

Madam's 3461

Chapter 3461 Miss Nian will not play cards according to common sense

The leader of the hacker alliance couldn't figure it out, staring at the pier as if nothing happened on the computer screen and the workers who were hard at work, suspecting that he had a mental breakdown.

What is the situation now?

Ji's goods were not robbed, and the pier was also breezy and thriving... Then what was the wind and rain last night?

darkness before dawn?

"Ha!" He himself was amused by the brain circuit.

When will Independence Island have TM's darkness before dawn?

This is a place where the strong prey on the weak!

Everything depends on strength.

Ji Huang was seriously ill.

There is no reason to lose at the third hall.

Niao Wotou stared at the screen on the computer screen, scratched his messy hair, and had a face that hadn't seen the sun all year round. His skin was pale, and he was younger and more flexible than the leader.

"Boss, have you ever thought about the second possibility?"

"You mean?"

The bird nest head man stared at his eyes, with a numb face and a calm expression: "Ji Huang won."

"!"

The leader of the Hacking Alliance waved his hand and opened his mouth. Just as he was about to say how it was possible, he received news that even the second elder of the Ji family was involved.

However, his words were stuck in his throat, and out of the corner of his eye, he saw He Lin's figure appearing in the surveillance camera on the computer screen.

He Lin is Ji Lingfeng's right-hand man.

His appearance at the pier is enough to show who the final winner is.

The expression of the leader of the hacker alliance changed slightly, and he fell silent.

... Is it really a two-level reversal?

The news that He Lin took over the Gulf Wharf and took the manpower to check the goods quickly spread to all corners of Independent Island.

at the same time.

The Union of Chambers of Commerce smashed several decorative vases and made a mess.

The Xie family is similar to the Chamber of Commerce Alliance.

Old lady Xie was wiping her mouth after breakfast when she heard the bad news, her eyes darkened, she swayed and almost fell down.

It was Xie's father who quickly grabbed her arm and cried out worriedly: "Mom, are you okay? I don't think you look well. Do you want to call the family doctor?"

Old lady Xie's complexion is really bad, she doesn't have a complexion, and the drooping corners of her mouth are even more bitter.

She was mentally weak, and she was not sober. Her skinny hands grabbed Father Xie's arm tightly, so hard that the bones protruded, which was terrifying.

"Did they get it wrong?"

"Last night it was said that Ji's family was going to be finished, why did he suddenly become Ji Lingfeng's person to take over the pier, the shipment is still there..."

What the hell!

Father Xie comforted her anyway: "As long as you are still there, we are a family after all. Good brother-in-law, it is also good for us."

The old lady Xie looked at him with absent-minded eyes, and said in a low voice, "But when I got up in the morning, I sent a message to your sister, telling her... Hurry up and think clearly, there is still a chance to go back to my mother's house now."

"Mom!" Father Xie almost pushed her away, eyes full of shock and disappointment.

Old lady Xie also knew that she had messed up the matter, so she kept her mouth shut.

Actually, the text message she sent to Xie Yun in the morning was more vicious than what she told her son. Of course, the meaning was still the same, but it was as ugly as it was.

It's just that Ji Lingfeng is going to die this time. If Xie Yun still wants to find someone to rely on in the future, she should hurry back to her natal family and beg for mercy. Otherwise, the Xie family may not protect their orphans and widows.

Thanks to my father, I saw that the old lady's face was also pale, with a regretful expression on her face, so she had to suppress the urge to vomit blood, and reluctantly said: "After all, you are her biological mother, and even if the eldest sister gets angry again, she will not care about you." ."

Chapter 3462 Sister Nian: I know how to do small crafts

"I think so too." Mrs. Xie took it seriously, let out a foul breath, and raised her chin: "I'm her mother!"

Now Father Xie didn't even have the mood to deal with her.

Xie Yun's temper is stronger than Xie Tingyun's.

The good deeds that the old lady did a few months ago caused Xie Yun to not contact her family in the past few months. On the contrary, the brother-in-law settled the crisis at the bay dock.

this...

Father Xie has one head and two big ones, and only feels floating shadows appearing in front of his eyes.

He seemed to see the Xie family slowly sinking on the big ship of Independence Island, he was anxious but powerless...

"There is something strange about it."

"I'll check it out."

Qiao Nian didn't get up until nine o'clock in the morning.

After getting up, she didn't go downstairs in a hurry, but went to the computer and made a video call to Daji who was far away in Continent F.

There is a time difference between Continent F and Independent Continent.

It was evening over there, and the sky was very beautiful with sunset clouds.

Daji should be on the way back from the mine. As soon as Qiao Nian connected to the video, he heard the sound of the wind blowing.

Freedom in the wilderness.

"I remember you have a black rough stone."

"Eh... why did you suddenly think of this?"

Daji sat in the co-pilot, with one hand outside, threw the scarlet cigarette * out of the car, and did not smoke in front of Qiao Nian.

The girl looked at the person in the computer video and was quite calm: "Yes or not?"

He tilted his head and pondered for a while: "It seems that there is this rough stone. It's black, right? I wanted to get a necklace pendant before."

He has always disliked big men wearing jewellery.

So he got a precious black rough stone by chance, so he wanted to make a necklace pendant like a tag.

It's cool on the one hand, and it's also a decoration on the other.

However, this idea has never found a chance to be realized. The designer he wanted to date has not responded. It seems that there has been no new design for a long time.

The precious rough stone was thrown aside by him and has never been used.

"Sun, why are you asking this?"

After knowing that he had this thing, Qiao Nian sat down on the chair and asked in a playful tone, "How much?"

"Um?"

"I want that rock."

Daji picked out her ears and asked the driver to drive slowly: "Wait a minute! What do you want that rough stone for? That color probably isn't suitable for girls."

Girls wear black...it doesn't look good no matter what.

Qiao Nian raised her hand and touched her eyelashes. Her eyelashes were long, and when they brushed against the palm of her hand, it was itchy. It felt strange, but it wasn't annoying: "I'll give it away."

"..."

Daji's brain is not stupid, she understands immediately: "Send Young Master Ye?"

Qiao Nian did not hide it, and admitted very frankly: "En."

"Hehe! No." Daji refused to give it, but actually planned to read it to Qiao: "What are you going to use it for? I wanted to get a hang tag before."

Qiao Nian remembered that Daji had shown her the rough stone, it was too wasteful to make a hanging tag the size of the rough stone, and there was nothing interesting about it.

The appearance of Ye Fanchuan appeared in her mind, her eyelashes were drawn to cover her extremely black pupils, she thought for a while and said, "Bracelet."

Daji is still worried: "You use rough stones to make bracelets? It's not easy, it will break if you are not careful. Who do you ask to make it?"

"Myself."

Qiao Nian thought for a while, and said to him: "I know a little bit of handicraft, just grinding a bracelet, it should be fine."

Chapter 3463 I want to prepare a surprise gift for Mr. Wang

In her impression, Ye Wangchuan's hands were very beautiful, but the Buddhist beads on his wrists didn't match his own style.

If it was replaced with a black bracelet, his skin would be fair, and the bracelet would still look good on his hand even if it wasn't carved with complicated patterns.

Daji thought she knew Sun's style better, so she asked a lot: "You can't pass the jewelry designer certificate? What's your name?"

sun shorthand.

She was too lazy to name it at the time, so she thought of the letter and filled it in with a brush.

Later, under the operation of Yuan Yongqin, he became the independent designer S of SEVEN.

But it is not the kind of designer who produces works under the banner for a long time, but a co-designer who occasionally produces works, depending on the mood.

Except for brands, she hardly takes orders.

So there are not many works outside.

Qiao Nian said it casually, even thinking that Daji might not have heard of this name.

Who knew that Daji's expression on the other end of the video was brilliant, and it took a long time before she said, "Boss, don't you usually read private messages?"

He has been looking for this designer since he got this rough stone by coincidence. He originally liked the simple and weird style.

Ghost knows that someone is by his side.

But he has been dating for three years and has not found anyone!

Now the appointment is up, good guy, the rough stone + designer were pried into the corner together.

The dog in the dark castle is really black all his life!

Qiao Nian hung up the phone after agreeing with him on the delivery method.

She thought for a while and transferred a sum of money from her private account to Daji, then she went to Yuan Yongqin and asked if Chengfeng Group had collected any good rough stones recently.

Yuan Yongqin has always liked to collect these, and has a lot of insurance stocks at home.

It happened that she was at home, so she took a photo and sent it to Qiao Nian for her to choose.

Qiao Nian thought about Daji's usual style, so she chose a dark green rough stone, and asked Yuan Yongqin if she could ask a designer to carve a necklace tag according to her drawing.

The designers of Chengfeng Group are experts in the industry, especially good at handmade high-end. Carving a small object is too easy for these people.

Qiao Nian drew a drawing and sent it to Yuan Yongqin, and asked her to send the finished sculpture to Daji in Continent F.

"Is this a gift?" Yuan Yongqin asked with a smile.

Qiao Nian was holding the phone in one hand, and was turning off the computer with the other hand. He was still thinking about how he would polish a men's bracelet after getting the black rough stone.

Hearing this, she said casually: "No, it's compensation."

She doesn't like to steal other people's things.

It's just that she wanted to give Ye Fanchuan a gift, so she thought about it, and this thought drove her to ask Daji for the rough stone.

Daji gave it happily, and the money she gave was enough to buy two pieces of that kind of rough stone.

It's just that she doesn't like to owe people.

I don't want to owe even favors.

So in addition to the money to buy the original stone, she asked Yuan Yongqin to draw a design draft when she heard Daji said she wanted a necklace tag.

"I'm getting old, I don't understand you young people." Yuan Yongqin said this with a smile in his voice, obviously very happy that Qiao Nian would call her.

After a while on the phone, Qiao Nian was told to pay attention to safety outside, not to be impulsive in everything, and to focus on her own safety and take good care of herself.

Qiao Nian was quite patient and agreed one by one.

Yuan Yongqin chatted with her a few more homely before hanging up the phone.

Qiao Nian put down her phone and glanced at the time. She wasted half an hour on the phone for this surprise gift.

Now that everything is done, she turns off the computer, picks up the peaked cap at the entrance and puts it on her head, opens the door and goes downstairs...

Chapter 3464 I cooperate with you

Chamber of Commerce Alliance.

Simon stood in front of the oversized floor-to-ceiling windows, the shadow blending with the light outside.

"I found out, it was Qiao Nian who intervened?"

"President, it's her."

"I see."

Simon's eyes darkened, and he pursed his lips.

"You go out."

After a brief hesitation, the people under him retreated quietly, closing the door for him before leaving.

The office was completely silent.

Simon stood in front of the French windows of a tall building.

The sun came out at ten o'clock in the morning, and the sunlight shone on him through the glass window. It should be very warm, but he was bone-chillingly cold.

He stood there for a while, not knowing whether the choice he was making was right.

But he remembered that he had chosen to side with the Hermit Family on Ji Ziyin's matter before, and he had already offended that one.

Even if he wants to turn back, I'm afraid that at most he won't bother him, and it's impossible to help the Chamber of Commerce Alliance go further in Independent Continent.

So wealth and wealth are sought in insurance.

Simon walked back after all, picked up the intercom phone, and called through the IP-erased phone.

"Beep."

The other end rang once and answered.

Simon's rather handsome face was covered with clouds at the moment, and his eyes were gloomy.

"I've figured it out."

"We work together."

"According to the conditions negotiated before, after the success, the Chamber of Commerce Alliance will take over all the southern outlets of Ji's family! If there is no problem, we will cooperate, and if there is any problem, just pretend that I didn't make this call."

What he wanted was a bit more, which was a bit more than what the other party had proposed to him before, but this time the alliance took such a big risk to provoke Qiao Nian, it was impossible for the Ji family to only have three outlets.

If the negotiation fails, he would rather give up this opportunity.

There was a rustling electric sound from the receiver.

The person at the other end didn't think long at all, and clicked his tongue: "Deal."

Simon put back his nervously raised heart, gritted his teeth and said in a ruthless voice: "It's a happy cooperation."

"Pleasant cooperation."

The voice over there was exactly the same as the voice of the young man who was in his office before, just like the same person!

"Is it done?"

It's very windy at the Gulf Marina.

A young man in a long windbreaker covered his face with a hood and a mask on his mouth, strolling around the pier with people coming and going.

He looks unremarkable.

Actually appearing in a place like the Gulf Pier at this special time is extremely strange in itself.

The man just walked around the pier, and then walked into the alley made of goods.

These small alleys extend in all directions, and each one is so narrow that only one person can pass through it. Usually, only the dock workers will pass here.

Different from the scorching sun outside, these narrow alleys do not see light all year round, they are pitch black, and the roads can be seen when the sun is out. Walking from inside on cloudy days may not even be able to see the road clearly.

He is very familiar with the path here, turn left and turn right.

As we walked, we met the people waiting there.

The visitor is no stranger.

His inconspicuous facial features, all in black, like a shadow.

It's not who is the shadow of Nie Qingru's right-hand man.

Shadow seemed to be very familiar with the young man. After meeting him, he immediately asked him: "The empress is still waiting for your news."

The young man still covered his eyes with a hood so he couldn't see his emotions. He raised his eyes and seemed to see the shadow, and said slowly: "Most of the traces on the pier have been cleaned up, but I'm lucky. Still found a few bullet holes and a burn mark from a small gadget."

Chapter 3465 Sister Nian simply formed a small group

That little gadget should be a new type of weapon, no accident.

"Qiao Nian is very good at weapon research?"

Shadow frowned, looked at him patiently, and said, "What did you ask her for?"

The young man brushed the corner of his lips indifferently, and clicked his tongue again: "Ask."

Shadow didn't want to mention Qiao Nian, but he had to mention it, and his tone was not breezy: "She has a certain talent in weapon research, Xie Tingyun and Feng Yu both recognize her. But she didn't study this major, and she didn't go here special research."

"Oh, what major does she study?"

"Medicine and Music."

After the shadow finished speaking, he looked at him and reminded: "Are you paying too much attention to her? Don't forget the mission that the queen gave you."

The young man was not frightened by his stern tone, and stretched out his hand to pull down the hood that originally covered his eyes, revealing only his bright red lips.

"Know yourself and the enemy, just ask."

"It's best like this." Shadow was unwilling to continue chatting with him on this topic, and continued to ask him: "Has the matter been settled? The empress is still waiting for you to explain."

"The Alliance of Chambers of Commerce has agreed to cooperate."

The young man at least looked a little seriously, just a little bit.

Shadow didn't want to argue with him, so he calmed down and walked ahead to lead the way:
"Come on, come back with me and report to the Queen about the situation in hand."

"good."

The young man waited for him to take a few steps before slowly following him.

There is no sunlight and no shadow here.

The feeling of him following in a slow manner is more like the person who has the right to speak than the shadow himself, but he is the one who obeys the orders of the shadow in the conversation...

Qiao Nian went to the research institute after breakfast.

She didn't go back to the First Research Institute for several months, so she went to find Feng Yu first.

But Feng Yu wasn't in the office, so Qiao Nian went to the office and didn't see anyone, so he turned around and went to the archives room to find what he was looking for.

She was in the file room for three hours.

When I looked up, I realized that it was half past twelve.

Qiao Nian put down the book in his hand, stuffed it into the bookshelf in the archive room, stretched his stiff neck with his hands, and then went back to find the phone in the bag.

The screen lights up.

There are seven or eight unread messages on it.

Qiao Nian was most afraid of these news, frowned, and opened WeChat patiently.

Sure enough, many people are looking for themselves.

Qin Si's profile picture is at the top, and he sent her a message ten minutes ago.

—[Sister Qiao, are you coming back for lunch?]

Then there are Xu Yi and Zhou Zhou.

Zhou Zhou was very direct, and immediately asked: [sun, I heard you are back. Make an appointment for lunch together?]

Xu Yi is much colder in comparison.

【Xue Zhu and the others asked if you were free. 】

Qiao Nian read all the unread messages on WeChat, and they were basically people who heard that she was back and asked her to have dinner with her.

She simply formed a group and pulled all the people into it.

Send messages directly in the small group.

【QN: Let's go together. 】

【QN: My treat. 】

After her two messages are sent successfully.

In the small group, no one spoke at first.

Soon Xue Zhu came out to respond first, swiping a few emoticons.

Immediately afterwards, Zhou Zhou should have looked at his phone after he was busy, and casually threw two emoticons of kneeling and thanking the boss.

When someone in the group talks, others let go and become active.

Zhou Zhou sent her a private chat asking her where to eat.

Qiao Nian opened the software and searched for nearby restaurants.

There are many restaurants near the First Research Institute, taste...

Chapter 3466 It's fine if you haven't seen it, don't think about it

It is the mixed taste that is not very particular about Independence Island.

She picked a restaurant with high privacy and shared the address with the group.

Leaning against the table, pondered for a while, then found the blank avatar in WeChat, and sent a message.

—[QN: What do you have for lunch? 】

After she finished sending this message, she didn't have time to see if Ye Wangchuan replied to her.

Zhou Zhou called.

Qiao Nian took it with one hand, and put the file bag he was going to take away into his backpack: "Say."

It's quite playful.

And pretty cool.

Very Qiao Nian's style.

Zhou Zhou smiled and said, "Do you want to call the dean and the deputy dean together?"

Qiao Nian originally just wanted to simply invite the group to have a meal, otherwise she would come one by one, and she would have to waste half a month on eating.

Unexpectedly, this small move would soon turn into the internal team building of the First Research Institute.

She rubbed the center of her brows, lowered her eyelashes to calculate how many people there were. He said, "Okay, I'll ask them later." "

"You haven't seen the dean yet?"

Zhou Zhou was a little surprised.

She thought that when Qiao Nian came to the institute early in the morning, he must have met Feng Yu and the others and had a face-to-face meeting.

Who knew it was almost noon, and the two sides hadn't even met yet.

"I went to the office to look for him when I came, but he wasn't in the office, so I just came to the archives first if I had something to do."

"Oh oh oh." Zhou Zhou said repeatedly, then remembered something, and said, "Recently, someone came from Independent Continent to ask us to cooperate. The dean and the deputy dean should go to see this person, so they are not in the office."

Qiao Nian didn't know why his eyelids twitched: "Who is that?"

Zhou Zhou is just the person in charge of the laboratory, not high enough to receive the partners, so he doesn't know much about it. He talked vaguely, only saying that he is not from Independent Continent.

She hasn't seen it either.

Qiao Nian was stuffing the last file bag into the backpack, and when she heard that she was zipping the zipper, she paused for a moment, but she continued to zip it up for a moment, put the shoulder bag on her back, and her slightly narrowed eyes sparkled with sparks: "If you haven't seen it before, it's okay." Well, don't even think about it."

Anyway, it doesn't matter who it is.

there is always a solution to a problem.

As long as it doesn't provoke her, she doesn't bother to care about the independent continent.

Qiao Nian hung up the phone and saw a new message on WeChat.

It was Ye Wangchuan who replied to her WeChat three minutes ago.

【Y: If God Qiao doesn't come back, he's going to eat noodles. 】

Qiao Nian couldn't help but raise the corners of her mouth, as if seeing someone lazy on the sofa holding a mobile phone to edit messages for her.

She made a phone call.

Ye Wangchuan answered in seconds.

Qiao Nian's long curly eyelashes covered his eyes, and he gave an address directly, with a hoarse voice and a pleasant voice, a little dry: "... I invite you to eat."

Feng Yu and Shi Fu didn't come in the end.

The second time Qiao Nian went to Feng Yu's office to look for him, he still didn't come back.

Qiao Nian just ignored him.

Sent him a text message, then turned around and went to the restaurant to meet the big team.

This time, Qiao Nian invited guests and booked a large private room with everything to eat, drink and have fun.

After the group finished their meal, the people headed by Zhou Zhou proposed to play Pai Gow.

Qin Si was originally a joker, so he immediately agreed, and even invited others to play with him.

Bo Jingxing was forcibly drawn into a partner by him, and another partner was Shen Qingfeng.

Shen Qingfeng belongs to the kind of person who is gentle and polite, but has a special way of playing cards. In just one hour, Qin Si became a big loser at the poker table.

Chapter 3467 Ji Huang vomits blood!

The four of them were playing Pai Gow, and the rest of the young ones gathered together to sing and play billiards. The room was very lively.

Even Ye Fanchuan and Qiao Nian were dragged by Xue Zhu to make up the numbers, and started a werewolf killing round.

The results speak for themselves.

A man and a woman are stable enough to kill them like Chinese cabbages. In the final PK in the imperial city, I don't know if Ye Wangchuan let Qiao Nian, anyway, it was Qiao Nian who won the round in the end.

Xue Zhu was very depressed, and couldn't catch up for a long time.

The waiter came just at this time with the wine and fruit plate.

Qiao Nian took the opportunity to get up and wanted to go out to take a breath, and picked up the phone by the way. As soon as she lowered her head, she realized that she had missed a call in the noisy environment.

The caller ID happened to be He Lin.

He Lin called her at this time?

Qiao Nian frowned but didn't think too much about it, thinking that He Lin was looking for her for the matter at the Gulf Wharf, so she said to the people on the sofa booth, "I'll go out and make a phone call."

Xue Zhu waved his hand: "Go."

Xu Yi didn't talk much, so he just sat there and nodded.

Ye Wangchuan picked up his coat at this time, got up by the way, and said to the girl, "I'll be with you."

Qiao Nian glanced at him, just about to say something.

Ye Fanchuan looked at her with sparkling eyes, reflecting her shadow, and said in a very proud tone: "By the way...go out to get some air."

"..." Qiao Nian lost his opinion in an instant.

The two went out with their feet forward and backward.

In the private room, Qin Si and the others were still playing. Compared to the calmness of Bao Jingxing, Shen Qingfeng and the others, Qiao Nian could hear him screaming outside the corridor.

She randomly found a quiet corner and called He Lin back.

Didn't connect for the first time.

Qiao Nian was a little surprised, took away the phone to make sure that He Lin didn't answer it, and called again patiently.

Ye Wangchuan said he came out to get some air, but he actually went to the vending machine outside and bought a bottle of Evian ice water, and brought it back to find Qiao Nian.

Just at this time.

Qiao Nian got through the second call.

She said coldly: "I was in a noisy environment just now, and I didn't hear the phone call. What do you need from me?"

This attitude is much better than her previous attitude towards Ji's family.

Ye Wangchuan didn't bother her, he unscrewed the bottle cap for her, waited for her to finish the call, and then handed her water to moisten her throat.

Who knew that the girl's eyes suddenly turned cold in the next second, and her whole demeanor changed.

"What did you say?"

"When? Where are you?"

Ye Wangchuan narrowed his eyes slightly, vaguely guessing something.

Ye Wangchuan waited for her to put down the phone before asking her: "What's wrong with Emperor Ji?"

Qiao Nian was originally restless, but she looked at him in surprise when she heard this, wondering how he knew who to call again.

Really walking bug!

But she is not in a good mood now, and she is not in the mood to think so much. She took a deep breath and said, "Ji Lingfeng vomited blood."

"..."

This is a situation that Ye Fanchuan didn't expect.

Qiao Nian didn't expect Ji Lingfeng's health to be so poor that he vomited blood after two days. Judging from He Lin's eager tone on the phone, Ji Lingfeng's condition might be worse than she imagined!

"I'm going to the hospital."

Ye Wangchuan grabbed her wrist: "I'll accompany you."

Qiao Nian felt the heat on his wrist, looked at him again with dark eyes, nodded, and didn't refuse: "I'll go and talk to them first."

She treats guests and has to leave temporarily, which is really not good.

But she has to go to the hospital.

Chapter 3468 I am RH blood type, here I come

At two o'clock in the afternoon, Qiao Nian rushed to the hospital.

She saw Xie Yun, Nan Tianyi and others in the corridor, but she didn't see Ji Nan, nor He Lin who called her.

Xie Yun heard the movement and turned her head to see the girl walking towards her step by step. With an indescribable feeling in her heart, she forced the corners of her mouth to smile at her.

"Here we come."

"Um."

Qiao Nian could feel the heavy atmosphere in the corridor, rubbed the center of her brows, and explained softly to Xie Yun: "I had dinner with some friends at noon, and I just received the news. It took me a while on the way here."

Xie Yun was wearing a new season dress from C's house, with a chiffon bow hanging from the neckline of the coat, which was exquisite and luxurious, and she was twisting a platinum bag in her hand.

She didn't look good, but when she heard the girl explaining softly in her ear, she still couldn't hide her surprise, and she was taken aback before saying, "I didn't expect you to come. Your uncle..."

Xie Yun immediately shut up, rubbed her face, and said to Qiao apologetically, "I'm sorry, I said it smoothly."

What she said was the truth.

But everyone knew that Qiao Nian did not recognize this blood relationship.

The girl's brows and eyes were dry, but she didn't say anything, as if she was not angry.

Xie Yun is really not in a good mood, her heart is in a mess, her mind seems to be a mess and she can't figure out what to do.

She rarely looks like this.

But in the face of life and death, she is just an ordinary person.

"The doctor just came out and said... he wasn't doing well."

"He suddenly vomited blood at one o'clock in the afternoon, and he passed out."

"He Lin and I sent him to the hospital. He Lin went back to deal with family matters first, and I stayed here... The current situation is like this. He is still being rescued... I don't know if he can be rescued."

Xie Yun remembered what they said the last time she saw Ji Lingfeng.

She seemed to be dissatisfied with his domineering decision, had a big fight with him, and then slammed the door and left.

In the blink of an eye, that person has been pushed into the operating room, and now his life or death is uncertain.

at this time.

The door of the operating room opened again.

A medical staff hurried out from inside.

The doctor in the dustproof surgical suit anxiously swept across the corridor and said: "The patient's plasma is not enough, which one of you has the RH blood type."

Xie Yun's heart skipped a beat, she took a step forward, and said eagerly, "Isn't my son drawing blood? He..."

"Not enough."

The doctor knew what she was going to say, and said bluntly: "The RH blood type belongs to panda blood, and the blood bank in the hospital does not have a large stock. Not long ago, a patient in a car accident happened to have this blood type, and a lot of blood was used. As a result, our current blood bank stock Not enough. Mr. Ji Nan has reached the limit of the amount of blood pumped by the human body, and can no longer be pumped."

He saw that Xie Yun and the others might not be of this blood type.

"If there is no one with this blood type among you, I can only call someone to be transferred from another hospital urgently. It's just... it may be too late."

Originally, the stock in their blood bank plus the blood drawn by Ji Nan should be enough to support the end of the operation.

Who knew that Ji Lingfeng had a heavy bleeding in the middle.

In this way, the originally planned plasma will not be enough.

Xie Yun gritted her teeth: "I'll find a way right away."

She didn't finish her sentence.

I saw the girl next to me take off her coat and put it on her arm, walked out beside her, and said to the doctor, "I have this blood type. I'll come."

...

Qiao Nian was led by the nurse to sit down in a small room next door.

Chapter 3469 Sister Nian is hard-spoken and soft-hearted

After a while, the little nurse rushed over pushing the blood drawing tools, skillfully tied a pressure band on her wrist, and took out the blood drawing bag.

asked her cautiously: "I will smoke 200cc first, can you hold on?"

200cc is a safe standard for general blood donation.

Qiao Nian leaned against the wall without raising her eyelids, looking very relaxed, and said to her, "First pump 400cc."

The little nurse was about to remove the needle, but when she heard the words, she stayed where she was, with an incredulous expression on her face, and didn't dare to move for a long time.

This time the patient's son smoked 400cc.

The limit of the human body's ability to draw blood is also this number.

Generally people seldom smoke such a high amount. Firstly, the body cannot bear it, and secondly, they are afraid of sequelae.

Seeing that she hadn't moved, Qiao Nian finally raised her head, revealing the delicate face under the peaked cap, which was very eye-catching, beautiful and calm.

"I'm a doctor and I know what I'm talking about. Take it easy."

"...doctor?"

The nurse saw that she was quite young, and thought she was a medical student.

But considering the condition of the patients in the operating room, she had no choice but to bite the bullet and insert the needle into the blood vessel on the back of the girl's hand, and whispered: "If you can't stand it, remember to tell me, and I will stop it for you immediately."

When a person loses too much blood, the body temperature will gradually drop, and side effects of chills, dizziness, and nausea will appear.

400cc is not a small amount.

Men in good health may not be able to bear it.

She saw that the girl in front of her was really not the type with particularly good physical fitness, and she was not sure whether Qiao Nian could bear it.

On the other side, Qiao Nian went in to draw blood.

Ye Wangchuan called Mo Dong and ordered him to immediately transfer the RH blood around him, and if he couldn't, find someone with this type of panda blood.

It doesn't matter if you give money or whatever, get the person over first.

Needless to say, Mo Dong was efficient, and immediately went to the surrounding hospital for blood transfer.

Ye Wangchuan was not idle either. He went to the nurse at the hospital and asked for a laptop computer. After finding a place to sit down, he began to look up who had registered panda blood in Independence Island, where they lived, and which ones could be rushed to as soon as possible. Came here to donate blood.

They take it all down.

Xie Yun became the one who had nothing to do.

Ji Nan also rushed over with a pale face, supported by a little nurse, and he didn't seem to be in any serious trouble.

"Dad, he...?"

Xie Yun shook his head at him.

"It's not out yet."

Out of the corner of Ji Nan's eyes, he also saw the man on the phone and using the computer in the corner, before he had time to ask his mother Ye Wangchuan why he came.

In the blink of an eye, Qiao Nian came out of the waiting room next door where blood was drawn, and a nurse came out with her. The nurse was hurrying to the operating room with a big bag of blood in her hand...

He immediately understood what was going on, his brain was pounding, he opened his mouth, he wanted to say a thousand words, but he couldn't utter a single word when he reached his mouth.

He didn't expect that Qiao Nian would come, let alone that Qiao Nian would donate blood to his father.

Ji Nan opened his mouth, seeing that the girl was stronger than him, walked up to them like a normal person, raised his eyes and asked Xie Yun.

"Those old men haven't given up yet?"

Xie Yun came to her senses and shook her head: "I know those people were sent by you. They were about to compromise, but Ling Feng vomited blood and passed out first. Now that they know the news, they changed their faces again. I'm afraid He Lin can't hold them back." ."

In fact, except for Ji Lingfeng himself, no one can suppress those elders with senior qualifications and seniority.

Chapter 3470 She has already arranged everything

Ji Lingfeng's attack was sudden this time, and they didn't have time to react. He was already unconscious. They rushed him to the hospital, so they didn't have so much energy to care about not letting the news spread...

He Lin made a remedy afterwards.

The current situation is that the outside world still doesn't know about Ji Lingfeng's rescue, but the old house definitely can't hide it.

After all, there was a lot of commotion when they sent people to the hospital. Those elders were all good people, so how could they not guess who was sent to the hospital.

Qiao Nian probably understood the ins and outs of the matter, and nodded: "I'll go there right away."

"you want to go?"

Xie Yun was really surprised this time.

"Niannian, actually..."

She remembered that she had quarreled with Ji Lingfeng over the inheritance of Ji's family, and when she looked at Qiao Nian again, she couldn't help but feel guilty.

She wanted to say that Qiao Nian didn't need to plunge into the muddy water.

But the words are on the lips.

Xie Yun also couldn't speak.

Because she knew in her heart that at this moment she and Ji Nan couldn't suppress those old men, only Qiao Nian could do it.

"I gonna go see."

Qiao Nian raised her hand and pulled down her peaked cap. Except for her slightly pale lips, she couldn't see any look on her face that had just donated blood.

She noticed Ji Nan, thought for a while and asked him: "Do you want to go with me?"

Ji Lingfeng is not out of danger, nor has he come out of the operating room.

As a son, he should have stayed outside and waited for the doctor to come out, but Ji Nan just pondered for a while, and immediately made a decision: "Okay."

He turned his head and patted Xie Yun's shoulder silently to comfort him: "Mom, I'll go back with Niannian, call me if you have any news."

Xie Yun looked at him, then at Qiao Nian, her eyes felt hot, and she felt an indescribable feeling in her chest.

She knew very well what Qiao Nian meant by taking Jin Nan there. She wanted him to learn from him, and also to support him in disguise.

Because she knew Qiao Nian's plan, the guilt that existed in her heart expanded infinitely, like an invisible big hand pinching her heart.

Xie Yun thought of the text message from home that she received early in the morning, and then looked at the taciturn girl in front of her who stood out for them in everything.

She was extremely serious: "Thank you, Nian Nian."

Qiao Nian waved his hands, and didn't bother why Xie Yun said this to her in a guilty tone, and didn't say anything else, just said: "I called Zhong Lao from inside, and he will come right away."

"..." Xie Yun was shocked now.

Old Zhong?

Second first class?

Niannian also called Zhong Liuliu?

Her first reaction was that Zhong Liuliu was going to come from M state.

My heart sank again.

It was already too late after a flight of more than ten hours.

Who knows that Qiao Nian seemed to see what she was missing, and said in a calm manner: "He arrived in Independent Island two days ago, but he was too old to bear the torment and had a rest in the hospital for a day, and he also dealt with some medical issues in the Pharmacy Association. Things on the Independent Continent."

"His hotel is very close to here, and he will arrive in 20 minutes at most."

"I have already told him about Ji Huang's situation. He brought medicine, which should be able to stabilize the patient's symptoms."

Xie Yun has nothing else to say now, and she said again: "Thank you."

Qiao Nian unzipped his jacket, and this time responded to her: "En."

Turning around, he said to Ji Nan, "Let's go."

She's going to see what those old things are up to!

The situation in Ji's old house is exactly as Xie Yun thought.
