

Madam's 2851

Chapter 2851 Ji Ziyin's scenery and scenery go back

The chatter around was like a knife piercing the most painful part of her heart.

"Her right foot seems to be an inch shorter."

"She was hurt?"

"I also found out that she walks in a strange way."

Ji Ziyin raised her chin high, used indifference to repel these prying eyes, and continued to walk forward with no expression on her face.

Ji Hongyuan looked back at her, frowned in dissatisfaction, and his eyes fell on the lame foot she was covering, he quickly looked away and greeted her: "Let's go."

Ji Ziyin didn't take the dissatisfaction he showed in his eyes: "Well."

She is supported by the Hidden Family and Nie Qingru. Even if Ji Hongyuan is dissatisfied with her leg defect, she will not dare to replace her.

As long as she takes the chance...

Ji Ziyin listened to those discussions, and quietly clenched her hand hanging by her side to cheer herself up: "You guys go ahead."

It is impossible for Ji Hongyuan to bring so many people here just to visit Xie Yun.

As soon as he arrived at the Juyi Hall, he asked some other elders of the Ji family to call over, and soon the core members of the Ji family came together.

Xie Yun also arrived at Juyi Hall.

Ji Hongyuan saw her coming and said hello to her: "niece-in-law, you are here."

When Xie Yun heard his name, a cold light flashed in his eyes, and he calmly walked over to greet the other elders.

She turned her head again, as if she just saw Ji Hongyuan and his party, and asked clearly, "What does Uncle Six mean?"

She didn't call Ji Ziyin's name, she just raised her chin to indicate who Ji Hongyuan was talking about.

Ji Hongyuan came prepared, and said what he meant in public: "The patriarch and Nan Shao have both disappeared for two days and one night, and the chance of surviving is almost zero."

"I understand your unwillingness to accept reality." He turned sideways and looked at Xie Yun, looking very sympathetic to Xie Yun's experience.

Xie Yun was almost angered by his three words: "Hehe, forgive me for not seeing that Sixth Uncle still cares about me."

Ji Hongyuan didn't quarrel with her: "The Ji family can't go on without a leader forever. We must have a capable successor to replace the patriarch's identity... Otherwise, if it goes on like this for a long time, the patriarch will not be found, and the family will be in chaos first."

This is also a question that several other elders of the Ji family are thinking about.

It's just that Xie Yun hasn't given up looking for Ji Lingfeng's whereabouts, so it's not good for others to go straight to the ground and mention this matter...

Now that Ji Hongyuan raised this question on their behalf, everyone buzzed and whispered, but no one stood up to object.

Xie Yun looked at everyone in the Ji family who were discussing, her face was sinking like water, and she only laughed out in anger: "He has worked hard for you for 20 years, and you are not willing to give him even 20 days? Did he arrange the funeral?"

The buzzing discussion in Juyitang disappeared immediately.

Several elders from the Ji family said bluntly: "Ma'am, it's not that we don't give the clan a long time, it's because the news can't be kept secret."

"If other families in the Independent Continent knew this news, they would definitely take the opportunity to annex the Ji family's property, and those outside the family would also have crooked thoughts."

"This is like a domino effect, the first card falls down, and it will soon evolve into a trend that the building will collapse..."

Someone answered: "Yeah, we dare not wait any longer." It's not that they don't want to wait for the exact news of Ji Lingfeng's death, they really don't dare to take risks!

Chapter 2852 Sister Nian is going to find Ji Nan

Ji Hongyuan put forward at this time: "So we have to choose a suitable person to take over the position of the patriarch. I choose Ji Ziyin!"

Everyone did not express their position immediately. Many people remembered her previous dark history, and they were not so satisfied with Ji Ziyin, and they frowned.

Ji Hongyuan, of course, saw everyone's concerns, and he was ready to continue: "She is the genius of Ji's once-in-a-century, and she is the most hopeful among the younger generation. The patriarch also had this thought when he was there before! Now! At a critical moment, I propose that she temporarily take over the affairs of the clan."

Xie Yun glanced at him coldly, and saw the woman who had been pretending to be a wolf with a big tail, and mocked softly: "How do I remember that Ling Feng removed her from the family? She came to take Ling Feng's position, six Uncle, the person you propose is afraid that the name is not right, right?"

Faced with doubts, Ji Ziyin said calmly, "I know that the elders are not so satisfied with me, but I am now a member of the Privy Council, backed by the hidden family, which can bring new help to the family!"

"..." The Privy Council was a good excuse, and several elders who were not satisfied before looked at her.

Ji Ziyin has changed a lot after experiencing strong winds and waves, and she turned to face the eyes of everyone who fell on her: "I am confident to take the Ji family to a new height."

...

Her remarks aroused discussion among the Ji family.

"The life and death of Nan Shao and the patriarch are unknown now. The family needs someone to stand up. She does have some skills, or choose her."

"I don't agree. She has done so many things in the Independent Continent before, and all the major forces know what she has done. If we push her to the top, other forces don't know how to laugh at us!"

Someone asked fiercely: "But in the younger generation of Ji's family, besides her, can you name someone who can take up this position?"

Seeing that the two factions were about to quarrel, several major elders discussed it one after the other.

The old man who took the lead glanced at Xie Yun apologetically, and said to Ji Hongyuan and Ji Ziyin, "We have to discuss it again."

This is not a trivial matter, and it is not anyone who says that they can change the patriarch if they agree, and all parties have to communicate and negotiate again.

Xie Yun's heart fell.

The meaning of a few elders is equivalent to standing on Ji Ziyin's side, agreeing to find someone to take Ji Lingfeng's place first.

At the same time, Beijing Airport.

Qin Si and Zhang Yang came to see them off the plane.

Qin Si gave her the luggage: "Sister Qiao, don't you wait for the result of the lawsuit before leaving?"

Qiao Nian pulled the suitcase from him, the lights in the terminal elongated her slender and cold figure, looking more and more fierce.

"Just help me stare."

The dust has settled here in Beijing.

Tian Dali's family of three, Wei Ying and Shen Jingyan will all be punished by law.

She didn't have time to wait for the verdict, so after discussing with Ye Wuchuan, she decided to let Qin Si stay and wait for the result.

When the result here comes out, Qin Si will see if he wants to follow.

Qin Si thought that she was in a hurry, so he stopped reluctantly and said, "Okay, leave it to me here. When the court comes out, I will notify you immediately."

"Yep."

Qiao Nian looked at the time.

It's almost time.

She took out a bottle from her pocket and handed it to Ye Maoshan's identical glass bottle, and handed it to Qin Si: "This is for you."

Chapter 2853 Two days and one night passed, Ji Lingfeng is still missing

Qiao Nian's brows were filled with the frivolous arrogance of young people, arrogant but not annoying: "Give it to you, you can see it as a gift."

Qin Si helped her a lot this time.

These dozen small pills are a thank you gift!

Gu San looked at the glass bottle in Qin Si's hand, his envious eyes narrowed, and he muttered silently in his heart: One suite in Beijing, one suite in Beijing...

Qin Si was reluctant to take it, so he hurriedly stuffed it with her: "This is too precious, I can't take it. Take it yourself, in case there is still room for it."

Qiao Nian did not accept it and pushed him back: "I still have leftovers."

Qin Si still felt that he couldn't take it: "That's yours, I can't take it."

Ye Wangchuan spoke here: "She gives it to you, you can take it."

Qin Si heard Ye Wuchuan asking him to hold it, hesitated for a moment, and accepted it a little embarrassedly: "Then I will accept it."

"Yes." Qiao Nian responded with a frown.

Qin Si was still at a loss with the glass bottle in his hand.

Ye Wuchuan saw that the time was almost up, he dragged the pole of the suitcase from the girl's hand in advance, and walked forward with his long legs: "Let's go."

Qiao Nian released his hands, put one hand in his pocket, looked at Qin Si and the others, and waved to them handsomely: "Let's go."

She is so cool.

Zhang Yang and Tangning politely bid her goodbye.

Qin Si waited for the backs of the two to disappear in the terminal, then turned around and said to the others, "Let's go, we're going back too."

Zhang Yang and others followed behind him.

Wait out of the airport.

Zhang Yang opened the car door, and then asked inadvertently, "Master Qin, why did Miss Qiao leave in such a hurry this time. Are the elders around the city feeling unwell again?"

The person Qiao Nian said before was circling the city.

Besides a few people in Beijing who know about it, most people don't know that Qiao Nian has been in Independent Island for the past year.

The reason Qiao Nian gave at the beginning was to take care of Uncle Chen's body, so he took a year off from school and was not in Beijing for the time being.

Tangning also looked at him curiously after hearing this.

"Why are you asking this?" Qin Si has never been short of people who have come to him to inquire about Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan's itinerary since he came back. It's not good for you to ask less about things."

Zhang Yang froze when he heard the sound, and immediately reacted: "I see, Young Master Qin."

He has a good relationship with Qin Si, so there are many people around him who want to inquire about the news of Xia Yichuan from him.

Zhang Yang is different from Qin Si.

The background of Zhang Yang's family is not so prominent, and there are always some people who are not easy to offend.

He just wanted to reveal some less important information to the other party, so that he would not be offended.

But Qin Si mentioned him a little, and he immediately understood that he had better not do such trivial actions.

Otherwise, he didn't get the benefit and didn't say it, but the gain outweighed the loss. After all, Grandpa is not the kind of person who has sand in his eyes!

Qin Silin still revealed a little bit to them before getting into the car: "She is really for her elders, and things are a bit tricky, but it has nothing to do with Beijing."

Jinan and the others are located in the sea area where the F and M continents meet, which belongs to the three-needle zone.

There are all kinds of forces in this sea area. Pirates, coast guards and some illegal forces have always been in chaos.

But this high sea is also notoriously disciplined - that is, they never provoke the world's secretive big family.

Chapter 2854 The boss brought a woman back

For example, the family in the independent continent, and the hidden family headed by the m country, etc.

The cruise ship they took the initiative to provoke Ji Lingfeng this time can be said to be unprecedented in a hundred years, and things are abnormal and demonic.

Qiao Nian asked Daji to take people to the sea to search for the whereabouts of Ji Lingfeng and He Lin, but there was no progress after two days and one night.

They got involved this time.

Daji's reputation in Continent F still intimidates many pirates who hear the wind.

In the sea area where Ji Lingfeng's accident happened, for the time being, only they and the people from the dungeon were there to find people 24 hours a day.

Qiao Nian arrived at her headquarters in Continent F the next day.

I personally went to the airport to pick up people.

Ye Wuchuan also went to see the dark fort, so he didn't go with Qiao Nian.

The two separated at the airport.

Qiao Nian sat in the co-pilot of the pickup truck that Daji drove, and drove all the way towards his headquarters in Continent F.

"How is Jinan?" She asked Daji as soon as she got in the car and fastened her seat belt.

Daji has a healthy wheat-colored skin and drives with one hand neatly on the steering wheel, while still taking time to answer Qiao Nian: "The boy is fine. There is no problem with his body, but he is stimulated, and he has been on the high seas for the past few days. Follow along to find someone."

Qiao Nian knew that Ji Lingfeng's whereabouts had not been found for a long time, rubbed the corner of his forehead, and asked with a headache: "He... No news yet?"

Daji saw the rare irritable look on her face through the left rearview mirror, restrained her frivolity, and said in a serious tone: "We and the people from the dungeon have salvaged all the 100 kilometers of that sea area. A lot of people went to search and rescue, but the results were extremely poor! Except for some of the blown up ships, we brought up all the bodies we didn't know. The two people you sent me photos didn't find any..."

Qiao Nian sent him a photo of two people.

One Ji Lingfeng and one He Lin.

She casually opened the car window to let the cold wind blow in from the outside, slightly lowered the feeling of churning in her chest, put her arms outside, and looked sideways: "They have an accident in that sea area, as long as people are not taken away, Then someone will definitely be found. Even if he is dead, there is always a body. So it may be a good thing that you can't find him, at least it means that he still has hope of surviving."

"That's the truth." Daji nodded in agreement.

The green pickup truck drove into a strictly guarded camp. Before the car entered the camp, there were also guards who routinely checked their identities before letting them in.

"Boss, please come in." The person in charge of the inspection retreated to a safe distance.

Da Ji put away her electronic magnetic card for entry and exit, and the door to the camp opened.

He drove Qiao Nian into their base camp in Continent F in a pickup truck.

At the same time, inside the F continent base camp.

Drive out from Daji to pick up people, and return to the pickup truck.

Several key persons in charge have been together for a while to discuss this matter.

"What's the matter with the boss? In the past three days, I have brought people back home, but they are all strangers." It was a woman who spoke.

She stepped on the bench with her sturdy thighs, and irritably threw off her hair to reveal a terrifying scar that ran across her face from her left eye to her chin. She said dissatisfiedly, "The boss brought me a man, this time I heard He also went to pick up a woman. Could it be that spring is here?"

Chunlei's voice just fell.

Monkey reminded her: "Be careful, don't be heard by the boss."

Chapter 2855 Q means a lot to them

Chunlei A woman who can get to her current status in a cannibalistic place like F continent is by no means a weak little woman.

She didn't care what the little friend reminded her at all, and she clicked: "I'll just say it, you don't say it out, where will the boss hear it, unless you betray me."

"Don't talk nonsense, we didn't want to betray you." Monkey was the first to raise his hand to show his innocence.

A few other people are not as boring as they are, arguing about these little things that some don't.

Someone directly ignored the two and said, "The boss won't bring people back indiscriminately. He must have his reasons for bringing people back. I heard before... The boss above the boss is a woman, do you think...?"

"You mean that one is here?" Chunlei also calmed down.

In the F continent base camp, Daji alone has the final say.

Daji has the absolute right to speak here, and this group of desperadoes is willingly driven by him.

These are not without reason.

F continent was notoriously chaotic in the past. Many pirates and gangs ran rampant here, forcing the local people to mine and dig diamonds, but only give the local people a little return. Once someone resists, they will use brutal means to suppress them, kill chickens to set an example, and then continue to squeeze the local cheap labor force.

These people make a living by eating human blood steamed buns, making the locals miserable...

All this until the emergence of the Q organization.

Q is also a business of buying and selling diamonds.

But compared to the local people who took away 90% of the results and gave up even 10% to the excavation, Q is much more reasonable and fair.

Q's price is fair, and people are easy to talk to.

The people from Continent F began to secretly sell the diamonds they dug to them. After going back and forth, the local snakes will definitely quit.

At that time, everyone thought that Q would be a big tree and attract wind, so he was cleaned up and left F continent like some other conscientious businessmen.

Who knew that there were weapons behind Q, and the leader was a young man in his thirties. Under his leadership, Q's people ruthlessly cleaned up some of the local snakes in F continent. Slowly, everyone began to defect to Q's camp, and they were also called the diamond gang from outside...

But neither Chunlei nor Monkey and others have seen the true face of the diamond boss.

They usually deal with Daji.

Daji is usually responsible for some weapons sales in addition to diamond accidents, and gradually became a well-known weapons dealer in F continent.

But they all know that there are still people above Daji.

That person is the diamond boss Q.

He said that the person Daji brought back might be the boss they had never met, and everyone who discussed here was honest.

Monkey asked: "Are you sure?"

"Who the * can be sure about this? Can you be sure to show it to me?" The man returned angrily.

Monkey scratched his head: "Didn't I just ask?"

Chunlei took his legs off the stool, lacking interest: "Forget it, I'm going back to sleep. Anyway, tomorrow I'll meet the person brought back by the boss, and I'll see when I see it."

Q was like a * who saved them from the oppression of the local snakes, and they held an extraordinary position in their hearts, and no one wanted to make a joke about Q.

Everyone here respects her from the bottom of her heart.

includes spring thunder.

She also doesn't want to guess randomly with Q.

Chunlei: "Okay, everyone is gone, let's go."

Chapter 2856 Ji Nan is back

Night falls.

The night of F continent becomes quieter as the sun goes down, but people who live here all year round know that night is the best protection from danger.

Once the night falls, the danger will start to move around.

Jinan and his party returned to the camp at eight o'clock in the evening.

Their car traveled through the most chaotic neighborhood in Continent F and returned to the base camp unimpeded.

Da Ji was outside waiting for them to come back.

He heard the guard outside the door telling him that the convoy of the pier had returned and went out to pick up people in person.

When he went out, Jinan and his party had just parked their car in the camp.

Daji's subordinates took the initiative to greet him: "Boss, why are you here?"

"Boss."

"Boss."

Others put down what they were doing, and stood respectfully on the side of the road to greet him: "Hello, boss."

Jinan hadn't closed his eyes for more than ten hours for three days and two nights, and his eyes were full of red blood in a state of extreme tiredness.

He jumped out of the pickup truck, the hair on his forehead was messy, covering his eyes, and his clothes were messy.

Daji walked up to him, reached out and patted his shoulder.

Jinan then stopped, looked up and saw it was him, finally willing to speak: "David."

"No results yet?" Daji saw that he had an unusual relationship with Qiao Nian and had a good attitude towards him, so he took the initiative to ask him.

Jinan looked bad, lowered his eyes in pain, and shook his head: "No. There is no clue at all."

Daji gave him another firm grip on his shoulder, letting him calm down for a while. Then said to him: "Sun is here, she is waiting for you in the base camp."

sun?

In the past two days, Ji Nan's mind was full of scenes of Ji Lingfeng pushing him away. He didn't eat, drink, or sleep, and devoted all his energy to saving people.

Daji talked to him for several seconds before his stiff head turned around, turning his head slightly, showing a surprised and excited expression: "You said... Nian Nian?"

Daji quickly raised his hand to stop him: "Don't, you can call it that, but I don't dare to call it that."

It's no wonder the boss heard that he didn't kill him!

Even if the boss didn't care about this, he just watched the inkstone and the slender waist control the two goods not chatting with him for a long time, and his ears read calluses to him.

He laughed to himself: "She just arrived in the afternoon, and she came when she got off the plane."

For the first time in the past two days, Ji Nan heard the news that he could be a little happier, and finally a look of a young man appeared on his withered face: "Where is she?"

Daji walked in front: "I'll take you there, come with me."

Jinan hummed and followed without a word.

Qiao Nian lives in the camp where Daji usually stays.

Continent F has difficult conditions and there are not many high-rise buildings. The places where people live here are basically tents and simple iron houses.

Daji is not short of money.

So the materials used in their base camp are more advanced, some white materials that can be fireproof and bulletproof.

However, the architectural style is similar, and it is also the style of tents, more like a white yurt.

Since it is a yurt building, it is destined that the area inside is not too large, and the place where Daji lives is about 180 square meters.

In the center of the is a sand table. Inside the sand table is a miniature map of Continent F, with red and blue flags inserted on the sand.

Qiao Nian is now carefully studying the sand table in Daji's room, and there is a haze that is hard to detect in his eyes.

This should be a power distribution map of Continent F.

Chapter 2857 Sister Nian: Call home first to report safety

The little red flag he put on it belongs to the forces of the Red Alliance, and the little blue flag should be Ye Wangchuan's dark fortress.

The small red and blue flags occupy most of Continent F, and are dotted with stars on the sand table.

Qiao Nian planted one of the small flags on the sea area where Ji Lingfeng's accident happened, and he was putting his arms around his chest, staring down at the area.

"sun." Daji came in from outside.

His voice is so loud that no one can hear it before he arrives.

Qiao Nian took the small flag away again and turned his head to the side, just in time to see Da Ji and Jinan who came in from outside.

The moment Ji Nan saw her, his eyes turned red: "Joe... Nian Nian."

Qiao Nian saw that he was a little thinner and darker, so he put the small flag back in his hand, walked up to him, stretched out his hand, and patted him on the shoulder: "It's just fine."

Jinan's tightly controlled emotions almost burst out. His eyes were scarlet and he resisted the tears that were about to burst out. He said in a hoarse voice, "I'm useless, I didn't find anyone."

Qiao Nian withdrew his hand, and his expression did not look surprised: "Leave this to me. I will go to sea tomorrow to see the scene."

Daji had not seen her so gentle, she quietly touched her nose and felt that it was superfluous to stand here.

Just because Ji Nan was immersed in grief, it was not good for him to interrupt the two of them at this time to say that he was going out first.

Qiao Nian has never been a person with exposed feelings. Seeing that Ji Nan had calmed down a little, he said to him, "By the way, have you contacted your family these two days?"

Jinan followed her: "My phone fell into the sea and broke, and I've been busy looking for someone for the past two days, so I haven't contacted my family yet..."

Qiao Nian estimates that he is full of people looking for someone, and he has not contacted the independent continent yet.

So she took out her mobile phone from her pocket and threw it to Ji Nan, calmly said: "Contact your family first and report to be safe."

Jinan quickly grabbed the phone and fell silent: "Well."

He went to the side to use Qiao Nian's mobile phone to contact Xie Yun first, but found that Qiao Nian's mobile phone looked ordinary, but it was the most advanced iris verification system.

So Ji Nan turned back and handed the phone to the girl: "I can't unlock it."

Qiao Nian frowned and reached out to take it, only to realize that he forgot to unlock it for him, so he opened it with the password and handed it to him: "Tell your family well to save them from worrying."

"I know."

Jinan took the phone and walked to the side again to make a call.

Qiao Nian watched him go away, then turned to look at Daji, and said to him, "Help me arrange, I'm going to sea tomorrow."

"You want to go in person?" Daji was surprised, and immediately said: "Okay, I'll bring some good hands with you tomorrow."

Qiao Nian gave a soft grace, his eyes drifted to Ji Nan who called home to report safety, pursed his lips, and suppressed the coldness in his eyes.

Ji Lingfeng should be very clear about Nie Qingru's ruthless style of doing things, why did he take the risk to go to M continent.

For whom?

Independent Chau Ji family.

After Xie Yun answered Ji Nan's call, she hung up the phone excitedly and walked a few laps to calm down.

The servants in the old house saw her crying and laughing, and peeked quietly, and no one dared to talk too much to disturb her.

Fortunately, Xie Yun quickly adjusted her mood, and her eyes were full of surprises. She called a servant and said, "Go, go and call all the elders of the family to Juyi Hall."

Chapter 2858 Some people's abacus is going to be empty

"Madam, is this the point?" the servant asked in surprise.

F Continent is already on the treetops.

Although there is a two-hour time difference on the Independent Island, it is also close to eight or nine in the evening.

At this time, everyone should prepare to rest.

Xie Yun called someone over at this time.

Xie Yun didn't care, she waved her hand and said, "Just say I have something urgent to ask them to discuss."

"Yes, ma'am." The servant stopped talking, and immediately turned to go to work.

Xie Yun waited for him to call someone, and she went back to the bedroom on the second floor to wash her face with cold water to calm herself down, then took out her makeup and painted a light makeup, and finally picked up the lipstick on the stage and lightly applied her lip color...

After she had done all this, she looked at the woman in the mirror again, she looked more energetic, at least not as haggard as the previous two days.

Xie Yun then picked up the handbag, put the lipstick in the bag, took the bag and walked towards the direction of Juyitang...

At this time, several elders from Juyi Hall arrived.

They were called by Ji Hongyuan during the day, and they were ready to rest at eight or nine o'clock, when they were called by Xie Yun again.

Several elders talked a lot, thinking that Xie Yun called them here because of the day's affairs and wanted to persuade them again in private.

Xie Yun walked in from the outside surrounded by the hands left by Ji Lingfeng: "Several uncles, I'm sorry to call you here so late."

She has been smiling since she came in, and with makeup on, she looks radiant, completely different from the daytime.

Several elders looked at each other, but could not see what medicine Xie Yun was selling.

The elder Ji, headed by , coughed and said, covering up his embarrassment, "I heard that there is an urgent matter with us?"

They still felt that Xie Yun wanted to convince them.

He took away the hand covering his lips, his expression gradually became serious, and Shen Lian said: "I know you don't want to accept the reality, why don't we? We also don't want to accept the fact that something happened to the patriarch and Nan Shao! It's just that it happened. , what we can do is to minimize the impact as much as possible."

He was almost done watching the training, and he slowly persuaded: "We don't have to ask Ji Ziyin to take over the position of the patriarch."

"I know your concern, but you just think the things she did before were too unreliable. We also have this concern, so we have to discuss this matter..."

Xie Yun, of course, knew what these people were thinking, so she slightly raised the corners of her lips to hide her contempt.

The generation from Ji's family to Ji Lingfeng's generation is the master of the family.

Ji Lingfeng and the patriarch of the previous generation are so tough that they have no right to speak in the family at all.

If Ji Ziyin is on the top.

Just by virtue of the status of Ji Ziyin's side branch, these old bones can also have a place in the family, and they can even set up the patriarch and let them control the huge family behind them!

So how can these people not be tempted in the face of huge interests? Their so-called consideration and discussion were nothing more than words to appease her.

If there is no accident, they just want to support Ji Ziyin to ascend!

Xie Yun was also a rare talent when she was young, but she was not as sharp-edged as Xie Tingyun, but she was not ignorant or ignorant.

Under the aggressiveness of the other party, she appeared very calm and elegant, and interrupted the elder with a slight smile: "You have misunderstood."

Chapter 2859 Sister Nian is going to find someone in person

Several elders of Ji's family immediately looked at her suspiciously.

Xie Yun then covered her lips with her hand, and swept over a few people with a smile: "I called your uncles so late to share a good news with you—Jinan is fine! He just called me to report Peace, now people are in Continent F."

Several elders in Juyou Hall were struck by lightning.

After a brief silence.

Several people immediately started a noisy discussion.

"Jinan okay?"

"Why was there no news before?"

"Jinan is fine, so the patriarch he..." Someone was so frightened that cold sweat broke out on their backs.

Xie Yun knew what they were afraid of, and said in a shallow voice, "Jinan stayed in Continent F to find his father's whereabouts."

Several elders of Ji's family looked at each other, relieved.

They also realized that their reaction just now was too big, and they made it clear that they didn't want Ji Nan to survive, and they explained to Xie Yun with embarrassed expressions: "We are just worried..."

"I know." Xie Yun didn't mean to care about them.

"..." The elders of the Ji family shut their mouths.

Juyitang was deadly silent again.

Xie Yun is not in a hurry this time.

Finally someone couldn't help breaking the extreme silence: "Since Master Nan is still alive, let's talk about Ji Ziyin."

Xie Yun's eyes looked coldly.

The other party only dared to turn his head away, and did not dare to meet her eyes.

Xie Yun sneered in her heart, she knew very well that they were immortal and wanted to use Ji Ziyin instead of Ji Nan.

After all, Ji Ziyin has an advantage over Ji Nan in the manufacture of weapons that the Ji family depends on, so if these people insist on this, Ji Nan does not have an advantage.

She didn't show her dissatisfaction, and smiled gracefully: "Then uncles, wait for Ji Nan to come back."

The next day.

The sky just got light when Qiao Nian got up.

The air in the early morning of F continent is relatively thin, and when you breathe, you will exhale a cloud of white fog, and the cold air will blow your face.

Qiao Nian washed his face with cold water, picked up the peaked cap on the table and put it on his head, walked to the window and picked up the shoulder bag that was thrown on the chair, and took out the black laptop from it.

As soon as she took out the computer and put it on the table, out of the corner of her eye, she saw the phone screen flicker.

Qiao Nian took the phone over and looked down: [Are you up?]

She saw Ye Wuchuan's black avatar, and then scrolled up to find that he had sent herself a message at eleven o'clock last night, asking her about Jinan's situation.

She had jet lag last night, so she took medicine and went to bed early because she was not feeling well.

Qiao Nian rubbed his temples, suppressing the migraine he didn't wake up from, and edited a message with his fingertips to go back to him.

In the stronghold of the dark fort.

Ye Wangchuan has been up for an hour.

As soon as he read the records of shipments he had over the past few years, he saw his phone light up when he turned back.

He immediately put down what he was doing and picked up his phone.

is indeed a WeChat message.

A faint smile appeared on Ye Wuchuan's face, his body leaned back slightly on the back of the chair, and his muscles relaxed as he read the news.

【Q: Jinan is fine. I'm going to take a trip to the sea where the accident happened. 】

Qiao Nian's reply was as simple and clear as always, without a single extra nonsense.

Ye Wuchuan looked at this brief reply to both sides, and the corners of his lips were always raised, showing that he was relaxed and reckless.

His face was so full of spring breeze that the people who came in to report to him were so frightened that their hair stood upright.

Chapter 2860 Sister Nian goes to sea

On the other side, Qiao Nian packed up his shoulder bag and set off.

Their base camp is only 40 kilometers away from the pier, and the group arrived at the pier before half an hour in a pickup truck.

Jinan got up half an hour earlier than her, and couldn't wait to go there first with the people who were on the last trip.

Da Ji was still waiting for her at the dock.

In addition to Daji this time, Chunlei, Monkey and others are also there.

Seven or eight people full of evil spirits stood around Daji, and almost all the main members of the diamond boss in Continent F were present.

They watched the pickup truck get closer and closer.

Chunlei flipped his hair and turned his face to talk to Daji: "Boss, she's going too? The Black Sea is not a fun place, there are tiger sharks everywhere. If you scare her, we won't be responsible!"

She used a tongue-in-cheek tone.

Daji thought she was joking with herself, and gave her a look: "Wait for the delegates to be more respectful."

Chunlei clicked the corner of his mouth, his eyes narrowed slightly, quite dissatisfied.

Monkey dragged her aside, lowered his voice to her ear and said, "You forgot the possibility we guessed yesterday? Say a few words less."

"Fuck." Chunlei scolded his back stiffly.

She lowered the frivolous and condescending look on her face, but she didn't make fun of the 'newcomer' as before.

The pickup truck that Qiao Nian took quickly stopped in front of several people.

The girl unfastened her seat belt, jumped out of the car neatly from the co-pilot's seat, stretched out her hand and pulled down her cap, and swept over the few people at the pier with her bright eyes, and walked straight over.

She walked up to the leader: "Are you all here?"

Chunlei and the others didn't expect her to be so tugged, Qi Qi was stunned for a while, but they didn't respond suddenly.

Daji was used to saying to the girls: "We're all here. We can leave at any time."

Qiao Nian jumped on the speedboat first. After standing firm, he turned to him and said, "Let's go then."

Daji turned around and waved to the few people who were still standing at the original location: "Hurry up, don't waste time. We're ready to go!"

...

"Boss, what's the situation?"

"Could this person really be Q?"

"But...isn't it too young?"

Daji got on the speedboat after talking to them and waited for them to pass by on the speedboat.

Several people in F continent, you look at me, I look at you, and they all see incredible things in each other's eyes. They discussed a few sentences in low voices, and they couldn't figure out the situation in front of them for a while, so they simply went over collectively...

Several people got on the speedboat.

Da Ji went to the command room to operate it himself, and the speedboat drove out of the dock like an arrow from the string, and quickly passed towards the Black Sea Domain.

on deck.

Daji was not there, only Qiao Nian was standing on the deck facing the wind, the wind blew the corners of her shirt and her black hair, and just a back figure gave people a sense of alienation that was hard to get close to.

Chunlei and the others have collectively stopped talking since they came up.

At this moment, everyone saw the girls standing alone on the deck with complicated expressions. Finally, someone broke the calm and said in a low voice, "What is she doing standing on it? Aren't you afraid?"

Those from Continent F usually spend their time in the blood and rain, and of course they are not afraid of the deep sea.

But the girls not far away looked extremely young, and they didn't have the murderous aura that came out of their blood.

Qiao Nian doesn't look like they are from Continent F!

Chunlei frowned. She had excellent eyesight. She had already seen what the people on the deck were doing. Her tone was astonished and surprised: "She is using a computer?"
