

Madam's 2861

Chapter 2861 They encountered thunderstorm weather at sea

Monkey looked surprised: "What do you mean?"

Chunlei looked at the people on the deck sitting on the ground, cross-legged, took out an ultra-thin laptop from the shoulder bag she was carrying, and put it on her lap. She tapped the keyboard with her white hands. The speed is smooth and arbitrary, very free and easy.

"The computer she brought in her bag has now been taken out, as if she was playing with the computer..." She said intermittently, mainly a little weird.

Several people were silent for a moment, and someone asked: "There seems to be no Internet in this sea area."

The deep sea is not covered, it is endless.

The network signal here is terrible, it is equivalent to no signal.

Qiao Nian is playing on the computer here?

playing what?

Tetris?

"Sometimes I like to bring a tablet to play card games." The monkey insisted, which was a forced explanation for Qiao Nian's behavior.

A few other people ignored his intentions, all of them looked straight in the direction of the deck, wishing they could see the girl's back as a flower.

What the * is she doing!

Qiao Nian didn't know that he was being watched.

She was searching for the whereabouts of the mobile phones that Ji Lingfeng and He Lin were carrying by using the temporary network domain set up last night, and then took out an unknown black circular slap-sized thing from her shoulder bag and placed it on her leg to activate its mobile phone. program.

Soon, her computer made a 'chirp' sound.

Qiao Nian ignored the gadgets around his legs for a while, and turned his attention to the computer screen...

A small red dot appeared on her computer screen, marking exactly where the last IP address of the phone was.

Qiao Nian recorded this IP with a mobile phone.

Then she searched the last call record of Lingfeng next season's mobile phone and the location of the last call, hit the Enter key, and she quietly waited for the result.

The domain search program Qiao Nian personally built to check the location of a mobile phone would undoubtedly take little effort, and within five minutes, Ji Lingfeng's last call IP was also checked out by her.

Qiao Nian looked at the IP on the red dot that finally popped up on the screen, inexplicably familiar, so she turned on her phone and looked at the address she had captured earlier.

Sure enough, the latitude and longitude of the two IPs are exactly the same.

Based on these two IP addresses, she could basically determine the specific sea area where the yacht was when Ji Lingfeng exploded.

When she got the data, she got up to find Daji, gave him the address, and asked him to drive the speedboat directly to the accident point where Ji Lingfeng had an accident.

The sea is windy and the weather is unpredictable.

Before they set off, the sky was clear and blue.

In the blink of an eye, the sea breeze blew, and the dark clouds were already close to the place where you could touch them, and there were still electric lights flashing in the thick clouds.

Chunlei looked up and saw the weather, and couldn't help but go to Daji worriedly: "Boss, it's going to rain heavily. We may not find anything today, so let's go back first."

The thunderstorm weather at sea is a very serious thing, and it is even more terrifying if it encounters a sea cyclone.

Chunlei's worries are also other people's worries.

Monkey couldn't help but said: "Yes, boss, or let's go back first."

While the two of them were talking, several batches of investigators who had left before them were reporting to them via the walkie-talkie.

"Number 003, 003. Call the boss."

"Say."

Daji has already driven the speedboat to the spot that Qiao Nian gave him, frowning, and doesn't plan to go back for the time being.

Chapter 2862 Sister Nian: Give me half an hour

"003, 003. Boss, we encountered a thunderstorm here, do you want to evacuate?"

He took the walkie-talkie to communicate with the person on the other end: "You guys withdraw first."

There was a rustling of electricity on the other end, and it could be seen that the signal was even worse: "003, 003. Received!"

One after another, ships contacted him to ask if they could evacuate.

Daji told them to withdraw first.

On his own side, he found someone to help him operate first, while walking to the deck to look for Qiao Nian's figure.

When he came out, he saw that there were seven or eight black round gadgets placed on the girls' feet. Daji took a few more curious glances, but he didn't see the use of these gadgets.

So he crossed the little things on the deck, walked to the girl and asked softly, "Sun, it's going to be windy. Shall we go back first?"

Qiao Nian looked up and saw the dark sky and the faint roar of thunder, her eyes were slightly raised, and she was not threatened by God to go back.

She raised her hand and glanced at the time on the watch, and said succinctly: "It won't rain in two hours, but now it's just thunder. I won't need that long, just give me half an hour."

"Okay." Daji didn't ask her how to determine when and when it would rain, and without saying a word, she turned back in trust and explained to Chunlei and the others that she would continue to move forward.

Chunlei and others saw that it was not him who wanted to move on, but the 'newcomer' who insisted on continuing.

Their faces changed slightly, and anger and confusion appeared between their eyebrows. Due to Daji's prestige, several people did not express their opinions for the time being, and continued to move forward by default.

They waited for Daji to go away.

Someone couldn't hold back their anger: "Does she know how terrifying the sea storm in F continent is? In case we encounter a sea storm, everyone must be here today!"

Chunlei turned around and gave him a kick: "Don't talk about it! The boss has saved our lives. Even if I die here today, I will listen to his arrangements."

The person who was talking was kicked with a soft knee and almost fell to his knees, grinning in pain.

But he also realized that what he said was too selfish, so he reluctantly kept silent.

Other people didn't feel good about it, and felt that Daji listened a little too much to the words of the 'newcomer'.

But the group of them has always obeyed orders, and even if there is life-threatening danger ahead, no one will scoff.

Monkey was lying on the side of the cabin at this time, brushing his hands through the dark sea water around the speedboat, and said in a solemn tone: "Even if we have reached the location, with the visibility of the sea today, she is afraid that it will be more difficult to find someone than to go to the sky."

Don't others think so?

The sky is dark, and the sea below will only get darker. If people go down, they are afraid that they will not see anything, and it is better not to be swept in by the sea water.

After fifteen minutes.

The speedboat arrived at the location given by Qiao Nian.

Daji parked the speedboat, the speedboat swayed violently with the waves on the sea, the weather did not improve, and it looked darker.

Almost everyone is watching what Qiao Nian plans to do next.

Da Ji walked over and saw the girl pick up those small black round things scattered on the deck: "sun, what are these?"

"I made a search robot."

Before Qiao Nian had activated them all, he threw one of them into the air and into the sea.

"They have remote sensing systems inside them for remote control, as well as electronic eyes and thrusters that allow them to travel anywhere up to 500 kilometers."

Chapter 2863 An unknown speedboat entered the sea on the day of the accident

I saw that the black machine disintegrated in mid-air at the moment Qiao Nian let go, forming a pair of screw propulsion devices, and then plunged into the sea...

"I also installed an infrared sensor in it, so as long as human beings are found, there will be a reminder."

She said it as if she just made a functional little toy.

Da Ji was shocked.

They also have a similar sea area search machine, but the machine is huge and not easy to carry, and it does not have the high-tech gadgets that Qiao Nian said.

Qiao Nian threw all seven or eight search robots into the sea, then bent down to pick up the computer and walked to a place where he could sit, put the computer on the table, and clicked on the monitoring screen on the screen.

She was talking to Daji.

Chunlei and others also came over.

They were all surprised by the girl's light words, and now they leaned over and looked at the screen of the laptop on the table.

They saw that there were eight small grids on the screen, and each grid could clearly see the state of the seabed.

this...

Everyone looked at each other.

Qiao Nian ignored them and turned around to talk to them for the first time: "If you like it, I'll keep a few of these for you before I leave."

Chunlei and others realized that she was talking to them and opened their mouths slightly, feeling a little overwhelmed.

The monkey was bold, glanced at her with ambiguous eyes, and then looked in the direction of Daji, jokingly: "What, beauty. You won't have an affair with our boss, will you??"

As soon as he said these words, Daji felt like he was struck by lightning, so he directly gave him a head on the back, and wanted to slap him to death: "You can shut up! I want to live two more years!"

Chunlei and the others also looked at him curiously.

Da Ji retracted her hand and was speechless: "He has a boyfriend!"

Qiao Nian he said.

Then, as if asking for advice, he bravely said, "You all know my boyfriend, the master of the dark fort next door."

F continent people collectively lost their voices.

Qi Shushua looked at the girl who looked ordinary, curiosity and inquiry were about to be written on his face: "So..."

Qiao Nian felt a pain in her head, her beautiful black eyes met their gaze, and she simply said, "I'm sorry, I forgot to introduce myself."

"I'm Q."

After half an hour, this sea area was basically searched.

Qiao Nian searched and found a lot of fragments of the ferry below, as well as the broken limbs of some people, but there was no clues about Ji Lingfeng and He Lin.

The two seemed to disappear into this sea of out of thin air...

This is obviously impossible.

Unless the explosion at that time was very powerful, and Ji Lingfeng and He Lin were just at the center of the explosion, they were melted on the spot.

Otherwise, no matter what, in this kind of carpet-like search, you will definitely be able to find the related objects of the two people, but Qiao Nian can't find it if he can't find it after searching through it.

She is looking solemn, her chin resting in her hand, thinking about where Ji Lingfeng has gone.

At this moment, the phone in her clothes rang.

Qiao Nian took out his mobile phone and turned it on, just in time to see the message Ye Wuchuan sent her.

[Y: A speedboat entered the Black Sea on the day of Ji Lingfeng's accident, and then disappeared soon after.]

[Y: The local pirates have seen the speedboat, but I checked the entry and exit records of the sea area, and there is no entry record of the unfamiliar speedboat they said, it seems that it has been deleted.]

Chapter 2864 Sister Nian is sure that Ji Lingfeng was rescued

Qiao Nian connected all the information, and a thought popped up between the lights and flints-would someone rescue Ji Lingfeng at that time?

Daji walked up to her and asked, "Boss, since we haven't found anyone, should we go back first?"

"Huh?" Qiao Nian raised his eyes and noticed that the sky was getting darker and darker, the dark clouds were pressing down, and the wind on the sea level was getting stronger.

Daji was planning to remind her to check the weather.

Seeing that the girl seemed to come back to her senses, her fair face calmly arranged herself: "Let's go back first."

Da Ji saw that she was so worried and didn't bother her anymore, and walked away gently to prepare for the return flight.

Qiao Nian stood on the deck for a while.

Thunderstorm weather is coming.

The wind on the deck was much stronger than before going out to sea, and it almost blew the shirt on her body. From behind, you could see the girl's shoulder blades outlined by the clothes.

After Chunlei and others knew her identity, almost no one came to disturb her, and they all looked at the girl standing on the deck from a distance.

Chunlei saw the girl staring at the dark sea level, biting a cigarette in her mouth, and talking to other people in a distraught: "Hey, who do you think the person Q is looking for is her? I think she attaches great importance to that one. people."

"Chief of the Ji family, Emperor Ji of the Independent State." Monkey raised his chin slightly to answer, his eyes wandering in a trance: "But I haven't heard that he has anything to do with Q."

Chunlei spit out the cigarette butt, crushed and stepped on the cigarette * with his toes expressionlessly: "She is kind to us."

She said: "If Q really wants to find that person, I will go out to sea tomorrow to find her, even if I dig three feet out of this sea area for her to find the person!"

The other people looked at each other and rubbed their faces, not knowing what to say.

In the end, Scarface said helplessly to her: "Hasn't the boss dug this place three feet in the past few days? Have you found someone? It's not like you haven't found anyone yet..."

"If you really want to help, don't make trouble."

Chunlei didn't like to hear what he said, and her eyebrows stood up, which was a precursor to her madness.

These people are all familiar with her.

The scar-faced man saw that she was angry, he quickly pressed her shoulders and comforted: "Let's go back and ask from other channels. I think that Ji Huang may have been rescued! Otherwise, after so many days, let's + The two sides of the dungeon have been searching day and night to find something, but no one is found. Do you think so?"

Chunlei put his chin on his hand and fell into deep thought: "How do we find it?"

When the man saw her calm down, he let go of his hand and said calmly, "Let's check the boundaries of Continent F first and see if the person who rescued him is in Continent F."

Chunlei pondered for a moment: "Okay."

She also thinks this method is feasible.

F continent is their territory.

If Ji Lingfeng was still in Continent F, how could they find some clues.

In the afternoon, Qiao Nian just returned to the base camp.

Jinan was already waiting for her outside.

She got out of the car.

Jinan stepped forward quickly, lowered his eyes and said, "How are you? Have you found someone?"

Qiao Nian lifted the shoulder bag he was carrying, pursed his lips, thought for a moment and said to him, "I don't think he was buried in the explosion. Someone may have rescued him."

Jinan was a little surprised: "In that case, how could someone just appear in the Black Sea waters, not there..."

The Black Sea waters are extremely dangerous in Continent F, and no one will go there to play for nothing.

The probability of just saving people is comparable to that of Mars hitting the earth.

Chapter 2865 Xie Yun asked them to go back to Independence Island first

Qiao Nian saw that he didn't believe his statement: "I can't be 100% sure that he was rescued, I just guessed the possibility."

"As for who rescued him? Why did he appear there? Including why he didn't contact Independent Island to contact you these days... These are still puzzles for the time being."

Jinan looked at her nervously and sweating profusely, his clenched fists loosened, loosened and clenched again, he hesitated several times but didn't know what to say.

Qiao Nian saw that he was anxious to find out the truth, especially if Ji Lingfeng was still alive...

It's just that she couldn't give him a definite answer right away.

Just then, Qiao Nian's cell phone rang suddenly.

She stopped and took out her mobile phone, looked down casually, saw the caller ID on the screen, stunned for a moment, and handed her mobile phone to Ji Nan, who was still digesting the news that "Ji Lingfeng might have been rescued".

"A call from Aunt Xie."

Jinan came back to his senses and reached out to take a look. It really was a * call.

His phone was broken long ago when it fell into the sea.

He used Qiao Nian's mobile phone to call Xie Yun before, so it was normal for Xie Yun to call him again. Ji Nan pursed his lips and whispered to the girl, "I'll take a call."

"Go." Qiao Nian put his hands in his pockets, quite casual.

Jinan took the phone and walked to the side to pick it up.

Qiao Nian couldn't go back with his cell phone in his hand, so he could only wait for him to use it up first.

She was about ten meters away from Jinan, and she could vaguely hear Jinan saying, "Now? But I haven't got results yet."

Then Ji Nan was silent for a while.

After a brief silence.

Qiao Nian heard Ji Nan's hoarse voice: "I see."

Then she saw Ji Nan walking back with her mobile phone, it seemed that she had finished the call.

Jinan returned the phone to her, and didn't hide it from her: "My mother asked me to go back to Independence Island, saying that the family was not peaceful recently, and Ji Ziyin went back."

She raised her eyebrows and said with a half-smile, "She's never absent."

Jinan knew that she was talking about Ji Ziyin's character who swarmed up when she smelled the benefits, and her young and determined face was a little dejected and helpless: "My mother has never interfered in the family's affairs before, and my father is in charge of it all alone. Now that my dad and I are not at home, the old guys in the clan won't take her seriously. She can't last long by herself. So I have to go back and I can't leave her alone to face these people..."

Qiao Nian's delicate eyebrows and eyes were stained with coldness, raised his eyes to look at him, and said, "Do you think they will scruple you?"

Jinan was stunned by her straightforward question, then smiled wryly, shrugged his shoulders, and looked back helplessly: "Otherwise? My mother is at home alone, they are even more unscrupulous! At least I'm still holding on. The name of the Ji family's direct line, they have to care about their identity."

Qiao Nian is a person who was spelled out from the dead in F continent. He is very aware of the weakness of human nature, so he disagrees with Ji Nan's innocent words: "Ji Ziyin wants the position of the head of the Ji family. As long as he doesn't go back, you are alone. Going back won't stop anything."

"They won't care about the lineage and the bloodline."

Jinan was involuntarily attracted by the girl's stern expression and looked at her involuntarily.

Qiao Nian said casually: "In the face of huge interests, it is like returning to the animal age. When an elephant falls down, no one cares whether the baby elephant is at home or not. They will only get together to discuss how to divide this behemoth."

Chapter 2866 Wrong Lord: Do you want me to stay?

Xie Yun and Jinan didn't get involved in the Ji family's affairs very much, so they didn't have any support at all.

Just as he is now, returning to Ji's house, no one will care about his identity as Ji Lingfeng's only son, and he can't protect anyone.

Jinan was silenced by what she said, mainly because he understood that what Qiao Nian said was the cruel reality.

He can trade stocks and is recognized as a stock * outside.

The finance he is good at is useless after the chaos of Ji's family!

at this time.

The money is long gone.

What needs is the support of the forces behind it.

Otherwise, he is a man with no strength.

"I'll accompany you back." Just when Ji Nan was still thinking about this, the girl's faint voice came, and it didn't seem like it was a big deal.

Jinan's nose was sour, resisting the sour taste coming up from his chest, his eyes were slightly red, and he squeezed his palms fiercely: "Don't you have something to do here?"

Qiao Nian turned to the side, his black eyes were unhappy, he picked up his hand and said to Jinan: "The water in here is more turbid than you think. You can't handle it alone! I've known you for so many years, it's impossible to watch you. stick it in."

They also had part of the same blood flowing through them.

This wonderful blood relationship has made Qiao Nian feel incredible so far.

She knew that Ji Nan was not a weak person who wanted women to stand in front of him. After thinking about it, she said, "I need you to take charge of Ji's house. Maybe I will have a place where I need your help in the future."

Jinan looked up at her: "..."

He is not stupid.

Of course, he knew that the reason Qiao Nian said was just to make him feel better.

He looked at the girl's fair face and remembered what Ji Lingfeng told him.

said to let him protect his sister and don't make the mistakes he made...

He didn't understand what his father did wrong or how his aunt died back then, but now he can somewhat understand what Ji Lingfeng said about protecting his sister.

He didn't push back, took a deep breath, and nodded solemnly: "As long as you need it, as long as I can do it."

Qiao Nian decided to go back to Independence Island with Ji Nan in the afternoon, and sent a message to Ye Wangchuan about this in the evening.

A message she sent before she went to shower.

When she came out of the shower and changed into clothes, she looked at the phone and there were already several missed calls.

Qiao Nian opened the chair with one hand, picked up the phone with the other hand, sat down, supported his head with his hands lazily, and tilted his head to look at the red dot on the computer screen: "Hello."

The voice of the girl just after taking a bath was still steamy, slightly hoarse and low-pitched.

Ye Wangchuan paused for a second before opening the mouth with a chuckle: "Going to take a bath?"

"Yeah." Qiao Nian replied, and added, "It was raining in the sea in the afternoon, so I came back to take a shower."

Ye Wuchuan leaned back on his leather swivel chair and tilted his head back slightly. The handsome face that was both indignant and angry was covering half of his face under the light. what to think.

"Pfft." At this moment, he also smiled, and the light red thin lips evoked a shallow arc, which was almost life-threatening: "I was thinking why I asked you a question that tormented me, tsk."

Qiao Nian took the phone away, frowned, reached out to dig out his ear, and put it back on his ear: "Speak well."

Ye Wangchuan smiled again.

He had a good temper: "You want to keep me?"

Chapter 2867 Elders, we can talk about business

Qiao Nian returned to normal, his black eyes narrowed in response, looking at the red dot flashing on the computer, his hand holding the phone tightened, and said, "I want you to help me find out the clues about that ship."

"Ok?"

Qiao Nian's eyes did not waver, and he said, "I always have a feeling that that person is Lu Zhi."

Since she made it clear to Lu Zhi last time, Lu Zhi has not come to her.

However, I occasionally post two circles of friends.

The above is still an earthy love story.

Qiao Nian has seen it several times.

She didn't like it.

They made it clear last time that everyone is an adult, so it would be inappropriate for her to give Lu Zhi a thumbs up.

Of course, she didn't delete Lu Zhi's contact information.

After all, they were born and died together, Lu Zhi had a different meaning to her after all compared to ordinary friends.

"You think it's him?" Ye Wuchuan asked after a pause.

Qiao Nian is not sure: "I just feel that I haven't checked in this direction."

Ye Wanchuan was quiet for a moment.

Qiao Nian heard the sound of his clothes rubbing and stood up, raised his eyebrows, and heard him say in a low voice: "I will check in the direction of Tianchen to see if they have moved recently. ships in nearby waters."

"Yes." Qiao Nian had a clear conscience and didn't think too much about it.

Who knows before hanging up.

He suddenly gritted his teeth and said, "Don't mention this name next time."

Qiao Nian was stunned for a moment, then realized that Ye Wuchuan was jealous, a little funny in his heart, but didn't say anything. Quite readily agreed: "Okay."

She promised so readily.

Ye Wangchuan had no reason to continue to dwell on this issue.

He rubbed his frowning brows, remembered his cautious reaction just now, shook his head dumbly, and returned to his usual dignified laziness, and said softly, "Get some rest early."

"Okay, you too." Qiao Nian hung up the phone.

She hung up the phone and didn't sleep.

Instead, she sat on the chair and flipped through Lu Zhi's WeChat with her phone in both hands. After a brief silence, she exited the dialog.

If Lu Zhi wanted to tell her, he would have sent her a message long ago.

Since Lu Zhi didn't say anything.

Then even if the person behind it was Lu Zhi, it would be pointless for her to ask.

Qiao Nian wanted to understand this, so he got up and called Feng Yu to tell him that he was going back to Independent Island tomorrow...

Independence is not peaceful.

Tianshui Private Club.

One after another luxury car parked outside, and the people in the car hurried down, lest they be seen, the driver covered his face with a black umbrella and walked quickly into the clubhouse.

Ji Xiao walked through the corridor, and when he reached the outside of the box that Ji Ziyin told him, he heard a steady stream of voices inside.

The waiter opened the door for him.

Then he saw that in addition to himself and Ji Hongyuan, several main elders of the Ji family were here.

There were a dozen or so people in the big box.

He looked around and found that in addition to these familiar faces, there was an old man with a hook nose sitting proudly on the main seat.

And Ji Ziyin was sitting next to the old man, looking very familiar with the hook-nosed old man.

The two turned their heads from time to time and said a few words.

Ji Xiao vaguely remembered that he seemed to have seen him. When he was still distracted, Ji Ziyin saw him and greeted him: "Come here? Come and sit."

Ji Xiao saw these people, he lowered his head and walked over quickly, slightly bowed his waist and sat on an inconspicuous position in the corner.

Ji Ziyin's eyes flickered, and she seemed quite satisfied with his 'interestedness', after all, Ji Xiao was the youngest in the whole box and had little qualifications.

She stopped looking at Ji Xiao, turned her head and smiled and said to everyone in the box, "Elders, we can talk about business."

Chapter 2868 Ji Ziyin intends to pass the level of Xie Yun

In the huge box.

Except for a few elders from Ji's family who didn't come, basically all of them were there.

They are the few people in the Ji family who have the right to speak.

Ji Ziyin broke the peaceful atmosphere in the box as soon as she opened her mouth.

Everyone put on the appearance that the old * was there, either bowed their heads and drank tea, or looked at the scenery outside...

Everyone is an old fox.

No one is willing to take the lead.

Ji Ziyin always knew how to take advantage of her own advantages, and gave Ji Hongyuan a look to signal him to start.

Ji Hongyuan's sharp eyes flashed with anger quickly.

The hooked-nosed old man seemed to sense the look in his eyes, and tilted his head slightly to make eye contact with Ji Hongyuan.

Ji Hongyuan took a deep breath, his face was ashen, he stood up reluctantly, raised his wine glass and said loudly to the people on the table: "Everyone, I know your concerns. I will also talk about my thoughts! Although Jinan He is from the direct line, but he has no experience in researching and studying the gunpowder of the Ji family, and he has been fooling around outside these years. If he inherits the family, the family will definitely go downhill in the future!"

"We are all veterans of the Ji family." He slowed his tone, looked around the table, and said in a low voice, "I know that everyone who came here today is for the sake of the family's future, not for the sake of the family's future. personal desires..."

Ji Hongyuan is indeed the elder who used to be in charge of the Ji Family Punishment Hall.

He enlivened the atmosphere in the box with just a few words.

The elders of the Ji family looked at each other with smiles on their faces, and said from the side: "Yes, we are not here for personal grievances."

"We are also thinking about the future of our family."

"Who is not for the future of the family, or I will not come to eat this meal."

" ... "

Every one of you, every word I say, all beautify your own as if you have no selfishness in it, and gather together at night purely for the benefit of the family.

Leonard swept across the Ji family in the Independent Continent, and a trace of contempt flashed in his eyes.

He held up the teacup to cover the sneer on his lips, interrupting everyone's pretentious performance: "Okay, let's get down to business."

Ji Hongyuan turned his head: "I propose to skip the hurdle of Madam and directly appoint Ziyin as the new patriarch."

Ji Ziyin sat down long ago.

At this moment, she felt the gaze falling on her body.

She lowered her eyes, and took a sip of tea without a trace, her brows were filled with a calm expression of pampering and humiliation.

A dozen elders of the Ji family immediately began to discuss each other.

"Is this not good? Can Madam agree?"

"Yes, according to the rules, when the old patriarch dies, his children should take over the position of the patriarch and become the new patriarch."

"Jinan is in the direct line anyway. There has never been a precedent for a side branch to inherit the position of the patriarch. We can't break the rules, right?"

Ji Ziyin heard them keep talking about 'side branch' and 'direct line', her eyes darkened, and the expression on Goose Egg's face was very gloomy...

Ji Hongyuan and Ji Xiao were secretly anxious.

at this time.

only heard the sound of a teacup knocking on the table softly.

The elders of Jijia, who had been talking a lot before, quieted down.

Leonard wiped the corners of his mouth gracefully with a tissue, and then looked at them under everyone's attention: "When did the independent continent attach so much importance to the distinction between direct lineage and sideline branch? The hidden family has always believed that the strong are respected!"

Chapter 2869 No one in your direct line can take action

"You keep saying that blood is more important than everything else, is there anyone in the direct line who can take action?"

His attitude is too crazy.

Several temperamental elders of Ji's family sank sharply, and immediately felt humiliated.

They haven't spoken yet.

Ji Hongyuan rounded up the field in the middle and said with a smile: "Lao Lei, you may not be aware of the rules of the Independent Continent. We have this kind of inheritance rules, and it's normal for everyone to care about this matter."

Leonard didn't give face, and sneered and threw the used tissue on the table: "Oh, that's why Independent Continent is getting more and more declining."

"What do you mean!" Someone patted the table and got up.

There was also a gloomy warning to him: "This is not your Continent M, pay attention to your words!"

Seeing the harmony between the two sides in the box from the beginning, the atmosphere became tense.

Ji Ziyin got up at this moment and said, "Elders, please listen to me."

Several elders of Ji's family couldn't sit still and wanted to leave.

Before they left, Ji Ziyin said in a calm and steady tone: "I know that everyone is concerned about my status as a sidekick, but the elders should also know very well that Ji Nan is impossible to be the head of the Ji family... Now the whereabouts of the patriarch are unknown, Ji The family urgently needs a person to come out and stabilize the situation, and I am willing to help the family to tide over the difficulties. If the elders are still dissatisfied with me afterwards, I will give up my position and let someone more capable take over my position."

"Everyone present is my elders."

She looked around the crowd: "I promise that even if I become the patriarch, I will still respect everyone's opinions as I do now!"

Who is not a thousand-year-old fox who has become a fine.

Ji Ziyin's remarks are undoubtedly a promise to decentralize the power of the patriarch in the future, and the patriarch will no longer decide the size of the family affairs.

Don't these people come here tonight because they want Ji Ziyin's promise?

Now Ji Ziyin has stood up and made it clear that he will decentralize power to them.

The elders who turned their faces and wanted to leave before sat back in their seats again, and said with a slow look, "It's not that we can't support you in your position."

"Jinan is coming back soon."

They care about this.

Xie Yun can't just sit still, and it's not good for them to be elders when their husbands are still alive and dead when they join forces to attack.

It is too ugly to spread out.

Ji Ziyin knew the hypocrisy of these people too well, and smiled slightly: "I'm playing fair with him."

"Jinan has no background. Behind me stand the hidden family and Her Majesty the Queen. All elders make their choices based on the interests of the family. Even if they spread out, everyone can understand their choices..."

"..."

The biggest support behind Ji Nan is Ji Lingfeng.

But now Ji Lingfeng's whereabouts are unknown, and the possibility of death is extremely high.

And behind Ji Ziyin stood a powerful hidden family, Her Majesty the Queen even brought over the old school of the Privy Council, one of her left and right hands, which is enough to explain everything.

With such an obvious gap, everyone knows how to choose!

The next day.

"When will Ji Nan come back?" Xie Yun received the news early in the morning and knew that the main elders of the Ji family had privately dined with Ji Ziyin yesterday.

She walked around the house early in the morning, her brows furrowed, and from time to time she asked the people around her about Jinan.

The servant answered her patiently: "Master got on the plane six hours ago, and it takes more than ten hours to fly from Continent F here, so Master should take a little more time."

Chapter 2870 Xie Yun never expected to be stabbed by the closest person

"Ok."

Xie Yun walked away with a slightly heavy expression upon hearing this.

She was right to be worried.

She just walked a few steps in the old house when someone hurriedly came to her: "Madam."

Xie Yun saw the anxious look of the visitor, the stone on his chest sank, stopped and asked him, "What's the matter?"

The man stood still in front of her, gasping for breath, his expression extremely flustered: "Madam, the three elders and others gathered in Juyitang and publicly said that they would elect a new patriarch, and they also said..."

"What else did they say?" Xie Yun sighed and looked at him solemnly.

The man hesitated: "They also said... the patriarch has been missing for five days, and the possibility of surviving is zero. They can't wait any longer, and must immediately elect a new patriarch to lead the Ji family to a new stage."

Anyone with long eyes can see that these elders gathered in Juyi Hall are trying to elect a new patriarch, and they are clearly trying to force the palace against the madam!

Xie Yun had expected this scene since she received the news in the morning, but she didn't expect Ji Ziyin and the others to come so quickly.

And give Jinan no time to come back at all.

Her heart was beating very fast, and she immediately instructed the man, "Go to the manor to find Nan Tianyi, and tell me I'll let him come over."

The servant bowed his head: "Yes."

Xie Yun can only rely on the power of her brother-in-law Nan Tianyi for the time being, and she can't think of a second person to rely on.

She straightened the folds on the collar, her face sinking like water, and then she instructed another servant: "Let's go, let's go to Juyitang!"

Xie Yun made mental preparations along the way and planned to fight these people to the end, so she had to buy time for Ji Nan to come back.

Who knew that as soon as she entered the Juyi Hall, she saw the old lady Xie sitting in a high position, Xie Yun's face changed slightly, showing a stunned expression: "Mom? Why are you here?"

As soon as she finished speaking, she realized the reason why Mrs. Xie was here.

Xie Yun shot straight into the sky and almost vomited blood.

She quickly walked over to get old Mrs Xie up: "What are you doing here? Go back! This is not where you came from."

The old lady Xie was displeased: "I came to see you, what is your reaction?"

As she said, she brushed away Xie Yun's hand, as if she refused to go.

Xie Yun was about to be mad at her, and she had no choice but to stare at her 70-year-old mother.

The old lady Xie just pretended she couldn't see it, turned her head and smiled and said to Ji Ziyin, "I came here with Ziyin."

Xie Yun doesn't want to talk to her anymore.

But Mrs. Xie was unaware, turned her head to look at her, and reprimanded in a low voice, "I heard that you don't like Ziyin? Lingfeng's whereabouts are unknown now, so you can't keep dragging along like this. I know you have feelings for him. Emotions, but the family is the most important, you can't just rely on emotions!"

Xie Yun knew for a long time that her mother was partial to the Yellow River and only cared about her younger brother's family.

never cared about her and Xie Tingyun.

Their marriage is a tool of marriage for the family.

It's just that she was unlucky and married Ji Lingfeng who had no emotional foundation.

And Xie Tingyun was lucky, and the person he liked happened to be the one that the Xie family wanted to win over, and they walked together happily.

She knew that the big family put their interests first, and she seldom resented Mrs. Xie's decision over the years.

But at this moment, Xie Yun only felt cold all over her body, her lips and teeth were completely cold!

Old lady Xie didn't follow her around because of her identity: "Ling Feng used to value Ziyin the most. Now that Lingfeng is gone, Ziyin should inherit the family position of course. Don't harm the entire Ji family for a little selfishness!"
