

Madam's 2511

Chapter 2511 m The royal family came to the door

Ye Wangchuan and Qiao Nian both knew that he was just throwing the blame, blaming the fault on the people below, and picking it up by himself.

Qiao Nian put the jade in his pocket, got up and said to the two: "There's nothing fun here, let's go back."

"Agree, let's go back!" Qin Si was not uncommon to hear the club manager open his eyes and talk nonsense there. He agreed without saying a word, and even took his mobile phone and left.

The manager of Beichen Club has a dull face, but he can't understand the origin of the three people, especially the origin of Ye Wangchuan.

He could only hold back the sweat from his forehead, and smiled cautiously: "Tonight, ours were not well taken care of, so let me give you a VIP card."

He asked his subordinates to bring the three VIPs prepared in advance, walked over to Qiao Nian in person, picked the youngest one and said, "Please accept our apology."

Qiao Nian put his hands in his pockets, looked down at the VIP gold card handed in front of him, then retracted his gaze, and said lightly, "No need."

Qin Si sneered and smiled, and raised his hand to say no: "I don't need it anymore..."

The manager of Beichen Club was very embarrassed to stand there, and subconsciously turned his eyes to the last person for help.

Ye Wangchuan felt his gaze falling on him, raised his eyebrows unexpectedly, and had an air of indifference to himself: "Do you think I'll ask for your card?"

The manager was embarrassed for a while: "I'm very sorry..."

Qiao Nian didn't want to hear about these, so he went out first: "I'll go out first to get a hair dryer."

"I'll accompany Sister Qiao." Qin Si ran out after him.

Ye Wuchuan was left behind, and in a blink of an eye, he was the only one left with the manager in the entire box.

Ye Wuchuan took his jacket on the leather sofa, turned back, and paused for a second beside the manager before leaving: "Go and tell Ji Lin, you are ready to resign."

"..." The manager of Beichen Club raised his head in horror and looked at this oriental man he had never seen before, unable to hide the stormy waves in his heart!

Big, big boss?

On the road in front of the club, Qiao Nian pressed the brim of his hat, leaning against the door and looking down at his phone.

Her rare oriental face and outstanding temperament attracted a lot of attention.

But she didn't care.

At this moment, a 'ding' sounded on her mobile phone, and a new text message came. The number to send the message was very short, only six digits.

Qiao Nian had investigated the M royal family before he came, and it was clear that this was the number length for members of the M royal family.

She lowered her eyes and casually opened her eyes.

The other party used very polite words.

【Hello Dr. Qiao, we are the royal family of M. We would like to ask if you can come a day earlier? Come to the royal family tomorrow. 】

Qiao Nian didn't answer immediately.

She dialed a number and went out: "Did you give them my number?"

"What?" In Tianchen's villa, Jian Wei had just cooked a bowl of noodles and served it on the table. She picked up the girl's call with the mobile phone between her shoulders. When she heard the girl's voice, her mind hadn't turned a corner: "For whom?"

"The royal family sent me a message saying that they want me to go to treat their sick elder one day earlier." Qiao Nian's voice came slowly through the night, cold and empty.

Jian Yan put down the noodle pot she just cooked, walked back to turn off the fire, and frowned, "Did they send you a message?"

"Damn!" Before Qiao Nian could answer, she whispered again, "I didn't disclose your information to them, they should have found it themselves."

Chapter 2512 Someone left you something at the front desk

Didn't Jane say anything?

Qiao Nian was surprised, raised his lips, raised his cap with a cold white hand, stood in a dignified manner, and said with a playful expression: "Oh, it's a bit interesting."

Jian Yan walked from the kitchen to the dining table and pulled out the chair, holding the phone in one hand: "Joe, since the royal family has found you. Would you like to come a day earlier?"

Qiao Nian looked up and saw Qin Si chasing him out to find him, and withdrew his gaze: "Why should I go a day earlier."

Jian Yan hasn't spoken yet.

Qiao Nian was wearing a black hoodie, showing his strong forearms, and his skin was very white.

She looked into the night, lowered her eyes, and continued, "Let them wait."

Jian Yan heard the girl's arrogance and Qiao Nian's words, and after a brief distraction, she reminded her with a wry smile: "Joe, behind the royal family is a hidden family..."

The hidden family is not so easy to mess with.

Otherwise, she would have stepped down the royal family and rescued Lu Zhi!

She didn't dare to act rashly because the royal family of M was protected by the hidden family, so she could only squat outside and wait for news. . .

"You don't understand the horrors of the hidden family, they..." Out of a sense of responsibility, Jane wanted to make it clear to her.

Qiao Nian looked up and saw that Qin Si had found herself, straightened her legs, and interrupted her: "I have something to do here, so I won't tell you."

"Joe..." Jane wanted to say something else.

Qiao Nian saw that Qin Si was about to rush in front of him, so he decisively hung up the phone and put away the phone slowly.

At this moment, Qin Si walked in front of him.

Seeing that she hadn't called, he realized that the time he came out was not coincidental, so he touched his earlobe and said, "Master is still inside, Sister Qiao, should we find a place to sit first."

"He's still inside?" Qiao Nian looked back inside the Beichen Club.

"Yeah." Qin Si scratched his head: "Before I came out, I heard Mr. Wang seemed to be talking to the manager. I don't know what they were talking about."

"Oh." Qiao Nian nodded his jaw, his dark eyes darkened, as if he had guessed something, but didn't ask more.

Qin Si had no idea that Ye Wuchuan was the mysterious boss behind Beichen Club. He saw Qiao Nian casually withdrawing his gaze, craned his neck and looked around, ready to take Qiao Nian to a place to drink water.

As a result, before he could find a place to drink water, Ye Wuchuan's car stopped in front of the two of them.

The black Bentley opened the car door, and the man in the driver's seat looked sideways at the two and said, "Let's go, get in the car."

Qin Si was quite surprised: "Master, why are you...Aren't you talking to the manager inside?"

"It's over."

Ye Wuchuan rested his elbow on the car window and the other hand on the steering wheel. The red Buddha beads on his wrist set off his dignified appearance and delicate eyebrows.

He looked at the girl with deep eyes, and raised the corners of his lips lazily: "Get in the car."

Qiao Nian silently opened the co-pilot's door and got into the car, fastened his seat belt by the way, yawned and said, "Go back."

Qin Si fluttered to the back row and got on the car, expressing no objection to this.

Ye Wangchuan waited for Qin Si to close the door, then reversed the car and drove in the direction of the hotel.

The group returned to the hotel, and Qiao Nian went back to his room.

She just took out the jade that Ye Wuchuan had photographed for her and placed it on the table when the intercom phone in the hotel room rang.

Qiao Nian rubbed his brows, and he walked over to pick it up irritably: "Hello."

"Hello, guest, a guest came to visit when you were away and left you something at the front desk. Do you think it is convenient for us to deliver it to you?" The front desk of the hotel had a sweet voice and asked her very politely.

Chapter 2513 Sister Nian: Let him help me send something back

Qiao Nian didn't know who was looking for her, so he took off the peaked cap and threw it aside, and said casually, "You guys can bring it up."

ten minutes later.

There was a knock at the door.

"Hello guest, I'm a staff member of the hotel room service department."

Qiao Nian closed the computer, got up and dragged the chair away to open the door for her.

She opened the door and looked sideways. Sure enough, a staff member in a hotel uniform stood at the door and looked at her with a smile.

"Hello guest, this is your thing."

She handed a dark blue satin gift box to Qiao Nian, and handed over a note: "The guest also left you a phone number for you to contact her..."

"Thank you." Qiao Nian thanked her, then took her things and closed the door.

She turned back to the single sofa in front of the floor-to-ceiling window, opened the box, and found that the box contained a ruby-based jewelry set.

Qiao Nian took out the necklace inside and looked at it under the light. The ruby was clear in texture and looked extremely precious under the light.

She herself is a designer of SEVEN and has a certain research on jewelry.

Qiao Nian saw at a glance that the value of this set of jewelry fluctuated around 1.8 million. The price was not expensive in terms of high-end jewelry, and it was considered high-end in terms of general jewelry, barely enough to meet the threshold of high-end jewelry. A set of three rubies set.

Qiao Nian put the necklace back in her hand, picked up the note given to her by the hotel staff, opened it and lowered her eyes. I saw a line of words written on the note: [Doctor Qiao, sorry for disturbing you, please accept my little care. 】 followed by another paragraph.

【This is my phone number, please call me back. 】

Qiao Nian glanced at the phone number above, and his eyes fell on the last inscription - Yu Xinlan of the Yu family.

Yu family?

Qiao Nian instantly understood why the other party gave a gift of 1.8 million and was so confident that she would be 'flattered' to call back.

She threw the note into the trash can with a blank face, turned around and picked up her phone to open someone's WeChat: "Is it convenient for Jilin?"

Qiao Nian leaned on the edge of the desk, with lazy eyebrows, very delicate and outstanding, and edited a new message with both hands.

"Let him send me something back."

Yu family.

Yu Xinlan had just returned from the hotel and was sitting on the sofa drinking coffee while talking to the housekeeper.

"Did you say the genius doctor received my gift?"

She frequently looked at the phone on the table.

The housekeeper of the Yu family looked at her eyes and nose, and bowed very elegantly to answer her: "Miss, that doctor probably hasn't seen anything yet. If she sees the gift you gave her, she will definitely reply to your message."

"Really?" Yu Xinlan glanced at him uncertainly.

The housekeeper lowered his head, and his tone was indeed full of pride: "The Yu family is a member of the hidden family. As long as she has heard the name of the hidden family, she will not stop calling."

"makes sense."

Yu Xinlan retracted her gaze, as if it was a matter of course, and did not ask any further questions.

She put the coffee cup on the table, her face full of pride, as if the housekeeper's words were speaking to her heart, she said lightly: "I don't believe in any traditional Chinese medicine, but she is the owner of the small pills, for the sake of the family I have to win over first. She looks at..."

Yu Xinlan was talking.

Yu Qingliu came back with Ji Ziyin.

The housekeeper immediately greeted him: "Elder Yu, you are back."

Chapter 2514 Don't talk too much, it's not a slap in the face

When he saw Ji Ziyin behind him, he paused and called out politely, "Miss Ji."

In the living room, Yu Xinlan saw Ji Ziyin's smile narrowed, a trace of disdain flashed in her eyes, and she stood up: "Grandpa, didn't you go to the auction?"

"Yes." Yu Qingliu was unhappy, and walked over quickly, only answering her, but did not answer her question.

Only Ji Ziyin was embarrassed, and she couldn't raise her head as if she was stabbed in the sore spot.

Fortunately, Yu Xinlan didn't look at her at all, she walked over to hold Yu Qingliu's arm and said, "I just happen to have something to tell you. That doctor..."

Yu Qingliu responded quickly and immediately patted her hand.

Yu Xinlan realized that there was an 'outsider' at home, she immediately glanced in the direction of the young woman from the corner of her eye, and stopped talking.

There was an awkward atmosphere in the air. . .

Ji Ziyin seemed to have been slapped on the face, her face became hot, and she immediately said to the two of them: "Elder Yu, I'll go upstairs first."

Yu Qing Luming wished her to go up, but he said beautifully: "Well, you are tired tonight, so rest early."

"Okay." Ji Ziyin knew that Yu Xinlan didn't want to see her, and she didn't make fun of herself, so she turned around and walked to the guest room on the second floor.

Until her figure disappeared at the entrance of the stairs, and there was a sound of the door closing on the second floor.

Yu Qingliu relaxed, pushed away his granddaughter's hand, sat on the sofa, raised his head, and said angrily, "What are you going to say to me."

"I went to the hotel to find that doctor today, and I picked a gift from home for her." Yu Xinlan sat down on the sofa next to him and brought up the gift, not feeling distressed at all.

The three-piece ruby set she gave was a gift from Qi Yan when she was coming of age.

Yu Xinlan has always looked down on the aesthetics of the other party, thinking that the set of jewelry is too gaudy, and she can't even wear it out of the house.

Just taking advantage of this opportunity to reuse garbage, Yu Xinlan didn't care: "It's a coming-of-age gift I received, and the price is about one million. But she wasn't in the hotel when I went, and I don't know where she went. "

"Have you found out her identity?" Yu Qingliu looked at her with an unexpected expression.

Yu Xinlan mentioned to him about the genius doctor during the day, but he just got off the plane and went to an important auction at night, so he didn't take time to care about the genius doctor for the time being...

He didn't expect Yu Xinlan's hands and feet to be so fast, and he said with rare relief: "What the * did you find out about that genius doctor?"

"I checked it myself, but I didn't find her." Yu Xinlan didn't dare to lie to him, but said the truth: "It's the background of the person they checked with the royal family. I don't know much, only a little bit of information. Just where she lives and her name."

Yu Qingliu was not surprised.

Her Majesty the Queen has a noble status, and it is impossible for anyone to approach it. It is not surprising that the people of the royal family will check the genius doctor.

He just wanted to ask Yu Xinlan's name.

The butler walked in quickly, leaned over and said to him, "Elder Yu, someone outside wants to see Miss."

"see me?"

Yu Xinlan pointed to herself unexpectedly.

The housekeeper of the Yu family nodded affirmatively: "Yes."

Yu Qingliu was relatively calm, raised his hand and said to him, "Let someone come in."

After a while, the housekeeper of the Yu family led a modest middle-aged man in from the outside, and the other party saw that the two were neither humble nor arrogant.

"Miss Yu, I am entrusted to return your gift."

Chapter 2515 is very similar to the style of the independent continent diamond boss Q

After he stood still, he took out Yu Xinlan's familiar dark blue jewelry box and handed it to the air: "This is your thing, please put it away."

Yu Xinlan understood the moment she saw the box, her face became extremely ugly, she narrowed her eyes, and looked at the man coldly: "What do you mean?"

She has already stated her identity on the note, especially signing that she is from the Yu family!

Since the other party was introduced by someone from Tianchen, it is impossible not to know the origin of the Yu family!

But the other party actually came to the door and returned the things to her.

Obviously don't give Yu family and her this face!

Yu Xinlan couldn't hide her anger, surprised and annoyed: "Does she mean to despise the greeting gift I gave?"

The middle-aged man always kept the posture of returning the things. Facing Yu Xinlan's questioning, he was neither humble nor arrogant. He lowered his eyes and said, "I'm only responsible for returning the gift to you. As for what Miss Qiao means, I don't know."

Seeing that Yu Xinlan didn't pick it up for a long time and didn't waste time, he put the gift on the table and politely said to the two of them: "Since the things have been delivered, I won't disturb the two of you."

He said to go.

Yu Qingliu suddenly came back to his senses and stopped him: "Wait a minute! The Miss Qiao you just said... The genius doctor of Tianchen's surname is Qiao?"

—It wouldn't be such a coincidence, would it?

The middle-aged man turned around, still didn't raise his eyebrows, he was very polite but not afraid, and he looked very calm: "Yes, Mr. Yu."

Yu Qingliu's lips twitched, his face was a very unsightly turquoise, he raised his hand majestically and said to him, "Go away."

"I'm bothering Elder Yu..." The man bowed politely, turned around and left.

Yu Qingliu instructed the housekeeper, "Go and see the guests."

The housekeeper of the Yu family looked at the unattractive man, nodded, and quickly chased after him to send him off.

...

Only Yu Qingliu and Yu Xinlan were left in the Yu family living room.

Yu Xinlan's shoulders were shaking, she was completely annoyed, looking at the gift box on the table, her fingertips were shaking, she gritted her teeth and said, "She's just a doctor, she really treats herself as a character!"

"Xin Lan!"

Yu Qingliu gradually calmed down after being extremely shocked.

He saw that Yu Xinlan was still angry because the gift was returned, and said strictly: "How many times have I told you, you are from the Yu family. Don't lose face for a little thing, what will you do in the future? Socializing outside... The Yu family relies on careful management in the hidden family to get the current situation, if you can't bear the slightest storm, you don't deserve to be the Yu family!"

Yu Xinlan's mind gradually calmed down: "I see, Grandpa."

Yu Qingliu was frustrated one after another, and he had a vague guess in his heart, so he looked back at his granddaughter and said solemnly, "You just told me you know the name of that genius doctor, what's her name?"

What about the word after Joe?

Is the same as that person?

Yu Xinlan didn't understand why her grandfather cared about such small details, so she shook her head and said, "I don't know, I only know her name is Qiao."

Yu Qingliu figured out which word it was from her, his face suddenly became watery, and his eyes became gloomy. Because from the familiar Qiao pinyin, he remembered the style of the Q that was the code name of the diamond tycoon in the independent continent before!

He told Yu Xinlan not to act rashly for the time being, and he asked someone to investigate the identity of the genius doctor.

Chapter 2516 Finally decided to recommend Ji Ziyin directly to the ancestors

In addition, Yu Qingliu also made a special call to ask the Yu family's eyeliner in country M, and asked if they had found any trace of Qiao Nian and his party.

"Mr. Yu, we checked the entry and exit records according to your words, but there was no oriental person surnamed Qiao that day." Yu Qingliu was disappointed again by the words of the Yu family's eyeliner. .

He clenched his phone tightly, believing that Qiao Nian and his party must have arrived in country m: "You expand the scope and check the entry and exit registration form. Don't care about the name, but all the oriental faces from the Independent Continent will be investigated and checked!"

"Yes, Elder Yu." The Yu family's eyeliner went to work according to his instructions.

Yu Qingliu slowly put down the phone, stood there for a while, hesitated for a moment, and made a call to go out.

The call is connected.

He changed the strong and impetuous tone in his previous tone, like a tamed dog, and lowered his voice very respectfully: "Master Shadow, I'm Yu Qingliu. Is Her Majesty the Queen feeling better?"

The person on the other end didn't know what to say.

Yu Qingliu lowered his head lower as if reprimanded, and said more cautiously, "That's it, I went to the Independent Continent this time to find a genius in weapons manufacturing. She has made several new weapons projects, I think Take her to report the progress to Her Majesty the Queen."

"Wait a minute."

Yu Qingliu didn't dare to say a word when he heard the stern voice: "Okay."

There was a rustling sound, and Yu Qingliu raised his heart to his throat, his heart was beating like a drum, even through the phone, he didn't dare to show the slightest presumptuous expression, and kept hunched over, like the most loyal servant.

Finally, he heard a cough coming from there, followed by an old, hoarse, emotionless voice: "Who are you talking about?"

This voice seems to come from the distant sky, not angry and arrogant.

Yu Qingliu was shocked, and whispered even more terribly: "It's a side branch of the Ji family... It's called Ji Ziyin."

"..." The person on the other end didn't speak.

Yu Qingliu's heart was so tight that he couldn't dare to beat, and he restrained his fear and said cautiously: "This person is very talented in weapons manufacturing, and he is also known as a once-in-a-hundred-year-old genius in the Independent Continent."

"I tried her out, and she's as talented as the people in the Independent State said. The First Research Institute hasn't built a weapon for a long time, and I think she's very suitable to make up for our lack..."

Yu Qingliu speaks cautiously, repeating every word in his heart over and over again, for fear of saying the wrong thing and making his ancestors unhappy.

He went through what he was going to say in his mind, and then asked cautiously, "Do you have time to see her?"

After Yu Qingliu said these words, the blue veins on the back of his hands bulged nervously, and the whole person was extremely nervous and afraid.

Fortunately, the person on the other end of the phone just smiled inexplicably: "The Ji family?"

Yu Qingliu immediately hesitated and walked around and said, "If it's inconvenient for you, I'll send her back immediately."

He just finished.

The person on the other end said indifferently: "No. You can bring her here when you find time. I also want to see... the genius of the Ji family once in a century!"

Yu Qingliu wasn't sure whether she was agreeing or ironic, and before she could speak, the other end had already hung up the phone.

Yu Qingliu took the phone away, and the clothes on his back were already wet with sweat.

He looked up in the direction of the guest room on the second floor, let out a long breath, narrowed his eyes, and said softly, "I hope you don't disappoint me..."

Chapter 2517 Sister Nian still can't contact Lu Zhi

This time, he used the Yu family as a bargaining chip.

Once the car rolls over...

Yu Qingliu didn't dare to think badly.

He has no turning back now, nor does he want to turn back. .

He didn't have a good few years to live.

Before he died, he must find a way to make the Yu family go a step further in the hidden family, instead of being the last-class family in the three, six, nine, and so on forever!

After Yu Qingliu thought so, she turned her back and went up to the second floor to find Ji Ziyin to tell her the news.

According to his original plan, he originally wanted to push Ji Ziyin out by sending gifts to the queen.

Now this road does not work.

He can only choose the most direct way - directly introduce Ji Ziyin to Her Majesty the Queen!

...I hope Ji Ziyin can live up to his efforts this time.

At the same time, in Room 6668 of the M Hotel.

Not long after the girl handed things over to Ji Lin's man, she took out her laptop from the bag by the bed, pulled out the chair, sat down, and turned on the computer.

She entered the domain name of the server when she turned it on. After pressing the Enter key, a green code popped up on the screen.

Qiao Nian typed a few lines of code.

She successfully invaded into the entry system of the country m, and then found her own entry and exit registration form and opened it.

On the screen is an enlarged form with a fake photo that is three-pointed to her but clearly PS.

The name column is even more outrageous.

Qiao Nian's cold and white hand operated the mouse to enlarge the name filled in the name column.

The pinyin above directly becomes -YENIAN.

She stepped on the chair with one foot, and the other leg was hanging there, straight and long, sitting in an unruly posture, and the expression on her face was also interesting.

She saved a screenshot of the name and photo above, picked up the phone on the table, and sent it back to someone. By the way, a WeChat message is attached: [Did you change it? 】

After Qiao Nian put the WeChat, he didn't see a reply, so he put the phone back, and put his hands on the keyboard to operate.

Soon the entry and exit records of the three of them on her entry and exit system disappeared.

turned into a message for three foreigners.

Clearly: David, John and Thomson.

The column of the photo of the three of them all turned into three big men with beards, the kind of beards so thick that they couldn't see their faces clearly.

Qiao Nian erased the records about them on the entry and exit, put his legs down, picked up the phone again and lowered his eyes.

Ye Wangchuan hasn't replied to her WeChat yet, and it looks like he might be taking a shower.

Qiao Nian ignored it, and instead cancelled his mobile phone number and replaced it with a new one.

Set up an engine and call blocking software that cannot be retrieved for your mobile phone number.

In the end, she sent a message to Jane with her new number, and left only three words: "My phone number."

She finished all this and tried to contact Lu Zhi again.

The red dot related to Lu Zhi on the computer has been staying in the royal family of M, but the phone number to call Lu Zhi has changed from off to an empty number.

It should be that the other party also noticed that she had detected the signal.

Qiao Nian took the mobile phone away from his ears with deep eyes, and his face was cold and expressionless.

"interesting."

Lu Zhi is by no means the kind of person who can easily capture him.

His mobile phone turned out to be an empty number, which means that Lu Zhi must be in the midst of losing his freedom in life...

Chapter 2518 Everyone who should be there is here

And Lu Zhi, who looks gentle and elegant, is not someone to mess with.

He will be restricted from freedom.

The Hidden Family is indeed more powerful than she thought. .

Qiao Nian played with the jade in his hand, and got up to get the medicine brought back from the Pharmacy Association, the laboratory medicine NA9527 in a white plastic bag.

In addition, there are things she brought back from the last time she went to the Pharmacy Association.

Qiao Nian squeezed the white pill inside with a clear face, and put the pill back slowly.

Then slowly used the computer to send a message to the royal family of M: [Because your private investigation behavior made me very unhappy, so I will postpone the previously agreed time for another day, we will see you the day after tomorrow.]

The message was sent successfully.

Full ten's arrogance!

three days later.

Yu Xinlan arrived at the royal family immediately.

When she arrived, the main members of the M royal family were basically there.

Yu Qingliu also brought Ji Ziyin, taking this opportunity to meet Her Majesty the Queen.

Yu Xinlan saw Ji Ziyin in the crowd, her face darkened.

But she didn't say anything, she went straight to her uncle the king to say hello, and then stood with several main members of the royal family, talking and laughing, without taking the initiative to introduce Ji Ziyin into the circle.

On the contrary, some members of the royal family saw Yu Qingliu's raw face and took the initiative to ask her: "Xinlan, who is the person with your grandfather? Why haven't you seen it before."

Yu Xinlan reluctantly glanced in the direction of Ji Ziyin, retracted her gaze, and pouted, "Oh, a guest from our house."

Which of the people here is not a smart person.

When the person who asked her saw Yu Xinlan's indifferent and perfunctory attitude, they understood that Ji Ziyin was not from a great background.

"I thought she was a relative of the Yu family." The man said casually, "tacitly" and stopped mentioning Ji Ziyin.

Yu Xinlan didn't bother to answer her relative's remarks, so she almost didn't write down Ji Ziyin on her face and listened to them talking about the miracle doctor without saying a word.

Three days ago, Qiao Nian almost slapped everyone in the face of the royal family with a message from Qiao Nian. According to the previous behavior of the hidden family, he would definitely not give up.

But the royal family is only a middle-of-the-middle family among the hidden families, and this matter involves the health of the ancestors.

So even if the other party's attitude is extremely arrogant, after thinking about it, they can only hold back their breath and never harass Qiao Nian again.

Today is the time of the three-day appointment, and the time that Tianchen told them was ten o'clock in the morning.

It's half past nine now.

m The royals haven't seen anyone yet.

Some people are about to lose their breath.

"She won't come, will she?"

"If she doesn't have the ability to cure the old ancestor's old disease, and she still pretends to be so pretentious, I..."

"Okay." Someone scolded the speaker and continued: "It's still early, there's still half an hour, wait."

Ji Ziyin has been quietly staying by Yu Qingliu's side, watching these people from the hidden family wait here half an hour or even an hour in advance, she has a feeling that she can't tell the truth.

But she didn't show it, she just guessed the identity of the other party.

Oriental.

Physician?

Ji Ziyin didn't believe in the so-called traditional Chinese medicine, so her lips were slightly cold, her eyes were cold, and she wanted to watch the fun.

She wanted to see how this genius doctor dared to be so arrogant, how to end it when he looked back.

Chapter 2519 Sister Nian never came

It's not just her, several major royal family members of the M country hold this mentality, especially Yu Xinlan, she wants to see what kind of way the other party dares to oppose the hidden family.

No one came in to report outside, let alone the trace of a genius doctor. .

It's only five minutes away from the agreed time.

Yu Xinlan frowned, her hands hanging by her side clenched into fists, her face gloomy as if water could drip: "Why haven't people come yet?"

But no one answered her.

Because the people present were not watching the fun from the beginning and wanted to give a shit, they can't wait anymore, and they feel anxious.

Nine fifty-eight.

Someone finally came in outside.

But it is not the oriental face they have been waiting for, but a figure like the steward of the royal family.

A middle-aged man with blond hair and blue eyes, wearing a tailored suit, stepped quickly to meet Yu Xinlan and the others. Whispered: "Sir, someone outside sent me something to pass on to you. Please take a look."

Under the watchful eyes of everyone.

The middle-aged butler embarrassedly handed over a white plastic bag to King John. The plastic bag was crumpled and looked like it was picked up on the side of the road.

Even King John was stunned, stunned for a moment, and then took it from his hand. While taking out the contents, he asked him in a strange tone: "What is this? Who sent it?"

"An oriental face." The middle-aged butler lowered his head and said respectfully: "She also asked me to tell you that this medicine is NA9527, and she will give you two tablets. One of them can be used for experiments, and the remaining one will be given to... The patient eats."

"She said... that if the medicine is effective, we will continue to negotiate conditions."

He didn't even see the other person's appearance clearly. His intuition was that she was a very young woman, wearing a peaked cap, with a strong aura and a sense of oppression.

It doesn't look like the kind of imposing manner a Doctor You Fang can have.

Then the man who drove her over was a man of about twenty-five or sixteen years old. The man also had an oriental appearance and a similar aura.

Anyway, the two of them are not ordinary people at first glance.

"She also said..." The middle-aged butler continued to bow his head, and continued with the ugly faces of the royal family members: "There is a small pill for you, which is a gift from Tianchen to the hidden family."

Everyone's expressions changed slightly.

The other party even pointed out the name of the hidden family.

How crazy is this genius doctor surnamed Qiao.

The king of the royal family didn't dare to make his own decisions when he got this medicine, but handed it over to the people below, according to Qiao Nian's instructions: "Take one piece for experimentation, and contact the Pharmacy Association to ask if they have any information in this regard. laboratory drugs."

Yu Xinlan's veins bulged and she stood up and said, "Uncle, why don't I go to the Pharmacy Association."

Yu Qingliu was the first to interrupt her, his face was not very good-looking, he gave her a cold look, and answered her this question for the king of the M royal family: "Do you think that the Pharmacy Association is in the M country, they will be under the control of the royal family?"

"The Pharmacy Association has always been a neutral force. Even if this is a laboratory drug, we can only ask carefully, they will not give you face."

Yu Xinlan was beaten in the face by her grandfather and couldn't get off the stage. She pursed her lips and couldn't bear to speak.

Yu Qingliu turned around and said to the royal family, "If she can get the laboratory medicine from the Pharmacy Association, she must have a lot of money. We should not act rashly."

"That's what I mean too." The king of the royal family nodded in agreement.

He handed the medicine to his subordinates and asked him to go for an examination.

While looking at the members of the royal family, he frowned and thought about what the other party wanted to do when they didn't come, and only sent medicine here...

Chapter 2520 No matter how strong the hidden family is, it is impossible to fight against everyone m In the car outside the King's Chamber, Qiao Nian and Jian Yan finished talking about the situation on the phone.

"Bye."

She hung up the phone. .

Ye Wuchuan parked the car on the side of the road, looked sideways, raised his eyebrows and asked her, "You leave the medicine and leave, aren't you afraid they will touch Lu Zhi?"

Qiao Niancai took the phone away, put his elbows on the open car window, and leaned lazily on the back of the chair, with an extremely arrogant attitude: "There is Tianchen behind Lu Zhi, they don't do it so easily."

"Then you... make a special trip." Ye Wangchuan had to admit that he was a little jealous, and his tone was shallow, but he could hear sourness.

The girl looked at him sideways, her head was tilted, and there was a cluster of fire in her dark eyes. She changed her posture and sat down again: "He has a lifelong relationship with me."

"The people of the Hidden Family won't move him easily, but it's not that they won't move him. Just in case, I'll fish him out of it."

Otherwise, she wouldn't be able to speak to Jian Yan.

The three of them have known each other since childhood. No matter what connection Lu Zhi has with the Hidden Family behind her back, he has to close the door and solve it by himself.

Outsiders are not qualified to move Lu Zhi.

Qiao Nian probably knew what he was going to ask himself, lowered his eyes again, and said slowly, "I originally wanted to go into the royal family to find someone myself, but now I have changed my mind."

Ye Wangchuan raised his lips to look at her: "What's your idea?"

Qiao Nian raised the brim of his hat with a cold white hand, revealing a snow-white and delicate face, quite arrogant: "Since it's not soft, I'm going to be hard. Try it hard with them!"

Isn't the Hidden Family looking for a doctor for that old senior with extraordinary status? In exchange, it wouldn't be too much to have another Lu executive come out, right?

m The royal family has been looking for people to do experiments since they got the laboratory drug NA9527. It turns out that there is no problem with the medicine given by the genius doctor.

Yu Qingliu also contacted the Pharmacy Association and specifically asked Zhongliu.

Qiao Nian greeted Zhongliu in advance.

Therefore, without any psychological burden, Zhongliu directly told Yu Qingliu and Yu Xinlan who came to the door, that the medicine Qiao Nian gave was their newly developed laboratory medicine, which was specially designed to treat insomnia and headaches caused by psychology.

The two left the Pharmacy Association on their back feet, and the driver opened the door for them.

Yu Qingliu got on the bus first.

Yu Xinlan went up on her heels.

After she got into the car, without waiting for the driver to come up, she immediately said to Yu Qingliu, "Grandpa, what do they mean by the Pharmacy Association. You asked him for that laboratory medicine, but he didn't give it?!"

They were in the Pharmacy Association just now, and Zhong Lili admitted in person that the Pharmacy Association had such a special laboratory drug.

Yu Qingliu spoke on the spot, requesting to buy out the patent right of this laboratory drug.

Who knew that Zhongliu would not give them any face at all, directly indicating that the patent right of this drug had been bought out.

Even their Pharmacy Association has no formula for this medicine!

Yu Xinlan was extremely annoyed, gritted her teeth, and said fiercely: "Our Yu family asked them for medicine, and they still took Qiao, which is too arrogant. Don't forget, their pharmacy association is still in country m, I think they are... "

"Shut up!"

Yu Qingliu has closed his eyes since he got in the car, opened his eyes abruptly when he heard the words, and whispered to her: "How many times have I told you that the Pharmacy Association has connections with major forces on all continents, and it is not a last resort. , we can't move them."

Who doesn't get sick these days?

Independent Continent, Continent F, all major forces maintain good relations with the Pharmacy Association.

No matter how tyrannical the Hidden Family is, it is impossible to oppose everyone!
