

Madam's 3511

Chapter 3511 Ji Nan: I will wait another two hours at most

The main reason is that these forces have received a confidential message a few days ago, that is, Qiao Nian has a blueprint of the Tsar on him.

These people have reached a tacit agreement in private, and they want to take this opportunity to get the invaluable blueprint on the girl!

So no one will give up this great opportunity.

What's more, it doesn't matter whether the monitoring system is broken or the electric switch is burned, including Mrs. Sally's car accident, and the left hand that happened to be injured in the car accident...all of this is in their plan.

Qiao Nian was the prey they wanted to hunt.

Everything is ready.

How are these people willing to give up.

Most of the forces participating in this event stood up against Ji Nan's request to suspend the event, and some people were not very happy to refute.

"In Mingshui Guild Hall, the electric switch is broken. It's just that you can't see the surveillance, and it's not really dangerous. If Ji Shao is worried, isn't there still someone from the hacker alliance here? Let them contact Mrs. Sally later, Ask me what is going on with the emergency defense system in the Mingshui Guild Hall, and then try to find a way to open the gate? Is Ji Shao so excited?"

"That's right, I also think this method is good."

"Just follow this!"

Knowing that this was a premeditated conspiracy, Ji Nanming was so angry that his shoulders were shaking, he gritted his teeth and was about to say something.

But at this time, the old lady Xie interjected in the corner with a sly voice: "It's not a big deal, can the people inside bite her up and eat her? With her personality, it's fine if she doesn't harm others. Can it harm her?"

Xie's mother also supported the old lady Xie, gracefully raised her hair by her ears, and said to Ji Nan gently: "Yes, Ji Nan. You are still young, and you are too impulsive to do things. Don't let everyone think that the Ji family can't afford to lose. "

One of them talked about Qiao Nian, and the other talked about Ji's family.

The words inside and outside the words are to help Ji Nan speak.

In fact, he was forcing Ji Nan.

Once Ji Nan still insists on suspending the activities, he will tell everyone blatantly that worrying about Qiao Nian's safety is all fake. In fact, Ji's family is afraid of losing and can't afford to lose!

Ji Nan really didn't expect Mrs. Xie and Mother Xie to intervene at this moment, and even pointed at Qiao Nian with a gun and stick. He was so angry that the veins on his forehead were bulging.

The second elder held his hand at this moment, motioned him to calm down a little, and whispered in his ear: "Miss Qiao is not unprepared."

"But..."

Ji Nan still felt that it was too dangerous for Qiao Nian to be inside.

The Second Elder used some strength to remind him without giving him a chance to finish speaking: "You forgot, we also arranged for people to help inside. Things are not as bad as you think. We have to believe in Miss Qiao's ability, and Believe in Yaomen's ability. At least don't hold them back."

Ji Nan's color faded a little, obviously knowing Qiao Nian's usual abilities.

It's just that he is still worried: "Two hours, I'll wait up to two hours. If there is no news from them within two hours, I will stop the game no matter what."

The second elder of the Ji family didn't confront him this time, and nodded: "Well, I mean the same thing."

Two hours is more than enough.

Qiao Nian represents the Ji family after all this time, and he also takes Qiao Nian's life as his priority.

Otherwise, if it spreads out, their Ji family is nothing.

When Ji Nan raised his head again, Jun's face was much calmer. He just glanced in the direction of Xie's house, and never looked at Mrs. Xie and his mother again.

It seems that he doesn't want to talk to them anymore.

Chapter 3512 As long as he is inside

Seeing his attitude, Mrs. Xie felt her temples throbbing and suppressed her anger: "What does he mean?"

Mother Xie was full of Qiao Nian's thoughts, so she patted her arm indifferently to comfort her: "Jinan is just too young and likes to act emotionally. Mom, please ignore him."

"I'm his grandma!"

Old lady Xie still couldn't swallow this breath: "I am his grandmother, what's wrong with him. He will show me his face in public."

Still for an outsider.

From the perspective of old lady Xie, the blood relationship between Qiao Nian and Ji Nan is not worth mentioning in her eyes, and there must be no way to compare with herself.

She really didn't understand why Xie Yun and Ji Nan, including Xie Tingyun and Nan Tianyi...how one after another turned against her because of Qiao Nian.

"What kind of ecstasy soup did that Qiao Nian pour them into, one or two are completely obsessed!"

Mother Xie patiently comforted her, with uncontrollable gloating in her voice: "Mom, don't be angry, it's not worth it."

Without waiting for the old lady Xie to speak, she leaned close to the old lady's ear and said pointedly: "You don't care what she does, it doesn't matter if there is such a person after today."

According to what she heard that night, many forces in Independent Continent wanted to take this opportunity to solve Qiao Nian's out-of-control trouble.

Mother Xie couldn't hold back the arc of her mouth: "We just wait for the good news."

...

While waiting, Feng Yu hurried over.

He first asked someone what was going on.

It was learned that a 'little accident' had occurred in the Mingshui mansion. The electric switch tripped and triggered the defense system in the mansion. Now people outside can't get in.

Inside, Qiao Nian and the others were also locked up and couldn't get out.

Feng Yu's face turned dark immediately.

Like Ji Nan, he approached Simon and the others to discuss the suspension of the event.

But Simon and the others still used the same rhetoric. They didn't say they completely rejected it, but they didn't give an accurate statement. They just shirked the participation of so many forces and said that they should organize a meeting to vote to decide whether to suspend the activity...

Feng Yu is not a fool.

He understands the thoughts of these old foxes in Independence Island better than Ji Nan, and he knows that people like Simon are just trying to delay time.

Drag until the dust settles inside.

Feng Yu was very angry.

But he is not Ji Lingfeng after all.

The First Research Institute is not the original Ji family.

The First Research Institute has a high status but doesn't have much real power in its hands. Feng Yu really can't do anything about this situation for a while.

He had no choice but to go to Ji Nan and the others again.

"Feng Lao."

Ji Nan knew about his relationship with Qiao Nian, so he said respectfully.

"Yeah." Feng Yu's expression was not very good, seeing him staring at the hacker alliance's people repairing the system, he raised his chin slightly, and asked him: "How's the progress?"

Ji Nan's eyes fell on the computer in front of Bird's Wotou again, with a serious expression, inexplicably cold: "The hospital just passed the code over, and I don't know how long it will take."

"..."

Feng Yu had expected this earlier, raised his hand and pinched his brow bone, and his sharp eyes fell on him again: "Before the monitoring was broken, did you see what Nian Nian was doing?"

Ji Nan and the others came early, when the surveillance was not broken.

He saw the scene of Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan together, and then the computer screen went black.

Ji Nan told Feng Yu clearly.

Feng Yu heard that Ye Wangchuan was also inside, the tense muscles on his body relaxed, his face finally looked human, and he said in a daze, "It's good that he is here."

Chapter 3513 Sister Nian: Do you want to take a gamble?

Time passed by one minute and one second.

In the big villa outside the Mingshui mansion, several parties have their own thoughts.

The people of Xie's family are still waiting to watch the excitement.

Simon and the others are also thinking about how to delay the time.

Everyone seems to have made an agreement, waiting for the final "result" to come out, and then each perform the last performance.

The situation in the Mingshui Mansion was not quite what they had imagined.

"17."

The girl's voice was a little careless, cold and dry.

At the same time, there was a knock on the door behind her, followed by the muffled sound of the silencer gun Ye Fanchuan found somewhere.

"18, 19."

He was still in the mood to chuckle, as if he was quite happy.

"It seems that I am luckier than you, two at a time, opened a double-yolk egg."

Qiao Nian raised his eyes and glanced at him. In the dark, he couldn't see the expression on his face clearly, so he felt quite speechless.

Where did he get the desire to win?

But I thought so in my heart.

Her movements were crisper than before. She raised her eyes out of the corner of her eyes and said 'be careful'. She pulled the person back with one hand, and raised her hand to shoot precisely.

A person hiding at the entrance of the corridor fell to the ground.

Qiao Nian withdrew his hand and changed a magazine for himself, with a cool feeling in his brows, and the movement was extremely smooth, changing the magazine and loading it.

It takes only 1.5 seconds to complete a set.

This speed is enough in the professional field.

It can be seen that she is not hiding it, she is quite real.

Qiao Nian changed the magazine, pulled up the only hoodie to cover her eyes, revealing only a sharp jaw with smooth and beautiful lines.

She seemed to be having a good time, and deliberately gave someone a reciprocal look, licked her red lips, and said dryly and arrogantly, "Even."

Ye Wangchuan immediately reacted.

She meant the numbers were even.

He raised Cen Bo's lips, and invited her very lazily: "Isn't there still more than half left, continue?"

"Okay."

The girl agreed readily, but felt that it was boring to do so, so she took the initiative to mention it: "I remember you have a modified Aston Martin in your garage."

Ye Wangchuan parked several cars in the garage below his residence in Beijing, except for the Phaeton he likes to use every day.

There are also several sports cars.

But those cars were almost turned into ashes by him.

Anyway, Qiao Nian has never seen him drive.

But she has sharp eyes. She saw it once before, and remembered a modified racing sports car from a row of cars.

The fiery red sports car has smooth and aggressive lines, and it is very exciting to drive by visual inspection.

She fell in love with it immediately.

It was only at that time that she reported to Tsinghua University. She was a student, so it was not suitable for her to drive such a flamboyant car to show off.

She also suddenly remembered it now, and remembered that Bao Jingxing had mentioned to her that there was a mountain road dedicated to sports cars in the suburbs of Beijing.

In the past, the few of them used to go to that winding mountain road to go sports car.

Qiao Nian suddenly wanted it.

"Would you like to take a gamble?"

The girl's slender eyelashes were pressed down, she was quite stylish, and her tone of voice was relaxed, not like they were surrounded by people, but more like the two of them surrounded dozens of people.

"If I win, the car is mine."

"I lose and deal with you."

"how?"

Ye Wangchuan was silent for a second in the dark, mainly because she didn't expect that she still remembered what car was in her garage, and she also fell in love with her favorite modified sports car before.

Actually, as long as Qiao Nian talks to him, it's just one car, and he will give him ten cars, and it's not that he can't afford it.

Chapter 3514 Are they still in the mood to chat and joke?

It's just that he could hear the excitement in Qiao Nian's tone, and seemed to want to drive that car out for fun, so he rubbed his swollen temples to remind her.

"If the old man knows, he must make trouble with me."

"kindness."

"..."

Ye Wangchuan said again: "There is also Mr. Jiang and your father, Jiang Li and the others will settle accounts with me if they find out."

Qiao Nian stood there with his hands down, quite confidently: "Otherwise, how can it be called gambling?"

This means undoubtedly saying, otherwise you will win me for nothing.

Ye Wangchuan raised his thin lips, but did not refuse: "You lose and let me deal with it?"

Qiao Nian said it casually, mainly because she felt that it was unlikely that she would lose. After all, except for her willingness, she had almost never lost since she was a child.

But hearing someone's question with a smile in his tone, his elbows suddenly became sore, and he remembered a bad memory.

But the words were spoken by myself, so there is no reason to admit cowardice.

"kindness."

"Then bet." Ye Wangchuan raised his brows, changed the clips for his own gun, collected his laziness, and finally became a little serious: "If you lose, don't cry."

Qiao Nian: "..."

People hiding in the dark not far away watched the leisurely chatting of men and women in the corridor.

I doubted my ears for a while.

"Are they... chatting? Laughing?"

"I saw."

The place where the two of them hide is relatively hidden, and their voices are extremely low, making it difficult to be noticed, so they can barely communicate.

It's just that their heartbeats are louder than their voices.

Somewhat incredible.

"Did they get the situation wrong? It's this time, and they are still in the mood to stand in the corridor and chat? The atmosphere is good."

Compared to his incredible doubts.

The other person was much more depressed.

"The people who didn't see Qiantang who ambushed them just now are all gone."

What he said was considered polite.

He could clearly see the situation just now, Qian Tang and the other forces were not an ambush at all, it was more like they were approached by Qiao Nian and the others.

But the two people who were clearly the targets this time seemed to be hunting them down in reverse... He couldn't accept this huge psychological contrast for a while.

"Are the people who came out of the First Research Institute so fierce? Aren't they doing research? Those who do research can still play with guns?"

He just saw clearly.

It took the girl at most two seconds to change the magazine for the gun.

The movements are very skillful.

And the blind sniper is extremely accurate.

The accuracy rate is comparable to that of your mother's professional snipers, and she is very talented.

And that man is also Almighty.

It was the second when the door was kicked.

He couldn't see what the man did from this angle, but judging from the result, the two inside had no room to fight back.

Fast, accurate and ruthless.

is a werewolf.

A ruthless person is fine.

Both are ruthless people.

Continuing in this way, he felt a strong sense of uneasiness. He always felt that the result this time would be beyond the president's expectations, and it was completely different from what they had thought before.

Before they planned to ambush the girl, not to die first, to control her and force her to confess the tsar's blueprint, and then create an accident.

Let people disappear into this world reasonably.

However...

They were ambushed.

But the result is that the two of them are searching for their existence layer by layer, catching one and solving the other, which is faster than fighting cf.

And he also noticed that Qiao Nian had stuck something to it with chewing gum.

All the annunciators they brought in failed.

Without the signal and contact, the people who had agreed to go together suddenly turned into a mess, and they could only hide in the dark and dare not go out.

Chapter 3515 Who is Surrounding Who?

"You said we won't fail?"

Misunderstandings.

He muttered under his breath.

His companion had no bottom, so he managed to stabilize his mind: "No, we still have a hole card, have you forgotten?"

Don't worry about how powerful Qiao Nian is, as long as their hole card is still there.

It will be very difficult for her to get out of Mingshui Mansion alive!

It was dark outside.

People from various forces in the Mingshui Mansion looked like ghosts.

Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan were restrained before, but now they are crazy, one is faster and more ruthless than the other.

A good game of hunting for treasures was turned into a hide-and-seek by them.

The key is hiding them.

Once they are found, not resisting is a shot, resisting... might as well not resisting.

Can't fight in close quarters, can't play tricks.

Mingshui mansion is full of bitter wind and rain.

Members of various forces who participated in this operation complained endlessly, and regretted how they got involved in it in the first place.

Especially those mercenaries.

Ordinarily, this kind of blackout dark space should be their home field.

They also brought in a lot of professional location tracking equipment, who knew that they were tracked by others instead of needing to say anything.

The most ruthless one is that oriental man.

One of their people was caught but couldn't be solved, and they were knocked out and thrown in the corridor. As a result, the people who went to check were sent up one by one, just like the gourd baby saving grandpa.

finally.

The rooms on the last floor of the Mingshui Mansion were almost searched.

Qiao Nian turned his wrist, calculated the number, and reported the number: "25."

Ye Wangchuan curled up his thin lips, and also smiled: "Coincidentally, I am also 25."

"Same?"

Qiao Nian was taken aback for a moment, she really didn't expect such a coincidence.

Just as her eyes turned to see the last room not far away, she raised her eyebrows, raised her hand and pulled down her peaked cap and walked forward.

"There is one last room."

Ye Fanchuan didn't ask her to open the door this time, but pulled her back, opened the door intently, first glanced around with eagle-like eyes, and found a person lying on the ground at a glance, and he didn't know who did it.

He didn't move away immediately, but fixed his eyes on the direction of the closet, and suddenly said lazily: "Come out."

Qiao Nian heard a chattering sound in the closet, and soon someone rolled out of it, looking quite embarrassed.

And immediately raised his hands towards them, a gesture of surrender, and said in his mouth: "Don't, don't do it, your own people."

Ye Wangchuan half-closed his eyes, and looked back at Qiao Nian.

Qiao recalled the inexplicable look in his eyes, then suddenly remembered, and glanced at the man's armband, number 15.

She remembered that Ji Nan told her that No. 9 and No. 15 belonged to them.

The man also hurriedly said at this time: "I am the person arranged by the second elder. Has the second elder mentioned me to you? I am not a bad person."

Qiao Nian didn't say anything, but asked him, "Why are you here?"

The man stood there hesitantly, thought for a while, and explained in a low voice: "I came in and found that the power was suddenly cut off, and I have been looking for you. I didn't find you in the back, but I found No. 9. I saw him lying here, his hands There is still a diamond in his pocket, and he has been guarding here for a while without knowing what to do with it."

He saw that Qiao Nian did not speak.

Worried again and took the initiative to say: "Number 9 seems to be injured."

"He may have been injured in order to get the diamond, and he bled too much and passed out after barely escaping here."

Chapter 3516 Sister Nian doesn't believe in him, she believes in Wang Ye

Ye Wangchuan saw at a glance the man in front of him hiding his malicious intentions under hesitation, narrowed his eyes slightly, and looked in Qiao Nian's direction.

The girl didn't know if she noticed something was wrong, she stood there with her legs casually, and raised her hand to pull down the neckline of the sweater, her chin hidden in the clothes was slightly cold, showing no emotion.

"Oh, so you've been waiting here for me."

Ye Wangchuan raised his eyebrows and glanced at her again.

No. 15 couldn't figure out what she meant, so he said, "The second elder is kind to me. He heard that I would represent Sanjiumen to participate in this treasure hunt, so he found me and mentioned you to me, and asked me to take care of you." ."

"Although I'm just a small person, I know how to repay anyone who is kind to me. So..." I don't know if Qiao Nian's gaze was too sharp, his throat was slightly blocked, and he almost couldn't continue.

But Qiao Nian was standing at the door with his hands in his pockets. Seeing him stop, he even raised the corners of his lips to urge him: "Go on."

No. 15's scalp was numb: "So don't worry, Ms. Qiao, I will definitely stand by your side."

"Oh." The girl leaned lazily against the door, her shadow was sharp, and she couldn't tell whether she believed him or not.

But that's all for the sake of it.

No. 15 had no choice but to bite the bullet and proceed to the next step: "Miss Qiao, why don't you check the situation of No. 9? He hasn't woken up yet."

"I heard that the second elder said that you are good at medicine, why don't you help him?"

After he finished speaking, he didn't know what to do.

I don't know if Qiao Nian will be fooled.

Just when he was hesitating, he heard a girl's voice like heaven.

"Okay, let me see."

Number 15 was pleasantly surprised to see that the other party put away the sloppy energy on his body, walked towards them unsuspectingly, and squatted next to No. 9, as if to check on No. 9's situation...

Boom boom boom.

His heart beat fast, knowing that opportunities wait for no one.

No. 15 hardly hesitated, just when the girl hooked her neck and lowered her head to reach out to check the unconscious man on the ground, he touched the pistol pinned to her waist.

At that moment, the muzzle of the black gun was aimed at the people who were close at hand.

Shooting at this distance, it is impossible to miss.

It will definitely kill Qiao Nian!

While there was a trace of tension in his eyes, a regretful grin appeared on his face, as if he was sympathizing with a young life that was about to be lost.

But yes.

The order he received was that it is best to get the czar's blueprint before doing anything. If he couldn't get it, he should act urgently, as long as Qiao Nian's life!

That is to say.

He received only one order - Qiao Nian must die!

A trace of pity flashed like a shooting star in the man's cloudy brown eyes. It's a pity that she is quite a beautiful oriental woman.

His finger is on the trigger, pushing down—

These were just a short moment, Qiao Nian didn't seem to feel the slightest danger, and was still looking at the people on the ground with his head lowered to fully expose his fragile back.

"Boom!"

There was a dull gunshot.

She raised her eyes and saw that the man who had just said, "Second Elder is kind to me" and "Although I am a small person, I know how to repay kindness" had his head cut open. It landed on the ground with a slap, rolled twice, and rolled to Qiao Nian's feet, like a silent irony.

He saw the girl's cold white hand pick up the gun at her feet, and said to the man behind him without looking back: "26. You won."

Chapter 3517 Who else can I be, my good grandma

The oriental man who was leaning against the door, whom he hadn't paid attention to before, sneered and said in a contemptuous hoarse voice, "He's not a human being."

The surrounding sounds gradually disappeared.

He also fell to the ground with endless astonishment and panic, his limbs began to turn cold, and his eyes fell into endless darkness...

That person obviously only said to be careful with this Qiao Nian, but he didn't tell him that Qiao Nian had a companion, and that he was a man who could shoot faster than him.

What went wrong?

So at the beginning she 'trusted' herself, walking in front of her without defense and squatting down to check the injuries of the people on the ground was a trap in itself.

She just gave her back to someone else.

And he ignored the existence of a third person from the beginning!

Qiao Nian heard a sound of falling to the ground, and asked with no emotion on his face, "Are you dead?"

Ye Fanchuan didn't look at it.

He knew the result without looking at it, but instead of answering the girl's question directly, he walked over and squatted beside her to feel the pulse of No. 9.

The heart is still beating under the skin of the neck.

It can be seen that people are not dead.

He changed the subject without a trace: "Do you think those old men want you to die?"

Qiao Nian had checked the situation of No. 9 on the ground long ago, and knew that No. 9 was just injured and unconscious. Hearing this, he withdrew his hand. Qingling's eyes could not see any emotion, but the person stood up and said casually, "No."

Ye Fanchuan caught up with her, as if asking how she was sure.

Qiao Nian lowered her crow-black eyelashes, put her hands back into her pockets, and actually explained to him: "I am representing the Ji family this time, no matter how much they want me to die, they will never choose this time."

"There is another reason."

Qiao Nian said lightly: "I have dealt with him several times. He is a person who values profit, but he really doesn't care about Ji Hongyuan and others. He doesn't touch Ji's family."

The Second Elder is not a good person, nor is he very likable.

But barely considered a person with a bottom line.

Even if it was about the Bay Wharf, what he pursued was only the word profit, and he didn't count on Ji Lingfeng or Ji Nan's life.

So Qiao Nian has a strong sixth sense, not him.

"Then who do you think it is?" Ye Wangchuan didn't know that she was ruling out the second elder purely based on her sixth sense, and asked with interest.

Qiao Nian pursed her lips and said nothing. After about two seconds, she slowly said a name in the dark: "Hey, my good grandma."

Only Nie Qingru in this world simply wanted her dead.

Even if there is no benefit, I still want her to die!

Outside.

Two hours passed in a blink of an eye.

The Hacker Union has not yet been able to decipher the defense system of Kaimingshui Mansion, Ji Nan gradually changed from calm to anxious, and urged Niaowotou to hurry up several times.

Niaowotou also has a headache, try to speed up.

It's just that he deciphered it, and now he probably understands that the defense system of Mingshui Mansion was created by the Hongmeng, an illegal area, and it is not that simple to figure it out.

"Can you do it?"

Ji Nan was a little irritable.

Niaowotou stared at the computer screen without moving his eyes, and he still paid attention to him when he was busy with two things: "I can decipher, but it will take some time."

"Is this ghost system so difficult?" Ji Nan opened his mouth: "Didn't it mean that there is no system that your hacker alliance can't break?"

Niaowotou finally stopped, took time out of his busy schedule to look back at him, his face was slovenly with heavy dark circles, white as if he was malnourished, but he had no expression, and his words were quite annoying.

Chapter 3518 Someone hacked into the computer and is also deciphering the system

"Ji Shao, you should be thankful that the system they installed was not created by the Hongmeng, but by their main members. Otherwise, even if you strangle me today, I won't be able to solve it."

"..."

Niaowotou didn't want to talk to him after he finished speaking, his face was expressionless, but his eyes flashed with excitement as he continued his major task of deciphering.

This kind of contest between top hackers and top hackers is enough to make him excited.

Even if Ji Nan doesn't urge him, he will try his best to see how long he can decipher the program of opening the thin waist control.

The other side.

Feng Yu couldn't sit still anymore.

He found Simon and the others again, and asked with a serious face: "It has been more than two hours now, and there is no news from inside. President Simon, can we formally talk about the suspension of this event?"

Simon is waiting for news.

He adjusted the suit on his body, took a sip of coffee pretending to be calm, and said calmly, "Is Dean Feng too anxious?"

He looked at Ji Nan and Bird Wotou pointingly.

"Isn't the Hacking Union trying to decipher the defense system? When he solves it, we will naturally know what's going on inside."

"But..." Who knows what will happen in this time.

"I remember that the First Research Institute didn't seem to participate in this event. Did Dean Feng care too much about this event?"

Simon didn't give him a chance to finish, and said in a vague way: "Qiao Nian doesn't seem to be from your first research institute anymore."

Feng Yu suddenly met his gaze, his old and wise eyes almost pierced through the calculation and malice in the other's eyes.

The series of 'accidents' in Mingshui Mansion are not accidents.

Simon was definitely involved in this.

Two thoughts came to Feng Yu's mind. It was almost certain that Qiao Nian would be in danger inside, and the other party was determined to achieve his goal.

What purpose could they have.

Feng Yu couldn't sit still.

His complexion became extremely ugly in an instant, he stared at the mature man in front of him, and there was a trace of the power of a superior in his eyes.

"President Simon must be against me at this time? Then I will put my words here. Although Qiao Nian has nothing to do with the First Research Institute, she will always be my successor chosen by Feng Yu. Whoever wants to touch her is Against me!"

Feng Yu: "I'm old, but I can still move. If I get to that point, I'm not a soft persimmon to be kneaded by others!"

Simon could feel the fierceness coming towards his face, and it seemed that he was serious. The corners of his mouth were stiff, and he forced a smile, ready to smooth things over: "Dean Feng, what you said is too serious, and I am not That's what I mean. I'm just saying that this time, most of the forces in the Independent Continent are involved. If you ask me to suspend the activities, I can't make the decision...We have to discuss this matter slowly..."

It's talking time.

Ji Nan's side, squatting on the swivel chair, stared at the self-moving code on the computer, scratched his messy hair, and said in disbelief: "Wo Cao, has been invaded again?"

His voice is not loud.

But Ji Nan focused all his attention on him, and immediately grabbed his shoulder: "What was hacked again? Your computer was hacked? Then Mingshui Mansion..."

"no."

Niaowotou knew what he was worried about, and grabbed his arm to let him see: "I mean someone who hacked into the computer is also deciphering this system."

Chapter 3519 SUN is what you call Qiao Nian

Ji Nan was a little dazed, but his mind hadn't turned around yet: "..."

Who will decipher the defense system of Mingshui Mansion like them at this time?

Birdwotou, however, became more and more excited the more he watched, fearing that Ji Nan would not be able to understand, he pointed to the code he had refreshed quickly on the computer and said, "Look, she continued to work on the code I just parsed half, but she is much faster than me. , according to this speed, the defense code of Mingshui Mansion will be unlocked in less than a few minutes."

He even explained a few sentences to Ji Nan at the beginning, but then he completely forgot about the existence of Ji Nan.

"Wo Cao, this is tricky enough!"

"Hiss~ Why didn't I think of starting here... Is this hand speed real?"

Niaowotou looked behind and saw the hidden traps in this defense system, and opened his mouth slightly: "I didn't expect that the slender waist control also hides a self-destruct program in it. If I just want to continue, I'm afraid I will touch that program."

ten minutes.

Qiao Nian only took ten minutes.

The progress bar on the computer has been loaded from 0-100%.

Niaowotou saw the program deciphered by the other party with his own eyes, and he solved it without even using the password of the owner of Mingshui Mansion.

The words 'Release Danger' popped up on the computer.

Then there was a beeping sound.

Niaowotou scratched his head, his eyes glowed with fiery light: "...is this the level of the Hongmeng in the illegal area?"

It should be said that this is the real level of sun?

No wonder every hacker who has seen her regards her as the object of pursuit for life.

Some people are born to be lighthouses in this field, enough to illuminate the way forward for those who are pursuing the limit in this field, and tell them what the peak should look like.

Niaowotou felt that he had witnessed the pinnacle of hacking today, and his heart was full of enthusiasm, so he was in no mood to stay any longer.

Stretched out the chair, stood up, and said to Ji Nan: "The gate of Mingshui Mansion has been opened. I still have something to do, so I will leave first."

After he finished speaking, he hurried to leave.

Ji Nan also saw the words 'Release the danger' displayed on the overhead display screen, but his mind was still a bit messed up, and he couldn't recover from the accident, so he grabbed the bird's nest head that was about to leave by conditioned reflex, and said indescribably. : "You just said that the gate of the Water Mansion has been opened...who deciphered the system?"

Niaowo glanced at him, but said nothing: "You know him. SUN is what you call Qiao Nian."

...It is Nian Nian.

Ji Nan's heart relaxed, and he let go of his hand.

Niaowo left without looking back, busy going back to reminisce about the set of C language operations that he had just seen with his own eyes.

...

It's not just the two of them here, Simon, Feng Yu, Mrs. Xie, Mother Xie and others are all there.

Ji Nan didn't deliberately lower his voice when talking to Bird's Nest, and everyone was paying attention to them, as long as they were not deaf, they could hear what Niaotou said.

Old lady Xie had a face full of disbelief: "She's not dead?"

Mother Xie also looked embarrassed, unable to hide her disappointment: "How could it be? Didn't it mean that she was in danger this time, so many people didn't kill her?"

They spoke softly enough, but Feng Yu was not far from them, just in time to hear the two people's heartfelt words under their emotional fluctuations.

He frowned and tried not to ask questions.

He knew that the Xie family had some conflicts with Qiao Nian because of Xie Xinyao's matter, but he didn't expect the two of them, as elders, to expect Qiao Nian to die so much.

Chapter 3520 Let's go see it too

Who knew that Mrs. Xie was not finished yet, with a strong resentment, she cursed coldly: "No, we must have heard it wrong. People from the Hacking League didn't go in. How could he know what's going on inside? Maybe that person already died in it."

Feng Yu couldn't listen anymore, frowned, turned around and walked up to Ji Nan, and was about to ask him what he thought.

Ji Nan didn't wait for him to speak, and first proposed: "He explained that the gate of the Water Mansion is open, Mr. Feng, let's go and have a look first."

Feng Yu was full of words at first, but only two simple words remained on his lips: "Alright."

Compared to those who have nothing, the most important thing in front of him now is to confirm Qiao Nian's safety, and everything else can be discussed later.

Ji Nan and Feng Yu didn't greet the others, they took Ji's family and people from the First Research Institute to the Mingshui Mansion first.

The rest of the people in the villa looked at each other in blank dismay, and couldn't figure out what the situation was—

"Did you hear what the hacker alliance said? He said that Qiao Nian unlocked the defense system of the Mingshui mansion inside."

"It's fake! I didn't see her bring a computer in."

"But people from the Hacking League said that, and they didn't participate in this treasure hunt, so there's no need to lie and deceive people..."

The faces of a large group of people headed by Simon are not very good-looking.

Someone couldn't hold back, and lowered his voice in the dark: "President Simon, didn't you say that this time it was safe? I believed that your chamber of commerce alliance got involved. If Qiao Nian is fine, what should we do?!"

Qiao Nian is behind Ji's family and Yaomen, and Feng Yu's reaction just now doesn't look like she broke up with her successor.

They faintly regretted following Simon to participate in this conspiracy.

However, some people remain optimistic.

"What are you in a hurry for?"

"..."

"You see she's alright?" The man with the goatee was speaking, he was brushing his beard with one hand and another, his triangular eyes were sinister, and the corners of his mouth were curled up contemptuously, obviously he didn't pay attention to Qiao Nian. Li: "We have arranged all experienced mercenaries this time. No matter how powerful she is, she is just a little girl in her early twenties. Her hair has not grown fully, and she didn't bring a weapon when she went in. It depends on how much trouble she can make." ? You are too timid, even a small movement can scare you."

"you!"

"Ding Xu, if you're really scared, we'll find out when we go over and have a look."

The people from Sanjiumen have always had a good relationship with the Chamber of Commerce Alliance. Goatee didn't give the person who questioned Simon any face, called his name, and invited him to take a look.

The reason why he is so sure is that apart from not believing that Qiao Nian, a little girl in her early twenties, can turn the tide, there is also a secret that only he and Simon know.

That's the number 15 they arranged.

In fact, after the second elder of the Ji family found their people, they knew about it right away, and then they planned to make No. 15 a sharp blade, and found the right opportunity to insert into Qiao Nian's heart!

This is also the reason why he is confident.

He is sure that Qiao Nian is now a dead person.

So the goatee raised the corners of his mouth, and invited others with disdainful eyes: "Let's stop standing here, and go to Mingshui Mansion to have a look."

He deliberately lowered his voice when arguing with Ding Xu, but he didn't deliberately lower his voice when he told everyone to go to Mingshui Mansion. Many people heard it.

Old lady Xie and others all looked at him.
