

Madam's 2841

Chapter 2841 Unexpectedly, an accident happened

He has always been cautious, and this time he took Ji Nan to M Continent with him even more cautiously than usual. He specially gave up the plane and chose to take the sailing route.

The luxury ferry departing from Independence Island is equipped with the most advanced equipment, comparable to the ammunition depot of a cruise ship.

The sun rises, sets, and rises again.

He Lin walked to the deck, looked at the middle-aged man whose clothes were blown by the wind, and walked to the other side lightly: "Patriarch, didn't you rest last night?"

Ji Lingfeng looks at the calm sailing line.

The blue sky and the blue sea are connected in a line, the sea and the sky are the same color, and the scenery is extraordinarily magnificent.

He didn't turn his head and said, "Is Jinan still up?"

"Young Master Nan is still resting in the room." He Lin replied as if he didn't answer.

Ji Lingfeng was used to his way of answering Tai Chi: "When he wakes up, ask him to come and find me."

He Lin bowed his head slightly: "Yes."

Ji Lingfeng stopped talking, and refocused on the sea level not far away. Seagulls flew over the glass-like sea level, leaving silhouettes.

At this moment, the hull suddenly swayed violently, and a huge explosion sound came from the operating room.

He Lin and Ji Lingfeng were both startled and calmed down.

Ji Lingfeng immediately told him: "Go and see what's going on inside!"

He Lin's face was serious, and he didn't dare to delay for a moment. As he ran into the cruise ship, he said to him, "Patriarch, you stay here and wait for me, I'll be right back!"

Ji Lingfeng saw his back running away, pursed his lips, and his face became condensed.

At this moment, the cruise ship shook violently again.

He held the handrail beside him and stood firm, his eyes sank, instead of wasting time on the deck, he quickly walked to Jinan's room.

"What's going on outside?"

"what happened!"

"Don't panic everyone, don't run around, don't make trouble!" someone shouted.

But all the people on the cruise ship were frightened by the two violent shaking, and people kept running out of their posts to find out what happened.

Jinan also rushed out immediately.

He is much calmer than the others, and is still helping to maintain order, trying to keep the people on the cruise ship from panicking.

It wasn't until he saw Ji Lingfeng walking towards him that he showed a surprised expression and shouted, "Dad, why are you here?"

Ji Lingfeng walked up to him and grabbed his arm: "Are you okay?"

It was the first time that Ji Nan saw such a solemn expression on his face, he was stunned for a moment, then shook his head: "I'm fine."

He looked at the messed up yacht again and asked Ji Lingfeng: "Dad, what's the situation, what happened?"

Ji Lingfeng just wanted to talk to him when he heard He Lin's anxious voice from the Bluetooth headset: "Patriarch, someone has planted a bomb on the yacht."

"what?!"

Ji Lingfeng was rarely surprised. He stretched out his hand to hold the Bluetooth headset and asked him anxiously, "We didn't check the yacht before we set off."

"I've checked the yacht before and it's fine. I don't know where this bomb came from. I'm trying to figure out a solution."

He Lin's voice was dry and nervous: "It's just that I haven't seen this type of bomb, so it might be tricky. In addition, Patriarch, there is bad news. The operating system of our yacht was implanted with a Trojan horse, which is a hacker. Master, the yacht's signal is about to disappear..."

Anyone who has gone to sea knows it.

Once there is a signal on the yacht, they will "disappear" in the vast sea, and it is almost impossible to find them.

Chapter 2842 Ji Lingfeng sends Ji Nan away

This is out of the category of accident, obviously it was carefully planned to let them all be buried in the deep sea!

Ji Lingfeng made a judgment in just ten seconds.

"Follow me!" He grabbed Jinan's hand and walked inside, picking up the emergency safety hammer hanging on the wall, and smashing the fire alarm with one hammer.

The fire alarm immediately issued a sharp alarm sound, and then the cabin was full of smoke, and the fire fighting device at the top began to automatically spray water mist to extinguish the fire.

The huge water mist blurred the vision, making it difficult to see the road in front of you.

The already chaotic yacht is even more chaotic now!

Jinan was dragged forward by him: "Dad, what happened?"

"Dad, where are you taking me?"

"dad....."

Ji Lingfeng just dragged him forward with a sullen head, until he came to a closed iron door, he turned the combination lock to open the door.

In front of Jinan, there was a descending stairway that only one person could pass through.

Ji Lingfeng ordered him without a word: "Go down first."

Although Ji Nan didn't understand what was going on, he still obediently got into the emergency exit and went down.

Ji Lingfeng immediately jumped down and followed him.

It was dimly lit inside.

He could barely see the road under his feet.

Jinan finally reached the end when he heard the sound of snoring water, and then a speedboat was introduced into his eyes.

Ji Lingfeng didn't know where to press the switch, the plywood they were standing on turned violently, and the speedboat began to be transported into the water.

"Go up!" Ji Lingfeng instructed him with a serious expression.

Jinan hasn't recovered yet, so he looked back at him: "I'm not going, you haven't told me what's going on? Aren't you going with me? Where's Uncle He?"

Ji Lingfeng didn't have time to explain to him at all, pushed him up, and ordered him sharply: "I'll let you up! You don't even listen to me?!"

Jinan's face turned pale when he was reprimanded by him, and he subconsciously listened to his words and went up: "Dad, what happened?"

Ji Lingfeng listened to He Lin's report in the earphones to him about the time of the bomb explosion, his face was as deep as water, his eyes were as deep as an inkstone, and he whispered to him: "Go southeast, 36° sea, you can do it yourself. It should be able to dock. After docking, you can contact your sister, as long as you contact her, she should find you to pick you up. "

"Dad!" Ji Nan had never seen him like this, as if he was explaining his last words to himself.

Ji Lingfeng looked at the speedboat about to enter the sea, relieved a little, and said softly, "I wasn't careful enough this time."

"She hates the Ji family so much that she wishes we were dead. How could she have to negotiate with me? If I care about it, it will be messed up."

Jinan couldn't understand a word: "Who? Who are you talking about hating the Ji family?"

Ji Lingfeng didn't answer him, but let the rotating splint speed up to send the speedboat into the water, and said to him seriously: "Jinan, protect your sister, don't make my mistake!"

Jinan fully realized that Ji Lingfeng sent him away, maybe he just wanted to let him live.

He was about to jump out immediately.

How could Ji Lingfeng give him this opportunity, the speedboat entered the sea in an instant, he looked at the anxious young man on the speedboat who was about to jump off the boat, and whispered: "Do you care about your mother? I promised her to protect you, listen to me, live down."

Jinan froze, suddenly looking at him.

Ji Lingfeng gave him a quick walk gesture, left him a back, and walked back.

Chapter 2843 Ji Lingfeng's life and death are unknown

This time, it was clearly Nie Qingru's hand.

Nie Qingru never leaves room for things. In addition to the Trojan virus destroying the cruise ship's navigation signals and bombs, there must be a killer.

If he doesn't go back to delay time for Jinan, then none of them want to leave!

Ji Lingfeng's eyes sank, with a hint of blood, pursed his lips, took out a self-defense pistol from his body and walked out.

"Where are you? I'll go look for you." He was talking to He Lin on the other end of the Bluetooth headset.

"I'm near the electric box on the left side of the operating room." He Lin gave him a position.

Ji Lingfeng hummed, avoiding people who might be in danger, and slowly touched the place where He Lin said there was a time bomb...

Half an hour later, Ji Nan saw a huge explosion coming from a direction that was only a small spot of light away from him.

A monstrous fire burst from the calm sea level before.

The tongue of fire almost rolled up the white clouds in the sky, and it opened its mouth to swallow everything, and the overwhelming heat rushed towards him.

Jinan's pupils seemed to be dyed red by the firelight, and shouted: "Dad!"

But the sea level was nothing but the curling of flames and the subsequent explosion, and there was nothing left, and he didn't even know if there were any survivors...

Beijing city is still calm, no one knows the unexpected situation in the deep sea.

Ye Wangchuan found out that there was a transfer of millions of dollars in Weiying's overseas account. This money was turned into cash and reached Weiying's hands through special domestic channels, and then handed it over to Tian Dali's family through Shen Jingyan to buy Tongtian Dali's family. Framing Jiang Zongjin.

The police followed this clue to apply for a search warrant, and soon found the money from Tian Dali's rental house.

Cash is difficult to source.

Ke Tian Dali's family are all out-of-towners with very little monthly income, and such a large amount of money with consecutive numbers matches the amount of money Wei Ying realized.

Basically the hammer Weiying bought the Tian Dali family to make a false accusation.

Weiying was taken back to the police station for a 24-hour routine interrogation in the afternoon when the police found the money.

After 24 hours, the police station will release the person.

But Shen Jingyan and Wei Ling both knew that Wei Ying was afraid that this time it would be more fortunate than good fortune.

They didn't even dare to close their eyes, they were looking for relationships almost everywhere, and they searched for all the relationships they could find.

Weiling also went to Weilou, blocked the door and went to Weilou for help, but Weilou didn't take her cousin seriously at all, saying that if she didn't help, she wouldn't help.

Wei Ling was desperate.

Shen Jingyan knew that if Wei Ying went in this time, he was afraid that he would go in too, so even for himself, he dared not give up and could only do the most.

...

Outside the police station, just as the black car stopped on the side of the road, I saw some media lingering nearby after hearing the wind.

Ye Wangchuan stood in front of the girl before she got off the bus: "Can I accompany you there?"

Qiao Nian raised his eyebrows. He wanted to say no, but after thinking about it again, he agreed: "Okay, let's go over and have a look together."

The truth of the matter is already obvious.

As the victim's family, they must come to the police station to go through the process.

Qiao Nian didn't let Jiang Zongjin come, just guessed that there would be media reporters here to catch the news.

She chose to come over by herself.

Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan walked to the police station on their front and back feet. Before they entered, a figure rushed out to block them and threw a plop for Qiao Nian to kneel down.

Chapter 2844 Sister Nian: I do what I say

He then slapped himself in the face with a slap and a slap.

said with words on his lips.

"I'm sorry Nian Nian, it was me who lost my mind!"

"Uncle knows I'm sorry for you, so just let me go!"

"Your grandma Wei is already old, don't be so cruel..."

He completely disregarded his face. He knelt on the ground to reach out to hug Qiao Nian's leg, and he was crying with sincerity. He couldn't see his arrogance at all.

Qiao Nian didn't expect Shen Jingyan to come out at this juncture, and even threw herself down on her knees and begged for mercy.

But soon she understood the other party's intentions.

Because the spotlight of the media has been flashing towards her, it is obvious that she wants to take pictures of the exclusive news so that it can be released to gain attention.

"Nian Nian, I beg you, let us go."

"Uncle, please!"

Shen Jingyan didn't dare to look at Qiao Nian while saying his plea, except for the sadness on his face, his eyes were flickering.

He kowtowed to the ground, again and again, his forehead was red and swollen, making it clear that he wanted to force Qiao Nian to 'forgive' them.

Qiao Nian looked at his miserable appearance, and the sound of 'uncle' who had deliberately increased the volume so that no one could hear him. At that time, it was disgusting enough.

Her eyes were extremely heavy, and there was a cold anger between her brows.

Ye Wuchuan hadn't waited for her to be fooled, and stepped forward to block her, facing the man who was kneeling and kowtowing, and said to Shen Jing: "Who do you think I won't let out the news, who can post it online? ?"

Shen Jingyan thumped and kowtowed for a while, raised his head in despair, and looked at him pleadingly: "Young Master Ye, I... I know I've stepped on your bottom line this time, please take care of me when I was around the city. For her sake, let me go this time."

"I promise." He stretched out his hand and swore: "I promise to get away from you in the future and never show up in front of you again."

Shen Jingyan said this is no future.

He is also helpless!

As long as he still has the slightest way, he will not choose this step: "I beg you, you see that I am her uncle..."

"Hey." Ye Wuchuan suddenly sneered and interrupted him: "Her uncle is not you."

Qiao Nian's real uncle by blood is Ji Lingfeng alone. After all, it has nothing to do with him, Shen Jingyan.

Shen Jingyan of course knew that what he said was a bit shameless, but he couldn't care about it so much, he could only bite the affection of the city: "Ye Shao..."

Ye Wangchuan hasn't spoken yet.

The girl who was blocked by him was already impatient, pulled down her cap, and walked out from behind him, not afraid of being photographed, and looked at him coldly: "If you stop me like this again, I promise that there will be no other than this. I will recalculate the things you did in the past!"

"..." Cold sweat broke out on Shen Jingyan's back, and he couldn't lift his head because of the brutality that was radiating from her body.

He has done a lot of what Wei Ying has done before, and every time he takes it lightly with Qiao Nian's view on the relationship between the city and the city.

He knew very well if it was true.

Wei Ying has been in for five or six years, and he may have to go in for two years this time.

If Qiao Nian wants to calculate old accounts and new accounts together, he will have to go in for at least seven or eight years.

Shen Jingyan still didn't want to go to jail, raised his head, held the last hope, and called her miserably: "Niannian..."

Qiao Nian didn't give him a chance to continue: "I will do what I say!"

At the police station.

Tian Dali's family was also crying.

Chapter 2845 Sister Nian is preparing to return to Independent Island

The man was okay, just sat on the chair with a sallow face and dull eyes, his eyes were red, and there was no sound when he cried.

Wang Guifen was not very literate. The cry was a sad one, and she stopped rolling around. She kept begging: "I have no culture. If I don't understand this, I will go to jail."

"I apologize to him, I'll go and ask him to forgive me!"

"Professor Jiang is a good person. He is willing to help children he doesn't know, and he is definitely willing to forgive me."

"You are breaking the law, it is useless for the victim to forgive you." The policewoman told her in a businesslike manner.

She used the child as an excuse again: "My son is still so young, the two of us are in jail, what can he do!"

"I have no culture, so it's not wrong if I don't know!"

The policewoman in charge of them was extremely patient, continued to glance at her, lowered her head to take notes and said, "He will be sent to the juvenile management center, and a special teacher will teach him, which is much better than unreliable parents like you."

Tian Pengfei cried a lot since he came to the police station, tremblingly explained how he lied and how he was instigated to frame Jiang Zongjin in front of the media.

The policewoman asked him why he didn't tell the truth.

He lowered his head and said only that he was afraid of being beaten.

But the policewoman was very disappointed with him and did not reason with him any more, intending to let him bear the mistakes he made.

Qiao Nian sent Shen Jingyan in from outside.

When the policewoman saw them coming, she handed over the letter of the situation and said gently, "These are the records they handed over. You need to sign on your side."

"Yep."

Qiao Nian took the pen from her and signed his name on it.

The policewoman took the signed folder, looked up and asked her kindly: "By the way, you can visit these people, do you want to meet them?"

She thought Qiao Nian was going to ask Tian Dali or Wei Ying to ask them why they did this?

Because most people can't hold their temper to ask what's going on.

Who knew that the girl had signed, so she said casually: "No, you can do what you want, I won't interfere."

The matter of Jiang Zongjin is settled this time, and the verdict can be implemented only after the police hand over Tian Dali's family, Wei Ying, Shen Jingyan and other related personnel to the court for trial judgment...

She didn't want to interfere, and she didn't want to waste any more time with these people.

As for questioning?

She didn't think it was necessary.

Since these people can do it, is it possible that they can still reflect on themselves?

Even if they shed tears, they regret that they went to jail, instead of really thinking about whether they did something wrong.

So she signed her name on the informed letter according to the procedure, left the police station, and went back with Ye Wangchuan.

In the apartment, it was evening.

Qiao Nian went up to take a shower, changed his clothes, and opened his notebook to prepare to go back to Independent Island.

The matter in Beijing is basically finished.

She is now going back to the First Research Institute to check the last contents of the U disk left by Ji Qing.

She just picked up a glass of water for herself and put it back. Before she pulled out the chair and sat down, the phone on the side lit up.

Qiao Nian sat down and took a look at the phone.

called her from an unfamiliar number overseas, and a number she hadn't seen before.

Who called her?

Qiao Nian's first thought was the Yinshi family and Nie Qingru's gang.

She frowned slightly.

I was thinking about whether to answer the phone, but the phone cut itself off...

Chapter 2846 Sister Nian knows about Ji Lingfeng

Qiao Nian looked at the string of numbers on the phone, Yingbai tapped the missed call with her fingertips, and was about to call back.

The faint light on the phone screen suddenly turned on again.

She saw the same string of overseas phone numbers as before.

"Hello." Qiao Nian picked it up.

She leaned back slightly, put the phone next to her ear, and her voice just after taking a shower was hoarse and hoarse: "Who are you looking for?"

She could hear the whistling motorcycle on the other end of the phone and the loud voices of passers-by, and the background sound was very noisy.

But these are not as heavy as the heavy breathing from the phone that made her care.

"Hey?"

Qiao Nian patiently looked at the phone again.

The phone is still on the phone.

The other party did not hang up.

She knitted her brows, and there was a shadow between her brows: "Can you hear me?"

The people over there seemed to be waking up from a big dream, calling out her name in a broken voice: "Nian, Qiao... Niannian."

Qiao Nian abruptly stood up from his chair, walked quickly to the window, and said solemnly, "Where are you? Didn't you go to Continent M? What happened?"

An exotic and unfamiliar street.

Jinan used the money he got from pawning his watch to make a call to a public phone on the side of the road. The phone booth blocked the wind and rain outside, but not the storm in his heart.

At this moment, he listened to the anxious voice of the girl over the receiver, grabbed the public phone tightly with his hand, the blue veins on the back of his hand bulged, and said with difficulty, "My dad and I were... attacked."

"Where are you now?" Qiao Nian asked him repeatedly, his voice calm as always.

Jinan couldn't stop trembling, looked up at the world outside the phone booth in confusion, and said in a trance: "I'm on a nearby coast."

He didn't know where this place was.

Jinan only remembered what Ji Lingfeng once told him before he was forcibly sent away, asking him to contact Qiao Nian as soon as he got to a safe place...

When he thought of the various scenes that happened a few hours ago, it made him unable to think in pain.

"I'm on a nearby coast, there is, there is a block, next to a jewelry store, the name is, is..."

"Okay, just stay where you are and don't go."

Qiao Nian found that his emotions were extremely out of control, and he did not force him to tell the specific location, but said slowly: "Wait for me, I will have someone come to you right away."

Jinan's chaotic heart seems to have injected a dose of cardiotonic: "Okay."

She has always been an activist.

While talking to Jinan, Qiao Nian walked back to the desk and opened the location search engine on the laptop.

She stood and glanced at the string of overseas phone numbers Ji Nan called, typed it into the search engine, and the computer page immediately jumped to the search...

The progress bar on the computer screen is still moving forward, and it only takes less than a minute to locate the specific location of Ji Nan.

The progress bar is approaching 90%.

Ji Nan seemed to be trying to control his emotions and spoke to her hoarsely: "My dad..."

"Huh?" While debugging the computer, Qiao Nian wanted to find out his specific location as soon as possible, and was distracted to listen to him.

Ji Nan clenched his fists, and the rain on the ends of his hair and eyelashes turned into water droplets and fell down. He couldn't tell whether it was rain or tears: "My dad is on the yacht, and Uncle He is also on it. The yacht arrived before I was sent. It exploded shortly after walking, and I don't know if the two of them are still alive."

Chapter 2847 I'll call someone to pick you up immediately

Qiao Nian's hand on the keyboard stopped, his jaw tightened slightly, and his eyes were covered with a cold light: "Why did you go to Continent M? Doesn't he never go out?"

She was talking about Ji Lingfeng.

Jinan obviously knew who she was talking about, and said dryly: "I don't know the specific reason, I just know that he is going to see someone."

"..." Qiao Nian thought of one person, Her Majesty the great Queen of the Hidden Family.

When she was distracted, the progress bar on the computer screen jumped to 100%, and a flashing red dot appeared on the map. The location of the red dot was exactly where Ji Nan was currently at the phone booth.

Qiao Nian took a photo with his mobile phone, sent it to Daji, and sent a message by the way.

【sun: A friend of mine is near your site, help me pick up someone. 】

After Qiao Nian sent this message, he still felt uneasy, so he sent another message to Daji—[sun: You can pick it up in person, I don't trust others to do it! 】

She finished the message here.

Da Ji replied quickly and said to go immediately.

She was a little relieved, and Shen Mou said to Jinan, "My people will come to find you immediately, and I will send you his photo."

Jinan didn't know what to do next on the street in a foreign country. Hearing her arrangement, it wouldn't be so confusing: "Okay."

Qiao Nian knew that he was not feeling well now, and said softly, "You have seen him."

Qiao Nian held the phone and said in a low voice, "David."

A person appeared in Ji Nan's chaotic mind, with a hoarse and dry voice: "That weapons dealer in Continent F?"

"He's my friend." Qiao Nian didn't hide it from him: "When he comes over, you can go with him. David will protect your safety. As for Ji Huang..."

Jinan heard her mention her father, her heart pounding, she opened her mouth, but her throat was trembling and she couldn't make a sound.

Qiao Nian said solemnly: "I will investigate the cause of the yacht explosion, and find someone to search and rescue in the nearby waters. Didn't you say you didn't witness his death with your own eyes?"

"I couldn't get close to it at the time, and I really didn't see it, but there was a huge explosion on the yacht at that time, and the flames went high. In this case..."

Qiao Nian didn't wait for him to finish his sentence: "You have to see people in life, and you have to see corpses in death. Since you haven't seen his corpse with your own eyes, there is still a chance of survival!"

"..." Ji Nan's heart was injected with warm current, and suddenly it was not so cold.

Qiao Nian said to him succinctly: "Let me investigate this matter, and I will contact David and let him convey it to you if there is any news."

Qiao Nian went downstairs after the call.

In the living room downstairs.

Gu San is making tea.

Ye Wuchuan was sitting on the edge of the sofa, with a magazine spread out on his knees, the magazine turned a few pages, and he was reading with his eyes lowered.

Qiao Nian looked at it from a distance, and out of the corner of his eye, he saw that several words in the original text were all related to modern weapons. He seemed to be reading a military magazine.

"Miss Qiao, why did you come down?" Gu San looked up to see the person coming downstairs, and took the initiative to say hello.

Qiao Nian responded, walked up to the young man, lowered his head and pursed his lips and said, "Are you free? Do me a favor."

Ye Fangchuan immediately closed the magazine, placed it on the sofa, got up and said, "Go to the study and talk."

Qiao Nian thought for a while, and agreed very readily: "Okay." Then he followed behind him and walked to the study.

Ye Wangchuan's study as a whole focuses on practicality.

He turned on the light, and Qiao Nian saw that the bookshelves on the whole wall were filled with dense books, covering various fields. It can be seen that he read books in a variety of ways and covered a wide range of areas.

Chapter 2848 Sister Nian: Help me find someone

In addition to the most conspicuous bookshelves in the study, there is a black desk and leather transfer occupying a corner.

A computer is placed on the desk. The ultra-thin body lines are very smooth and advanced, and there are many documents on the side of the computer desk.

Ye Wuchuan walked in and took her a glass of water from the water dispenser, and asked her to sit on the single sofa first: "Drink some water."

Qiao Nian sat down without hesitation, took the water he handed over, lowered his head and took a sip, then raised his head and looked at him and said, "I want to search a sea area to search and rescue two people."

"Which location?" Ye Wuchuan didn't even ask her why she wanted to check this. She folded her slender legs back behind the desk and turned on the computer.

Qiao Nian reported him the latitude and longitude of a specific sea area to see that he was using the computer to locate the specific target location.

She held the mug in her hand, lowered her eyes, and said softly, "Something happened to Ji Lingfeng."

Ye Wangchuan was still investigating the location she said, when he heard the words, he raised his head suddenly, and his beautiful face rarely showed a surprised expression: "The person you want to search and rescue is...he?"

Qiao Nian understood his eyes and avoided: "Well, he and He Lin are both on that cruise ship. Now their life and death are unknown and they are missing."

Ye Wangchuan restrained the surprised look in his eyes, and slowly digested Qiao Nian's words.

Immediately called the personnel over there and asked them to send ships to search and rescue the survivors immediately.

He hung up the phone, turned his head sideways, looked in the direction of the girl again, and said softly in a voice that only the two of them could hear; "The Ji family is going to change."

The progress of things was almost as he had guessed.

The news of the accident on the cruise ship Ji Lingfeng was on was sent back to Independent Island. Xie Yun knew the news at the first time. She softened and almost fainted.

Fortunately, she was strong enough to contact the people of the clan immediately and ask to send someone to rescue them.

Several elders of the Ji family organized a search and rescue team to rush to the accident site... But at this moment, everyone in the Ji family knew that it was too late to rush to the past!

Ji Lingfeng and Ji Nan are afraid of bad luck!

They just wanted to give Xie Yun an explanation in the past. As for saving people... no one had much hope.

"Madam, my condolences and change." Someone comforted Xie Yun and hoped that she would be strong.

Xie Yun insisted on not falling down, and still responded calmly: "My husband and son are not dead yet, before I see their bodies. I don't need to listen to these nonsense!"

The Ji family was in an uproar.

Xie Yun has the Xie family behind and is Ji Lingfeng's legitimate wife.

Ji Lingfeng had an accident, and Yu Wei was still there.

Although she embarrassed one of the elders who persuaded her in public, no one dared to touch her against her scales at this time.

Everyone acquiesced that she was too sad.

"We have sent someone to find the patriarch."

"We will be notified immediately when there is news over there."

"The patriarch and the people of Nanshaoji have their own celestial signs, and they will definitely be safe."

...

M continent.

Shadow quickly walked in and reported to the people inside: "Queen, the cruise ship Ji Lingfeng was on exploded two hours ago."

In addition to Nie Qingru, there were two other people, Leonard and Ji Ziyin.

Leonard is still the same, wrapped in a white robe, with triangular eyes and a hooked nose, he doesn't look easy to mess with.

When Ji Ziyin stood with him, she seemed to have no sense of existence.

Not long after she was discharged from the hospital, she lost a lot of weight, her oval face was only the size of a palm, and her clothes were as empty as bamboo poles.

Chapter 2849 Her bottom line is to make sure Ji Lingfeng is dead

"Now Ji Lingfeng's whereabouts are unknown, and Ji Nan... ran away." Shadow didn't even look at the two of them, and only paid attention to one person the whole time.

Nie Qingru was reading the secret newspaper leisurely, but when he heard this, he raised his eyelids and said in a very displeased tone, "Run away?"

Shadow knelt down on one knee, lowered his head and said, "Ji Lingfeng first discovered the bomb we hid in the cabin, and then sent Ji Nan away."

"We don't know that he still has a hand. He hides a secret room under the plywood. There is a speedboat in the secret room. He used this speedboat to send Jinan away..."

"When our people found out, it was too late."

"Hey." Nie Qingru raised his hand and said indifferently: "Ji's people are only virtuous, and it's not so annoying for a mouse to die so easily! What about Ji Lingfeng? Have you found his body? I want it. See the corpse."

Shadow said: "I haven't found it yet."

Nie Qing said coldly, "...I haven't found it yet?"

The temperature in the room plummeted several degrees, and even Leonard was careful, with a nervous look on his face.

Ji Ziyin was even more shocked and scared by their words, and she gritted her teeth without showing any timidity.

"You know my bottom line." Nie Qing said lightly, like snapping her nails.

If she ran away with Ji Nan, she could still reluctantly accept the result, then they haven't found Ji Lingfeng's body so far, but they are no longer satisfied!

Shadow knew her character very well. He leaned his body lower, stretched his back into a bow, and explained to her in a low voice: "Queen, it's not that we don't want to look for it. It's... We didn't look long before someone came."

"Who?"

Nie Qing also showed a surprised look when he didn't expect someone to come over like this.

Shadow estimates that after she finishes speaking, she will be angry. But right now, he can only bite the bullet and say, "People from Ye Wuchuan."

Ji Ziyin hadn't reacted to the name that the shadow said, but only heard a 'bang' and saw the cup smashed in her direction.

She was taken aback, instinctively turned sideways to avoid the flying cup, and just such a simple action immediately exposed her different from ordinary people.

Her right foot was obviously half a beat slower than her left foot, and she was a lame cripple!

Behind him came the sound of a 'crack' cup shattering.

Ji Ziyin's face was completely bloodless, and she slowly supported the table and stood back to the original place, but the flaws exposed at that moment still made her feel unbearable, far more uncomfortable than being hit by a cup...

Besides herself, the other three people here didn't even look at her, as if she was worthless with the ornaments.

Nie Qingru dropped the cup and sat there with a gloomy face. After a long time, she said, "Since she already knows, we can't waste any more time."

Ji Lingfeng's whereabouts are always unknown!

Nie Qingru pinched his forehead, arranged for a rare headache, turned his head, looked at the hooked-nosed old man and asked, "Has Ji Hongyuan let go?"

Leonard didn't dare to come out, and nodded: "He agreed without thinking for a long time."

"That's good." Nie Qingru finally heard a good thing, her face became a little better, and she turned to look at the woman who had no sense of existence: "Ji Ziyin, you didn't always want to climb up. The opportunity has come! Now Ji Lingfeng is following An accident happened to Ji Nan, and the Ji family has no leader. I have contacted several respected elders of the Ji family to elect you as the new patriarch, will you not disappoint me?"

Chapter 2850 She wants Ji Ziyin to control the Ji family

Ji Ziyin looked at her suddenly, full of incredible expression, opened her mouth: "But I...my legs..."

Dream is right in front of her eyes, but she is disabled!

Ji Ziyin has never hated Qiao Nian so much now, and she has a chance to destroy herself and climb up.

"Just tell me if you are willing to take over the Ji family for me." Nie Qingru didn't care, or the entire Ji family in the independent continent was just an ordinary piece in the chess game in her eyes.

For the sake of the chess game, she can arbitrarily solve the person who blocked her, even if that person used to be her nominal son.

She doesn't care about blood, nor does she care about the emotions that the world cares about.

She only has the power to control everything!

All can sacrifice.

All disobedient people can be eradicated.

She is the rule!

"I'll give you three seconds to think about it." If Nie Qing needed a puppet who was obedient enough to control the Ji family, it was not necessarily Ji Ziyin.

She started the countdown: "Three."

"..."

Ji Ziyin's heart was beating like a drum, and she pinched her palm to be sure that this was not a dream.

Nie Qing was too lazy to lift his eyelids: "Two."

Ji Ziyin's forehead was sweating, and she had nothing to think about, for fear that she would hesitate to miss this opportunity: "I do!"

Nie Qingru stopped: "Very good."

"I will do my best to serve Her Majesty the Queen."

Ji Ziyin was sweating nervously under her gaze, but her back was straight, and she could see that she really wanted this opportunity.

Nie Qingru gave her a contemptuous look, then tilted her head and instructed the people on the ground, "Send her back and prepare."

The next day.

There is no news from Ji Lingfeng and Ji Nan yet.

Xie Yun received bad news.

Ji Lingfeng's hands were pale, and trotted over to look for her: "Madam, it's not good. The sixth elder brought someone here."

Xie Yun didn't close her eyes all night, her face was haggard and sallow, she put down the affairs of the clan, got up and frowned: "What does he want to do?"

Outside.

Ji Ziyin had arrived at Independence Continent overnight with the staff of the Hidden Family that Nie Qingru had sent to her. She was following behind Ji Hongyuan at the moment, and Ji Hongyuan and others were walking towards Juyitang.

They were a group of seven or eight people, walking by in a mighty manner.

Many people in the old house are secretly looking here.

"Isn't that Miss Ziyin? She's back."

"The patriarch didn't publicly remove her from the clan before. At this juncture, why did she come back?"

"You didn't see that the sixth elder was also with her." Someone was smarter and saw the current situation: "I think it is going to change."

Some of Ji's family frowned uncomfortably and were not satisfied that Ji Ziyin came to take over the position of the next patriarch.

They are soft-spoken, and even if they are not satisfied, they have no chance to express their opinions.

Some people don't care who will take over as the next patriarch. They are more in the mood to watch the fun, and they notice some small details.

"Look, the way she walks doesn't seem right."

Ji Ziyin walked the slowest in the crowd, slowing down step by step, putting her weight on her right foot.

This kind of practice will make her kneecap piercing pain.

But she still insisted on putting her weight on her right foot. Because only in this way can you cover up the flaws exposed when you walk to the greatest extent!

But a defect is a defect.

Even though she tried her best to cover her up through her clothes and her slow walking speed, there was still no way to cover her lame right foot.
