

Madam's 3441

Chapter 3441 Master Wang did it himself

Ye Wangchuan ignored their worried expressions, turned around and walked to the driver's seat, opened the car door, and explained to Mo Dong: "I'll go back with her first. Come over after you pack up here."

"Okay, Mr. Wang." Mo Dong nodded.

It will take some time for him to clear up all the monitoring probes near Ji's old house and the intrusion programs at the intersection.

This process still needs the help of Bo Shao.

As for Qin Shao.

Mo Dong was also very perceptive, so he didn't ask Master Wang why he didn't bring Young Master Qin with him, and even clinging on Qin Si's shoulder, before he could react, he dragged him to follow him to monitor the evacuation of the people at each hall ...

Ye Wangchuan has a villa in Independence Island.

Stop when you get off-road.

She got out of the car with ease, swiped the iris system to get in, then threw the black backpack she was carrying to the entrance, and walked straight to the second floor.

"I'll go back to my room and take a shower first."

"Um."

Ye Wangchuan looked at the bag she left in the hallway, took it into the living room for her and put it away, then went into the kitchen to check the coffee machine.

In the past few months since they left Independent Island, this place has been cleaned every day.

Ye Wangchuan is obsessed with cleanliness.

The cleaners will leave after doing simple cleaning, they will not stay in the villa too much, and they will not touch the things in the villa.

So he has to clean the coffee machine again if he wants to use it.

Washed by the cold water, the man's slender fingers are well-defined and beautiful, the forearm is smooth, and the cuff buttons of his black shirt are neat. Every movement of him is impeccable and elegant underwater, and his slowness reveals dignity.

If those second-generation circles in Beijing saw this scene, their eyes would definitely drop.

Ye Shao washes the coffee machine himself, and also cooks coffee with the coffee beans himself. The key point is that judging from his every move, this is not the first time he has done this.

Skillful everywhere.

What is Ye Wangchuan's identity?

He was doomed to be the Chosen One from birth.

The top heir of Beijing City, the only only seedling of the Ye family, such a person should be an existence with ten fingers not touching the spring water in anyone's eyes.

However, it is not the case.

This is full of impact.

Ye Wangchuan took out coffee beans from the cabinet, added a spoon into it with downcast eyes, thought for a while, and remembered that Qiao Nian didn't like too bitter drinks.

Rubbed the soft brows and eyes, turned around and went to the refrigerator to take out a bottle of milk, ready to add creamer and sugar cubes to the coffee.

Upstairs.

Qiao Nian closed the door after entering the room, and went to the bathroom to take a cold shower.

The weather at the end of September is not too cold, but not too hot.

The first moment when the cold water rushed down her head and touched her skin was cold, but this kind of cold was very suitable for stimulating the nerves, and washed away the manic depression in her body a little.

She didn't stay long, she simply took a shower and put on the bathrobe she had on hand, and wiped the water droplets from her hair with a towel.

The mirror was filled with heat, and the face was blurry.

Qiao Nian didn't bother to look in the mirror, and walked into the room while wiping her hair.

Just came out and saw someone in the room.

Take another look.

is Ye Fanchuan.

She relaxed her nerves, and didn't treat him as an outsider. She went straight to the lazy sofa by the window, and naturally put the towel for wiping her hair on the coffee table: "Why are you here?"

"I knocked on the door, I thought you heard it, so I opened it and walked in." Ye Wangchuan held up the things he brought and walked towards her.

Chapter 3442 Always know what she is thinking

Qiao Nian looked at the coffee handed to him, paused, and reached out to take it.

The moment her fingertips touched the cup, the heat was transmitted to her body along the fingers, dispelling the coldness in her body, and she was surprised to find that what Ye Wangchuan gave her was a cup of hot coffee.

"you..."

Qiao Nian raised his eyes, his dark eyes froze for a moment, and he almost asked.

How did you know I was going to take a cold shower?

But when the words came to her mouth, she realized that asking this question on this occasion was a bit too ambiguous, making it seem like a hint, so she silently shut up and lowered her head to take a sip of coffee.

The coffee is full of milky aroma.

Compared to coffee, the mouthfeel is more like coffee milk.

She remembered that someone was obsessed with giving her milk before, she was speechless, sat down on the sofa, and put the coffee on the coffee table.

Then he raised his eyes, not hiding his emotions: "I'm fine."

She knew that Ye Wangchuan probably saw that she was in a bad mood.

She was really in a bad mood.

But it's not particularly bad, it can still be digested by itself.

Ye Fanchuan spread his hands in front of her again, the light from outside shone in on him, and Qiao Nian saw a beautifully colored candy in the palm of his hand.

"Chenchen prepared it for you."

Qiao Nian frowned subconsciously, looked up at him, a little bit disbelieving.

Ye Wangchuan didn't say that he took the little guy to buy it, he said quite naturally: "He bought a lot for you, there are various flavors, I brought some specially. Don't you often get annoyed, don't worry when you are annoyed. Playing with a lighter and eating a piece of candy will relieve it."

Qiao Nian stared at him blankly for several seconds, then looked away, slowly reached out to take the candy from his hand, and said inconspicuously, "Did you buy it or Chenchen?"

She doesn't think it's bought by the little guy, but it's right that the little guy likes to buy these gadgets for her.

But she believes that Ye Qichen still can't see that she is easily annoyed recently.

She has been out of control recently, and gets irritable and angry easily, so she finds out the lighter that was useless before, and plays it in her hand from time to time to divert her attention and emotions.

Even Qin Si didn't pay attention to this small detail.

I think she just has a silver lighter on hand recently, but I didn't realize that she was using this lighter to digest her emotions.

Only he noticed that he was different.

Qiao Nian couldn't express how he felt in his heart, but he felt that he was quite poisonous, and he kept silent but could even see his own small movements.

On the other side, there is another kind of solitary universe, and there is a person who understands her.

Even if she doesn't say it, he understands.

Qiao Nian peeled off the candy wrapper and threw the orange-flavored fruit candy into his mouth. After blinking, he reached out to him again: "Then I want a few more."

Ye Fanchuan took out a few more candies from the pocket of the gray sweater and handed them to her, and put them in her hand, not forgetting to remind her: "Eat a few less, be careful of toothache."

Qiao Nian couldn't help but glance at him when he got the candy, and stared at him seriously for a few seconds: "Hiss, did you hear that dad is a boyfriend?"

She had heard about the types of boyfriends from Shen Qingqing before.

Ye Wangchuan fits this type quite well.

As soon as she lost her mind and thought about it, her face was pinched, and a man's low-pitched smile came from above her head: "You say I'm old?"

Qiao Nian originally wanted to block it with his hat, but after pulling it away, he realized that he had just come out of the shower, so he gave up and put it down: "No, you are careful."

"Oh." He was still laughing.

Chapter 3443 Sister Nian just says she doesn't care

Qiao Nian knew that his eyes were bright and beautiful even without looking at them.

"...I thought God Joe wanted to call me Dad."

"..."hehe!

Qiao Nian immediately put all the candy from him into the bag, and didn't want to talk to him anymore, but he didn't feel so depressed after being interrupted by him.

She played with the fruit candy in her pocket, leaned back slightly on the sofa, and brought it up: "It's the same as I thought."

"Ji Lingfeng is poisoned."

"Wasp."

Ye Wangchuan put on a gray knitted sweater and paired it with slacks. The home clothes gave him an extravagant and casual temperament.

He heard the girl take the initiative to tell him why he was in a bad mood today, and he relaxed his brows, and found a seat to sit down, just in time to talk to her face to face: "You saw him. What did he say? Do you need treatment?"

He knows several experts who specialize in poison research. If Ji Lingfeng wants to cure him, he can transfer them over immediately.

Qiao Nian was silent for a few seconds, then shook his head slowly: "I don't want to live anymore."

Ye Wangchuan raised his eyebrows, looked at her in surprise, and suddenly understood why Qiao Nian was in such a bad mood.

"you..."

"It has nothing to do with me, he doesn't want to live anymore."

She frowned and spoke in an extremely cold tone: "How many people in this world are struggling to survive, why should I waste time on a person who wants to die?"

F continent, even many poor places.

Wars and diseases are rampant in those places.

How many people have to do their best to survive from birth.

Those people haven't been saved yet, why should she care about people like Ji Lingfeng who still have a chance to save but are willing to give up.

Just because of the so-called blood relationship between them?

Ye Wangchuan heard the irritability in her cold tone, lowered his eyes and said: "He wants to leave Ji's family to you?"

Sure enough.

The girl frowned very tightly, she immediately turned her head away, got up and walked to the window and said coldly, "I never said I wanted Ji's family."

The grievances of the previous generation have nothing to do with her.

Ji Lingfeng didn't even ask her opinion before making this decision.

Ye Wangchuan saw that she was upset again, walked over and put his hand on the girl's shoulder, and patted the girl comfortingly: "We can talk about Jihuang's matter later. Now you plan to deal with it, regardless of people like Jijiatangkou. If you don't care about it, Ji Nan alone will definitely not be able to suppress these people... not to mention that there are other forces in the Independent Continent behind the various halls and elders."

Qiao Nian had to admit that what he said were all the questions she least wanted to think about.

After today, the news of Ji Lingfeng's serious illness can no longer be concealed.

Ji's family will only become more chaotic and fight more fiercely.

Ji Nan and Xie Yun alone will definitely not be able to suppress those arrogant elders and several hall masters at the entrance of the hall... In addition, from the actions of some people today, it can be seen that there are intricate forces entangled behind these people, not only They look so simple on the surface.

Including the Second Elder, Fourth Elder, etc., I'm afraid they all have their own little calculations.

Ji Nan would be fine if he didn't get eaten by these people until he couldn't spit out dregs.

Qiao Nian's brain was buzzing, and he had a splitting headache. He raised his hand and pressed his temple, but said in a firm tone, "It has nothing to do with me."

Qiao Nian said he didn't care.

In fact, he is not as ruthless as he says.

In the afternoon, the news that Zhong Liuliu was leaving for the plane was sent to her mobile phone, and she sent someone to pick him up again, so she must ensure Zhongliu Liu's safety.

Chapter 3444 People are not dead yet, just waiting in line to share the inheritance at the same time.

Qiao Nian has not been idle for the past two days, and specifically checked the specific situation of Xia Ji's house.

Mo Dong gave her a stack of materials, and it took Qiao Nian time to read them before she realized that the current situation of Ji's family was worse than she imagined.

With the loss of Ji Lingfeng in the past six months, the Ji family has no master.

Several elders who hold real power and the powerful hall master of the hall have a lot of internal strife in private, and they are all fighting for more right to speak.

During this period of time, they regarded Xie Yun and Ji Nan as masters on the surface, but in private they had already gone their own way, as if they were kings.

In half a year, Ji's house showed signs that the building was about to collapse, and the interior was in chaos!

Snapped-!

Qiao Nian threw the document Mo Dong gave her on the table, curled up the corner of her mouth, licked her lower lip, and said coldly, "This is the family they spared no effort to maintain? Look at these people, which of them They are serious! People are not dead yet, everyone is queuing up to divide up the inheritance."

Ye Wangchuan walked over and pressed her on the shoulder: "Don't be angry for those who don't deserve it."

"I just don't think...it's worth it." Qiao Nian froze slightly, and rubbed the space between his brows.

She reached out sickly to touch the lighter in her pocket, and when her fingertips touched the hard shell of the lighter, she remembered something, then touched a candy, peeled off the candy wrapper and threw it into her mouth.

The sweet taste of fruit candy washes away the astringency in the mouth, and slightly suppresses the frantic heartbeat and violent emotions in the chest.

Qin Si noticed her small movements and said in surprise, "Sister Qiao, since when did you like candy? What brand of candy."

"Buy whatever you want." Qiao Nian obviously didn't intend to share with him, so he answered perfunctorily.

Mo Dong interrupted at this moment.

"Miss Qiao, although I shouldn't mention it, I think I should tell you."

Qiao Nian rolled the fruit candy with the tip of his tongue, and pressed against the candy. He was not very emotional, and sat there: "You say."

"Um."

Mo Dong didn't delay, just got down to business.

"In addition to what I found, I also received a message before I came in. People from the third hall in the south of Ji's house and the Tongji Association somehow hooked up, and they wanted to move a group of people who came from F continent before Ji's house. goods."

"goods?"

"Um."

Mo Dong went on to say: "That batch of goods was a batch of goods that Ji's family cooperated with the mine mouth of F Continent before the accident happened half a year ago. According to the previously agreed time, today is the handover time. There are The core technology of the Ji family is also the black powder technology that only the direct descendants of the Ji family can get in touch with and learn..."

He said while observing Qiao Nian's reaction.

"The idea of Santangkou and the Freemasons should be to challenge Ji Huang's authority by intercepting this batch of goods. In addition, they can also rely on the intercepted finished products to make people study the core technology of Ji's family..."

The girl had beautiful eyebrows and eyes, and looked straight at him when she heard the words: "Where's Ji Lingfeng? What's your reaction?"

Mo Dong is worthy of being an intelligence expert of Yaomen, and immediately said: "Jihuang was caught by the people from the elder hall, and he didn't notice any changes in the dock for the time being."

"..." Qiao Nian pursed her lips into a straight line, a storm was brewing in her eyes, and flickering flames burst out, and she didn't really want to control it, so she raised her hand and pulled down her peaked cap.

Mo Dong touched the bridge of his nose, and said something for Ji Lingfeng: "To be honest, since the news of Emperor Ji's serious illness spread, he has had a hard time. In addition to the former diehard forces, many neutral forces are still available. I'm planning for the future, and I don't really listen to him."

Chapter 3445 Sister Nian: Just this time!

Qiao Nian understood the meaning of his words - He Lin is the only person Ji Lingfeng can use now, other people can use it, but they don't feel at ease when using it.

In the villa, Mo Dong and Qin Si were all looking at her.

Bo Jingxing went to busy with the affairs of Jiu's independent island, and he is not here for the time being.

Ye Wangchuan's bangs hanging down in front of his eyes covered his eyes, and he had a special temperament, and handed her a bottle of water: "...do you want to leave it alone?"

Qiao Nian looked at the water delivered to her, her temples were swollen, and she wanted to say no, but her throat seemed to be stuck, and every time she wanted to speak, she remembered what Ji Nan told her talk.

—"My dad gave me the only lifeboat."

—"He only made one request to me before sending me away, let me protect you and don't repeat his tragedy."

—"He knows that the trip to M state is dangerous. Uncle He and I advised him not to go. He doesn't know why he has to go to M state."

Qiao Nian raised his hand and lowered the brim of his hat, his throat rolling: "Just this time!"

Ji's old house has not been peaceful for the past two days.

Since Ji Lingfeng's last plan failed, the elder and the hall masters knew what he wanted to do.

Although they tacitly didn't mention what happened that day afterwards, these people also had a long-term mind, and they refused to remove their weapons before going in no matter what.

Of course Ji Lingfeng's residual prestige is still there.

They didn't dare to bring weapons to meet Ji Lingfeng. The result was that the elders and hall masters had to hand over the weapons to the accompanying people before they wanted to see Ji Lingfeng.

But they can bring two or three people to accompany them to the old house.

Afternoon.

He Lin stepped on the light rain and hurried to find Ji Lingfeng.

When he walked outside Ji Lingfeng's study, he was stopped by the second elder's people.

"He Zhu, the elder is discussing important matters with the patriarch, so you should not go in and disturb him."

He Lin frowned, with a cold face, and waved away the people in front of him: "I have something important to report to the patriarch."

The person who stopped him from going in had a look in the eyes, and actually dodged to stop him again.

"He Zhu, the patriarch and the others are discussing about Ms. Qiao. We are not suitable for breaking in. I hope you will cooperate!"

What about Miss Joe?

He Lin paused slightly, turned his head to look at him: "How long will it be inside?"

The man looked at his eyes and nose: "Hurry up."

He Lin had to wait outside temporarily.

He waited for nearly an hour, but it didn't mean it was over yet.

He couldn't wait any longer and just wanted to go in.

The man took another step forward and said: "The patriarch and the others have at most half an hour to finish. If He Zhu is in a hurry, he can go to the yard first. After half an hour, he will be able to see the patriarch."

Half an hour is indeed not too long compared to the one hour I waited before, and He Lin's desire to force his way in was suppressed again.

He frowned tightly, always feeling that something was wrong.

But the other party seemed to be conscientious not to let him in and interrupt the important conversation. He could only look at the other party, fearing how embarrassing they had been with the elder and hall master recently, pursed his lips and said, "I'll go for a walk around."

...

He didn't go far, but just walked around Ji Lingfeng's study.

He Lin could hear Ji Lingfeng's voice intermittently coming from outside, but he couldn't hear it clearly because of the sound insulation effect.

Anyway, at least it can be judged that Ji Lingfeng is absolutely safe inside.

He Lin felt relieved.

Chapter 3446 I have transferred people away

But there was always a place in his heart that jumped suddenly, and he couldn't explain why. He always felt that the timing of the Second Elder's visit this time was too clever.

Just in time for the change at the pier.

He just wanted to go in when he received information that something seemed wrong at the pier, and the shipment they were focusing on this time was about to arrive at the port.

He Lin wanted to follow up with Ji Lingfeng in person.

After all, it is a critical period now, if something goes wrong with that batch of goods, the situation of the patriarch may become more and more difficult...

He Lin was hesitant to wait for half an hour, when someone came to find him.

"He Zhu, you are here."

That man was an old man who had been under his command for seven or eight years. When He Lin saw him, his first reaction was to frown, and said coldly, "Why did you come here?"

The man didn't look him in the eyes, lowered his head and said in a panic, "It's the warehouse. The warehouse is on fire."

"The warehouse is on fire?" He Lin questioned, but acted faster than his mind, urging him: "Lead the way!"

There are a lot of things in the warehouse of the Ji family's old house. In addition to the gifts sent by various forces every year, there are also some valuable collections.

This time there was a sudden fire, so he had to check it anyway.

He Lin didn't notice the relieved expression of the person who came to look for him from the moment he walked ahead to go to the warehouse.

Then press the send button on the edited message in his pocket.

The message was impressively—[I have transferred the person away.]

When He Lin arrived at the warehouse, there was indeed a big fire in the warehouse. The flames rolled up to a height of half a meter, as if to devour everything in the warehouse.

He had no choice but to organize people to put out the fire non-stop.

Probably due to bad luck.

Several fire extinguishers outside the warehouse were broken, so that there was no way to control the fire in the first place.

After they got water and went to other places to get fire extinguishers, they got busy. The fire burned for three hours.

Three hours passed, He Lin finally put out the fire, and had to spend time counting the damage in the warehouse.

Once coming and going, he was stumbling, as if he had forgotten the small change on the pier that he was going to report to Ji Lingfeng.

It's getting dark outside.

September is a typical rainy season in Independence Island, which is surrounded by territorial waters. The light rain that started this morning finally stopped at dusk.

It probably rained for two consecutive days. After the rain stopped, orange evening clouds appeared in the sky, like the setting sun, as beautiful as a picture scroll.

Qin Si said with emotion that this cloud is quite beautiful.

I heard a low-alcohol voice from a big guy next to me: "It's not bad, it's suitable for dyeing red."

Qin Si turned his head and met Ye Fanchuan's slightly cold eyes, and he understood what kind of red he was talking about 'red'.

He put his hand on his forehead and said in a low voice: "Wang Ye, you are so confident. Those two parties have planned for today for a long time, and we may not be able to..."

He meant that it might not be possible to kill all the people here.

Ye Wangchuan raised his eyes slightly, raised his eyebrows, and interrupted him: "She has cut off the communication equipment in this area, and it will be over when those people step in."

"Well, those people are carrying walkie-talkies specially customized by the hacker alliance, so they can always be used." The reason why Qin Si knew so clearly was because he heard Mo Dong's report: "The walkie-talkie requires a signal. not tall."

Chapter 3447 Praying mantis catches cicada, the oriole is behind

What's more, it's still produced by the Independent Continental Hacker Union. There is no quality assurance at all, so it's not good to hear it!

Ye Wangchuan's slender hands rested on the steering wheel. They were crouching at an intersection three kilometers around the pier at the moment, just in time to see the pier from the angle.

"The first day you met Qiao Nian?"

Qin Si patted his face, his face was numb and unable to move: "I'm sorry, I thought I was brainless."

He almost forgot that sister Qiao is the leader in the hacker world.

As soon as the sun makes a move, there will be a Hacking League bird thing!

Qiao Nian originally wanted Guan Yan to come back this time, but Guan Yan was still overseas, so it was not realistic to come back immediately, so she brought some people.

The remaining part was handed over to Ye Wangchuan and Mo Dong.

Independence Island is not Qiao Nian's exclusive show, but Yaomen's site!

Mo Dong pulled out all the elites of Yaomen this time, and together with Qiao Nian who will cut off the signal at the pier later, today is not the opportunity for people from Santangkou and the Freemasons to become famous, but a Qiao Nian had already prepared to catch the turtle in the urn.

At 7:00 p.m., news came from the follower that a convoy was heading towards the pier.

A black jeep led the way, followed by eight large off-road vehicles, and many people came.

Because Ji Lingfeng didn't notice this change at the pier, he was still in charge of receiving the goods according to Ji's previous staff.

The Ji family has dominated the Independent Continent for many years, except for a few forces with broken brains, otherwise no one would move their minds on the Ji family.

Years of peace and comfort have also caused the Ji family to be very perfunctory in this regard. There are only a small team of 7 people in charge of receiving the goods this time.

Qiao Nian immediately received the news of the number of people coming from Mo Dong. The corners of her mouth curled up, and she pressed the Bluetooth headset on her ear: "There are so many people here. They want to be in one step!"

"Where's Ji's family? No response yet?" She asked Mo Dong.

Mo Dong stared at Ji's house with eyeliner, and said in a steady voice: "The second elder went to look for Ji Huang in the afternoon, and a few elders came on the way, and Ji Huang hasn't come out of the study."

"What about He Lin? He didn't receive any news either." Qiao Nian looked steadily at the sea level, where a large ship was already approaching, ready to cast its sights and land.

Mo Dong's voice became deeper and deeper: "He Lin went to the study to find Emperor Ji, and after a short wait, the warehouse caught fire. The fire burned so loudly that he was tripped."

The main reason is that He Lin only received an anonymous message saying that the wharf was not peaceful, and he didn't know the ideas of Nanfang Santangkou and Tongjihui, including the elders who helped delay the time behind them.

If He Lin knew what they wanted to do, he probably wouldn't care about a fire in a small warehouse.

Ji Lingfeng has been dragged in the dark until now, which shows that his control over the Ji family is getting weaker and weaker. On the other hand, it can also be seen that his physical condition is indeed not optimistic.

So much so that he couldn't even concentrate on noticing the important cargo at the dock.

Qiao Nian rubbed the silver lighter in his pocket with his fingertips, suddenly wanted to smoke, but held back.

At the same time, she also saw the figure of the black jeep Mo Dong mentioned gradually approaching their ambush range.

"It's useless to reason with them now. Ji's family needs a 'storm' to temporarily deter these people!"

Qiao Nian's dark pupils looked at the sunset in the distance, and then at those people who were ready to grab goods at the pier with arrogance.

Bite down the fruit candy in your mouth and crush it in one bite.

Eyes narrowed, he calmly said to Mo Dong on the Bluetooth headset: "It's going to rain."

Chapter 3448 I'm only sorry for the woman I've loved all my life

Independence Island Bay Wharf * storm.

Ji's old house hasn't received any news yet.

Several elders trapped Ji Lingfeng in the study, trying to delay the time.

Ji Lingfeng is not a vegetarian after he has been in charge of the Ji family for more than 20 years.

"What is the second elder looking for me today? You didn't come here to talk to me about Qiao Nian, did you?" At first, he believed that these people wanted to communicate with him about Qiao Nian.

After such a long time, he somehow noticed something strange.

The second elder and several elders who have a good relationship exchanged glances with each other, a little impatient, why is it still not over there!

"Patriarch, you think too much."

"Then what are you doing here?"

Ji Lingfeng has short hair and sharp eyes, his eyes are stained with anger, and he is still holding a pen on the table with both hands. His tall body leans back, as if he is already impatient.

The second elder breathed heavily under such a sense of oppression: "Clan, patriarch. Qiao Nian is too uncontrollable. I sincerely advise you to reconsider."

Seeing that he finally told the truth, Ji Lingfeng threw the pen in his hand on the table and made a clicking sound, and looked up at these people: "So I, the patriarch, don't even have the right to make decisions?"

The Second Elder and the others were wronged and dared not look at him: "Patriarch, we don't mean that. We all know the hard work you have put in for the Ji family, but Qiao Nian is too perverse and disobedient. In the future, she will take over the Ji family. It will cause trouble for the family."

"You know the other one... your mother from the hidden family..."

It was no secret that Qiao Nian and Nie Qingru were at odds.

This is also the reason why the old stubborn Ji family don't want Qiao Nian to take over!

On the one hand, they wanted to use the blood flowing in Qiao Nian's body for their own use, on the other hand, they were unwilling to risk offending the Hermit Family and Nie Qingru for Qiao Nian.

That's why they have always asked Qiao Nian for help when they encountered problems, but when Qiao Nian encountered problems, they pretended they didn't know.

It's as if they had heard about Nie Qixing's incident in State M before, but no one in Ji's family had contacted Qiao Nian, and never asked Qiao Nian if he needed help.

Only Ji Nan, Xie Yun and Nan Tianyi called Qiao Nian and asked her about it.

None of the second elders and fourth elders who had received Qiao Nian's help in Ji Ziyin's affairs did not show up.

The second elder took a deep breath and said: "Patriarch, I hope you will put the overall situation first and don't be blinded by personal feelings. Is your current behavior worthy of the family members and the old patriarch?"

Ji Lingfeng held his hands on the table green and white, and sneered, and for the first time a sneer appeared on his mature and steady handsome face: "I am so sorry for you, so I am sorry for my most important person."

He was doing it for the Ji family, in order not to let these people... miss the chance to save Ji Qing!

Now he is sick and has few days to live. These people stand in front of him and show off their power, asking him word by word whether he is worthy of the family.

"I'm sorry for Ji's family, but I'm sorry for my conscience...I'm sorry for the woman I've loved all my life! I'm sorry for my sister who cut open the darkness and pulled me out of the abyss."

What happened back then is not a secret to these elders.

The elders in the study fell silent collectively.

It's not that they don't want to focus on the family anymore, but they can see that Ji Lingfeng will not change his mind easily.

He had already made up his mind to return the Ji family to Qiao Nian.

It's still the kind of determination to ignore everyone's opposition and do whatever it takes.

Chapter 3449 Ji Huang reacted

"Patriarch..." The second elder frowned, wanting to say something else.

Ji Lingfeng no longer gave them a chance to delay, picked up the internal phone at hand and called He Lin: "Where is it?"

"Patriarch, are you finished?" He Lin looked at the people who came in and out of the warehouse to check the goods, and walked to the side and said: "The warehouse is on fire, I am here."

Ji Lingfeng's eyes froze, and he glanced at the Second Elder and the others, "Is the warehouse on fire?"

He Lin didn't know that Ji Lingfeng hadn't left the study yet, so he said: "Ah, the specific reason is still under investigation, it should be someone deliberately set the fire."

"I'm taking stock of the losses in the warehouse, and the losses should not be large."

Ji Lingfeng's speech was already as cold as ice dregs: "Oh, it seems that I am a half-dead person in the eyes of some people."

The Second Elder and the others were so startled by what he meant that their backs became stiff, and a layer of cold sweat broke out from their backs.

The breathing of the study became lighter.

The Second Elder had even faint thoughts of regret, feeling that he was too impulsive, and he should use a more moderate method to wait and see the changes.

Instead of impulsively agreeing to help those people from Santangkou and Tongjihui.

Ji Lingfeng asked He Lin to come over and hung up the phone.

The second elder watched him put down the receiver, and opened his mouth: "Patriarch, I..."

"We'll talk about it when He Lin comes." Ji Lingfeng suppressed his anger and didn't want to talk to him for the time being.

He Lin rushed over quickly and received an urgent message by the way.

"Patriarch, it's not good. Over at the bay pier..."

He rushed into the study in a hurry, only to find that the second elder and the others hadn't left yet, and they were all fidgeting there awkwardly.

He Lin was stunned for a moment, as if he didn't realize why these people hadn't left yet.

Ji Lingfeng has already lowered his face: "What happened to the bay pier?"

He remembered.

Today, a batch of goods is going to arrive at the Gulf Wharf from Continent F, and the person in charge of the wharf inspection at Beitangkou will receive the goods and put them into the warehouse.

Looking at this, something happened to that batch of goods.

Ji Lingfeng, as the Ji family member, even if he is not Nie Qingru's son, has inherited Ji Wufalcon's BT gene, and his IQ is not low.

He immediately connected the cause and effect, and looked at the eyes of the second elder and others with killing intent.

The second elder complained endlessly.

But it is no longer possible for him to call a stop when things have come to this point. He only hopes that those people from the Kiwanis will be more aggressive and can win this batch of goods.

In this way, if someone takes the lead, it will inevitably weaken the patriarch's control over the family, and he can still fight against the patriarch.

Otherwise, judging from the fact that he has been involved today, I'm afraid it won't be good this time.

"There was an explosion at the Bay Wharf. It seems that someone did it. My people found that people from Santangkou and the Tongji Association have been in frequent contact recently. It may be that they... want to stop the goods."

"Very good!" Ji Lingfeng pressed his temples with his hands, his eyes burst into flames, and he smiled on the surface: "It seems that I am already a dead person in your eyes."

He Lin knew his physical condition: "Patriarch, don't be angry."

Ji Lingfeng took a deep breath, stood up with his hands propped up: "Didn't you say someone set fire?"

"...Uh, yes." He Lin doesn't know why he mentioned this, isn't it more serious at the bay pier right now?

Ji Lingfeng made a prompt decision: "The old house is sealed off, and no one is allowed to leave without my order!"

The second elder and the others were shocked: "The patriarch..."

They brought a few accompanying people this time, but this is Ji Lingfeng's territory after all, and if the two sides want to tear their faces apart, their few people are not enough to watch.

Chapter 3450 As soon as sister Nian makes a move, she will know if there is one!

It's just that under normal circumstances, it is impossible for a smart person to tear his face.

Ji Lingfeng looked at him with a smile on his face and said, "Did the Second Elder put the family first, and was most worried about the loss of the family? I let you go now, and you won't feel at ease. Why don't you just stay here and wait for me to check Let's talk about the matter at the bay pier."

The second elder's face turned green and then pale. He knew that Ji Lingfeng was using words to provoke him, but every word he said was what he had said before, and there was no room for him to reply.

Ji Lingfeng has already prepared for the worst.

Wait for He Lin to block the outside one by one, and by the way, control all the entourage brought by the second elder and others.

He rubbed between his brows, still sat on the swivel chair, and asked wearily, "How is it? Have you checked the situation at the pier?"

He Lin also didn't know what was going on from the beginning, but now he has understood what the Gulf Pier, today's fire, and the second elder and others want to do.

He felt sorry for Ji Lingfeng's situation, and he had to tell the truth: "The bay pier is under control, and all communication equipment is out of order. Our people are still rushing there, and we don't know the specific situation for the time being..."

All communication equipment fails.

This means that there is also hacker alliance involved?

Ji Lingfeng closed his eyes.

I knew the situation was bad, but I didn't expect it to be worse than I thought.

"...contact Nan Tianyi."

The explosion at the bay pier caused a lot of movement.

Not only Ji Lingfeng is investigating, but other forces in Independent Continent are also investigating what happened at the Gulf Wharf...

They, like Ji Lingfeng, soon discovered that the communication equipment at the Gulf Wharf was cut off, and there was no way to use high technology to detect the specific situation of the wharf.

There are people who are smarter and can use their brains to contact the Hacking League as soon as possible.

"Gulf Marina..."

"It's not our hands."

"Impossible... It's not that there is no signal over there, it's not that who else has this ability?"

"Believe it or not, it's not us."

Hacker Union received seven or eight calls of the same type within an hour, and each of them said the same thing, but few people believed that the disconnected signal at the bay pier had nothing to do with them.

However, the fact is that all the worthy people in the Hacking League have returned, sitting in front of the computer, with green barcodes flashing rapidly on each computer screen.

The leader hung up 7.8 calls and walked in after receiving a lot of anger. Seeing that they were still focused on the computer, he couldn't help suppressing his anger and said, "How, did you find anything? Who did it? !"

A man with a bird's nest head and a slovenly appearance barely looked away from the computer, and took the time to mutter: "The intrusion can't get in, the other party has expected that we will intrude the program."

The leader of the Hacking Alliance was a little bit perplexed, and he couldn't believe it: "There are so many of you, and none of you went in?"

"Fucking knows what's going on %&@#¥..." Bird Wotou was still saying something vaguely, the voice was too low, he couldn't hear clearly.

at this time.

The computer inside the hacker alliance suddenly sounded a 'beep' alarm.

Usually only if there is a problem with the host computer, their computer will trigger a warning.

"Wocao! No way!" Niaowotou scratched his hair, his face changed slightly, and he put his hands on the keyboard and started to operate quickly.

It was just as he imagined.

The computer began to go out of control, and the authority he could control was getting less and less.
