

Madam's 2741

Chapter 2741 Slap in the face! Since the relationship is so good, why wait for the next time

Jian Yan saw her idea and didn't want to have anything to do with her at all, so she greeted her own people: "Don't bother Miss Ji, we'll go by ourselves."

She told Tianchen and the others to follow her.

In a blink of an eye, only Ji Ziyin and a few of her subordinates were left at the airport.

Ji Ziyin's face was a little stiff when she saw Jian Ai leave. She looked back with gloomy eyes and saw the man with his head covered. She raised her hand and rubbed her face, feeling a little better, and coldly ordered her subordinates; Watch him!"

"Yes."

The man in the hood was staggered and pushed onto the plane.

Ji Ziyin looked at the backs of the few people walking away, and couldn't help frowning, always feeling that Qiao Nian seemed to be too quiet these days.

She didn't do this task at all.

Including that Ye Wuchuan beside her!

They seem to have given up on this task, and it is unusual everywhere.

Ji Ziyin is not a brainless person to be able to get into the current position. After thinking for a while, she dug out the number in her mobile phone and called it.

"Hey, Lord Shadow."

"I found someone."

"I want to ask you a favor."

In the Privy Council.

Leonard answered the phone, and immediately took someone to leave in a hurry.

He happened to bump into Old Xue's group walking towards him in the corridor, Martin was among them, and there was even Jacob beside the archbishop.

The hook-nosed old man saw a group of people from a distance, and his heart skipped a beat, feeling uncomfortable.

"Lao Lei, why did the neutrals get along with them?"

"Is that the person by Quentin's side?"

The three major factions of the Privy Council have never seen the king, and the relationship between them is complicated and rarely harmonious.

The representatives of the centrists, such as Martin and Jacob, are mixed with the conservatives, which is definitely not good news for their radicals!

The expression of the eagle-nosed old man changed, and he quickly lowered his eyes to meet him: "Old Xue, what a coincidence, where are you going?"

The silver-haired old man also saw him at the beginning, and now he was very polite and pretended to be a snake: "I have something to ask the archbishop."

"Are you looking for the Archbishop?" The hooked-nosed old man smiled slightly and said casually, "You guys have been very close during this time."

Mr. Xue just smiled and didn't say anything.

His eyes sank, and he swung at several people again and again: "By the way, tomorrow is the deadline for the newcomer's task, right? You are not very optimistic about that girl named Qiao Nian? She didn't tell you how the task was completed? "

"I didn't say it." The silver-haired old man straightened the folds on his clothes, looked at him with shrewd eyes, smiled and whispered: "But I believe in her ability."

"Haha." The hooked-nosed old man laughed immediately, and seemed to be in a good mood: "It's good that you are always so optimistic. Those of us don't care about beliefs and other illusory things, I just look at the results!"

He brushed off his clothes and provocatively smiled: "Ji Ziyin told me that she had brought people back from the illegal zone."

"Tianchen helped a lot."

"I think she has a very good relationship with Lu Zhi. Next time I will tell her to let her help ease the tension between us and the K organization."

"Since Lu Zhi is willing to help her, he should be willing to sell her face. Do you think so?"

He said it lightly, but every word was aimed at Qiao Nian.

He attacked Lao Xue and others by belittling Qiao Nian.

Old Xue's eyes narrowed, but he was not successful in provoking him, he just said quietly: "Since Lu Zhi has such a good relationship with her, why do you wait for the next time?"

Chapter 2742 When the matter here is resolved, we will go back to Beijing

The eagle-nosed old man changed his smile and laughed twice: "Hehe, after all, it's a big event, so we can't say it hastily, it will show that we are not sincere. Of course, the two parties have to sit and have a meal together and talk while eating."

He seemed to be afraid that Mr. Xue would continue to poke at his sore spot without giving the other party a chance to slap him, and hurriedly said: "I still have something to do, so I won't talk to you anymore, just go ahead."

After he finished speaking, he said hello to Martin and the others, and hurried away with his own people...

Old Xue watched them leave, took a deep breath, and looked serious: "Let's go, let's go to the Archbishop."

Martin followed at the back, thinking of the conflict just now, he quietly revealed a message to Feng Yu on his mobile phone.

In a high-end apartment outside the Privy Council.

The girl received a call from the Independent Island as soon as she woke up. She yawned and came down the stairs, while casually listening to the people over there.

"Nian Nian, is your progress in the Privy Council not going well?"

"I heard that they assigned you a task, but you didn't finish it..."

"..."

Qiao Nian had already walked to the living room sofa and sat down slouching, squinting his eyes lazily and listening to him chirping on the other end of the phone.

"Where's the leaflet?"

"Didn't he help you?"

"What task did the Privy Council give you? I'll see if I can help."

Feng Yu was still chattering over there, asking about her situation in the Privy Council.

Qiao Nian rubbed his temples, his brain was getting bigger.

"I have plans."

Feng Yu then stopped: "You said that task, do you have an idea?"

"Well." Qiao Nian found a comfortable position to lie on the sofa, glanced at the news on the phone, held down the Bluetooth headset, looked at the kitchen, and returned to him absent-mindedly: "I have arranged it."

Ye Wangchuan came out of the kitchen and saw the person who was awake. He walked over to make her a cup of coffee and put it down: "Are you up?"

"Just woke up." Qiao Nian rubbed his temples again and said to Feng Yu, "Don't worry, I will fix it."

Feng Yu only called her when she heard the news from Martin. Seeing that she seemed to be confident, she stopped talking and revealed to her: "I heard that Ji Ziyin has completed the task and is ready to come back. Be more careful yourself. , don't take her seriously."

Ji Ziyin is back?

Qiao Nian lowered his eyes and collected the sharpness in his eyes: "I know."

She hung up Feng Yu, took off the bluetooth headset on her left ear, put it on the sofa, and scanned WeChat messages.

Sure enough, her eyeliner in the illegal zone sent her a message that Lu Zhi had handed over the person to Ji Ziyin.

Her eyes were not disappointed or anything, so she read it calmly, turned her head and said to the noble and lazy man, "Get ready to work."

Her voice was low, and there was not much emotion in it.

Ye Wuchuan walked over and held her hand, squeezed it lightly and let it go. He said calmly, "When the matter here is settled, we will go back to Beijing."

Qiao Nian didn't feel very well at first, as if she was a little irritable under the pressure of a stone, until the warm temperature came from her hand, she raised her eyes, and hid her emotions behind the rambling: "Okay."

When she settles the matter of Ji Qing, she should return to Beijing.

Mr. Jiang and the others called her several times to ask her when to go back. She wanted to go back and have a look.

Ye Wangchuan saw her recovering a little, raised the corners of his lips, and let go: "I'll go talk to Moxi."

Chapter 2743 He has never seen such a grandmother

Qiao Nian wants to rob people, that's not a joke.

Who in Continent M does not know that Ji Ziyin is backed by Leonard and the Queen, who is equivalent to the Queen's spokesperson in the Privy Council.

Whoever touches her is hitting the Queen in the face.

Qiao Nian's purpose of grabbing people this time is to hit the face of the person behind Ji Ziyin, which is an official declaration of war after she knew part of the truth of the year.

If she wants to do it, she is ready to make it bigger and show it to the queen hiding behind the hidden family!

...

Outside an unremarkable cafe outside the airport, the girl wears a peaked cap, and there is a black laptop on the table in front of her.

There is also a glass of orange juice next to the computer.

She sat there watching Ji Ziyin's positioning red dot on the computer gradually approaching Mzhou Airport, and waited for the plane to land.

This time, she wanted a big ticket, and Ye Wuchuan directly handed over all the people from M continent to her.

When he received the latest news from Moxie, he turned back and said, "Ji Ziyin seems to have noticed something. My people found that Leonard took someone to the airport to wait for her."

"Hey." He sneered, looked down at the girl sitting there, and said in a slightly teasing tone: "Qiao Shen is very hateful! The only one who can instruct him to do things is the one behind him."

Since he knew that the queen of the hidden family was Qiao Nian's blood-related grandmother, he usually used that instead of the title.

Mainly, he couldn't understand why a mother would kill her own child with her own hands, and what could make her to the point of dehumanizing her.

But no matter what the reason is, it is not a reason for her to do whatever she wants.

Including now, the daughter who still refuses to let go of her daughter.

He remembered that several times before, the queen had messed with the situation behind her back, trying to support people like Ji Ziyin to trouble Qiao Nian.

This grandma...

Ye Wangchuan Rao has lived in the upper class circle since he was a child, and it is rare to see such a person in this circle where interests are the most important.

"Looks like she doesn't want me to have a better time." Qiao Nian's tone was calm, and he didn't have many mood swings, as if he only regarded this blood relative as a stranger.

Ye Wuchuan's heart sank bluntly, the end of his eyes twitched, and he changed the subject: "Qin Si and the others have passed, we can do it at any time when they arrive at the airport."

"Yep."

"Have you figured out what to do after you rob someone?"

Ji Ziyin finally went to the illegal zone to bring people back. She took them away. Ji Ziyin and the forces behind Ji Ziyin will definitely not be reconciled.

Qiao Nian raised his chin and sat in a different position. His eyes were very dark and deep, and he was very drawn: "Didn't she send me a message saying that it's up to you?"

She pulled the corners of her mouth, and said clearly, "Is there a problem with the person I robbed by my ability?"

Ye Wangchuan touched the girl's raised eyebrows and almost didn't restrain himself, but luckily he suppressed it himself, and clicked his tongue: "No problem."

"Ji Ziyin won't let it go easily, she will definitely make trouble with you afterwards." He still reminded kindly.

"She's making trouble." Qiao Nian turned his cap off, revealing an overly delicate face, which was very eye-catching: "I'm also wondering if it's time to clean up her."

at the same time.

The residence of the queen of the country.

Shadow reported the changes in M Continent to the people behind the curtains, and at the end, whispered his concerns: "Qiao Nian didn't do the task this time, and after Ji Ziyin brought people back, he frequently mobilized people, I'm afraid She will act in unexpected ways."

Chapter 2744 Are you calling to warn me to follow the rules?

After listening to the Queen, she said solemnly: "Give me the phone."

Shadow didn't know what she wanted to do, so she held the phone in both hands respectfully and handed it in.

On the other side of the veil, the queen took the phone from him, lowered her eyes, and said in a solemn and slow voice, "What's the phone number of that scumbag?"

Shadow trembled all over, and suddenly raised his head: "You plan to..."

There was no voice inside the veil to answer him.

His eyelids jumped, and he subconsciously reported a series of phone numbers: "You don't have to communicate with her in person, I can convey it for you."

The Queen ignored her at all. After entering the number of numbers on the phone dialer, she dialed it, and by the way, pressed the loudspeaker, and put the phone beside her bed.

"toot..."

No one answered the first time.

Shadow's heart beat faster, and the invisible pressure pressed down from the top of his head, causing him to hunched his back, not daring to say a word.

The Queen seemed very patient and dialed it a second time.

“toot...”

Seeing that no one answered this time.

Before hanging up the last call, he heard a faint sound of electric current coming, and then the girl's arrogant voice: "Hello."

is Qiao Nian!

Shadow's heart fell into his stomach, and his back was wet with cold sweat, showing how nervous he was, clenching his hands.

behind the drapery.

The Queen whispered in a cold, frosty voice with a faint shadowy voice: "You even sound like her, but it's a pity that you didn't learn her character."

The other end of the phone was silent for a few seconds, as if no one answered.

Shadow waited for a long time before hearing the girl's voice.

"Hey, let you down, I was born with such a dog temper. She has a good temper, but it's a pity she died early."

"Qiao Nian!" The queen said her name slowly, as if a bloodthirsty warning.

But this warning is useless.

The girl seems to be naturally anti-bone: "Am I wrong? How did she die, don't you know?"

Shadow was dripping with cold sweat on his back, knelt down on one knee, and buried his head on the ground.

The queen's low breathing sound came from behind the curtain, which seemed to be stimulated enough.

Over the years, almost no one dared to mention these words in front of her. Ji Qing is a taboo, and Ji Qing's death is even more taboo!

Today, this taboo has been lifted and exposed to the sun, so that everyone can see the hidden truth clearly.

Ji Qing died in the hands of his own mother!

"Tell me, what's the matter with me?" After the girl mentioned Ji Qing's matter, she resumed her casual tone when she just answered the phone.

It was as if he was not talking to a grandmother he had never met, but a stranger.

The queen's face was tense, her eyes were dark, and she slowly looked: "What do you want to do to Ji Ziyin?"

"..." The girl didn't speak.

She continued: "This time, you gave up the mission first and didn't go to Lu Zhi. Since you lost, you are willing to accept the loss and don't make small moves behind your back. I have already arranged for someone to pick you up at the airport. If you are smart enough, you can put Put away your own thoughts, you will not succeed!"

"Also, I haven't settled the account with you about the matter in Continent F. You should understand what I mean."

He could almost hear breathing.

Shadow will head lower and lower.

It took a long time.

He heard the girl laugh softly, as if mocking, extremely cold and arrogant: "You are calling to warn me to obey the rules?"

"You shouldn't abide by the rules?" the Queen asked rhetorically.

"What if I don't?" The girl asked her sharply: "I don't follow the rules, what can you do to me?!"

She doesn't follow this rule today, what can the hidden family do? !

Chapter 2745 Sister Nian: I never regarded her as my grandmother

The room was quiet for a while, and the queen laughed in anger.

Unfortunately, the other end had no intention of communicating with her, and only heard the beeping sound of the mobile phone in the curtain.

Qiao Nian has hung up the phone.

"Who just called?"

Ye Wangchuan went to answer the phone and came back to see the girl sitting outside the open-air cafe holding her mobile phone, her whole body lingering with inexhaustible anger.

He walked over, pushed the juice in front of him to the girl's side, and said in a low voice, "Drink something sweet, and you'll feel better."

Qiao Nian looked at the juice he pushed in front of him, picked it up, bit the straw, took a sip, his expression softened, and then lowered his eyes and said, "She called me."

"Who?"

Ye Wangchuan saw the manic depression between her brows and guessed who it was: "What did she say to you?"

"She warned me to abide by the rules of the game." Qiao Nian put down the drink and said in a low voice, "And don't touch Ji Ziyin."

Ye Wangchuan's face quickly turned cold, and a chill flashed across his deep eyes: "Oh, she does care about outsiders."

Qiao Nian glanced at him, stretched his shoulders and sat on the back of the chair, instead of being angry just now: "If she wasn't this kind of person, she wouldn't be able to do anything to kill her daughter."

Ye Wangchuan frowned slightly, looking at her with some distress: "Then what are you going to..."

Qiao Nian said quickly: "I never regarded her as my grandmother."

What a ridiculous thing blood relationship is, this thing seems indestructible and fragile.

"Her rules have nothing to do with me."

The frivolous arrogance between her brows could not be suppressed, her hands were placed on her knees, her fingers were gently curved, and the white fingertips tapped again and again, looking very casual, with an indescribable arrogance.

"I didn't follow the so-called rules before I came here, and it's even more impossible to do things according to the rules they made here."

"She'll know my temper soon."

What rules?

Rules are meant to be broken.

If the other party is not calling her as an elder, then she is not qualified to point fingers at her behavior.

If she was an elder...

Qiao Nian's eyes were suddenly indifferent.

A person who killed his daughter with his own hands is not worthy of being an elder!

Qiao Nian quickly cleaned up the emotions in his eyes, straightened his expression, picked up his mobile phone, got up and walked out: "I'll go make a call."

M Continent Airport.

The plane slowly circled and landed from an altitude of 90,000 miles.

As soon as the plane landed, Ji Ziyin took the lead in turning on her mobile phone to contact Leonard and told him that she had arrived.

Who knew that when she turned on her phone, she found that the signal was cleared.

Ji Ziyin frowned slightly, thinking that she was dazzled, and went outside the cabin to try the signal, but it was still clear.

Then she turned back and asked the crew: "Why is there no signal here? Where's your cell phone? Is there a signal?"

The few people she named hurriedly found their mobile phones and looked at each other immediately, and they all saw the blankness in each other's eyes.

"I have no signal."

"me too."

"My cell phone has no signal."

The bald man was strange and tried another place, but there was still no signal, so he muttered to himself: "No, I had a signal at the airport before. Why is there no signal this time? The airport signal is broken?"

He didn't wait for Ji Ziyin's orders, and took the initiative: "I'll find someone to take a look."

Ji Ziyin's unease expanded slightly, she straightened the corners of her mouth, frowned and said, "Go ahead."

"OK."

The bald man trotted and got off the plane first to find someone.

Chapter 2746 Sister Nian is playing games with her brain

Ji Ziyin tried the computer again, but the computer still had no signal.

She could only arrange for someone to push the man with his head off the plane first.

When she got off the plane, she saw a black extended Lincoln car parked outside the tarmac, and the driver was waiting for her outside the car.

Ji Ziyin went down the stairs first, and checked the license plate number quietly.

MH639527.

The license plate number that Leonard sent her.

The cautiousness in her eyes faded a little, and she instructed in a cold voice, "Take the person over there."

The driver was smoking. Seeing them coming, he immediately opened the car door: "Miss Ji."

"What about Lei Lao?" Ji Ziyin was still very polite to Leonard's people, even if the other party was just a driver, she didn't dare to neglect.

The driver kept his head down and couldn't see his face clearly, and answered her in a loud voice: "Elder Lei can't go away because of something, let me pick you up first."

Ji Ziyin thought about Leonard's status in the Privy Council. It is true that she has a lot of work to do every day, but she still asked in a deep voice out of caution: "Didn't Lei Lao say he will come to pick up the plane?"

Now the driver raised his head and could not see anything unusual to discuss with her: "Why don't you call him Miss Ji and ask?"

Ji Ziyin remembered the signal of her own clearing, and then seeing the sincerity of the other party's face, her doubts diminished, she waved her hand and said, "Forget it, I will take the person to the Privy Council first."

"Okay." The driver lowered his head again.

She instructed her subordinates to forcibly press the man with the hood into the car first.

The driver also went around to the driver's seat at this time, opened the car door and sat on it, rolled down the window and said to her, "Miss Ji, please close the car door and come up from the other side."

Ji Ziyin didn't think so much, so she raised her hand and motioned to the people under her hand to listen to the driver's arrangement.

After the two of her men stuffed them in, they closed the car door.

Everything was normal.

Who knew that at the moment when the car door was closed, Ji Ziyin had not had time to go to the other side to get on the car, the black Lincoln suddenly started to spew a black exhaust, and drove away like an arrow from the string...

This change came too suddenly!

Ji Ziyin and her subordinates didn't have time to react at all, and the black car quickly left the parking lot.

"He, he, he ran away!" someone stammered.

Ji Ziyin snapped back to her senses, her face changed suddenly, her whole person was going crazy, and she scolded: "What are you doing, hurry up!"

The scene was in chaos.

Ji Ziyin and the people she brought were all in disarray.

at the same time.

In the parking lot outside the airport, a blue sports car happened to hit a black Lincoln with a Privy Council license plate.

The license plate number on the front of the Lincoln is MH639527.

The driver got out of the car and talked about the sports car, and asked him to move the car away quickly and not block the road.

The young man who got off the sports car was very good-looking, and seemed to be very difficult to talk, and argued with the driver for a long time.

They have spent almost 20 minutes since the rubbing happened.

It seems that there is no solution in a short time.

The hook-nosed old man sitting in the back row of the car rolled down the car window impatiently and asked the person he brought: "What's going on ahead."

"The blue sports car suddenly came out from the side of us and touched it. He insisted on waiting for the traffic police to come to determine the responsibility for the accident, and was unwilling to move the car."

The hook-nosed old man frowned fiercely.

It's all about anything.

He said impatiently: "You told him that we don't want him to compensate, and tell him to get out of the way quickly."

Chapter 2747 There is finally a mobile phone signal, it's too late!

The man got out of the car and walked in front of the driver, and danced and discussed with the young man in the sports car.

After a while, he frowned and turned back to the car window, and said to the old man inside: "Lao Lei, no, the other party insists on waiting for the traffic police to come."

"We don't want compensation, and he won't let it?" Leonard was not a fool, and immediately noticed something was wrong.

When most people hear that they don't need compensation, they should immediately move away happily, but the other party insists that they will not give way.

It feels like he bumped into it on purpose!

"He said that he was afraid that we would not admit it afterwards and trouble him again." This reason is quite reasonable.

The eagle-nosed old man was silent for a moment, and planned to take out his mobile phone to contact Ji Ziyin first, only to find that there was no signal on his mobile phone.

He frowned, pursed his lips and opened the door to get out of the car, and said to the people around him, "Let's go in."

He saw that he couldn't solve the car accident in a short time, and he didn't have time to mess with the other party here.

He has to go inside to confirm first.

Otherwise it's all a bit too coincidental.

Coincidence made him uneasy.

"Why did the people in your car leave?" Qin Si negotiated with the driver, caught a glimpse of Leonard and his group out of the corner of his eyes, pulled the driver with a half-smile and said, "He is the owner of the car, you can do it before the matter is resolved. Can't go."

The driver was impatient and continued to quarrel with him. He pushed his hand away coldly and said, "It's enough for me to stay and deal with it."

Qin Si didn't say anything, but he was thinking about how to inform Qiao Nian that Leonard had gotten off the car and went to the airport.

As he continued to harass the driver, he took the time to take out his mobile phone and said, "How can you tell the insurance company as a driver? I want to talk to my insurance company to see if you can leave in this situation, or not if you can't leave. Call him back."

He said, dug out Qiao Nian's contact number from the address book, and pretended to call.

Before he called, a new message popped up on the screen.

is a WeChat message.

A second ago, Qiao Nian sent a WeChat message: "Moxie took people away."

Qin Si immediately put his heart back when he saw that line of words, put down his phone in front of the driver as if nothing had happened, and muttered, "Forget it, I'm too lazy to ask the insurance company."

The driver still hasn't figured out his way.

He opened the car door and asked lazily, "Your master just said you don't want me to compensate, right?"

Driver: "Aren't you afraid that we will deceive you, don't you agree?"

Qin Si looked at him happily, with high spirits: "Oh, I agree now."

driver:?"

He didn't care what the driver thought, closed the window, adjusted the body of the blue sports car, no longer stopped in front of Lincoln, and drove away with a roar in the blink of an eye.

The driver watched the sports car smooshed away, and stood alone, patted the back of his head and walked to the side of his car. He took out his mobile phone and planned to report the situation to Leonard.

...

Airport.

Hook-nosed old man and his group just stepped in when the mobile phone buzzed.

He stopped, took out his mobile phone from his pocket and saw the caller ID on the screen, out of the corner of his eye, he glanced at the signal bar in the upper left corner of his eye.

I don't know when the signal is full again.

The uneasy feeling in his heart became stronger and stronger, so he answered the phone with a calm face: "I'll be right over."

Ji Ziyin's panicked and angry voice came from the other end of the phone.

"Lao Lei, our people were taken away!"

Chapter 2748 I'll find her to settle accounts immediately!

"What!" Leonard couldn't walk anymore, he irritably took his mobile phone to a place where there were few people, and asked her in a deep voice, "What's the matter with you? How did they take people away? What are you doing, you just watch Watch them take people away?"

"I found that my mobile phone had no signal since I got off the plane, so I asked someone to ask the airport staff. Before the person came back, I saw a black Lincoln parked on the tarmac with the license plate number you told me. ..."

"As soon as the driver saw me, he said hello to me, saying that you couldn't come to the Privy Council in a hurry, and asked him to come pick him up."

Leonard's brain was buzzing, his blood was rushing to the sky, his hand clenched the phone tightly, his face turned into a pig's liver: "I've never asked someone to pick you up!"

"I... I suspected something was wrong at the time, so I asked him a few questions, and he answered all of them flawlessly."

"He also offered to let me call you and ask."

Ji Ziyin's voice was trembling: "I don't think he is lying, plus he can't contact you. Just follow his words and put the person in the car first... Who knows that as soon as the person gets in the car, he steps on the accelerator and runs away. It's gone!"

"We were tricked."

If Leonard wasn't sure he was being tricked at first, now he knows.

His status has not been played like a monkey for a long time.

"I came here half an hour ago, but I also encountered the same situation as you." His voice was low and hateful: "We encountered a car accident on the way, and the other party has been entangled and refused to let go. Now it seems that It's not a 'car accident' at all, but someone deliberately designed it to delay time!"

Ji Ziyin has recovered from this moment, and gradually calmed down: "Who did it?"

She quickly realized who it was.

She stiffened, her shoulders trembled, and she gritted her teeth and said, "It's her! It's Qiao Nian! Only she can block the signal at the airport, and only she has the ability to find the license plate number we said and forge an identical one. car."

Ji Ziyin reacted, only to feel the cold air pouring in from her whole body, and the tip of her fingers was astonishingly cold.

"She had already planned everything, just waiting for me to come back from the illegal zone."

"She didn't give up the mission, but she wanted to grab it from the beginning!"

Leonard said nothing, and narrowed his eyes in anger: "Okay, you come back first, I'll go to her to settle the account right away!"

He said he was looking for Qiao Nian to settle accounts, but Qiao Nian did not live in the Privy Council at all.

Leonard hurried back to the Privy Council to look around, but he didn't even touch a figure.

He couldn't swallow this breath, and he brought people angrily to find Elder Xue.

The turf of the conservatives of the Privy Council.

Leonard rushed over with a black face, looking like he was going to make trouble, but was stopped: "Lao Lei, what are you doing?"

Leonard was about to go mad, and slammed his hands: "Go away! I want to see you old Xue."

Conservatives don't buy his account, not only did they not let go, but they also gave him a look, and more people stood in front of him and did not let him go.

"Lao Lei, this is the Privy Council. If you want to discuss things with Mr. Xue, you can pass it on first. Let's go in and ask if Mr. Xue has time to see you."

Leonard's face darkened.

He saw that the conservatives stood in the way one by one and did not give way at all, so he could only suppress his anger and said slowly and bluntly, "I have something to do with him."

His identity is here, and conservatives dare not give too much face, so the person who takes the lead immediately said: "Wait here, I'll go in and ask Elder Xue."

Chapter 2749 Oh, do you have any evidence?

in.

"Elder Xue, Mr. Lei led people to make trouble outside and said he wanted to see you, look..."

In the large white room, the silver-haired old man was meticulously holding a brush to practice calligraphy, looking calm and grand.

He heard the words and put the pen on the pen holder, and said calmly, "What is he doing here?"

Conservatives and radicals have always kept the water in the water, and the two have not dealt with each other, but they have done a perfect job in face, and they have to say hello to each other when they meet each other.

Leonard has a bad temper, but he is also a smart man. He never acts too ugly. Are you crazy today?

The man lowered his head and said very respectfully, "I don't know either."

"Lao Lei suddenly brought someone here and looked very angry. He just wanted to force his way in, but we stopped him... He only said he was looking for you for something, but didn't say anything."

The silver-haired old man had already neatly packed up the rice paper on the table while he was talking, hummed, and said to him very loudly, "Let him come in."

The hooked-nosed old man came in quickly, his face was gloomy and terrifying, and he did not hide his anger at all. As soon as he came in, he said to him, "What do you mean?"

Old Xue frowned slightly.

got up and walked towards the mahogany nan chair used for meeting guests.

"what do you mean?"

"You're still pretending to be stupid." Leonard was really angry this time, and he spoke straight and did not conceal his purpose: "You don't know what good things are done by the people you like?!"

Mr. Xue sat on the chair, picked up the thermos cup on the table, unscrewed the lid, lowered his head and took a sip before looking at him slowly: "Oh? The person I like? Who is it?"

Leonard hated the kung fu of his acting foolishly. He walked over to sit down like the wind, put his hands on the coffee table, and gritted his teeth and said, "Who else could it be? Don't you just think about the Ji family's direct line? It's the oriental man. , Joe Nian!"

The genial look on Old Xue's face softened slightly, and there was an air of indifference and prestige all over his body. He reminded him with cold eyes, "She has already entered the Privy Council, and she is a member of the Privy Council. Lao Lei pays attention to his words!"

"Humph!" Leonard snorted coldly and asked: "Okay, you told me about the Privy Council, and I have something to ask you, what does Qiao Nian mean? She doesn't complete the task by herself, and when others complete the task, she runs away. The airport robbed people? This is your conservative style of doing things?! Only take credit?"

Mr. Xue actually didn't know what Qiao Nian did, let alone what he meant by the airport and robbing people.

But he didn't show it, just a trace of doubt flashed in his eyes, he quickly concealed the past, as if he knew, put down the thermos cup in his hand, and said, "This task was originally handed over to them by the Privy Council, why does she have to go? grab?"

"It's not because she wants to..." Leonard almost blurted out, saying that Qiao Nian wanted to embarrass them.

The silver-haired old man looked at him very calmly: "Does she want to?"

Leonard couldn't say anything, but his heart was full of fire, and he opened it casually: "In short, she robbed people! You can't let this go!"

"Oh." The silver-haired old man still looked very calm, flicking the folds on his clothes and looking at him with falcon-like eyes: "Do you have any evidence?"

Leonard: "What?"

He reacted and immediately became unbelievable: "Who else can do this besides her! Who would do this."

The silver-haired old man did not eat this set: "That means there is no evidence."

Leonard stood up abruptly, his expression became extremely ugly, his eyes half-squinted: "You don't admit it?"

Chapter 2750 The scumbags are going to be * off

The silver-haired old man was not used to him at all, so he got up and confronted him face-to-face: "You said that Ji Ziyin brought people back, I can also say that Ji Ziyin didn't bring people back at all, she is lying. As for stealing people, it may be her Fear that the lie will be exposed and make up a new lie."

"you!"

Leonard almost spit out a mouthful of old blood, his fingertips trembling with anger.

Before, they were the only ones who slandered others with white teeth. When would it be the turn of others to treat them like this?

He never imagined that Mr. Xue, who has always been known for his integrity and integrity, would play a rogue and refuse to admit the good things he did.

Leonard was in a hurry and knew that it was useless to continue arguing with him, so he gritted his teeth, put down his hand unwillingly, and said harshly: "Okay, I will explain to the queen."

The silver-haired old man didn't respond at all, he didn't even move his eyebrows, he turned sideways to make way: "Please do it."

Leonard looked at him with a little surprise, but he did not expect that he would support Qiao Nian with a clear stand, even if he offended the queen.

He slowed down, got angry, and walked away.

Ji Ziyin hurried over from the airport not long after he returned to his place.

Leonard was standing by the window on the phone, looking in a bad mood.

"Old Lei." As soon as Ji Ziyin saw him, she suppressed the anger and anger in her heart, and greeted him respectfully.

Leonard only glanced at her and ignored her.

Ji Ziyin stood there uneasy, not daring to speak again until he finished the call.

Leonard hung up the phone, obviously more angry, his face was covered with a layer of frost, and his slender eyes were sinister and vicious.

He took his mobile phone and walked to the young woman standing in the middle, his voice suppressed the flames: "Tell me again how they took people away from you."

Ji Ziyin's heart was beating fast, her fingernails pinched her palms, and she softly described to him what happened at the airport in detail.

Leonard listened patiently.

When she heard that the other party was driving an identical Lincoln car with the same license plate number, her eyebrows couldn't stop jumping.

Probably when he was extremely angry, his voice became sharp: "Oh, she is brave enough, but she is not afraid to offend me at all."

Ji Ziyin lowered her head: "She has always been this kind of person, she is not afraid of the sky and the earth, and she has not caused many troubles in the Independent Continent. I just didn't expect her to be like this when she arrived in the Privy Council. "

Leonard glanced at her and said angrily: "It's better that people can be happy for a while, it's better than you can't be happy at all!"

Ji Ziyin raised his eyes fiercely, his face turned pale, seeing his unhappy expression, he didn't dare to touch his bad head, so he could only hold his head down again.

Leonard just said it.

After all, she was the one entrusted to her by the Queen, and it was impossible to ignore her.

He waved his hand to get the water and said, "Did you get the airport surveillance?"

Ji Ziyin also thought about monitoring, she shook her head when she heard the words, with an ugly expression: "No, I went to the airport surveillance at that time, and the surveillance in this piece just broke!"

Leonard took a glass of water and turned back, but he was not surprised, nodded, and said, "The private plane you use, the surveillance on the plane is not broken, right?"

He just thought of this in no hurry.

Didn't that old thing ask him for evidence?

As long as he presents the evidence, even if there is a commotion, they won't have a better time.
