

Madam's 3501

Chapter 3501 Sister Nian: I only believe in myself

The corners of Ji Nan's mouth raised a small arc, leaving behind Ji's family members, and quickly walked towards the girl: "Nian Nian, you are here."

"Where should I sign up for duty?" The girl murmured, then raised her head and asked him in a foolish manner.

Not all of these people in the Mingshui Mansion are going to participate in this treasure hunt, only those who sign up for registration are the ones who really participate in this event.

Ji Nan told her a place and took her there.

The staff at the signature office saw Ji Nan leading an extremely young face, she was still a girl, and the hand that handed the form paused.

"Are you going to participate?"

"Um."

Qiao Nian responded lightly, picked up the water-based pen on the table, and took the registration form from her.

She glanced at the ten lines, and the words "Life and Death Deed" were clearly written on it.

Basically, you don't need to look at the rules and regulations inside.

Anyway, the translation is nothing more than a sentence-the people who participated in this treasure hunt are self-sufficient.

Qiao Nian swiped and signed his name on the paper. The pen was fast and majestic, and it didn't look like a girl's handwriting at all.

She signed and returned the form to the staff.

The staff asked a few simple questions according to the rules, nothing more than her name and age, and which party she represented to participate in the event.

Then I sent her an armband.

The number is written on the armband.

Probably the number was written according to the time when they came to report. Qiao Nian came late, and was assigned number 36.

The overall armband is black, only the number 36 is in red font, the color scheme looks like a fool!

She pinched the armband and lowered her eyes to play with it, but she didn't intend to put it on for a long time.

Ji Nan remembered Xie Yun's advice, and before she put on the armband, he asked her in a low voice, "Are you sure you want to participate in this event?"

Qiao Nian raised his head, as if he didn't know why he asked such a boring question: "It's not obvious enough for me to stand here?"

Ji Nan took a deep breath, clenched his fists and said, "As long as you don't want to participate, it's still too late. I can make it clear to the people in Mingshui Guild Hall that we abstain."

Qiao Nian took a serious look at him, then suppressed the surly look in his eyes, and said arrogantly, "If I was afraid, I wouldn't come."

"Don't worry, I didn't take those people seriously!"

Seeing that she had made up her mind, Ji Nan said in a deep voice: "I have already told the second elder, they have arranged people inside to protect you. If you are in danger, you can go to No. 9 and No. 15. These two people It's our people, you can trust."

This is the result of he went to negotiate with those elders after hearing Xie Yun's words.

Anyway.

The Ji family represented by Qiao Nian this time.

Everyone prospers and everyone prospers, and everyone is ruined.

Ji Nan told them very clearly that if Qiao Nian had an accident this time, he wouldn't care if the Ji family could maintain the harmony on the surface.

Second elders and the others have been in Independent Continent for so many years, and they still have some contacts, so they arranged two people through two small forces.

Qiao Nian pinned the armband on the sleeve of the sweater, and didn't know if he had listened to his words, and finally said: "I only believe in myself."

She used to believe only in herself.

There is one more person behind, but it is definitely not the person arranged by the elders of the Ji family.

The man...

Qiao Nian just finished talking to Ji Nan.

There was another commotion outside.

"Yaomen?"

"Is that Yaomen Modong?"

"What are they doing here? Don't say that Yaomen will also come to participate in the treasure hunt this year? What's the situation? Could it be that Yaomen also wants to get a share of the action."

Chapter 3502 Do you want to participate too?

"Who is the man next to Mo Dong? Why are those people from Yaomen walking around him?"

"...No way."

Someone guessed the identity of the visitor, which was a bit unbelievable.

Yaomen is not the same as the Ji family, nor is it the same as other forces in Independent Continent.

Yaomen is very mysterious.

At least the boss behind him is very mysterious.

Yaomen usually handles things by Mo Dong and Mo Xi. Everyone in Independent Island knows Mo Dong and Mo Xi, but they don't know the young man beside Mo Dong today.

Oriental.

Extremely young.

These two points are very similar to a person.

Qiao Nian!

Qiao Nian was born like this in the beginning, when everyone thought she was just a wild girl from outside, step by step she became the successor that Feng Yu valued in the First Research Institute.

Now here comes a young oriental man!

Only Simon and others have seen Ye Wangchuan.

Simon's eyes darkened, and his tone changed: "Why is he here!"

Of course he knew that there was such a person beside Qiao Nian, but he didn't know what the other person wanted to do in Mingshui Mansion today.

"President Simon knows him?" Someone heard Simon's words and asked curiously: "Is this person behind Yaomen..."

Simon didn't speak, his eyes were firmly locked on the group of people coming in from the main entrance.

Ye Fanchuan!

He looked it up.

There are not many things that can be found, basically only those that can be found on the surface, such as people from Beijing, the Ye family, etc.

The rest can't be found at all!

Based on this point, Simon never dared to underestimate this man, and even felt that he could not understand this man.

He came here today...?

Simon is still trying to figure it out.

I saw Mo Dong beside Ye Wangchuan greet Qiao Nian enthusiastically: "Hey, Miss Qiao!"

From the moment Qiao Nian saw Mo Dong and the others appearing, and then Ye Wangchuan also came, Qiao Nian remembered the WeChat message he had received.

He suddenly had a headache, and his dark eyes locked on the man: "What do you want to do?"

Ye Wangchuan walked up to her, and said directly to the staff in charge of signing in: "Give me a form, and I want to sign up too."

Qiao Nian's nerves tensed suddenly, his temples twitched, and the veins on his forehead bulged, and he looked at him again: "Is this what you said I could see you when I looked up?"

Ye Wangchuan didn't deny it, picked up the pen she just used to sign her name, and then casually reported her name to the staff.

"Ye Wangchuan, Yaomen."

...

"He is really a Yaomen."

"Ye Wangchuan? I remember that the code name behind Yaomen is Y. According to the language of country Z, Y is the initial letter of Ye."

"This year's treasure hunting is amazing."

"Yaomen actually showed up in public, and as soon as he showed up, he was going to participate in the treasure hunting activity. What's the situation now?"

"I think Chairman Simon of the Chamber of Commerce Alliance is not looking very well, I heard before..."

The voice behind is too low, it involves confidentiality, and the words are also very vague.

But some people heard it and still looked towards the Chamber of Commerce Alliance.

Simon saw that Ye Wangchuan went straight to sign up and got the armband, his face full of mixed blood was not very good.

The blue eyes don't know what to think, they are dark and gloomy.

"He...will not hesitate to show up in public just to participate in this treasure hunt?"

Simon didn't believe it himself.

He always felt his eyebrows beating fast, as if something started to deviate from his plan.

It's just that the arrow is on the string and has to be fired.

It is impossible for him to call people back now.

Chapter 3503 He doesn't know the fate of the previous person?

He just held his breath, rubbed his eyelids that were jumping wildly, pretended to be nonchalant and said to the people around him: "Later, remember to check the things the contestants have brought."

"Well, don't worry, President." The person beside him said in a deep voice.

Simon looked at Qiao Nian and the others again, forced himself to look back, and tried to stay calm, not wanting anyone to see the clue.

the other side.

After signing up, Ye Fanchuan got the number next to Qiao Nian.

Qiao Nian is 36, he is 37.

He got the armband and reacted to Qiao Nian. They all looked at the armband in his hand, with undisguised disgust on his face.

is pretty ugly.

Seeing him coming, Ji Nan relaxed a lot, and took the initiative to chat with Ye Wangchuan.

Qiao Nian has already guessed seven or eight points from the way they chatted acquaintancely, and Ji Nan's unsurprised reaction just now.

She didn't beat around the bush, and said directly to Ji Nan: "You already knew?"

Ji Nan felt guilty when she looked at her with real eyes, and rubbed his nose to pretend to be stupid: "Ahem, I'm not too early. Only two days ago, Ye Shao chatted with me, and I didn't tell you."

"Ah."

Qiao Nian was so angry that his brain ached. Considering that time was running out and there were so many people around, he didn't directly settle the score with him.

Instead, Shen Lian said: "I'll settle the score with you later!"

Ji Nan touched the bridge of his nose silently again, without saying a word.

Of course he knew that Qiao Nian would be angry.

It's just that compared to Qiao Nian being angry, he hopes that Ye Wangchuan will come to at least several people to protect her safety.

This event was calm on the surface but undercurrents were surging. He couldn't participate by himself, and he knew what he was up to. Knowing that he went would not be of much help, but would only drag Qiao Nian down.

But Ye Fanchuan is different.

Ji Nan didn't know much about him, but he also knew that Ye Wangchuan and Qiao Nian were the same kind of people.

Ye Fanchuan is there.

Even if Qiao Nian doesn't believe the people arranged by the second elder, at least he can have a companion who can trust his back!

So this time he knew that Qiao Nian would definitely be angry afterward, so he took the risk to hide it.

"When you come out safely, I will give you a good blow."

After Ji Nan finished speaking, he heard someone notifying everyone except those who participated in the treasure hunt that they were about to leave Mingshui Mansion.

Qiao Nian didn't say anything, as long as he didn't want to talk to him.

Mo Dong glanced at him, put his hands on his shoulders and patted him twice, and gave him a thumbs up, making a mouth shape.

Ji Nan could see that what he said was 'Niu B'.

Even though he didn't understand what it meant, the second elder called someone over to urge him.

He could only tell Qiao Nian to be safe, and he had to meet Ji's family first.

Mo Dong watched him walk away, then looked at the girl again, he was not as worried as Ji Nan, he just said half-jokingly: "Miss Qiao, Young Master Ji doesn't know that the person who said this last time was beaten by you for three months. Get up from the hospital bed?"

He had read Qiao Nian's information.

Knowing that Qiao Nian was going around the city and beating people until they couldn't get out of bed.

He didn't know where Ji Nan got the courage to ask Miss Qiao to beat him up.

With Ji Shao's small body, if Ms. Qiao really beat him up, she would be able to vomit blood from him.

But Mo Dong also knew that Qiao Nian wouldn't really care about Ji Nan, and if she wanted to care about it, she wouldn't mind the Ji family's business.

He saw that Qiao Nian didn't really want to talk, so he took the initiative to say with good eyesight: "Master Wang, Miss Qiao, I'll go over and talk to my brothers."

He strode away.

Very discerning, leaving room for Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan to talk alone.

Chapter 3504: Sister Nian even brought chewing gum

"Let's go too." Qiao Nian pulled up the zipper of the sweater, turned around and left with a tall figure.

Ye Wangchuan grabbed her left wrist at this moment, stood still, and his tone was still the same as the style of Young Master Ye in Jingshi, very reserved and lazy: "Are you angry?"

Qiao Nian frowned, didn't move, and didn't shake off his hand: "No."

Ye Wangchuan didn't quite believe it.

Qiao Nian rubbed the center of his brows with the other hand, and watched him grab his hand, the light and shadow in his eyes fluttered, and the emotions fluctuated: "I didn't tell you before."

paused.

She continued: "This is your first time."

This is the first time that Ye Fanchuan didn't tell her.

So she was uncomfortable at first, but after thinking about it, she was not so angry.

Qiao Nian has never been a hypocritical person. He probably saw that Ye Fanchuan thought she was angry, so he curled his lips into a smile, and then emphasized his tone, with a more serious expression on his usual sloppy face: "I'm really not angry. But after entering You have to listen to me, be careful, they won't let me participate so easily."

Ye Fanchuan let go of the hand that was still on her wrist, with a straight nose and thin lips, and there seemed to be small hooks in his eyes: "Well, I listen to God Qiao."

Qiao Nian looked at him sideways.

He is wearing a long black windbreaker today, with deep eyes, a crisp turtleneck sweater, knuckle fingers, and long and narrow phoenix eyes. No matter how you look at it, he looks like a young man strolling around in the garden.

There was a bang in her head, and the string was pulled even tighter, so she pulled the shoulder bag on her back and said to him, "Let's go."

Many people came to participate this time.

She took the number 36.

Ye Wangchuan took the number 37.

The two of them were not the last to report.

Behind them, there are more than a dozen people who went to the form to sign the life and death certificate.

That is to say, there are roughly fifty or sixty people participating in this treasure hunting competition, most of whom are strong men.

Participants need to ask the staff to check whether there are any prohibited items in the things they carry before entering the Mingshui Hall.

Qiao Nian is at the end of the list.

Raising his bright eyes, he glanced at the people queuing up for inspection, and lowered his voice: "Hey, did you see that? The seven or eight people in front are all mercenaries."

Ye Wangchuan's dark eyes were immersed, as if not surprised, he only raised his thin lips: "Well, it's quite interesting."

Qiao Nian squinted at him.

Is this interesting?

He spent money to find so many mercenaries to show that they are not allowed to leave the Mingshui Mansion today, but in his eyes it became 'interesting'.

This is interesting, but it's so * interesting!

But she really wasn't in a hurry, at least she wasn't bluffed by these people.

The line in line did not wait long to move forward before it was their turn.

Ye Wangchuan could see that he didn't bring anything with the naked eye, so he quickly passed the inspection.

Then it was Qiao Nian's turn.

When the staff saw her, they said in a businesslike manner, "Please pour out the contents of the backpack."

Qiao Nian put down the bag neatly, unzipped the zipper and dumped the contents of the bag on the table.

A bunch of things fell out of it.

There are earphones, a charger box, a charging cable and a glasses box, and some messy things that don't seem to work, but they all meet the regulations.

She even brought a box of gum.

The staff member picked up the gum box, was stunned for a long time, then looked up at the girl with a strange look, and silently put everything Qiao Nian put back into the bag.

Then return the black shoulder bag to the girl.

Chapter 3505: Don't worry, I won't mess around with this matter

"Okay, what you brought is fine."

is no problem.

But this is the first time she has seen someone occupying space with an 'impractical' thing like chewing gum on this occasion.

Qiao Nian took his bag from her and said politely, "Thank you."

The staff saw that her brows were full of coldness that was not easy to provoke, and thought she was the kind of person who didn't care about others. I didn't expect that I would get a polite thank you for handing her the bag, but the staff was a little embarrassed: "Those who have checked can go in, the diamond is hidden somewhere in the villa, as long as you find the diamond, you can go in." It's time to come out."

The treasure hunting game in Independence Island is extremely simple and crude, that is, the person who finds the diamond and successfully brings it out of the villa wins.

Qiao Nian glanced at her, then nodded friendlyly at her.

The staff saw her unscrewing her bag and entering the Mingshui Hall with a man checking in front. She didn't know what to think, and there was a little pity in her eyes.

Although she is only a small staff member, she also senses that this year's treasure hunt is unusual.

Anyway, under the calm activities on the surface, anyone can feel the surging waves in the dark.

I hope that girl will have good luck and come out safely!

The staff didn't take too long to think about it, and soon called the next person to check.

"Let's go too."

The second elder of the Ji family watched Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan go in, then turned his head and patted Ji Nan on the shoulder, signaling him to go somewhere else.

Today, they will first go to another villa of similar size not far from Mingshui Mansion to wait for the results.

There is surveillance over there, and you can see everything that happens in the mansion through the cameras installed in the Mingshui mansion.

Now that the people participating in the activities from various families have entered one after another, it is time for them to go to the place where they should stay.

Ji Nan didn't follow immediately, but looked at the direction Qiao Nian was going in, and frowned uneasy: "Is the person we arranged okay?"

The Second Elder knew that he was talking about No. 9 and No. 15, so he was rarely stunned. Afterwards, some ironic feelings came up, and he even patted Ji Nan's shoulder with a little force: "It's about the dignity of the Ji family, I'm not so careless." Unclear! Don't worry, I've made it clear to those two people, and they will try their best to help."

Ji Nan just turned around, didn't look at him too much, and just said: "That's good."

Then he walked in front of the second elder with a very calm face, without saying hello to the rest of the Ji family, and went straight to the villa next door by himself.

The second elder looked at his back without looking back.

Turning around, Ji's family followed up and surrounded him, when someone asked him: "What's the matter with Nan Shao, why did you leave alone first?"

The second elder rarely said anything, and greeted them: "Let's go too!"

Qiao Nian's willingness to replace Ji's family to participate in the competition this time is beyond his imagination, and he is not a person who is completely ignorant.

At least in this matter, he can't help much, and he doesn't want to hold back.

In addition, he and Ji Nan are in the same mood now, and they want to go over there quickly to check the surveillance, see what's going on inside, and whether Qiao Nian is safe or not.

...

The people from Ji's family are the fastest to leave.

When they go.

Mrs. Xie not long after she arrived, she was greeting Simon from the Chamber of Commerce Alliance.

Seeing that Ji Nan didn't even call her grandma when he greeted her, and left here in a hurry, the corners of his mouth suddenly dropped, and his sharp face collapsed a lot.

Chapter 3506: I'm really looking forward to seeing Miss Nians excitement

"Hehe, an outsider makes him unable to even see his own grandmother."

"..."

Even if Simon, who was standing opposite her, wanted to pretend he couldn't hear, he couldn't really pretend that he was deaf, so he had to cover the corners of his lips with a champagne glass, and said awkwardly and politely: "Ji Shao is also too concerned about this event. "

The old lady Xie twitched the corners of her mouth, her face was full of displeasure, she obviously didn't take Simon's words seriously, and wrote her disapproval on her face.

Simon also treated her politely, not really treating people like Mrs. Xie at the same level as Ji Lingfeng and Feng Yu.

Seeing that the other party was disrespecting the old with his age, and didn't know how to look at his face smoothly, the smile on his face faded. He put the champagne glass back on the waiter's tray, dusted off the wrinkles on the suit, and said to the old lady Xie: "Madam, I still have something to do, so I won't accompany you."

He made an apologetic expression, but his attitude was very casual.

Old lady Xie's face froze, and it was obvious that Simon didn't take herself seriously, so she could only swallow her breath and nodded: "President Simon, go get busy."

Simon said sorry, turned his head and talked to the assistant beside him, and then strode away from here.

"Mom." At this moment, Xie's mother came over to help the old lady Xie's arm.

The old lady was very angry, she didn't look good, she even pretended that she wasn't there, she pressed her eyes and gritted her teeth and said, "What does he think he is, and he has the attitude like me!"

Mrs. Xie knew it in her heart.

The reason why these people are not as warm to her as before, has something to do with her falling out with Xie Tingyun and Xie Yun before.

It's just that she has been used to being strong all her life, and seeing such a big difference in treatment, she can't accept it in her heart, and it's even more uncomfortable.

When she felt unwell, she thought of Xie Yun who didn't even go home, and Ji Nan left today without even saying hello to her.

The old lady Xie couldn't hide her meanness and lowered her voice: "Hmph, I'm waiting to see them make a fool of themselves!"

Finished speaking.

She didn't look at Xie's mother's expression, she turned her head and said coldly, "We'll go there too."

She can't wait to see how Ji's family fell to the altar this time.

Mother Xie smiled, not as gloating as the old lady Xie showed on her face, but her eyes were full of gloating and joyful light.

She carefully supported Mrs. Xie's arm, and said in a relaxed and cheerful tone, "Mom, walk slowly."

In Mingshui Mansion.

People who have passed the inspection have entered the villa one after another.

This is a townhouse.

It is said that it is a villa, but in fact, it is more similar to the medieval style of an ancient castle in terms of floor area and architectural style.

The villa is big enough and there are enough rooms inside. The corridors of various similar rooms look like a maze, and you will get lost in it if you don't pay attention.

When Qiao Nian and the others went in, he could no longer see where the people who went in first went.

Judging from her experience of sniping in the wild in F continent.

Those people should have found a safe hiding place when they came in, and they were going to observe the terrain before going out to find diamonds.

Other people may hold the mentality of sitting on the ground for profit, and hide themselves well before they come out.

Wait until the competition outside is almost the same, and the consumption is almost the same, and then they come out and easily collect the things in their pockets.

Qiao Nian hadn't figured out which method she would use to get the diamonds, but raised her eyes to observe the surrounding environment first.

Chapter 3507: Accident prepared long ago

She saw the ubiquitous pinhole cameras around the villa with sharp eyes.

No need to guess, you know that Ji Nan and the others are somewhere outside and are surrounding these surveillance cameras to see what's going on inside them.

"Go in first."

Ye Wangchuan took her hand at this moment, pushed open one of the doors and pulled her in, and then closed the door smoothly.

Qiao Nian was caught off guard by him and dragged in. She turned her wrist and looked at him in surprise with her beautiful eyes: "What do you mean?"

Ye Wangchuan went straight to the southeast corner of the room, picked up the blanket in the room and raised his hand to cover the monitor above, and then walked back.

"Have you thought about a countermeasure?"

Qiao Nian was still thinking about it, but when he was asked suddenly, she sat down on the edge of the bed in a rather dull manner, and looked at him angrily: "I didn't think so. I'm going to lie down and wait for you to take me away."

Ye Wangchuan knew that she was half joking, but still raised his eyebrows, the tip of the eyebrows was raised, and his black eyes were deep and dark: "Yes."

"Wait and follow me, don't run around."

Qiao Nian sized him up for a moment before saying, "Are you serious?"

Ye Wangchuan raised his hand and pressed down her peaked cap, not wanting to look into her eyes: "Otherwise."

That tone was quite resentful.

However, according to the normal relationship between male and female friends, it is normal for a man to say that he wants to protect a woman. It's just that Qiao Nian is not an ordinary girl. So I asked subconsciously.

No malice.

It just kind of hurt a man's self-esteem.

It feels like a girlfriend doesn't believe in her abilities.

Fortunately, Qiao Nian turned around and was about to explain to him.

at this time.

There was a loud bang outside.

When Qiao Nian heard the voice, his brows furrowed, and a thought flashed through his mind.

Before she could think about it, she heard the siren sounding in Mingshui Mansion, which was shrill and piercing, followed by the sound of burning cables.

At the same time, all the curtains in the clubhouse are automatically closed.

It is still daytime outside.

The entire room or the entire Mingshui Mansion was plunged into darkness.

It all came too fast.

So fast that it didn't give anyone time to react.

It seems that the accident happened in an instant, and it seems like a premeditated 'coincidence'.

"Heh, it seems that they not only want the glory of the Ji family standing at the top, but also want to kill me by the way." In the darkness, the girl's voice was dry.

There is an irritability that doesn't like the dark, a little surly and arrogant, but there is no fear and panic that the person who designed this "coincidence" wanted.

in the dark.

Qiao Nian unhurriedly took out the lighter that she was carrying with her from her pocket, and turned it on with a click, her dark eyes suppressing the * coldness that was about to come. Throw the shoulder bag on the bed and ask him: "Can you assemble a gun?"

Ye Wangchuan watched as she simply poured out the contents of the shoulder bag, among which were black items that seemed useless.

Those fragmentary accessories are extremely clever in her hands, and when they are combined together, they become a handy pistol.

Qiao Nian poured out a few more bullets from the glasses case, stuffed them in one by one, and said casually, "These are empty bullets, but I added some fuel."

Blank bombs will not kill people, but some people insist on courting death.

She asked Zhong Liuliu for anesthesia out of trouble. These bullets were all soaked in anesthetics, so they were guaranteed to hit the soul in one shot.

She threw the gun in her hand to the man, raised her chin slightly, and looked seriously: "Have you ever played real CF?"

Chapter 3508 Master Wang is not a vegetarian

Ye Wangchuan took the gun from her hand, checked it slowly, loaded it by the way, stretched his long arms, half-closed his eyes and made an aiming motion, then slowly put down his hand, looked sideways at the girl with a smile, the tone is gentle and stretched, with indescribable arrogance and solemnity.

"Sig Sauer P322 .22LR rimfire pistol?"

Qiao Nian leaned on the bed with one hand, and looked up lazily: "You know each other?"

Ye Wangchuan threw the weapon in his hand to her again: "Catch it."

Qiao Nian quickly caught the weapon that fell into his hand again in the darkness, and twirled it around in his hand as if playing with it, his slender eyelashes drooping, and his tone was not good: "It's not safe to wait. You don't have a self-defense weapon on you...it's too risky. "

"Give this to me, what about you?" Ye Wangchuan's tone was calm, without any panic, and he didn't know if he was unaware of the danger.

Qiao Nian frowned, his eyes were cold, and he was about to say that he would think of a way.

at this time.

Ye Fanchuan made a gesture of hissing her, leaned close to the door and listened to the sound of footsteps outside.

Qiao Nian also noticed footsteps approaching them outside.

She walked over and lowered her voice: "How many people are outside?"

"two."

The man's figure was blurred in the dark, but he could feel the faint scent of cold mint emanating from him, which made people feel at ease for no reason.

"Hmm." Qiao Nian collected himself, held the miniature pistol in his hand, and said in a low voice, "Stay behind me and stay still."

"Tch." Ye Fanchuan chuckled softly in the darkness, with an indescribable meaning: "Do you know what the old man sent me to learn after I was ten years old?"

Qiao Nian hasn't reacted yet.

I don't know why he brought this up.

At this moment.

Footsteps outside approached them.

She heard people outside whispering: "This room hasn't been seen yet, be careful, they might be hiding inside."

...It was really aimed at her!

Her attention was attracted, a sneer formed at the corner of her mouth, her eyes were full of coolness, and she clenched the loaded pistol tightly.

Next second.

Qiao Nian only felt that someone blocked her back, and Ye Fanchuan opened the door in front of her, like a cheetah in the night, staring at the unsuspecting prey outside.

Only two muffled hums were heard in the corridor.

Qiao Nian saw two men with armbands on their arms lying limply on the ground outside, while the man she said she wanted to protect just now bent down leisurely to pick up the weapons they dropped on the ground, and threw them to She has a flashlight.

"Take it."

Calm and domineering.

This is the true appearance of King Wang.

Move like a cheetah, fast like a gust of wind.

was never a man who needed a woman's protection.

Qiao Nian firmly caught the flashlight he threw over, without saying anything else, handed his back to him, and said calmly: "Drag these two people into the room first, there should be people looking for us outside."

Ye Wangchuan was going to drag the two fainted men into the room without her saying anything, so he easily threw the two puddles of mud onto the floor in the corner of the room.

Qiao Nian saw that he had already got the weapons, so he didn't mention sharing the weapons he brought in with him. He just couldn't help asking in the dark room, "I didn't expect you to learn to fight."

"Not fighting."

Ye Wangchuan threw the two 'garbage' on the ground, moved his wrists gracefully, and smiled on the corners of his lips: "The children in the courtyard in Beijing have been thrown to learn close combat since they were young. When I was ten years old, my father Throwing into the team and studying for a few years, it is not considered a specialization, but it is more than enough to protect you."

Chapter 3509 They never depend on anyone, but on each other

"Nian Nian, walk behind me later."

He said it quite casually, but Qiao Nian could hear the seriousness inside.

She also smiled, met those deep eyes, and said with the same pride and arrogance: "Coincidentally, I have also learned a little close combat. Then let's go together later, and I will leave the back to you."

Ye Wangchuan knew her character, she wasn't the kind of girl who would hide behind others, wasn't that what made him gradually understand and like her.

He didn't worry too much about who protected whom, and he returned to his usual lazy and dignified in a blink of an eye: "Okay."

"Clean up, let's go find the diamonds."

at the same time.

On the other side, Ji Nan and the others are in the big villa.

All forces in the Independent Continent gathered here. Originally, everyone was watching the monitoring in the Mingshui Mansion on the big screen.

As a result, the accident happened in an instant.

I only heard the clicking sound of the big screen, and in the blink of an eye, I saw the signal shaking and the picture on it flickering.

Soon Qiao Nian and Ye Fanchuan fell into darkness with a snap.

Surveillance... Broken? !

Ji Nan was the first to stand up, and said sharply, "What's going on? Why can't the surveillance suddenly be seen!"

Others were also surprised by the sudden turn of events.

"Is the monitoring broken?"

"It seems that the screen suddenly went black."

"Could it be that the signal over there is unstable."

"impossible."

You can say anything.

Only Ji Nan reacted the most, with bulging veins on his forehead, and immediately went to the hacker alliance to adjust the computer, trying to find out the reason for the black screen.

The hacker alliance did not participate in the treasure hunting activity this time, but just sent someone over to check the results.

Who knew to run into something like this.

As a problem in their professional field, they had no choice but to bite the bullet and help.

The man in Niaowotou sat in front of the computer and typed his hands on the keyboard. Everyone only saw the dazzling green codes on the big screen.

About twenty minutes passed.

The man with bird's nest head frowned, stopped slowly, turned his head to look at the crowd, hesitant to speak.

Ji Nan was worried about the safety of Qiao Nian inside, so he immediately supported the back of his chair and said, "What's going on? Can it be fixed?"

Seeing him asking, Niaowotou no longer concealed it, and told the truth: "I looked at it, and the reason for the black screen is not a signal problem, nor a bug in the monitoring system, but the switch at the Mingshui Mansion is broken, and we have lost control over here and inside." Contact. That's why we can't capture the surveillance footage inside."

"The switch is broken?" Ji Nan's heart skipped a beat.

Without waiting for him to react.

Immediately someone trotted in and told everyone in a panic.

"Oh no!"

"The main switch of Mingshui mansion exploded, and the entire motor room was burned. The alarm sounded in Mingshui mansion, and the emergency system installed inside the mansion was activated, and all exits have been blocked. Now people inside can't get out. Wait for the owner of Mingshui Mansion to come and enter the end code to open the closed gate."

The veins on the back of Ji Nan's hands popped up, and he glanced at the expressions that Simon and the others seemed to have known for a long time, and there was nothing unclear!

He gritted his teeth and tried to calm himself down: "We must wait for the owner of the Mingshui Mansion to come? Can't she tell us the password?"

The man shook his head and said in a very embarrassed way: "No way. In addition to the password, the end code also needs fingerprints. If you don't come here, you don't have fingerprints, and you can't end the emergency defense system in the mansion."

Chapter 3510 These people have already figured it out

"Ah!"

Ji Nan had expected this reason.

I just think it's ridiculous, and my heart turns cold.

Simon didn't give him a chance to continue talking. He took a step forward, looking very stable and mature: "When will the owner of Mingshui Mansion come over?"

"Mrs. Sally is on her way."

The man finally said good news.

Ji Nan felt that things were not that simple.

It turns out that he guessed right.

In this dull atmosphere, everyone waited for half an hour.

It is supposed that people should have rushed over.

However, at this moment, someone ran in again, with the same flustered expression as the person who reported the bad news just now.

This time, what he said was even more unacceptable news.

"Ms. Sally was in a car accident on the road, she was rushed to the hospital, and her left hand was injured."

Ji Nan's temples twitched violently, and his falcon-like eyes fell on Simon and the others. Before Simon could speak, he seemed to guess who was behind the scenes, and said coldly: "President Simon, should the fingerprints that end the defense system be right?" Could it also happen to be a fingerprint on the left hand?"

Simon lowered his eyes coldly: "What does Ji Shao mean?"

Ji Nan didn't back down, staring at him with extremely cold eyes: "You understand what I mean."

Simon's face was cold for a moment, and he scolded with a dark face: "I don't want to encounter such a thing. Young Master Ji's words seem to have nothing to do with me. It's too abrupt! That's what Ji's family told us Is the Chamber of Commerce Alliance getting along? Or is it Ji Shao's personal behavior?!"

Ji Nan didn't speak, but his cold eyes never moved away, like a mountain pressing on Simon's heart, not giving him any retreat.

Ji Nan's attitude made it clear that no matter whether he finds out that it has something to do with him this time, it will be blamed on him. This is not the result Simon expected at the beginning.

He had no choice but to emphasize again with a dark face: "This matter has nothing to do with me! I only know about this just like you, and we can figure out a solution together."

"Then the activity will be suspended." Ji Nan said sonorously.

The audience boiled up.

"Stop the activity at this time?"

"Isn't it? We have been preparing for a long time."

"Everyone went in, and if you say stop, stop. Isn't this nonsense?"

...

As if he couldn't hear those voices, Ji Nan said sonorously: "Didn't you say that you want to solve the problem at hand? Since the monitoring system is broken, the electric switch inside is also burned. In order to ensure the personal safety of those who participated in it, I ask to stop immediately. "

Behind him, a large group of members of the Ji family, none of them stood up to stop him.

Obviously acquiescing to his approach.

Even the second elder, who always pays attention to the family's reputation, didn't say anything this time, but frowned and glanced at Ji Nan.

If he doesn't stand up to object, others will naturally not object to Ji Nan.

Ji's family seemed to be standing in a line.

"President Simon, stop the activity!"

Ji Nan faintly has Ji Lingfeng's usual fierce style. The Ji family is after all the Ji family, and things in his bones cannot be changed.

Simon lost his mind and took a deep breath. It was impossible to agree: "This time not only people from our Chamber of Commerce Alliance and Ji's family participated in the event, but also other major forces. It's not that I have the final say, even if we want to solve the problem , we also need to discuss a method that most people will accept, it is impossible for you to say what you say."

Sure enough.

As soon as he finished speaking, there were many voices of support.
