

Madam's 2911

Chapter 2911 Sister Nian found Nie's house by following the vine

"You also know what's going on with the Hidden World Family. This huge organization is difficult to find out. You still have to find out their queen... Anyway, I've tried my best. There's only so much information on the Internet, and I only found it after searching the entire Internet. It's not me bragging, but the set I sent you may be more comprehensive than the information in the Hacking League information base."

Nie Qingru is very vigilant and very smart.

She erased information related to her from the entire Internet very early on, which is exactly the same as Qiao Nian's habitual method of erasing her own traces.

Slender Waist Control was able to find a few bits and pieces of information about her this time from interviews found on an academic forum.

Because that interview was not a news interview, it was an exchange interview of a club, so that interview was saved and not cleared.

"If you want me to say that this queen is really perverted! I thought she was selected by those old guys because she was born well. Who knows that she has real skills. She is actually one of the originators of atomic energy research. You say Say, will you change your mind?!"

Now the world's high-tech weapons are all designed with atomic energy, which shows how abnormal Nie Qingru is.

Qiao Nian didn't care about this: "The Nie family you wrote about in the email?"

"Oh, you said that." The thin waist control reacted quickly this time: "The Nie family is a little easier to check than Nie Qingru. But there is not much information on the Internet, so I know that they are a very powerful family with a royal family. Several generations above are of pure aristocratic blood, in short, it is a big family full of celebrities, and it has also become famous in M country and even M state."

"Their family should belong to one of the top families in the hidden world family. Compared with other families of this level, they are not low-key, but they are not too high-profile. Anyway, those things can be found, and the rest It's all the stuff you see on news TV."

Slim waist control is not clearly stated.

Qiao Nian knew it well.

The things that can be seen on the news TV can only be the information that the other party wants people outside to see.

The information is without any reference value.

At least for her now, those information are useless.

"Who in their family is going to have a birthday recently or is there any big news?" Qiao Nian looked at the reactor in the laboratory, walked to the water dispenser to get himself a glass of water, and said seemingly casually.

"Big movement?" Slender Waist Control was stunned: "I haven't heard of any big movement from them. Even if there is any movement in a family of this level, it will be done quietly. How can it be put on the bright side."

"..." Qiao Nian lowered her eyelashes, and the crow-black eyelashes cast a shadow under the light, as if she was thinking about something.

Slender waist control thought about it again and still couldn't remember it, so he said to her: "Boss, I'll check again and tell you if I have any news."

"Okay." Qiao Nian hung up his phone.

Only now did she have time to drink the water she picked up. She just lowered her head and took a sip when she was reading the email with her mobile phone in one hand.

Nie Qingru should not be very old when she was interviewed by the forum, she looked very normal and even modest.

What happened afterwards that caused her temperament to change drastically? Can even use his own daughter to pave the way for power?

In addition, the painting that Leonard wanted was destined to be given to someone close to Nie Qingru. Is this person from the Nie family? What is the relationship with Nie Qingru?

Chapter 2912 Sister Nian wants to send a birthday present

Qiao Nian is ignorant of these issues now, and can only slowly find out the truth of the year to figure out the secrets hidden behind these issues.

She poured herself another glass of water, and then received a message from Slender Waist Control.

Slim Waist Control didn't use Hongmeng's software to send it this time, but chose to send a text message: [Boss, I found what you want. Someone in the Nie family is having a birthday! ]

Qiao Nian's eyes darkened, and he edited the message with both hands and sent it: "Send me that person's information."

Immediately, Slender Waist Control sent an email.

Qiao Nian clicked on the email he sent, and unexpectedly found that this person's information was almost 'clean' like Nie Qingru.

Apart from a simple biography and name, there is almost no useful information on it.

Definitely Nie Qingru's handwriting!

Small waist control text messages came one after another.

[This Nie Qixing doesn't look like a member of the direct line of the Nie family. He usually keeps a low profile, and his growth trajectory is also a step-by-step study at a prestigious school. His grades are very good, and he looks like a top student. I am a postdoctoral fellow majoring in atomic energy. You should have your own laboratory, and you will take an academic path in the future. ]

Qiao Nian's eyelashes drooped slightly to cover his pupils, coincidentally, it was atomic energy again.

Slender waist control: [Most of the direct descendants of the Nie family are politicians and celebrities of country m, and there are very few people like him who follow the academic path. I see, the person you are looking for should not be him. ]

Qiao Nian pressed the phone and sent him a voice message, concise and concise: "Where is he hosting the birthday party?"

"Eh?" The slender waist control was obviously asked: "I'll check again."

He quickly read back the message to Qiao, this time sending an address marked with a red dot.

Qiao Nian copied the name of the hotel and put it into the search software, thousands of results popped up soon.

Kevlin Hotel.

M One of the many five-star hotels in the country.

The hotel that Slim Waist Control sent seems inconspicuous, and there seems to be no big problem.

But those who are a little more careful will notice the tricks inside!

Although this hotel is not considered the top hotel in country m, the banquet hall on the top floor is a place that even money cannot afford.

Because this is where the high society coming-of-age ceremony is held every year.

The specifications of this reception are extremely high.

Almost the second-generation adults who gathered in the world's top circle, it is said that Ye Lan also attended this coming-of-age ceremony dance back then.

The address sent to her by Slim Waist Control was clearly marked, Nie Qixing's birthday was held on the 33rd floor of the Cavelin Hotel.

This 33rd floor happens to be the top floor of the Keveling Hotel!

How can a 'side branch' who is not valued by the Nie family have the qualifications to book the entire top-floor banquet hall for his birthday.

And this birthday is not a full year, it's just an ordinary little birthday.

Qiao Nian called Feng Yu: "Hello, Old Feng."

"Why did you remember to call me?"

Feng Yu had just returned home from the research institute, and was quite happy to receive her call: "It's about time, what can I do for you?"

Joe can't go around in circles: "Give me a gift."

"Huh?" Feng Yu didn't know, and asked, "Who are you going to give a gift to?"

Who does this belong to her?

Qiao Nian brushed the glass with his fingertips, still thinking about whether there might be some blood relationship between them.

But immediately the corners of his mouth curled up, and he smiled coldly: "A...a stranger who might be a relative."

"?" Feng Yu could be said to be confused, but he didn't ask too much: "Okay, tell me the address, and I'll send it to you."

Chapter 2913 This person should not be an important person in the Nie family

"In country m." Qiao read.

Feng Yu watched the servant bring him slippers, waved his hand to let the Filipino servant go down first, with surprised eyes, said: "So far?"

Qiao Nian hummed casually, and said, "In my name, this item might not be delivered to him, so I would be stopped. So I want to send it in your friend's name, so I wish him... birthday in advance happiness."

When Qiao Nian said to give things away, he acted swiftly and resolutely.

On the second day, I found Feng Yu and handed him a black leather notebook, and asked him to pack it and send it to the person in country m.

"Nie Qixing?" When Feng Yu first saw the name, he was stunned for a moment, raised his eyebrows, and looked up at her: "A member of the Nie family? Doesn't it have something to do with the empress?"

The fact that the queen came from the Nie family, a hermit family, has been heard by people at his level.

The queen has controlled the entire hidden family these years, and people like Leonard are driven by her. Of course, the status of the Nie family has risen accordingly. These years, whether in the hermit family or outside, they have enjoyed a lot of glory and are very hated.

He has heard many names of the Nie family.

But it was the first time Feng Yu saw the name Nie Qixing.

"This isn't the direct line of the Nie family, right?" He came to the same conclusion as Slim Waist Control.

Qiao Nian pulled off his peaked cap, his voice was hoarse, and he said casually, "Just help me figure out a way to get this into his hands."

Feng Yu glanced at her quickly again.

The girl is as usual as always, and she can't tell whether she is happy or angry without a straight face.

Feng Yu had nothing to do with her, so he had to put away the things: "I will send the things over through my relationship."

Qiao Nian fixed his dark eyes on him, and said for a moment, "Thank you."

Feng Yu smiled, but didn't speak.

He is helping Qiao Nian sincerely, as long as he can help, he doesn't expect anything in return. The biggest reward he wanted, Qiao Nian had already given him.

Before Qiao Nian left, he thought of one thing: "That's right. Ji Ziyin's application for WLA membership has come down. Gu Hengbo and the others will celebrate her at the Four Seasons Hotel today, and there is a lot of commotion."

Since Gu Hengbo, Liao Quan and others left the First Research Institute, the top circle in Independent Continent has gradually been marginalized.

Their respective family powers were originally inconspicuous, and they entered the research institute due to their personal ability, so that even their families were regarded with high regard.

Later, they left the First Research Institute one after another, which had a great influence on them.

At least for a long time, Qiao Nian didn't hear from Gu Hengbo again: "Oh? Is she still in the mood to hold a banquet?"

Feng Yu glanced at her, the old fox-like old **** smiled and said: "For joy?"

"Tsk!" Qiao Nian snorted.

Feng Yu picked up the water glass: "It seems that this time it is not a banquet organized by her initiative, but a surprise organized by Gu Hengbo and his group in order to please her."

"Anyway, there's a lot of momentum, so she probably will do it like this." Ji Ziyin has always cared about these false names, so she would stop the celebration banquet for no reason.

Qiao Nian wasn't interested in these things, she raised her eyelids, her dark eyes were flamboyant: "It's none of my business."

Feng Yu smiled, raised his hand: "Okay, you go to work first."

Qiao Nian never thought that Ji Ziyin's celebration banquet had anything to do with her.

Until the afternoon when she finished her work and left the research institute, she was blocked by Gu's car.

Chapter 2914 I thought you healed your scars and forgot the pain, and forgot who you are

It was only then that she realized that some people just linger, and Sesame Mung Bean wanted to have something to do with her in everything big and small.

The driver of the Gu family seemed polite, and said politely: "Miss, our master asked me to send you an invitation. I hope you can come to the celebration banquet tonight on time."

He handed the red invitation card in front of the girl, looking very respectful, but he couldn't hide the contempt in the corners of his eyes and brows.

Qiao Nian saw that he was obstinately blocking her, and glanced at the car, without reaching out: "Get out of the way."

The driver of the Gu family raised his head and reminded her with a half-smile: "You haven't accepted the invitation yet."

This posture seems to be that Qiao Nian will not be able to leave today if he does not accept the invitation!

Most likely, the driver didn't know what level of boss he was standing in front of him, so Qiao Nian was young and thought he was an ordinary person, with a very casual attitude: "You just take it! This is not something everyone can do. If you go to the banquet, you can get to know a few more people."

He thought that Joe couldn't read the doorway inside.

smiled lightly.

Proud and restrained.

"...This is a good thing!" It means 'you don't want to miss it'.

Seeing that he refused to let him go, Qiao Nian simply refused to leave. Looking straight at him, he raised his eyebrows: "Where's Gu Hengbo?"

The driver of Gu's family froze for a moment, thinking he had heard wrong: "Who?"

"Let Gu Hengbo come down and talk." Qiao Nian frowned, speaking impatiently.

The driver of the Gu family was dumbfounded, and stood there for a long time without reacting.

Fortunately, their car was parked on the side of the road, and the driver just stopped Qiao Nian on the side of the road. They themselves are not far from the car, and the people in the car can hear their conversations.

The people in the car heard the commotion outside, straightened the wrinkles on their clothes, and got out of the car sullenly.

Qiao Nian saw that his hair had turned gray from the temples, and there were countless white hairs in the black hair. He looked older than ten years.

Gu Hengbo is still the straight improved Tang suit he wore in the research institute before, with a straight back, and he looks like a very personable person.

"Qiao Nian." He greeted the girl as soon as he got out of the car, and immediately said as if nothing happened: "I rarely invite others."

After he got out of the car, the driver stepped aside consciously, looking at the girl with contempt in his eyes, as if she was so ignorant.

Qiao Nian didn't expect him to say this to himself as soon as they met, so he put his hands in his pockets and asked casually, "Oh, and then?"

Seeing her sloppy attitude, Gu Hengbo felt displeased, and frowned slightly on his face, but suppressed his discomfort and said: "This time I invite you to Ziyin's celebration banquet, I hope you will betray me!" face."

"..." Qiao Nian looked at him speechlessly, squinting his eyes and looking up and down, but he couldn't see where Gu Hengbo's self-confidence came from, thinking that he would have this face.

Gu Hengbo thought she had acquiesced, and continued: "You and Ziyin are also related by blood. She can enter WAL this time, and we all want to celebrate her. You can come together, just in time for you to have a meal, Relax the relationship."

"The Gu family hasn't collapsed yet?" Qiao Nian ignored what he said, raised her eyes slightly, and asked him a question.

Who knew that Gu Hengbo's complexion changed drastically, and he shot over with sharp eyes: "Qiao Nian, what do you mean!"

The girl didn't take him seriously, stepped on the road he just blocked, and walked in front of him: "I thought you healed your scar and forgot the pain, and you forgot who you are."

Chapter 2915 The banquet is about to start, let's go

Gu Hengbo's cheek muscles twitched rapidly, and his temples throbbed, nothing compared to the palpitations caused by the violent heartbeat when he was stared at by a girl's wolf-like eyes.

He grabbed the palm of his hand, his face was cold, his eyes were cold, and he threatened in a low voice: "There is a hidden family behind Ziyin, you can't win her. I have put the ladder in front of you. If you are smart, follow the ladder." down. Otherwise..."

Qiao Nian heard more than once that there was a 'hidden family' behind Ji Ziyin's ears, and her ears were almost callused.

She picked out her ears, looked at Gu Hengbo again, with a calm expression: "Then you let Ji Ziyin quickly bring the hidden family to deal with me."

"..." Gu Hengbo was blocked by her words instead.

If he could let Ji Ziyin teach Qiao Nian a lesson, why wait until now.

After all, both the Gu family and himself were ruined by the girl in front of him.

If he could take revenge, he would have taken revenge long ago!

It's just that every time he mentioned Qiao Nian to Ji Ziyin, Ji Ziyin would find excuses to avoid it, or else act extremely unhappy.

He couldn't help but mention it again.

Gu Hengbo suppressed the hatred surging in his chest, pursed his lips, and said simply, "Do you have a painting in your hand?"

"Huh?" Qiao Nian originally thought that he just didn't know something, so he came to look for him presumptuously.

Who knew that Gu Hengbo still knew about painting.

"How much do you want?"

But it seems that Gu Hengbo knows very little information, and it is even possible that Ji Ziyin did not tell him.

"I want this painting, you sell it to me. Money is not a problem, as long as you propose an amount, I will give it to you as appropriate."

"..."

Qiao Nian took a deep look at him, she was sure that he probably knew very little, but she didn't know where she heard that Ji Ziyin wanted the painting in her hand, so she came here to take the painting and go to Ji Ziyin to 'offer a treasure'.

She didn't intentionally make things difficult for Gu Hengbo, she just looked away boredly, and said in a low voice, "She wants to paint, you let her come and get it from me."

As he spoke, Qiao Nian was about to leave.

Gu Hengbo still wanted to stop her: "As I said, money is not a problem! If you sell the painting to me, you can raise as much as you want."

Qiao Nian glanced at him, his eyes were as sharp as a knife, his hands were still in his pockets, but the aura around him became fierce: "Get out of the way."

"I won't say it a third time."

"You should still remember the impact on the Gu family last time. Do you think the Gu family can do it again?"

Gu Hengbo's outstretched hand subconsciously froze in mid-air, and his expression also became stiff.

He watched the girl leave without looking back, and he didn't dare to chase after her.

The driver of the Gu family watched the person leave, and was more anxious than him: "Master, why did you let her go? She hasn't received the invitation yet. Do you want me to call her back?"

Gu Hengbo came back to his senses at this moment, looking sullenly at the back of the girl going away, the face price muscle tremor quickly returned to calm.

With a gloomy face, he slowly put down his hands: "Let's go, go back."

The driver followed up in surprise: "Master, you didn't invite her to go with you?"

"...The banquet is about to start, and it will be too late if you don't go back." Gu Hengbo didn't answer directly, but his throat seemed to be stuffed with cotton, and he felt uncomfortable no matter what.

The driver saw that his face was not very good-looking, so he didn't say any more. He only glanced in the direction the girl was leaving from a distance, then turned around and opened the door to get in the car.

Chapter 2916 is just right, and the people from the 7:00 WAL have also arrived

In the evening, the Four Seasons Hotel is brightly lit.

When Gu Hengbo arrived at the place, Ji Xiao, Ji Hongyuan and others had already arrived and were greeting guests at the door.

Liao Quan saw that he was late, so he rushed out to greet him and asked, "Mr. Gu, why are you here now? Didn't we make an appointment at six o'clock?"

It's half past six now.

Gu Hengbo was half an hour late.

Gu Hengbo raised his hand to look at his watch, with a straight face, he opened his mouth and said, "Is Ziyin here?"

"Her." Liao Quan was distracted: "She hasn't arrived yet, and she probably won't come until seven o'clock. You know that she is now in the Privy Council. She is usually busy and has a lot of things to deal with..."

Seeing that Gu Hengbo's brows were getting tighter and tighter, he hurriedly said: "...But she told me that she will come here on time at seven o'clock."

Gu Hengbo then let go of his frown, and walked inside: "Exactly! At seven o'clock, the other WAL members have also arrived."

This time, Gu Hengbo spent all his money to organize this celebration banquet for Ji Ziyin.

He threw in all the connections he had made over the years.

Many forces in Independence Continent still sold his face, and even the slightly dignified forces sent people over.

People from Chamber of Commerce Alliance, Hacker Alliance, etc. have come.

Even the top families such as the Lu family and the Xie family also came to support them.

Gu Hengbo also spent money to invite many academic masters to come over, and even sent invitation letters to many colleagues who used to be the first research institute with shame.

When he walked to the door and met Ji Xiao, he raised his eyebrows and asked him, "Has anyone from the First Research Institute come?"

Ji Xiao and Ji Hongyuan have been in charge of greeting guests at the door.

Compared to Ji Hongyuan.

Ji Xiao is smoother and better at interpersonal relationships.

He and Gu Hengbo have always had a good relationship. Hearing this, he shook his head: "It's still early, maybe Dean Feng and the others will come later."

For a high-level banquet like this, more important guests will pay attention to the order of entry.

For example, if someone with an identity like Feng Yu wanted to come, she would definitely not arrive half an hour before the banquet started.

This is degrading.

Gu Hengbo knew in his heart that even if Feng Yu was to come, it would be impossible for him to arrive so early, but he vaguely understood in his heart that the probability of Feng Yu coming was almost zero.

"If he comes, let me know, and I will come out to receive him." Gu Hengbo told him.

"Well, don't worry." Ji Xiao agreed very happily, but a trace of contempt flashed in his eyes very quickly, as if he was mocking Gu Hengbo for still treating himself as a member of the First Research Institute, or that proud laboratory Same as the person in charge.

As time approaches.

Six forty.

The people Gu Hengbo invited began to arrive one after another.

Luxury cars gathered outside the Four Seasons Hotel, and the parking attendants were all dumbfounded and dazzled by this scene.

People from the Hacker Union came first, and then the Chamber of Commerce sent people over... Then several luxury cars parked in front of the hotel...

Gu Hengbo's invited academic experts from all over the world also arrived, and he, Liao Quan and others were in charge of receiving these people.

With the presence of these masters in the academic world, the celebration banquet led by Gu Hengbo was filled to the brim, and some families and forces that were still on the sidelines also sent people over.

All of a sudden, the hall where the banquet was held was crowded with people, and it was extremely lively.

Gu Hengbo exchanged simple greetings with a master in physics, looked at the time on his watch, and called Liao Quan to take care of him.

He himself put down his cocktail glass and left the banquet hall.

Chapter 2917 Master Wang is back!

The time is approaching six fifty.

There are still ten minutes before the banquet starts at seven o'clock.

He went outside to find Ji Xiao, tugged at the tie around his neckline, frowned rarely and said, "Isn't Ziyin here yet?"

Ji Xiao's answer was similar to Liao Quan's: "I called her just now, she is on her way and will arrive in a few minutes."

"En." Gu Hengbo's cheekbones were tense, his eyes were a little annoyed, but now he could only live by watching Ji Ziyin's face, and had no choice but to bear it.

He remembered something, and asked Ji Xiao: "Where are the members of WAL? Why hasn't any of them come over yet?"

Follow the rules of WAL.

Whenever WAL has new members, their nearby members will come forward to congratulate the new members.

Among the members of WAL that Gu Hengbo knew were Shi Fu and Zhou Zhou.

These two people should come over anyway.

Ji Xiao didn't understand what he was anxious about, looked at his watch, and said disapprovingly: "Isn't there still ten minutes left? I guess they are all on the way."

At the same time, the plane landed at the Independent Island Airport from an altitude of 90,000 miles.

Moxi drove a black car and waited for the man to get off the plane. When he saw the man coming out, he quickly opened the co-pilot's door and said respectfully, "My Lord."

Ye Wangchuan didn't bring any luggage, so he put on his seat belt when he got in the car, rubbed his temples, and said with a tired expression, "You didn't say anything, did you?"

Moxi detoured to the driver's seat and got into the car. Hearing this, he pushed his golden eye sockets and smiled, "I'm not Mo Dong."

Mo Dong is Yaomen's simple-minded person with well-developed limbs, isn't he? The force value may not be as good as Mo Dong, but in terms of brains, ten Mo Dongs are not as good as him.

Ye Wangchuan glanced at him, stretched his back and leaned on the back of the chair, took out his mobile phone and turned it on, while waiting for Moxi to drive.

Moxi drove the car to the residence.

The car was extremely stable along the way.

Ye Wangchuan hasn't told Qiao Nian about his return yet, thinking of the possible surprises later, his mood involuntarily improves.

Independence Island is relatively hot in May.

Ye Wangchuan opened the car window, just in time for the cool wind outside to blow away the exhaustion from traveling for many days...

Out of the corner of his eye, he suddenly saw the brightly lit Four Seasons Hotel, and asked Moxi to slow down the car, raised his jaw slightly, and pointed his slender fingers in the direction of the hotel: "What's going on over there?"

Moxi stepped on the brake, the speed of the black car was extremely slow, and he also saw a lot of license plates with prominent faces in Independent State parked in front of the hotel.

He frowned: "Hiss, I haven't heard of any important events in Independence Island today."

Ye Wangchuan saw several license plate numbers of Ji's family, put his arm on the car window, and said indifferently: "Check it out."

Moxie glanced at him, and stopped the car to do business without saying a word.

Two minutes later, he opened the door and got back into the car, reporting to the man in the car: "My Lord, I found out. Independence Island is indeed nothing serious. This is a celebration banquet organized by Gu Hengbo and his gang to celebrate Ji Zi. Into WAL, they invited a lot of people."

Ye Wangchuan, when he got out of the car to check on the phone, he could see that there were a lot of people passing through the vehicles, but few people who were really dignified in Independent Continent showed their faces.

When he heard the news from Mo Xicha, he turned his mobile phone, turned his head, his noble face was shrouded in light, and the corners of his mouth were slightly raised with a trace of mockery: "When did WAL become reduced to picking up trash? "

Chapter 2918 No one answered the phone call

"Pfft." Moxi couldn't help laughing out loud.

Ye Wangchuan glanced at him: "Is it funny?"

He hurriedly looked up at the sky again, with an expression that had nothing to do with him.

Ye Wangchuan ignored him and made a phone call instead.

Six fifty.

Ji Ziyin, the protagonist of today's celebration banquet, finally came.

She is wearing a one-shoulder long skirt today. The goose yellow skirt perfectly outlines her superior neckline. The most important thing is that the floor-sweeping skirt can quietly cover her lameness when walking.

Ji Xiao was still afraid that she would not be able to stand firmly when she got off the car, so he took the initiative to help her: "You are finally here, your tutor has come to ask you several times."

Ji Ziyin hated the feeling of being supported by others, so she shook off his hand after a little footing, and raised her eyebrows calmly: "What did he ask me for?"

"He invited Feng Yu, but Feng Yu didn't come. I guess he wanted to tell you about this!" Ji Xiao made no secret of his contempt for Gu Hengbo's pretentiousness in front of her.

Ji Ziyin followed him into the hotel, and when he heard that Feng Yu hadn't come, he didn't feel any disturbance in his heart: "That old man was on Qiao Nian's side! It's normal for him not to come, but when he was coming, I doubted that he was there." other purpose."

Ji Xiao said: "I think so too."

The two walked to the door of the banquet hall in a blink of an eye.

Gu Hengbo, Liao Quan and others were also at the door, so Ji Xiao wisely shut up and didn't mention anything related to Gu Hengbo.

Wait for them to join a few people.

Gu Hengbo walked up to Ji Ziyin first: "Ziyin, why don't you contact the WAL members? Why haven't any of them come over yet?"

Ji Ziyin didn't intend to have this celebration banquet at first, but Gu Hengbo put in all his effort to hold a celebration banquet for her, which still satisfied part of her vanity.

At this moment, she heard that the members of WAL hadn't arrived yet, so she immediately found the mobile phone from her handbag and looked at the upper right corner: "It's only 8 minutes? What's the situation? No one has come yet?"

Of course Gu Hengbo also checked the time, nodded immediately, with a serious expression: "Well, no one came, so I was anxious to ask you what's going on."

He looked at Ji Ziyin in surprise: "You don't know either?!"

Ji Ziyin stood there as if someone had poured a basin of cold water on it, unable to answer for a long while. she knows? what does she know She's only been here for less than two minutes!

Gu Hengbo was still urging her: "Why don't you call them and ask."

This time it was Ji Ziyin's celebration banquet, and she was congratulated on becoming a member of WAL. Hundreds of guests were waiting to open champagne to congratulate her.

If none of the WAL members come, she will be reduced to a joke today.

Ji Ziyin was so angry that Gu Hengbo couldn't handle even such a small matter, so he had to contact WAL members in a hurry.

Six fifty-seven.

Seeing that there are still three minutes before the banquet starts at seven o'clock.

Gu Hengbo, Ji Xiao and others waited anxiously at the door for Ji Ziyin to call, but no matter how many calls Ji Ziyin made, no one picked up.

"Sorry, the person you dialed is busy."

"Sorry, the person you dialed has switched off."

"sorry..."

Ji Ziyin heard seven or eight mechanical female voices in a row, and she couldn't hold back her face. Even the delicate makeup couldn't hide the anxiety and boredom on her face at the moment.

She walked back and said with a wooden face, "No one answered."

Gu Hengbo, Ji Xiao and others were all dumbfounded.

Chapter 2919 Sister Nian: What's the situation?

Gu Hengbo reacted faster: "How come? You called them all? No one answered?"

Ji Ziyin seemed to have been slapped on the face, her face was earthy and ugly: "Well, either no one answered or the phone was turned off."

She wondered if someone was messing with her on purpose.

Gu Hengbo saw that there was nothing she could do, and his brain was dizzy. Today, he invited these people here in his own name! If it's screwed up...

No, can't mess it up!

He took a deep breath, took out his cell phone, found Shi Fu's phone number, and dialed it nervously.

Shi Fu is one of the members of WAL, he must know something!

"Du..." Gu Hengbo's heart raised his throat.

Fortunately, after a few beeps, the other end was connected.

Gu Hengbo couldn't wait to stand up, and quickly walked aside to make a phone call: "What's the matter with you? Why didn't you come to the celebration banquet? Aren't you from WAL? According to the rules..."

didn't wait for him to finish speaking.

Shi Fu's rigid voice came from the other side of the phone as usual: "According to the rules, we have to go there. But..."

Gu Hengbo got angry in a hurry: "But what?"

Shi Fu said indifferently: "But we have to take over for a more important person, so we won't go there."

Gu Hengbo is still in a state of obsession.

Shi Fu seemed to be annoyed on purpose: "Don't you know? The investor behind WAL is here. We all received a message that we are going to have a meal, and the place is at the club not far from you. There will probably be no one there tonight." I'll go to your side."

Gu Hengbo was in a daze as if he had been struck by a bolt from the blue.

He hung up the phone, and returned to the entrance of the banquet hall like a ghost, facing the faces of Ji Xiao and others looking at him and asking.

Gu Hengbo was silent for a long time before choking out a sentence: "No one is here tonight."

Qiao Nian received a call from Ye Wangchuan at 6:50, asking her to have dinner at Shanhai Pavilion.

She went out at seven o'clock, and arrived at the place Ye Wangchuan sent her in about 20 minutes.

Before entering the door, she also received a strange text message: [It's you again? Qiao Nian, is it interesting for you to do this? ]

Qiao Nian looked at the text message, and dragged it into the blacklist, and didn't bother to check who sent her the message.

Judging from this exasperated tone.

Only those few people come and go.

Ji Ziyin or Leonard, Nie Qingru and others.

She didn't know who sent her the text message this time, but she didn't want to talk to these people either.

After she put the number into the blacklist, she put the phone back in her pocket and entered the club with one hand in it.

The box that Ye Wangchuan gave her was in the box with the word 'mountain' in Shanhai Pavilion, and the waiter dutifully opened the door for her.

"Miss Qiao, here we are."

She looked up, only to find that besides people she hadn't seen for a long time, there were many familiar faces in the box, including Shi Fu and Zhou Zhou, and others she didn't know.

When Shi Fu and Zhou Zhou saw her, they were also taken aback.

Zhou Zhou reacted the fastest, and quickly stood up and waved to her: "S... Qiao Nian, come, come, sit here with me."

There were still seven or eight people in the box staring at her in unison, with astonishment + surprise on their faces, as if wondering if she would open the door and come in.

Qiao Nian withdrew her gaze, raised her hand and pressed down the brim of her hat to cover her eyes, walked coolly to Zhou Zhou, pulled out the chair and sat down.

After she sat down, she took out her mobile phone from under the table with a blank face, found someone's WeChat and sent a message.

[Q: What's the situation? ]
