

Madam's 3021

Chapter 3021 Sister Nian just wants to force her

It's just that what happened to Nie Qixing this time was beyond their imagination. If they want to win people, they must disrupt their plans and make certain concessions!

Shadow couldn't bear Nie Qixing's suffering, and raised his eyes: "Empress, Young Master Nie..."

"I didn't expect that she would bite me tightly for the sake of a dead person..." Nie Qingru's eyes shone with light, and she raised her hand to stop the shadow from following him: "I'll think about it again."

Qiao Nian's move was to force her to admit Nie Qixing.

Nie Qingru is used to being assertive and domineering, so how could she be willing to be coerced so easily.

She was still thinking about how to get Nie Qixing out of the evidence, and even thought of making a deal with Qiao Nian to hand over all the evidence.

But Nie Qingru never thought of it.

While she was thinking about this in M state, Qiao Nian had already blocked her way out.

The fermentation on the       ins intensifies.

The enormous pressure on the police.

Although someone above greeted them and asked them to handle the matter as low-key as possible, they couldn't keep the reporters around every day.

Every time they go in and out, they will be swarmed by reporters and cameras, making it extremely difficult for them to go to and from get off work.

In this case, Nie Qingru also tried to reduce the heat on ins.

It's just that this time it didn't go as smoothly as she did before.

No matter how she communicates with ins, the trending searches that were suppressed by technology in the previous second will always return to the top in the next second.

The topic of showing off at the top, like the girl's arrogant face, is like a slap in the face to Nie Qingru.

She is well aware of Qiao Nian's position in the hacker world.

She also thought about finding someone to confront Qiao Nian.

But when the people she found heard about Qiao Nian and Hongmeng, they always shook their heads and told her that the chance of success was not high.

Nie Qingru was forced into a dead end by Qiao Nian in just one day, blocking most of the roads, leaving only the road she was least willing to take.

The most unacceptable thing for Nie Qingru was that when she was still trying to solve the problem, the police in Country M couldn't bear the pressure and temporarily arrested Nie Qixing.

They said it was a routine inquiry.

But a promising young scientist has entered the police station because of this kind of thing, and basically has black spots on his back that cannot be washed clean.

The most unacceptable thing for Nie Qingru is that the successors she has trained for more than 30 years have stains on them.

Qiao Nian's hand directly pinched her life.

Nie Qingru was so angry that she had to start seriously thinking about the matter that Shadow mentioned to her...

The next day, Intercontinental Hotel.

Qiao Nian completed the formalities, put on her peaked cap and went up to the door to meet Ji Lin and the others.

Ji Lin originally wanted to help her with her luggage, but when she saw the girl's hands were empty, she remembered that she didn't bring anything with her when she came.

Ji Lin had no choice but to open the car door for her, and politely said: "Miss Qiao, you can sit in the front. It is convenient to open the windows in front, and it is not easy to get motion sickness."

Who knew that there was a hand in front of him at this time, Ye Wangchuan narrowed his eyes lazily and stood between him and said, "She sits with me."

Ji Lin was stunned for a moment, then nodded confusedly: "Oh oh oh, good master."

Qiao Nian had already walked over and saw the two of them talking there, with sleepiness still on their faces and dry eyes: "What are you talking about?"

Emotions She didn't hear what Ji Lin said at all just now.

Ji Lin hasn't spoken yet.

Ye Wangchuan took it domineeringly: "It's nothing."

Ji Lin: "... " Master Wang, you can actually have it.

Chapter 3022 Sister Nian is going to go back first

Ye Wangchuan took the shoulder bag for Qiao Nian and put it in the car, then asked her, "Are you sure you don't want to wait for Nie Qixing's results?"

Qiao Nian got up early in the morning, her eyes were bloodshot, and there was a mass of blue-purple marks under her eyelids. Hearing this, she lowered the brim of her hat and sat in the car: "He won't get results for a while. Nothing to do."

"Just ask Guan Yan to watch for me." She had already gotten into the car, and said in a flat tone.

Qiao Nian was wearing a white T-shirt today, with the hem tucked into the jeans. It looked simple and refreshing, and she didn't look like she beat Nie Qixing's two men to death in the alley two days ago.

Ye Wangchuan followed closely into the car, took out his mobile phone and made a call: "Then I'll talk to the old man at home."

Qiao Nian tilted his head to support his face, looked at him sleepily, and frowned: "Huh? Wait until we go back? I haven't gone back yet."

"Aren't you sure you want to go back?" Ye Wangchuan smiled, and had already called Mr. Ye: "I told him in advance so that he can come to pick up the plane."

Qiao Nian opened her mouth. In fact, she really wanted to say that there is no need to be so troublesome. Besides, she is a junior, so there is no such thing as a junior asking an elder to come and pick her up.

But he's already on the phone.

Qiao Nian had no choice but to shut up.

Beijing City.

The Ye family's old house was extremely festive.

Ye Lan rushed home quickly, and said as soon as he entered the door: "Dad, you said that you want to come back? When? Where did they go?"

Ye Qichen was rarely at home.

He is sitting on the brown leather sofa at the moment, his small arms and legs are not as high as the sofa, and he is playing with a tablet in his hand.

Seeing Ye Lan rushing in, Ye Qichen only slightly raised his eyelids, and called out: "Grandma."

Ye Lan saw that he was dressed very handsomely today, and wearing a small ironed suit gave him a sense of being handsome and handsome.

She walked over to Ye Qichen and asked, "Where is the old man? Isn't he at home?"

Ye Qichen wears handsome milk, his personality is not of the well-behaved type, he didn't raise his head when he heard the words, and said very little: "In the study."

Ye Lan was originally a reporter looking for the old man. Out of the corner of his eye, he caught a glimpse of the red and green lines on his ipad, and couldn't help being tempted to approach him: "What are you playing?"

Ye Qichen didn't answer and didn't hide.

Ye Lan saw it clearly when she got close, and couldn't help being surprised: "Uh, Chenchen, are you playing stocks?"

"... just for fun." Ye Qichen raised his eyelids, his dark eyes were clear and transparent, and his eyebrows and eyes looked at some angles, and there was a sense of Qiao Nian's vision.

Ye Lan covered her mouth, unable to react for a long time: "Play, play?"

Ye Qichen casually put the tablet beside him, his small face looked much more cheerful than before, at least not as bad-tempered as before.

He jumped off the sofa, stood firmly in front of Ye Lan, raised his head and stared at her with big grape-like eyes: "Aren't you looking for grandpa?"

yes!

How could she forget about this!

Ye Lan slapped his head and was about to go to the study: "I'll go find your grandfather first."

Ye Qichen put his hands in his pockets, and stood there cool and cute, without blinking his eyelids: "Yeah."

"You play here obediently, and I'll come to find you when I go." Ye Lan rubbed his hair, stood up, and then hurriedly walked towards Mr. Ye's study.

She is going to ask if Nian Nian is coming back.

...

Ye Qichen waited for her to leave, covered his eyes, pursed his lips, and went back to pick up his tablet again.

Chapter 3023 Her one-year leave note is about to expire, right?

He poked the screen with his chubby hand and exited the stock market that Ye Lan had seen before, and then logged into the official website of the black net, and found the pictures displayed there.

It was a miniature pistol, about the size of a palm, very convenient to carry around, and small and practical.

The black gun body is polished very black and bright, and there are model and function introductions beside it, and various accurate data are displayed.

Undoubtedly this is a very useful weapon.

At least one of the best pistols available today, very suitable for women.

Ye Qichen calculated how much this pistol would cost in terms of B coins.

He logged into the background of his stock market account again, and sold all the most profitable stocks for cash without hesitation.

Then he exchanged the part he earned into B coins, and went back to the official website of the black market to order the pistol.

No one on the black market will check your identity, and of course no one would think that it would be a child who paid a big price for this weapon.

Ye Qichen left a message to the seller asking him to deliver the goods within half a day, and also left the address of Ye Wangchuan's apartment in Beijing.

He finished all this calmly, and then sat back on the sofa.

Staring at WeChat with big eyes and hesitating for a long time, I found the white profile picture on the top, and sat there nervously editing messages...

Qiao Nian's plane landed at Beijing Airport more than ten hours later.

When they get off the plane.

It is already night in Beijing, but fortunately, the weather in June is breezy and warm, and it will not be cold even at night.

"Miss Qiao!" Gu San didn't see Qiao Nian for a long time, and waved at the girl as soon as she came out of the gate. With that enthusiastic look, he completely forgot about Ye Wangchuan who was following behind.

Qin Si also came. Hearing this, he threw away his phone and said excitedly, "Where? Sister Qiao came out? Where are you?"

"Over there." Gu San pointed him to a place.

Qin Si immediately saw the men and women coming out of the gate with the flow of people, handsome men and beautiful women, walking together is the effect of 1+1>2.

No one was peeping at the two of them along the way.

However, both Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan seemed to be immune to this kind of sight long ago, and the two walked out one after the other, completely ignoring the attention around them.

"My Lord!" Qin Si stepped forward in a hurry, and patted the man on the shoulder: "You guys are back! I want to go over there to find you."

Except Qin Si.

Bo Jingxing is also here this time.

Qiao Nian hasn't seen him for a long time.

He was still as gentle and elegant as before, much calmer than Qin Si, walked up to the two of them and smiled, "Miss Qiao."

He greeted Qiao Nian first, then smiled and stretched out his fist to bump the man's shoulder: "Wang Ye, you're back. How long are you going to stay in Beijing this time?"

Ye Wangchuan grew up with them, they both came out of the compound, they are very familiar with each other, so they walked forward: "I'm not sure yet."

Bo Jingxing carried the suitcase for him, and followed while pulling the suitcase: "Not sure? You don't plan to stay longer this time when you come back?"

Ye Wangchuan narrowed his eyes, opened the car door with one hand, and did not answer directly: "There are still some things, let's see when the time comes."

M Country and Independent Continent related to Nie Qingru and Qiao Nian's mother, so he didn't want to tell others.

Bao Jingxing turned his head in surprise, looked at Qiao Nian who was walking behind, and chased after him: "September is coming soon, and Ms. Qiao's leave of absence from Tsinghua University is about to expire. She has almost been out of school for a year, Mr. Huang and Master Cheng and the others Still thinking about it, if you don't plan to come back, what on earth are you planning on doing?"

Chapter 3024 Let me call a few more people to have fun

Qiao Nian was walking behind and was looking at the WeChat message from Chenchen on his mobile phone.

【Sister, I prepared a birthday present for you, remember to sign for it~(*?▽?**)】

Qiao Nian lowered her eyes halfway, thinking about what mysterious gift the little guy had prepared for her, when she heard Bao Jingxing and Ye Wangchuan mention her request for leave.

"I'll talk to the principal tomorrow about that." Qiao Nian interjected.

Bo Jingxing and Ye Wangchuan both stopped and looked back at her.

Ye Wangchuan casually raised the corners of his mouth, and took the lead in saying, "Are you going to school tomorrow?"

Qiao Nian passed them and walked to the car first: "Well, go and see them."

She paused: "A few more days off."

Bo Jingxing showed surprise on his face: "You still want to ask for leave? Mr. Huang won't agree."

Qiao Nian didn't take it seriously, her brows and eyes were covered with a layer of indifference, her black eyes were clear and bright: "I have no other reason."

Ye Wangchuan knew what was the reason for her help, so he walked behind with tall legs and stretched out his hand to help the girl open the car door, and then said to Bao Jingxing who was frowning slightly: "Okay, don't stand on the side of the road Let's talk, let's go back and talk."

Qin Si is such a good-natured person, he immediately intervened between the three of them to smooth things over: "That's right, why are we talking about this. Sister Qiao just came back, let's talk about what to eat first."

He raised his hand with a smile: "I propose to go to Lanting."

Gu San walked around to the front driver's seat, opened the door before getting into the car, and turned to ask Ye Wangchuan's opinion seriously: "Master Wang, shall we go to Lanting?"

Ye Wangchuan turned his head to look at the girl: "Going? Look at you."

Qiao Nian reached out and pulled down the peaked cap to cover her beautiful eyebrows: "I can do it."

Qin Si made a decision when he heard it first: "Then Lanting! I'll call to confirm the location."

As he spoke, he took out his mobile phone in a hurry, and said to Qiao Nian, "Sister Qiao, you haven't been back for a long time. The big guys miss you. If I call them all, it's rare for you to go back to Beijing." , Ask them to come out to meet the wind, the more people there are, the more lively it will be."

He's talking about the group that they play well in the small group.

Tang Ning and Zhang Yang both mentioned to him today that they wanted to give Qiao Nian a chance, but Qin Si didn't give them an answer before asking the boss for his opinion, and only said it depends on the situation.

It's past nine o'clock now.

He saw that Mr. Ye and Mr. Jiang were not here at this time, so he thought it would be more fun to call Tangning and the others out.

Otherwise, it would be boring for a few of them to play!

"Sister Qiao, is your name?" Qin Si asked enthusiastically.

Qiao Nian saw that he couldn't wait to call someone, put his hand in his pocket, and nodded easily: "It's up to you."

Let him call for sure!

Qin Si walked aside to send a message without saying a word.

Everyone in the small group of Tara in Beijing is still making appointments to sing.

[Who is free today? If you don't want to go out to play, a new bar opened on Chang'an Avenue recently, which is very private, and my friend booked a private room. ]

[Anyway, everyone is free, so let's go play together, he will reserve the venue! ]

The person who saved the game is a friend Zhang Yang has known this year, and he is more likely to come. The key is that this person has a wide range of skills and a good game.

Zhang Yang pulled him into the group, which is equivalent to bringing him into a small circle.

But this person is different from Tangning.

Tang Ning was also someone Zhang Yang brought into the circle, and she had a stronger relationship with Zhang Yang. In addition, Tang Ning had played with Ye Wangchuan and the others a few times, so she had a higher status in the circle.

This person is relatively more marginalized.

Chapter 3025 What a coincidence, he is also a circler

So he saved rounds.

People in the group were not interested, and few people paid attention to him.

Zhang Yang asked out of face: [Which friend are you? ]

The man saw him and quickly replied: [A friend around the city, he stayed here to develop after studying here, he is very nice, do you want to meet Brother Yang? ]

Zhang Yang was going to get water from the refrigerator at home. He unscrewed the bottle cap with one hand and held his mobile phone in the other.

[Rounders? ]

He was still thinking what a coincidence, he came from the same place as Miss Qiao.

He didn't think much of it.

Qin Si suddenly blasted the group.

[Brothers come to Lanting quickly, my sister Qiao is back, come to meet the wind within half an hour! ]

There are a few people behind him.

Among them is Zhang Yang.

Zhang Yang's eyes lit up, he didn't bother to drink water, he quickly put down what he was busy at hand, returned a gesture of receipt in the group, and rushed back to the room to change clothes.

Qin Si's sudden appearance is from Aite again.

The small group suddenly became active.

[Master Wang is back? ]

[Brother Joe is back, Master Wang must be together. ]

[Envy~]

The small group was talking about the good thing about having dinner at Lanting at night, but no one remembered the person who just called everyone out to sing.

...

In a newly opened bar in Beijing.

A young man with oily hair frowned. His mobile phone on the bar kept popping up new messages. After he saw it from the corner of his eye, he suddenly became refreshed, showing an expression of envy and jealousy.

"Brother Ren, what's wrong?"

Fu Ge noticed his fidgeting expression, poured him a glass of vodka, put two pieces of ice in it, and pushed the glass in front of the man.

The young man with oily back was not in the mood to drink for a long time now, he held the glass absently and kept his eyes on the phone: "I also said to introduce you to some friends, it seems that you are unlucky, bumping into that person return."

Fu Ge did not develop well in Beijing.

Xu Jishen hasn't played with him for a long time.

Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon in a place like Beijing, he may have a place in the ring city, but here he doesn't count as a fart.

He plays well with the people in front of him in order to seek resources for development.

So Fu Ge heard the other party say that he wanted to introduce someone to him, but he missed the opportunity, and his heart sank: "Who?"

Oily back looked back and saw that he didn't know anything, so he immediately smiled, and his mood improved a lot. He picked up the wine and said like looking at a bumpkin, "That's the one. Queen of the Beijing circle, Tang Ning has to restrain herself and be obedient in front of her." , the real one!"

He made a thumbs up gesture.

"Qiao Nian."

"Young Master Qin held her in his palm."

"She's back from the Beltway."

"..."

Fu Ge clenched the glass tightly, his cheek muscles tensed up, and his back was straightened, as if he had been slapped.

He tried his best to hide his emotions, forced a smile and said, "Really?"

The man didn't see anything strange about him, or he didn't care much about him. He took a sip of vodka, tilted his head and replied, "Why am I lying to you? You kid is out of luck, otherwise I can call Brother Yang out, and you have a chance. You can still hang out with him, and you can get to know a few more people. If Brother Yang is willing to bring you into the circle to play, the corners of his circle are enough for you to hang out with."

Fu Ge couldn't laugh a long time ago. The dim light on his face flickering on and off gave him the best protection. He only heard his own sour voice: "Qiao Nian her...and Ye Shao may not last forever. Well, I don't think the Ye family recognized her."

Chapter 3026 Chenchen is coming too

The top circle has its own set of rules.

For example, if a top famous family recognizes a certain partner, they will definitely tell everyone in the circle that this is my daughter-in-law or grandson-in-law.

The Ye family is still quiet, and there has been no such movement.

Although Fu Ge is not a person in the top circle, he has heard a little gossip sporadically, and the circle he contacts will occasionally talk about it.

It's just that Qiao Nian is not that popular in everyone's mouth, and her relationship with Ye Wangchuan is more like a top-notch son playing on a whim.

Fu Ge knows that the relationship behind Qiao Nian is unfathomable, and he is absolutely worthy of Ye Wangchuan.

But Qiao Nian's relationship is not serious after all, the older generation has always disliked Ye Luzi, maybe the Ye family doesn't value her that much?

"Who told you?" Big back smirked, looked at Fu Ge and said, "Qiao Nian is Ye Shao's recognized girlfriend, and this alone is enough to explain the Ye family's attitude."

Fu Ge was very disappointed and couldn't show it, so he nodded and forced the corners of his mouth: "Then she is really lucky."

Dabeitou is a smart man, he looked him up and down a few times, and then stopped to introduce Zhang Yang to him, and his attitude towards him became less salty: "You don't talk to others about these things when you go out in the future, Young Master Qin and the others are taboo That's right, don't get me involved."

Fu Ge couldn't even maintain his forced smile, he pursed his lips, restrained himself firmly, and nodded in agreement.

At the same time, Lanting.

Qiao Nian, they are all here.

Qin Si first asked the manager to take them to the arranged box, and Bao Jingxing found a corner to sit down first.

Ye Wangchuan received a call as soon as he entered. He raised his head and said to them, "I'm going out to answer a call."

"Go." Qin Si waved his hand, and naturally opened the seat next to him to greet Qiao Nian: "Sister Qiao, you are here, and you still have to wait for the food. Let's start the game first."

Qiao Nian didn't care where to sit, and walked straight over.

five minutes later.

The door of the box was pushed open.

Ye Wangchuan came in from the outside, glanced at several people with deep eyes and said, "My old man is coming."

Qin Si just pulled Qiao Nian out of his cell phone, and when he heard the words, he was dumbfounded and stood up: "Mr. Ye is coming?? Then I called so many people..."

Ye Maoshan was not in the same circle as Tang Ning and the others, and they were separated by two generations, how could they sit at the same table and eat.

"Why don't I tell them not to come." Qin Si thought about it.

"Let them come, make it lively with more people. My sister-in-law is here too, they can chat." Ye Fanchuan walked to Qiao Nian's left and pulled out a chair to sit down.

He took a teacup with his white hands and rinsed it with tea, then poured himself a cup of tea, put the poured tea in front of the girl, then took the useless set of teacups in front of Qiao Nian and repeated what he said just now. operate.

The second cup of tea is poured for yourself.

"Aunt Lan is here?" Qin Si screamed even worse.

Ye Wangchuan took the cup to his mouth and took a sip of the tea, and gave him a hard blow: "The little devil king is here too."

Qin Si: "..."

Looking at the entire Beijing city, besides the little ancestor of the Ye family, who else can be honored as the little devil of the world!

Recently, the little devil king is learning computers with a teacher every day, and he hasn't shown much to the outside world, but not long ago, Qin Si heard that he beat up a pair of twins from Wen's family who were 3 years older than him. .

Ye Lao protects his little ancestor, and the Wen family can't pursue it, so they can only suffer from it.

Chapter 3027 Sister Nian will come back for her birthday and leave

This matter has been widely spread, and Qin Si has heard his mother talk about it.

Ye Wangchuan watched him shake, put down his teacup, and said calmly, "Don't worry, God Qiao is here, and he won't make trouble."

"He will be more obedient and able to act than you can imagine. Oscar owes him a statuette!"

Qin Si saw this scene, and immediately trembled: "...seems to be quite obedient."

is to infiltrate people.

Ye Wangchuan raised the corners of his mouth, complained about his family members, and said mercilessly, "Come in and call your big brother cute."

"Don't talk about it." Qin Si imagined the scene, like a pimple in his throat, even drank two sips of water to suppress the horror in his heart, and goose bumps ran all over his body.

Qiao Nian listened to the two of them talking about Little Bun one sentence at a time, with fingertips resting between his brows, he said in a helpless tone, "You guys are too exaggerated."

"I think Chenchen is very obedient, not pretending."

Qin Si disagreed with the previous sentence.

Qin Si didn't dare to speak the last sentence.

Ye Fanchuan is more dog than him, Gu Panshenfei raised his eyes slightly, staring at the girl: "He is good and wants his aunt to be his wife?"

Qiao Nian's eyelids twitched violently, drinking water tactically to scare him, not forgetting to say to him: "Chenchen is here, don't say that."

"Tsk!"

Ye Wangchuan stretched his body and leaned back on the chair, and didn't say any more, but he knew Ye Qichen's peeing nature very well in his heart.

He is not as fragile a child as Qiao Nian imagined.

Ye Qichen grew up with a deep psychological shadow in the aspect of incompleteness, he has never been self-pitying, but more like the Ye family.

So he knew very well that even if Ye Qichen heard what he complained about in person, he would be proud of it instead of taking it seriously, and wished he could work harder to pry the corner of his wall with a small hoe.

The kid only pretended in front of Qiao Nian.

Very strong in front of others.

Otherwise, he wouldn't be recognized as the little devil in the world.

Zhang Yang and the others came very quickly. Only when everyone sat down did they realize that Mr. Ye and Ye Lan were also coming. They were more honest than quails.

At about 9:50 p.m., Ye Maoshan and Ye Lan came with the little guy.

Ye Qichen really squeezed into Qiao Nian's side as soon as he entered the door, and naturally called Qin Si's big brother, and snatched Qin Si's good seat by the way, and sat on Qiao Nian's right.

Everyone is here.

Qin Si asked the waiter to serve.

Ye Maoshan saw that Qiao Nian was smiling, so he happily kept turning the topic around Qiao Nian, mainly asking how long she would stay in Beijing this time.

He heard Qiao Nian say that he just came back for his birthday, so he inevitably showed a disappointed expression.

But Ye Maoshan knew that Qiao Nian must be busy with important matters, so he just sat there and didn't want to keep him. Ye Lan asked Qiao Nian how he planned to spend his birthday...

The dishes were quickly filed in and brought to the table.

It was not the first time we met, Zhang Yang soon became active.

With him and Qin Si around, even though Bo Jing didn't speak much jargon, the atmosphere in the box was extraordinarily active, and everyone chatted happily.

Tang Ning and the others mainly chatted with Qiao Nian about games and entertainment gossip.

Qiao Nian doesn't know much about entertainment and gossip, he only knows how to answer a few words in the game.

Ye Lan asked her how she was doing outside and so on.

Eat a meal.

Qiao Nian was basically answering all kinds of questions. Fortunately, Ye Wangchuan would put vegetables in her bowl from time to time to block some enthusiastic questions for her, so that she had a chance to have a full meal.

**

the next day.

Qiao Nian woke up early in the morning.

She planned to go to Qing University to ask Liang Conglin for leave first, and then go to the nursing home to see Mr. Jiang.

PS: Sister Nian won't stay for long, the matter with Nie Qixing is about to come to fruition

Chapter 3028 Mr. Huang has been waiting for you for a year

She wore a hat and T-shirt today, probably because she didn't want to attract attention, so Qiao Nian pulled up the hat and walked across the road outside Tsing Da University as low-key as possible.

Tsinghua University is in the final stage of the semester. People in the school are either soaking in the library or doing quizzes in the dormitory. There are not many people walking on the campus.

Qiao Nian was extremely low-key.

No one recognized her along the way.

She arrived outside Liang Conglin's office without incident, raised her hand and knocked on the door.

'knock knock'.

Qiao Nian put down his hand after knocking on the door.

Soon a familiar voice came from inside.

"Come in."

"Report."

Qiao Nian pushed the door open and went in, and saw other people in the office.

She didn't look at the man's face carefully, and walked straight towards the desk, stopped at the desk, raised her head slightly and greeted the man sitting on the leather chair with his head buried in his work very politely: "Principal, I'm coming back to make up for you." Fake."

Liang Conglin was looking at a document and was frowning when he suddenly heard a girl's distinctive voice from above his head.

He realized who it was, raised his head suddenly, dropped the pen in his hand, and called out to the person standing in front of him in surprise: "Qiao Nian?"

"Hello, Principal Liang." Qiao Nian was always patient with his elders, so he nodded at him and greeted him again.

Liang Conglin had already stood up from the chair, walked around in front of her, looked her up and down, and immediately said with a smile: "Grow a little taller."

Qiao Nian reached out and touched the tip of his nose, and coughed embarrassedly: "No, it's almost the same as before."

"Really?" Liang Conglin said with a smile, "I think you have grown a little taller and matured, and you seem to be more stable than before."

Qiao Nian rubbed the center of her brows. She didn't seem to be unstable before, but she was not very patient and easily impatient.

Liang Conglin looked at her carefully, recalling what Qiao Nianfang had just said to him, he frowned unconsciously: "When did you come back? What do you mean by making up time off?"

Qiao Nian first answered his first question: "Last night."

Then she explained: "It was too late at night, so I didn't tell you and Mr. Nie."

"No wonder..." Liang Conglin reckoned the same, but he was very smart and could see his position clearly.

Mr. Ye is looking forward to Qiao Nian's return every day, and there is another Ye Lan who is also eager to see... Except for the two of the Ye family, Qiao Nian's biological father and grandfather are all in front of him, not to mention Yuan Yongqin from the Chengfeng Group, etc. ...

He, the principal, is very self-aware.

Qiao Nianken came to him the next day, what else could he be dissatisfied with?

Liang Conglin was more concerned about what Qiao Nian said later: "Aren't you going to come back after almost a year of absence? Do you want to extend the vacation?"

Qiao Nian had already made up her mind, rolled her eyelashes, and hummed: "I probably have to suspend school for half a year. If not, I can only suspend school for another year."

Liang Conglin heard that there was no doubt that there was a bolt from the blue, and he couldn't accept it for a long time.

"so long?"

He really didn't want to wait another half a year for such a good seedling.

Liang Conglin was very unwilling to try to persuade Qiao Nian, and said to the girl: "Old Huang has been waiting for you for a year, and you have another year. After all, he is old..."

"I'm sorry." Qiao Nian's eyes cast shadows, he took a deep breath and said to him, "I have something to do."

The words Liang Cong came to his lips turned into a sigh. He shook his head, knowing that he couldn't persuade her, so he went back behind the desk and took out the sealed bag in the drawer: "One year is too long, I will ask you for half a year's leave. Come back when you finish your work, the Chinese Medicine Department and the Music Department are waiting for you."

Chapter 3029 Qiao Nian, do you have to pretend you didn't see it?

Qiao Nian saw him leaning over his desk to draw out a slip of paper to approve and sign, so he stood quietly and waited, his unruly figure looked free and undisciplined.

In addition to her and Liang Conglin, there were always people in the office.

Since she came in, Liang Conglin hadn't looked at anyone else, and that person was also obedient, and stood obediently by the side to lower his sense of existence.

Liang Conglin quickly finished approving the new leave note and handed it to Qiao Nian, with some reluctance in his eyes: "You don't think about it anymore?"

Qiao Nian took the slip from him and said 'thank you'.

Liang Conglin couldn't help sighing again, but remembered something: "By the way, do you have time to represent Tsinghua University in an international composition competition these days?"

"kindness?"

Qiao Nian got the leave slip and was ready to leave, but he stayed behind.

Liang Conglin hurriedly said: "This is an extremely authoritative international competition. Several other western musical instrument groups in the music department have found suitable candidates, but only the traditional musical instrument group has been unable to choose a representative... Mr. Nie means that he would rather give up this competition qualifications, and don't discredit traditional musical instruments. I'm having a headache about this, since you're back, do you have time to write an arrangement these days?"

Qiao Nian is famous for chasing light, everyone in Tsinghua University knows about it, and Liang Conglin, as the principal, of course knows it too.

So when he saw Qiao Nian, he thought of the difficult problem he was facing recently.

Qiao Nian probably understood what he meant, so she asked him with deep eyes: "Will every country choose a representative traditional musical instrument?"

Liang Conglin was taken aback, nodded immediately, and smiled wryly at her: "Yes. You know that the musical instruments represented by Western countries are common musical instruments such as violins and saxophones. There are not many students here who learn traditional musical instruments. There are fewer people, and those who can arrange music are even rarer..."

"Under this situation, Old Nie thought of giving up, at least it won't be too ugly when the time comes."

"After all, the inheritance of our ancestors for thousands of years, lost to musical instruments with a history of hundreds of years, Mr. Nie is not reconciled, and I am not reconciled either!"

Qiao Nian put away the leave note, without any extra expression on his face, he just stretched out his hand and pulled off his cap, and said flatly, "I have time."

"Really?" Liang Conglin was both surprised and delighted.

Qiao Nian nodded, very seriously: "Just write an arrangement, right?"

Liang Conglin was full of surprises, and his reply became full of enthusiasm: "For the composition competition, just write an arrangement and hand it over to the organizer."

"OK."

Qiao Nian agreed and asked him about the deadline.

The time is neither too long nor too short, there are still five or six days.

She probably could write a tune.

Qiao Nian told Liang Conglin that she would write the scores for the traditional group. Of course Liang Conglin was overjoyed and agreed repeatedly.

Then Qiao Nian had a specific chat with him, and seeing that the time was almost up, she bid farewell to Liang Conglin, walked out of Tsinghua University, and prepared to go to the nursing home where Mr. Jiang was.

Jiang Li and the others didn't know she was back.

While walking, Qiao Nian was touching the bottle of small pills in his pocket for Mr. Jiang, thinking about how he could get there.

Suddenly a person chased her out and stopped her on the side of the road outside Qingda University.

Qiao Nian frowned slightly, and raised her eyes impatiently. When she saw the face of the person blocking her, she was surprised for a moment, but it was only a moment.

She pretended not to see it and prepared to go around.

Fu Ge didn't give her a chance to go around, he opened his arms to block the way: "I think we are at least friends, is it necessary for you to see me as if you didn't see it?"

Chapter 3030 What does Young Master Fu want to do to my girlfriend

Qiao Nian was annoyed at being stopped by him again, but when he heard him accusing herself as soon as he came up, she raised her head inexplicably: "What?"

Fu Ge thought she was pretending to himself: "Didn't you see me in the principal's office? Why did you just leave without seeing me?"

Qiao Nian had about a second to react, then looked at him fixedly, eyes full of bewilderment: "Are you in the office?"

Seeing her reaction, Fu Ge thought that she was deliberately humiliating himself, and pulled the corner of his mouth, his handsome face paled: "I know that I am not as good as you, there is no need for you to humiliate me like this."

Qiao Nian interrupted him impatiently: "So you stopped me for something?"

Fu Ge just stopped her subconsciously. In fact, he didn't even think about stopping Qiao Nian to say anything to her.

He looked at the domineering girl who was still beautiful in her plain face, and suddenly felt sour in his heart.

It's as if you once owned the moon but abandoned it. When you regret it and want to get closer, you find that the moon has already left you.

You can't touch it even if you raise your toes, but the moonlight shines on you all the time, making you clearly understand how stupid and ridiculous you used to be!

Fu Ge did not speak for a long time.

Qiao Nian became a little impatient: "If you're fine, don't get in the way, I have a business."

Seeing that she was about to leave, Fu Ge tried to reach out to grab her.

This time, Qiao Nian didn't let him succeed, and reacted quickly to avoid his hand, his expression became cold, and his eyes narrowed, just one glance hurt his self-esteem like a knife.

Fu Ge didn't know why he became angry from embarrassment, and blurted out: "When are you going to see Qiao Chen?"

Qiao Nian picked out his ears, thinking he was hallucinating: "What?"

Fu Ge's words came out, and his mind became hot: "I went to see her in the prison some time ago, and she kept mentioning you. It's been so long, shouldn't you go and see her? She's not doing well in there, I have lost a lot of weight, and I am getting old. My aunt also sheds tears at home every day, her eyes are broken from crying, and she often goes to the hospital for ophthalmology... If you have time to write and arrange, you should also have time to see them."

Qiao Nian just laughed, very angry, as if she could see through all his dirty thoughts, fire was printed in her dark eyes: "Everything she does is for you, her character should be more serious than talking about me. I want to marry you. Since you love her so much, why don't you give her a promise to marry her back?"

Fu Ge opened his mouth, but was speechless.

Because Qiao Nian was right.

Every time he went to see Qiao An in prison, Qiao An would cry and ask him if he still loves her and if he will marry her...

But how could he marry a prisoner of labor reform?

Even if he can agree, his mother will not agree!

So it is impossible for him to be with Qiao Chen.

"I thought you could burn relics by throwing them into the fire, but it turned out that you were just generous to others." These words were like a slap in the face of Fu Ge.

Fu Ge blushed from being irritated, and stretched out his hand to pull her: "Why do you have to treat me like this, you must stab me with words!"

Qiao Nian still complained first when he saw a villain, but he was a shameless and shameless person who insisted on putting a lid on him.

Her eyes sank, and she was about to turn her face.

Suddenly, a familiar Phaeton stopped on the side of the road.

The car door opened, and a person who got off the driver's seat stepped towards them, grabbed Fu Ge's wrist, and twisted it slightly. But there was a refreshing smile on his face: "What does Young Master Fu want to do to my girlfriend?"
