

Madam's 3161

Chapter 3161 Qi Shao, is it too coincidental

Nie Qixing paused slightly, with a slightly impatient expression on his face, he turned his head to look at him, and said, "Why don't you stay here and wait for me to come back?"

The assistant could feel his displeasure, and even though he was very worried, he didn't dare to touch him again.

Nie Qixing waited until he completely shut up before walking out.

A stretched black Lincoln sedan parked outside the airfield.

When Nie Qixing got off the car, he saw a woman leaning against the side of the car. The woman had a hot body, bulging forward and backward, smoking a cigarette with her head bowed.

He couldn't help but take another look.

The other party seemed to feel his gaze, and just raised his head.

Nie Qixing saw an ordinary face with a wheat complexion. Although healthy and well-proportioned, there was a kind of healthy beauty bursting out of wildness.

But judging from the facial features.

This woman looks too ordinary.

"Are you the seller?"

Chunlei spit out a smoke ring, threw the cigarette * on the ground and stamped it out with his foot, stepped on the cigarette * and walked over to open the car door for him: "I'm just the one in charge of picking you up."

After she opened the car door, she supported the door with her slender legs, and turned to greet Nie Qixing: "Is that you, Young Master Nie? If you want to see the goods, then go."

Nie Qixing was about to go there when he was stopped by his assistant, who whispered in his ear: "Young Master Qi, I've never seen this person before, you better be careful."

They don't speak very loudly.

But Chunlei has good ears and eyesight. He knows a little lip language since he was a child, and he can tell what they are talking about from a distance.

So he slightly raised his short hair around his ears, squinted his long and narrow eyes, and said in a loud voice: "If you are worried, why don't you go back and discuss it? Anyway, it's not your family who wants to see the goods, I'll pick up others first. You can discuss it How about contacting me again?"

Nie Qixing's brows and eyes moved slightly, indicating that he wanted to leave.

The assistant stood in front of him again: "Young Master Qi, I really feel something is wrong."

Nie Qixing turned his head and squinted at him.

The assistant didn't flinch, and was very serious.

Nie Qixing frowned slowly, and looked again at the black car parked not far away, as if thinking about something.

Chunlei was tasked with leading people out this time, her heart was beating fast, but her face was calm and she couldn't see it: "Have you thought about it? Hurry up."

Nie Qixing was not affected by her impatient urging this time, and suddenly proposed: "We have our own car, so I won't take your car. You can lead the way in front, is it convenient?"

Before Chunlei could react, a girl's casual voice came from his cochlea: "Promise him."

Nie Qixing was paying close attention to the changes in her expression, but if Chunlei showed a little panic or astonishment, he would become suspicious.

It's just that Qiao Nian made a decision so fast and confident that Chun Lei had no time to get nervous about the sudden change of plan, and he already had a backbone.

Under the gaze of Nie Qixing and his assistants, she stretched her face in displeasure, and slammed the car door: "Whatever you want!"

Then he walked around to the front and got in the car. After fastening the seat belt, he opened the car window, stuck his head out from the inside, and said to Nie Qixing and the others: "What are you still doing there, go and drive!"

Nie Qixing put his doubts back in his heart, turned his head and told the people under him: "Go and drive."

Someone trotted to get ready.

The assistant that Shadow sent to him did not dispel his doubts because of Chunlei's almost perfect reaction, but instead became more suspicious of Chunlei.

He proposed: "Qi Shao, let's contact the Nie family to ask if there is such a rule in the seller. I always think this person is a bit strange!"

Chapter 3162 I still know where Nian is

"You don't know why I came to Continent F to pick up the goods?" Nie Qixing's eyes were cold, and he looked at him coldly: "I came to Continent F to gain a foothold in the Nie family! Heh~ You let me contact the Nie family and tell them I Looking at goods in Continent F now? Then what's the point of my trip?"

The assistant doesn't know how to answer.

It happened that the driver drove the car over.

Nie Qixing strode up to the car, opened the door, and said to him: "Okay, if you don't worry, bring a few more people with me!"

The assistant also thought so, since he couldn't persuade him, he simply took all the people arranged by Shadow with him and took two cars.

Chunlei saw that they had three cars in total, and secretly wrote down the license plate number of the car Nie Qixing was riding in, rolled up the window, stepped on the accelerator, and drove out first, leading the way...

Nie Qixing sat in the back seat of the black Buick in the middle, and commanded the driver arrogantly and indifferently: "Keep up."

Their three cars set off at the same time to keep up.

At the same time, Shadow's plane was still half an hour away from landing at the base of the Hermit Family in Continent F.

He never was idle for a moment.

On the plane, he kept calling and sending messages, looking for someone to track Nie Qixing's location.

In addition to looking for Nie Qixing, he didn't forget to ask someone to find out the exact location of Qiao Nian.

The influence network of the hidden family for many years is no joke, it is easy to find people.

News soon came from Beijing.

Qiao Nian is still in Beijing!

And went to a dinner party with Ye Wangchuan.

Today is the birthday party of Mrs. Qin's family, that is, Qin Si's mother. Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan have always had a good relationship with Qin Si, so they both went.

The banquet was lively.

From noon to evening, there is a special dance party in the evening.

So Qiao Nian definitely didn't leave Beijing.

Although Yingying felt that the news was very accurate, he was still uneasy and asked someone to check the entry and exit information.

Until he confirmed that there was no entry and exit information of Qiao Nian in Beijing in the past few days, he put his heart back into his stomach...

"Where is Young Master Qi? Have you found out where others are?" Shadow received the entry-exit mail from Beijing, and then asked the other person Nie Qixing's specific location.

Nie Qingru's people are not vegetarians either.

Nie Qixing's trip this time can't be hidden from Nie Qingru's people no matter how concealed it is!

The person in charge of checking Nie Qixing also replied: "It has been confirmed that Qi Shao is in Continent F. He landed half an hour earlier than us, and he should have just left Nie's territory by now, ready to see the goods."

"He's alone?" Shadow rubbed his temples, frowning tightly: "There are dead people around him? Why don't you stop him?"

"I guess Bills tried to stop Young Master Qi, but Young Master Qi didn't want to listen." The man lowered his eyebrows and looked down, but what he said was very unpleasant.

Shadow took a deep breath and stared at him intently.

The other party kept his head down, and didn't mean to provoke him on purpose.

Shadow also understood that the other party was only answering truthfully, but he was always in a panic.

He was annoyed that Nie Qixing dared to go to a place like f continent to eat people without discussing such a big matter with him.

"Help me get in touch with Bills." Shadow suppressed his unhappiness and said with a paralyzed face.

"yes."

The man went to get the satellite phone.

ten minutes later.

The bodyguard beside him handed over the connected satellite phone and whispered, "Bills answered it."

Chapter 3163 Nie Qingru still has two hours to consider

Shadow took the satellite phone, opened his mouth and said: "Why didn't you report to me when you came to Continent F? If I didn't find out, wouldn't you tell me until now? Do you think the reason why I let you follow Young Master Qi What is it... let you hide from me with him?!"

The assistant on the other end apologized very cautiously: "I'm sorry Mr. Shadow, Young Master Qi didn't allow me to contact you, and he took away the mobile phone. I thought of a place to find a chance to tell you, but you contacted me first..."

"Okay, I don't want to hear your explanation." Shadow asked directly: "Where are you now?"

The assistant opened the car window and looked out at the dark environment outside. He gave an approximate location and said, "The seller wants to take us to the warehouse to see the goods."

"But don't worry, I brought all the people I could bring, and I also contacted our nearby staff, and they will come over as soon as possible."

"It's okay for the other party to trade honestly. If they dare to use their brains, we will definitely make them come and go!"

F Continent has only two snakes in total, which will be dreadful.

One is the power of the diamond boss.

One is a dark castle.

As long as these two forces are not involved, the other forces are not enough in front of the Hermit Family!

He has already contacted the brothers nearby, enough to ensure the safety of Nie Qixing.

Shadow heard that he finally knew how to arrange someone to protect Nie Qixing's safety, and his expression softened slightly: "I have already found someone to confirm that the person we need to care about is not in Continent F, you just need to be careful..."

Before he finished speaking, there was a sudden violent impact on the other end.

Shadow suddenly raised his vigilance, and hurriedly asked: "What's going on, what happened? Why did I hear a voice from your side?"

The signal of the satellite phone began to fail, and there was a rustling sound from inside.

The voice of the assistant on the other end became indistinct.

Shadow could only vaguely hear the assistant saying anxiously: "Someone... bumped... stopped... we were ambushed! The seller...problem..."

He quickly sorted out what the assistant wanted to express in his mind-someone stopped the car of Nie Qixing and his party, they were ambushed, and the seller had a problem!

Shadow sucked in a breath of cold air, a chill came out of his back, his brain was running fast thinking about who dared to touch Nie Qixing, and why he wanted to touch Nie Qixing...

In just a few seconds of his time, the satellite phone in his hand beeped, and he was completely disconnected from there!

The bodyguard beside him was shocked and said: "There is no signal over there!"

But they are using satellite phones, and it is impossible for them to have no signal or poor signal!

Unless a possibility.

Someone technically cut their signal!

This is not something ordinary people can do, after all, they use satellite signal towers.

—Who the hell?

This question will soon have an answer.

The satellite phone in Shadow's hand rang, and a second later, a new voice suddenly came out, quite loose and arrogant.

"Go and tell Nie Qingru that she has two hours from now to think of a reason for me to let Nie Qixing go."

"Or she can trade a secret with me."

"For example, the relationship between Nie Qixing and my mother."

Shadow trembled all over.

This voice is...

Qiao Nian!

He asked someone to check just now, Qiao Nian has never left the capital!

How could a person who should be in Jing City suddenly flash to Continent F... unless he was fooled from the beginning!

Chapter 3164 He still wants to threaten sister Nian, funny!

Shadow sternly said: "Qiao Nian, don't touch Young Master Qi. Otherwise..."

"Are you qualified to negotiate terms with me?" The girl's voice was neither salty nor weak, showing a little coldness.

Shadow's aura unconsciously collapsed in half, and his voice was also softer than before: "Don't move Qi Shao. Otherwise..."

He didn't have a chance to finish talking this time either.

Because the satellite phone in his hand made the sound of 'z' again, and then fell silent—

"..." The blue veins on Shadow's forehead were bulging, the raised eyebrows throbbed frequently, his nerves were tense into a bow, and a string inside seemed to be broken at any time.

The bodyguard beside him frowned at this moment, and said uncertainly, "Is she dead?"

Shadow took the satellite phone away from his ear without making a sound.

The bodyguard looked incredulous: "It's really dead? What does this person mean?"

Shadow is all in black, his face is darker than the clothes he is wearing, and the shadow in his eyes hides the emotion in his eyes: "Didn't you hear what she said on the phone?"

The bodyguard couldn't help turning sideways to make way for him: "I heard it. But..."

"She only made this call for one purpose—to threaten!" Shadow didn't want to waste too much time with him, and put down the satellite phone with a paralyzed face.

At the same time, I bent down to pick up the mobile phone I left on the spot, suppressed the surging emotions in my chest, and said in a calm tone: "She is declaring war with us openly. So I have to report to the Queen about the situation in Continent F, otherwise I will let you If the situation continues, Qi Shao's life may be in danger."

The bodyguard changed from disbelief to astonishment: "Did she dare to touch Qi Shao?"

Shadow has already dialed the number. Hearing this, out of the corner of his eye, he saw the changing face of the bodyguard beside him, and sneered: "Heh~ there are things she dare not do in this world?"

There is nothing in this world that Qiao Nian dare not do!

Back then, she ran straight into Ji's ancestral hall alone, and later led people to rescue Lu Zhi from them in country M, not to mention the destruction of Yu's family, and the death of Mr. Lei... All these things, how little did she do? !

Only a fool would doubt that Qiao Nian dared to do it.

But anyone who knows her knows it well.

Qiao Nian can do what he says, and he will never break his word...

Shadow was impatiently preparing to report to Nie Qingru, and at the same time ordered the bodyguard with a gloomy expression: "You can contact Zhou Zheng, the friend next to Young Master Qi, and ask him what did Young Master Qi do to provoke people in Beijing."

"Okay." The bodyguard is about to make a call.

"etc."

Shadow squinted his eyes and stopped him again, and said in a stern tone: "Ask a few more times, otherwise he won't tell the truth."

"Yes." The bodyguard hurried to contact Zhou Zheng.

Shadow sees him walking away, checks the time, it is estimated that the plane will land at Continental Airport in ten minutes...

Just got through the phone.

He took a deep breath, walked to the corner and lowered his voice to report: "Queen, something happened to Young Master Qi."

Compared to Shadow, he can contact Nie Qingru calmly.

Nie Qixing's situation is really terrible.

The car in front of them had a car accident, causing the car behind them to rear-end without braking in time. The sudden and violent impact almost didn't throw Nie Qixing out of the back seat.

Although he barely grasped the handrail of the car, the skin on his forehead was scratched, and a trickle of blood flowed down the left side of his face, looking horrific.

The sharp pain on his forehead somehow woke Nie Qixing up, and he immediately asked the driver and his entourage: "What's going on? How did you drive!"

"No. Young Master Nie...the front, there seems to be an accident." The driver was also slightly injured, but not seriously, and he stammered and pointed out the glass.

Chapter 3165 Immediately lost even 50% confidence

Nie Qixing stretched his head to look forward, and saw a row of bright headlights coming directly, and the high beams illuminated the whole road as bright as day.

The glare of the light even made him blind for a moment, and he had to cover his eyes with his hands to feel better.

Fortunately, he quickly adapted to the strong light and looked outside vaguely.

I saw that their cars were all stopped, and they were parked on the road with varying degrees of damage.

At the same time, more than a dozen well-dressed people approached their car, and Nie Qixing noticed that they were all holding weapons in their hands!

The current situation is clear at a glance, they were ambushed!

Nie Qixing firmly grasped the leather armchair in front of him with his fingers, his mind went blank for a moment, his lips were slightly chapped, and he said in a hoarse voice, "Where is the seller?"

"It seems that the seller has a problem..." The driver was staring at the sudden situation the whole time, and didn't notice his dismal expression, otherwise he would have been even more flustered.

Seller's question!

Nie Qixing's ears were buzzing, and he grasped his knuckles so hard that the blood vessels in his back protruded.

The entourage turned back and asked him: "Young Master Qi, what should we do now?"

Nie Qixing's hair was disheveled, his glasses were hit by his forehead, and the * stains flowed out of the mirror, he was completely embarrassed.

He pursed the corners of his lips, and realized that he couldn't drag on any longer, so he made a decisive decision: "Get out of the car first."

He himself opened the door first.

Others got out of the car according to his instructions.

Bills was in the front car, and he also took the opportunity to get out of the car. He was looking for him when he saw Nie Qixing getting out of the car.

Bills rushed over quickly: "Young Master Qi, are you okay?"

"fine."

Nie Qixing's face was pale, and his forehead was still bleeding.

He just wiped the blood from his face, gritted his teeth and asked Bills: "What should we do now?"

Bills could feel the chilling atmosphere that was constantly surrounding him. He first protected Nie Qixing behind him, took out the gun at his waist, and held it in his hand.

Then let his people form a small encirclement circle around Nie Qixing, then turned around and said to Nie Qixing: "Young Master Qi, don't be afraid."

"I just received a call from Lord Shadow before I got out of the car. He should know that something happened to us. Our people will rush over soon... As long as we last until they come over, we will be fine!"

"You said Uncle Ning and the others..." Nie Qixing played back the heart in his throat.

Bills saw the surrounding circle getting smaller and smaller, so he raised his vigilance and said in a low voice, "Master Shadow and the others are on their way."

Suddenly he saw a familiar figure.

Birce's pupils trembled, and his voice was distorted: "He, why is he here?!"

Nie Qixing couldn't see the faces of the people approaching them clearly under the strong light, and only saw a vague figure among the crowd in front of them.

The man was tall and tall, and the bearded face looked very rough and uninhibited, giving people a strong sense of oppression.

Bills has been trained around the shadow since he was a child, so he is naturally better able to adapt to extreme situations than ordinary people, and his eyes have long seen the faces of people clearly.

That's why he was so shocked: "The diamond boss..."

He turned his head and finally became anxious: "Young Master Qi, how did you provoke David?"

David is one of the local snakes he fears most in f continent.

Bills originally had full confidence in rushing out of the opponent's encirclement, but when he saw David at this moment, he was so sure that it was a direct half, and it became only 50%.

What's more terrible.

After he finished talking to Nie Qixing, he noticed a few ostentatious men in black coming from the left side: "No, there are... people from the dark castle!"

Chapter 3166 He thought he still had the qualifications to negotiate with Sister Nian

David + Bunker.

The two local snakes in f continent that he is most worried about have gathered.

Bills' face turned pale, and the hand holding the gun almost trembled. This time, his tone was anxious and irritable, and his flustered eyes shot straight at Nie Qixing: "Young Master Qi, what are you doing?"

"I don't know where these people come from." Nie Qixing didn't figure out the situation yet, thinking that these people belonged to the seller.

Bills told him succinctly who surrounded them.

Nie Qixing's face sank like water, as if he understood something.

He asked Biers: "How sure are you?"

Daji led Chunlei and the others and was about to walk in front of them in a blink of an eye. Bills, his back wet with cold sweat, gritted his teeth and reported the number.

"one cent."

What's the difference between one point sure and not sure.

However, this point of confidence was squeezed out by Bills because he was afraid of his despair. In fact, he didn't have any confidence at all.

"If there are only David's people, I'm still 50% sure to send you away with all my might. But now the people from the bunker are also here. If Lord Shadow and the others come later, we're afraid we'll all be here..."

Nie Qixing was sweating profusely. He couldn't tell whether it was blood or sweat on his face. He wiped his face, suddenly passed him, raised his hand towards the place where the strong light came from in front of him, and shouted, "I want to see Qiao Nian! I want to have * with her." deal!"

"Boss, he wants to see you." Chunlei parked the car on the side of the road at this moment, his long legs hooked people, but restrained himself, standing obediently next to the girl.

She heard Nie Qixing shouting brazenly, she tilted her head and said: "This grandson reacts very quickly, and he knows that you are looking for him."

Chunlei grew up in Continent F, a person who crawled out of the dead.

No matter from which angle you look at it, you have the temperament of a person who licks blood on the edge of a knife.

But such a mess does not spare one person.

When she was in front of the girls who looked quite young beside her, she always had a respectful attitude.

The girl only raised her lower eyelashes, held a telescope in her hand, and sat halfway on the front of the Buick. Her long legs wrapped in jeans were well-proportioned and straight on the ground. She replied indifferently; "Don't worry about him."

"You mean to make him..." Chunlei wiped his neck.

Qiao Nian glanced at her, put down the binoculars, and said unhurriedly, "I promised to give Country M two hours. During this period, just shoot them from time to time so that they don't fall asleep!"

Chunlei's face twitched, unable to express his expression.

Firing a gun from time to time, but not letting anyone go... This feeling of a knife hanging above the head is not as easy as eating the gun directly.

Those people were too scared to die.

But Chunlei is not a soft-hearted person, so he will not sympathize with Nie Qixing and others, so he happily went to inform Houzi and them.

"Okay, then Q, wait for me here, I will go and tell them, so as not to play people to death."

In the crowd, Nie Qixing was sweating profusely, still insisting: "I want to see Qiao Nian!"

Bills scolded shit!

I can't wait to pull him back immediately, tell him to shut up and stop making trouble.

But due to Nie Qixing's identity, he didn't dare to be presumptuous, so he had to persuade him: "Qi Shao, now is not the time to mess around, you hide behind us first, these people are not easy to mess with..."

Nie Qixing remained unmoved in the slightest, still standing in front, staring at the back of the strong light, slamming each word with complete certainty: "The person she wants is still in my hands, it's best not to provoke me."

Chapter 3167 Whoever breaks in will kill chickens and monkeys

"I want to negotiate with her!"

Mo Dong laughed out loud, crossed his arms and watched him do the beast fight: "You mean Master Cheng?"

How does he know? Nie Qixing was startled, and he forced himself to be calm and said, "I want to see Qiao Nian!"

"Farewell." Mo Dong refused mercilessly, and told him by the way: "Master Cheng has been rescued a long time ago, didn't you find that no one in Beijing has contacted you?"

Master Cheng is Nie Qixing's trump card.

The only 'thing' he holds in his hands that can save his life, Shen Jingyan and others have not informed him that Master Cheng has been rescued, so he thought that Master Cheng was still in his hands...

Nie Qixing certainly didn't want to believe what Mo Dong said.

Seeing that he still didn't give up, Mo Dong continued to * him: "Otherwise, why do you think Ms. Qiao would find you? It's quite troublesome to set up a game. If you want to be smart, just cooperate obediently. Of course, you don't have to cooperate if you don't want to." , there is only one life, as long as you are brave enough, make it whatever you want!"

Nie Qixing's face was livid, and for a while, he didn't know whether he should believe his words.

Bills didn't dare to let him continue to make trouble, and forced him back, warning him severely: "Young Master Qi, you can't afford to mess with these people! Stop acting impulsively!"

Bills spoke in an extremely blunt, even resentful tone.

He suspected fraud in this matter from the very beginning, and Qi Shao insisted on going his own way and insisted on coming to Continent F.

The result is the current situation.

He only hoped that Young Master Qi would stop causing trouble for them! Stop irritating these people!

Nie Qixing was complained mercilessly by him in public, so he could only hold his throat and force himself to swallow his anger.

Bills was relieved to see that he finally stopped making trouble, and quickly judged that the people around them were not going to do anything directly, and his brains turned quickly, so he went forward to negotiate with Mo Dong.

While thinking in his heart to see if he could hold these people back, he tried his best to buy time for Shadow to arrive.

not far away.

Qiao Nian was still sitting on the front of the Buick, looking down and playing with the phone.

Time passed by one minute and one second.

Chunlei has gone to tell Daji and the others what she meant. Mo Dong and Daji followed her instructions, just watching Bills 'delaying time' like a monkey playing monkeys, scaring them from time to time.

It made Biers, Nie Qixing and others exhausted.

Chunlei came back after watching the excitement for a while, and brought Qiao Nian the latest news from the base camp; "Q, the plane of the Hidden Family landed at the airport three minutes ago. They are taking people here... In addition, there is also a small group of people from the Nie family in Continent F who are also rushing here...the bodyguards around Nie Qixing should have notified them in advance."

"Understood." Qiao Nian raised her eyelids slightly, her face showed no emotional fluctuations at all, as if everything was under her control, not surprising.

Chunlei just listened to her arrangement honestly.

Sure enough.

Qiao Nian was not idle either, she put away her phone and said in a low voice, "Continent F is our territory, they come whenever they want, isn't it ridiculous!"

Chunlei lowered his eyes and looked at the girl sternly: "What do you mean?"

Qiao Nian lightly touched her red lips, and said two words: "Road closed."

She said she would give Nie Qingru two hours to think about it, now half an hour has passed, and there is still an hour and a half...

In this hour and a half, Qiao Nian will not let anyone come over to disturb him.

"Whoever breaks in will be killed as an example to others!"

"Yes, Q."

Chunlei received the order and went to do it very quickly.

Chapter 3168 Nie Qingru knew it was urgent

M Country After several days of sunny days, dark clouds suddenly floated in the sky in the evening. The dark clouds quickly covered the sky and covered the sun, and thunder and lightning flashed in the thick clouds.

At night, it rained heavily.

The rain washed the world outside the hotel, separating the bright lights inside and the rain outside into two different worlds.

"Queen, the Patriarch of the Nie family is here." The black-clothed bodyguard walked softly to the French window and said cautiously.

The old woman with her back to him stood in front of the huge glass window, looking at the scenery below, her well-maintained face showed no expression and was taciturn.

In front of her, the night scene of the city that used to be bustling and lively in the past looked extraordinarily deserted tonight because of the heavy rain, and only the dim street lights could be seen in the rain.

The bodyguard saw her standing in front of the floor-to-ceiling windows as if she was out of her body, and did not respond for a long time.

So she plucked up her courage and called softly again: "Queen, people from the Nie family are here."

Nie Qingru turned around suddenly, passed him, and walked towards the living room: "Let him in."

Although the bodyguard was taken aback, he still didn't dare to express any dissatisfaction, and hurried to find someone outside the entrance.

Not long after, Nie Tao came in after him.

Nie Qingru did not live in the other garden of the Hermit family in country m this time, but chose to rent a penthouse suite in a five-star hotel.

The hotel's suite closet burns charcoal, and the surroundings emit a warm temperature, just like the bright lights in the suite give people the feeling.

Nie Tao stepped on the soft carpet, and quickly walked up to the woman sitting on the sofa, looking at the person with a bad complexion, before he could speak.

Nie Qingru raised his hand and told him, "Sit."

"..."

Nie Tao couldn't say anything, so he sat on the sofa opposite her.

At this time, the men brought by Nie Qingru brewed two cups of hot coffee and brought them to them respectively, then got up, went out lightly, and closed the door for them by the way.

In an instant, only Nie Qingru and Nie Tao were left in the huge suite.

Nie Qingru picked up the coffee, put it on her lips gracefully and took a sip, and said straight to the point: "Something happened to Qixing, and he was controlled in Continent F."

Before Nie Tao came, he probably guessed that Nie Qingru was looking for him for Nie Qixing, and now he heard Nie Qingru directly tell him that "something happened" and "f continent".

He reacted greatly, and immediately frowned, without even touching the coffee in front of him, sat up straight, and immediately asked Nie Qingru: "What is he doing in Continent F?"

"He was set up by someone saying that a batch of goods had arrived in Continent F. In order to check the goods, he went to Continent F himself, but was arrested." Nie Qingru said calmly.

Nie Tao sneered again and again: "I have always taken care of the business in Continent F myself, why didn't I know that he was going to pick up the goods?"

Nie Qixing secretly went to Continent F to pry business behind his back, but was unlucky and was tricked... Now came to him?

She doesn't think she can take care of it!

Nie Qingru could of course hear the undisguised resentment and dissatisfaction in his tone, and knew in her heart that it was Nie Qixing who did the dishonest thing this time.

Nie Qixing's ambition is a good thing, but if he doesn't have the strength to support his ambition, he is stupid!

Nie Qingru didn't go around in circles with him, and said directly: "I need your people in Continent F to rush to the rescue."

Nie Tao was not surprised that she would ask herself to save someone, but she just didn't cooperate: "Qixing is my own brother, it's not that I don't want to take care of him, but I can't do anything for the power that the Nie family has accumulated in Continent F for decades. He ruined it by himself. Besides, we also have our own layout in Continent F."

Chapter 3169 Sister Nian didn't give them a chance to pass!

Nie Qingru's face was full of anger, his eyes narrowed slightly, and he said with emphasis: "The layout of Continent F is more important than your own brother's life?!"

"I didn't say that." Nie Tao leaned back, relaxed his posture, and said to her lightly: "Qi Xing is the father's old son, and also my youngest brother. I have always regarded him as my own son. Look, of course I am willing to save him if I can, but I still have to think about so many people in the Nie family, and I can't just rely on my own will! The most important thing is..."

He could still laugh: "Don't Qixing have you as a real sister? With you here, who would dare to hurt him? Qingru, you don't make things difficult for me, the big brother."

Nie Qingru took a deep breath, pressed down the pain in her lungs, pursed her lips, and said bluntly, "I have a certain number of people in Continent F."

Nie Tao didn't respond: "I just said you won't be helpless..."

Nie Qingru looked at him coldly, and said coldly: "But to be safe, I still need help from the Nie family."

"I've already said..." Nie Tao was about to shirk when he heard that he wanted his help.

Nie Qingru didn't give him this chance, and interrupted him forcefully: "It's okay if you don't want to help, after this time, the Nie family shouldn't ask me for help either! You can do it yourself!"

Nie Tao didn't expect her to say cruel words about severing ties with her natal family because of Nie Qixing, her face was livid and stiff with anger, she clenched her fists, and choked out a sentence for a long time: "You just spoil him! Sooner or later he will make you feel terrible Big disaster, when the time comes, you will know that you will regret it!"

Nie Qingru didn't take his words to heart, and immediately picked up the phone to call Shadow.

In addition, she did not forget to remind Nie Tao: "I let the shadow go there, and you hurry up and arrange your own people to go there."

Nie Tao was forced to mobilize his manpower in Continent f.

Time passed by one minute and one second.

Forty minutes later.

The quiet living room was disturbed by a sudden ringing of the phone.

Nie Qingru answered the phone immediately: "Have you found anyone? How is he? Are you injured?"

There was a loud electrical sound over there.

It can be heard that the signal on the shadow side is not good.

She reluctantly waited for the shadow to reply, when she heard the bad news: "Queen, the only way to the past has been bombed, and we are all trapped here."

"What?" Nie Qing suddenly stood up and walked to the corner: "The road was cut off?"

Shadow's intermittent voice came over the phone: "I met with the Nie family to go to find Qi Shao. When we arrived ten kilometers away, we found that the road had been artificially destroyed, and no one could get through it."

"You can't force it?" Nie Qingru's face was stern, and his eyes were cold.

Obviously, he didn't pay attention to the road that was blown up.

After all, it was just blown off, so it's a big deal not to drive over there.

Unexpectedly, what Shadow said next made her shudder: "I looked at the intersection of that road, and it was densely packed with remote-controlled bombs."

"This kind of bomb is unlikely to be disassembled. Once someone dares to touch it, the person who placed the explosive can press the switch at any time through the monitoring left here."

"So many explosives are enough to flatten a few kilometers around."

Nie Qingru has already imagined the scene that Shadow and the others faced just by relying on his description on the phone. They were stopped before the broken road, and there was a time bomb on the road inside the broken road...

Who dares to pass?

Who dares to touch!

Unless everyone doesn't want to live anymore!

Chapter 3170 Complete blockade of sea, land and air

But even if Shadow and the others had the guts to fight to the death, it was useless!

Once that person presses the switch, everyone who tries to break through will die!

Nie Qingru's face was rarely distorted, and he clenched the phone tightly, unable to make a sound for a long time.

After a long time, she squeezed out a sentence from between her teeth: "Okay, good job, you are worthy of my blood!"

Nie Tao leaned over at this moment and asked her, "What's going on in Continent F?"

Nie Qingru ignored him at all, his face was terribly embarrassed, his eyes were cloudy, and he hung up Shadow's phone immediately after being irritated.

"It's impossible to go by land, you go through the airspace! I want to see how capable she is, and if she has the ability to force me to negotiate terms with her."

Nie Qingru hung up the phone. Suppressing the frantic eyebrows, he walked back to the sofa.

Nie Tao followed her again, chasing after her and asked, "Tell me what's going on in Continent F!"

Nie Qingru sat down angrily, her brows and eyes moved slightly, and before she could tell him, the phone rang again.

She picked it up.

The other end is her power in Continent F: "Queen, we can't fly."

Nie Qingru's eyelids twitched: "Huh? Can't fly?"

The person informed her of the latest situation: "The airspace you mentioned was blocked by the people from the bunker, and our plane was expelled by the other party as soon as it approached."

Bunkers, airspace blockade.

"Huh?" Nie Qing laughed angrily, and the corners of her mouth curled up when she was so angry, but the smile didn't reach her eyes, and the last person appeared in her mind.

Both land and air are blocked.

But there is another way to reach continent f.

Sea area!

Qiao Nian has the ability to block the sea, land and air!

Nie Qingru's face was tense, and he made the last phone call: "Let's talk about cooperation."

Beijing City.

When Lu Zhi received the call, Jian Jin was pushing him to meet Jiang Zongjin.

He made a stop gesture, and changed the direction of the mobile phone placed next to his ear:
"What cooperation?"

"The sea area near Continent F is your sphere of influence, right?"

"Then what?"

"I want you to find someone to help me save someone, and bring me a sentence by the way." Nie Qingru's usual strong and domineering tone came word by word on the other end of the phone, which showed how irritated she was.

Lu Zhicen's thin lips curled into a sneer: "The person you're talking about is Nie Qixing?"

Nie Qingru was very vigilant, and immediately asked him: "How do you know?"

"Don't worry about how I know..." Lu Zhi paused, then said indifferently, "You just need to know that we can't talk about cooperation."

"..."

"Not only can we not talk about cooperation, whether it is the Hermit family or the Nie family today, any force that wants to pass through the territorial waters is dreaming."

"you..."

Lu Zhi's tall nose looks a bit sharp, and his ink-like eyes are as deep as water: "No one can pass through today's sea area!"

Jian Jin quietly watched him talk to Nie Qingru, and then watched him take the phone away, as if he had a very unpleasant quarrel with Nie Qingru.

She moved her mouth: "Boss, you..."

Lu Zhi lowered his eyelids: "Don't think too much, I'm not helping her, I'm helping myself."

"?"

As if he had found a reason to convince himself, Lu Zhi raised his eyelids slightly, his expression more relaxed, and explained to her: "That idiot Nie Qixing used me as a gunman, and I didn't intend to let him go easily. This time it was just a coincidence! It just happened to teach him a lesson, lest he think that relying on Nie Qingru can be domineering, and no one will pay attention to it..."
