

Madam's 3261

Chapter 3261 Slapped in the face on the spot, your suggestion is double standard?

It wasn't that she didn't expect Master Cheng and the others to take out the Czar, but she recognized at a glance that the simulated attack on the screen was a ship of the Hidden World Family.

She narrowed her eyes almost immediately, and looked straight at the girl - Qiao Nian!

Nie Qingru knew who was behind the computer simulation without having to guess.

Besides her, looking at the entire state of M, who else has the courage to be so provocative in front of her?

There are people all around.

Everyone's attention is focused on the simulated images played repeatedly on the LED screen, or they are listening to Master Cheng's calm and powerful explanation.

No one noticed her at all.

Nie Qingru still suppressed the anger that rushed to her throat, clenched the hand at her side, took a deep breath, and said softly: "Isn't it good to study this kind of weapon?"

Everyone was listening carefully to Master Cheng's explanation, and everyone including Mr. Oban was asking questions about the Tsar.

Only her abrupt sentence made everyone's eyes fall on her.

After all, Nie Qingru is someone who has seen big scenes. Faced with so many attentions, she gracefully took off the velvet gloves on her hands and handed them to the people around her. Lethal weapons should be studied less."

Master Cheng didn't expect that she would criticize him from this angle, his brows were clustered, and he didn't know how to argue with her for a while.

Qiao Nian knew that some people would not keep watching quietly, so she closed her eyes half-empty, and said lazily, "How do I remember that the Hidden World Family has done a lot of research?"

Nie Qingru also expected that she would really dare to confront her in public, and she would still defend an outsider, so her face darkened immediately: "I just think everyone should advocate less research on this kind of weapon."

"I don't think it's too late to study it now, isn't it?" Qiao Nian didn't give her face, and said frivolously: "Oh, your suggestion is based on double standards. Only you can study it, and no one else should. Research?"

The people present were all human beings. From the moment Nie Qingru spoke, everyone knew in their hearts that she was finding fault.

I didn't expect Qiao Nian to dare to tell the truth and expose Nie Qingru's hypocrisy.

She doesn't even turn a corner, just be more tactful~

Nie Qingru is the queen of the hermit family after all. Qiao Nian's attitude of not fearing death really surprised many people.

The scene was awkward for a while.

No one dared to say anything.

At this moment, Auburn stood up, frowned first, then stood up straight and said to Nie Qingru in a deep voice: "All the weapons in the weapon exhibition are lethal, since they are weapons, there is no need to argue about them. It doesn't make sense or make sense."

Someone in the corner answered quietly, and said in a low voice: "That's right, I came to the weapons exhibition and asked that the weapons be non-lethal. This is not taking off my pants and farting. It's unnecessary..."

"Slow down, you don't want to live!" The people around him hurriedly covered their mouths.

However, the voices of the two were still heard by many people.

Those who heard it couldn't help showing abusive expressions on their faces, their eyes glanced at Nie Qingru intentionally or unintentionally, and some whispered: "I think this is because they are afraid of getting high scores? Tsk, the Hidden World family is so low? Don't even have this measure?"

Someone kindly gave him science popularization: "There is a reason for this, I will tell you, it is..."

Nie Qixing's injured leg has not received good treatment, and it is still in pain, unable to get out of the wheelchair.

Chapter 3262 Can Mr. Auburn answer my questions?

He was sitting in a wheelchair and heard talking about himself from all directions.

Those topics about his clubhouse, lying, obtaining laboratory qualifications in violation of regulations have been brought up again, and some people have directly complained about the clubhouse.

It was obvious that the hidden family was protecting him.

There were also people who laughed at him for trying to get in touch with Mr. Auburn at first, pretending to be familiar, but he was quickly slapped in the face. Mr. Auburn knew Qiao Nian better!

These words, every single word, undoubtedly rubbed salt on his wounds.

Nie Qixing's face turned pale immediately, and he firmly grasped the armrest of the wheelchair with the back of his hand so hard that his knuckles bulged and turned white.

Why is this happening...

Isn't the electromagnetic gun enough to prove his ability? Why did everything change when Qiao Nian appeared!

Nie Qingru originally wanted to stand on the moral high ground and interfere with the results of the competition, but Mr. Auburn took the initiative to speak for Qiao Nian and the others.

The other judges naturally saw his attitude.

After Master Cheng and the others finished their introduction, and when the judges scored, everyone thought about and wrote down their own scores.

As soon as the Tsar comes out, who will fight.

The final result was no surprise, all 8 judges gave all S grades, and even Mr. Auburn, who has always been known for his strictness, also showed S grades.

S.

The result is out!

It is impossible for someone to exceed this achievement in today's weapons exhibition.

That's why Master Cheng led Beijing to win the first place in this year's weapons exhibition!

When the results came out, someone took the lead in applauding.

Master Cheng was also excited beyond words, but he restrained himself and chatted with Mr. Auburn and several other judges.

Only Li Xin in the crowd had an extremely ugly expression. He looked at the exhibition hall in Beijing in disbelief, and said in a daze, "How is it possible? How could they get the first place?"

And it's still S!

Looking at the weapon exhibition, except for Xie Tingyun who won this result 20 years ago, no one has ever won the S result.

If there is a grade gap between A and B.

The S is undoubtedly above all the grades, and it is the only one.

It's like Nie Qixing's grades of A+ are not bad, only half a point behind Master Cheng, but this half point may not be surpassed by him in his entire life...

This is the chasm!

The gap between heaven and earth!

Nie Qingru never wanted to see this kind of achievement, so she turned and left the exhibition hall as soon as the weapons exhibition ended.

Just ran into Mr. Auburn and Daisy who were also leaving.

The two arrived at the hotel at the same time, and the cars were next to each other.

Naturally, we will bump into each other when we walk.

Daisy saw Nie Qingru leaving alone, she still greeted with a smile as before: "Aunt Nie."

Nie Qingru's eyebrows twitched when she saw them. She bent down to get into the car, but stopped, after all, she couldn't hold back the breath in her heart.

Ask the white-haired old man face to face: "Mr. Auburn, I really don't understand one thing. Why do you insist on helping Beijing to step down on us?"

She didn't hide her relationship with Nie Qixing any more. She squinted her eyes very sharply, and said bluntly: "I admit that the Tsar is more amazing, but weapons in this area have existed for a long time. And the electromagnetic technology developed by Qixing Shooting is new territory, and you gave it an A-."

"I don't understand what your scoring criteria are?"

Nie Qingru was extremely domineering, staring straight at the old man and said, "Can Mr. Auburn answer my questions?"

Chapter 3263 You must know the answer, that person is Ji Qing!

Daisy could feel the unusual atmosphere on her body, and awkwardly pulled the corners of her mouth to smooth things over: "Aunt Nie, my grandpa..."

"The elders are talking, and the children don't interrupt." Mr. Auburn interrupted her lightly, looked directly at Nie Qingru's tough eyes, and said plainly: "I never put my personal emotions in the scoring, and I gave him an A-no Personal reasons, but I saw a railgun twenty years ago."

20 years ago...

Nie Qingru was extremely shocked: "How is it possible?!"

Mr. Auburn shook his head and took a step forward. He was not as aggressive as her, but his words seemed to cut out his heart: "I don't have to lie to you."

"..."

"As early as twenty years ago, someone showed me the semi-finished electromagnetic gun. No, it should be said that 80% of the electromagnetic gun has been completed. She also told me about her idea and ultimate goal. If she finishes If it is done, the finished product should be even more perfect than what I saw in the exhibition hall today!"

"Who?" Nie Qingru had a faint thought in his heart.

As soon as this thought came to her mind, it was as if a big stone had been pressed on her heart, making it difficult for her to breathe, and she was unwilling to think deeply.

Old Mr. Auburn made no secret of his disgust and contempt for her, but he also told her: "Ji Qing."

"!" Nie Qingru heard the blurred shadow in her heart become reality, her body swayed, and she barely stood still with her hands on the car door.

Did Ji Qing get involved in electromagnetic guns twenty years ago?

How did she never know this?

"She is the most talented student I have ever seen, much more talented than the successor you have selected now. It's a pity that she is too soft-tempered and cares too much about other people's opinions."

Auburn was also considered one of the few insiders back then. Seeing her face suddenly pale by an inch without any sympathy, he just felt extremely ridiculous.

He didn't want to blame who was right and who was wrong, but said with a sigh: "If she hadn't died early, she would have been famous all over the world for her talent and become a leading master. The achievement will not be worse than mine, and should still be above me ...It's just a pity that few people nowadays have heard of her name."

Some people take fish eyes as pearls, but throw the pearls away.

Auburn looked at her mockingly, looked away for a long time, and concluded lightly: "So I didn't mix personal feelings when I scored."

"If I mixed my feelings into it, I wouldn't give him a single point! He doesn't even deserve an F from me!"

Nie Qingru's usual decent expression finally showed a tendency to crack. Frowning, he raised his voice and said, "Mr. Auburn, I respect your identity, and I hope you can respect Qixing."

Auburn did not take her warning seriously, and said bluntly: "Be a man before you do it, and the look in his eyes is not right. The queen should take care of it if she has time! She is in her thirties, and it is impossible to rely entirely on my sister, otherwise it will never be possible to convince people."

Nie Qingru's eardrums were buzzing, she held her breath, and stood there with an embarrassed expression.

Old Mr. Auburn opened the car door, and said to her indifferently: "I won't stay in State M for a long time, so I won't talk about it if there are too many, let's take a step first."

"..." Nie Qingru was still holding on to the car door, without speaking.

He has already called his granddaughter: "Daisy, let's go."

Daisy came back to her senses, waited for him to get in the car, and then turned around to get in the car, without saying hello to Nie Qingru before leaving.

Nie Qingru watched the black car drive past her and drove away!

Chapter 3264 Completely dumbfounded now

"Empress, do you want to teach him a lesson?" Shadow appeared beside her at some point, looking in the direction the car was leaving, and asked in a low voice.

Nie Qingru suppressed the anger in her heart, got into the car with a blank face, and said coldly in the car: "He is Xie Tingyun's mentor, and he is inextricably linked with the Nan family of Independent Island. He is also a highly respected master, we don't need to turn against him over a trivial matter..."

She said this, but her heart was actually blocked.

Shadow held the door for her, hesitated for a moment, looked at her and said, "Queen, what Mr. Auburn said about Miss Ji Qing's research on electromagnetic guns..."

Nie Qingru leaned on the car with her tense body like a twilight bow, lowered her eyelids, and her dark eyebrows gave off a feeling of inhumanity.

It took a while.

She said faintly: "I won't believe something without evidence!"

Shadow looked at her blankly: "But with the prestige of Mr. Auburn, he shouldn't lie..."

Nie Qingru supported her wide hat brim with her hand, graceful and elegant, but she was extremely stubborn about this matter: "If she had built the electromagnetic gun a long time ago, why didn't she tell me? She never said What has happened shows that it was not successful at all!"

"But..."

"That old man in Auburn didn't say anything. At that time, Ji Qing showed him only 80% of the semi-finished product, and it must have failed later."

Under normal circumstances, 80% of the finished product has been completed and it is difficult to fail.

But Shadow had seen her attitude, so he stopped talking and said considerately: "Queen, let me close the car door for you."

The black car door covered Nie Qingru's indifferent and haughty face, and the black car drove past the shadow immediately...

Shadow stood where he was and watched the rear of the car disappear from his field of vision, and then he gathered his mood and walked to the exhibition hall.

Young Master Qi is still inside.

The queen left Qi Shao and left, he couldn't ignore it.

...

"how come?"

"Why is this the result?"

"This is impossible."

Qiao Nian and their results came out for quite a while, but Li Xin was still standing on the spot in disbelief, muttering about the impossibility in his mouth.

Can't even look at the bearded man next to him, and slapped him on the back trying to wake him up: "The result has come out. They did take the first place on the 18th!"

Li Xin mechanically turned his head to look at him, and said, "They won the first place?"

The bearded man frowned, and woke him up in a cold voice: "Li Xin, it's pointless for you to keep entangled like this. Manly man, if you lose, you lose! They didn't ask you to kneel or something... just tell them Sorry, then do whatever you want."

When Li Xin made the bet, he didn't give Qiao Nian any leeway. He was sure that he would win, so he opened his mouth and asked Qiao Nian to kneel down and admit his mistake.

Compared to the conditions he proposed, Qiao Nianti's conditions are not harsh.

So now that he loses, no one will sympathize with him.

Li Xin's face was livid, and he waved his hand away the bearded man beside him with great reaction, and said viciously, "Why should I apologize?! I..."

The bearded man was caught off guard and staggered by him. Seeing that he couldn't afford to lose, he immediately shook his hand and left: "It's up to you!"

"Don't go!" Seeing that he left him to leave, Li Xin yelled in panic again.

It's a pity that the bearded man didn't have any intention of staying, and he walked away without looking back, leaving him alone in place.

Chapter 3265 Do you want to renege on your debt at this time?

Because of Li Xin's sudden loud and shoving behavior, the surrounding audience who were still immersed in Qiao Nian's S grade noticed him.

Immediately, someone remembered the bet he had made with Qiao Nian.

"Isn't this Li Xin from No. 3?"

"It's him."

"Tsk, he thought he was going to win before, so he opened his mouth and let people kneel down to him. Now it's all right, there's a good show to watch."

The whispering discussions around were extremely unfriendly.

Li Xin could feel more and more attention on him around him, those eyes were full of joking, as if he had stripped naked and left him here.

His face became paler and uglier.

finally.

He looked up and saw the girl wearing a peaked cap said something to Master Cheng and the others, then turned and walked in his direction.

Li Xin's heart was pounding, and his throat seemed to be stuffed with cotton. When someone came over, he opened his mouth with a red face, and squeezed out a sentence: "Gong, congratulations."

Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows.

Didn't see what he was going to sing.

However, Li Xin seemed to have found the backbone, and opened his mouth shamelessly in front of everyone: "I was impulsive and said bad things before. Don't take it to your heart... I think I am a few years older than you. Count it as Brother Ni. This time I did it out of the ordinary, so I will treat you to dinner another day. How about it?"

People around him could hear his voice.

"Is he trying to cheat?"

"This Li Xin is too shameless, isn't he?"

"How dare he tell others that he is my brother, tsk!"

Many people around couldn't understand him, and the voice of complaining didn't restrain much, and harsh words got into his ears one after another.

Li Xin himself was embarrassed, his clenched palms were filled with hot sweat, sticky and uncomfortable.

Of course he knows how shameless what he is doing now, but compared to these, he just wants to deny this gamble.

"Your last name is Joe?"

Desperately trying to change the subject, he stared at Qiao Nian's nameplate, as if he was just looking at someone, and just noticed Qiao Nian's name.

"Qiao Nian? Let me tell you to read."

"I heard that your friend also called you Niannian..."

Li Xin struggled to squeeze out a smile, but the smile was too fake and stiff.

He didn't want to talk to himself here like a clown, but amidst his barrage of questions, the girl just watched his performance with a half-smile.

When he was exhausted, he really didn't know how to break up.

Qiao Niancai lifted his peaked cap, put one hand in his pocket, and raised his eyebrows: "Is it finished?"

Li Xin was quite embarrassed: "Uh..."

"Do you mean to renege on the debt?" She actually asked directly.

Li Xin was not only embarrassed, but also tightened his toes.

Standing there flushed and waving his hands, he said excitedly, "How can this be called repudiation, everyone is just joking."

He took a bite back and became addicted: "Yes, it was just a joke. Who knows you took it seriously. Is it necessary to take it seriously?"

Qiao Nian's brows and eyes were dry, and he became impatient looking at him.

Just at this time, Ye Wangchuan finished talking with Master Cheng, turned around to see them, walked behind the girl, patted the * the shoulder, raised his chin slightly, and noticed Li Xin in front of him: "What are you talking about? "

Qiao Nian replied lazily: "He bet with me, but he didn't want to admit it when he lost."

Li Xin blushed even more, pretending to retort loudly: "I said it all just as a joke!"

Chapter 3266 The master just treats him like a monkey to play

Ye Wangchuan saw Li Xin who was dancing, and then looked at the extremely impatient expression on Qiao Nian's face, raised his thin lips, and looked at Li Xin wantonly with his deep eyes: "Why tell him so much, just block it!" ."

block?

Li Xin froze for a moment.

Immediately felt that Ye Wangchuan was bragging.

What ability does Beijing have to block him?

He is not from the No. 9 Institute of Beijing.

He just moved his lips to laugh.

Who knew that Ye Wangchuan looked at him, Shi Shiran said: "Follow Dean Feng, he should be happy to ban this scum."

The corners of Li Xin's mouth were raised, and his lips trembled again when he was half-pull, a bad premonition came to his mind.

Qin Si came over to listen to it at this time, and answered with a grin: "Wang Ye, are you talking about Dean Feng Yu?"

Feng Yu!

President of the First Research Institute of Independent Continent.

The exhibition hall is that big.

Qin Si's voice is not low.

In this way, there are many people who pay attention to this side, and many people have heard the name he mentioned.

Many people looked at the very low-key girl with surprised eyes. The girl just came here as an entourage this time.

If she hadn't had a conflict with Li Xin, few people would have paid attention to her.

But it's Mr. Auburn again, and Dean Feng again...

Many people have a big question mark in their minds - who is she!

"Let me talk." Ye Wangchuan took out his mobile phone at this moment, as if to make a call.

Qin Si glanced at Li Xin whose shoulders were trembling, gloated and said, "Indeed, let's just ban this kind of person, so as not to endanger the society."

Li Xin's heart was fluctuating, and he was really not sure whether Qiao Nian knew Feng Yu or not. After all, from the beginning to the end, the girls just listened to Qin Si and the others without expressing their views.

But a strong sense of uneasiness surged in his heart, and Li Xin couldn't bear it after all. Before Ye Wangchuan got on the phone, he tremblingly said: "I apologize!"

Ye Wangchuan paused when he dialed the phone, and squinted at the past.

Li Xin himself was scared to death: "Don't hit me, I apologize!"

Apology + not participating in the competition for three years, it is just that you can't climb up within three years.

But if the First Research Institute came forward to block him.

That's not a three-year problem.

Ye Wangchuan raised his thin lips: "Are you sure?"

Li Xin nodded like pecking at rice, fearing that the other party would go back on his word: "Sure, I apologize, and just follow the previous bet."

He didn't pretend to be stupid any more, and ran towards Master Zhuncheng in a hurry, afraid that Ye Wangchuan would not give him a chance to apologize if he took a step too late.

Wait for him to run away.

Qiao Nian saw sharply that someone had put down the phone without the number he said, but hadn't even turned on the fingerprint lock on the screen. He completely played Li Xin like a monkey.

Bull B.

She rubbed her temples and said to Ye Wangchuan: "Let's go back first."

at this time.

A figure stood in front of the two of them.

Qiao Nian looked up and saw Nie Qixing's sullen and gloomy face. He looked away and said, "Good dogs don't get in the way."

Nie Qixing's eyes darkened, "I have something to ask you."

Qiao Nian didn't intend to talk to him at all, just bypassed him and left.

This attitude of not taking people seriously angered Nie Qixing. He supported the wheelchair with both hands and struggled to stand up, with blue veins on his forehead: "Qiao Nian, don't you feel guilty for causing me like this?!"

Before, there were many spectators standing around.

These guys haven't quite spread out yet.

As soon as Li Xin left, Nie Qixing came to look for Qiao Nian on the back, and those who were planning to leave did not.

Chapter 3267 The queen has gone

Now hearing Nie Qixing's hoarse questioning, everyone was stunned.

"What does he mean? I heard him mean that he is in a wheelchair and has something to do with the entourage of Beijing City?"

"Who is this person? Didn't Nie Qixing have the backing of the hidden family?"

"She actually has the ability to make Nie Qixing into what he is now? Could it be a mistake?"

Whispering discussions reached Li Xin not far away, who was struggling with how to apologize to Master Cheng. He turned his head and saw Nie Qixing falling back into the wheelchair because of his weakness. Saved his face, took Master Cheng's hand and apologized solemnly.

the other side.

Nie Qixing fell back into the wheelchair and watched the girl walk away.

There was a thin layer of sweat on his forehead, but his whole face was extremely distorted and sinister. His eyes were fixed on the direction the girl was leaving. That look was like a poisonous snake lurking in the dark, ready to pounce and bite at any time.

Qiao Nian walked ahead, but Ye Wangchuan didn't leave right away.

Before he left, he noticed Nie Qixing's unusual eyes, paused his footsteps, and warned him softly: "I advise you not to use your brains, otherwise the Hermit Family may not be able to keep you."

Nie Qixing heard him talking to himself, only to notice that Ye Wangchuan hadn't left.

He lowered his eyes, and then sneered: "Oh? Are you so confident that the hidden family can't keep me?"

Ye Fanchuan glanced across his face, and landed on his injured foot again, with a half-smile on his lips: "The facts are obvious!"

Nie Qixing has been extremely sensitive to the sight of others looking at his legs and eyes since he became disabled, and he immediately noticed where Ye Wangchuan was looking.

He seemed to be stepped on by a seven-inch poisonous snake. He had to retract his fangs, and his expression became gloomy and silent.

Ye Fanchuan himself didn't intend to talk to him, but he just saw that his eyes were a little strange, so he stopped to warn him.

Since the other party understood what he meant, he didn't stay any longer, followed the direction Qiao Nian left, and left quickly.

"Qi Shao."

At this time, the shadow came up and found Nie Qixing sitting in the middle of the exhibition hall, and quickly came over to push the wheelchair for him.

Nie Qixing suppressed the haze in his eyes, and asked softly, "Where's my sister?"

Yang Ying guessed that he would ask Nie Qingru, pursed his lower lip, and told him silently: "The empress has left first."

Nie Qixing clenched his hands on his lap, his gloomy expression became mocking and painful, and was soon replaced by more resentment.

He stopped talking, letting the shadow push him out of the crowd.

Outside the elevator entrance.

The girl who walked out of the exhibition hall not far away was looking down at her phone, as if she was replying to a message.

Ye Wangchuan walked over, stopped beside her, looked sideways and said: "Be careful recently, Nie Qixing doesn't seem to want to let it go."

Qiao Nian just finished replying to Guan Yan's news, hummed, seemed to come back to his senses, looked at him with black and white eyes, and said calmly: "Nie Qingru will take good care of him, at least he won't let him provoke me during this period of time."

The truth is this truth.

Ye Wangchuan always has a feeling that things are not so simple.

However, he didn't find out what Nie Qixing was doing behind the scenes for the time being, and it was just a psychological effect, so he didn't continue this topic. Just looking down, I want to ask her when she will return to Beijing...

Qiao Nian suddenly received a call at this time.

Chapter 3268 I found a woman

"I found a woman." The other party said as soon as he came up.

Qiao Nianting's brows were tightly clenched, and her tone was frivolous: "Huh?"

"No." The other party probably realized that what he said was too ambiguous, and quickly added: "This woman is a bit special."

Just as the elevator went down to the 1st floor, it opened in front of them.

Qiao Nian hadn't finished the call yet, so she didn't plan to go up for the time being, so she held the phone by her ear, turned her head and pointed to the side, and said to Ye Wangchuan, "I'm going to answer the call."

Ye Wangchuan's figure is clear and handsome, with autumn water in his eyebrows and eyes, he leans against the wall very gracefully and lazily, nodding his head slightly, signaling her to go first.

Qiao Nian walked away and finished the call first.

at this time.

A young man with colorfully dyed hair was squatting on the side of the road at the corner of a high-end hotel in M state. The man had a face of mixed race.

It's a pity that he is dressed in sloppy clothes, similar to a homeless man on the side of the road, no one will pay special attention to what his face looks like.

The man doesn't care about the luxury cars and rich people passing by on this street from time to time. He holds a bucket of instant noodles in one hand and a fork for instant noodles in the other. Looking at the instant noodles, he was still muttering something.

at this time.

A black Bentley parked in front of the hotel.

Soon the hotel parking staff took the car keys from the man who got off the car, and drove the car to a special parking lot.

The 'homeless man' who had been squatting on the side of the road waiting for instant noodles seemed to feel something at this moment, and looked up at the man who straightened his suit and was about to go in.

Probably because his eyes are too red.

Coupled with his outlandish clothes and gorgeous bird feathers, he still attracted the attention of those who were about to enter.

Out of the corner of his eye, Zhou Zheng glanced at the person on the side of the road who was looking at him 'stupidly', subconsciously frowned, and immediately asked the hotel staff: "Who is that person?"

The doorman in charge of opening the door of the hotel followed his gaze and immediately asked, "Is there a homeless person around here?"

This is the most famous commercial street in M state.

There are many hotels and fine dining restaurants nearby.

So there are often homeless wandering around, begging or rummaging through trash cans...

The people in the hotel are no strangers to it.

"Guest, if you mind, I will notify the security guard to drive him away later." The doorman glanced at the 'tramp' and said very disdainfully.

Zhou Zheng raised his hand to adjust the watch on his wrist, with no expression on his face, as he walked inside, he said coldly: "It's an eyesore, get rid of it!"

Wait for him to completely disappear at the entrance of the hotel.

The 'tramp' looked back, and was about to sit down cross-legged again to eat the instant noodles he had just made, when out of the corner of his eye, he noticed that the security guard was walking towards him aggressively.

"Fuck!"

"Someone came to chase me out."

"It must be that brat! The dog looks like a human, why is it so doggy?"

"Boss, wait for me first."

He had to throw the fork into the instant noodle bucket first, and immediately ran in the opposite direction with his own instant noodles.

He ran fast.

Within a few steps, I ran across the road.

The opposite side of the road was no longer under the control of the hotel, and the hotel security had to stand where he had just squatted and stare blankly.

The 'tramp' whistled triumphantly towards the opposite side, found a tree to lean against to catch his breath, then picked up the phone, and looked down at the phone that was still on the phone.

The boss didn't hang up.

Chapter 3269 Are people in the hermit family all sick?

So he grabbed his mobile phone and complained: "Is everyone in the hermit family sick? Labor and management are so far away from him to eat instant noodles, and he will ask someone to drive me away."

Fault!

With such a long distance, can the smell of instant noodles still stick to their suits?

"Have you met Nie Qixing?" The girl's voice was calm, without any emotional ups and downs, just like the cool water in a deep pool flowing in summer.

'The Homeless Man' shook his head, returned his attention, glanced at the bucket noodles he couldn't eat, was so angry that he gritted his teeth and squeezed out: "No, he's just a dog."

"That's why I said that the members of the Hidden World family are pulling something one by one, every dog's leg is pulling like this."

Actually called the security guards to come over and chase him away.

The key point is that the security guards all held electric batons in their hands, as if they were going to beat him up.

Thinking of this, the slender waist control shook his head again, and the colorful bird feathers on his head became more and more conspicuous: "Boss, next time you do this kind of work, can you call Daji? You're so * off! I might as well go to the red light district of Fzhou Selling ass. At least I can lie down and earn money, so I won't even be able to eat a bowl of instant noodles."

"Do you still want the source code of Iris?" Qiao Nian knew him very well, and blocked all his complaints with just one simple sentence.

Iris verification system.

sun is a small program that I got tired of playing a long time ago.

But this source code is valuable!

Now the most advanced iris verification system technology is in the hands of Sun. As long as there is this source code, companies and individuals using this technology will have to pay protection fees.

is the so-called technology royalty.

Every year is a lot of money.

Sure enough.

The slender-waisted control smiles openly and no longer complains, and says, "I want to!"

Qiao Nian didn't want to argue with the two of them, so he cut to the point in a concise manner:
"The person you just mentioned...?"

"Ah, what are you talking about." Slender waist control immediately remembered, put away the unreliable expression on his face, and said seriously: "I followed them for several days and found that there was a woman hiding beside Nie Qixing..."

At Nie Qixing's age and status, it's normal to have a woman by his side.

There are many hypocrites in this circle, not to mention people like Nie Qixing who have been hammered into hypocrites.

Just raising a woman.

He didn't care at first.

Until he accidentally saw that woman's face today.

Slender Waist Control only made this call to Qiao Nian.

"I secretly took a picture and will send it to you later."

He didn't even know how to describe it. Anyway, this thing was weird. The woman Nie Qixing hid was weird.

"You will understand after looking at it."

After he finished speaking vaguely, he turned around and sent the photos he secretly took.

...

Slim Waist Control himself is a computer proficient master. Although the photo taken at the time was blurry, after his technical processing, the photo was clear enough to see the woman's face clearly.

Qiao Nian opened the photo as soon as she received it, and squinted her eyes for a moment, but she didn't realize it at the time...until Slender Waist Control asked: "Boss, do you think the woman in the photo looks a bit like you?" ah?"

—Kind of like her!

Qiao Nian reacted suddenly, and immediately realized why she had a strange sense of familiarity when she saw the woman in the photo.

"I thought it was weird at the time." Slender Waist Control said to himself: "This Nie Qixing has become a big enemy with you, and he still hides such a person, really NM pervert!"

Qiao Nian's eyes darkened, but she just said, "She doesn't look like me."

Chapter 3270 Sister Nian: She is not imitating me

"Well..."

Slender waist control took the phone away again, zoomed in on the photo he took and looked at it. The facial features of the woman in the photo are definitely not as stunning as Sun, but at least there are five points similar.

Ordinary people, even if they are three points similar, it is fate.

This one has five points.

Doesn't it sound like it?

"Her eyes don't look like yours, but her nose, mouth, and face look very similar. The key is that she is imitating your temperament."

"No, she didn't imitate me either."

The woman in the photo is obviously imitating another person.

Qiao Nian didn't explain so much to him, he just said: "You help me keep watching this way, if there is anything, send me a message."

She seems to have discovered a secret.

This secret may not even be known to Nie Qingru.

Qiao Nian told him how to keep an eye on him, and also told him to be careful outside, and to call himself if something happened, and if he didn't get through, ask him to call Ye Wangchuan.

Slender waist controller responded one by one, but finally couldn't help muttering: "Boss, don't you trust him too much?"

He was sent by Qiao Nian to teach Ye Qichen before, and he stayed in Ye's old house for more than half a year. Only a few days ago, Qiao Nian called him to M state to perform the task.

He knew the Ye family's attitude towards his boss from old to young, and he just set off firecrackers to write his boss into the genealogy.

However, Slender Waist Control always feels that Qiao Nian is good at other aspects. After all, he is still young and emotionally impulsive. In case he regrets it in the future...

So out of this mentality, he only mentioned one sentence.

Who knew that the girl's tone of voice was unhurried, and she responded very calmly: "Well, I believe him."

"Okay, pretend I didn't say it." Siao Yaokong is a smart person, and he immediately understood what she meant, so he identified a person.

He is not a gossip either, he just mentioned it a little out of the older brother's concern for his sister.

Since Sun himself is a smart person and understands what he means, and expresses his attitude, he naturally has nothing to say.

"Then I'll keep watching this side for you, and you should be careful."

"OK."

Qiao Nian has always been cool, not the kind of person who talks a lot.

"Then I'll hang up first, and I'll contact you later if I have anything to do." It wasn't the first day that Slender Waist Control knew her, so he didn't tell her.

He hangs up first.

Looking back at the bucket noodles that I had already soaked and turned white and could not be eaten at all, I was heartbroken for a long time, and threw the instant noodles into the nearby trash can with hatred.

Then he grabbed the bird's feathers depressed, turned his head, and walked leisurely to the convenience store on the side of the road, planning to buy another bucket of instant noodles, and continue to stare at another place.

On the other side, Ye Wangchuan had been waiting in front of the elevator for almost half an hour before seeing the girl walking back slowly.

He stood up slightly, without complaining at all, lowered his eyes slightly, his thick and long eyelashes formed a light shadow like wings under the eyelids: "It's over."

Qiao Nian didn't expect that he was still waiting for her here, she was startled for a moment, and looked up: "You didn't go up?"

"Waiting for you." Ye Wangchuan looked at the time on his watch. It was 27 minutes. She had been on the phone for nearly half an hour, so she probably encountered an accident.

However, he didn't ask what happened to Qiao Nian, but stepped forward and pressed the elevator button, and said to her, "Master Cheng and the others have already gone up, what are you going to have for lunch?"

"It will be all right."

Qiao Nian is still thinking about the photos Slim Waist Control sent her, so she is a little absent-minded.
