

Madam's 2631

Chapter 2631 I told you, I'm an illegitimate child

Who knew that Ji Ziyin's mouth was slightly smiling, and she lowered her eyes, but did not answer his words.

Mrs. Lu squinted at Ji Ziyin's reaction, and immediately said, "President Simon, isn't that appropriate?"

"We're all here today to pick up Miss Ji's wind and dust. If we talk a little bit later, it will be bad for someone who cares to hear it."

Simon frowned and looked at her: "Miss Joe is not that kind of person."

The old lady Lu sneered and said with a smile: "President Simon means that we are just like that?"

Simon's face darkened and he didn't want to argue with her.

Ji Ziyin said slowly at this time: "Everyone, stop arguing."

"I'm very grateful to everyone for helping me take care of me. If everyone quarrels about me, I will blame myself."

She looked at Simon and said very generously: "This is your territory, if you want her to come in, come in."

"It's just that I wanted to talk to you about the experience of country M..." She hesitated: "You also know my relationship with her, she is here, and some things are not easy to talk about. But it doesn't matter, everyone sits and eats together. A meal is also a good thing."

Simon is a good person, how could he not understand her voiceover: If Qiao Nian also came in for dinner, she would not talk about the hidden family.

The Chamber of Commerce Alliance, the Hacker Alliance, including Mrs. Lu, who would make a special trip just to have dinner with her?

Everyone is doing this meal, in fact, just want to find out a little about the trend of the hidden family from Ji Ziyin!

Ji Ziyin said this, but he became hesitant.

ten minutes later.

He came out of it, walked to the girl wearing a peaked cap, and said with guilt: "Miss Qiao, I'm sorry, I'll invite you to dinner another day to make amends."

Qiao Nian waited until now to see him come out, and already guessed the result: "It's okay, it's just a small matter, no need to apologize."

Simon had already made a choice, but he didn't want to offend the girl, so he asked, "Where are you going to eat, or I'll let the driver take you there."

Qiao Nian waved the car key hanging on his finger at him, and said eloquently, "I drove the car."

Simon didn't know what to say for a while.

Qiao Nian has turned around and waved, and said to Xu Yi, "Let's go, let's change places."

Xu Yi's cold eyes fell on Simon, he didn't speak, he picked up his hand and followed the girl's footsteps and left here.

When he was out of Simon's range, he was one step behind the girl and whispered in a very low voice: "Ji Ziyin is here too."

"Hmm." When Qiao Nian heard Xu Yi's words, he stopped and turned to look at him.

Xu Yiqingjun's face was indifferent: "The person he just went in to look for should be Ji Ziyin. Ji Ziyin didn't agree with us going in for dinner, so he came out to apologize to you."

"It is said that Ji Ziyin has caught up with the hidden family. He chose to please Ji Ziyin and give up on you."

Qiao Nian was stunned for a moment: "Where did you know this?"

She was not surprised by what Xu Yi said, but surprised that he knew about Ji Ziyin, the hidden family and the Chamber of Commerce Alliance.

Xu Yi pursed her lips and lowered her black eyelashes: "I told you, I'm an illegitimate child."

He cheered up and forced himself to smile: "Someone from the family came to me recently, and I heard something from them."

For example, the recent events in Independence Island.

Such as Ji Ziyin.

Such as the hidden family...

Chapter 2632 Sister Nian: Don't ask about things in society

Qiao Nian withdrew his gaze at this moment: "Let's ask less about things in society."

"..."

She walked in front: "Let's go, I'll take you to dinner."

Xu saw the back of the girl who didn't care much, her eyes twisted slightly, her brows loosened, and she followed quietly.

On the other side, Simon stood at the door and watched the girl get into the car, and left here with Xu Yi.

The silver body disappeared from his sight like a bullet.

Simon returned to the dinner, said hello to Ji Ziyin and sat down.

The atmosphere of the dinner is hot.

Ji Ziyin also talked about some of her experiences in country M, not much, but also revealed a little bit of information about the hidden family.

Everyone at the dinner table wanted to inquire about the inside information of the Hidden Family from her, and she was extremely clever to hide some of the stories, which further aroused the enthusiasm of the people at the table.

Everyone almost held her as the focus of the whole dinner, and the topic of conversation revolved around her, trying to find out more things from her.

But Ji Ziyin is very smart.

Apart from revealing a little bit of news at the beginning, she didn't talk about the hidden family in the future, and the old * was sitting in his seat drinking coffee.

She put on an attitude that she didn't want to talk more, and the others were not stupid, so she stopped thinking about continuing to inquire, and found something else to talk about.

But the whole process is still centered on her, try to bring her along.

"I heard that there have been frequent changes in Continent F recently."

Someone mentioned Continent F, and immediately there was a yellow hair who said, "You heard about it too? I heard about it too."

Huang Mao's family has their own business in Continent F, so they know more about the situation on Continent F: "I heard that the Dark Fortress has cooperated with weapons dealer David."

He was afraid that everyone would not know who David was, so he quickly explained it again: "David is the arms dealer who came to our Independent Continent last time."

He looked at Ji Ziyin, who was sitting in the main seat and drinking coffee elegantly, and said flatteringly, "Miss Ji knows that Mr. David. I remember last time Miss Ji said that she was friends with David. Right?"

When he said this, everyone else looked at Ji Ziyin.

Old Madam Lu's expression became more exciting. She seemed to want to laugh, but she didn't want to offend others, so she quickly picked up the cup and pretended to drink water to hide the sarcastic expression she couldn't help pulling up.

Does Ji Ziyin know David?

Ha ha!

She also thought that Ji Ziyin knew the arms dealer from Continent F, but she was played as a fool, and now there are still people who think Ji Ziyin has a close relationship with the arms dealer...

"Miss Ji, when did Mr. David return to Continent F? He left in a hurry this time, and I didn't have time to visit him."

Huangmao also wanted to take the opportunity to please Ji Ziyin, so he kept mentioning David, mainly thinking that David was Ji Ziyin's friend.

Ji Ziyin has such a good friend, and it's good to say it!

But he didn't notice that Ji Ziyin's expression became more and more stiff, and his face became dark and unclear.

She had seen a big scene when she went out, she used a cup to hide the stiff expression on her lips, and said, "I don't know, I went to country M at that time."

"Oh." Huang Mao was very regretful, and he said again without eyesight: "Did David not send you a message before he left?"

Old Madam Lu almost couldn't hold back her laughter, and hurriedly grabbed the shawl on her body, pretending to focus on arranging the shawl.

Ji Ziyin's expression became more and more ugly, and she said bluntly: "No."

Chapter 2633 Ji Ziyin's face is green

Huangmao finally realized that he was flattering on the horse's leg, and quickly smoothed out: "Ah, maybe their F continent people are like that, and they don't like to deal with people..."

Ji Ziyin didn't even bother to say um this time.

The atmosphere at the dinner table became more and more weird.

Huang Mao sat up a little embarrassedly, and awkwardly continued the topic he just mentioned: "Speaking of David, I think of a very interesting thing in F continent."

"Didn't Continent F always have two major forces?"

"One Davy, one dungeon."

"The two forces have always been at odds with each other. From time to time, there will be conflicts, which are quite stiff. As a result, not long ago, I don't know how, these two forces actually cooperated and devoured a small force in Continent F, and the two Fang Renma sat on a table calmly and divided up the force's inventory in Continent F..."

As he spoke, he relaxed and smacked his lips: "Tsk, see you in a long time!"

He talked about gossip in a vivid and vivid way, and the protagonist in it was the boss of F continent. Everyone's attention was attracted by what he said.

Simon has been absent-minded since he came back, and now he becomes restless without knowing what to think of.

He clenched his glass tightly and asked Huang Mao in a deep voice, "What will happen when David cooperates with the dark castle?"

"How about what?" Huang Mao turned to look at him.

Immediately, he suddenly realized with a smile: "These two forces are the two largest forces in Continent F. When they were not in harmony before, Continent F's business was forced to be divided into two. If you cooperate with this company, you cannot cooperate with that company. rule."

"Now, since everyone can sit at a table and share money, the business in Continent F will basically be monopolized by them."

Simon couldn't calm down for a long time.

Huang Mao shook his head with regret: "I should have known that David and the dark castle would shake hands and make peace one day. The two are as close as one family. Half a month ago, I had to find a way to visit Mr. David... We are here. It will be difficult to see people again next time!"

Simon's lips were white, and he pushed the chair away with a big movement and got up: "I'll go out for a while."

Everyone at the dinner table looked at him.

Simon didn't care either, nodded with Ji Ziyin, took the phone, and walked out quickly.

Huang Mao was still surprised when he saw him rushing out in a hurry: "President Simon, what's wrong? What's the hurry?"

Mrs. Lu didn't tidy up her waistcoat anymore. She narrowed her eyes and looked at the woman who was sitting there pretending to be unsure. She smiled slightly: "Who knows, maybe she regrets it."

Ji Ziyin heard her innuendo words, raised her head, looked at her with bright eyes, but her eyes showed a cold color.

The old lady Lu immediately shrank her neck and pretended to be dumbfounded, pretending that she hadn't ridiculed her much before.

Ji Ziyin's eyes were slightly cold, she slowly retracted her gaze, and turned to ask Huang Mao about the dark castle.

She has been living at Yu's house in country M, Yu Qingliu kept many things from her, and she didn't know how Qiao Nian rescued Lu Zhi.

includes the distribution of these forces in Continent F.

The shadow of the hidden family has never been told to her.

She knows nothing about the dungeon!

But intuition told her that the master behind the dark fort might be... an acquaintance.

Six pm.

Qiao Nian bid farewell to Xu Yi and returned to his place of residence from the research institute.

Chapter 2634 Sister Nian decides to join the Privy Council to recruit new students

When she returned to her residence, she found that Simon had sent her a message and asked her if she had found a place to eat.

It is estimated that she has not responded to the news.

sent her another message at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and carefully told her that he wanted to invite her to dinner, and by the way apologized.

Qiao Nian's eyes narrowed slightly, and her white fingers swiped the text message on the screen, and directly deleted the message Simon sent her.

She turned to get the water from the water dispenser.

Feng Yu couldn't wait to call.

Qiao Nian saw Feng Yu's call and knew why he was in a hurry to find him.

She took the mug and went back to the living room to find a comfortable place, and said, "Hello."

Feng Yu made a phone call but was not in a hurry: "Nian Nian, have you eaten yet?"

"Not yet." Qiao Nian glanced at the kitchen, where Gu San was still busy.

Feng Yu snorted, but still couldn't help but ask her, "Have you considered what I told you before?"

Qiao Nian lowered his eyes, quite dry: "...Can I say no?"

Feng Yu suddenly became anxious: "You won't change your mind, don't you, this opportunity is rare, and your mentor and I hope you can seize this opportunity."

"Ji Ziyin will also enter the Privy Council." Qiao Nian crossed his chest with one hand, leaned back, and leaned on the back of the sofa.

Feng Yu had heard about this a long time ago: "She? Even if she goes in, it's useless."

Ji Ziyin has a few kilograms and a few taels, and their hearts are clear.

With Ji Ziyin's real ability, she is a mess in the research institute, and going to a place like the Privy Council will only be set off as a scam.

She is also big-hearted.

The Hidden Family pushed her to the Privy Council, and she really dared to go in.

"She is not important." At this time, Feng Yu's heart was full of Qiao Nian entering the Privy Council, and he was not interested in Ji Ziyin: "The key is you, are you willing to participate in this recruitment, the time is getting closer, you can go Take your time."

Qiao Nian answered him after a few minutes: "I'll go, talk to the Ji family."

"real?!"

Feng Yu was overjoyed and stood up directly from the office chair, for fear that she would regret it, she clenched her phone tightly, and immediately said to her, "I will contact Ji Huang immediately."

...

The Privy Council does not recruit new members every year.

Their conditions for absorbing new people are much harsher than that of the First Research Institute.

And they haven't taken in new people very much.

This year was an accident.

This year, Shadow, the Queen's right-hand man, went directly to the Privy Council and suggested that the Queen should recommend a new person to enter the Privy Council.

They were meeting all night to discuss this matter.

Because this matter is of great importance, it was the first time that the Queen intervened in the selection of the Privy Council. On the one hand, they did not want Ji Ziyin, and on the other hand, no one was willing to come forward to offend the Queen.

The matter of has been stalemate here, and the Privy Council has also held a meeting for more than a week on this matter, and has been discussing a solution.

In the circular meeting room of the Privy Council.

Several important elders are sitting together, once again having a heated discussion on the introduction of new people this time.

One party thinks that since the queen has spoken, we must give the queen face.

The other party insists that the Privy Council is a regulatory body independent of the Queen and should not be manipulated by the Queen's personal wishes.

Neither side would let anyone else.

Several hundred and eighty-year-old old men fought so hard that no one would let anyone else.

Just when the atmosphere was stalemate.

The only person who remained neutral stood up and proposed: "Didn't we release news this year to recruit new people?"

Chapter 2635 There are still people in the Ji family lineage

"How about we give this new recruiting quota to that Ji Ziyin?" He proposed a compromise plan, swept over the crowd and said, "You are fighting back and forth because you think the Privy Council can't admit two new recruits a year, and we It's impossible to break your promise to recruit new recruits... If you want to tell me, we will give her this quota directly, so that only one new recruit will be recruited this year, and the Queen has also explained. "

He didn't mention the most crucial reason - a person's influence in the Privy Council is extremely limited!

If only one newcomer comes in this time, it is impossible for the Queen to pass this newcomer in the Privy Council.

As soon as he said these words, the two parties temporarily discussed with each other, and both were discussing the feasibility of this method.

The empress is of great significance to the hidden family, and they really don't want to hit the empress in the face.

Just when the leader who held the dissenting opinion was about to let go, someone suddenly broke in from outside: "Mr. Xue, your phone."

The old man headed by frowned and took it over in a very displeased way: "...Didn't I tell you that you are not allowed to come in and disturb me during the meeting?"

The man lowered his head: "Ji's phone."

The old man's face changed slightly, he pursed his lips, and went to the side to answer the phone.

ten minutes later.

He returned to the conference table, facing the crowd, his expression became extremely strange, a little shocked and a little scared and ugly: "Ji Huang told me that someone in the Ji family will participate in the recruitment of new members of the Privy Council this year."

There was an uproar in the audience.

"what?"

"What does the Ji family mean? Isn't Ji Ziyin one of their people?"

The old man raised his hand and signaled everyone to be quiet and listen to him: "We all know that someone in the Ji family has set rules in the hidden family. The Ji family can enter the Privy Council, and they have the right to participate in the recruitment of new members of the Privy Council..."

Someone said: "I know that, the question is, isn't there a precondition in front of this rule that it must be the direct line of the Ji family?"

"The only direct descendant of the Ji family's generation is Ji Nan, and Ji Nan is addicted to stock speculation and business, and basically does not touch these things. It is impossible for them to let Ji Nan participate in the recruitment of our Privy Council, otherwise no one else will be eligible."

"No." The old man looked at him with eagle eyes, and also said to everyone, "The Ji family also has a direct line of blood."

There was another bustling noise in the conference room, and everyone could not accept the news.

The blood of the Ji family has always been thin, and there are only one or two people in a generation.

There is only one direct line left in this generation.

Now, where did the bloodline come from? !

Is the blood of the lineage really so worthless that they are all over the street?

Everyone thought that the 'direct bloodline' he said was the illegitimate child born by Ji Lingfeng outside, who knew that the old man would then drop a blockbuster.

"Ji Qing has a daughter."

"She is the heir of Ji's authentic lineage."

"She is going to join our Privy Council recruitment this time."

Three sentences.

completely plunged the entire conference room into dead silence.

Ji Qing has descendants!

And this descendant will also participate in the recruitment of the Privy Council this year? !

The old man's expression was extremely solemn, and he couldn't see any jokes: "So you said before that you can assign the recruiting quota to that Ji Ziyin's method, you can give up. Since the Ji family's direct line is going to participate in this recruiting, the Privy Council will No quotas can be assigned!"

This is the rule set by that person when he was above the hidden family. Although that person has been dead for so many years, the rule is the rule, and the blood of the Ji family is still scarce and noble.

Chapter 2636 Queen: Tell Ji Ziyin about this first

"Our Privy Council still needs to be restrained?" An old man with a hook nose slammed the conference table and said in a breathless voice.

The old man known as Xue Lao looked at him very calmly: "Decades ago, the Privy Council was led by his nose. This is a fact, and no one can change it."

Hook-nosed hammered down the table angrily, but couldn't open his mouth and couldn't refute.

Mr. Xue swept through the people in the conference room, sorted out the meeting materials in his hand, and said in a low voice: "Since there are people in the Ji family's lineage who want to participate in the recruitment of the Privy Council, we will withdraw from the Queen's side sooner or later."

Hook-nosed brows furrowed, looking at him fiercely: "That's the queen! Who is going to say it? Are you going to say it?"

Old Xue always looked indifferent: "I'll go talk."

The hooked nose was blocked, and he was suffocated for a while, unable to squeeze out a word for a long time, and laughed angrily: "Okay, you are amazing, you go talk."

Mr. Xue took care of putting the things at hand into the file bag, then handed the file bag to the assistant behind him, got up, pulled out the chair and scanned the crowd.

"It is impossible for the Privy Council to admit two newcomers within a year. This is a tradition. So far, it has not been said that two newcomers have been admitted at one time."

"You don't want to talk, I'll talk to the Queen."

"Unless her old man has a way to abolish the rule left before, the Ji family lineage will have absolute right to participate!"

"No one in the Privy Council can change that."

m country.

After half an hour.

Shadow receives a call from the Privy Council.

After he communicated with the person on the other end with a serious expression, he said respectfully: "I will convey your message to the queen."

The person over there politely told him.

Shadow hung up the phone and hurriedly walked to the door of the master bedroom inside and knocked: "Can I come in?"

"Come in." The queen's dull voice came from inside.

Before the shadow opened the door, he lowered his head first, looked directly at his toes, walked to the curtain and said in a low voice, "Old Xue from the Privy Council called and said that Ji Lingfeng communicated with him personally, and someone from the Ji family's lineage wants to participate in this move. new."

"Oh?" The queen's voice behind the veil was long and sinister: "What does he mean?"

Shadow lowered his head: "Xue Lao is the leader of the conservative faction in the Privy Council. What he means is to follow the rules of the Privy Council."

As soon as he finished speaking, a vase brushed his cheek and slammed into the wall behind him, smashing into pieces.

"Snapped!"

A loud bang.

Shadow immediately knelt down on one knee and buried his head on the ground.

The queen quickly restrained her temper, but her tone was full of anger: "Huh. Rules? What rules? He didn't know how there were these rules in the first place? "

"That person is already dead, and now he is still talking about the rules left by that person, * it!" She was bitter and painful.

Shadow said in a low voice with a blank face: "The conservatives in the Privy Council have always attached great importance to this, and Elder Xue will not change his mind easily."

"Of course I know he won't change his mind." The queen said coldly: "Go and tell Ji Ziyin that Ji Lingfeng intends to let his direct descendants participate in this recruitment, and her place may be replaced by Qiao Nian, let her think for herself first. Method."

"Yes."

Shadow got up and turned around to go to work.

It was already midnight when Ji Ziyin received the news.

Chapter 2637 Ji scum disease rushed to the doctor

Because of the time difference, Shadow called her at three in the morning and briefly told her about the situation in the Privy Council.

Ji Ziyin couldn't sleep in the middle of the night.

The next morning, she couldn't wait to pack up and go out.

Originally, she wanted to find Ji Lingfeng.

But the driver drove the car to the gate of Ji's old house, and Ji Ziyin remembered the embarrassment of being stopped outside and not allowed in last time.

Seeing the security outside the old house, she hesitated for a while, then pressed the window and said to the driver, "Change the place, go to the city center."

"Miss, aren't you going in?" The driver thought that she must be going to the old house to talk about things when she came so early, but who knew she would not go.

Ji Ziyin was in a bad mood. She lowered her eyes to cover her uneasiness.

She thought of a person.

So he dug out his mobile phone from his satchel and sent a message to the man.

after an hour.

Ji Ziyin was waiting for someone at the cafe near the InterContinental Hotel.

"Waiter, a cup of iced coffee." She called the waiter, ordered a cup of coffee, and sat in the seat waiting for the man to come over.

At the same time that the man came over, the waiter brought their freshly ordered coffee and put it in front of the man smartly: "Your coffee."

Jinan was wearing a light blue T-shirt today, refreshing and handsome. He sat down and said to the waiter, "Thank you."

The waiter took the tray and walked away quickly, leaving a space for them to chat alone.

After sitting down, Ji Nan didn't touch the cup of coffee she ordered, but leaned back, looked at the woman opposite with great interest, and said in a low voice, "What are you looking for from me?"

Ji Ziyin told him in the text message that he wanted to talk to him alone about Qiao Nian, otherwise he would not run.

Ji Ziyin didn't mention Qiao Nian, pointed at the coffee in front of him and smiled, "This iced coffee tastes good, can you try it?"

Jinan raised her eyebrows, but did not move her body. She looked at her sharply with eyes that were three-point similar to Ji Lingfeng: "Speak straight."

Ji Ziyin bit her lip and said slightly embarrassedly: "We have known each other for more than ten years. Since I was brought back to the old house by the patriarch at the age of eight, I have always regarded you as a brother."

Jinan frowned and looked very impatient: "You came to me just to talk about this?"

Ji Ziyin saw that he wanted to get up and leave, so she quickly stopped and stopped him: "I just want to tell you about Qiao Nian."

Jinan then turned to look at her again.

Ji Ziyin stopped talking about the past, pursed her lips, and looked at him with apricot eyes: "Qiao Nian is your sister, right?"

"What are you trying to say?" Ji Nan frowned, very impatient.

Ji Ziyin didn't go around in circles any more, and went straight to the point: "I know you have a good relationship with her and treat her as her own sister, but do you know how she sees you in her eyes? Does she treat you as a brother?"

Jinan stood up suddenly and said very coldly: "If you ask me to say these words, then there is no need, we have nothing to talk about."

Ji Ziyin grabbed his sleeve and didn't let him go: "Jinan, do you know about the recruitment of new members of the Privy Council?"

Jinan grew up in Xie Yun's education, Xie Yun trained him to be a very gentleman, with the blood of aristocrats flowing in his bones.

He couldn't make the move to shake off the woman, but Ji Ziyin's behavior still made him disgusted and wanted to pull her hand away.

"Let go."

Chapter 2638 Do you think you are very smart and can play with people's hearts?

Ji Ziyin thought that the solution was to let them fight internally, so she raised her head and said anxiously: "You treat her as your sister, but she wants to take your place behind your back. If you continue like this, in the future The family still doesn't know who will inherit it!"

"I told you to let go!"

Ji Ziyin blushed and her eyes were angry: "Can't you see it? The patriarch never put you in the position of the heir! It used to be me, now it's Qiao Nian... You can just be content with your age. Approved by your father?"

Jinanguo then stiffened and didn't move.

Ji Ziyin breathed a sigh of relief and said slowly, "Jinan, she didn't tell you about the Privy Council, which means she doesn't take you as her own at all, and I'm doing it for your own good."

Before she came, she thought about what to say to provoke the feelings of the two.

Ji Ziyin thinks she has a way of looking at people, so she knows exactly what Ji Nan cares about most.

"You are all in the same lineage, don't you want to be recognized by others?" Her tone was full of bewitching.

Jinan lifted her hand at this time, straightened her sleeves, and looked at her facelessly: "You just want to tell me this?"

Ji Ziyin was startled and opened her mouth before she could answer.

Jinan laughed: "Do you think you are very smart and know how to play with people's hearts?"

"You're so smart, you still don't understand why you were brought to the old house in the first place. Do you really think my dad is going to train you as an heir?"

Did Ji Ziyin forget that he is the direct line of the Ji family, and she is just a side branch who was brought to the Ji family.

In the education he received since he was a child, except for the spirit of a gentleman, Xie Yun has cultivated everything that should be cultivated in him. Just because he doesn't like gunpowder does not mean that he is a fool.

"You said that my dad intends to train Niannian to be the heir, I don't deny it." Ji Nan looked down at her and smiled: "But you said that it was you before and she is now... Are you thinking too much of your own status? ?"

Ji Ziyin's face has become unsightly.

However, Jinan rarely gave her face: "except Ji Xiao, who really thinks you will be the future heir of the Ji family? It's fine for you to dream at home, and even come out to provoke me. When you say this, Don't you find it funny?"

Ji Ziyin took a deep breath, unable to control the beating of her heart: "I didn't lie to you, Qiao Nian is going to enter the Privy Council."

Jinan behaved indifferently: "So what?"

Ji Ziyin hates that iron is not steel: "You are also a direct descendant of the Ji family. She took your place without consulting you. This is called robbing, right? She is not as simple as you seem."

Jinan's eyes narrowed: "at least she is simpler than you."

Qiao Nian will never do these little tricks behind the back.

Ji Ziyin's pattern is small.

"Drink slowly." Ji Nan didn't want to entangle with her, so he left her and strode out of the cafe.

Ji Ziyin looked at the untouched cup of coffee opposite, and Ji Nan's words before leaving were still engraved in her mind.

Every word is full of ridicule towards her.

—Do you think you are very smart and know how to play tricks?

—The Ji family never regarded you as the real heir.

Ji Ziyin tried her best to calm herself down, don't worry about Ji Nan's words, but the blue veins on the back of her clenched hands betrayed her, her lips were trembling and she used coffee to cover her stiff face, almost biting a silver tooth.

Chapter 2639 Shifu likes seasons?

She took a deep breath, rubbed her face, woke up, got up to pay the bill and left the cafe.

Qiao Nian...

She thought she could enter a new stage of life soon, why Qiao Nian just refused to let her go, and always wanted to * her!

Shi Fu heard from Feng Yu early in the morning that Qiao Nian had promised to enter the Privy Council, and he was absent-minded all morning.

At noon, he finally couldn't sit still and went to the lab for girls alone to find someone.

Qiao Nian asked Feng Yu to apply for an independent laboratory, which she used alone, and no one outsiders knew what she was researching.

Feng Yu was very tolerant of this, and quickly gave her a small laboratory approval.

Qiao Nian has not entered her laboratory for the time being, except for Xu Yi's help.

"Knock knock."

There is a knock on the door outside the laboratory.

The girl who had just finished a reactor experiment took off her silicone gloves, walked to the computer to record the data, and said, "Come in" without raising her head.

Shi Fu pushed the door and went in.

He saw the reactor on the test bench at a glance.

The chemicals in had been burned into a charred mixture, but he had been in the laboratory for decades after all.

You can tell at a glance what kind of experiments the girls are doing.

Qiao Nian wrote down the data that she just reached the conclusion, then turned around and saw that it was Shifu coming over, she raised her eyebrows, a little surprised.

But she didn't deliberately hide what was on her lab bench, but went to the water dispenser to get Shi Fu a glass of water and put it in.

Then she leaned against the experimental table and said, "Are you looking for me?"

Shi Fu came back to his senses, took the water from her hand, held it in her hand for a long time, and said, "I'm sorry about the previous thing."

Qiao Nian: "?"

What happened before?

She didn't remember for a moment.

Shi Fu saw that she didn't speak, pursed his lips, and said with difficulty: "I shouldn't have said that to you before, don't worry about what I said."

Qiao Nianqu's dark eyes flashed a glimpse, and finally understood what he was talking about, so he raised his hand and said indifferently, "I forgot."

Shi Fusong breathed a sigh of relief, a rare smile on his strict face, lowered his head and took a sip of water, then raised his head to look at her: "If you want to enter the Privy Council, you have to go through their review, and if you enter in the future, you have to start with a newcomer. "

"The newcomers to the Privy Council generally have no voice, especially...they discriminate against Orientals."

The Privy Council is also an institution composed of the main members of the hidden family, and most of the members of the hidden family are Westerners.

Oriental faces are ostracized and discriminated against there.

It's like Qiao Nian and the others in country M, those people will naturally despise them when they see them as Orientals!

They do not recognize Orientals in their bones.

Qiao Nian narrowed his eyes, his eyes were dry, and he smiled with his lips hooked: "Really? I also discriminate against fools."

"..." When Fu saw her rebellious appearance, he didn't know why he didn't worry about her: "You just think so, as long as you don't take them seriously, they are ordinary people."

Qiao Nian is surrounded by 'ordinary people'.

She didn't have much sense of mystery and awe for the institution of the Privy Council, but felt that the external image of the Privy Council would be quite sophisticated.

Before Shifu left, his eyes fell on her test bench again, and he said with a slight pause: "I saw that she did this experiment you did. If you encounter difficulties, you can come to me, and I will try my best to help you."

Qiao Nian looked at his back as he walked away quickly, blinked slowly, holding back the words he almost asked.

Why does she feel that her mentor seems to have a different affection for Ji Qing?

Qiao Nian rubbed his face, shook off the thoughts in his head, and walked over to continue checking the data on the computer.

Chapter 2640 People from the Privy Council are here to find Sister Nian

Before going to bed at night, Qiao Nian received a WeChat message from Feng Yu, asking her to organize the information into emails and send it.

Qiao Nian turned on the computer and looked at the information form sent by Feng Yu, glanced at the ten lines, and found that it was the form of basic information requested by the Privy Council.

She pulled out the chair and sat down, put her hands on the keyboard and filled out the form according to the requirements, saved it with her backhand and sent it to Feng Yu.

Qiao Nian didn't care when he saw that the email was sent successfully, got up and went to the bathroom to take a shower, turned off the lights and went to sleep.

Next day.

She arrived at the First Research Institute at 9:30 in the morning, and before anyone entered the laboratory, Feng Yu called.

Qiao Nian put one hand on the doorknob, the other hand picked up the phone and put it next to his ear. He was quite lazy, and was sleepy just after waking up. His voice was very nasal: "Hello."

"Niannian, have you been to the research institute yet?" The background sound on Feng Yu's side was very noisy, as if it was outside.

Qiao Nian yawned and pushed open the door: "Just arrived, I'm about to put things away."

Feng Yu said immediately: "You come to my office first."

"Huh?" Qiao Nian rubbed his eyebrows, put down his bag, and half-squinted his eyes tiredly: "Is something wrong?"

Feng Yu didn't hide her: "I have someone looking for you here, and the vice president and the others are here too. Come over first, and you'll know when you come."

Qiao Nian wanted to stay in her small laboratory and continue to do the unfinished experiments in the past few days, but she probably guessed why Feng Yu was looking for her.

Although the girl's eyebrows were stained with a hint of manic depression, she still said very politely: "Wait a minute, go over immediately."

Feng Yu: "Okay, we'll wait for you."

...

In the office.

Feng Yu put down the phone, looked at the person sitting on the reception sofa drinking tea, rubbed his face, and said to the person, "I'm sorry, Lao Lei, she will come right away."

The person coming here is the hook nose.

He is probably in his early sixties, with silver hair meticulously combed behind his head, revealing a broad forehead, a face with Chinese characters, azure blue eyes that have become gray due to his age, and a particularly large and prominent aquiline nose, which makes people feel at a glance. Notice his features.

People with hook noses are not easy to get along with.

This person is obviously not one of the easy to get along with.

He heard that Qiao Nian hadn't come yet, with obvious displeasure on his face, he put the teacup on the coffee table beside him, and said in a low voice, "How long will she have to come?"

Feng Yu is not familiar with him, so it is not easy to offend him: "It's coming soon."

Leonard was obviously dissatisfied with this answer, frowned, and stopped talking.

The atmosphere in the office fell silent.

He did not speak.

Feng Yu did not speak.

Shi Fu, Zhou Zhou, and Xu Yi and Xue Zhu, who came to deliver things, didn't leave for a while, and didn't speak.

Time ticks by, and every second feels like a century.

finally.

There was movement at the door.

The figure of the girl hanging around appeared at the door of the office, reached out and knocked on the door, and said lazily: "Report."

Feng Yu saw her and immediately stood up straight to meet her: "Come in."

Qiao Nian walked into the office and saw three unfamiliar faces sitting on the sofa in the office. The old man at the head was very difficult to get along with, while the other two looked ordinary and had no special features.

She took her eyes back and immediately looked at Feng Yu: "Dean, do you have anything to do with me?"

Feng Yu pulled her over and introduced her: "This is Mr. Lei from the Privy Council, and the other two are also members of the Privy Council. They have something to talk to you about this time."
