efforts."

Old Madam Lu was speechless and could only sit there awkwardly.

After a while, Qiao Nian brought the doctor back to the ward to check on Feng Yu.

Old Madam Lu made an excuse and left first.

None of the three people in the ward asked her to stay.

Feng Yu was recovering well. After more than 10 days, his thigh wound had already begun to scab.

The doctor gave him a routine checkup and then handed the freshly printed report to Qiao Nian.

Qiao Nian compared it carefully and was slightly relieved after confirming Feng Yu's physical condition.

After sending the doctor away, she returned and said to the person lying on the bed, "You can be discharged after lying for another half a month."

"... Another half a month?" Feng Yu's back had been sticky recently. Upon hearing the girl say that he still had to lie in bed for another half-month, his heart turned cold and he revealed a bitter expression. He was very unhappy.

Qiao Nian casually put her hands in her pockets. She thought for a moment and then said, "You can be discharged early if you want. Coincidentally, there are still many projects waiting for your approval at the First Research Institute."

"Forget it." Feng Yu immediately laid down with his hand on his waist. "I'd better lie down again. I'm old and can't take it anymore. I should recover first before being discharged."

Qiao Nian was not surprised. She pulled down her baseball cap and said to the lazy old man, "I'll go back now since you're fine."

Chapter 2463 Just Say What You Want to Say

Feng Yu reluctantly turned around. "You're leaving?"

Pouring him a glass of water and placing it on the bedside table, Ye Wangchuan said gently and elegantly, "I'll visit you another day."

Feng Yu looked at him and then at the girl; he noticed how tired she looked. Finally, he nodded. "Alright, you guys can go back first."

"I'm leaving." Qiao Nian was not good at expressing her emotions. She only waved her hand and turned to leave.

Feng Yu stopped her. "Nian Nian, wait a moment."

Qiao Nian stopped in her tracks and turned around patiently. She looked at him with her dark eyes.

Feng Yu worriedly reminded her, "Don't take to heart what Old Madam Lu said just now. Also, if you don't have time to deal with the research institute, you can leave it to Shi Fu. If he can't make a decision, ask him to postpone it until I'm discharged."

"Don't take it all on yourself."

In the end, Qiao Nian was only 20 years old.

At this age, he did not know anything and relied on other people to live.

Feng Yu looked at the determined expression on the girl's face and sighed with emotion.

Qiao Nian was only 20 years old, but she had already endured too much...

Qiao Nian looked at him deeply, lowered her eyelashes, and nodded slightly. "Got it."

Feng Yu smiled and waved his hand. "Go on."

* * *

Outside the hospital.

Qiao Nian had just come out of the hospital when Ye Wangchuan said to her, "Wait for me at the intersection. I'll get the car."

"Mm." The girl had no objections.

He grabbed his car keys and went to the parking lot.

As soon as he left, a voice came from behind Qiao Nian. "Nian Nian."

She turned around and saw Old Madam Lu, whom she had seen in Feng Yu's ward. It seemed like she had been waiting for her outside.

A familiar person was beside Old Madam Lu. It was Lu Yiming.

Lu Yiming was much more dispirited than the last time she saw him. His entire person had dimmed, and even his eyes had become timid and flickering.

Qiao Nian's eyes turned cold when she saw them walking towards her. Suppressing her frustration, she politely asked, "What's the matter?"

Just like Lu Yiming last time, Old Madam Lu invited, "There's a place over there. Nian Nian, why don't we go over and chat?"

She thought that Qiao Nian would not reject an invitation from an elder.

Unexpectedly, the girl rejected her bluntly. "My friend is bringing the car. Just say what you want to say."

Old Madam Lu's expression was awkward after being slapped in the face. Suppressing her displeasure and with twitching eyelids, she forced a smile and kindly said, "I see... Then, I'll be straightforward. Nian Nian, you have a good relationship with Lu Zhi, right? The last time Yiming went to look for you, Lu Zhi was very angry. He called us and scolded us about it. I'll teach Yiming a lesson..."

Annoyed, Qiao Nian suppressed her frustration and said, "Matriarch Lu, if you have something to say, just say it."

Old Madam Lu's expression became even more awkward. She blushed slightly and endured it. "I hope you can tell Lu Zhi that Yiming didn't say anything to you and ask him not to be angry with the family."

Qiao Nian had long known that Old Madam Lu wouldn't come to her for a trivial matter. As expected, the other party's request...

She raised her chin slightly, revealing an exquisite and eye-catching face under her baseball cap. The shape of her eyes was slightly upturned, and the corners of her eyes were long. Therefore, when she stared at someone, she always gave off a sharp and oppressive aura!

Chapter 2464 Master Wang: Lu Zhi Is Your 'Good Friend'?

Old Madam Lu also felt this pressure. She was surprised that Qiao Nian, who looked so young, actually exuded such pressure.

While she was surprised, the girl indifferently said, "Matriarch Lu, I'm not familiar with you and Lu Yiming, and I don't know anyone from the Lu family. Lu Zhi is my friend. I'll definitely stand on my friend's side!

"If you want to tell him anything, you can tell him yourself."

Old Madam Lu's expression changed.

She was angry and anxious.

If she could contact Lu Zhi, why would she come to Feng Yu to look for her?

She wanted Qiao Nian to call Lu Zhi because she could not contact him!

She did not expect Qiao Nian to reject her mercilessly and even say that there was no room for negotiation.

"Qiao..."

A black SUV slowly stopped in front of them. The window rolled down, revealing the man's overly cold face. "Get in."

"Mm." The girl opened the door and got in without looking back. The vehicle kicked up a cloud of dust as it left the hospital.

In the car.

Ye Wangchuan placed his hand on the stick shift, revealing a fair wrist bone. The string of dark prayer beads on his wrist did not conflict with his aura at all.

He glanced at the girl in the passenger seat and lazily asked, "What did they want to talk to you about?"

The girl had already taken out her phone and was playing with it. Slowly raising her head to look at him, she thought for a moment with pursed lips. "Nothing, they just wanted me to call Lu Zhi."

Sizzle-

The wheels of the SUV screeched to a halt at the flower bed by the side of the road.

Ye Wangchuan's long eyelashes covered his eyes. His eyes were deep, and his voice was low and hoarse. "So Nian Nian has a good relationship with Lu Zhi?"

Qiao Nian had almost hit her head. Fortunately, she was quick enough to hold on to the handle at the side. She saw from the man's expression that he was concerned.

She was stunned for a moment before answering honestly, "Our relationship is alright."

Ye Wangchuan suspected that she wanted to anger him to death, but he did not have any evidence and could not bear to flare up. For a moment, he did not know what to say.

"I've known him for many years." Qiao Nian belatedly realized why his reaction was so big. Her half-closed eyes were a little sleepy, but she looked at him seriously. "But it's not the kind of relationship you think. We're just friends."

Ye Wangchuan's tense heart completely relaxed when she defined Lu Zhi as a friend. "Just a friend?"

"Hm?" Qiao Nian glanced at him. She propped her chin up with her cold white hand and looked like she was thinking seriously. Then, she met his eyes and added with a serious expression, "Good friend, I guess."

He could forget it if they were friends.

But good friends!

Ye Wangchuan did not forget that he had been her 'good friend' for more than a year before he became an official boyfriend, even though he had courted death.

His eyelids twitched uncontrollably, and his voice became even hoarser. "Really just friends?"

Or what?

Qiao Nian glanced at him and roughly understood what he was trying to say. She sneered. "Just a good friend. When did you become so unconfident?"

So many girls in Beijing were queuing up to pursue Young Master Ye. For example, Jiang Xianrou and Yang Liu...

She wasn't worried, but he was.

Chapter 2465 Big Boss, I Heard There's an Additional Man in Your Home

Qiao Nian rubbed her forehead. She had a headache because of him now. "I've known him for many years. If I really have to make it clear, we're probably... life-and-death friends?"

Ye Wangchuan's eyelids twitched again. He let out a shaky breath and said with a helpless expression, "Forget it. I shouldn't have asked. I'm just asking to anger myself to death."

Qiao Nian glanced at him and then lowered her head to play with her cell phone.

Ye Wangchuan started the car and started driving again. Looking at the scenery speeding past on both sides, he pretended to mention it casually. "A dangerous person has recently come to the independent continent."

D sent her another message.

Qiao Nian was reading D's message, so she nodded without looking up.

Ye Wangchuan thought that she was interested, so he continued, "It's a weapons dealer active in Continent F. It's said that he has a large number of weapons, including modern high-tech weapons like LW30 laser weapons."

D was asking if she had received the parcel.

Qiao Nian had just finished editing the message and replied. Hearing this, she looked up at him with a pair of cold eyes. She did not seem surprised to hear about such a person and replied casually, "Oh."

Ye Wangchuan thought of something when he heard her absent-minded reply. The frustration between his eyebrows dissipated, and a smile appeared in his eyes. He continued, "It's said that this arms dealer has a very powerful new weapon. The Ji family and Yu Qingliu have already received the news. The other people in the independent continent who have received the news have also begun to stir, wanting to be the first to rope in this mysterious arms dealer."

Qiao Nian listened attentively. Coincidentally, her cell phone lit up again. There was a new message. She looked down.

Ye Wangchuan happened to see a little.

It seemed that someone called D was looking for her.

D?

He frowned slightly. He vaguely felt that this initial was familiar, but he could not figure out who it was.

Qiao Nian opened WeChat with her cold and fair hand. It was a new message from D. This time, it was not a concise and businesslike tone.

[Big boss, I heard that there's an additional man in your home?]

Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows and rudely muted the other party. Then, she put away her cell phone and casually replied, "Many people want to rope this person in?"

Ye Wangchuan quickly pulled his attention back to the road. Meeting the girl's gaze, he chuckled and said in a slightly frivolous tone, "Who doesn't want to know another weapon supplier? Moreover, this person has many large-scale new weapons that are not available on the market. With such conditions in front of their eyes, even those who weren't tempted before are tempted now."

"Oh, is that so?" Qiao Nian only casually lowered her eyelashes. As if not tempted, she opened the game on her cell phone and started another round...

On the other side, in a certain unregulated area of the independent continent.

A stubbled man swaggered into the most expensive suite here. After he moved in, the hotel was tightly controlled.

He stayed in the most luxurious suite on the top floor. He first took a shower and shaved his beard in front of the mirror, revealing a strong face. Then, he came out of the bathroom in satisfaction. He walked to the table, picked up the bowl containing the instant noodles, and threw it aside. The instant noodles emitted a hot fragrance.

Then, he looked at his cell phone.

Chapter 2466 Yu Qingliu Is Slapped in the Face

Qiao Nian still hadn't replied to the message he sent before he took a shower.

[D: Big boss, I heard that there's an additional man in your home?]

The profile picture on the other side was silent.

She had no intention of replying to him.

He was not angry. He even grinned and muttered to himself, "Looks like what Guan Yan and the others said in the group is true."

Someone suddenly knocked on the door and entered.

The man restrained his smile, picked up the bowl of instant noodles, and said, "Come in."

Someone entered.

Soon, he walked in front of him and stood respectfully.

"What's the matter?"

Seeing that he was eating instant noodles, the man quickly said, "Boss, someone is looking for you outside. I think his name is... Yu Qingliu. He said he wants to discuss business with you."

The man put down the bowl and looked up, showing an impatient expression. He retorted, "What Yu Qingliu? Can't you see that I'm eating? I'm not free!"

That person was sensible and immediately said, "Then I'll tell him to leave."

The man wiped his mouth and called out, "Wait."

His subordinate immediately stopped and waited for his order.

He seemed to have just remembered why the name Yu Qingliu sounded so familiar. Wasn't he from the reclusive families?

The corners of his mouth twitched, and a trace of disdain flashed across his eyes. He took out a tissue paper and wiped his mouth, then casually said, "Tell him that our transactions with the reclusive families have always been with Martin. It's against the rules for him to interfere like this. If he insists on interfering, ask him to bring the reclusive families' seal as proof of the change in contact. If he does, I'll chat with him."

"Yes." His subordinate silently memorized his words.

"You may leave." The man gestured for him to leave.

Then, he picked up the bowl again and ate the instant noodles with relish. From time to time, he would look at his cell phone to see if Q had replied to his message.

His subordinate relayed his words to Yu Qingliu word for word.

Yu Qingliu's old face almost collapsed. The corners of his mouth pulled down fiercely. He waved his hand and said, "Let's go!"

The bearded man beside him followed behind him with a depressed expression. He lowered his voice and asked, "Elder Yu, are we just going to let this go?"

The other party humiliated them like this.

Yu Qingliu was not going to pursue the matter?

And they still had to leave dejectedly.

Yu Qingliu walked out of the hotel and took a deep breath of the cold air.

The weather in March and April in the independent continent had just entered spring. The temperature was low before the sun came out.

He exhaled a cold breath, barely suppressing the anger in his chest. While waiting for the car, he lowered his eyebrows and said with a gloomy expression, "This person's relationship with Martin is not ordinary. Moreover, the source of his weapons... We don't know who is providing him with them.

"Under such circumstances, it's impossible for us to fight him head-on!"

Therefore, he could only endure this anger.

Who asked this weapon dealer to have a big boss backing him up?

Ever since Yu Qingliu came to the independent continent, he had not succeeded in doing anything he set out to do. He had suffered repeated setbacks, and he did not feel very good.

He put his hands behind his back and looked as the chauffeur drove over the car. He said in a low voice, "No matter what, we have to think of a way to deal with him. After all, he has the weapons we want..."

The bearded man also gradually calmed down. He endured the humiliation and nodded. "I understand."

Chapter 2467 Everyone Is Looking For The Mysterious Weapons Dealer

The news that a weapons dealer with many high-end weapons had come to the independent continent spread like wildfire. Many large factions received this news.

Ji Xiao immediately contacted Ji Ziyin. "Hello, are you at home?"

Ji Ziyin had just finished applying a facial mask. She turned on the loudspeaker and placed the phone on the dressing table. Looking at her face in the mirror, she unscrewed the facial cream expressionlessly. "What's wrong? Why did you call me?"

"Do you know that a weapons dealer came to the independent continent?" Ji Xiao had seen many storms and did not feel the least bit embarrassed. "You should have heard this news since you've been following someone from the reclusive families."

Ji Ziyin's hand paused and she slowly lowered her eyes. She put the facial cream back down and slowly said, "Yes, I know."

Her tone was casual, but her heart was beating like a drum.

Yu Qingliu had never mentioned this weapons dealer to her. She only just found out from Ji Xiao.

Ji Xiao impatiently asked, "Since you know this person, do you know where he lives?"

"This..." Ji Ziyin pulled off the mask and picked up her cell phone. She pretended to be in a dilemma. "I can't say."

Ji Xiao choked. He was a little angry.

However, when Ji Lingfeng expelled Ji Ziyin from the list of candidates nurtured by the Ji family's new generation, he also hit her when she was down. Therefore, even if Ji Ziyin's tone made him angry, he could only suppress his anger and smile apologetically. "Ziyin, this person has a lot of high-end new weapons. There might be a big boss behind him who has never appeared before. If we can get in touch with him first..."

Ji Ziyin was a smart person.

Ji Xiao did not finish his sentence.

However, he knew very well that Ji Ziyin would understand what he meant.

If they could build a relationship with this mysterious weapons dealer before everyone else, their status in the independent continent would rise.

After all, in this day and age, nothing was harder than fists!

"You know Elder Yu has the support of the reclusive families. If you can cooperate with this weapons dealer... you can hold your own in the future even without relying on the Ji family." Ji Xiao lowered his voice and persuaded her in an extremely seductive tone. "Don't you want to take another step up?"

"I understand."

Ji Ziyin stared at her beautiful face in the mirror and quickly interrupted him. "I'll consider it. I'll contact you if it's suitable."

Ji Xiao originally wanted Yu Qingliu's connections and thought that she would tell him the weapons dealer's address. Unexpectedly, Ji Ziyin hung up without revealing anything.

He was so angry, but he could only resign himself to it. He was looking forward to Ji Ziyin's 'good' news.

On the other side.

Ji Ziyin sat in front of the dressing table for a long time after hanging up.

She was still digesting what Ji Xiao had told her.

Ji Ziyin suddenly sat upright for a while before grabbing her phone and calling Lu Yiming.

Beep...

The call went through.

However, after ringing more than ten times, Lu Yiming still did not pick up her call.

Ji Ziyin's expression was dark as she slowly put down her cell phone, feeling frustrated and uneasy.

Chapter 2468 The Hotel Is Strictly Guarded, Our Men Can't Enter

Lu Yiming had not taken her call ever since she pleaded with him to talk with Qiao Nian a few days ago.

In the beginning, she did not take it to heart. But as time passed and she could not get through to him, Ji Ziyin couldn't help but wonder if something unexpected happened that she did not know about.

Moreover, after so long, there was still no news of Gu Hengbo from Gu Fan.

They didn't even know if he was dead or alive!

Frowned slightly, Ji Ziyin got up and went to the water dispenser as she tried to call Lu Yiming again.

She only suspected that something had happened to Lu Yiming, but she did not actually value him.

After all, she was different from before.

She had hooked up with Yu Qingliu, which was equivalent to hooking up with the reclusive families. Although there was an accident in the laboratory, the project was still progressing.

Yu Qingliu also comforted Liao Quan and the others. Now, her future was still bright...

Ji Ziyin had long disregarded Lu Yiming and the others. She called three times, but Lu Yiming still did not pick up.

Ji Ziyin simply stopped calling.

She called three times, but Lu Yiming still did not pick up.

Ji Ziyin simply stopped calling.

Finding someone else to inquire about the weapons dealer, she fetched herself a glass of water and then returned to the dressing table and meticulously began putting cream on her face.

A weapons dealer?

Ji Ziyin's eyes flickered as she looked at her face in the mirror, her eyes shining with determination.

She had to get in touch with him before everyone else!

Qiao Nian returned to the villa.

Qin Si had just woken up. Upon seeing them return, he stretched and greeted them, "Master Wang, Sister Qiao, you're back? How's Elder Feng?"

Ye Wangchuan placed Qiao Nian's baseball cap on the shelf at the entrance, then took off his coat and lazily walked to the sofa. "... He'll be discharged in half a month."

"That soon?"

Qin Si grabbed a glass of water. Hearing this, he looked up in surprise. "I thought Elder Feng would have to be hospitalized for at least three months."

Qiao Nian did not care about them. She walked straight to the sofa and sat down, then lowered her head and played with her phone. However, she wasn't playing games anymore. She propped up her legs as if she was replying to a message.

Ye Wangchuan glanced at her. "Why don't you take a look at who did the surgery?" He then walked over and poured a glass of water for her.

At this moment, Mo Xi parked the car outside and quickly ran into the villa to look for Ye Wangchuan.

As soon as Mo Xi saw the man, he pushed the glasses on the bridge of his nose and relaxed. Slowing down, he saw the girl playing with her cell phone on the sofa and greeted her. "Miss Qiao is here too?"

Qiao Nian nodded with a quiet 'mm'.

Mo Xi focused his attention on Ye Wangchuan, and his expression gradually became serious. "Master Wang, have you heard about the new weapons dealer in the independent continent?"

Qin Si pricked up his ears and interrupted with interest, "What weapons dealer? The independent continent is filled with weapon dealers. They're all over the place."

"Young Master Qin, this one is different."

Mo Xi took the time to explain to him. He turned his head and attention back to the man. "Yang Liu said that Yu Qingliu had already found the other party's residence first and personally went to visit. As for the specific situation, such as what they discussed... That hotel is strictly guarded. Our men can't enter."

Qiao Nian had just replied to Guan Yan's message. Now, she heard Mo Xi talking about a weapons dealer with a serious expression. Rubbing her forehead, she stood up and said, "I'll go upstairs. You guys chat."

Chapter 2469 Sister Qiao Might Not Have Heard of This Person

Mo Xi looked at Qiao Nian's back view as she went upstairs and then retracted his gaze. He silently touched the glasses on the bridge of his nose and said, "Master Wang, did I disturb Miss Qiao? However, is Miss Qiao not interested in this weapons dealer?"

The First Research Institute was also investigating this mysterious weapons dealer, David. Why did he feel that Miss Qiao was not the least bit interested in this topic...

Qin Si also looked at the stairs. He turned his head and said, "Sister Qiao might be busy with Elder Feng recently, so she's not that concerned about other things."

Mo Xi looked at Ye Wangchuan suspiciously. Seeing that the man's eyes were deep and seemed to be noncommittal to Qin Si's words, he did not think too much about it.

Originally, he suspected that Miss Qiao knew this weapons dealer.

After all, Miss Qiao's friends were all extraordinary.

Xie Tingyun, Feng Yu, the Red Alliance... Which of them were ordinary people?

Therefore, Mo Xi was just wondering if Miss Qiao knew this person, which was why she did not want to participate in their discussion. It seemed that he was thinking too much.

After dismissing this thought, Mo Xi told Ye Wangchuan about the abnormal movements of the various parties in the independent continent in the past two days.

This time, a weapons dealer with a powerful background appeared. Many people in the independent continent were busy thinking of ways to contact him.

There was no lack of people like Yu Qingliu and Ji Xiao.

The Chamber of Commerce Alliance and the Hacker Alliance were also restless after receiving the news, including Nan Tianyi and Xie Tingyun, who had not interfered in the affairs of the independent continent for a long time. They were very interested in this weapons dealer...

Mo Xi roughly explained the current situation. Then, he asked the man, "Master Wang, Yang Liu has found the other party's residence. Do you think we should go try our luck..."

What he meant was that they should also visit the other party.

Unexpectedly, Ye Wangchuan raised his hand with a lazy expression. "No need."

Mo Xi looked at him in confusion. "But the others will go."

"It's useless!" The man walked towards the sofa, slowly saying, "This person doesn't want to be on good terms with anyone in the independent continent. He's most likely here for something else and will leave after settling it."

Mo Xi followed behind him. Hearing this, he stared at the man's broad back, not understanding what he meant.

How did Master Wang know that the other party came to the independent continent because he had something to do... What if the other party wanted to interfere in the independent continent?

Ye Wangchuan did not explain to him. After sitting on the sofa, he took out his cell phone and sent a message to Ji Lin asking if the reclusive family in Country W had made any moves recently.

Then, he put the phone down and looked up to see that Qin Si was still asking Mo Xi about the weapons dealer.

It seemed that Qin Si was quite interested in this person.

Ye Wangchuan got up and went to make soup for the girl.

Upstairs.

After placing the notebook on the desk, Qiao Nian changed into loose home clothes and walked back to the desk. She pulled a chair and sat down.

Then, she grabbed Ji Qing's notebook and flipped through it page by page.

The contents of the notebook overlapped with Xie Tingyun's notebook. It involved mostly physics experiments.

However, unlike the contents of Xie Tingyun's notebook, other than recording a portion of the physics experiment data, Ji Qing's notebook also recorded many high-intensity chemical reactor experiment projects.

Chapter 2470 An Opportunity to Cozy Up to Someone Powerful, Only a Fool Would Call Those Two B*stards

Qiao Nian casually flipped through it and could basically confirm that the laboratory that Ji Ziyin and Yu Qingliu had recently set up was doing the chemical experiments in the notebook's second half.

The girl's porcelain-white skin was even more lustrous and delicate under the light.

Qiao Nian was trying to guess the experiment Ji Ziyin was most likely to do when her cell phone rang.

The girl leaned back against the chair in frustration and grabbed the phone to answer the call. "Hello."

Her tone was frivolous and casual.

Clearly a little unhappy.

The person on the other end of the line felt her displeasure at being disturbed and carefully asked, "Big boss, are you free?"

"Hm?"

Qiao Nian's eyes were dry.

She paused for a second and then consciously adjusted her emotions. Then, she asked, "Why did you call me?"

"... It's nothing serious." It was obviously a man's voice on the other end of the cell phone. It was rough and generous. He was a straightforward person. "It's not easy for me to come to the independent continent. Big boss, do you have time to meet me?"

Qiao Nian's gaze drifted to the computer, and she looked at the calendar in the lower right corner of the screen. "The afternoon after tomorrow?"

Qiao Nian keenly realized that he was silent. She pressed between her eyebrows. Suppressing her frustration, she asked, "Do you have plans the afternoon after tomorrow?"

"I don't have any arrangements. I just arrived at the independent continent. How can I make any arrangements?" The man on the other end of the call denied it. He then asked tentatively, "Big boss, do you have any plans tomorrow?"

Qiao Nian thought for a moment before seriously replying, "Mm."

"Who is it?"

"Huh?"

She slowly said, "I don't have anyone I want to see. But I've been too tired recently. I don't want to go out tomorrow."

Daji, who was far away in the unruly area of the independent continent, stood in front of the French window with his cell phone in his hand for a long time.

He thought that the big boss's arrangements for tomorrow were more important than his. Who knew, she just didn't want to leave... He actually did not know if he should cry or laugh for a moment.

Daji lowered his head and laughed.

His subordinate thought that he had been agitated. He was so frightened by his smile that he quickly lowered his head and stared at his toes, afraid that his boss would kick him out if he took another breath.

Fortunately, his boss did not look at him.

The subordinate heard his boss say in a light-hearted voice that made one's hair stand on end, "Alright, then the afternoon of the day after tomorrow. It's a deal."

He received an affirmative answer from Qiao Nian.

Daji hung up in satisfaction. He put down his cell phone and walked back, then said to his subordinate, "Make time for me in the afternoon the day after tomorrow. Find a suitable place. Make a reservation."

His subordinate did not dare to ask further. "Boss, how many people should I book for?"

Daji walked back to the sofa and took a bottle of XO from the wine rack. After removing the cork, he poured himself a glass and added two ice cubes. He picked up the glass and shook it twice. After thinking for a while, he said, "Two."

He definitely would not call Guan Yan. He wanted to meet the big boss alone this time.

Otherwise, with that woman's sharp tongue, she would definitely diss him.

Besides... this was such a good opportunity to cozy up to someone powerful, only a fool would call those two b*stards in the group.

Before his subordinate left, he stopped and reminded him, "Find a good restaurant, preferably a place with dishes with strong flavors!"
