

Madam's 3331

Chapter 3331: Sister Nian: If you want, you can come and grab it

"I heard you're going back to Beijing soon?" Old Xue didn't pay attention to the passers-by who stopped him just now, and asked Qiao Nian when he met him.

The girl was playing with something in her hand, she looked up and saw his anxious expression, she paused, smiled, and said casually: "You didn't come to me to ask me this, did you?"

Xue Lao hesitated.

The last time he saw Qiao Nian was the day she left the Privy Council. Although Qiao Nian didn't talk much, she still treated her very well.

At least be polite and polite.

Today he clearly felt the girl's alienation, as if he was not familiar with him, just an ordinary stranger.

Mr. Xue couldn't adapt to the gap in the middle for a while, and looked at her with a complicated expression: "Are you still angry about the phone calls and text messages I sent you before?"

His eyes were dim for a while, and he said reluctantly: "I have my position, but I hope you don't go the wrong way."

Qiao Nian looked at his expression and seemed to let him continue.

Old Xue took a deep breath and sighed: "You are still young, and you will have unlimited possibilities in the future. You shouldn't be so radical, let alone go against the Hermit Family."

Qiao Nian can investigate the cause of Ji Qing's death, but what she's showing now is that she wants to find out the truth of the year regardless of the interests of the hidden family.

He couldn't accept this anyway.

In his eyes, the interests of the hermit family are above all else, so should Qiao Nian.

After all, she is a direct descendant of the Ji family, and is inextricably linked with the hidden family. The Ji Family of Independent Continent and the Hidden World Family also belong to the same force, and everyone can make small troubles at ordinary times, but they should advance and retreat together in the face of common interests.

Qiao Nian's approach... crossed the red line!

Mr. Xue looked at her again, seeing that she didn't speak, thinking that she was more or less listening, his eyes softened a little, and he persuaded her softly: "Is Zhou Zheng with you? You give Zhou Zheng to me, and I will help you." Communicate with the Queen."

"Nie Qixing is dead, and you have vented your anger for Master Cheng. You are still young, and you may not understand the importance of keeping a front line in everything."

He meant that Master Cheng had been sent back to Beijing.

Nie Qixing is gone too.

Then Zhou Zheng, the executive, let it go, at least everyone will look good, and there will be no chaos.

Qiao Nian came back to his senses, and finally took a look at him. Zhang Yang's eyes fell on his face, and he sneered, "You're looking for me for Zhou Zheng?"

Old Xue had a meal.

I heard the girl's casual and indifferent tone again: "Is it you looking for me, or Nie Qingru looking for me?"

Old Xue frowned, as if he didn't expect her to be so direct, and almost didn't give himself any face: "Qiao Nian, I'm here for you."

He personally admires the direct descendant of the Ji family, who is talented, capable and temperamental, and he also likes him.

Just like he said.

He didn't want Qiao Nian to go the wrong way.

At least he felt that he came here to save a genius who was about to go astray, not just for someone else.

Qiao Nian raised the end of her eyes, and said more directly: "She is worried that Zhou Zheng and I will go back to the capital, and Nie Qixing will not be able to hide the good things he did?"

Nie Qingru made her own choice, sacrificing Nie Qixing for power.

Now the dust has settled.

She tried her best to take Zhou Zheng away, and tried her best to keep Nie Qixing's reputation behind him.

The choice is theirs to make, and they have to be good people after the fact.

It's just... very hermit family style.

It's okay to be hypocritical!

"Zhou Zheng, I won't give it to you, if you want, you can come and grab it."

Chapter 3332: that's not a guy to mess with

Seeing that she was going to leave, Mr. Xue was anxious: "Qiao Nian, you can't go."

The girl paused slightly, but didn't look back.

"My plane at seven o'clock in the evening, you have the ability to shoot it down, so that I don't have to leave."

Enough madness and arrogance!

Mr. Xue was stunned by what she said, and in the blink of an eye, he saw the girl enter the elevator, and the elevator door was about to close.

His face suddenly turned ugly: "You must fight against the Hermit Family?"

He didn't quite understand Qiao Nian's thoughts.

This time the incident was so big, he was willing to mediate the relationship between the two parties, why would Qiao Nian let it go?

Before the elevator door was completely closed, Qiao Nian finally looked at him with straight eyes, and said slowly, "Didn't you tell her a long time ago that you would deal with me together, why bother to talk to me about this big deal again."

"How do you..." Mr. Xue almost blurted out, "How do you know?"

Fortunately, realizing that he almost slipped the tongue, he endured it with a livid face.

"Tsk." The girl raised the corners of her mouth and looked wildly into his eyes: "Guess."

She didn't know, she just said it casually.

But now it seems that I guessed it right.

She didn't hesitate any longer, took out the things in her pocket, bent down and put them on the floor at the elevator entrance, and stood up straight again.

"This is for you."

Old Xue looked at what she had put there from a distance, and when he took a closer look, he found that it was a jade-sized seal.

The seal is very delicate, it is a family keepsake he gave to Qiao Nian before.

Old Xue saw clearly what Qiao Nian put on the ground, his eyes changed slightly, becoming more and more complicated, and he whispered, "You want to draw a clear line with me?"

The girl looked at him and said casually: "The way is different, so we don't conspire with each other."

The elevator doors close again in front of them.

One of the two bodyguards brought by Mr. Xue trotted over to pick up the jade badge, and handed it to the old man in blue respectfully: "Mr. Xue."

Old Xue picked up the jade badge with a complicated expression, and the jade material was cold, and he remained silent.

Instead, the bodyguard he brought looked at the closed elevator door and said, "Old Xue, are we going to let her go like this?"

"Otherwise, what do you want?" The old man in Qingshan put the jade badge back and looked at him expressionlessly.

The bodyguard didn't dare to breathe when he saw him, and buried his head and said unwillingly: "I just think it's too cheap for her to let her go like this!"

When did their hidden family suffer such a loss!

This girl is too arrogant.

A girl from Beijing with no background, dare to speak like this in front of Mr. Xue of the Privy Council.

"Didn't she tell us to take the plane..." The bodyguard was only halfway through.

Xue Lao's gaze made him shut his mouth in embarrassment.

Although the bodyguard closed his mouth, there was still an expression of dissatisfaction on his face, as if he really wanted to do this if Mr. Xue hadn't stopped him.

Shooting down planes may seem like a ridiculous proposition, but in fact similar things have happened over the years.

At that time, it will end in an accident, and no one will pursue the truth of the matter, so it will be buried in the long river of time.

The bodyguard followed Mr. Xue, knowing very well that such things were not uncommon.

That's why he couldn't understand why Mr. Xue didn't do this.

"You think Yaomen is a vegetarian."

Ye Wangchuan has always been a person who takes one step and sees three steps. The sea near M state has not been peaceful recently.

If they dare to do something...he believes that Ye Wangchuan must be prepared to make them suffer.

"That's not a man to mess with."

Chapter 3333: Qin Si actually thought that Sister Nian would lose

The bodyguard still doesn't understand.

Xue Lao said calmly: "Independence Island, the illegal area and the capital city are all staring at us now. Once we dare to shoot down the plane, they will definitely take action. At that time, the foundation of the Hermit family will be shaken! So we can't Move too..."

He didn't finish the second half of the sentence.

They cannot move.

dare not move!

The focus is on this 'not daring to move'.

Back then, Ji Qing's affairs didn't cause trouble to the extent that the Hermit Family 'did not dare to move', but Qiao Nian... Mr. Xue was a little short of breath, with a big stone on his heart, and he was indescribably irritable.

At this point, Qiao Nian has surpassed everyone's imagination. Even he can only adopt a soft policy, and it is not good to confront the other party head-on.

"Let's go." Seeing that the elevator had gone up and there was no need to stay here, Mr. Xue turned around and asked the bodyguards to follow with a blank expression.

The two bodyguards look at me and I look at you, but they don't understand what he means by "independent continent, illegal area" targeting the hermit family.

Some people say that Beijing is eyeing the hidden family.

After all, these people came from Beijing, but Independent Continent and the illegal area have always been areas of no concern. When did you have a conflict with them?

Although they didn't know clearly, they didn't dare to touch the old man in blue, so they obediently followed him and left the hotel.

Joe read about their evening flight.

Departure on time at seven o'clock in the evening.

Because it is Ye Wangchuan's private jet, it has a large space and is low-key and comfortable in all aspects.

As soon as Qiao Nian got on the plane, she found a relatively quiet place, asked the flight attendant to help her get a blanket, eye mask and earplugs, and fell asleep right away.

Others knew that she didn't like flying, and no one bothered her. Qin Si tacitly let Qiao Nian sleep out, and ran to the side to find someone to play poker.

During the ten-hour flight from M State to Beijing City, Qiao Nian basically slept for most of the time, and only woke up when it was almost there, pulling off the blindfold to watch them play.

Luo Qing and the others couldn't bear to go to sleep halfway through, only Qin Si was a night owl, the more he played, the more energetic he became, from the beginning to the end.

When Qiao Nian passed by, the people who played together had changed from Luo Qing, Jiang Tianzhi and others to Ye Fanchuan and Yu Wenhao, and there was another person from the Nine Institutes making up the numbers.

Gu San didn't play, so he watched Ye Wangchuan play next to him.

Qiao Nian walked over: "What are you playing?"

Gu San was startled when he heard her voice, turned around and saw the girl, and immediately said: "Young Master Qin and Master Wang are playing cards."

"Oh." Of course Qiao Nian could see that they were playing cards, and he wanted to ask Gu San what they were playing, big D or something else.

Others also saw her coming.

Qin Si warmly greeted her: "Sister Qiao, you're awake."

Another person from the Ninth Institute also called her with a smile.

Only Yu Wenhao clenched the cards in his hand, a little embarrassed, with a complicated expression, watching the girl move her mouth, but did not make a sound.

Fortunately, the girl didn't notice him at all, walked behind Ye Wangchuan, reached for a bottle of water to drink, and said lazily as if she had just woken up: "You guys play."

Ye Wangchuan put down the cards and handed her a piece of paper: "Playing?"

"?" Qiao Nian glanced at him, and silently took the paper to wipe his hands.

Qin Si's eyes lit up, and he immediately greeted the girl: "That's right, sister Qiao, you woke up anyway. Let's play two together~"

As if he was afraid that Qiao Nian would not play, he pointed to the weights piled up in front of Ye Wangchuan, teasingly said: "Don't be afraid of losing. Lord Wang won a lot, you help him lose some for us."

Chapter 3334: Those who lose are numb

Qiao Nian didn't want to play at first, but when he heard his request, he raised his eyebrows and strode over: "How to play?"

Ye Wangchuan dotingly gave up his position and explained the rules of the game to her.

Qin Si just happened to lose this hand, took the opportunity to mix up the cards, and said quickly: "Since sister Qiao is coming, this hand doesn't count."

"Do it again, do it again."

"..."

Others followed him and threw in the cards.

Ye Wangchuan didn't bother with them, and was still talking softly to the girls about the rules of winning and losing.

Qin Si was in charge of shuffling the cards, and reshuffled them on the table after a while.

He very cunningly stated before starting again: "Master Wang, since you are just a bystander, you can't teach Sister Qiao. When Sister Qiao is playing, she can only play by herself. Otherwise, if you play two against one, the three of us will be too big." What a loss!"

Big brother already has money, and he usually stuffs them with dog food.

Now play a game of cards, at least let them win two hands, otherwise what is the meaning of life~!

Ye Wangchuan originally didn't care about winning or losing, and his voice was low: "OK."

Then he smiled with deep eyes, and his eyes were touching: "Play with the chips on the table casually, and buy them for you if you lose."

Qin Si was still there giggling: "I'm arrogant!"

Qiao Nian didn't wear a peaked cap just after waking up, her exquisite face was still tired from sleep, her expression was undisciplined, and she said to Qin Si, "Let's get started."

Everyone starts to take cards.

Gu San stood behind Qiao Nian and watched the battle.

After a round, everyone soon got good cards. Qin Si probably got a good card. The thief laughed and said, "There is no brother die in the card game. Sister Qiao, I'm sorry!"

Qiao Nian just heard the rules of the game from Ye Wangchuan, so he sorted out the cards in his hand very calmly, and said casually: "En."

Gu San was the one who saw her card, and gave Qin Si an unclear look, hesitated to speak, but finally did not remind Qin Si.

The rest of the time is completely slaughter.

But it's different from what Qin Si thought.

The cards in Qiao Nian's hand were strangely good, and apart from being a little rusty at the beginning, he played the three of them completely together later on.

She seemed to guess the card.

Every time Qin Si has any cards in his hand, she can get stuck, just not letting Qin Si go.

Ten laps down.

Qin Si lost all the remaining chips in front of him.

He pounced on the poker table: "Sister Qiao, are you sure you can't play? What kind of novice are you?"

He used to go out with Zhang Yang and the others often, and occasionally played cards. His card skills were not bad. Except for being abused by Ye Wangchuan every time, he could play back and forth with other people.

As a result, now...everyone loses money.

"No." Qiao Nian replied straightforwardly: "But I won't lose either."

Qin Si: "..."

will not lose.

Bull B.

Just as Qiao Nian was about to return the winning chips to them, who knew that a hand was thrust across to block her, and then she heard the man sitting behind her watching her play for a long time say lazily: "I remember you wanted to Bullying newbies?"

Qin Si: "..."

He didn't get bullied at all, but was bullied instead.

Ye Wangchuan glanced at him narrowly: "Since this is the case, shouldn't the chips be doubled? I remember that the Qin family has a technology support fund. Tsingtao..."

Qin Si heard that there was still something he didn't understand here, and he was not really a fool, so he interrupted him with a quick raise of his hand: "I see. Supporting the scientific research team of Tsinghua University is right? OK! I will tell my family later."

Chapter 3335: Aunt Ye: Did I ask you?

Ye Wangchuan raised the corners of his eyes, let go of Qiao Nian's hand, hooked the corners of his mouth, and gave Qin Si a look of 'spirituality'.

Qin Si rubbed the bridge of his nose, wondering if he could do it without being a Taoist.

In fact, he knew in his heart that Ye Wangchuan could handle this matter directly, but if he came forward in the name of the Ye family, Uncle Jiang might not be willing.

So it is more appropriate for him to come forward to handle this matter.

Qin Si also figured it out himself: "Tsing University has indeed had a lot of good scientific research projects in recent years. We were also considering Tsing University before, but we haven't decided yet."

The Qin family has a big business.

Qin Si's mother is a strong woman. In addition to managing her own business, she has also done a lot of charities and foundations.

Qin Si occasionally helps Qin's mother deal with these things.

Yu Wenhao watched them talk about a sum of money support in a few words, and then looked at the girls who seemed to be used to it, and did not show a grateful expression.

He has some indescribable emotions and always feels very uncomfortable.

Yu Wenhao was afraid that others would find out that he was uncomfortable, so he got up at this moment and said softly, "I'm going to the bathroom."

"Go ahead." Qin Si paid attention to him, but didn't pay attention to him.

Yu Wen Haoteng got up and hurried away.

Instead, Qiao Nian noticed his strange reactions again and again, half-closed his eyes, and looked at Wen Hao's leaving back with some surprise.

She didn't look at it too much, and turned around and said to Qin Si: "Chengfeng Group also has a project that just happens to be looking for a company to cooperate with, Qin's..."

She roughly talked about the project.

This is not a small project. It has the shadow of the Hongmeng, an illegal area behind it, and it can be regarded as a large cooperation in the tens of figures.

The benefits needless to say.

She directly gave this opportunity to the Qin family, in a disguised form, she gave back to the Qin family's scientific research support fund...

Qin Si had heard his family members mention this project before, and heard that Qiao Nian was going to cooperate with their family. It was rare that he was not as cynical as before. Cooperation, we will go through the normal procedures, if it doesn't work, forget it. Anyway, I will treat our company as an opportunity to bid for cooperation, and I will give you a letter of approval when the time comes."

Qiao Nian understood that he was unwilling to take advantage of his friendship, so he didn't make it difficult: "Okay! You can just contact Aunt Yuan later."

Chengfeng Group is managed by Yuan Yongqin, and Qin Si has to communicate with Yuan Yongqin if he wants to communicate with this project.

Qin Si is also refreshing: "Okay."

The plane landed at the terminal of Beijing International Airport an hour later.

Ye Lan had already received the news and was waiting outside the terminal building.

Wait for Qiao Nian and Qin Si to come out.

She greeted immediately: "This way!"

A group of people saw her and hurried towards her.

Ye Lan has been in Beijing for decades, and many people know her.

When the people from the Ninth Institute saw her coming to pick up the plane, they were quite cautious and silently followed behind Ye Wangchuan and the others.

When Ye Lan saw Qiao Nian and the others walking in front of her, she couldn't hide her smile. Although there were signs of age on the corners of her eyes and brows, she did not change her capable demeanor: "The car is waiting outside. You should come back to eat with me later." Change clothes?"

"Let's go back first." Ye Fanchuan knew that she was looking at Qiao Nian asking, so Feng Qingyue Lang said quickly.

"Did I ask you?" Ye Lan rolled his eyes angrily.

However, when she set her eyes on Qiao Nian, she was much gentler: "Then you go back to take a shower, change your clothes and rest, we will have dinner later."

Chapter 3336: Ji Lingfeng has returned to Independent Island

Qiao Nian returned to the Rhine, immediately went back to the room and took a shower to wash off his exhaustion, and rested in the room for a while before going down from the second floor.

The group of them separated at the airport.

Jiang Tianzhi and the others had to go back to the Ninth Institute first, and Yu Wenhao said he was going to see Master Cheng... Both Qin Si and Luo Qing went home. Either everyone has something to do, or they have to go back to take a shower and change clothes.

Only Gu San and Ye Wangchuan were in the living room.

Gu San seems to be talking to Ye Wangchuan.

Qiao Nian vaguely heard the words 'Independence Island' and 'Ji Lin'.

Ye Wangchuan's ink hair was still wet, and he sat on the sofa with his legs crossed, holding an unopened bottle of water in his hand.

The whole person is lazy and casual.

"Then call Ji Lin back." He tilted his head to talk to Gu San, and the light hit his tall nose bridge to form a circle of light, making his eyes deep and his thin lips cold.

Gu Sangang said: "Okay."

Turning around, he saw the girl coming down from upstairs, his eyes lit up, and he quickly greeted Qiao Nian: "Miss Qiao, you're coming down."

"En." Qiao Nian responded, then looked up at the man who was lazily sitting on the sofa: "What time do we leave?"

Ye Wangchuan glanced at his watch, then looked straight at her: "Look at you. The time is almost up, you can pass now."

Gu San whispered: "Miss Qiao, I'll go and make a phone call."

"Go."

Qiao Nian remembered the topic of 'Independent Continent' and 'Ji Lin' they were just talking about, walked over, took a bottle of water from the refrigerator, unscrewed it, turned back, and asked directly: "You were just talking about Independent Continent, independent What happened to the continent?"

Ye Wangchuan snatched the water she was about to drink, passed the bottle in his hand, and lowered his eyes: "Drink this from me."

"You just took this out of the refrigerator, it's too cold."

Qiao Nian frowned subconsciously: "?"

Ye Wangchuan met her eyes, and said frankly: "You forgot that you had a stomachache last month."

Qiao Nian paused suddenly, remembering the cramps she suffered from dysmenorrhea when she came to her aunt last month... But she immediately looked at someone, showing a speechless expression.

He even remembers this so clearly, it must be poisonous!

Ye Wangchuan saw that she was not so resistant, so he answered her previous question: "Ji Lingfeng has gone home."

Qiao Nian immediately squeezed the water in his hand, narrowed his eyes and looked at him: "When?"

"One hour ago." Ye Wangchuan took the time to remind her to drink some water first, then leaned back, her Adam's apple rolled, and said with a faint smile on her face: "After you leave, Ji Nan can't control the Ji family by himself. People. Seeing that some people are starting to trouble Ji Nan again, Ji Lingfeng will go back at this time... Those people are afraid that they will not be able to sleep because of the fright."

Ji Lingfeng went back very suddenly this time, and he didn't receive the news in advance.

It can be seen how well Lu Zhi hid the news.

"He didn't tell you?"

"Who?" Qiao Nian glanced at him, belatedly: "No. He has always had such a personality, and he always thinks about it."

Lu Zhi does things according to his preferences, otherwise he wouldn't have provoked so many enemies.

There are still many people in the illegal area who hate him so much, but there is nothing they can do about him. If those people had a way with him, she had no doubt that Lu Zhi would be chopped into minced meat.

But he does have a bit of a slack gene in him.

"Jian Jin didn't tell me." Qiao Nian felt a little irritated for no reason, and rubbed the space between her brows: "I guess she doesn't even know about it."

So who knows what Lu Zhi wants to do!

Chapter 3337: Grandpa: I'm going to park first

She has been exhausted recently about becoming a master. If Lu Zhi comes to do something again... Qiao Nian's eyebrows thumped twice, feeling cold and dry.

Ye Wangchuan saw her irritability, and immediately said: "Then let's ignore this matter, we will talk about it when we return to Independent Island."

"En." That's all for now.

Qiao Nian was thinking about the situation on Independent Continent.

Right at this moment, Ye Lan called.

She slowly took out her mobile phone, saw the caller ID, and picked it up.

"Nian Nian, have you set off yet?" Ye Lan on the phone asked her briskly.

Qiao Nian had no choice but to put aside the matter of Independent Island and Lu Zhi, and walked to the sofa with one hand in his pocket: "Let's go right away."

"Okay. The old man and I are coming soon. Come slowly, don't rush." Ye Lan seemed afraid that she would rush over, and added: "Let's order first. This private restaurant cooks one dish at a time. Spend time."

"good."

Qiao Nian agreed.

Ye Lan was relieved: "By the way, do you have anything to eat? Aunt Ye will give you some."

Qiao Nian's expression has eased a lot, his shoulders have relaxed, and he is quite polite: "I can do anything."

"Then I'll take a closer look." Ye Lan said immediately without forcing.

Qiao Nian replied, "Yes."

Ye Lan on the other end hung up the phone.

Qiao Nian put down the phone, looked at the man on the sofa, and said to him, "Aunt Ye and the others have arrived. It's almost time for us to go there."

"Okay." Ye Wangchuan got up, ready to go into the house: "It's windy at night, I'll go get my coat."

Qiao Nian is still a simple combination of sweater + peaked cap, her casual style is very street.

In particular, the printed logo on her sweater today is very individual, and it feels more uninhibited and uninhibited when worn on her body.

She sat down on the sofa, lowered her eyes and took out her mobile phone to send a message to Feng Yu, asking him about Ji Lingfeng's return.

Feng Yu didn't reply to her for the time being.

Qiao Nian is not in a hurry.

Just as Ye Fanchuan came out with his coat on, she put the phone in her pocket, stood up and said to him, "Let's go."

Ye Lan ordered a private restaurant this time, and at first glance, it was a place that only people in old Beijing could find.

It is similar to the place where Ye Wangchuan took her to eat mutton.

This private kitchen is also in the alley.

Many luxury cars have been parked outside the vermilion courtyard, and the license plates are all consecutive numbers, or they are similar numbers.

At first glance, the license plate is more expensive than the car.

Ye Wangchuan drove an ordinary Hummer this time, which is not expensive among the luxury cars, and it also has an ordinary license plate.

He parked the car outside the courtyard, turned his head to the girl and said, "You go in first, I'll find a place to park."

"OK."

Qiao Nian untied the seat belt without shyness, got out of the car and walked inside with the phone.

Ye Wangchuan stretched out his head from the car and reminded her: "You call my sister-in-law and let her come out to pick you up."

Actually, he doesn't need to say, Qiao Nian is also going to call Ye Lan and the others to ask which private room they are in.

This kind of private restaurant mainly has independent private rooms, and there should be no tables in the lobby, so if you don't know the private rooms, it's quite troublesome to find them.

She just went in on her front foot.

A temperamental waiter wearing a cheongsam came over, stopped her way with a smile, and didn't say anything about looking her up and down, but obviously refused: "Sorry ma'am, we need to make an appointment in advance."

Chapter 3338: May I ask your elder's name?

Their private restaurant is located in the bustling Nanluoguxiang. There are many tourists here. It is inevitable that a tourist who has gone wrong will find this place and come in here as an ordinary place to eat.

Qiao Nian looked very young, wearing a peaked cap so he couldn't see his face. He looked like a 'tourist' who had gone the wrong way as he walked in with his head down.

It was obviously not the first time for the waiter to deal with this situation. He said to her very politely: "There are many places to eat on the left hand side when you go out from us. There are roast ducks and suppers. You can take two more steps..."

She always spoke politely, and never said something like 'you can't afford it'.

But her performance from beginning to end is still very uncomfortable.

Qiao Nian didn't notice her expression, just found Ye Lan's phone number, and saw someone stopped her from leaving, and was still talking to her.

She raised her head and said with a good temper: "My elder has reserved a seat."

The waitress just looked at her, and said in a tone of disbelief, "Okay. What is your elder's name?"

She still stood in front of Qiao Nian and refused to let her go.

Strictly guard against giving anyone a chance to sneak in.

"The surname is Ye."

The girl's voice was loose, as if she didn't realize she was being made things difficult.

The waitress was a little surprised and said, "Ye?"

There are not a few people surnamed Ye in Beijing, but there is only one guest surnamed Ye who booked a place in their private restaurant today!

She remembers very well.

Because of the arrival of this distinguished guest, the proprietress, who hadn't cooked for a long time, flew back from other places, and didn't even travel. She prepared the ingredients early and had to cook by herself.

Although she didn't know the identity of the other party, she could probably guess the identity of the guests at that table just by reacting to the proprietress.

So when Qiao Nian said 'Ye', she couldn't help but look up and down the girl in front of her.

She looks pretty.

Admittedly a bit capitalized.

But that guest is not a man, but a woman in her fifties!

"Forget it, I'll make a call." Qiao Nian saw that she was unwilling to let go for a long time, so she didn't bother to make a fuss, so she simply called Ye Lan.

There were two rings over there, and they were answered immediately.

"Nian Nian?"

"Aunt Ye, I'm here."

Qiao Nian glanced at the waiter who was staring at her suspiciously, pursed the corners of her lips, and said, "I'm outside, please come and pick me up."

"good."

Ye Lan didn't ask her why she didn't come in directly.

She hung up the phone and immediately said to the person in the private room: "Dad, Nian Nian is here. She doesn't know where the private room is, so I'll go out and pick her up."

This private room is the largest private room for private kitchens. Usually, the boss will not allow people to sit here, and only a few people can use this private room.

Master Ye has known the boss here for over twenty years.

We have known each other since the older generation. After the boss of the older generation left, his son and daughter-in-law took over the private kitchen, and Mr. Ye often came to take care of the business.

Every time he comes, the boss will come over to say a few words of greeting.

This time is no exception.

The owner of the private kitchen happened to be talking to Mr. Ye in the private room.

He is a smart man. Every time he talks to the old man, he talks about some interesting things from the past. By the way, he recalls old man Ye when he was young.

Grandpa Ye was also willing to give face to his old friend's son. He knew that the other party was flattering him, but he was willing to say a few words to him, so that the atmosphere didn't cool down.

Chapter 3339: Mr. Ye is angry

Originally, the atmosphere in the private room was pleasant, and the boss also took the opportunity to get to know a few people around Mr. Ye, who he couldn't usually get in touch with.

However, as Ye Lan stood up and said this sentence.

He obviously felt that the atmosphere in the private room had become colder by more than one degree.

Ye Maoshan nodded at Ye Lan: "Hurry up, don't let Niannian stand outside for too long."

"Okay." Ye Lan dragged the chair away and hurried out.

Grandpa Ye stared at the boss for a second with unclear eyes, and said meaningfully: "It seems that it is getting more and more difficult to eat the food here!"

The boss was sweating profusely and everyone was numb. He explained in a muffled voice: "It must be a misunderstanding. It may be that the new waiter is not sensible and doesn't know people."

Mr. Ye is usually a very easy-going person. Although his status is there, he rarely puts on airs. He is also easy to talk and takes special care of old acquaintances.

But this time, there was no smile on his face, he just replied lightly: "That's right. My granddaughter-in-law rarely comes out to eat, so it's normal to be stopped outside."

Even if the boss is a fool, he can hear the dissatisfaction in his words, wipe the sweat off his face, and immediately said: "I'll go out and pick it up."

Ye Maoshan just picked up the tea on the table, neither agreed nor disagreed.

The boss could only stand there, not daring to move, feeling uneasy. He peeped at the face of the old man drinking tea several times, but he didn't see anything.

Until the sound of footsteps and Ye Lan's voice came from outside.

Ye Maoshan put down his teacup slowly, looked at the boss and said, "Everyone is here, so I won't trouble you."

"No trouble, no trouble." The boss complained incessantly.

He could already hear the strange meaning beyond the old man Ye's words, and his attitude was completely different from the way he talked to himself just now.

It was hard for him to rely on the older generation to get in touch with people in this circle. The boss thought for a while: "I recently researched a new dish, eight-treasure roast duck, and it tastes good. Grandpa, would you like some? I'll take it I apologize to Young Master Ye's girlfriend."

Would you like to apologize just for one serving of roast duck?

If he encountered such a thing today, Mr. Ye might not really care about it, but this time when Qiao Nian was involved, he just felt uncomfortable.

"No need." So he rejected the boss's apology almost without thinking, and didn't want to talk to him again: "You go out to greet other guests first, and don't worry about me, an old man."

"..."

The boss is really dumb now, eating Coptis chinensis, and can't tell the pain.

But Mr. Ye has already shown that he doesn't want to talk about the past with him, and he is too embarrassed to stay in the private room, so he has a bitter face: "Okay, Mr. Ye, eat slowly, and I won't bother you."

Now Mr. Ye didn't even answer.

Holds a grudge.

When the boss was going out, he bumped into the girl who came with Ye Lan.

The girl looks very young, and she is following Ye Lan, mainly listening to Ye Lan, and she doesn't talk much herself.

He didn't see that Young Master Ye.

The boss sneaked a few glances at the girl, but the girl was always in a nonchalant manner, unable to see why.

But he could see Ye Lan's kind and affectionate attitude towards girls.

He knew that Ye Shao had a little girlfriend who went around the city, and was also the lost granddaughter of the Jiang family, but... no one told him that the Ye family valued this girl from a small place who climbed a high branch!

The boss regrets it now, only depressed that he didn't mention it to the waiter outside, so as not to offend people.

Chapter 3340: He's going to park the car and come right over

"Nian Nian, come and sit next to me."

Qiao Nian entered the box behind Ye Lan.

Once Mr. Ye saw her, he restrained his previous unhappiness, and greeted her with a smile: "Come on, I've reserved a place for you."

Several relatives of the Ye family are here today.

Ye Keji, Ye Shan, and some major relatives of the Ye family sat in their respective seats.

As soon as Qiao Nian came in, they all looked at the girl.

Ye Keji and Qiao Nian knew each other, and greeted her with a smile like Old Master Ye: "Miss Qiao, you are finally here."

Ye Shan suffered a lot from the hands of girls, her eyes flickered, and she pretended to drink water without saying hello, but she didn't dare to find fault.

The most obvious performance is the most famous little devil in the Ye family.

Ye Qichen has been sitting on the seat holding an ipad to play since he followed Ye Lan to the private room, ignoring people the whole time.

As soon as Qiao Nian came in, he immediately put down the ipad, his * eyes flickered in the direction of the girl coming in, and he said with a cute face: "Sister."

Qiao Nian walked up to Old Man Ye and sat down, and handed him the game disc brought back from State M: "A gift."

Ye Qichen hugged the game disc that Qiao Nian bought for him, his brows and eyes were frowned, and he was very happy: "Thank you, sister."

The voice is so crisp.

The eyeballs of some relatives of the Ye family in the private room who were not familiar with Qiao's reading were almost out of their eyes.

They knew what kind of personality Ye Qichen had.

The Ye family would say the most difficult people to get along with, one is the glorious young master Ye, and the other is the little young master who has been congenitally deficient and a little disabled since birth...

Ye Qichen could be so well-behaved, it's unbelievable in the eyes of others.

Ye Lan still touched the little guy's hair, and said to Qiao Nian: "Since you found him a teacher, Chen Chen's academic performance has skyrocketed recently, or you have Find a way to manage him."

Qiao Nian opened the chair and sat down, and answered the conversation quite naturally: "I've been too busy recently to ask him, the main reason is that he is obedient."

When Ye Lan heard her praise her little overlord for being 'obedient', the corner of her mouth twitched, and she almost couldn't help revealing the little guy's true colors.

But seeing the little bully acting obediently sitting next to Qiao Nian, her heart was so soft that it was a mess, and the words on her mouth automatically changed to: "Yeah, Chenchen seldom makes me worry."

Ye Qichen also said obediently by the way: "Sister, I will listen to grandma."

Old man Ye looked at the youngest one in the family, clicked his mouth, but didn't say anything, raised his eyes and said to the girl: "Wang Chuan, why didn't he come in with you."

He was still thinking about Qiao Nian being stopped outside, and when he mentioned Ye Wangchuan, he said in a sullen tone: "This stinky brat, even if I asked him to pick up someone, he would run away!"

Qiao Nian felt the gazes falling on her from all around, and leaned slightly on the back of the chair. She wanted to relax, but felt that it was better to restrain herself in front of outsiders.

She sat up a little more, pulled down her peaked cap agitatedly, lowered her crow-black eyelashes, and said very politely: "He's going to stop the car and come over right away."

I don't know if it's a coincidence or what.

She just finished speaking.

A person came to the door of the private room.

Who is Ye Wangchuan who parked his car and came over?

He entered the private room and greeted a group of people in a leisurely manner, then walked to the only vacant seat.
