

Madam's 3351

Chapter 3351: Sure enough, behind the scenes

Aunt Chen was not worried, so she was silent for a moment, and patted his chest to make him stop talking.

Uncle Chen sighed, and said quietly for a while: "I heard from those people that they won't let it go."

Ever since Qiao Nian went to Beijing, she has become the future granddaughter-in-law of the Ye family.

People often come to her here.

She knew the faces of those people, so she patted the back of his hand and said, "Let them do whatever they want, just to make things difficult for us. We are small and have no money, so let them make things difficult if they want. I won't let them do what they want anyway, I won't bother Nian Nian for them."

Uncle Chen also thought so, so he stopped talking.

Things were exactly as Uncle Chen thought.

When Aunt Chen went out to set up a stall in the afternoon, she encountered hooligans and hooligans, who first scared away all the diners, and then later, a person who claimed to be an inspector came over and told her that she could not set up a stall here in the future, which was a violation of the rules.

This is not the end.

In the evening, Aunt Chen packed her things and went home exhausted physically and mentally. Then she received a call saying that someone had eaten food poisoning at her house in the afternoon and was being rescued at the hospital, so she was told to go there quickly.

After she settled Uncle Chen, she had to rush to the hospital.

When she went to the hospital, the patient's family rushed up to her, crying and beating her, and then asked her to pay the medical expenses in advance, and insisted that her husband got food poisoning after eating her hot and sour noodles.

The doctor is also urging gastric lavage.

Aunt Chen had no choice but to advance 20,000 yuan in medical expenses, and was asked by her family to wait for the gastric lavage operation in the hospital before she was allowed to leave.

Aunt Chen came out in a hurry, and she didn't have time to cook for Uncle Chen before she left.

She was sitting on a cold bench in the hospital corridor in a hurry, but no matter how she told the patient's family that she would not run away, those people grabbed her and refused to let her go.

In desperation, she had no choice but to send a message to Chen Yuan, who was studying in Beijing, and asked Chen Yuan to entrust her high school classmates to deliver meals.

Beijing City.

Chen Yuan turned on his phone after class and saw a text message from his mother.

He walked out of the classroom quickly and called Aunt Chen.

The phone rang for more than ten seconds before it was connected.

Chen Yuan immediately asked: "Mom, what's the matter at home? Why aren't you at home?"

"...I can't tell you for a while. If you are far away, you can find a classmate you knew in high school to deliver food to your dad first, and I will go back at night."

Aunt Chen didn't want him to know about the family affairs, mainly because she didn't want him to go and talk to Qiao Nian.

"By the way, I don't worry about giving the key. You can ask him to find a lock company, and I will pay for it. If they don't unlock him, ask the master to call me and I will explain to them."

Aunt Chen was very thoughtful, and even thought of the unlocking company.

She told Chen Yuan carefully, never mentioning where she is now.

Chen Yuan heard that the matter was serious this time, so he didn't insist on asking the reason, so he agreed obediently, saying that he would contact his classmates to deliver the meal after hanging up the phone.

Aunt Chen hung up the phone in peace.

Chen Yuan waited for her to hang up the phone, thought for a while, found out Qiao Nian's phone number, and rubbed his fingertips several times, but he didn't call.

He bought a recent flight ticket to the circle city on the app, ran to ask the professor for leave, and hurried to the airport.

During the period, I also found a way to contact a high school classmate and asked him to help me deliver meals to my family. By the way, I also explained what Aunt Chen said about finding a lock unlocking company to unlock.

Early the next morning.

Aunt Chen was pestered by family members all night, and finally got rid of those people in the morning, and returned home exhausted.

Chapter 3352: Chen Yuan is back

She walked to the door and mechanically took out the key from her bag to open the door, then remembered that she had asked Chen Yuan's classmate to deliver meals to her husband last night, and had already destroyed the door lock.

She silently stuffed the key back into her bag and pushed open the old iron door of the house.

Squeak—

The door opens as soon as it is pushed.

Aunt Chen just stepped in after dragging her exhausted body that hadn't slept all night. She tried her best to sound normal, and said to the people in the room, "I'm back. You last night..."

Before she finished speaking, she saw the person in the living room whom she hadn't seen for almost three months. She froze in place and rubbed her eyes vigorously to make sure she wasn't hallucinating.

Aunt Chen just said, "Far, far?"

Uncle Chen was helped by Chen Yuan to have breakfast in the living room.

The scent of clear porridge wafted from the kitchen. Chen Yuan even peeled an egg for Uncle Chen and put it in a bowl. Then he got up and wiped his hands with paper, and looked at the person who came in from outside.

"I'll scoop up rice for you, do you want eggs?" He looked as natural as he came back from a holiday on weekdays, wiped his hands and said, "You go and wash your hands first, and you can eat when you come out."

Aunt Chen's soles seemed to weigh a thousand catties, and she couldn't move at all. She watched Chen Yuan enter the kitchen and brought her a bowl of rice.

She finally came back to her senses, remembered something, and grabbed Chen Yuan's arm anxiously: "You didn't tell Niannian, did you?"

Chen Yuan was not angry when he saw her grabbing his hand anxiously. He slowly put the meal on the table, and patted the back of her hand reassuringly: "Don't worry, I didn't say anything."

"That's good." Aunt Chen heaved a sigh of relief.

Chen Yuan looked at her loosened hand, suppressed the anger in his eyes, and asked her in a low voice: "Mom, you can always tell me what's going on."

"this..."

Aunt Chen's heart that had just been let go raised her throat again, her eyes flickered and she subconsciously looked at Chen Yuan, only to see Chen Yuan's eyes were dark, as if waiting for her to explain.

Knowing that her son was stubborn, she sighed in her heart, and left without threatening someone who came to ask them to do business yesterday.

Looking back, she told Chen Yuan everything she encountered when she went to set up a stall in the afternoon.

Only the patient who had a bad stomach last night, she kneaded the corner of her clothes, and insisted: "The guest last night should be a coincidence, I have already explained to them. The police have also come, just wait for the final investigation results to come out." Just do it."

Chen Yuan sneered angrily, looked at her with serious eyes, and suppressed the depression in his chest: "Mom, do you really think that the guest last night was a coincidence?"

"It's not a coincidence, what else..." Aunt Chen immediately looked away, not looking at him.

Then I didn't want Chen Yuan to pursue it any further, so I pushed him inside and said, "Don't worry about it. I'll buy a plane ticket and go back to school in the afternoon. Your dad and I will take care of it, so don't worry about it!"

"Yes, Chen Yuan. Listen to your mother! I will go back to school in the afternoon. Where can I read a book and run home every day! The teacher will be angry if he finds out." Uncle Chen knew what his wife was thinking.

If you tell Chen Yuan that the guest who suffered from food poisoning last night was probably framed, then the matter will be serious, and the other party will definitely not give up easily.

But they made up their mind that even if they lost everything, they would not bother Nian Nian, so the most important thing is to let Chen Yuan go back to study first, lest he get involved.

Aunt Chen didn't sleep all night, her eyes were blue, she patted him on the shoulder vigorously, and said earnestly: "Far away, listen to your father and buy a plane ticket in the afternoon."

Chapter 3353: The family still refused to give in

Chen Yuan could see that they really didn't want to take care of themselves, and they didn't know what they were thinking, as if they had compromised, and lowered their voice: "I understand."

Uncle Chen and Aunt Chen both heaved a sigh of relief, with relaxed and bright expressions on their faces, and put all those troublesome things aside.

Take Chen Yuan to sit down and have breakfast together, and ask him about the school by the way...

at this time.

In the only five-star hotel around the city.

Father Zhou had been waiting for news, and the assistant who went outside to ask about the situation finally knocked on his door.

Father Zhou stood up: "Come in."

The assistant came in from the outside and called out, "Mr. Zhou."

Father Zhou reluctantly nodded, and immediately asked him: "How is it? Has the family relented?"

"No."

The assistant shook his head solemnly, and said: "After she arrived at the hospital yesterday, she paid the money as soon as she was asked to pay. She didn't say anything except explaining to her family members that her food was hygienic. The family members hinted at her according to your explanation, and she also It's like I don't understand."

"It shouldn't be!" Father Zhou paced back and forth irritably, and then returned to the assistant, looking straight at him: "Do you think she really doesn't understand or is she pretending not to understand?"

The assistant felt hairy when he saw it, and quickly lowered his head, lowering his sense of existence, and said in a hoarse voice, "This... I'm not sure."

Father Zhou was not satisfied with his answer.

The assistant said very cleverly: "But when ordinary people encounter these things one after another, they should think of what you said when you went to her house yesterday."

Father Zhou glanced at him, and said slowly: "So you also think she is pretending to be confused with me."

The assistant wisely kept silent this time.

Silence is the best answer.

Father Zhou's mood became more and more heavy, he gritted his teeth, shook his hands and said, "I thought we could start from the side of the city, and Zhou Zheng could still be saved. It seems that the family around the city is also a tough one! Fortunately, they have no family background, so they can handle it. It's still easy for such a person. It won't be the same as Jingshi, who can't find a place to start!"

He has tried to move around the relationship between Beijing and the city before.

It's a pity that those who can gain a foothold in Beijing have no background connections, and the network of relationships is intricate.

He, an external force, can't move anyone except throwing money.

But the Chen family around the city is different.

The Chen family are just ordinary people.

Except for a college student in the family, the work is average, no background, and no big names. Such an ordinary person is too easy to handle.

He can make them die by raising his hand a little bit!

Father Zhou figured this out, his eyes became darker, and he told his assistant, "Go find some people to scare them."

He carefully explained to his assistant how to 'scare' the members of the Chen family.

As soon as the assistant received the order, he went to do it.

Chen Yuan was watched by Aunt Chen and boarded a taxi to the airport at noon.

Before the taxi departed, she specially stuffed money into the driver, and told the driver to take him to the airport 'safely'.

Although the driver was puzzled, he still accepted the money and promised her first.

The car left Chen's house and got on the viaduct.

In the car.

Chen Yuan said to the driver through the rearview mirror: "Master, when you get to the airport, wait for me outside. I will come out after I go in, and then you will take me to a place."

"Uh." The driver hasn't seen such a strange request in more than ten years of driving. While driving steadily, he glanced at him and said, "You don't want to catch the plane? Didn't your mother tell you to go back to school early?"

Chapter 3354: I want to call the police

Chen Yuan saw the car following them through the rearview mirror of the taxi, smiled, and said lightly: "I still have something to do."

The driver touched his head. Anyway, he could make more money, and he was happy to let go of his business: "That's fine, I'll wait for you outside for ten minutes at most. If you wait too long, you will be fined."

"Okay, ten minutes is enough."

Chen Yuan looked at the car following them all the way, and estimated that when he arrived at the airport, his mother would leave when he saw him entering the terminal.

Ten minutes is enough!

It turns out he was right.

After seeing him off, Aunt Chen hailed a taxi and followed him all the way to the airport, watching him enter the terminal.

She was relieved, and said to the person who had been on the phone: "Don't worry, it's far away."

"That's good."

The man on the other end of the phone is seriously ill, and his speech is weak. Who is it but Uncle Chen?

The driver got impatient and turned around and asked, "How long do we have to wait? No parking is allowed here."

Aunt Chen saw Chen Yuan enter the airport terminal with her own eyes, and the driver kept urging her, so she didn't want to bother others, so she said, "It's ok. Thank you, master, let's go back now."

With such a good attitude, the taxi driver was too embarrassed to lose his temper again, so he turned the car around in a muffled voice and prepared to drive back.

"I'll be right back, first..." Aunt Chen was about to tell Uncle Chen to hang up.

at this time.

She heard a noisy voice on the other end of the phone.

Then there was a pinging sound in the house, followed by Uncle Chen's frightened and angry voice: "Who are you and what do you want to do?"

"What's wrong?" Aunt Chen suddenly became nervous.

Uncle Chen didn't seem to have a chance to answer her.

Only the voice of someone talking came from the mobile phone before hanging up: "We are from the Food Bureau. We received a report that there is something wrong with the products you sell. You are the owner of this house, right? Please come back with us." !"

how so?

Aunt Chen was so anxious that she was sweating profusely, holding her mobile phone and shouting, "Hello?"

"Hello? I'm the one who sells Mala Tang. Don't bother him, come to me."

"Hello? Can you hear me?"

The phone over there seems to be hung up.

Aunt Chen was so anxious that tears were about to come out, she grabbed the phone tightly, rushed forward and said, "Master, can you drive faster? I'm in a hurry."

The driver also heard the phone call she made just now. It seems that something happened at home.

The driver stepped on the accelerator and immediately said, "I'll do it as soon as possible."

Three hours later.

Chen Yuan broke into the police station around the city and called the police.

The person who received him saw that he looked like a college student, so he let him in, pointed out a seat for him to sit first, and then took a notebook and asked him what was the matter.

Chen Yuan told the person who received him what happened at home, and then said anxiously: "I want to call the police to save people."

The person who received him carefully took notes at the beginning, and looked at him with a little dumbfounded at the back. It took a long time to reply to him and said, "You mean... let us save people? But you are food poisoning caused by food, and you were taken away. Going through the normal process. Why did you make it look like your dad was kidnapped?"

Chen Yuan pursed his lower lip, his complexion was a little pale, and the veins on the back of his clenched hands were bulging. He looked extremely frightened and tried to calm himself down: "Because they didn't take my dad away for food poisoning! That food The poisoning is also because they framed our family!"

"This..." The people who received him were all over their heads, thinking that it wouldn't count if you said this.

Chapter 3355: Master Wang knows, countdown to slap in the face

However, he saw that Chen Yuan was young and his speech was clear. He just asked about it as a college student with a heavy education in Beijing, so he didn't seem to want to make nonsense.

He had a good intention and said, "Then wait for me, and I will tell the team leader about your situation."

"good."

Chen Yuan covered the hot tea that others brought him with both hands, tried to calm down, pursed his lips, looked at that person, and said in a hoarse voice: "Thank you."

The person who received him froze for a moment, but comforted him: "You sit here and wait for me, I'll be right back."

Cai Gang just came here for business today, and was about to leave after drinking tea.

Someone hurried into the office, where he reported a dispute to the police.

Originally, he wasn't interested in these trivial matters. After all, he was busy with things every day, so he couldn't care about these trivial matters.

Cai Gang stepped out with half of his foot.

Suddenly heard a familiar name.

"The student who called the police is Chen Yuan. He is still a student at A University in Beijing. His grades are quite good. I don't think he wants to lie."

Chen Yuan?

Cai Gang frowned, feeling vaguely familiar.

He took back the foot he stepped out, and heard the people inside were getting angry, saying how they would rescue such a thing, which was not in compliance with the rules.

Seeing Cai Gang fall back again.

The person who was getting angry was a little flustered, thinking that he felt that the people under him were not doing well, so he glared at his subordinates, and then smiled apologetically: "...Look, I let you see a joke! He is not sensible, I have already educated him. He won't answer all calls in the future."

Cai Gang ignored him, and walked up to the man with a serious face: "That Chen Yuan you just mentioned, can you tell me specifically what it is?"

The person who received Chen Yuan before was sweating nervously, repeating what Chen Yuan had just told him in detail.

Cai knew he was right when he heard about the Mala Tang booth and his disabled and seriously ill father.

Chen Yuan who called the police was the Chen family he remembered as having a good relationship with Qiao Nian.

His expression became serious, and before he went out to make a phone call, he hurriedly explained to the people inside: "You take good care of him, and then follow what he said to investigate first to see if there is such a thing."

Cai Gang was able to get to where he is today except that he had eyesight and recognized Ye Wangchuan who circled the city.

I also have some real skills on my body.

After all, Ye Wangchuan doesn't need waste.

He said: "Especially the family members in the hospital who complained about food poisoning, go to the doctor and ask him what the residue from gastric lavage is..."

If the hospital proves that the residue from the family's gastric lavage does not belong to Mala Tang, then this is clear extortion and they will go to jail.

Cai Gang didn't look at the reactions of the two, and hurriedly said: "I'll make a phone call, and you should check as I said."

He wants to tell Wang Ye quickly.

Beijing City.

Ye Wangchuan immediately received a call from Cai Gang.

The smile on his lips was subdued, the drooping eyelashes covered the coolness in his eyes, his fingertips rubbed against the corners of the phone, and his eyes could not be suppressed sharply: "I see."

Cai Gang was smart enough at the beginning, and chose the right position, so he skyrocketed.

At this moment, of course, I have to ask this person's thoughts clearly: "Young Master Ye, do you think I should tell the Chen family members not to worry?"

"Since they don't want Nian Nian to know, then don't say it."

Ye Wangchuan turned around and walked back to the living room, put his hand on the bar and tapped his fingertips lightly, showing a mocking expression: "Don't they like to overwhelm others? Wait for you..."

Chapter 3356: Who is the ant that is about to be crushed to death?

He asked Cai Gang to do something.

After Cai Gang listened, he hung up the phone silently, took a deep breath of fresh air, and lit a candle in his heart for the dying Zhou family.

Play this game with this one.

They will only be beaten to death.

In the hotel.

Father Zhou heard the assistant's report, his nerves that had been tense for a few days relaxed, and there was a smile line on the corner of his lips. He looked gentlemanly and refined: "Let's lock him up for a long time, and I will go to her in the evening! This time, she is relaxed. Don't let go."

Mother Zhou saw that things had turned around. She changed her sluggishness a few days ago, and today she tidied up and looked particularly radiant.

She smoothed the hair on her shoulders, and said in a soft tone: "Half a day? Will it be too cheap for them? Let me tell you, at least lock them up for a day."

She remembered that day when she came to the door with a big and small bag, the middle-aged woman drove them out without any sense of humor.

With such a good opportunity for revenge, she can't wait to make the other party suffer.

Father Zhou turned his head to look at her, and frowned in disapproval: "What do you know?"

Mother Zhou choked, before she had time to refute.

He continued in a deep voice: "We can't delay for too long. I asked Captain Yang, and he said that the man is not in good health. It is the limit to delay without taking medicine for a long time. If it is delayed for a long time, problems will easily occur."

"..." Zhou Mu's eyebrows moved slightly, and her lips curled up in disapproval.

In her eyes, people like Aunt Chen and Uncle Chen are just ants in the sea, even if they die in front of her, she may not be touched.

All she cares about is herself and Zhou Zheng!

What does the life and death of other people have to do with her?

Father Zhou seemed to see what was going on in her heart, and reminded her calmly: "Don't forget. Our purpose is not to force them to death, but to let her come forward to help us. If it hurts both of us, no one will lose face." Not pretty."

There is Ye Wangchuan in Beijing City.

He could crush the Chen family like an ant, but why aren't they ants?

"Understood, anyway, as long as I can save my son, I will listen to you." Although Zhou's mother was reluctant in her heart, she reluctantly let it go.

Father Zhou stopped talking to her, turned his head and said to the assistant with a serious face: "Go help me and tell Team Yang and the others that I will treat them to dinner at noon, and thank them for their generous help this time."

"Okay, Mr. Zhou."

It wasn't the first day that the assistant was by his side. He was very good at dealing with these matters in the field of interpersonal communication, so he went to do it right away.

As soon as the assistant leaves.

Mother Zhou regained her composure, and said worriedly, "There shouldn't be any more accidents this time."

"They are ordinary people, don't worry." Father Zhou pressed her shoulder, went to the restaurant and made himself a cup of coffee.

He is a scheming person, planning in his mind to wait until lunch with Team Yang and the others to finish the meal, and then to negotiate with Aunt Chen at night.

Because things went so smoothly, he even made coffee a lot more briskly.

at the same time.

Unbeknownst to Zhou's father, the family who made trouble in the hospital had been taken back to the police station.

At the beginning, they were crying when they were questioned by the police. They insisted that their family members had food poisoning caused by eating the spicy hot pot sold by Aunt Chen, and they rushed to the hospital.

No matter how the police reminded them not to lie, they refused to let go.

Until the police who went to the doctor to collect evidence came back, and brought the residue and operation records taken out by the doctor's gastric lavage that day and placed them in front of them.

"Speak."

Chapter 3357: I thought everything was under my control

Facing the ironclad evidence, that family was dumbfounded.

After changing the posture of the victims when they first came in, they all trembled with fright, and began to cry and beg for mercy.

"We just wanted to scare her."

"We didn't cause much impact, the worst thing is to refund her the medical expenses she paid in advance."

"Yes, Mr. Police, we would like to refund the money."

The policeman in charge of writing the records also received the young man Chen Yuan. Hearing this, he stopped the pen in his hand and looked up at them. He sneered and said, "So you are just joking?"

The woman who was pestering Aunt Chen last night, pulling her hair and beating her was as cowardly as a quail, and nodded frantically with her neck curled up: "Yeah, I was just joking. We already knew we were wrong, so you don't want to talk to me." We care about... we have no culture, we don't understand anything."

The young policeman saw a lot of people who are used to selling miserably, knocked on the table to calm them down, and said in a serious tone: "Do you understand what is extortion?! Do you know that extorting others is going to jail? According to The criminal law can sentence you to 1-3 years."

"What? Jail!"

The whole family was shocked.

The crocodile also had tears, crying: "We don't go to jail! We don't know anything. We are just joking with her."

"Quiet." The policeman who interrogated them patted the table, then looked around them, and said straightforwardly: "Tell me, who asked you to do it."

The whole family showed expressions of fear, hesitating and not wanting to say anything.

The young policeman was not in a hurry, put down his pen, and simply leaned back, leaning on the back of his chair, as if slowly consuming them.

"You don't have to say anything, I have plenty of time. But let me remind you first, frankness is lenient, and resistance is strict."

"You still have a chance to make meritorious deeds, but if you refuse to cooperate with us, then you can only be blamed, and you will be regarded as malicious blackmail."

"Malicious extortion will be dealt with at the top level, and you will be sentenced to three years, no problem!"

The trouble that this family went to find Aunt Chen was originally for money.

No matter how much money the Zhou family gave, how could it be as serious as going to jail?

The family cried for a while. Seeing that there was nothing they could do, someone raised their hands tremblingly: "I, I say."

Father Zhou had lunch with Team Yang and others at a high-end private kitchen at noon.

Also opened a few bottles of vintage wine.

It cost 6 figures for a meal.

Father Zhou was very generous, without blinking his eyes.

Before leaving, he stuffed everyone with a big red envelope, and he was quite good at being a man.

He and his assistant sent people to the door, and then sent them to the car one by one. They bent down beside Team Yang's car and knocked on the window.

Wait for the windows to roll down.

He stretched his eyebrows and said to the people in the car: "As long as my business can be done this time, I will 'thank' you well later."

He specially emphasized the word "thank you".

Everyone is an adult, and they looked at each other with pleasant smiles, and the greetings were quickly over.

The man in the car looked at his watch, and the cell phone that was left in the co-pilot just turned on. He didn't dare to delay any longer, so he said to Father Zhou, "President Zhou, I'll be leaving first."

Father Zhou stepped aside: "Go slowly."

He watched the black car drive away slowly, and then he breathed a sigh of relief, feeling more relaxed, and turned to his assistant and said, "Let's go, and go find that person again in the evening."

He was talking about Aunt Chen.

He hadn't realized the danger that the mountain rain was about to come and the wind was overwhelming.

Chapter 3358: Don't worry, Miss Qiao doesn't know

Beijing City.

Ye Wangchuan received a call from Cai Gang: "Master Wang, I have already collected all the chains of evidence, and I will start taking action just waiting for your order."

Ye Wangchuan looked at the time.

It took Cai Gang about 3 hours, and the work efficiency is not bad.

His brows are drooping, and his pupils are covered by extremely long eyelashes, making it difficult to see his emotions.

"Not urgent."

The purple sand pot on his hand is steaming, and the water inside has boiled, ready to make tea at any time.

But he wasn't in a hurry at all. His slender fingertips fiddled with the tassel on the side of the teapot, as if waiting for the tea to boil before it boiled hotter.

"Go and pick up Uncle Chen first, and send him to the hospital."

"good."

"Also inform Chen Yuan to take his mother with him. You drive to pick them up, and then take them to the ward to see people."

"OK."

Ye Wangchuan slowly picked up the teapot to brew the tea in the cup, and the roasted tea quickly unfolded its branches and leaves under the boiling water.

He half-closed his eyes, with a smile on the corner of his mouth, but the smile did not reach his eyes: "Let's do it first. Be careful to ensure the safety of the Chen family!"

There is no need for him to explain this, Cai Gang also took it to heart: "Don't worry, Mr. Wang."

Ye Wangchuan hung up the phone, put the phone aside, concentrated on making tea, and glanced at the time on the wall, estimating how long it would take for Cai Gang to finish these things.

Qiao Nian's room on the second floor was still quiet.

No accident, she is still sleeping or writing a song, in short, she doesn't care about outside things for the time being.

Besides, neither Aunt Chen nor Chen Yuan probably told her what happened around the city.

Ye Wangchuan tapped the table with her white fingers. Originally, he didn't need to take care of such trivial matters, but Aunt Chen was kind to Qiao Nian.

The Zhou family has stepped on a red line by putting their ideas on Aunt Chen's head!

He thought for a while, then called Ye Maoshan: "Hello, old man..."

Cai Gang's speed in handling affairs has never been bad, and this time he did it himself, and it took less than an hour to bring Uncle Chen out and send him to the hospital.

He also waited until the doctor gave Uncle Chen a comprehensive physical examination, making sure that there was nothing wrong with him, and only after he needed to rest, he contacted Chen Yuan according to Ye Wangchuan's instructions.

When Chen Yuan received the call, he knew that he still couldn't hide it. He was in a low mood, but Cai Gang told him that Qiao Nian didn't know what happened around the city... Ask him to go home and bring Aunt Chen to the hospital to visit Uncle Chen, it's safe here.

Half an hour later.

Cai Gang drove to the outside of the Chen family compound.

Chen Yuan just helped Aunt Chen, whose eyes were red from crying, to come out. Seeing him, he pursed his lips and said, "Thank you."

Cai Gang is a smart man, when he went to open the door, he immediately smiled and said: "I also help Ye Shao with errands."

Chen Yuan remained silent.

Aunt Chen was still a little embarrassed, so she didn't get into the car immediately, walked to the side of the car, and said anxiously: "Miss her..."

Cai Gang didn't know why they cared so much about whether Qiao Nian knew or not, but he still dutifully explained: "Don't worry, Auntie, Miss Qiao doesn't know about it."

"That's good." Aunt Chen finally calmed down and was willing to get in the car.

During the few hours when Uncle Chen was taken away, she thought of many ways, but she never thought of going to Qiao Nian, for fear that she would cause trouble for Nian Nian again.

Fortunately, Nian Nian doesn't know.

Chen Yuan supported her: "Mom, slow down."

Although Aunt Chen was angry that he lied to herself that she didn't get on the plane, she thought that the children's original intention was to worry about them, so she couldn't blame him, so she hummed and got into the car slowly.

Chapter 3359: Only when you switch to yourself will you know the pain!

Chen Yuan also got into the car.

Cai Gang just went around to the front and took them to the hospital.

On the way, Aunt Chen was fidgeting fidgeting with her clothes. She didn't feel relieved until she saw her husband in the hospital ward who was safe and sound.

The family was finally reunited, and no one mentioned the bad things before.

Compared with the family reunion here, Father Zhou, who thought he was in control of everything at noon, did not go so well.

He first received a call and learned that Uncle Chen had been taken away, but he didn't know where he was taken.

Received another call from the person who had dinner with him at noon, asking him angrily who he had provoked, why he had promised to teach the Mala Tang seller a lesson, and why he turned around and was notified to suspend him for investigation...

Father Zhou did not dare to tell the whole story when he asked someone to help him. He only said that Aunt Chen offended him, and he wanted to find someone to teach Aunt Chen a lesson.

Now that this is happening, he doesn't know how to explain it to the other party for a while.

Mainly explaining this matter is better than not explaining it.

It's impossible for him to tell these people that Jing Shi and Qiao Nian are behind it, right?

Zhou's father hung up the phone in a panic, and Zhou's mother was still immersed in the night so she could go to Aunt Chen to force her to let go.

happened to come over and ask him: "What time do we go to find someone at night?"

Father Zhou gave her a fixed look, but didn't speak for a long time.

Mother Zhou asked strangely: "What do you see me doing? What's wrong?"

Father Zhou shook his head, and didn't bother to tell her, lest she wouldn't be able to help and would still be chasing in his ear, making her upset.

He walked to the floor-to-ceiling window alone, and tentatively dialed the phone number of Aunt Chen that he found at the beginning.

The phone rang a dozen times.

I got through but no one answered.

He tried a few more times unwillingly.

Still the same situation.

Can get through, but no one answered!

Just when he was unable to determine the situation at hand, there was a knock on the door outside the suite.

"Who is it?"

Mother Zhou looked towards the entrance and asked impatiently.

The voice of the hotel waiter came from outside, saying politely: "Hello, guest, we are the hotel cleaners, please open the door, and we will clean the room for you."

Zhou's mother looked at the coffee cups in the room that hadn't been cleared away, and went to open the door.

"Wait..." Father Zhou reacted and wanted to stop her.

The door is already open.

In addition to the hotel staff, there are also police outside.

The police did not greet them, but showed their ID in front of them, then looked up at Father Zhou, and asked directly, "Are you Mr. Zhou?"

Father Zhou saw that there was something they didn't understand, but he couldn't believe it: "...it's me."

"You are suspected of a cross-border fraud case, please follow us to the police station." Someone outside came in to take him away.

Mother Zhou was dumbfounded by the scene in front of her.

"Did you make a mistake? We are not short of money, how can we cheat?"

She didn't understand how it was obviously Aunt Chen and Uncle Chen who were taken away, but how they became members of her family and were taken away.

But no one would talk to her.

When the visitor put handcuffs on Zhou's father, he answered her quietly: "We won't look for Mr. Zhou without evidence, let's go."

Although Father Zhou wanted to resist, he had already talked about this, so he had to cooperate first.

"You can't do this, he is not in good health..." Mother Zhou was dumbfounded.

She was not as calm as Zhou's father, and saw her husband and son being taken away.

She cried and followed.

Completely forgot the contempt she used to treat others as ants, only endless pain and confusion...

Chapter 3360 Sister Nian knows

Beijing City.

Qiao Nian's room was brightly lit, and on the table were scattered scraps of paper, each of which had writing, drawing, and handwriting on it.

In addition to the draft papers on the table, there were also a lot of crumpled draft papers in the trash can at Qiao Nian's feet, which showed that her new song was not progressing smoothly.

The computer screen placed on the desk emits a white light, and the opened page is the background of a music simulator.

The musical instrument Qiao Nian chose was konghou.

There is a short tune on it.

The girl tapped the Enter key lightly, and the computer automatically simulated the tune played by the instrument through the score, and the tune was atmospheric.

Ordinarily she should be satisfied.

But Qiao Nian just frowned slightly after listening, and then deleted the short piece of score on the computer one by one with her white hands.

In this way, we have to start all over again.

Qiao Nian rubbed her swollen temples, raised her hand to get the drink on hand, but found nothing, and turned her head to see that she had thrown all the bottles into the trash can, and she had already drank them all.

She pushed her toes off the chair, stood up, put one hand in her pocket, and opened the door with the other hand, ready to go downstairs to get a bottle of Coke.

As soon as she reached the second floor, she heard someone on the phone below.

"When is Chen Yuan planning to go back?"

"Is he only a sophomore?"

"Tell him that you will take care of him here and let him go back to school first."

"..."

Qiao Nian slowed down, half-closed his sleepy eyes, and keenly grasped the point of his words—Chen Yuan.

Where did Chen Yuan go when he was not in school?

Qiao Nian didn't know what to think of, her eyes suddenly darkened, and instead of turning back, she went downstairs and walked straight to the refrigerator.

"Miss Qiao." Seeing her, Gu San quickly gave Ye Wangchuan a wink, and then asked loudly, "Why did you come down?"

"There is no water in the room, come down and get some water." Qiao Nian spoke lightly, walked to the refrigerator, opened the door, took out a bottle of Coke and pulled the tab.

Then in Gu San's relieved expression, he suddenly raised his eyes to look at him: "By the way, do you guys have something to hide from me?"

Short enough!

Direct enough!

Gu San choked immediately.

"..."

"Are you all right?" Qiao Nian looked very good-natured, took a sip of Coke casually, then glanced at him again, and asked.

Gu San's throat was dry, and he didn't know whether to say: "Miss Qiao, I..."

His mouth was grinding hard, his eyes kept looking at the slender figure, and the word 'help' was written all over his face.

Fortunately, Ye Wangchuan is not that stupid, so he first said to Cai Gang who was on the phone: "Hang up first."

Then put away the phone, turned around and walked towards them, with extremely long eyelashes drooping down, outlining a helpless and doting expression: "I heard it."

Qiao Nian raised his eyebrows noncommittally, just looked at him, didn't say anything, still shaking the bottle of Coke in his hand, his movements were very casual.

"It's about going around the city." Ye Wangchuan was never a person who would be stubborn when caught, and looked at her deeply: "Aunt Chen didn't want you to know, so I didn't tell you."

Aunt Chen, Chen Yuan...

It was exactly what she thought.

Someone found Aunt Chen around the city.

Qiao Nian's voice was hoarse. Looking at him, he said a name: "Zhou Zheng?"

She has always been smart, so it is not difficult to guess the joints, but she did not expect that the Zhou family would move their minds to circle the city.

Really know how to die!
