

Madam's 3181

Chapter 3181 Make it clear that you want to deliberately disgust sister Nian

Ye Wangchuan didn't answer him directly, but looked at him with deep eyes and said, "I'll take this document."

"You haven't told me who that person is." Nie Mi is obviously very concerned about this matter.

Ye Wangchuan treated him as an elder, thought for a moment, and said: "I can't tell you the identity of that person, which involves the privacy of Nian Nian. She is not willing to say it yet, so I can't tell you. You just need to As long as you know that person did it on purpose, she didn't have much meaning in doing it, it was purely to make Nian Nian unhappy... I just didn't expect that it would affect the traditional music department of Tsinghua University."

Nie Mi frowned slightly: "I'm not saying I'm upset about the tradition, I'm just upset about Nian Nian. She spent a lot of time writing the arrangement. It's the first place, so why don't they just say no. I'm just **** off!"

Although he didn't know who Ye Wangchuan was talking about, he still stood up for Qiao Nian.

However, Nie Mi found something unusual in Ye Wangchuan's cryptic words.

He didn't wait for Ye Wangchuan to answer, he waved his hand again, his face turned pale, and said: "Your matters are more important, don't worry about what I said. Anyway, you are the most important thing, don't be influenced by me..."

"I asked you to come out to say that there is such an incident. Since this incident involves other reasons. I will first submit a protest to the organizing committee and have a look."

"Okay, I'll take this first." Ye Wangchuan held the cowhide roll that Nie Mi gave him in his hand, and although he was still nodding with a slight smile to Nie Mi, the smile was not as deep as his eyes.

He stood at the back door of Tsinghua University and chatted with Nie Mi. Seeing that it was getting late, he politely sent Nie Mi back.

But Nie Mi didn't let him take it off, and quickly called a car to pick it up.

Ye Wangchuan watched him leave, then turned back to the side of the car, opened the door, put the cowhide bag in first, then suppressed the polite smile on his handsome face, and half-closed his eyes.

Take the mobile phone from the car, make a call and go out.

"Go and check the list of winners of the International Arrangement Competition over the years, and the list they are going to announce this year."

Ji Lin is abroad, so he was quite surprised to receive this call: "Master Wang, when did you become so interested in the music industry?"

Ye Wangchuan leaned into the car, fastened his seat belt, very casually: "Go and check."

Ji Lin couldn't ask again: "Okay, I'll check right away."

"Um."

Ye Wangchuan hung up the phone, put the phone aside casually, and saw the leather bag in his hand from the corner of his eye.

He picked up the cowhide bag again and opened it, took out the document from it, and turned to the column on the middle page about the reasons for canceling Qiao Nian's first place.

Focus on that name.

Mrs. Nie.

Nie Qingru was really afraid that Qiao Nian would not be able to see that it was her handwriting, and she even wanted to disgust Qiao Nian at the expense of revealing her real name.

It seems that what happened in Continent F this time greatly stimulated her nerves.

Ye Wangchuan stuffed the document back again, his long black eyelashes drooped, covering the sudden cold fire in his eyes, he put his hands on the steering wheel, turned the car around, and stepped on the accelerator.

The car sped out in the night.

the next day.

The official website of the International Arrangement Competition really can't wait to post this year's list of winners, and I don't know if they did it on purpose.

There is not a single player from country Z on the long list of winners this year.

Qiao Nian, the only one who won the Excellence Award, became very conspicuous, even more dazzling than those who were not on the list.

Chapter 3182 Things fermented as expected

This time Chasing Light will represent Tsinghua University's traditional music in the competition. It was fermented on the school forum and then on the Internet. Many people knew that she was going to participate in the competition.

Most people waited with great anticipation for Qiao Nian to win glory for the country.

The list announced in the morning undoubtedly slapped these anticipating people in the face, and some people became dissatisfied, and directly criticized them on the Internet.

For a while, I will talk about traditional music because it is praised too much.

After a while, I will talk about Qiao Nianpiao, and stop learning.

In short, Qiao Nian's failure to win the prize this time was a mistake in their eyes, and he opened his mouth to scold.

This is not a big deal.

After all, it is a highly professional game.

Many people don't notice this.

But the official website seemed to be doing something deliberately, and then posted an email back to Nie Mi and Tsingda University.

They replied to Nie Midao in the email that the organizers had received their protest appeal, but the result has already come out, and the result is very fair and just. They will not change the result for the consideration of other winners.

There seems to be nothing wrong with this reply.

But if you contact the list of winners they sent out in the morning, this operation will become meaningful.

Nie Mi and Qing University's normal protest process instantly turned into Qiao Nian and Qing University who couldn't afford to lose, and Mr. Nie pestered the organizer for his disrespect, insisting on ranking his own people.

The organizer was overwhelmed by the disturbance and had no choice but to send a reply email.

This comes and goes.

The organizer slapped Nie Mi and Qiao Nian who hadn't shown up.

...

Gu Sansan saw the gossip about Qiao Nian on the Internet early in the morning, so he hurried to find Ye Wangchuan.

He pushed the door open and went in: "Wang Ye, you saw on Weibo..."

The bright study room was full of light, and he thought that someone who was busy with work was talking on the phone.

Gu San shut up by himself, went in lightly, stood aside and waited for Ye Wangchuan to finish the call.

Ye Wangchuan noticed that he rushed in from the outside, raised the corners of his eyes slightly, and did not respond to him immediately, but whispered to the person on the other end of the phone: "I have seen the email they posted... Well, I know you are Protest according to the normal procedure. It's okay, it won't affect her. She is in Continent F and only came back in the afternoon, so she should still be on the plane right now..."

Gu San peeked at him, muttering inwardly.

Who is Master Wang calling?

He sounded like he was talking to Mr. Nie.

Is Miss Qiao coming back this afternoon?

Gu Sanyi thought of the messy things on the Internet, and then thought of Qiao Nian's imminent landing.

As soon as Ms. Qiao's plane landed, she turned on her mobile phone and saw all the bad things. She didn't know how upset she was.

He pursed his lips, and his mood became irritable.

The man behind the desk quickly finished the call, turned around and walked back, put the phone on the table, and said to him in a calm manner: "What's the hurry, I'm still here."

Gu San raised his head to look at him: "Master Wang, do you have a solution?"

Ye Wangchuan pulled out his chair and sat down, turned on the computer, and didn't even bother to lift his eyelids: "It seems a bit unreasonable if someone doesn't satisfy her."

"..." Gu San was in a daze, but thinking of all the bad things on the Internet, he was anxious for Qiao Nian: "But this time the organizer came forward to slap her face, so it's hard for us to explain. After all, arranging music is something that a thousand people can see." There are a thousand Hamlets in this book, we say that Miss Joe is the best, but some people will definitely say that others are better... As long as they use this rhythm, the public opinion will be very unfavorable to Miss Joe."

Chapter 3183 In terms of playing with people's hearts, who is better than Ye Wangchuan

Ye Fanchuan leaned back on the swivel chair and finally looked at him: "Who told you that I need to explain?"

He never played the explaining game.

Explanation is to hand over the right to choose to others and become the passive party.

He has never been used to only taking the initiative.

"I have a better solution to this matter." Ye Wangchuan only said a few words, his eyes were deep and deep, and he didn't explain too much to him.

f continent.

Qiao Nian has a jet lag, it's already afternoon.

She explained the follow-up to Daji, and then she prepared to return to Beijing.

When Qiao Nian came to Continent F, in order to keep a low profile and not attract attention, he took the flight here, so it was obviously unnecessary when he went back.

In addition, F Continent only has two flights to Beijing a day, so she has already missed the last flight today. If she doesn't leave, she will have to wait until noon tomorrow.

Qiao Nian didn't want to waste time, so she acquiesced to Daji's arrangement to go back by his private jet.

If it was not a last resort, Qiao Nian would not want to use his plane, after all, Daji is too famous in Continent F.

This time it is necessary to attract the attention of many people.

Five thirty in the afternoon.

Qiao Nian waved goodbye to Chunlei and got on the plane quickly.

She just boarded the plane.

Then she received a message from Ye Wangchuan.

【Y: What is your Weibo account number. 】

Qiao Nian put the shoulder bag on the side, squinted his eyes, stretched his long legs and folded them together, and casually sent him the account number and password.

It happened that the flight attendant on Daji's plane came over to bring her a blanket. Qiao Nian barely slept last night, so she turned off her phone, and asked the flight attendant for an eye mask. She was going to sleep until she went back to sleep.

At the same time, Beijing City.

Ye Wangchuan has received the account password from the girl.

Qiao Nian was as concise as ever, and he didn't even bother to ask him why he wanted these, so he gave them to him without saying a word.

Ye Wangchuan raised the corners of his mouth, with a happy smile on his face.

Then he looked ahead, put his hands on the keyboard to log in to her Weibo account, and put the things he asked Ji Lincha yesterday plus some more violent pictures, Ye Wangchuan pressed the Enter key, looked at the Weibo was sent out under his nose.

...

Follow the Light: [The latest Weibo. ]

A Weibo without any text or explanation was posted when the public opinion on the Internet was just beginning to ferment. There were 9 pictures on it.

The first one is the organizer's reply to Nie Mi's email yesterday, with Mrs. Nie marked in a red circle in the middle.

The second piece is the arrangement of the traditional musical instruments of various countries that have won awards in the International Arrangement Competition over the years.

The third piece is an interrogation transcript about a man surnamed Nie in country m involved in human trafficking.

The fourth sheet is the abbreviated name QN of the caller in the computer record.

The last four photos are all photos of Nie Qixing going in and out of the clubhouse, some with young women in his arms, Zhang Yin is indispensable among the people around.

The most ruthless one is on the last picture on Weibo. It was a report and interview on the incident on the Internet at that time, and all the headlines were shocking.

What #Young Scientist Behind the Dirty Business#, #Nie Professor's Double-sided Life#, etc.

Among them, the most noticeable one is obviously the surname Nie.

The nine pictures that Ye Wangchuan sent out with Qiao Nian's account did not add a single sentence of explanation, but explained everything in its ins and outs.

The most amazing thing is that he knew that Nie Qingru intentionally made Qiao Nian feel disgusted by this incident, making Qiao Nian unhappy.

He just pushed Nie Qixing out.

Let people who didn't know Nie Qixing notice the nasty things he did before.

Ye Wangchuan not only used Qiao Nian's account to reply to the organizing committee of the International Arrangement Competition on Weibo, but also kindly helped Nie Qingru ferment this matter on ins.

Chapter 3184 These people thought they could control the situation

At the same time, the popularity on Weibo started to ferment.

International Arrangement Competition Organizing Committee, the staff in charge of operations rushed into the judges' office in a hurry, without even knocking on the door.

In the office, apart from a few internationally renowned judges, there are also several men and women in professional suits who are sitting with the judges, apparently discussing something.

The staff recklessly broke in and interrupted their conversation. One of the main persons in charge of the composition contest stood up and scolded angrily: "What are you doing? You are in such a hurry. Who told you to come in? Get out."

"Yes, I'm sorry." The staff didn't expect so many people inside, and they were about to go out, shivering in fright.

He walked to the door, suddenly remembered the purpose of his intrusion, turned around again, and hurriedly said to the group of people: "Team leader, I remembered. I want to report an important matter to you, from country Z." On Weibo..."

"We already know what's going on on Weibo, and we're discussing how to deal with it." He didn't finish his sentence, and the person in charge didn't raise his head. He was obviously upset, and waved him out.

The staff saw that they all knew about the topics that were being fermented on Weibo, so they stopped talking, quietly backed out, and even closed the door for them by the way.

Follow the intruding staff and go out.

In the huge office, only the organizers and several internationally renowned judges were left.

"Tell me, how do you plan to solve the trending searches on Weibo?"

A blond woman with glasses took the lead in attacking, her raised eyebrows were erected, and she demanded an explanation from the organizer very domineeringly.

"We came here to serve as judges for your competition, and now we are ruining ourselves. Don't you guys give us a reasonable explanation?"

The person in charge of the organizer hurriedly pulled her to sit down, and flattered her: "Ms. Ruth, calm down."

"How do you tell me to calm down? We are so old, but because of your organizer's request, our reputation has been ruined for decades!"

The woman's anger was hard to dissipate, and she sat down reluctantly, unable to dissipate her anger.

She immediately said: "If you still can't come up with a solution, we will jointly issue a statement to explain the ins and outs of the matter to the public."

The solution she proposed was also the most effective method discussed by several of the judges after private discussions.

If the organizer cannot give them a satisfactory solution, for their own reputation, they can only push all the blame on the organizer.

The person in charge had a gloomy look on his chubby face, but he still smiled kindly and said: "I understand, don't be too angry."

The faces of the few judges who came to him were not good-looking, and no one paid any attention to him.

The person in charge restrained his smile, straightened his waist slightly, and said in a contemptuous and condescending tone: "Anyway, this matter is only fermented on social platforms in country Z, and its influence is limited. We only need to control public opinion on ins and twitter , Let them toss about on Weibo, as far as international influence is concerned, we have the absolute right to speak!"

Qiao Nian posted 9 photos on Weibo, so what if he used his power for personal gain?

As the person in charge of the organizer of this competition, he didn't take this matter seriously at all.

You must know that both Weibo and ins seem to be social platforms, but the spreadability and influence are very different.

Chapter 3185 Decades of reputation is about to be destroyed

There is a wall between the two platforms, Weibo is upside down, as long as there is no movement on the ins, he doesn't worry about the follow-up processing...

"Our side will immediately use the official account on ins to post another post, saying that the contestants from country Z deliberately smeared the results of the competition. Then we will find a lawyer to post a solemn statement. We will use the big V to forward this statement , lead the conflict to what they can't afford to lose..."

The person in charge is very sure of winning this public opinion war, squinting his small eyes, his expression becoming more arrogant and disdainful: "Ins is our territory, as long as we guide it properly. No matter how much trouble they make on Weibo, they can't turn around ~!"

His public relations method is very common.

I have encountered similar things before, and people on their side have used this method to suppress victims by using their wider voice.

It is easy to turn right and wrong into black and white.

But this time after he finished speaking, the judges present did not show expressions of relief as he expected, but their expressions became more dignified.

"Is this the way you came up with?" The one who spoke was the female musician who first asked him for a solution, and she was also a world-class piano master.

The person in charge asked with a puzzled face: "Ms. Ruth, what's wrong with this?"

—As long as they control the ins, they can block Qiao Nian in a disguised form, there's nothing wrong with it!

The world-renowned female pianist didn't talk nonsense with him, she immediately dug out her ins account on her phone, and threw the phone on the coffee table in front of him with a livid face.

"See for yourself!"

The person in charge picked up the phone in doubt.

While he was looking down at his phone, the female judge said coldly: "When we came to you, we found that the ins had already started to spread. Look at the global trend list yourself! This matter has already been on the list, and the popularity is still going up." Rising! Many people have left messages under my ins account to question me, if this trend continues, I will die with you!"

The person in charge also saw a topic that had been fermented on ins.

Naturally, on the global hot trend list on the right, the topic of going to international competitions is listed in the top ten, and there are red characters that are rising.

The next 2 places in this topic are Nie Qixing's name.

The incident at the scientists club that caused a lot of noise some time ago was brought out again and made a big fuss.

He was sweating coldly on his forehead, and he was not as arrogant and domineering as before. He returned the phone to the female judge with a disheveled face.

"At the beginning, your organizer insisted on canceling the number one place in country Z. Now how do you plan to resolve the public opinion controversy?"

"We don't want to ruin our reputation just because of this game!"

Facing many judges who pressed him.

He wriggled his lips, and it took him a long time to hold back a sentence: "In short, you can't issue a joint statement, Ms. Nie..."

A few judges interrupted him impatiently: "We don't care who the sponsor behind your sponsor is, it's our reputation involved. If you don't let us post it, we won't post it?"

"At that time, you also agreed to cancel the first place result." The person in charge raised his eyes to meet them, and simply tore his face: "Now you want to issue a statement, then we have to issue a statement to admit that it is the result of our discussions..."

He said so.

The faces of several judges became even worse.

But everyone looked at each other, feeling angry and regretful for a moment.

At that time, they unanimously selected the arranger signed by Chasing Light, and later the organizer approached them to discuss canceling the first place score.

Chapter 3186 Nie Qingru thought sister Nian did it

Because of the interests of all parties and the benefits they can actually get, they acquiesced to the other party's black-box operation and hastily sacrificed the first place.

Who knew that there would be such a big commotion when they turned their heads, and their reputation would be ruined.

Compared with his decades of reputation, the previous benefit of the organizer has become so small and ridiculous.

Of course they regretted it very much.

But now they and the organizer are like grasshoppers on the same rope. If the organizer is shameless, they have nothing to do.

The person in charge saw that they were stabilizing them for the time being, and immediately changed his face and said: "I will contact Ms. Nie immediately, she must have a way, don't worry..."

"I hope so!"

Several judges said so.

But my heart was up and down, and only deep regret remained.

Nie Qingru's residence has been extremely lively these two days.

The threshold of the hotel will be broken by all parties.

After Qiao Nian threw Nie Qixing and others into the Wild Wolf Ditch, the land blockade was lifted, and Lu Zhi followed the Fangyin family's people to land on Continent F from the pier.

But when they found the place where Bills said the incident happened, it was already empty, and even the ground was cleaned.

Not to mention Nie Qixing, he couldn't even find anyone with Nie Qixing.

Shadow had no choice but to join hands with the Nie family and the Hidden Family who followed up to conduct a carpet search of the surrounding area.

They worked all night.

I thought that Qiao Nian would still make trouble or obstruct their search, but unexpectedly neither David's people nor the people from the bunker showed up afterwards, let alone stopped them.

Even if this goes well.

Shadow only found Nie Qixing and the accompanying bodyguards an hour ago.

Nie Qixing was sent to the hospital immediately. Biers was the least injured of these people, but he was also in a coma.

One message after another, they put on their wings and flew into the penthouse suite of Nie Qingru in the hotel. Nie Qingru immediately used her huge network to arrange the top doctor for Nie Qixing...

And the bad news isn't over yet.

Nie Qingru only made seven or eight phone calls to transfer nearby experts to Fzhou Hospital, and arranged a private jet to send world-class ophthalmology experts there.

Her assistant came in hurriedly, not daring to raise her head, and said, "Your Majesty, the organizing committee of the International Arrangement Competition is calling for you."

"Why does he want me?" Nie Qingru stayed up all night, her face was covered with a layer of frost, and her tone was very cold. She said so, but she walked over and reached out to take the phone from the assistant.

"What's the matter?" Her tone was extremely cold, mixed with impatience.

"Queen..." The person in charge at the other end was also so anxious that he had no choice but to bear the tremendous pressure and hurriedly told her about the difficult things he encountered.

After listening to his description, Nie Qingru's originally unattractive face completely darkened: "You said they found out about Qixing again?"

She has trouble breathing and speaks in a nasal voice, which shows how angry she is.

Nie Qingru almost laughed angrily.

Ah!

I moved my front foot a little to make Qiao Nian feel disgusted, but she gave me back the whole thing on my back foot!

She didn't believe that Qiao couldn't understand that Mrs. Nie was herself, but she wanted to pour dirty water on Qixing, which was really good!

She is really my good granddaughter!

The slap she slapped in the past, she slapped herself back immediately!

The most hateful thing is that Qixing is still lying in the hospital, so Qiao Nian can be merciless and not recognize it.

Chapter 3187 The whirlwind slaps the face, this step has to be retreated!

She is ruthless, vicious and ruthless!

As expected of the species of Ji Wu Falcon, the direct descendants of the Ji family are as disgusting as rats in the gutter!

"Queen, what are we going to do next? The judges are all coming to ask for an explanation. I'll calm them down temporarily, but if we can't come up with a solution for a long time, they may admit to our secret operations in order to preserve our reputation." The person in charge said cautiously.

Nie Qingru's mind was filled with the anger of Nie Qixing lying in the hospital with serious injuries, and Qiao Nian's anger at throwing a basin of dirty water on his head.

"Empress?"

Until the person in charge called her again.

Nie Qingru seemed to come back to her senses, her brows furrowed, and she couldn't think of a good solution for a while, so she could only say in a hoarse voice, "You find someone to suppress the heat first."

As soon as she finished speaking, she heard the person in charge saying: "Queen, I have already tried the method you said. I found a public relations company, but the public relations company couldn't hold it down. I'm afraid there are still people behind this..."

Nie Qingru's cheek muscles trembled, took a deep breath and said, "I will personally find someone to press the hot search."

The person in charge finally breathed a sigh of relief, and said happily: "Then I will trouble you, old man."

Nie Qingru didn't even want to say a word, just hung up the phone and returned the phone to the assistant with a very gloomy expression.

The assistant didn't dare to leave after getting the phone call, so he could only follow behind her and asked her cautiously: "Queen, is it something on ins?"

Nie Qingru had a severe headache because of this. Hearing this, she suddenly turned her head and narrowed her eyes dangerously: "You also know?"

The assistant was taken aback, and he stood still, not daring to move, and stammered, "This matter is making a big fuss on Instagram, I accidentally saw it..."

Nie Qingru didn't know what to think of, and the expression on her originally cloudy face became more and more condensed, as if it would explode at any time.

Fortunately, when her anger was burning to the peak, she deliberately controlled it and swallowed this breath: "You should contact the ins first to let them cool down internally."

"Okay." The assistant quickly agreed.

Nie Qingru called him to stop him before he ran away. Although he swallowed his anger, he had to do so: "Also let...the organizer issue an apology statement. Take the reason for canceling the first place on yourself, and say that they care too much this time. Western musical instruments lead to a biased final result. It is said that after seeing the controversy, they discussed with the judges and decided to return the first place to Qiao Nian."

Every word she said was squeezed out between her teeth.

If possible, Nie Qingru would not return the things she took, but this time the other party grabbed her tightly.

If she refuses to give in and lets the public opinion ferment, Nie Qixing's difficult situation will only get worse!

This step, she has to let it go!

Nie Qingru has never been so aggrieved before, watching the assistant run out to make arrangements.

She pressed her fingers on her temples, and before she could turn around to catch her breath, someone came in to report to her that people from the Nie family had arrived.

Nie Qingru knew very well that the Nie family came to her at this time, and she was determined to see if Nie Qixing could inherit the Nie family.

"Let them in."

"Yes, Empress."

Even though she didn't sleep all night and was physically and mentally exhausted, she forced herself to brace herself to deal with these people.

After all, if she is not strong, Nie Qixing's future will be even more difficult!

**

Seven hours later.

Qiao Nian's plane landed at Capital International Airport.

Chapter 3188 Sister Nian knows

As soon as she got off the plane, she received a call from Nie Mi.

Qiao Nian pulled off his peaked cap and walked out of the airport, while picking it up: "Hey, Mr. Nie. Do you have something to do with me?"

"I just want to talk about the incident on Weibo, well done!"

Nie Mi has a cheerful tone.

"If you hadn't fought back in a snappy manner, the school and I still don't know how to explain the dirty water thrown by the organizer."

Qiao Nian was confused, his thick black eyelashes were drooping, and he was pinching the phone with his fingers, thinking about how to answer him.

I heard Nie Mi continue to ask her in a happy tone: "By the way, the main committee of the International Arrangement Competition has returned the first place to you. The person in charge of the organizer also called me specifically to ask her I apologize, let me convey the apology for him. How do you think we will speak up next?"

Qiao Nian has already walked to the side of the road.

Looking at a long queue of taxis parked outside the airport, he walked to the nearest car, opened the door and sat in, and said to the driver: "Master, go to Rhine Apartment."

"Okay." The driver turned the steering wheel briskly, turned the car around and drove in the direction she said.

Qiao Nianlen opened half of the car window with his bare hands, letting the outside breeze blow in to clear his head, and then he organized his words and said to Nie Mi: "I probably didn't post the Weibo you mentioned."

She told Nie Mi that before boarding the plane, Ye Wangchuan asked her for the Weibo account password.

Then put his hands on his lap, and continued lazily: "You send me the things sent to you by the main committee of the International Arrangement Competition on WeChat, and I will take a look and reply to you."

At the end, Qiao Nian still politely added: "Do you think it's okay?"

"Of course." Nie Mi understood from her few words, and agreed without saying a word: "You wait for me to download, and I will send it to you."

He said and hung up the phone first.

Qiao Nian put the phone away, opened WeChat, found someone's profile picture, and sent him a message.

Her message has just been sent successfully.

Nie Mi has sorted out all the emails and replies from the International Arrangement Competition and sent them over.

Qiao Nian just took advantage of the time in the car to click on it.

She reads things quickly, almost ten lines at a glance, and it only took five or six minutes to read all the long series of emails + communication replies that Nie Mi sent her.

After reading it, Qiao Nian raised her eyelids slightly, and her black and white eyes were a little cold. She didn't answer Nie Mi in a hurry, but logged on to Weibo and ins, and looked online.

The reaction on the Internet is more intuitive than the email Nie Mi showed her.

Especially on ins.

The reply to Nie Mi and Tsingda University's emails posted on the official website of the International Arrangement Competition half a day ago is still on it and has not been deleted. Just click on the comments and look down, and you can still see many rhythmic comments mocking the people of country Z Can't afford to lose.

"Tsk!" Seeing those obviously discriminatory comments, Qiao Nian's cold eyes became darker and almost burst into flames.

How arrogant these people must be to admit their mistakes and still not delete the ridiculous post they posted on ins.

Don't they think that as long as they return the first place they stole, she, Tsinghua University, and Mr. Nie will happily accept it, secretly laughing as if nothing happened?

Who gave them the confidence to put themselves so high?

Qiao Nian has always had a bad temper, almost frowned, controlled his temper and lowered his eyes to edit the news, just reposting the official news of the International Arrangement Competition on ins.

Chapter 3189 This is completely infamous

Ten seconds later.

It's rare for an ins account signed by QN to update the news, it's still a forwarded news, there's nothing written on it, it simply forwarded the official ins of the International Arrangement Competition, and posted a screenshot of the text message, which was sent to her by the organizer as if pleading apology message.

In the text message, they humbly explained the reason for canceling the first place, saying that it was the result of their own work mistakes and narrow-mindedness.

Qiao Nian just pasted the screenshot of the text message, along with the words forwarded to ins: There is no game that can't afford to lose, only character that can't afford to lose. I don't care for first place in an unfair competition!

After she posted the ins, she logged out.

Turning his head and typing on his phone, he sent a message back to Nie Mi, roughly speaking about his own reply, and did not intend to accept the first place again.

Nie Mi quickly responded to her message, saying that he thought the same as her.

Qiao Nian scanned the news of his coming back, turned off the dim light on the screen, closed his eyes and rested, and waited until he went back first...

The organizing committee of the International Arrangement Competition was not so easy.

Qiao Nian's reply on ins made a lot of noise.

She has become famous on ins after several previous professional competitions, and many people know that this account is a treasure trove.

Popularity is not low.

Qiao Nian just didn't bother to play Instagram once in 1800s, and fans usually don't have to forward it, so she seems very quiet.

She seldom updates once a year, and was quickly spread by a small group of fans who followed her account.

In the text message sent by the organizing committee of the International Arrangement Competition she posted, the person in charge is really licking.

It's completely different from their official ins attitude.

After going back and forth, they are extraordinarily stingy.

Coupled with Qiao Nian's domineering "not rare", it pushed the International Arrangement Competition, an authoritative competition in the music circle, to the forefront.

[Professional competitions also engage in shady scenes, so how is that different from reality shows on TV. That's ridiculous! I seriously doubt their professionalism. ]

[What kind of pheasant game is this? This is the first time I heard about this game...]

[This competition is very authoritative in the industry, I didn't expect there to be such an inside story, tsk tsk. ]

[This competition can be canceled...]

The various comments on ins are getting worse and worse.

The reputation of this international composition competition almost stinks.

As an authoritative competition, if something like this happens, even if it can continue to be held in the future, it will lose its original status.

Things have come to this point.

The judges couldn't hold back, and once again blocked the door and asked the organizer to reduce the heat of this matter as soon as possible.

The person in charge was anxious to follow around like ants on a hot pot, deeply regretting his cleverness on social accounts.

But things have become like this.

He contacted Qing University immediately, but was pushed back by Liang Conglin.

The person in charge had no choice but to contact Nie Mi.

Nie Mi answered the phone.

The person in charge of the organizer put on a more correct attitude this time, nodding and bowing his head to intercede with the person on the other end of the phone: "Master Nie, can you ask your people to delete the news on Instagram first, and we will issue a draft immediately Explain the ins and outs of the matter, and sincerely apologize to you and Ms. Qiao..."

"That's not necessary anymore."

Nie Mi has always had a bad temper.

Before Qiao Nian replied to him, he hadn't noticed the organizer's two sets of operations on Instagram and Weibo. After he figured out that the other party didn't apologize sincerely at all, but was still playing tricks, trying to discredit Qing University and himself, he naturally won't give a good face.

Chapter 3190 The face is smashed

"Master Nie..." The other party was still licking his face and trying to intercede.

In a blink of an eye, Nie Mi interrupted: "We will not participate in your competitions again, and we don't want to give your first place to whoever you like."

The person in charge looked a little embarrassed, trying to save him: "Nie..."

Beep beep.

The sound of hanging up the phone came from the other end of the phone.

He was so angry that he fell on his back, but he had to walk back with his mobile phone, his eyelids twitching.

When Nie Mi hung up his phone, he also logged into his ins account and forwarded Qiao Nian's ins. He only said one sentence— 【Art has no borders, but people have their own strengths and weaknesses! 】

Just one sentence, full of cultural heritage and ridicule, directly smashed the official face of the International Arrangement Competition ins!

The judges were making too much noise, and the person in charge couldn't calm down, so he had to bite the bullet and contact the Hermit Family.

Nie Qingru is already on the plane to f continent.

She received a call from the person in charge, and after listening to what the other person said, her unsmooth breathing became more and more severe, her face was heavy and water dripped out, her eyes were half-closed, and her eyes were sharp: "I said it will be resolved, and it will be resolved. How many times do you need me to tell you? If those judges continue to make trouble with you, tell them, if anyone wants to mess around, just continue to fight with me. If they want to continue messing around in the industry, just wait for the news. Otherwise, I will block it A person is easier than crushing an ant!"

Qiao Nian has F continent forces behind her, Ye Wangchuan and Ji's family, so she doesn't move.

But for those ordinary people, she wants to make life worse than death, but she just lifts her finger. It depends on her mood!

The person in charge of the organizer knew her identity, so he followed her order to cancel Qiao Nian's first place without a second thought. Now he felt Nie Qingru's anger, so he didn't dare to keep talking, and sweated profusely to think of a way to get along with her. The judges said.

...

On the plane.

Nie Tao, Nie Xia and other Nie family members are all there.

They went to Continent F with Nie Qingru to visit Nie Qixing this time, and take a look at Nie Qixing's physical condition by the way.

Nie's family members noticed that Nie Qingru was very angry.

Nie Tao's eyes flickered slightly, and he took the initiative to go over, hypocritically said: "What's the matter? Is it because of the popularity on the Internet?"

Nie Qingru's complexion was not good, and she let out a gloomy 'hmm'.

Nie Tao sighed and said, "Because of Qixing's incident, our hidden family has almost been pushed to the front of the stage. Many people who didn't know us before also know our existence. This is not a good phenomenon. The purpose of the aristocratic family has always been low-key, I heard that the Archbishop and the others have begun to dissatisfy..."

Nie Qingru's complexion was even worse, her eyes were dark and dark.

As the person with the highest status in the hermit family, she naturally knows that the archbishop's dissatisfaction mentioned by Nie Tao is actually not only the neutral faction headed by the archbishop, but the conservative faction also has complaints about her recent disturbances. Radicals headed by the Leonard family...

But following Leonard's sudden death, the radicals did not stand up and clearly stand by her side as before.

This time the attitude of the Leonard family is very ambiguous, it seems that they are still hers, but from their unclear statement, it can be seen that they have begun to show mercy to Qiao Nian, and because of the real murderer, Leonard The family also publicly expressed their gratitude to Qiao Nian...

This is not a good sign!
