

Madam's 3281

Chapter 3281 Tell me about the situation at that time

People from the Ninth Institute also gathered, and Jiang Tianzhi took the initiative to stand up among them: "I also want to follow."

Qiao Nian frowned, then turned to look at Ye Wangchuan: "How many of you are there?"

"Two crew members, three medical staff." He glanced at Bo Zheng and Gu San with deep eyes, and counted them directly: "Now there are 7 people in total."

Qiao Nian probably knew it in his heart.

Turning around, he said to the tall man: "Generally, helicopters can only accommodate 7-8 people, and Master Cheng already has 8 people."

Jiang Tianzhi looked gloomy and clenched his fists tightly, but he also understood that Qiao Nian was not targeting them, but that it was more useful for Gu San and Bo Zheng to follow them than those who only do research!

"I...I see."

Qiao Nian caught a glimpse of him walking back dejectedly, and the worried expressions of those in the Nine Institutes. After thinking for a moment, he turned to him and said, "When Master Cheng settles down in the hospital, I'll arrange a car to take you there right away. Just wait now." wait."

Jiang Tianzhi did not expect such a moment.

Qiao Nian was still willing to consider the feelings of these people, so she turned her head immediately, with gratitude in her eyes, suppressed all her emotions, and said sincerely, "Thank you, Miss Qiao."

Bo Zheng and Gu San didn't dare to waste time, they had followed the crew and doctors to board the helicopter, and the helicopter took off outside.

Qiao Nian heard the sound of the propeller fanning the engine outside, her eyes darkened, and when she looked again, her eyes became surly, and her whole temperament changed.

Qin Si's heart skipped a beat.

He has seen Qiao Nian like this.

Every time Sister Qiao shows such eyes and expressions, it means that someone is going to be in bad luck!

This time...should be no exception.

Qiao Nian licked her chapped lips, and walked up to Luo Qing: "Tell me about the situation at that time."

All eyes fell on Luo Qing.

Luo Qing seemed to have gone through a lot of vicissitudes at once. Standing there, wriggling his lips, it took him a long time to look into Qiao Nian's eyes, and his voice was dry and hoarse: "Master Cheng and I will come down after breakfast and wait for you, and then Master Cheng went to the bathroom on the way. ."

"I thought the bathroom was not far from here, so I didn't follow."

"And then... that's what you see."

Luo Qing grabbed his hair vigorously, raised his head, his eyes were bloodshot, and he was about to be drowned in self-blame: "When I rushed over, Master Cheng was already lying in a pool of blood. I saw the back of that person. I wanted to chase after him, but... there were too many people around, and I didn't dare to leave Master Cheng here alone. In addition, that person ran very fast, and seemed to be very familiar with the hotel environment. He got into the crowd in two or three It's gone! When I saw the people from the Nine Institutes coming and chased after them, there was no one outside."

When Jiang Tianzhi and others rushed over, he immediately chased him out and found that person.

But the man ran too fast, there would be no one left until he went out.

The streets are full of cars, or people are all kinds of pedestrians, and it is impossible to tell which one is suspicious.

"What about the general appearance of the other party? Do you remember?"

Luo Qing shook his head stiffly: "I only saw a back view, judging from the back view, he is a young man not over 40 years old, his height is between 180-185, his hair color cannot be seen, he is wearing a hat, and his whole body is tightly covered. So tight that not even a piece of skin was exposed on the hands and neck."

Chapter 3282 Sister Nian is going crazy

Qin Si immediately "relied"!

It is impossible to locate the murderer by relying on this alone.

The other party is really smart.

Ye Wangchuan half-closed his eyes, but he was not as irritable and angry as the others. He turned his head to look at the girl, and asked lazily, "What do you think?"

Qiao Nian tilted her head, a low laugh escaped from her throat, and her eyes were cold: "They may think that I must have evidence to do things."

A few times before, no matter what she did, she threw the evidence in the face of the other party, making those people speechless, and then settled the score with them.

So much so that these people think she is someone who must have evidence before doing anything.

But these people seem to have forgotten that she came from the illegal area.

Whether it's an illegal area or Continent F, it's never a reasonable place!

Fist is the last word.

Disobedient children will become sensible after being hit a few times.

If you are not obedient...

In Qiao Nian's eyes, there was only thick ink left, and he suddenly smiled disdainfully, with frivolous eyes, and said in a low voice, "What if I don't do it this time."

Do not need evidence.

No reason needed either.

She wants to pursue it.

Nie Qingru and the people of the hidden family can do anything to her!

The slender waist touched the earrings, and asked her in a low voice: "Boss, which one do you think it is? The old one or the young one?"

"To be honest, I think both of them are very likely, after all, they are not against you. Maybe... there may be a third person that we haven't noticed."

As he spoke, he couldn't help looking at Qiao Nian.

Meow! Calculated in this way, their family Sun is quite hated, why so many people can't see Sun's good, and make all kinds of troubles.

Even the old man is not spared, and the methods are even worse than those in the illegal area.

Thanks to these people who claim to be upper-class people, hidden families... when it comes to doing things, they have no bottom line than people of all kinds.

"What are you going to do?" Ye Wangchuan was the person who understood Qiao Nian's thoughts best, so he didn't ask who Qiao Nian was suspicious of, but directly asked her what she was going to do.

Whatever Qiao Nian does, he will cooperate.

Even if she wanted to blow the sky over M state, he would carry it with her.

Qiao Nian's thoughts changed sharply. After a brief consideration, she thought of one thing: "Isn't Nie Qingru the most cherished feather?"

"At the beginning she could sacrifice Ji Qing for profit, I really want to know if the same situation happens again, will she sacrifice Nie Qixing for profit?"

Ye Wangchuan was standing behind her, just bowed his head and chuckled lightly when he heard the words, he was quite lazy, and a little bit of the wantonness of Wang Ye in Beijing.

After chuckling, he said in a low voice, "Okay, I also want to see how she will choose~"

The next half day was calm.

Except for a sudden incident in the hotel where the major delegations stayed at the weapons exhibition, there was a small commotion.

M Continent is as calm as water, as if nothing happened.

Whether it's Qiao Nian or someone from Beijing City, they all acted extraordinarily quiet this time, showing no reaction at all.

This kind of tranquility is no different from the tranquility before the storm, but it is even more nerve-racking than their reaction... At least if Qiao Nian reacts, the people behind the plan will be able to see what they are doing and know what they should do next.

But Qiao Nian and the others didn't make any movement, and the hotel was extremely quiet.

They didn't even ask to check the surveillance near the hotel!

Except that Qiao Nian and the others didn't leave, Master Cheng seemed to be uninjured, and there was no news at all.

Chapter 3283 You don't know what you did?

The queen's villa.

Nie Qingru has received a steady stream of news since early in the morning.

"Queen, Qiao Nian shot at the hotel."

"Empress, people from Yaomen adjusted the helicopter to land at the hotel."

"Empress, I found out that it was Master Cheng from Beijing who was stabbed suddenly in the corridor of the hotel, and his life and death are unknown now."

Every piece of news hit Nie Qingru's heart like a drumbeat. As more and more news came, she became extremely pale and asked someone to find Nie Qixing.

During the period, she was also waiting for the reactions of Qiao Nian and Jing Shi.

But from morning to noon, the hotel was extremely quiet.

She thought that Qiao Nian would check the nearby surveillance cameras non-stop, and even sent someone to destroy the surveillance cameras at the nearby intersections immediately, and cleaned up all possible clues to ensure that even if Qiao Nian had the best ability, he would not be able to find anything. thing.

Wait for her to finish this.

Nie Qixing finally arrived late.

He was still sitting in a wheelchair, looking the same as usual: "Sister, are you looking for me?"

Shadow stood behind the sofa where Nie Qingru was sitting, and kept her head down all the time, not daring to speak.

Until now when he saw Nie Qixing coming over, he seemed to be fine and asked the queen why she wanted him.

A anxious expression appeared between his brows. He looked at Nie Qixing first, then at Nie Qingru, and moved his mouth, as if he wanted to remind Nie Qixing something.

But it was too late.

The woman who had been sitting gracefully on the sofa and orderly arranged the people under her to destroy the evidence suddenly jumped up, ran to Nie Qixing, raised her hand without saying a word, and slapped him hard.

'Snapped! '

The entire villa heard this crisp sound.

Nie Qixing's entire face was turned to the left by the slap, and his ears were buzzing. The huge impact even made the corner of his mouth shattered, and the smell of rust and blood immediately gushed out of his mouth...

In the next second, he felt a tingling pain from his cheek, which was hot and hot, and he could feel the swelling on the left side of his cheek without touching it with his hands.

"Empress!" The shadow came to his senses at this moment, hurried over to stop Nie Qingru's second slap, and pleaded sadly: "Qi Shao, he just came back from the gate of hell, and his body hasn't recovered yet, calm down, don't be angry. "

Nie Qingru was stopped by him desperately so he didn't attack him, but his face was ashen, and he was so angry: "If I knew what he was like, I might as well let him die in Continent F, and why go save him!"

Shadow had no choice but to desperately beg her for Nie Qixing: "Calm down, Qi Shao is still young after all, it's normal for him to be ignorant..."

This sentence happened to step on Nie Qingru's back. Although she didn't intend to continue beating people, she didn't have a good face and said, "He's young? He's in his thirties now. I won't say who he is with." Bi, just that Qiao Nian, how old is he? He's only 20 years old. He's not even half as good as him!"

Nie Qixing's face turned pale when he heard what Nie Qingru said in extreme anger. He suddenly looked at her and grabbed the armrest of the wheelchair: "So, what did I do? Are you so angry?"

Shadow didn't expect him to add fuel to the flames at this time, so frightened, he hurriedly turned around and sternly stopped him: "Young Master Qi, stop talking!"

But it was too late.

Nie Qingru's anger, which had been so hard to lower, was easily stirred up. She turned her head and stared at him with a mocking expression: "You don't know what you did?"

Chapter 3284 Fortunately, you are only targeting Master Cheng

Nie Qixing's heart constricted suddenly, and he jumped, but he still maintained his composure, and made eye contact with her: "I don't know."

"Empress, Young Master Qi's injury is still not healed." Shadow tried to stop Nie Qingru with an almost pleading tone.

But how could Nie Qingru listen to his words when he was so angry, he immediately shook off his hand and ordered: "Get out of the way!"

The shadow touched the anger jumping in her eyes, her nerves were tense, and she had to let go of her hand slowly.

Nie Qingru wasn't that patient. The moment he got out of the way, he walked quickly to Nie Qixing who was in the wheelchair, and smiled angrily: "You don't know why I came to you, but you know what happened in the hotel where you stayed at the weapons exhibition. all right?"

Nie Qixing's guess came true.

Facing the hint that the shadow quietly shook his head to him.

He pretended he didn't see it, and still insisted, "I don't know. What happened to the hotel?"

Nie Qingru narrowed his eyes, his sharp gaze seemed to be able to penetrate his heart, he looked at him and said, "You don't know that Master Cheng was stabbed in public, and the murderer ran away on the spot?"

Nie Qixing's heart was beating like a drum, and he was holding the wheelchair with his hands. He had an extremely surprised expression and reacted greatly: "What? Master Cheng was stabbed?"

Immediately, he sat back again, pursed his lips, and looked at Nie Qingru sincerely: "...I really don't know about it."

Shadow didn't dare to look at the reaction on Nie Qingru's face at all, and only looked at Nie Qixing with an anxious and hard to conceal...disappointed expression.

How could Young Master Qi be so confused!

Since the queen called him over in such a hurry, how could she not guess that he did it!

He is so quibbling, it is better to admit it readily, maybe the queen is not so angry and...disappointed.

He just pretended to be smart, and he wanted to play stupid in this situation.

Isn't this... clearly treating the Queen as a fool?

Nie Qingru took a deep breath, and cold air poured into her lungs. Under the stimulation of extreme anger and disappointment, she became top-heavy, and her old migraines recurred, making it difficult to breathe.

She simply sat back and didn't even look at the person in the wheelchair.

"Do you think it's important to admit it or not?"

"..." Nie Qixing just opened his mouth.

Nie Qingru snorted and said, "I've wiped your * clean, as long as she can't find any evidence, she probably...wouldn't do anything to you."

Actually, when she said this, she didn't have much confidence.

Qiao Nian has always been generous.

She has also seen how rebellious the other party is when they are not stingy. Logically speaking, Qiao Nian will not attack if he can't find evidence.

But Nie Qingru also knew that Qiao Nian was not a person who would follow common sense.

In case she does not play cards according to common sense this time...

Nie Qingru could only stop herself from thinking bad things, adjusted the shawl on her body, and said softly: "Fortunately, you are only targeting Master Cheng."

"Master Cheng can't even be considered her teacher. Naturally, she is not as good as the Jiang Weishang you targeted last time... It's just that the incident you caused this time is too big. It's okay if Master

Cheng didn't die. If she died... this matter is considered her." If you don't pursue it, I'm afraid the Ninth Institute will also pursue it."

One Qiao Nian is difficult enough, but Nie Qixing still wants to provoke Ye Wangchuan.

Nie Qingru didn't even know what to say about him.

The shadow hit the snake with the stick and quickly helped Nie Qixing change the subject, and said in a deep voice: "But empress, there is no response at all except for sending Master Cheng to the hospital for emergency treatment. This is too unreasonable!"

Mainly because it didn't fit Qiao Nian's personality.

Chapter 3285 Sister Nian started to shoot

"This is state M..." Nie Qingru could only think of this reason, but she didn't even believe it.

Nie Qixing just added a sentence: "There is nothing to worry about, this is our territory~ not her continent!"

Nie Qingru looked up and saw the undisguised disgust and contempt on his face, and the migraine that had been relieved so hard started to hurt again.

Seeing this, Shadow hurriedly interjected: "By the way, empress, the news of Master Cheng's attack has spread all over the hotel. As the leader of this weapons exhibition, do you want someone to visit?"

Nie Qingru thought of the unobtrusive but unpredictable young man in the Beijing team, her eyelids twitched, and she raised her hand to tell him: "Go to my warehouse and find some expensive gifts to send over. Speak softly."

"yes."

Shadow knew what she meant.

The empress meant to take the opportunity of visiting to give them some gifts to express their concern, and it was also a disguised gesture of favor, hoping that the other party would not pursue it.

He was about to do it.

Nie Qingru stopped him again: "Wait a minute."

Shadow stopped, turned around and stood up again: "Queen, do you have any orders?"

Nie Qingru rested his hand on the table and knocked on it. He always felt unspeakable uneasiness and irritability in his heart. He frowned and thought about it: "Ask the people in Beijing to see if they need our help. If necessary, transfer our experts to them."

Shadow quickly looked up at her, then immediately lowered his head: "Yes, I'll do it right away."

Nie Qixing waited for him to leave, and still said incomprehensibly: "Sister, isn't she a master of physics in Beijing, is it necessary for us to do this?"

Nie Qingru is annoyed to see him now, and his face is full of displeasure: "You think I'm here to save him?"

Nie Qixing stopped talking immediately, but his drooping hair covered his hostile eyes, and he quietly clenched his hands.

—This is state M, he didn't believe that Qiao Nian would dare to turn against them for the sake of becoming a master regardless of the consequences.

Nie Qingru was not in the mood to care about him, she looked away without even looking at him, and was still thinking about what Qiao Nian wanted to do.

The answer to this question will soon surface.

Yesterday, Shadow went to the hotel to deliver gifts but came back to a wall. Nie Qingru was still not sure what Qiao Nian wanted to do.

Wait until the people from the Privy Council came to the door.

She soon knew what Qiao Nian was thinking.

Nie Qingru's car drove into the branch of the Privy Council in State M, and people bowed and greeted them along the way.

Nie Qingru ignored it alone, stepped on the light and shadow and walked quickly inside, walked through the deep corridor, and finally came to a gate.

Without her ordering, the shadow following her immediately stepped forward and opened the door.

The double doors opened, and the light from inside followed.

Nie Qingru walked in against the light, his eyes adapted to the strong light, and soon saw several elders of the Privy Council sitting on the round conference table.

Under the gaze of everyone, she walked to the top seat with a blank expression and sat down.

The gate of the council hall was also closed.

"Queen, your coffee." A servant brought coffee to her, put it on the table at her hand, and gently stepped back.

Nie Qingru picked up the porcelain-white cup, blew on it, and before she drank it, someone lost her breath and took the lead in attacking—

"Empress, it has been rumored that Young Master Nie raised a woman outside these two days... Is this true?"

Exactly.

This rumor has been circulating since yesterday.

I don't know what happened, but it quickly spread throughout the upper class circles in M state.

Chapter 3286 Qiao Nian seems to be qualified to inherit the seat

Nie Qingru knew before they came that they were looking for her for this matter, so she was not panicked.

When the other party was talking, he lowered his head and took a sip of the coffee in his hand, then slowly put down the cup, and said disdainfully: "Is the Privy Council free to do? You even have to take care of such trivial matters!"

She is extremely tough!

Under normal circumstances, if she showed her intention to protect Nie Qixing in her capacity, other people would not bump into her badly again.

But this time is different!

The person who spoke ignored her forceful questioning, but lowered his brows and said with a serious expression: "You once said that you wanted him to be your successor."

"If he is just a member of the Nie family, our Privy Council will certainly not take care of this kind of thing, but if he wants to inherit your position in the future, then we will take care of it."

Nie Qingru slapped the table hard, her face sank: "Presumptuous!"

She looked around the people in the council hall, her eyes mainly paused for a moment on the faces of the archbishop and others, and then fell on the face of the person who challenged her, sharp as a knife: "Don't forget. The imperial power is above all powers! Even if it is The Privy Council has no right to question my decision!"

She breathed a sigh of relief, calmed down again, and said indifferently: "Besides Qixing, who else is suitable to take my place?"

There was silence in the council hall.

at this time.

"Heh." Someone laughed lightly, quite casually.

Then Nie Qingru's pupils contracted into the shape of a wheat awn, seeing the middle-aged man in the big red robe standing up, Shi Shiran confronted her face to face.

"Empress, have you forgotten someone?"

Nie Qingru seemed to realize who he wanted to talk about.

Immediately his complexion fell.

Quentin would not regard her coercion as a threat, smiled slightly, and spit out a name: "If I remember correctly, there is a granddaughter in the direct line of the Ji family who is related to your blood. Qiao Nian. She is also qualified to inherit your Location."

There was an uproar in the audience.

"Qiao Nian is the queen's granddaughter?"

"That's right, it was said before that she is the direct line of the Ji family... If it is the direct line, then it is the empress's..."

Everyone knows that Nie Qingru has something that cannot be mentioned, and that is her marriage with the Ji family in Independent State when she was young.

All of this was revealed again, and those comments pierced her heart like steel knives, forcing her to face the past one by one.

"enough."

She just stopped drinking.

The next second, an unexpected person stood up and spoke for her: "Archbishop, Qiao Nian is probably inappropriate?"

Once Mr. Xue stood up abruptly to help Nie Qingru speak, the discussion in the council hall gradually stopped, and everyone looked at him in disbelief.

People including his conservative faction looked at him strangely.

Everyone knows that Mr. Xue has a problem with the Queen.

However, in this matter, Mr. Xue really stood by Nie Qingru's side: "Although she is qualified to inherit the position of empress, after all, she has been living outside since she was a child, and has not really been recognized by the Ji family, and has not been included in the genealogy. In this case, she can't really inherit the blood of the Ji family, so she's not the queen's granddaughter."

Obviously they were related by blood, but he easily erased this connection without writing a word in the genealogy.

Nie Qingru's expression eased, and she also said: "She is not suitable to succeed the hermit family."

Quentin didn't expect them to stand together, he sneered, but he didn't give Nie Qingru much face, and asked instead: "Then Young Master Nie is suitable?"

Chapter 3287 The fun has just begun

"..." Nie Qingru stared at him fiercely with a layer of frost on her face.

If Quentin was afraid of her, he wouldn't have been standing in the neutral camp for so many years: "The Hermit Family is indeed the supreme power of the emperor, but don't forget that the Privy Council has the right to supervise. Even the Queen has to accept the supervision of the Privy Council! The Hermit Family Nor is it your property alone."

Nie Qingru certainly understands that the hidden family represents the interests of hundreds of families.

Seeing that the people in the council hall started to talk again, she had to take a step back and said, "I will give you an explanation."

Nie Qixing was revealed to be raising a woman in private this time, which is not a big deal.

But the problem is that he not only lost the number one place that country M has held all year round at the weapons exhibition, but was also found entering and leaving the hotel where the woman was during the weapons exhibition...

People have to think about whether he is playing with things and losing his mind, and he is useless!

This kind of scandal is comparable to the scandals of illegally owning laboratories and participating in gray business clubs, etc., at least accurately hitting the seven inches of whether Nie Qixing can inherit her position.

The scandal caused by Nie Qixing before was enough to make these people dissatisfied.

If she hadn't been suppressing the news of Nie Qixing's disability during this period of time, she said that Nie Qixing's eyes and legs might recover...

Otherwise, the Privy Council might have turned their backs long ago.

Now Nie Qixing is making another scandal about raising a woman during the weapons exhibition... Nie Qingru could not help raising his hand to hold the center of his eyebrows as his temples throbbed.

Almost at the same time, he thought of the person behind the scenes - Qiao Nian!

She knew that this evil person would not be peaceful, and would definitely take revenge on herself immediately.

Sure enough!

She didn't expect it.

Fortunately, this matter is not big or small, as long as the woman is found out and dealt with, an explanation can be given to the Privy Council.

"Nie Qingru has already come out of the Privy Council, and there is a high probability that he will immediately deal with the people in the hotel and clean up for Nie Qixing."

Ye Wangchuan asked people to keep an eye on every move over there, and of course he could receive news as soon as possible.

As soon as Nie Qingru's car left the Privy Council, he knew it right away in the hotel.

The girl is sitting on the chair with the brim of her hat pressed down, and she is still turning the pen in her hand. The black water-based pen is turning flexibly at her fingertips, which is quite melancholy.

"This is just the beginning."

What she wants is Nie Qingru to make the choice.

Nie Qixing and her fame and future, which one do you want?

Ye Wangchuan raised his eyebrows, knowing her very well: "Do you want Gu San to remind Nie Qixing?"

The water-based pen in Qiao Nian's hand just fell on the table, and she seemed to be tired of playing, leaning her head back: "Well, remind me."

"OK." Ye Wangchuan sent a message to Gu San, asking him to remind Nie Qixing that Nie Qingru will go to the hotel to find someone soon.

Then he naturally bent down to pick up the pen on the table for the girl, and put it back into the pen holder. His eyes were deep, and the girl's cold face was reflected in it.

"Have you thought it through this time?"

Qiao Nian raised her head subconsciously, just in time to meet his deep eyes, and suddenly understood what he asked herself to think about: "Thought it out."

She was leaning on the back of the chair, her body was very relaxed, but her eyes were like a cold pool that could not be opened, covered with a light mist: "I gave him a chance, he wanted to die by himself, the only way is to fulfill him!"

She will not let Nie Qixing go this time.

After all, Nie Qixing courted death again and again.

She wants to see now, if the same situation happens again, whether the younger brother is more important or the daughter is more important, or in the hearts of these people, only themselves are always the most important!

Chapter 3288 I only know regret now, it's too late at the same time.

In the presidential suite of the hotel where the slender waist was squatting before, Zhou Zheng received a mysterious call and walked back quickly.

The presidential suite is very large, and the interior decoration is very luxurious, with cashmere carpets everywhere. In the corner of the brown leather sofa, he saw Nie Qixing sitting in a wheelchair and didn't know what he was thinking.

Zhou Zheng didn't dare to look too much, walked over, bowed his head and said, "Young Master Qi, someone just called me and said that your sister is coming towards us."

"What?" Nie Qixing looked up at him.

Zhou Zheng noticed that the swollen five fingerprints on the left side of his face hadn't disappeared, and it was obvious that someone had slapped him.

He didn't dare to look any further, and immediately lowered his head: "...The empress probably knows about it."

He didn't say it outright.

But it is equivalent to bluntly speaking.

Nie Qing came to her door like a rush, what else could she know? They must have known that they hid a woman here!

Zhou Zheng was afraid of being dragged into it, so he gritted his teeth and raised his head: "Young Master Qi, how about...I mean, why don't we hand over the person to the Queen. It's just a woman, and we don't need to fight against the Queen because of her anger." , it's not worth it."

"What do you know?" Nie Qixing said immediately.

"..." Zhou Zheng moved his lips, but still didn't dare to argue with him.

He really didn't understand what Qi Shao meant?

Could it be possible that the queen has come to find him, and he still wants to hide her?

Zhou Zheng was still thinking this way, when he heard Nie Qixing's decision after pondering for a moment: "Take him away immediately and hide him. No matter who comes to you, you are not allowed to hand him over. Do you understand?"

"Young Master Qi?" Zhou Zheng was surprised and puzzled, not understanding why he wanted to hide someone when he said this.

Nie Qixing did not explain too much, lowered his voice, very serious: "If you still want to live, do as I say!"

Zhou Zheng still stood still.

Mainly because I was surprised that Nie Qixing said 'I still want to live'. Is this thing so serious?

"Why don't you do it yet?" Seeing that he was standing still, Nie Qixing glanced at him upset, and could see the fear that couldn't be hidden on his face.

Nie Qixing took a deep breath, and said as calmly as possible: "As long as you hide the person well, nothing will happen."

Zhou Zheng and him are like grasshoppers tied to the same boat. Even though he regretted it to death, it is impossible to get off the boat, so he gritted his teeth and said, "Yes, I will transfer people away immediately."

"Go." Nie Qixing raised his hand, exhausted.

Zhou Zheng stopped after taking two steps, and turned around: "Young Master Qi, I still don't understand one thing. Why can't we hand over the person to the Queen? This is State M, wouldn't it be better to hand over the person to the Queen?"

Nie Qixing was wondering who was the one who 'tipped off the news' to Zhou Zheng. When he heard him asking himself, he looked over, but he didn't answer directly, but said absent-mindedly: "You just need to know that if she sees that woman, she will I will definitely fly into a rage. In this case, I may not die, but you may not."

Zhou Zheng's whole body was stiff, a chill came up from the soles of his feet, his teeth were shaking from the cold, and the look he looked at Nie Qixing was nothing but regret!

He really regrets it!

Why did he want to curry favor with Nie Qixing at the beginning?

I knew he would never get on this boat!

He's fine now, if he doesn't get any benefits, his life will be lost!

...

It was his own life that was at stake, Zhou Zheng was still very efficient in his work, and moved away the woman Nie Qixing was hiding before Nie Qingru brought someone to the hotel.

Chapter 3289 Young Master Qi, please speak quickly!

Nie Qingru did not hide her whereabouts this time. A group of mighty people entered the hotel. Regardless of the eyes of the people around her, she asked the shadows around her expressionlessly.

"What's his room number?"

Shadow has already gone to the front desk to get a spare room card and came back, not daring to hide it, bowed his head respectfully, and whispered: "Master Qi is in suite 8808."

Nie Qingru narrowed her eyes slightly, suppressed the anger around her, and ordered the people around her: "Go and show me the elevator and the stairs. No one is allowed to leave until I get down!"

"Yes, Empress."

The men she led immediately dispersed to guard the elevator entrance and emergency exit, and there were still people guarding the hotel entrance, as if to block the entire hotel.

The people who were watching the excitement in the hotel lobby realized that they were locked inside, and they started to chirp loudly.

"What do you mean? Why don't you let us out?"

"Yeah, who is this! Why are we not allowed to leave, I can leave if I want~!"

The noise of resistance in the hotel lobby is getting louder and louder.

The manager and security guards also rushed over, trying to appease the emotional guests below: "Everyone, don't worry, there is an emergency, and it shouldn't take long. Please stay calm and don't be impatient!"

"What kind of emergency happened, why can't we go? Tell me!" Someone asked loudly without losing face!

Some people took out their mobile phones without saying a word.

"I want to call the police."

It can be said that the hotel is in a mess.

These have nothing to do with Nie Qingru.

As if she couldn't see the noisy people below, she got on the elevator under the * of the bodyguards, and walked directly to the presidential suite on the top floor...

Room 8808 where Nie Qixing is located is on the top floor.

'Ding-'.

Elevator doors open.

Nie Qingru walked out with a frosty face, walking in the bitter wind, and soon came to the door.

"Open the door." She ordered without looking back.

Shadow observed her expression, slowly moved to the front, took out the spare room card that was coming below, and did not swipe the card for a long time, but looked at her hesitantly: "Queen, I know you are very angry, but Qi At least his body is not fully recovered..."

"I said open the door, don't make me say it a third time!"

Nie Qingru didn't give him a chance to finish speaking.

Shadow didn't dare to intercede for Nie Qixing anymore, so he gritted his teeth and opened the door.

Nie Qingru passed by him directly, opened the door and went in.

Nie Qixing had been waiting in the room for them to come over. After seeing Nie Qingru coming in, he took a deep breath and just called out: "Sister."

"..." Nie Qingru didn't respond, walked to the center of the room, looked down at him, and said, "Where's the person?"

Nie Qixing rarely saw such an angry expression on her face, her eyes flickered, and she wanted to get away with it: "Who is it? I'm the only one here."

Nie Qingru looked deeply into his eyes, turned around and sat down on the leather sofa without saying a word, and when he looked at him again, his eyes were calm, and he ordered his subordinates: "Hit me until he says so!"

"Queen!" Shadow was startled, and a layer of cold sweat spewed from his back.

He saw at a glance that Nie Qing Rulai was real, so he quickly turned his head and said loudly to Nie Qixing: "Young Master Qi, don't resist. The queen knows about it! She just came back from the Privy Council, and the elders want the queen to give an explanation."

"If you hand over the person, this matter will come to an end."

"If you insist on not handing over the person, the empress will be embarrassed!"

Chapter 3290 Almost beat Nie Qixing to death

Nie Qixing didn't expect that the matter had already reached the ears of the old fellows in the Privy Council, and his complexion changed slightly, as if he was a little touched.

Shadow hurriedly persuaded him: "Young Master Qi, stop being willful! The Empress has been worrying about you for a while, so don't make her angry anymore."

Nie Qixing looked at the graceful and noble person sitting on the sofa in embarrassment. Despite her age, she still had an unattainable aura of nobility, which made people yearn for it.

His eyes darkened, he shook his head in the shadow's expectant gaze, and said palely, "I don't know who you are talking about."

have no idea!

At this time, he still said that he didn't know!

Nie Qingru closed her eyes fiercely, as if she was extremely disappointed in him, unwilling to give him another chance, and ordered in a deep voice: "Hit me!"

"Empress..." Not even the shadow can stop her this time.

Two burly men dragged Nie Qixing out of the wheelchair without saying a word. Seeing him falling to the ground in embarrassment, they said coldly, "Young Master Nie, I've offended you."

...

An hour and a half passed.

The air in the suite is filled with a strong smell of blood, and the rust with a little sweet taste seems to blend into the air.

Shadow knelt on the ground and begged the superior woman more than a dozen times, but what she got in return was her heart of stone, and she was completely unmoved.

Nie Qixing was able to groan in pain at first, but gradually he didn't even groan.

The two bodyguards in charge also stopped and looked at each other, neither of them dared to make any more moves.

The queen said she wanted to fight, but she didn't say that they should kill Young Master Nie.

After all, Young Master Nie is the Queen's younger brother. If something goes wrong and the Queen takes her anger on them, they will not be able to bear it.

"Why did you stop?" Nie Qingru asked irritably.

One of the two bodyguards took a step forward and said: "Queen, Young Master Nie seems to have passed out."

Nie Qingru also noticed that Nie Qixing lay motionless on the ground, the ground was still covered in blood, and the surrounding carpets were all wet, which looked shocking.

She rubbed the center of her eyebrows and said, "He still refuses to say anything?"

The bodyguards looked at each other again and shook their heads: "Young Master Nie refuses to explain."

The empress is clearly sitting here, if Nie Shao said it, she would definitely hear it.

The fact is that Young Master Nie refuses to say a word, and would rather die than say a word.

Shadow went over and squatted down to touch Nie Qixing's breath. His heart was beating loudly. He couldn't stand it anymore. He knelt down in front of Nie Qingru again, and begged her: "The empress can't beat me any more. If you keep beating, Young Master Qi will No life. I know you are very angry this time, but after all, you watched Young Master Qi grow up, do you want to watch him die?"

This is really crossing the line.

But he also watched Nie Qixing grow up, from a baby to an adult, and now fell from the clouds into the quagmire...

Shadow really couldn't bear it, so he desperately stood up and begged Nie Qingru to spare Nie Qixing.

"The Empress..."

Nie Qingru is a person after all, and it is not completely emotionless. Looking at the motionless person on the ground, after a long silence, he said in a hoarse voice: "Why does he have to protect that woman?"

Just a woman.

Nie Qixing really let her down!

But at the moment, she can only think of another way, put her hands on her forehead and think for a while, before making a decision.
