

Madam's 2781

Chapter 2781 The boss of the company behind the other party is Wei Shao

He originally wanted to call the other party and ask, but at this time the queen who was far away in country M contacted him.

He forgot about it as soon as he came and went.

m country.

In a high-level gallery outside Naama University, several white-bearded foreign professors were surrounding an oriental woman and introducing her gentleman to the exhibits in the gallery.

The woman looks like she is in her early 40s. She is well maintained, her skin is firm and shiny, and her demeanor is also very decent.

She was wearing an OL commuter suit with a white shirt inside. She tucked one of the hem of the shirt into her trousers at will, and the suit trousers wrapped a pair of straight long legs. She stepped on high heels and walked with wind.

"Mr. Yuan, this painting was created in Sweden in 1968 by Master Fish of Kalicia, and he poured his life effort into it..."

Yuan Yongqin admires the oil paintings hanging on the wall. The painter's thick brushstrokes and brilliant colors create amazing works.

She herself has a very high artistic accomplishment and has always liked to collect world famous paintings.

While she was listening intently to the gallery director introducing the background of the paintings, Su Mo squeezed in from the crowd, walked in front of her, and said in a low voice, "Mr. Yuan, Mu Yiyi's manager Su Qing is looking for you."

Yuan Yongqin frowned slightly.

I took a break from looking at the painting.

She first gave Soma a look and signaled him to wait beside her, then turned to the foreign professors around her and said, "I'm sorry, that's it for today, I have some personal matters to deal with, I'm really sorry."

Several foreign professors look at me, I look at you.

"It's okay, you are busy first."

Yuan Yongqin herself is a strong woman in shopping malls, and she has her own set of skills in the world of people. She looked at the gallery owner apologetically, and said thoughtfully, "I really like the paintings of Master Kalicia that you introduced to me, if possible, I will I hope to be the owner of it who knows how to appreciate it..."

The owner of the gallery immediately showed a surprised expression and said overjoyed: "Oh of course! Of course you are the most suitable owner for it!"

Yuan Yongqin asked his assistant to negotiate the price with him, and he took the time to walk away, leaving the others and walking in front of Soma.

Changed his previous formulaic attitude, frowned lightly, and asked him, "Are you talking about the manager of the female lead in the movie that Niannian asked me to invest in?"

Sumo nodded and handed her the phone: "It's her."

Yuan Yongqin took it and said very unpleasantly, "What is she looking for me for?"

Qiao Nian sent her a message and asked her to invest in a certain movie. She immediately contacted the director of the movie and made a side-by-side comment. She also knew why Qiao Nian asked her to invest.

Yuan Yongqin has always been protective of her shortcomings, especially when it comes to Qiao Nian's affairs, she can't help anyone's face.

So when she learned from the director that there was an entertainer in the entertainment industry who relied on her popularity, and there was a company behind her to help Qiao Nian, she contacted Bai Lan at that time and asked Bai Lan to help take over the movie in the name of a friend. , directly replaced Mu Yiyi.

Suma is her right-hand man. Of course, she knows how tricky this matter is, so she mocks: "What else can she do, just ask you to intercede."

Yuan Yongqin's brows furrowed, the corners of his mouth pursed slightly, not wanting to answer the call.

Su Mo followed her and persuaded in a low voice, "You better take it. I just checked, and the boss behind the other company is Young Master Wei."

Chapter 2782 Don't get me wrong, I didn't help you

"You and Young Master Wei have known each other for so many years. In case Young Master Wei asks her to come to you, at least we will have a decent face."

Yuan Yongqin, Wei Lou and Qiao Nian have known each other for many years.

It took two years for Weilou to return to Beijing to take over the family business. Yuan Yongqin's relationship with him faded a lot, but everyone came together with Wei Mo, and even if they didn't communicate often, they were still friends from old relationships.

Yuan Yongqin listened to Somo's words, thought for a moment, and was ready to pick up the phone.

She opened the door of the car parked on the side of the road by herself. She just got in the car, but she hasn't made the call or even closed the door.

Suddenly, Yuan Yongqin raised his eyes and saw the big truck that was hitting him, his head buzzing.

still didn't respond.

Only heard Soma shouting: "Mr. Yuan!"

Yuan Yongqin's body was bounced by the huge impact force, blood gushed from his chest to his mouth, and a mouthful of blood spurted out.

Her mobile phone fell to the ground, her eyes went black, and she lost consciousness...

Suma was stunned by the 'accident' in front of him, and he was about to rush over to save people.

I saw a few people getting out of the car that had just hit him. He didn't see each other clearly. Those people had already kicked open the deformed car door and quickly moved the people in the car to his car...

In the blink of an eye, the car turned around and ran away without a trace!

"Has someone caught it?" Lei Kai left Leonard's house and went to a club where he often spends his time. He even ordered a few young ladies to accompany drinks, looking for fun.

When he received the call, a tall and hot woman in a tight skirt was feeding him wine: "Mr. Lei~ take another sip~"

"Climb away."

He lifted the man aside, went to the pool table, picked up a black ball and played with it in his hand, his face full of arrogance: "Find her a small clinic first and let the doctor see it, don't let me die on the way, It's bad for me! It's still useful for me to take her."

He hung up the phone and was in a good mood. He threw the black ball in his hand and just hit the red ball. The red ball rolled a few times and fell into the bag.

He was in a better mood, laughed a few times, raised his fingers and asked the woman who was coquettish with him to come over: "Come here, by the way, bring the glass of wine you asked me to drink just now, I'm happy today, I'll drink with you a cup."

The woman picked up the wine glass, twisted the waist of the water snake and squeezed towards him, wishing she could wrap her around him, all kinds of coquettish acts to please him.

Lei Kai drank a few glasses of strong wine, his stomach warmed up, grabbed the woman's shoulders and squeezed her waist, and said slyly, "It's so tender."

The woman's smiling branches trembled into his arms: "Mr. Lei~ How are you?"

Lei Kaile gave her a hug, and while playing with women, she picked up her mobile phone and opened the phone number she made in the afternoon in her address book.

It took a few seconds for the other end to pick up.

He didn't care, he said with a smile: "Miss Ji, thanks to your help this time, I will definitely thank you when I look back."

The other end of the phone was silent for half a minute, and after a long time he thought the other party had hung up.

He took off his phone and looked at the screen, when he heard Ji Ziyin's indifferent voice: "Don't get me wrong, I didn't help you. I just reminded you that this matter has nothing to do with me."

Lekai didn't understand what she meant at first, but quickly understood what she meant - she didn't want to get involved!

Considering that she is also Ji's family, Lei Kai estimated that she was reluctant to admit to helping because of this relationship, so she said very much: "I understand what you mean, yes, yes, you didn't help, and this matter has nothing to do with you. , it's all my own idea."

Chapter 2783 Okay, let's go back to the same starting line now

Ji Ziyin emphasized in a deep voice, "I never gave you any idea!"

She really didn't give Lei Kai an idea, she just mentioned on the phone that Qiao Nian also has a few important people.

By the way... I clicked on Yuan Yongqin's name.

These things that Lei Kai did later have not been discussed with her, nor was she the one who asked Lei Kai to do it. Qiao Nianzhen really wants to investigate, she can pick herself clean...

Lei Kai didn't know how dangerous what he was doing, so he called her with the beautiful smile in his arms and said, "Okay, I remember this favor anyway, just tell me if you need help in the future."

Ji Ziyin did not follow up: "Hang up."

She didn't even ask what Lei Kai did or how he treated Yuan Yongqin.

Lei Kai listened to the busy voice on the other end of the phone, his eyes were cold with a smile, and his expression changed when he put down the phone, he spat on the ground, and cursed: "What! Do you really think that you are the heir of the Ji family? It's just an abandoned child who kicked out!"

Everyone is a sidekick, and no one is more noble than the other.

Ji Ziyin's attitude made him very unhappy. After all, he didn't live up to his expectations and was not kicked out by the Leonard family.

Ji Ziyin is much more embarrassing than him.

The Ji family in Independent Island had already removed her from her name. If she hadn't complied with someone more powerful and entered the Privy Council, the name Ji Ziyin would have been ignored in their circles...

The hot woman in his arms saw him get angry, and she gently stroked his chest to give him comfort, and her mouth was still sweet: "Mr. Lei, don't be angry for irrelevant people, let's go sing, I will sing to you, I sing really well..."

Lei Kai was coaxed by her to be a lot smoother. He climbed her to the leather sofa, and while groping her body, he took the time to edit a text message and send it out.

When he successfully sent the text message, he immediately put the phone aside.

"You little thing." He, a hungry wolf, threw the pouting woman onto the sofa.

There was laughter in the club's private room.

Qiao Nian came out of the shower, put on his new T-shirt, and then went to the bed to pick up the phone he left on the bed.

Her phone is out of battery.

Qiao Nian took out the charger from his bag and swiped various messages on his phone.

One of the text messages caught her attention.

Because she came to the Privy Council, she did not have the blocking function of her mobile phone for the time being, and sometimes she also received text messages from unfamiliar numbers.

But this one made her eyelids tremble.

【Okay, let's go back to the same starting line now, Miss Ji, are you interested in exchanging hostages? 】

Qiao Nian looked at the three words Miss Ji on the text message, and read it again to make sure that the other party did not send the wrong text message.

A strange uneasy feeling suddenly surged in my heart, as if I was about to lose something important.

She took her phone downstairs decisively and stopped charging her phone.

Qiao Nian just walked to the stairs when Soma's phone called.

She saw the caller ID beating on the phone, and the strong feeling of unease became heavier. Qiao Nian slowed down and put the phone to her ear: "Hello."

Su Mo's voice was hoarse like tattered sandpaper: "Qiao, Miss Qiao, President Yuan has been kidnapped."

Qiao Nian stopped abruptly, his delicate face was full of violent violence, his eyes narrowed slightly, and his voice was full of anger but smiled: "Very good."

Chapter 2784 Aunt Yuan must be injured

Qin Si looked up at her standing on the stairs and couldn't come down, and greeted her not knowing what was going on: "Sister Qiao, what are you doing standing there, come on, I washed the grapes, come and eat together."

Qiao Nian's eyes were red and bloodshot. He stood there and didn't move, as if he didn't hear him talking to him.

"How did they kidnap people?"

Su Moqiang cheered up: "Mr. Yuan has bodyguards by her side. They suddenly hit her with a car while she was on the phone. No one responded at that time, so they got out of the car and took them away..."

Qiao Nian's eyes deepened, pinching the palm of his hand.

She noticed Soma's first sentence, lowered her eyes and asked in a hoarse voice, "She, who did she call?"

"This..." Soma hesitated.

Qiao Nian didn't rush him either, waiting for him to say it himself.

After a long while, Su Mo said with difficulty: "Yes... It was Mu Yiyi's agent who came to me and said that he wanted to talk to President Yuan about Mu Yiyi's role change. I thought that behind her was the entertainment company opened by Wei Shao, The three of you have always had a good relationship, so I persuade President Yuan to listen to what she has to say..."

"I'm sorry, Miss Qiao." He took all the fault on himself, for fear that Qiao Nian would blame himself, and said with guilt: "If I don't persuade President Yuan to answer this call, she won't leave halfway, and she won't have a bodyguard by her side. As for what happened..."

Qiao Nian knew that Yuan Yongqin left the exhibition halfway because of her, her eyes were almost bloody, and her whole body was full of anger.

"Sister Qiao, what are you doing?" At this time, Qin Si came up, stretched out his hand and shook it in front of her, patted her on the shoulder and called her: "Come on, I washed the grapes, go down to eat the grapes."

Qiao Nian still maintained the action of making a phone call.

He tugged, but didn't pull anyone.

Qin Si stopped, and realized that her face was extremely bad, and suddenly worried: "What's the matter, why is your face so ugly?"

He saw that Qiao Nian was on the phone with someone, turned his head and said, "Who is calling? What's the matter."

Qiao Nian's head was full of buzzing sounds, his blood was boiling and he was about to burst his temples and rush out.

She was not in the mood to answer Qin Si's question for the time being, lowered her eyes, and said to Su Mo, "I see. You don't have to worry, I will find a way to find Aunt Yuan and take her to the hospital as soon as possible."

Sumo knew her terrifying connections, so she felt a little relieved and said politely, "Thank you, Miss Qiao."

Qiao Nian didn't answer: "I will contact you immediately when I find someone."

"Well, that's the best way."

Su Mo said solemnly: "I will also try to find a way to get the local police to find the whereabouts of President Yuan, and we will exchange information."

"Okay." Qiao Nian agreed quickly, then hung up the phone and turned to go upstairs to go back to the room.

...

"Sister Qiao, what happened to Aunt Yuan?" Qin Si stood in front of her and asked anxiously.

He heard Qiao Nian's last words to Su Mo and realized that something might have happened to Yuan Yongqin, so he asked anxiously.

Qiao Nian pulled down the peaked cap to hide the monstrous violence in his eyes, and looked very calm: "Well, I was kidnapped."

Before being kidnapped, those people also created a man-made car accident!

Although Sumo didn't tell her whether Yuan Yongqin was injured or not on the phone, she was not stupid, Yuan Yongqin's temper, if she was not injured, would never let people take her away easily...

Qiao Nian's breathing sank.

In other words, Yuan Yongqin must be injured.

I don't know if she is seriously injured.

Chapter 2785 Did you ask your agent to find Aunt Yuan?

"I'll go up and check someone." She stopped talking nonsense to Qin Si, and went upstairs to check the IP address of the person who texted her.

Of course, before going up, Qiao Nian did not forget to call Weilou.

Weilou answered the phone in seconds.

Her voice was extremely cold. She didn't mention Yuan Yongqin's disappearance in a car accident. She only asked, "Did you ask one of your agents to find Aunt Yuan?"

Beijing City.

Su Qing accompanied the artist after filming the magazine and took the nanny car back to the company. She was looking at her phone all the way and was not in the mood to work.

Waiting for the car to stop steadily outside the company, Su Qing pushed the door and got out of the car, and said to the artist and assistant in the car, "I'll go back to the office first."

The artist also looked at her in surprise: "Sister Qing, won't you accompany me to the next trip?"

Su Qing's mind is full of the baskets that Mu Yiyi stabbed, including the loud noise from Yuan Yongqin's last phone call.

She was not in the mood to take care of other things at all. After getting out of the car, she closed the door on her high heels, and said to the entertainer and assistant in the nanny's car, "I won't go, you can run the rest of the itinerary yourself."

The artist and assistant nodded honestly.

Su Qing thought of Mu Yiyi before leaving, then stopped and turned around and told them: "Be low-key and don't cause trouble."

When the artist saw her serious face, her complexion looked so bad that she didn't dare to touch her brow, she honestly agreed: "I know, don't worry, Sister Qing."

Su Qing entered the company quickly, took the elevator back to his office, and pushed open the office door.

As soon as she entered the office, before she could put down the platinum bag in her hand, out of the corner of her eye, she saw the man sitting in her office.

She was taken aback: "Young Master Wei?"

The person sitting on the leather sofa in her office at the moment is not Weilou?

Wei Lou cut his hair short, and his black inch head was neat and neat. Thanks to the tough outline of his facial features, he just managed to control this unruly hairstyle with a handsome and extraordinary bearing.

Su Qing was not in the mood to appreciate the man in front of him at the moment, her heart sank rapidly, she moved to the man in small steps, squeezed out a smile, and said respectfully, "Young Master Wei, why did you come here? You didn't tell me when you came over. Sigh, I knew you were coming and came back early, how could I make you wait for me here."

Weilou's eyes were like knives under his blade-like eyebrows, he stood up unmoved and looked at her condescendingly: "Who allowed you to find the boss of Chengfeng Group?"

Su Qing's smirk stiffened.

She looked up at the man's expression.

Wei Lou didn't seem to be angry, but she was overwhelmed by the arrogance and majesty on her body, she lowered her head and forcibly defended herself: "I was thinking that Mu Yiyi is a company artist anyway, and she has so much on her back. Endorsements, if something happens to her, those endorsements will follow suit."

"I thought it would be best to solve this matter, so... I contacted President Yuan of Chengfeng Group and wanted to talk to President Yuan."

She watched Weilou never say a word.

Su Qing took courage and explained to herself with reason: "Yuan always answered my call, but she hung up before I could explain my call. I called her later, and her cell phone was always on. It's shutting down..."

She felt that the gaze that fell on her became more and more indifferent and oppressive.

Su Qing's voice gradually weakened: "Young Master Wei, I did look for President Yuan, but it shouldn't disturb President Yuan..."

Chapter 2786 This is good, you can accompany Mu Yiyi to block it

"Yes." Weilou's voice could not tell the anger and anger, and asked her instead: "Do you remember what I told you on the phone?"

Su Qing quickly recalled that when she called Weilou soon, what Weilou said to her—then block her.

She suddenly raised her head to look at the man's handsome face, gritted her teeth, and her eyes were full of exhaustion caused by this incident: "Master Wei, I'm also thinking of the company, and I don't want the company to suffer losses."

She is not wrong to do so, right?

Who knew that Wei Lou was unmoved, instead he lowered his eyes and said to her indifferently, "Do you think I'm short of money?"

Su Qing moved his lips and almost said: Who would dislike how much money they have.

But she remembered Weilou's family background and the way to go in the future, but she couldn't say these words.

"I started this entertainment company just to play tickets. In addition, I thought that if that person wants to join the entertainment industry like her brother, I can help. It's such a big logical relationship."

"She doesn't take this road later, and I'm too lazy to manage this company."

"If I had known you were so capable, I would have shut down the company long ago, and I wouldn't have caused you so much trouble."

"..." Su Qing opened his mouth, his mind was in a mess, shocked by the information in his words for a long time, unable to calm down.

Weilou said that opening an entertainment company is for one person.

Coincidentally, that person's brother is from the entertainment industry, and she is also half of the entertainment industry.

Every key information he said could be related to chasing light. No matter how stupid Su Qing was, he knew what the big boss meant.

She realized that the joints and the snow-white face made everyone stupid.

Weilou rarely told her so much, and he was also annoyed by a series of operations by Su Qing and Mu Yiyi.

He saw that the woman standing in front of him stopped babbling and saying that it was all for the company. For him, his heaving chest gradually calmed down.

Weilou came to tell her: "Since you are so reluctant to partake of your own artist, you should block it together with her."

Hearing this, Su Qing's legs became weak, and she suddenly became numb. She suddenly looked at the man who was leaving, opened her mouth, and her heart beat fast: "Young Master Wei, I admit that I did something reckless this time, and I didn't talk to him before. After you discuss it, go to President Yuan."

"But my starting point is for the company. Can you give me another chance? I don't care about Mu Yiyi's affairs. You can deal with her whatever you say."

"I..."

Weilou's eyes were red when he saw what she said, but he stopped a little, turned sideways, and glanced at her.

Su Qing now loses the capable and powerful appearance of a strong woman on weekdays. She is very tired, and her spirit is not much left.

She has been conscientious in the company these years and has contributed a lot to the company.

Although Wei Lou knew that she took some kickbacks and benefits from it, his own ambition was not in business.

So he kept turning a blind eye to Su Qing's behavior over the years, as long as she didn't cause trouble for him.

But he didn't expect that Su Qing would run to call Su Mo even though he had clearly stated that he wanted to block Mu Yiyi, and even told Su Mo in his name that he had asked him, and he hoped Aunt Yuan would raise a hand , let Mu Yiyi go.

These actions have long exceeded her scope as an agent, and it can be seen that she has done similar things before.

Chapter 2787 The scumbags will completely kill themselves this time

And this time, Qiao Nian called him specifically to ask about it.

Although he didn't know what happened to the phone call, Qiao Nian was never a person who would mention anything.

Since she mentioned this call, Su Qing's behavior must have caused trouble for Yuan Yongqin!

Weilou closed his eyes slightly, and when he opened it again, he straightened the outline of his lower jaw, and said in a tone with no room for maneuver: "You have no chance."

At the same time, the only old doctor in an unremarkable small clinic in the chaotic neighborhood of country M looked at each other with a few big men.

A woman covered in blood was lying on the bed half a meter away from them. The woman's shirt had been stained with blood, and she was unconscious and looked seriously injured.

The old doctor watched the old incandescent lamp on the roof burn and make a clicking sound. He couldn't help it. He begged for mercy in a trembling voice: "Brothers, I really can't help you."

He turned and pointed his finger at the unconscious woman on the bed, and said tremblingly, "She's hurt so badly, you better hurry up and take her to the hospital."

"Her leg won't be sent to the hospital again, I'm afraid..."

He just checked the body of this yellow-skinned and black-haired woman. The woman has multiple soft tissue contusions on her body. The most serious one is that there is a steel bar running through the thigh on the left leg. It looks like a part of a car. I don't know what it is. Components...

Anyway, the scary-looking blood hole on her leg is not an injury that a small clinic like him can handle.

The old doctor was about to cry, dragging his weeping voice and begging them: "Although there are people here who come to bandage from time to time, most of the people have minor injuries, and I have never dealt with such a serious accident. In case of an accident, it will cost human life. Lawsuit! I beg you, hurry up and send people to the hospital, I can't handle it here!"

The man whom he begged so bitterly lifted him away, pulled out a chair very rudely and sat down, slapped the knife on the table, and said with a full face, "If you die, I will take you to the hospital first. Mortuary!"

The old doctor was so frightened that his whole body trembled, his legs were soft and he almost knelt on the ground, but the person behind him quickly supported his shoulders.

He couldn't even cry now, his legs trembled like a sieve, and his voice trembled even more: "But her legs..."

The man is very easy to talk: "That...if you can keep it, you can keep it, if you can't keep it, it's okay, you just need to keep her life."

The old doctor listened to what he said, and secretly observed them and his group became even more flustered.

He has already realized that these people may not be good people, maybe some desperadoes, this woman may be the poor people who were caught by them...

The old doctor had some sympathy for the woman lying on the bed, but in this situation, he couldn't protect himself, let alone others.

He was pressed with a knife against his waist, so he could only bite the bullet and try to deal with Yuan Yongqin's injuries and try his best to take first aid measures.

As for the woman's left leg that was pierced by a piece of iron.

He had never been on the operating table at all, so he didn't dare to take it off. He could only sprinkle anti-inflammatory medicine near the wound, praying that this woman would survive...

Under dim light.

Yuan Yongqin frowned because of the muscle pain stimulated by the alcohol used to clean the wound, her breathing became short, and she seemed to have a fever. She moved her fingers with great effort, but she didn't have the strength to open her eyes, so she could only let herself continue to fall into the darkness...

Chapter 2788 Who are you and who let you in!

The next day, three thirty in the morning.

In the dim room, the rain was beginning to rest, and clothes and trousers were scattered everywhere on the ground.

"I'm going to take a shower." The woman got up in the dark and wanted to turn on the light to pick up the clothes on the ground, but she just got up and didn't touch the button.

heard the man's selfish scolding: "What are you doing, I didn't see that I was going to sleep, why did you turn on the light?"

"But..."

She couldn't see where her clothes were without turning on the light.

The satisfied man ignored her and said impatiently, "Be gentle, don't disturb me to sleep."

"..." The woman had to hold back her anger because of his status, got up and gently stepped into the bathroom, intending to wash her body with water.

The sound of water in the room was clattering, and only a little light came out from the glass windows, and it was impossible to see anything in the darkness of the huge suite.

Lei Kai turned over, pulled up the quilt and was about to go to sleep, but he was already stupefied and fell asleep...

at this time.

"Boom!" He heard a loud knock on the door from outside, and suddenly woke him up from his half-dream.

Lei Kai thought it was the movement made by the woman in the bath, and angrily lifted the quilt and sat up: "You can't understand human language, right? I didn't tell you not to make noise!"

Before he finished speaking, he felt that someone was walking in the dark, and Lei Kai vaguely felt that something was wrong. There was no perfume on his body.

"Who?"

He fumbled for the phone on the bed to check the situation with the light on the screen.

Suddenly, all the lights in the hotel room turned on, and the dazzling lights shone on his eyes. Lei Kai subconsciously covered his eyes with his hands, and it took a few seconds to get used to his hands, and a blurred figure appeared in front of him...

He hadn't seen the other's face clearly.

He heard the exclamation of the woman who accompanied him to the hotel: "Who are you? Who let you in. Ah, security, security."

Lekai got a headache from the noise.

His eyes finally adapted to the strong light, and he finally saw the person in front of him clearly, but it was a person he didn't know at all.

"you?"

The girl standing in front of him looks about 20 years old, very young, but the face of an oriental person is surprisingly delicate, giving people a sense of surprise.

Lekai couldn't help but stare blankly.

However, he soon came to his senses, and his cloudy eyes became vigilant: "Who let you in? Who are you?"

The girl casually took a blanket on his bed, turned and threw it to the woman who came out of the bathroom without even wearing clothes, and said softly, "Put your clothes on."

The frightened woman realized that she was not wearing clothes, and quickly wrapped the blanket that Qiao Nian had thrown at her, wrapping it tightly.

She didn't shout anymore, but looked at Qiao Nian with suspicious and curious eyes.

After Qiao Nian threw the blanket to her, he ignored her and walked over to the big bed, looking at the man sitting on the bed who hadn't gotten up yet, and said with cold eyes, "Are you Lei Kai?"

Lei Kai encountered this situation for the first time, his heart trembled slightly, he vaguely guessed the identity of the other party but felt incredible: "What's your business? Who let you in."

This matter was put aside before, Qiao Nian may have the patience to chat with him a few words.

But she was in a particularly bad mood today and had a bad temper. Seeing that Lei Kai was not cooperating, she nodded lightly and squinted, "Don't tell me?"

"Who the * are you? I asked how did you get in? Believe it or not, I'll call someone in right away." Lei Kai said sternly.

Chapter 2789 He still has the courage to talk to Sister Nian

Qiao Nian pulled a chair from one side and sat down, took out his mobile phone, made a call, and said to the person on the other end, "Come in."

Lei Kai's heart sank, and his heart became even more uneasy: "..."

He didn't wait a minute to see an extremely gorgeous-looking, tall and charming woman in leather pants coming in from outside.

The woman looked at him with peach blossom eyes and smiled, and smiled and said to the girl who dragged a chair and sat beside his bed, "Yo, boss, it's him."

Qiao Nian didn't talk nonsense to her, and raised his chin slightly: "He played stupid with me."

"He didn't say it?" Guan Yan immediately looked at Lei Kai sitting at the head of the bed with an expression of admiration, as if he was looking at the dead fish on the chopping board.

Qiao Nian was indeed in a very bad mood today, not even in the mood to joke with her. He leaned his hand on the back of the chair slightly, and said concisely, "Break his leg first."

"I received it." Guan Yan moved forward while moving his muscles and bones, his red lips were still with the frivolous smile that Lei Kai had when he saw her for the first time: "Stubborn, right? I like stubbornness the most. people."

Lei Kai's heart sank, and he couldn't help but shrink back: "Don't come here, what do you want to do?"

Guan Yan has always been ruthless: "What do you say?"

Hearing a scream in the room, Lei Kai was already paralyzed on the ground, hugging his left leg and screaming, his whole body was sweating and convulsing...

Madman.

He met a lunatic.

Under the pain, he finally stopped pretending to be stupid: "Who are you? Are you looking for me for the sake of the Ji family?"

Qiao Nian saw that he was a little bit clear about the situation, so he got up and walked in front of him, looking down at him: "Where is the person you arrested?"

Guan Yangang used the method of splitting his muscles and bones to directly unload his left leg. The pain was definitely not as easy as taking a knife.

Lei Kai is now so painful that the veins on his neck are bulging, and he stares at her with a flushed face, but he knows how to use his brain: "Who the * are you?"

Qiao Nian didn't speak, and stepped on his broken leg, Lei Kai rolled on the ground in pain, screaming incessantly.

She still said lightly: "Where is the person you arrested?"

Lei Kai's heart was beating violently, and he couldn't tell whether it was a normal heartbeat under severe pain or fear. He gritted his teeth and said to the other party in a deep voice: "If you want yours, you must let mine. Otherwise, I will not I'll hand over people!"

Guan Yan whistled aside, applauded him, gave him a thumbs up when he looked over, and slightly parted his red lips: "Cow B."

Lei Kai was stimulated by her blood, and he almost didn't bleed internally, but he was not a fool, and he knew that Yuan Yongqin was his trump card and refused to hand it over easily: "You are the one who catches me first, and I will touch you first. Man. We're even!"

"You don't have to scare me. I'm not scared. If you dare to touch me, the family behind me will not let you go."

Lekai's sweaty threat looked very intimidating.

Qiao Nian's eyes were bloodshot. He probably didn't expect that he would dare to bargain with him. He turned his head, raised a frivolous arc, and reached out to Guan Yan: "Give me the gun."

"Cough cough." Guan Yan glanced at her and took out his gun: "Boss, are you going to kill him here?"

Qiao Nian took the gun and loaded it directly. The black muzzle aimed at the man who was dragged to the ground, and asked word by word, "Where is the person?"

Although Lei Kai has no confidence in his heart, relying on the Leonard family behind him, he is still convinced that Qiao Nian will not dare to hit him hard.

Chapter 2790 Sister Qiao won't kill people, right?

"I said, unless you swap people..."

The hostage is not finished yet.

Qiao Nian shot through his thigh without a word, and the muzzle was still smoking. Without even looking at it, she stared at the man who was rolling on the ground in pain and asked, "Where is the man?"

No one thought she would actually shoot.

A brief moment of extreme silence.

The woman Lekai brought to the hotel covered her mouth and screamed in shock, incoherently: "Help, help, help..."

Guan Yan walked over and hugged her shoulders, motioning her to stop making trouble: "It's none of your business, our boss won't touch you."

The woman was so frightened that her face paled: "..."

Her hands clenched the blanket tightly, thinking about the origin of the blanket again, and felt a little warmer, but her lips trembled uncontrollably.

Everyone in the hotel heard the gunshots, and they all shivered. No one dared to go up to take a look, and no one dared to call the police.

The hotel manager is busy evacuating guests in the lobby.

If this happened before, the guests would have to make trouble for a long time before they would leave.

This time they went well.

The first shot of gunfire came out above, and the guests who were still making trouble at the front desk were all frightened, and they went through the formalities without saying a word.

Some people don't even go through the formalities and don't compensate.

...

Gu San is helping with the chores of the guests leaving the hotel.

Qin Si walked up to the man who had just returned from the phone, with a worried expression on his face: "Master, Sister Qiao fired three times in a row, she won't...?"

He didn't finish his sentence.

But Ye Wangchuan understood what he meant: "Let her do it, let me know the truth."

Qiao Nian has always been measured and rarely out of line. This time, even he is not sure what Qiao Nian can do.

"How's the handling of hotel guests?"

Qin Si calmed down a little, looked back in Gu San's direction, and turned around again: "What else can I do, everyone who should check out has already checked out."

"As the matter of tonight spreads out, this hotel will not reopen in the future."

He looked at the noble and outstanding man again, shrugged his shoulders and said, "Fortunately, you bought the hotel, and it can only be turned into a club or club in the future..."

Anyway, he now knows that the grandfather has a wide range of business and many contacts, and it is not his turn to worry about the financial situation.

Mo Xi just happened to be coming in from outside. When he came over and saw the two of them talking, he interjected and said, "Master, I asked Mo Dong to check the whereabouts of those grandsons, but it's not easy to check in a short time."

"Well, normal."

Ye Wangchuan reacted very calmly, squinting his eyes slightly, as if he already knew the result: "She can't find it, how can you find anyone casually."

Moxi and Qin Si were both silent.

Both knew that Qiao Nian was the first to check Yuan Yongqin's whereabouts.

It's just that those people are very cunning. They lost Yuan Yongqin's mobile phone very early, and they used fake license plates to change cars all the way.

Qiao Nian couldn't even find out where Yuan Yongqin was.

Otherwise, she wouldn't be the next best thing to look for this person.

Moxie was reaching out to support the glasses frame on the bridge of his nose, when the mobile phone in his hand suddenly vibrated.

Moxie looked down and immediately lowered his voice and said to them, "Miss Qiao calls."

Ye Wangchuan and Qin Si both looked over.

Moxi didn't dare to delay his work, so he picked it up quickly: "Hello, Miss Qiao."

He was very nervous and was ready to go up at any time.

After about a second, Qiao Nian's voice came from the other end. He couldn't hear any emotion, just a little tired: "Help me send people to Leonard's house."
