

Madam's 3191

Chapter 3191 Sister Nian: I just want to see you regret it

Nie Qingru was physically and mentally exhausted under internal and external troubles, and was not in the mood to deal with him. He kept a straight face the whole time, lowered his head and fiddled with his phone.

Seeing that she didn't even give him face, Nie Tao was upset, but he couldn't tear up his face, and suppressed his unhappiness, and seemed to sigh: "I heard that Qi Xing was seriously injured this time. If you can't keep it, I hope it's not true, otherwise, wouldn't he become blind."

This sigh undoubtedly hit Nie Qingru's lungs. She raised her head coldly, looked at Nie Tao and said, "Even if he loses one eye, he is still the best candidate for the successor of the Nie family. If you want to gloat, first think about what people outside are doing." Pity you for having a blind heir!"

Nie Tao's smile froze on his lips, and his expression became ugly.

Nie Qingru saw that he couldn't smile as he wished, so he looked gloomy, turned his face away, and continued to stare at his mobile phone. After a while, he sent a message.

**

Qiao Nian returned to the Rhine, just went upstairs to her room, put down the black bag on her shoulder, and the phone in her pocket vibrated in a blink of an eye.

She was just about to take a shower, so she took out her phone and glanced down.

It is a hidden number that does not display the address, with a sinister tone, only a short sentence: [What do you want. ]

Qiao Nian was not interested at first, but after seeing this text message without a signature or address, he suddenly became interested.

Holding the phone with a cold white hand, he edited a message and went back, then took the phone to the bedside to charge.

I went into the bathroom to take a shower.

at the same time.

On the plane, Nie Qingru soon received a new message.

She was a little surprised. After all, before sending that text message, Nie Qingru never thought that Qiao Nian would reply to her.

But since Qiao Nian replied, she opened the message blankly, and her face completely darkened at that time.

【Q: I don't want to do anything about it. I just want to see how you regret not being at the beginning~ Seeing you being tormented by regret, unable to sleep day and night, in agony, and spending the rest of your life reminiscing about the past, reminiscing if I didn't make that choice at the beginning...】

Qiao Nian didn't say what 'that choice' was in the reply, but Nie Qingru knew she was talking about seasons just by reading the text message.

Nie Qingru's brows twitched fiercely, her eyes were completely clouded, and her voice trembled with anger: "Oh, a disobedient and unfilial thing!"

She said so, but her body didn't read back the past news to Qiao.

Because Nie Qingru is now very clear that neither Qiao Nian nor the person next to her takes her grandmother seriously.

Since she can't pretend to be an elder, it doesn't make sense to go on.

Nie Qingru put the phone away, raised her eyes to scan the faces of the Nie family members, and took a panoramic view of the thoughts of these people, and didn't bother to go around with them, so she simply spoke clearly.

"When you get to Continent F, you just have to look at the person, and don't say things you shouldn't say in front of him."

"You just need to figure out one thing."

"... Qixing is my chosen successor, unless I am no longer a member of the Nie family, there is no room for change in this matter!"

What she said was categorical.

Nie Tao's heart went cold.

If Nie Qixing is really disabled, she will also ask the Nie family to let a notorious disabled be the patriarch unconditionally? Does she have the Nie family in her eyes? Or do you only have Nie Qixing in your heart?

The rest of the Nie family also had weird expressions because of Nie Qingru's overbearing request. Everyone didn't say anything, and there were not a few people who were not convinced in their hearts.

Chapter 3192 You still know that you are incompetent, not too incompetent

In an atmosphere of silence, the plane finally landed at F continent airport.

Nie Qingru got off the plane first and left in a car alone.

The rest of the Nie family followed behind her, and followed her in the five cars behind, and went to the hospital where Nie Qixing was.

Nie Qixing was seriously injured this time, and the shadow did not have time to send him to a higher-level hospital for treatment, so he had to be temporarily sent to a nearby hospital like a clinic.

However, with the expert doctors arranged by Nie Qingru, although the environment of the hospital is too simple, the medical conditions are not bad.

When Nie Qingru and his party arrived outside the hospital in a mighty manner, the shadow had already led people to wait outside.

The driver opened the door for Nie Qingru.

Follow Nie Qing and get off the bus.

Shadow quickly lowered his head and said respectfully, "Queen, it's because the subordinates are incompetent."

"You still know that you are incompetent, not too incompetent!"

Nie Qingru walked past him, without looking at him out of the corner of his eye, he walked inside: "Which ward is Qixing in, take me there."

"...yes."

Shadow raised his head, blushing blushed across his rigid face, pursed his lower lip, and trotted forward to lead the way.

f Continent was not originally a place of prosperity, it was mixed with fish and dragons, and there were all kinds of religions and nine streams, so conflicts and violent incidents often occurred.

It was only in the past two years that the situation was jointly controlled by the diamond tycoon and the dark castle. Continent f gradually formed a stable situation, and everyone's life was easier.

Because f continent is not considered rich, and the hospital Nie Qixing stayed in this time is not considered a good hospital in f continent, the facilities and equipment of this ordinary hospital naturally cannot catch Nie Qingru's eyes.

She followed the shadow.

Passing by along the way, I saw the outdated wards and outdated examination equipment in the hospital... His complexion became worse and worse. Fortunately, he still had reason and did not explode.

Finally, Shadow led everyone to stop outside a passable ward, lowered his head and explained to the arrogant woman: "When we found Young Master Qi, he was seriously injured. Under the circumstances at that time, I couldn't send Young Master Qi back to m country or long-distance moving him, the only hospital nearby is not bad, so I can only settle Qishao here temporarily. I have already had people change the sheets and bedding in the ward, but the others are not available for the time being. There is a way to replace it with a new one."

Nie Qingru is used to being aloof. It is true that she has not seen such a down-to-earth hospital environment for a long time, and heard the explanation from the shadow.

She collected herself, responded with a slumped face, but didn't blame anything, and walked towards the ward: "I'll go in and have a look, you are waiting for me outside."

She spoke.

The bodyguards of the Hermit family immediately guarded both sides of the door of the ward, silently blocking the way of the rest of the Nie family, raised their eyes slightly, and said in a stern tone, "Everyone wait until the queen comes out before going in."

Nie Tao and the others' unattractive expressions suddenly became even uglier...

In the ward.

Nie Qixing was lying on a pure white hospital bed, with various equipment and instruments placed on the left and right sides, and the machines were beeping.

One sound sounded like a beating on Nie Qingru's heart.

In addition to Nie Qixing, there were two other experts discussing the condition around the hospital bed. Seeing someone coming in from the outside, the discussion between the two of them stopped abruptly.

Nie Qingru's aura is very strong, even if the two of them don't know her identity, they can still feel her innate majesty.

Watching her walk to the hospital bed and stand there looking at Nie Qixing lying unconscious on the hospital bed for a while, but didn't dare to disturb her.

Chapter 3193 I'm sorry, I was thrown to feed the dog by Miss Nian long ago

The two are exchanging glances, wanting to ask each other if they know the identity of the person who came in.

at this time.

Nie Qingru, who was standing in front of the hospital bed, suddenly asked without looking back: "How is he doing?"

The question was so sudden that both experts were startled by her.

"Um, this..."

The two were very embarrassed.

Nie Qingru seemed to see the expressions on their faces without looking back, and said quietly: "If you have something to say, just say it."

One of the Mediterranean experts summoned up the courage to speak: "The patient's condition is very dangerous. He is in a coma caused by excessive blood loss and excessive fright. It is not yet known when he will wake up. In addition, there are some wolf bites on his body." This wound is easier to deal with, we have given him a tetanus shot, and it will be fine when his high fever subsides..."

"I don't want to know about this." Nie Qingru finally looked back at them, his eyes were calm and unwavering, and there was no sadness or anger: "You just need to answer two questions for me. First, will he die? Second, his eyes are still Is there any help?"

The two experts looked at each other, really not sure who the woman in front of them was from the patient.

They looked pale, and answered Nie Qingru's first question hesitantly: "The patient's life is not in danger."

As for the second...

Both experts felt that the question Nie Qingru asked was...strange.

Almost ridiculous.

They don't know how to answer.

Nie Qingru heard that Nie Qixing's life would not be in danger, and the chill on her body subsided a lot, and then asked the second question.

"So his eyes are still cured?"

The atmosphere in the ward was gloomy and terrifying.

The two experts looked at me and I looked at you, both of them were embarrassed to speak.

In the end, the expert with the Mediterranean hairstyle came forward to answer her: "Well... this family member, it's not that we don't want to treat the patient's eyes, but his eyes have no cure. When we rushed here, we asked your people specifically. He His right eye...has been...eaten by a dog."

Not only are there wild wolves in the wild wolf ditch, but there are also hungry wild dogs wandering around.

Nie Qixing is very unfortunate.

The right eye that was gouged out was thrown into the wild wolf ditch by Qiao Nian, where it had been eaten by dogs long ago.

"Even if we are ophthalmologists, we can't do restoration surgery without eyes... So, I'm very sorry."

Nie Qingru's palms were already clenched together when she heard the doctor say that Qiao Nian threw Nie Qixing's eyes to the dog, tightly clutching them!

Palms are covered with sticky sweat.

Extreme anger filled her chest and ignited the fire deep in her pupils. It was only because of decades of dignity and reason that pulled her, that she did not make a gaffe.

Even so, Nie Qingru's expression is really not good-looking: "You said his eyes were eaten by dogs?"

Every word weighs more than a thousand catties.

The expert she was staring at was sweating profusely from his hairless bald head. He was so hot that he was sweating profusely. He nodded in horror: "That's the truth."

The patient's right eye was eaten by dogs, and they couldn't help it even if they had supernatural powers.

Nie Qingru closed her eyes fiercely, forcing herself to calm down: "You guys go out."

The two experts took their belongings and left the ward in a hurry without any delay as if they were being pardoned.

...

Outside.

Nie's family saw the doctor coming out.

Nie Tao stopped one of them and asked him about the situation inside: "Doctor, how are the patients inside?"

Chapter 3194 Ms. Qiao's knowledge is equal to my master's knowledge

Unfortunately, it was the bald Mediterranean expert who was caught by him. Hearing this, he quickly pulled out his white coat and hurriedly said: "I have already told the people inside you about the specific situation. You family members of the patients should discuss it in private."

"..." Nie Tao frowned.

The expert didn't want to get too involved with them, so he immediately made excuses and drove away: "I still have something to do, so let's go first."

He was turning back with his brows tightly furrowed, when he heard Nie Qingru, the bodyguard who was guarding the door, tell them, "The queen said you can go in."

F continent dark fort base camp.

Mo Dong has already received the news one step ahead, and is making a location call to Daji.

Daji was upset when he received his internal call, and spoke in a cold tone: "Brother, we were at odds not long ago, have you been in touch too frequently recently? Although you are not in an antagonistic relationship, it seems that you don't need to talk to each other every day. It's about making a phone call~"

Since Sun told him that the master behind the dark castle is that young master Ye, the people from the dark castle have been harassing him from time to time.

Recently, it has become more extreme, and it has evolved into a phone call every day.

It's like falling in love with TM!

Everyone is a big man, a straight man who is five big and three thick, he calls himself with a smile every day, making Daji disgusting enough, and really doesn't want to give him a good face.

"Tell me, what's going on today?"

"Don't be so angry. Sooner or later, everyone will be a family~" Mo Dong said with a good temper, smiling.

"Say it quickly, don't tell me I'll hang up." Daji was once again provoked by his "family" to black face, wishing to drag him out of the phone line and cut off his tongue.

Mo Dong heard his angry tone, and knew that he would do what he said, so he quickly said seriously: "The Nie family has come to Continent F."

"?" Daji really restrained the impatience in her brows and eyes: "Is Nie Qingru here?"

Mo Dong exchanged his information with him: "Our eyeliner is still not sure whether the old hag is there, but I think that the people of the Nie family have come, so it is very likely that she is here."

Daji immediately knew what was going on, and without talking nonsense, she immediately said, "I'll tell Sun."

When Mo Dong heard Qiao's name, his tone immediately relaxed again: "That's fine, you tell Miss Qiao, and I won't tell Master Wang. Anyway, the two of them are together at any time, and if Miss Qiao knows it, Lord Wang knows."

"hehe!"

Daji's face darkened again, she sneered at him twice, and said with a half smile: "Hang up."

He hung up Mo Dong's phone and after thinking about it, he still talked to Qiao Nian and made a call.

at dusk.

Qiao Nian woke up after taking a shower and fell asleep, just in time to receive a call from Daji, she hung up the phone and went downstairs.

The living room is brightly lit.

It's rare that Qin Si didn't come.

Gu San was the first to spot her as usual, and greeted her warmly: "Miss Qiao, are you awake? Do you want a cup of coffee or tea? I'll make it for you."

Qiao Nian came down the stairs with her hands on her swollen temples just after waking up, and she saw the man sitting on the sofa with her eyes.

Zhilan Yushu, a humble gentleman.

She took a glance, and mist rose from her dark eyes. Because she was too good-looking, she just took a second look, and then naturally walked to the other side of the sofa and sat down: "I drink white water."

"Then I'll get it for you." Gu San knew that she liked to drink ice water, so he immediately went to the refrigerator to get water.

Chapter 3195 just made her see reality clearly

Qiao Nian took advantage of his time to get water, glanced at the man opposite, and said to him in a hoarse voice, "Do you know that Nie Qingru has gone to Continent F?"

Ye Wangchuan actually saw her coming down at the first time, but seeing that she was sleepy and irritable before she woke up, he didn't disturb her.

Hearing Qiao Nian take the initiative to talk to him now, his eyes drooped slightly, and he pondered for a moment and asked, "When did it happen?"

"You don't know?" Qiao Nian was also quite surprised, and rarely looked at him with strange eyes. Then he paused, and then said lazily, "Daji told me. He said that the people from your bunker discovered Nie's plane first. I thought you knew about it."

Ye Wangchuan's eyelids twitched, and he could figure out what was going on with his fingernails.

There was still a slight curling smile on his lips, but it was a bit of a fake smile: "I don't know, I just heard."

"Nie Qingru is here?" Ye Wangchuan quickly collected his emotions, raised his eyelids and asked the most critical question.

This Daji didn't say anything.

Qiao Nian's black and white pupils met his, "I guess she's here."

Then she said the reason for her guess.

"I received a text message from her not long after I got off the plane, and she asked me what I wanted in the text message." She said in a very light tone, as if Nie Qingru was not her grandmother, but a stranger: "So I guess she went to f Zhou, seeing Nie Qixing's injury, he couldn't swallow his breath, so he went crazy looking for me."

Nie Qingru's behavior is no different from going crazy.

After all, they have reached the point where they are now, and there is no so-called family relationship at all.

Nie Qingru still uses her identity to suppress others, which is somewhat ridiculous.

From this, we can also see how angry Nie Qingru was, that's why he sent a questioning text message with his head burning.

But no matter how angry or crazy she is, Qiao Nian will never take her emotions to heart: "Daji said that the people from the Hidden World family found Nie Qixing as soon as they found Nie Qixing. Good sister."

A good sister is not a good grandmother, let alone a good mother.

This is the most ridiculous place!

Qiao Nian continued to analyze the current situation with him: "Nation M and the Hidden Family are still as quiet as a chicken, so it can be seen that Nie Qing has spent all his money to suppress these people.

Otherwise, Nie Qixing has lost his qualifications as an heir due to the current situation. would want such an infamous heir."

"Isn't this better?" Ye Wangchuan heard the waves under her calm narration, took her words, and folded her long and slender legs.

Raised her jaw, half-closed her pupils, and said, "The more she insists on keeping Nie Qixing in spite of opposition, the easier it is for Nie Qixing to get involved and attack her."

"Since she firmly believes that Nie Qixing is the unique and excellent successor she has cultivated, let her open her eyes to see the reality and see clearly whether the person she is proud of makes her proud or disappointed..."

Nie Qingru took the already excellent Ji Qing as a stain on her life, and mercilessly erased it.

Instead, he held **** like Nie Qixing to a high position and regarded it as a treasure.

Then let reality slap her in the face and let her understand who is the stain in her life!

Qiao said a lazy 'En', as if he didn't want to continue this topic.

Seeing that she had just woken up, Ye Wangchuan bent down and picked up the fruit knife on the table, then picked up an apple and began to peel it carefully, while saying to the **** the sofa: "By the way, Mr. Nie and Principal Liang have a dinner date. Do you want to go at noon tomorrow?"

Chapter 3196 She is a lunatic, there is nothing she can't do

Qiao Nian looked at the apple handed in front of him, stretched out his hand slowly, his eyelids were still tired, and his voice was hoarse: "What's the matter?"

"I don't know, Mr. Nie didn't say."

After Ye Wangchuan handed her the apple, he wiped his hands with a paper towel, then turned his head and gently gave her two paper towels and put them on hand.

Looked up and asked her: "When do you plan to return to Independent Island? The institute is urging, and the dean asked me several times."

Feng Yu also called Qiao Nian not long ago, and asked this question on the phone.

The apple in Qiao Nian's mouth suddenly became tasteless, just as Gu San came over with a bottle of ice water from the refrigerator: "Miss Qiao, your water."

He handed the water to the girl, and turned his head as if remembering something: "Master Wang, the old man asked if you would go back for dinner tonight? Missy is cooking."

Ye Wangchuan raised his eyelids and saw the faint marks under the girl's eyelids, pursed his lower lip, and said, "It's too late to tell him, let's talk about it another day."

Gu San nodded after thinking about it: "Yes, I'll call Missy back."

He said and walked away.

Qiao Nianzhen put down the apple in his hand, wiped his hands, picked up the water at hand, unscrewed the bottle cap, and drank a couple of gulps.

The Evian just taken out of the refrigerator cools into the throat, slightly relieving the stagnant manic depression in the chest.

She took the water away, put away her idle temperament, and sat up a little bit: "Nie Qingru won't let it go."

"Chi." Ye Wangchuan lazily narrowed his eyes, and said coolly, "Then let her come."

Qiao Nian glanced at him: "I don't know what she's going to do next... Originally, I wanted to go back to Independent Continent in a few days, but just now I thought about where she would start if she wanted to take revenge on me. Independent Continent is not Her territory..."

"Of course, Beijing is not her territory." The girl continued with a gentle voice, "But compared to the complicated situation in Independent Continent, Beijing is obviously more conducive to her development... There are people I care about here."

Ye Wangchuan only understood what she was worried about after hearing the last sentence.

"Are you afraid that she will attack Mr. Jiang and the others like Nie Qixing?"

"Tsk, she's a lunatic, there's nothing she can't do." Qiao Nian brows were dry and cold: "If she dares to come..."

She didn't finish the rest of the sentence.

Ye Wangchuan knew it well.

If Nie Qingru dares to come, she will definitely let Nie Qingru come and go!

He didn't want Qiao Nian to be drawn too much by Nie Qingru's gaze, and to be immersed in the hostility that Nie Qingru wanted her to be immersed in.

So Ye Wangchuan smiled, and suddenly mentioned it in a joking tone: "Qin Si's birthday is a few days away, since you won't go back, are you going?"

"His birthday?" Qiao Nian was really attracted by what he mentioned, and she put her hand on her forehead, feeling a little headache: "Why didn't I hear him mention it before."

"Xiaosheng, there is no big deal, just have a meal with relatives and friends in a small area." Ye Wangchuan's tone was soothing, lazy and casual.

Actually, Qin Si didn't decide whether to do it in a small area or a big one, but he said so, so he can only celebrate his birthday in a small area.

"It's in his family's villa in the suburbs. The environment there is good, the air is relatively fresh, and there is a private hot spring, where you can go to relax. Shall we go?"

"..."

Qiao Nian glanced at him slowly, not knowing what he was thinking.

After several seconds, she seemed to have no opinion: "Go."

Ye Wangchuan knew she would agree, bent down and picked up the mobile phone on the coffee table and said, "I'll tell Qin Si."

Chapter 3197 Qin Si: I didn't even know I was having a birthday...

Two minutes later.

Qin Si received a WeChat message that he wanted to celebrate his birthday on a small scale, and even the time and place had been set, all he had to do was make a phone call.

He was lying at home and was stuffed with dog food, and had to hurry up to make an appointment.

Because Qiao Nian was going to go at that time, he cleverly selected a few familiar people. In addition, in order to make his birthday more authentic, he also selected a few people from less familiar circles. Seems like a more honest and sensible person...

He called people one by one.

The circles in Beijing knew that he was going to celebrate his birthday. Bo Jingxing even sent him a special message asking him that he hadn't seen him celebrating his birthday for thousands of years. Why did Xiaosheng make such a fuss this time...

Qin Si only rolled his eyes and answered him two words: [Dog abuse! ]

Bo Jingxing: [? ]

Bo Jingxing: [Which dog? ]

...Just these two single dogs!

Qin Si twitched the corners of his mouth when he saw his reply to his message. He was going to send out the edited message, but then changed his mind.

Delete the edited words in the box, and resend a WeChat.

Ask him to be on time that day.

After all, Bao Jingxing had to find a reason not to come, that day Master Wang definitely caught him as a single dog and abused him, after all, it wasn't the first time that person was wronged!

After arranging all the people who should be called, he went back to the living room, sat on the sofa, turned his eyes to Ye Fanchuan and sent a message to ask: "I have made all the arrangements, and I will take the liberty to ask you~ Qiao My sister's 'friend' from the illegal area is also in Beijing, should we invite them to play together? "

Who doesn't know that Tian Chen is Wang Ye's rival in love, Qin Si finally felt a little better after seeing the successful message.

But he didn't have enough fun, so he sent back a message.

Qin Si clicked on it.

The WeChat account signed by Y arrived as scheduled.

'Let me ask her for you. '

Qin Si was full of question marks, and pulled back to look at the things he had sent.

There are still those words on it, that's right.

What do you mean?

He really wants to invite Lu Zhi?

Qin Si scratched his head, feeling confused, thinking that Ye Wangchuan had changed his temper, and he was so easy to talk about today.

Turning the head, the phone beeped twice again.

He saw that there was a new message below.

'By the way, my aunt came to me some time ago and asked me to practice you more. I thought about it, Mo Dong has been short of someone recently. After this birthday, you pack up your luggage and go to Continent F to stay for two months, and study with him~'

Qin Si saw F Zhou, Mo Dong... cold sweat dripping down his forehead, his handsome face turned pale, so he hurriedly sent an emoji begging for mercy.

I immediately knelt down and admitted my mistake.

Said that he shouldn't be skinny, and swore to God that he would not invite Lu Zhi.

It's a pity that there was no movement on Ye Wangchuan's end for a long time, as if he had put his phone aside...

Ye Wangchuan did reply to the message that intentionally disturbed his mentality, put his phone aside and did not play, and raised his head to mention this matter to the girl.

"Qin Si said he wanted to invite his friends from the illegal area to play together, did you call them?"

"Um?"

Qiao Nian didn't realize it for a while, and raised her head slightly, with a surprised expression on her face, as if saying that Qin Si's head was caught by the door.

Ye Wangchuan was very generous, and said: "He also helped you a lot this time, and I planned to treat him to dinner."

The image of him and Lu Zhi eating face to face quickly appeared in Qiao Nian's mind, and the string suddenly tightened, causing pain in the back of his head, and he immediately said: "Don't."

Ye Wangchuan raised his eyes to look at her, looking like a handsome nobleman.

Chapter 3198 Nie Qixing's situation is not optimistic

Qiao Nian felt a headache when he saw his calm appearance, and pressed his temple: "There is no need to eat."

They get together and don't know what will happen.

Both of them are not fuel-efficient lamps anyway.

One... I don't know what to think about all day long, and one thinks too much all day long!

Qiao Nian felt that both of them had bugs.

But Ye Wangchuan reminded her of this incident.

Lu Zhi is still in Beijing.

This time I helped myself a lot.

Because of emotion and reason, she couldn't pretend she didn't see it anymore, so she thought about it and said, "I'll ask him."

"He might not come." She picked up the phone, just in time to say that Cao Cao was here, and Jian Jin sent her a message.

Qiao Nian opened it smoothly, then leaned against the side of the sofa with half-closed eyes, and pursed Cen Bo's lips, "Chun Lei was a little bit harsh. Nie Qingru was looking for an orthopedic expert for Nie Qixing, and he asked for Lu Zhi's head. It seems that Nie Qixing's legs are also will be handicapped."

This beam is getting bigger.

But she just talked about it, and didn't feel relieved.

From the moment she sealed off Continent F and moved Nie Qixing, she had a deadly feud with Nie Qingru, not a little bit less.

After all, she threw Nie Qixing's eyes to the dogs.

The next day at noon, Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan went to have a meal with Nie Mi and Liang Conglin.

During the period, Liang Conglin said that several judges of the International Arrangement Competition found him through channels and wanted to apologize to Qiao Nian.

Qiao Nian originally estimated that he was looking for him for the International Arrangement Competition.

So it was not too surprising to hear Liang Conglin mention it during the dinner, and naturally rejected the request from the judges to fly over to apologize to her face to face.

"There is no need to apologize."

"What I want to say is already on ins, what's more, they came here just to apologize in person?"

Qiao Nian's last sentence completely stopped Liang Conglin's words.

He is not a fool, of course he understands why these highly respected judges have to come over to apologize.

In addition to apologizing, their purpose is to hope that Qiao Nian will speak for them on social media.

Even if Qiao Nian doesn't speak for them, they still want to take a group photo to honor their shaky reputation... This is the reason for their apology.

To put it bluntly, what forces them to apologize is not the recognition of their mistakes, but the drive of interests.

"I see. I'll pass on your thoughts to them later." Liang Conglin knew how to stop when he saw a deal, and immediately stopped talking.

Ye Wangchuan only glanced at him indifferently, poured a cup of tea gracefully and handed it to Nie Mi beside him: "Taste this tea."

Liang Conglin obviously found that he didn't seem to have...

He somewhat regretted that he had spoken for those judges, but he inevitably had some unavoidable human sophistication in this position.

Ye Wangchuan wanted to let him go, but he had no choice but to accept it with a wry smile.

After finishing the meal, Qiao Nian left the restaurant and received a message from Continent F. She went to the side of the road to make a phone call.

"Boss, Nie Qixing's situation doesn't seem very optimistic." Daji was holding a porcelain cup and calling her to update her on the latest situation in Continent F after a night.

"The hospital where he lived sent many experts over overnight, and even the latest medical equipment was airlifted over."

Daji's voice was full of laughter, which seemed to be part of the excitement: "It seems that Nie Qixing hasn't woken up yet."

"En." Qiao Nian seemed indifferent, not interested in whether Nie Qixing was awake or not.

Chapter 3199 What a coincidence, there is a small pill on the black market that can save

Daji simply talked about something she was more interested in: "Didn't the Nie family also come to Continent F? What's interesting is that the head of the Nie family doesn't seem to have the same heart with Nie Qingru. This is because the queen at home is busy with things in the hospital. He privately contacted many forces to make friends. He... also gave me a gift by the way."

You must know that they were the murderers who caused Nie Qixing to lie on the hospital bed this time. With Nie Qingru's domineering character, I'm afraid that he would want to peel them off to relieve their hatred.

Her eldest brother secretly sent gifts to her door behind her back, which is so interesting!

"Oh? What did he give you?" Qiao Nian really became interested.

Daji glanced at the gift box he threw in the corner, and said dismissively: "What else? The head of the Nie family probably thinks that I am someone who has never seen the world. He gave me some jewelry and diamonds, and An antique wine glass in modern gold."

Nie Tao, as a member of the hidden family, may be used to being arrogant with Nie Qingru, and it is not easy to be willing to give gifts.

However, it is not uncommon for him to pile up a lot of these things into hills.

Daji didn't take it seriously, and continued to read to Qiao in a deep voice: "But from his actions, it can be seen that the queen of the hermit family has not had an easy two days."

"Help me continue to stare at her." The girl's voice was light but with an undeniable dignity: "As for the gift from Nie's family... Hang him first, let's see what he wants to do!"

Daji thought the same way: "OK."

He took a sip of the boiled water in the enamel cup, his brows and eyes stretched: "Anyway, I have news to tell you."

...

It is similar to what Daji said.

The situation of Nie Qingru these two days has been really bad.

Although Nie Qixing didn't wake up the day she got off the plane, she was barely in a stable condition and her life was not in danger.

However, at night, Nie Qixing suddenly developed a high fever, and all functions of his body began to decline rapidly, and he was on the verge of dying.

Nie Qingru asked experts to rescue him overnight.

The man was rescued from an emergency, but the experts came out and said that he was not conscious of survival. If things continue like this, there may still be a possibility of infection.

Nie Qingru had no choice but to transfer a group of more famous doctors from M state, and even spent a lot of money to fly in advanced medical equipment that is not available here.

It is said that so many experts and professional instruments can save Nie Qixing's life.

But God doesn't seem to let her go.

In the afternoon, Nie Qixing had a fever again.

From 3:00 p.m., the nurse checked that his body temperature was abnormal. The infusion failed to lower the temperature, but the fever got worse and worse until 6:00 p.m.

Nie Qixing has a high fever of 38°.

Accompanied by a high fever came a series of complications, and a team of experts from several different fields immediately held a meeting to study his condition.

After discussing for a long time, I still haven't come up with a feasible plan.

Someone proposed a medicine, which gave Nie Qingru a glimmer of hope.

"I've seen a kind of medicine before. It's a small white pill that circulates on the black market. It has no clear effect, but it can enhance the body's functions. Maybe it will be useful."

"Where can I buy the medicine you're talking about?" Nie Qingru hasn't had a good rest for the past two days, her voice is inevitably hoarse and rustling, and she sounds extremely sinister.

The person who proposed this drug was an infection specialist. Seeing the situation, he could only say cautiously: "This drug used to be circulated on the black market, and now it is relatively rare, but if you look for it, you should be able to find it..."

Chapter 3200 The probability of getting the medicine from Sister Nian is 0

Nie Qingru raised her chin and told the people under her command: "Go and check."

...

The little pills on the black market are famous.

After a while, the person she sent to investigate came back.

"Queen, we found it."

"Huh? Where?"

"This kind of small pill was circulated on the market before, but since a year ago, this small pill has not appeared on the black market. Everyone knows the magic of this medicine, so people who have this medicine are very low-key. Hidden, it is difficult to find a specific buyer." He said softly.

Nie Qingru furrowed his brows fiercely, his cold eyes fell on him, and he said impatiently: "If you can't find a buyer, you don't know how to check the seller?! Even this needs me to teach you."

"It's... because..." The man's face turned pale, cold sweat broke out on his back, he was still stuttering, unable to speak for a long time.

Seeing that the expression on Nie Qingru's face became more and more impatient, more and more serious.

"I'll do it." Shadow stepped forward, motioning for the man to back down.

"...Yes Yes."

The man felt relieved, glanced at the shadow gratefully, pursed his lips and hid aside.

Nie Qingru saw a subtlety in the interaction between the two, narrowed her eyes dangerously, raised her hand to adjust the shawl on her body, and said slowly: "Tell me, what's going on."

"yes."

Shadow didn't go around in circles: "Queen, we found out that the seller of the small pill is... Qiao Nian."

He really didn't play around.

It's just that this is obviously the last name Nie Qingru wants to hear.

"is her?"

Nie Qingru was unavoidably surprised.

Shadow continued to lower his head: "Yes. Do you still remember the miraculous doctor that Tianchen found for you when you had a migraine?"

"I thought she just obtained a false identity to save Lu Zhi." Nie Qingru remained expressionless.

She remembered it.

That was the first time Qiao Nian saw her.

She smelled the smell of the Ji family's evil species from those rebellious eyes at a glance, the arrogant arrogance that the Ji family can't hide, is vividly displayed in the young girl!

Compared to the season she was born with.

In a way, Qiao Nian is more like Ji Wu Falcon.

That kind of indifference, who looks at the world coldly, and who cares about every penny, who dares to provoke her, will definitely return it a hundred times, and refuses to suffer for a long time.

"That's not a false identity." Seeing her complexion turn sour, Shadow took a breath and said in a low voice, "She is indeed a well-known miracle doctor around the city on the black market. And the reason why this miracle doctor is so famous on the black market is because She knows how to make medicines. She is close friends with Zhong Liuliu from the Pharmacy Association, some of the medicines she made are praised by Zhongliu Liu... That little pill is one of them..."

This is really not good news.

Nie Qingru put her hands on her forehead, closed her eyes and thought for a while: "I asked her directly, how likely is it that she will give it to me?"

Shadow peeked at her expression, a little distressed but helpless: "...the probability is 0."

Nie Qingru opened her eyes and looked at him with strong and arrogant eyes: "0?"

Facing her questioning, Ying Ying had to tell the truth: "As far as the relationship between you and her is concerned, it's okay if she doesn't know. We may still get the medicine through other channels. If we let her know that only this medicine can save Qi If there is less, she may block our drug purchase channels without hesitation."

It's not the scariest thing.
