

Madam's 2651

Chapter 2651 The Privy Council is not a place where one or two people have the final say

Ye Wangchuan put the teacup back on the table, looked at him and said, "Also, the queen is moving faster than you think, she contacted the neutral faction right away, but I got the news that the archbishop has not let go. ... If we want to solve this matter, we must hurry up and win people over as soon as possible in these two days."

"Otherwise, even if they are neutrals, they belong to a hidden family, and they have to sell the queen to save face."

The reason why neutralists are not strong enough is because they are smart enough to be the best of the best.

These people are not stupid enough to hit the queen in the face for an outsider.

At this time, unless there are more interests that make them willing to make this move. And playing with people's hearts, isn't it Ye Shao's strength?

"Go to Martin and let him ferment out Ji Ziyin's plagiarism of other people's work in the research institute."

Feng Yu's dark and old face showed a clear understanding, and immediately said: "I know."

Ye Wangchuan continued: "I will ask someone to check the details of Ji Ziyin again. She should have done more than one or two things over the years."

Ji Ziyin is a mercenary person.

She has no bottom lines and principles.

Feng Yu nodded, but he still owed it in his heart, and said in a deep voice, "Can we rely on these alone? What they want is to change nationality."

He is also very disgusted with the Privy Council's practice of discriminating against Orientals and people from country Z.

He never felt that there were good and bad races.

Everyone is human, where did you come from?

Even if there are three, six, nine, etc. people, why should they define who is the upper-class and who is the lower-class!

"If they want, will we give it?" Ye Wangchuan's tone was soothing, each word was spoken very slowly, but his face sank: "The Privy Council is not the one or two people who have the final say."

Feng Yu took a reassurance pill, stopped wasting time, and went to the desk to get the phone: "I'll tell Martin."

at the same time.

The Privy Council Church.

As the news of the Independent Continent came, the quarrel in the Privy Council turned upside down.

The assistant knocked on the door, went in lightly, and lowered his head: "Archbishop, the Queen has called you, do you want to answer?"

The man behind the multicolored glass stood in front of the cross and prayed without turning his head: "Tell her that I am not feeling well."

"Yes."

The assistant stepped out again.

After a while, someone else came in: "Archbishop, Lao Lei's phone number, I'm looking for you, saying that I have something to tell you."

was still the man's indifferent voice: "Say I have something to do."

There are people coming in and out, all of which are forces from all sides who want to seize the opportunity and get the support of the neutrals first.

including Martin also contacted him.

But they were all rejected by men.

At this time, someone came out of the shadows, saw the man standing in front of the cross, and whispered: "The queen has also found me."

"I think her attitude is very tough this time. We don't need to offend her for an outsider. Although the side branch of the Ji family recommended by the queen is ordinary, he is an independent continent."

While he was talking, the man stood in front of the cross with his hands folded and never opened his eyes, as if nothing could impress him, and he was extremely indifferent!

He had this attitude for the past two days, no matter who looked for him, he would never be seen!

No face is given to anyone.

Also, because he is nowhere to be seen, doing so is equivalent to not siding with any side, just like the evaluation Ye Wuchuan gave him, this person is extremely shrewd.

Chapter 2652 He didn't expect such a coincidence in the world

He didn't answer the question asked by the person in the shadow, but opened his eyes, looked over with a pair of amber eyes, and said in a low voice, "Is there any news from the Independent Continent?"

Jacob was about to answer when his phone vibrated in his pocket.

He quickly took out his phone, looked down at the caller ID, straightened his expression, stepped forward and handed the phone to the man: "Quentin, the old housekeeper's number."

The man stretched out his hand to answer the phone, his voice sounded very cold: "Hello."

Jacob consciously retreated back into the shadows and waited patiently for the man to answer the phone.

The man raised his voice slightly and said irritably, "You said he returned the birthday present I gave?"

Jacob raised his head, obviously stunned for a moment, very surprised, he knew that the Archbishop had an illegitimate son in his twenties in Independent Continent.

The other party didn't ask for a gift from the archbishop?

"Oh, he has a lot of backbone." The man was not very angry, and could see how tolerant he was to his son: "When is he going to come back? Do you want to stay in that institute?"

The old butler on the other end of the phone lowered his voice and answered very cautiously: "Young master seems to like the work of the First Research Institute very much. Recently, he has to stay in the research institute until eight or nine o'clock in the evening before going home, as if he is busy with friends. An experiment..."

"Friends?" Quentin asked with some interest.

Before he found Xu Yi, he had already investigated Xu Yi's background.

Xu Yi has a withdrawn and eccentric personality. He has few friends since he was a child, and is very independent!

The old butler replied softly: "Young master has a friend who is very important to me. I heard his mother mentioned that friend, saying that he helped them a lot and took care of them on weekdays..."

Quentin's amber eyes flashed, his thin lips touched up and down: "Which friend?"

"Young master's friend is a girl, quite young." The old housekeeper said very naturally: "It seems to be called Qiao Nian."

"..." He was silent.

The First Research Institute, Qiao Nian.

He didn't expect such a coincidence in the world...

At six o'clock in the afternoon, Qiao Nian looked at the clock on the wall to pack up and prepare to go home on time.

Xu Yi was still studying the calculation formula she gave, but he frowned and kept writing and drawing on the scratch paper.

He quickly filled the whole paper with the calculations. Even so, Xu Yi continued to check the results in the few blank spaces left.

Qiao Nian put on his coat, put on his bag, walked over and saw that he was still thinking hard, he tapped him on the shoulder and said, "It's okay if you can't figure it out, I'll come back and get it. I'll go first."

"I'll try again." Xu Yi didn't lift his head, as if he was in line with the numbers on the draft.

Qiao Nian knew his character, so he didn't bother him any more and left lightly.

Outside the research institute, Ye Fangchuan had already come out to wait for her.

Seeing the girl coming out of the research institute, he went up to meet her, naturally took the bag over the girl's shoulder, held it in his hand, and walked to the car...

"Why so early today?"

Qiao Nian was still thinking about the model pattern on his computer. Hearing this, he said casually, "Aren't you waiting for me outside? I'll come out earlier."

Ye Wuchuan opened the car door, put her bag in the passenger seat, turned around, saw her absent-mindedness, and took out a bottle of water from the car and handed it over: "I heard that you rejected the people in the Privy Council?"

Chapter 2653 The Chamber of Commerce Alliance found Mo Dong and went there

Qiao Nian unscrewed the bottle cap and raised her head to drink water. When she heard this, she put down the mineral water, twisted the bottle cap, lowered her eyes and prepared to get into the car: "Who did you hear?"

Ye Wangchuan thoughtfully put the water back into the car for her, waited for Qiao Nian to get in the car, bent over and pulled the safety belt to fasten her, and said, "Dean Feng said."

Qiao Nian was slightly distracted because of the refreshing smell that spread over him when he approached him.

When she came back to her senses, she nodded and said indifferently, "Oh. I rejected them, but I don't regret it. Now, I will reject them as well."

Ye Wuchuan originally wanted to say that the Privy Council would hold a voting meeting the day after tomorrow for her entry, but seeing the girl's indifferent attitude, he didn't mention this to spoil the fun.

The reason why Qiao Nian entered the Privy Council was more to not disappoint Feng Yu and Shifu, not because she wanted to enter the Privy Council...

The Privy Council's strict requirements for changing nationality are indeed too arrogant.

Ye Wangchuan skipped this topic, opened the car door and got in the car, fastened his seat belt and said to her, "Simon went to Mo Dong's place."

"He still wants to invite you to dinner and apologize for what happened at the restaurant last time."

Qiao Nian frowned: "Didn't I say I don't have to?"

Ye Wangchuan drove the car, put his hands on the reverse wheel, his handsome face was bright and suave, and sneered: "He's not afraid of you being angry, he wants to make up for his relationship with you!"

Qiao Nian hasn't spoken yet.

He said indifferently: "The Chamber of Commerce Alliance is not a waste of time or two. He wants to curry favor with Ji Ziyin, but he doesn't want to offend you. There is no good thing in the world where both ends are good, and people are always responsible for their own choices. "

Qiao Nian withdrew his gaze, looked forward without looking sideways, put one hand on his lap, and responded very idle: "En."

Simon's side finally got in touch with Mo Dong through a relationship, and asked Mo Dong to intercede for him in the middle. As a result, he waited at home for a long time and did not wait for Mo Dong to call back.

He couldn't hold back, so he tried to call Mo Dong again.

Mo Dong did not refuse to pick up.

Simon saw that the other party answered the phone, and immediately stood up and walked to the study: "Mo Shao, did you convey the matter I asked you to yesterday?"

...

Yaomenli.

The man with rough features is cocking Erlang's legs, resting his legs on the table, leaning on the back of the chair to watch the monitor.

He received a call from the Chamber of Commerce Union, and couldn't help sneering: "I didn't look for you, you are too embarrassed to come to me."

Simon's heart beat faster, and immediately asked: "Mo Shao, what does this mean?"

"You told me that you wanted to invite Miss Qiao to dinner, why didn't you tell me what you did? When you were licking Ji Ziyin, why didn't you expect to invite Miss Qiao to dinner? Now you remembered to invite Miss Qiao to dinner, what? Afraid that Ji Ziyin won't bring you to meet people from the hidden family?" Mo Dong put his legs down and spat out the toothpick in his mouth.

Moxy pushed the glasses on the bridge of his nose and asked him, "Who is it?"

Mo Dong's face was sinking like water, and he didn't bother to answer: "Ji Ziyin's little follower."

Simon was dumbfounded by his choking, his old face became hot, and he begged for mercy: "Mo Shao, I didn't mean that."

"Then what do you mean?" Mo Dong raised his brows and asked very rudely.

Simon was very embarrassed, and explained to him shyly: "I wanted to let Miss Qiao and my friends go in for dinner that day, but...just...that day was not convenient, and it was not easy for me to be caught in the middle..."

Chapter 2654 As soon as the arrogant makes a move, it is fast, accurate and ruthless

"Okay." Mo Dong didn't need him to finish, he repeated Ye Wuchuan's words to him, and finally said: "When you asked Miss Qiao for help before, when she didn't help you, now you say that you are caught in the middle. If it's hard to offend people, then don't offend, and you don't have to worry about offending anyone in the future."

He also hung up the phone without waiting for Simon to explain.

After hanging up the phone, Mo Dong was still angry. He threw the phone on the table and made a snapping sound.

"He still has the face to come to me to intercede, and I was almost * used by him as a gun!"

Moxie handed him a chewing gum and comforted him calmly: "Forget it, you only need to know who he is. There's no need to bother with such a person."

"..." Mo Dong took the candy with a cold face, unwrapped the wrapper and threw it into his mouth and chewed it vigorously, as if to vent his anger.

Mo Xi looked at how angry he was about Qiao Nian's affairs, smiled again, put down the work at hand and said, "...if you are angry at this trivial matter, then you will not be able to be angry. Now all the forces in the independent continent are At the side of the station, not only him, but also the Lu family, Xie family and several major forces have chosen to stand with Ji Ziyin, and the Chamber of Commerce Alliance is only one of them."

"They are all waiting for Ji Ziyin to successfully enter the Privy Council with the Queen's back to bring them benefits... In comparison, although Miss Qiao has the power of Yaomen + First Research Institute + F continent arms dealers, she can compare with the hidden family. It just doesn't look good enough."

Mo Dong's expression was gloomy for an inch: "Ji Ziyin hasn't entered the Privy Council yet, and they are not afraid to wince."

Moxi raised his hand and said happily, "don't worry, there will be results the day after tomorrow."

There are two days left.

He believes that those who stand in line with Ji Ziyin will be greatly disappointed!

Mo Dong reluctantly swallowed this breath, took a deep breath, and said with a numb face, "I'll wait and see who has the last laugh."

Ye Wangchuan shot, Feng Yu and Martin cooperated on the side.

Ji Ziyin's old and old bottoms in Independence Island were opened overnight and spread throughout the Privy Council.

Didn't wait for Ji Ziyin and her party to discuss countermeasures.

Ye Wuchuan shot quickly and accurately, and threw out the evidence together, directly blocking her escape route of trying to sophistry.

The Privy Council rarely encounters such a thing. Everyone has opened their eyes. They never thought that the person recommended by the Queen would be so unbearable in private.

As the matter became more and more serious, some people also had opinions on the Queen's decision this time.

Ji Ziyin was standing in the hotel suite at the moment, facing the sharp questioning of the hooked-nosed old man, her face was pale, her brain was like a thunderclap, her heart was about to stop.

"I do not."

Ji Ziyin clenched her palm tightly and raised her head, knowing that she could not admit it anyway, otherwise she would not be able to turn over: "These are all they framed me."

She kept her tone as calm as possible and said, "After she knew her life, she wanted me to be disgraced in order to kick me out. Feng Yu knew her for a long time, so she helped her frame me, and my teacher also wanted to help me get kicked out by them. I left the research institute, so no one in the research institute dared to speak for me, everyone knows that speaking for me means offending the dean and the vice dean..."

Chapter 2655 They also want to throw dirty water on Sister Nian

Leonard didn't believe a word of what she said, not a single punctuation mark.

It's just that he's Queen's Party.

So, believe it or not, he has to stand on Ji Ziyin's side to wipe her ass: "You have implicated the queen this time."

Ji Ziyin's face turned pale for a moment, she broke the skin of the palm of her hand, lowered her head slightly, looked at her toes, and apologized in a voice as thin as a mosquito's feet: "I'm sorry."

She wouldn't find it useful to be sorry, would she?

Leonard looked at her contemptuously, almost sneering, but he held it back, walked to the window and said, "Now, this matter is not your business alone, whether you can enter the Privy Council has nothing to do with it. To the queen's face, I will try my best to keep you in! Think about it, do you have any handle on the other party?"

Ji Ziyin raised her head, her apricot eyes flashed, and she hesitated.

The eagle-nosed old man was so angry that he couldn't hold back and said to her: "People have so many handles on you, but you can't even get a handle on them?"

How did the Queen like her? !

Ji Ziyin seemed to have been slapped, took a deep breath, turned her head for a long time before hesitatingly said: "I have investigated her before, and she seems to have helped Z country to occupy Qi's research results, which are the latest research results on the market. One of the chips was first researched by the Qi family, and then published by a research team in country Z. The Qi family protested to the World Software Association, and then she used her influence in the illegal zone to force the software association to admit that country Z plagiarism. the legality of the chip technology..."

"This matter was a big deal in the illegal zone at the beginning. Many people knew about it, but it was later blocked by Lu Zhi."

Tianchen has absolute control in the illegal zone, and Lu Zhi is the uncrowned king of the illegal zone.

If Lu Zhi didn't let anyone mention this, then few people in the illegal zone would dare to mention it.

Ji Ziyin traced from He Lin that Qiao Nian was the blood of the Ji family. She found someone to investigate the matter, but she didn't know much.

"If this matter is true, it should be regarded as a handle for her." Ji Ziyin timidly whispered: "And her chaotic relationship between men and women..."

Leonard thought she could tell the big deal, but it turned out to be a 'little thing'.

You must know that the hammers thrown out by others are all plagiarism, occupying other people's research results, guarding their own theft... There is even a lawsuit involving human life.

The things that Ji Ziyin mentioned are really not enough compared with the handle she was turned over by others!

The eagle-nosed old man can only follow the principle of "talking about nothing is better than nothing", hummed, and said, "Now we can only guide the contradiction to the identity of the Oriental!"

Ji Ziyin is still a native of the Independent Continent no matter how bad it is.

Qiao Nian's blemish is enough, who made her not of their race, but an inferior oriental!

He got the handle and immediately contacted the neutrals.

He originally thought that the archbishop would find a reason to shirk it again, but he didn't expect the other party to answer the phone this time, so he conveyed his and the queen's thoughts again, and also mentioned to the other party the taint that Ji Ziyin mentioned...

The hooked-nosed old man finally said, "The Privy Council has never accepted Orientals. Since she is unwilling to change her nationality and has stains on her body, we really have no reason to accept such a person."

After he finished speaking, he didn't know what to do. He didn't know if the neutrals would be on their side, so he had to move the queen out again: "That's what the queen meant too."

Chapter 2656 They really want to do something

Quentin ignored his tirade, but paid attention to one detail: "You said her private life is messy?"

"I also heard people say it." The hooked-nosed old man wasn't sure why he was interested in this little detail, but he was keenly aware that Quentin cared about it.

He paused for half a second, and immediately decided to make a fuss about this matter: "She doesn't follow the right path at a young age, and uses her beauty to go the wrong way. This style of work is not suitable for our Privy Council..."

"Do you have any evidence?" Quentin asked without waiting for him to finish speaking.

The hooked-nosed old man pondered for a moment: "Wait a minute."

He put down the phone, covered the receiver, looked at Ji Ziyin in the room with sharp eyes and asked, "You just said that she was messing with the relationship between men and women... Is there any evidence?"

Ji Ziyin squeezed the palm of her hand, trying to keep her face calm: "Yes, I have witnesses."

The hooked-nosed old man nodded with satisfaction and resumed the call: "Archbishop, I have evidence, I will give you the evidence later."

Quentin hung up.

The hook-nosed old man came back, put the phone on the table, bent his fingers and tapped the table, pondered for a few seconds, turned his head, and immediately said to Ji Ziyin, "Go to the witness, and if you find that person, let her come out to testify immediately. Try to make it real!"

...

Ji Ziyin left the hotel and quickly contacted Qi Yan through the relationship of the royal family.

"...That's the way it is. This is your only chance to get revenge on her. If you miss it, you won't have the chance to get revenge on the Qi family again in your life... You have to think about it!"

When Ji Ziyin talked to Qi Yan, she was not as well-behaved in front of Leonard, but looked at the person on the other end of the video with a high air.

Qi Yan has aged a lot in a short period of time. At the age of forty, you can already see the traces of the years. The eye sockets are extremely deep, and there are small lines around the eyes.

She didn't expect that after a year, someone would find her because of Qiao Nian's affairs, and she proposed to cooperate as soon as possible.

"But..." Qi Yan felt uneasy in her heart, and the losses she had suffered in the past were still vivid in her mind. Even if she hated Qiao Nian, she would not dare to provoke the other party easily: "But Miss Ji, I have no evidence to prove that she has a relationship with Hongmeng. Slim waist control has an improper relationship... In case she turns back and takes revenge on me..."

Ji Ziyin raised her eyelids and said very proudly: "Hey. With me here, what are you afraid of?"

Qi Yan calmed down a little, and her mind began to liven up.

The Qi family has been in decline since a year ago, and now they have been kicked out of the circle of high society.

Even if the Qi family was not kicked out, the top circle they could reach on tiptoe was only the royal family.

Ji Ziyin is different.

Ji Ziyin has a hidden family behind the m royal family, as well as Her Majesty the Queen.

Qi Yan looked at Ji Ziyin, her eyes rolled quickly, she pulled her hair together, and said embarrassedly: "With Miss Ji here, of course I'm not afraid. But I don't have any reason to provoke her out of breath, you know her This person is very evil, I've only suffered from being dumb, but I don't dare to provoke it easily..."

Ji Ziyin knew what medicine she was selling in her gourd just by looking at her, and smiled lightly: "Don't worry, I won't treat you badly."

Qi Yan didn't believe a little girl's promise: "Even if Miss Ji said that, I wouldn't dare to provoke her, besides I have no evidence..."

Chapter 2657 Someone came to the institute to find Sister Nian

"You just need to stand up and point out that she used her relationship with a man to do things on the chip issue. You don't have to do anything else."

Qi Yan's eyebrows moved, and she wanted to say something.

She spoke first: "That's what the Queen means too."

The word Queen really made Qi Yan's heart move.

Ji Ziyin bewitched her while the iron was hot: "As long as you do this well, the queen and I will remember this favor."

Faced with the huge temptation, Qi Yan still felt a strong unease in her heart: "But..." She was afraid of overturning the car for something without evidence.

Ji Ziyin's eyes were shining and she was very sure: "There is no but. You are the best evidence, witness!"

She has to take it seriously!

Ji Ziyin's action ability is very strong.

She quickly discussed the details with Qi Yan, and Qi Yan came forward to prove that Qiao Nian was messing with men and women, and used her advantages in appearance to benefit the research team in country Z in terms of chip technology...

And through Leonard's relationship, she asked her people in country M to bring Qi Yan to meet the archbishop.

Qi Yan personally admitted in front of the archbishop that she had seen Qiao Nian having ambiguous relationships with different men, and said that she had seen Qiao Nian go in and out with a man at the age of eighteen, living together...

The chaos of private life is not too serious black material.

But in the strict Privy Council, even if everyone is not clean in private, at least on the surface, everyone is more taboo about these things.

As some rumors came out, the attitude of the people in the Privy Council changed from questioning the Queen's vision to the two candidates who were not very good...

Ji Ziyin can also be considered to have achieved her goal temporarily, and she herself took the time to cover up the scandals that Ye Wuchuan brought up...

Ji Ziyin and the radicals are very busy.

Qiao Nian's side is like nothing happened. These two days are two-point and one-line life, either at home or in the laboratory of the research institute, basically ignoring what happens outside.

It was not until Feng Yu brought a silver-haired old man to the door that she had to take time out of her own world.

Feng Yu and the silver-haired old man were waiting for her to go out in the corridor outside the laboratory. Qiao Nian had to hand over half of the experiments to Xu Yi, took off the goggles and put them on the computer table, took off his white coat and Qing Jun's. The young man said, "I'll go out, and I'll leave it to you here."

Xu Yi took the small notebook for recording the data from her, and nodded expressionlessly: "Go and do your work, I will write it down."

"Okay." Qiao Nian raised his hand and pressed his eyebrows, his beautiful eyes half-squinted and quite tired, but his tone was gentle: "You remember it there, I'll get it back."

Xu Yi raised his hand to her again, motioning her to go to her own business first, and he can handle it alone here.

Qiao Nian turned his head to look at Feng Yu and the strange old man who were waiting for her outside. He pursed his lips, and without delay, took his coat and mobile phone and opened the door of the laboratory and went out.

Outside the laboratory, Feng Yu was still talking to the old man.

In the blink of an eye, he saw the girl come out from the inside, he was relieved, took two steps forward and pulled the person over and said, "My little ancestor, you finally came out."

If Qiao Nian didn't want to come out halfway because of his face, he passed him, looked at the person behind him with bright eyes, and said in a helpless tone: "Are you looking for me for something?"

Chapter 2658 Sister Nian: To be honest, I just found out

"What do you think?" Feng Yu couldn't tell her directly, so he pulled her over and introduced her to the two with a smile: "Mr. Xue, let me introduce you, this is Qiao Nian, the heir I chose. , the future master of the First Research Institute."

He looked at the girl again, his tone was soothing, and he could see who was closer to him: "Niannian, this is Mr. Xue, from the Privy Council."

Privy Council?

Qiao Nian now heard the subconscious frown of the Privy Council, a little inexplicably cold, but since Feng Yu brought someone to her, at least it means that this person is not malicious.

So she stretched out her hand and greeted politely: "Hello."

The silver-haired old man is about seventy years old. He doesn't look like a mountain or dew, but his eyes are full of light. He wears a dark red Tang suit with buttons. He doesn't look like a person from the country M, but more like an Oriental. An oriental introverted temperament.

It's just that his eyes are amber, and he is not tall among Westerners, only about 1.7 meters, a little shorter than Feng Yu.

When Qiao Nian was looking at him, the silver-haired old man was also looking at her.

Those shrewd eyes fell from her face, and finally returned to Qiao Nian's face, smiling lightly: "You don't have to be nervous, I didn't come to you to find fault."

Qiao Nian raised his eyebrows, retracted his hand, and stretched out his cap to reveal the snow-white jawline: "It's inconvenient to chat here. I know there's a drinking place outside, where shall we go to chat?"

Feng Yu made a round in the middle: "Elder Xue, there are too many people here. The place Niannian mentioned is not far outside the research institute. Let's go over and talk."

The silver-haired old man was very talkative and agreed: "Yes."

The three of them came to the coffee shop outside the institute in a blink of an eye. Qiao Nian went to order food, ordered two low-sugar lattes and a glass of iced lemonade she drank, and quickly returned with three glasses of water on a tray.

"Your coffee."

She put two cups of low-sugar lattes in front of Feng Yu and the silver-haired old man respectively, then pulled out the remaining seat and sat down, looked up at the silver-haired old man, and said very bluntly: "Tell me, what are you looking for from me."

"Cough..." Feng Yu almost choked his throat as soon as he lowered his head and took a sip of coffee. Fortunately, he quickly grabbed a piece of paper and covered his mouth, so he didn't spray the coffee out.

The silver-haired old man was much calmer than him, and drew him a piece of paper and handed it over.

Then he looked at the girl with a flash of interest in his eyes. He seemed to appreciate the girl's straightforward character, took a sip of coffee, and said, "Do you know that the Privy Council is going to vote on your recruitment?"

Qiao Nian didn't care about this, so he told the truth: "To be honest, I just found out."

Since she had a falling out with a few people who came to the door that day, she has not been concerned with the affairs of the Privy Council and has no interest in it.

"Haha." The silver-haired old man laughed instead, and said to her cheerfully, "I really want you to enter the Privy Council."

"The Privy Council has been rotten for too long. We need someone to break Shen Wei, but we haven't been able to find a suitable candidate for a long time."

He looked at the girl and said without concealing his compliment: "You're... just like I thought, you have the character of the Ji family!"

The Ji family has always been different, they are smart enough, and this smarter than ordinary people is like a double-edged sword.

Some choose the sharp side of the double-edged sword, some choose the back of the blade.

Chapter 2659 Sister Nian is furious, I will solve this matter

He saw the person in front of him more like a complex contradiction.

She has the sharp side of the Ji family, and the restrained side of the Ji family, like a bow full of strings, she is sharp and has a bottom line.

"Someone is spreading rumors about you in the Privy Council and messing about with men and women." The silver-haired old man looked at the past with soft eyes, and ignored Feng Yu's shocked expression, he continued to tell the girl, "You also said that you used your own advantages to occupy the scientific research team of country Z for the belong to their research."

He saw that the girl's brows were obviously cold when he mentioned the country Z, and he knew that she was not interested in the rumors about her, but she cared about others talking about the country Z.

He slowly picked up the coffee and took another sip before continuing to say lightly: "In order to prove their words, they began to say that country Z has not developed their own chip for decades, and insisting on the chip technology of country Z is stealing. It came, not developed by myself."

"Snort."

Qiao Nian was not stupid, she could see that the other party was deliberately angering her, but she had to admit that the other party guessed correctly, she was indeed provoked.

"Who did it?"

The silver-haired old man put down the cup gracefully and looked up at her: "What do you think?"

Qiao Nian raised his peaked cap, revealing a delicate and eye-catching face. The corners of his raised mouth were quite open, and his whole body was full of aura: "Oh, Ji Ziyin?"

The silver-haired old man neither admitted nor denied, and put his hand on the round coffee table.

Qiao Nian has already got up, picked up his mobile phone, lowered his eyelids and said, "Thank you."

Feng Yu saw that she was leaving, so she quickly got up and said, "Are you leaving?"

The silver-haired old man didn't stop her, his shoulders relaxed, and he sat there comfortably and said slowly: "It's true that they look down on the Orientals and country Z, but it is also true that they keep saying that the East is backward in technology, including what they say Z It's still a fact that China has not had its own chip technology for decades... You can shut up one Ji Ziyin, can you shut up all 'Ji Ziyin'?"

Qiao Nian turned his head suddenly, his dark eyes narrowed slightly, a very dangerous look.

"Even if you have the ability to shut up everyone, they are not convinced! Human prejudice is like a mountain, and it cannot be changed overnight."

He accepted the girl's gaze calmly: "So Miss Qiao, I want to ask if you are interested in entering the Privy Council to remove this mountain?"

"Why did you do this?" Qiao Nian asked instead without answering his question directly.

The silver-haired old man froze for a moment, but soon returned to normal. He slowly picked up the cup of coffee in front of him and took another sip. He said casually, "Because I also have a part of the blood of the East flowing through me."

Qiao Nian suddenly remembered that he was shorter than Feng Yu, and knew that he was mostly a half-blood, but he didn't expect that he was also half-oriental.

Mr. Xue?

She remembered several important figures in the Privy Council that Ye Wangchuan had mentioned to her, and she remembered who Mr. Xue was.

She didn't make any promises, she just took her things neatly and said, "I will solve this matter."

She said that it will be resolved if it will be resolved.

When Qiao Nian returned to the villa, Qin Sigang came out with a bucket of instant noodles, and when she saw her coming back, she went to the living room with some confusion: "Sister Qiao, why did you come back so early today?"

He looked at the wall clock in the living room and the time was even more strange: "You usually come back at six or seven o'clock, so it's not even three o'clock, right?"

Chapter 2660 As soon as Sister Nian makes a move, you will know if there is any

"I have something to do when I come back." Qiao Nian put on his slippers and walked inside.

Qin Si put down the instant noodles, took the foreign book Gu San was reading and pressed it on it. He touched his earlobe with his red-hot hand and asked the girl, "Wocao, who is doing what?!"

"Huh?" Qiao Nian was stunned for a second by his question, tilted his head and looked at him with his hands in his pockets.

Qin Si didn't care that he was making noodles, walked up to her, and said excitedly, "Sister Qiao, is anyone else committing suicide? Who is it?"

Qiao Nian looked at him as if he was so busy and panicked that he wished someone would kill him. He silently pulled down his cap and lowered his cold eyes: "...No."

"I'll go up first."

Qin Si saw her turn upstairs and wanted to get into her stomach to be a roundworm, but Qiao Nian walked too fast, he could only watch the people disappear.

...

Upstairs.

Qiao Nian went back to his room, first took off the cap and put it on the cabinet in the entrance, then walked in, walked straight to the desk, opened the laptop on the table with one hand, and took the phone out of his pocket with the other hand.

She pulled out the chair and sat down, raised Erlang's legs, and hit the ESC key, and the computer screen was activated again.

Qiao Nian didn't do those twists and turns, and hacked Ji Ziyin's phone the first time he turned on the computer.

Ji Ziyin probably knew about her vest in Hongmeng, and had already upgraded her mobile phone security system to the highest level, and a little carelessness would trigger her alarm system.

But these are not difficult for Qiao Nian.

I saw her white fingertips tap a few number keys on the keyboard, and easily cracked Ji Ziyin's defense system on the phone.

The defense system is gone, and the next thing is much easier.

Qiao Nian operated her mobile phone background on the computer, and soon found the records of her contact with Qi Yan and some clues.

Ji Ziyin has indeed become a lot smarter since she got married to the queen, and people have become more cautious, and will not show their tricks easily.

The information on her phone was basically deleted.

chat record.

call records.

She deletes it every time.

But it is easy for Qiao Nian to recover these files.

five minutes later.

The girl got up and went to the water dispenser to pick up a glass of water. Some of the text messages deleted by Ji Ziyin have been restored on the computer.

One of the text messages is very eye-catching.

comes from country m.

The sender is Qi Yan.

【Qi Yu: I have done as you said, don't forget to promise me! You said that as long as I help you do this well, the Qi family can join the hidden family. 】

Qiao Nian saw the last few words, what else could he not understand.

Ji Ziyin even threw out the hidden family as a bait, such a big temptation, no wonder Qi Yan couldn't control it and took the risk to help her.

She narrowed her eyes slightly, put her hands on her knees and tapped softly, thinking about it - Ji Ziyin promised Qi Yan to enter the hidden family, do the people of the hidden family know?

The next day, the day the Privy Council voted.

Mr. Xue came back on a private plane overnight last night. He didn't stop for a moment when he got off the plane and went straight back to the Privy Council.

His car stopped at the gate of the Privy Council, and when he got out of the car, he encountered the old man with hook nose who also arrived just yesterday.

Once the eagle-nosed old man saw him, he immediately greeted him: "Old Xue, what a coincidence, I ran into you as soon as I came."

Lao Xue got out of the car, his sharp eyes swept across his high-spirited face, with a rather gloomy expression, the corners of his mouth were slightly raised, and he walked with him with great bearing: "Lao Lei just came back from Independent Island?"
