

Madam's 3561

Chapter 3561 The things that the master is going to do

After a short pause, Bo Jingxing seemed to find the voice, and looked at him seriously: "So what do you want to do?"

"..." Ye Wangchuan habitually touched the Buddhist beads on his right wrist, but his fingertips felt cold.

He looked down, and saw the black jade bracelet on his wrist, which was a gift from Qiao Nian, an accessory designed and polished by himself.

At that time, he took off the string of Buddhist beads that he had worn all year round and replaced them with this one. After a long time, there was no shadow of Buddhist beads on his wrist.

Ye Wangchuan took a moment to lean back on the chair back, his head slightly tilted back, the collarbone under his neck protruded delicately, like a swan soaring high.

"I'm going to start breaking up with the Ye family."

Bo Jingxing shook his hand and almost spilled the water, his eyes could not conceal the shock: "You are not afraid that your old man will kill you."

Ye Fanchuan is the only one in the generation of the Ye family.

Everyone in Beijing agreed that after Mr. Ye left, he would be at the helm of the Ye family.

Ye Wangchuan's breakup with Ye's family was undoubtedly a joke, and Mr. Ye went crazy.

Mr. Ye is different from their old man. He was born in the army and has a bad temper by nature. He doesn't pay attention to heart-to-heart talks.

Ye Qichen also lost his mother from birth, and his biological father was a piece of trash and was born with leg problems, so the old man spoiled him into a little devil.

Bao Jingxing tried his best to breathe calmly, stared at him with a serious expression, "I know you are worried that Qiao Nian can't handle it alone, aren't there so many of us? You, me, Qin Si and the first researcher So, Yuan Yongqin of Chengfeng Group. She also has Hongmeng and David herself, so many of us are behind her, and the matter is not as serious as you think."

"Everything you said has its own considerations." Ye Wangchuan was unmoved, and still said in a lazy and arrogant tone: "What I want is someone who can accompany her to the end."

Bo Jingxing looked at him incomprehensibly, as if saying that he was crazy.

Ye Wangchuan could see that he didn't understand.

He doesn't need others to understand.

In fact, he was thinking about this issue as early as dealing with the car accident. For example, the old couple of the Jin family lost their only son because of Nie Junwei's drunk driving.

If Qiao Nian came to meet Nie Qingru on the tip of a needle, he would definitely die. When Nie Qingru fought back desperately, what could he do.

Can he stand with her and accompany her to face any consequences?

"Bo Er, I want to be a person without weaknesses." Ye Wangchuan's clear eyes fell on Bao Jingxing, and he had already made up his mind.

Bo Jingxing took a deep breath when he heard what he said, and after a long time he looked at him with a dumbfounding expression and said, "You're crazy."

It's just a relationship.

Fuckingly, he talked about it in a desperate posture.

He pushed down his gold-rimmed glasses, his hands were cold, trying to calm down, and said with a sullen face: "Do whatever you want, and I won't persuade you. I'll pretend I didn't hear this, lest Your old man beat you and took me with you."

Ye Wangchuan smiled: "I'll go down to see Mr. Feng, you come with me. I'll try to clean up the matter in these two days, and I'll leave the rest to you."

He was talking about cooperating with the First Research Institute to enter the illegal area.

Bo Jingxing frowned, not wanting to find something for himself to do, but his eyes met, and seeing the seriousness in his friend's eyes, the words turned into: "You really want to drag me to death."

Chapter 3562 Sister Nian is here

Ye Wangchuan raised his eyebrows.

He continued: "Got it. I'll go with you this afternoon."

Ye Wangchuan smiled: "Thank you."

Bo Jingxing took off his glasses, rubbed his tired eyes, and said angrily: "Don't thank me, I want to know that I will be so crazy when I come to Independent Island with you this time, so I won't come."

Ye Wangchuan actually wanted to cut off the Ye family for Qiao Nian, so he went to break up with Nie Qingru in order to be alone and alone with Qiao Nian.

Leaving aside the reaction of Mr. Ye, those relatives and offshoots of the Ye family might not be able to accept it.

Bo Jingxing could imagine that scene, and looked at Ye Wangchuan with a complicated expression.

Anyway, this matter is quite troublesome, Ye Wangchuan's ability to make this decision shows that he is determined to put Qiao Nian first.

Bo Jingxing frowned, even though he didn't quite understand their feelings, he went over and patted Ye Wangchuan on the shoulder, and smiled: "Since I have made a decision, I will support you no matter what."

Ye Wangchuan leaned lazily on the back of the chair, holding a porcelain white teacup in his slender hand, focused and clear: "Don't tell her."

Who she is is self-evident.

Bo Jingxing immediately understood what he meant.

He didn't want Qiao Nian to have a psychological burden.

but...

"If you make such a big noise, even if I don't tell Qiao Nian, you will still hear about it, right?"

Ye Fanchuan raised his eyebrows and looked like a painting: "Wait until then. I will find a reasonable reason for her."

Bo Jingxing didn't take back the hand that was on his shoulder for a long time. He stared blankly at the man sitting there lazily, and didn't speak for a long time.

He wanted to fight for Qiao Nian, so as not to worry about him.

Eleven hours later.

Qiao Nian's plane landed at M Continent Airport.

She took her bag, got off the plane with the crowd, walked out of the airport, stood on the side of the road and waved for a taxi to the hotel.

The hotel she chose this time is in the city center.

A global chain of five-star hotels with its own properties all over the world, ostensibly belonging to the Ross family.

In fact, the master behind this global hotel chain is Nie Qingru.

Qiao Nian took the elevator upstairs after checking in at the front desk, and went to her room.

She swiped the door with the room card, inserted the room card, threw the shoulder bag on the bed, walked to the front and opened the window to let the sunlight in.

After finishing all this, she went back to the bed, unzipped the shoulder bag, took out the laptop she brought from the inside, walked to the small round wooden table and put the computer on it.

Flip the cover to power on.

All in one go.

The old black laptop was much faster than it appeared on the outside. Qiao Nian got up again, went to the small refrigerator to find a can of coffee, opened it, took a sip to refresh himself, and then focused on the computer at hand. things above.

She casually put down the coffee can with one hand, first erased her entry and exit information, and then checked Nie Qingru's recent itinerary.

Affected by Nie Junwei's drunk driving incident, Nie Qingru, who rarely shows up, will attend a high-profile charity gala tomorrow.

This charity gala is different from the usual entertainment gala that many media reporters would interview in the entertainment industry.

The people attending the party are basically famous people.

Everyone gathered together for this party, in addition to showing the demeanor of the famous family, it is also the best social occasion.

Nie Qingru must be going this time to take a collection back home.

She is not necessarily interested in the collection, but she wants to save her image affected by the incident of the Nie family and Nie Junwei through doing charity.

Chapter 3563 I don't want to involve the Pharmacy Association

Otherwise, with Nie Qingru's arrogant personality, she would never have participated in activities such as the charity dinner for the younger generation.

Qiao Nian looked at the invitation letter for the charity dinner, crossed his arms, and tapped his index finger thoughtfully, thinking about what he should do to get to Nie Qingru's vault to take a look.

It didn't take long for her to pick up her mobile phone and make a call to Zhong Liuliu.

The other end rang once and answered.

"Strange, why do I show that you are an unknown number?"

"I'm outside and don't want to be tracked and located, so I set up a small program for the number so that people can't find my IP."

After Qiao Nian finished speaking, Zhong Liuliu was keenly aware: "What do you need from me?"

Qiao Nian smiled, looking at the scenery outside the window: "There is something."

From her angle, she could only see a boundless sky, and the wind blew through the clouds, pushing faint dark clouds to float past her eyes.

It may rain tomorrow.

Qiao Nian probably told Zhong Liuliu what he wanted.

As soon as Zhong Zhongliu heard that she asked for that thing, he felt that something was wrong, and asked, "Where are you? Are you not in Independent Island?"

If Qiao Nian hadn't asked him for 'that thing', he definitely wouldn't have guessed it.

After all, Qiao Nian made such a big commotion in Mingshui Mansion, and the follow-up tail has not been dealt with cleanly. Logically, it is impossible to fly to M Continent.

It's just that Zhong Liuliu is more or less half an insider.

Knowing Ji Lingfeng's situation, and also knowing that Qiao Nian will go to M State if he wants to manage Ji Lingfeng's life and death.

"Well, I just arrived." Qiao Nian readily admitted without hiding it from him.

Zhong Liuliu was silent for a moment, then said: "You send me the address, and I will ask Robert to send the things to you."

Qiao Nian had already let go of his hand because he wanted to answer the phone, and touched the edge of the coffee can with the other hand, thinking about it: "It's not convenient for me to come forward."

"You can use the name of K to give this to the person who organizes this charity dinner for me, and say that I am in urgent need of money, so I entrust you to help deal with the things stored in your place."

Actually, she can simply ask Zhong Liuliu to sell this thing in the name of the Pharmacy Association without such trouble.

It's just that if she does this, the next thing to do will inevitably involve the Pharmacy Association.

She doesn't like to owe favors.

K also has another meaning, black mandala.

She hasn't used this vest for a long time, and the black mandala has also disappeared for a long time. At this time, it is perfect to sell that thing in the name of the black mandala.

Zhong Yiliu probably understood what she meant, and knew that the Pharmacy Association was not suitable for getting involved in what Qiao Nian was going to do: "I see. I'll let Robert do it."

"Thank you." Qiao Nian thanked steadily.

Zhong Liuliu didn't know what to say for a while: "You didn't even let me show up, so you don't need to say thank you, I just moved my mouth to help you a little favor. If I only represent an individual, you don't need to mention K today, It's just that after all, I not only represent myself but also consider other people. Nian Nian, can you understand me?"

Qiao Nian smiled, there was a maturity different from her age in her dark eyes, and she was serious in her heart: "You have already helped me a lot, this is my personal matter, I am not so pretentious to ask for medicine The association goes into the water."

Zhong Zhongliu has been friends with her for many years, and he persuaded her in a bad mood: "Be careful."

"good."

Qiao Nian responded.

Then he talked to Zhong Liuliu and hung up the phone first.

The phone's light went out, and she pressed down the brim of her peaked cap, but she didn't have any extra feelings, and she forged an identity for herself and went out with her things.

Chapter 3564 Let's pay special attention to eastern faces

The hotel lobby is full of people coming and going.

Qiao Nian was wearing a peaked cap and a simple sweater, walking in the crowd was not conspicuous. If it weren't for her outstanding personality, no one would notice her.

Wait for her figure to disappear outside the revolving door.

The hotel manager who met Qiao Nian and passed by at the door ran straight to the front desk, pointed at the girl's almost invisible back, and said, "When did an extra Oriental check in?"

The front desk saw him coming over with his hands in front of him, looked in the direction of his fingers, then looked away, and said very cautiously: "She is the guest who just checked in today."

"What's your name?" The hotel manager reached out to her: "Show me her check-in information."

The front desk quickly retrieved the check-in information from the computer, printed out the page of Qiao Nian, and handed it to the manager.

The manager of this hotel is a man in his early forties, with a straight suit, a cropped head, and a sharp-edged face, which can be seen as a very strict personality.

He took the guest's check-in information from the front desk, scanned the ten lines at a glance, and paused for two seconds in the identity column next to the girl's photo. When he saw that it was filled with Hong Kong City exchange students, his face softened a little...

"Manager, is there any problem with this person?" The front desk carefully observed his face.

The manager restrained the sharp look in his eyes, and returned the check-in information in his hand: "It's nothing, the above didn't tell you to pay special attention to the eastern faces, I just took a look."

The front desk suddenly realized: "Ah, this... Don't worry, she is not the person we are looking for."

The hotel manager looked cold and solemn, and glanced at her: "You know?"

Then told her: "Crush this later."

The front desk took the piece of paper from him, hurriedly nodded in response, and immediately answered his casual question seriously: "This guest is of mixed race, her eyes are dark brown, and she is not purely oriental."

There is a world-renowned university around their hotel, and students often stay here.

There are many mixed races at the front desk.

Mixed races are generally very beautiful, and their eyes are even more charming.

When she checked in the guest, she saw the mixed-race exchange student filled in the other's profile, so she looked into the other's eyes curiously.

Those eyes are so beautiful.

The shape of the eyes is impeccable. At the end of the eyes, it is slightly raised, outlining a fan-shaped arc, catching people's eyes like small hooks.

The most important thing is that the pupils of those eyes are the color of amber, calm and self-possessed, and seem to have a kind of carelessness.

In short, she looks beautiful.

The hotel manager didn't say anything when he heard what she said, but the suspicion that had risen in his heart had already been dispelled: "If it's not, then forget it."

"Remember to shred the piece of paper I told you."

"Okay." The receptionist responded respectfully.

The hotel manager put this chance encounter behind him, took a call and went to work on other things.

Qiao Nian didn't know that she was almost suspected of her identity by the strangers she met when she arrived, so she went out unhurriedly and took a taxi to the place agreed with Ji Lin.

She looked up, and saw a club with high-end decoration, which looked like a gold-selling den for the rich.

Qiao Nian walked inside without stopping.

She just walked to the door and was stopped by someone.

"Hey. You can't go in here." The waiter looked her up and down, impatiently, and stretched out his hand to stop her, preventing her from going in.

Chapter 3565 Sister Nian finds Ji Lin

Qiao Nian lifted his peaked cap, revealing that delicate and eye-catching face, paused, and said jerkily, "I'm sorry, Young Master Ji asked me to come."

The waiter was taken aback for a moment, and looked at her again.

Qiao Nian stood there looking very awkward, letting him stare at him up and down, his crow-black eyelashes drooping, as if he didn't want the other party to look into his eyes.

The waiter saw that she was very young, tall and very beautiful, and her temperament was not in the club, so he probably understood what was going on. The guests who came here sometimes brought their female companions to play, and occasionally brought one or two well-behaved girls. The female students are not surprising.

He slowly put down the hand in front of Qiao Nian, and made way sideways: "Ji Shao and the others told me that someone will come to the box later..."

"You come with me."

Qiao Nian did not speak, but followed behind him.

She was extremely quiet along the way, as if she didn't quite adapt to this environment.

The waiter led her to the door of a box and stopped. He looked back at the girl who was following behind him, and saw that the other girl had her head down and couldn't see any expression.

"arrive."

"Ah." The girl raised her head, paused for a second, and said, "Thank you."

The waiter looked at her again, showing sympathy and contempt in his scrutiny: "Ji Shao is inside, you can go in by yourself, I will go first."

"good."

Qiao Nian deserved it very quickly.

The waiter left her alone at the door, and quickly left the corridor.

Qiao Nian waited for him to disappear, then put back the awkwardness he had put on, raised his hand and pushed the door and walked in...

The box Ji Lin booked is very large, with a bar, singing, and even entertainment facilities such as Pai Gow and billiards.

Qiao Nian only brought a mobile phone. When she entered, the deafening music inside made her brain hurt. The lights inside were dim, and the colorful lights created a lively atmosphere.

Party is real.

There are really many people inside.

She pushed the door lightly and came in. In this noisy atmosphere again, few people noticed the figure who came in quietly.

But Ji Lin, who was leaning on the sofa and waiting for others, saw it.

He immediately dropped the wine glass, got up and walked towards Qiao Nian, while ordering the people under him: "Okay, stop singing, ghosts howling! Quiet."

The bald man who sang hurriedly pressed pause and turned off the sound.

The private room became quieter when there was no roaring singing, the card players stopped playing, and the billiard players also stopped... Everyone noticed Ji Lin's movement and watched him walk towards the door.

The atmosphere lights were still flickering in the dim light, and they could only see a vague figure, slender and tense.

female?

Another round of ambient light flashed over there, and they saw the person at the door raised his hand and pressed down his peaked cap again, and then put his hands in his pockets again, waiting for their boss to walk over.

"Miss Qiao, you are here."

The music in the box stopped.

There is no other sound either.

Ji Lin's voice became the only voice here.

Everyone heard his call, awed and serious, without slight contempt or perfunctory, it seemed that he respected the person in front of him.

The people following Ji Lin had a brain short circuit for a moment, vaguely remembering where they seemed to have heard this surname.

Joe?

Ji Lin didn't wait for them to react, and took the initiative to lead Qiao Nian inside, explaining: "You said on the phone before that there are a lot of people staring at me recently. I thought about it for a long time before I came up with this solution. Come here like this It's not easy to be noticed if you look for me, it's just wronged Miss Qiao."

Chapter 3566 I have something for you

He is a VIP customer of this club.

I often bring people here for consumption.

Of course he also knows that this club may be inextricably linked with the Hermit Family.

However, there are very few places in State M that have no connection with the Hermit Family.

He doesn't care about the relationship between the owner of this club and the hidden family, what matters is how to meet Qiao Nian without people noticing.

Ji Lin came up with this set, asking Qiao Nian to pretend to be his girlfriend and come to the club to find him.

Qiao Nian's age and appearance are very convincing.

It's just that if Master Wang knows the 'good solution' he came up with, Ji Lin's back turns cold, thinking of this, he hastened to add: "I have no other way...then what...Miss Qiao, please don't tell Master Wang."

He led Qiao Nian to a circular sofa inside, touched his earlobes, and asked Qiao Nian to sit first as a gentleman.

Qiao Nian didn't greet him politely, and walked over to find a seat to sit down.

Today does count as a real party.

Otherwise, it's not easy to hide it from other people's eyes.

The box is filled with a strong smell of smoke, perfume and alcohol, which is really not very pleasant.

After sitting down, Qiao Nian rubbed his temples, raised his eyes and said to him, "I came to you to give you something."

Ji Lin sat across from her, and didn't dare to sit with her: "Uh...what?"

"Are you asking me to hand it over to whom?"

Ji Lin thought that Qiao Nian was looking for him for help with a 'private matter' that he came to M State to handle this time. After all, he is also a local snake here.

"no."

The girl took out a ring-like thing from her pocket and threw it over.

Ji Lin hurriedly caught it, and his hand was cold. He looked down and saw that it was a snake-shaped ring. Small silver snakes entangled to form the ring itself.

The little snake's green eyes seemed to come alive under the light.

One can tell at a glance that the material of the snake eye is different from those jewelry materials circulating in the market, and it should be a rare ore.

"This is..."

Ji Lin raised his head and looked at the girl with the ring in his hands, not knowing what she was doing with the ring.

Qiao Nian bent her straight and long legs, hiding under the dim light with a tired face, and her eyes still had the sleepiness of flying over without rest.

"I heard you want a fleet of sealifts and a few supersonic drones."

As soon as these words came out, not only Ji Lin was stunned for a while, even everyone in M state who listened to Ji Lin's order to keep silent looked at her subconsciously.

Even in the dark, the girl's eyes are still very bright, and the vast universe seems to be in her eyes.

What is the background of this person?

Ji Lin paused for a second: "Did Master Wang tell you?"

He probably said it.

He didn't wait for Qiao Nian's answer, so he said awkwardly: "That airlift is not for sale, it's still a concept machine. I want a batch to ship."

"As for drones...you know that since Emperor Ji's accident, the high seas are not very safe. Pirates have become rampant, and they even dared to move our goods recently. If accompanied by drones, it can also be deterrent Some pirates in the high seas."

Nie Qingru attacked Ji Lingfeng in the high seas last time, which to some extent broke the balance of the high seas that had been maintained for more than 20 years.

Before, pirates never touched the ferries of Independent Continent, Illegal Zone and M/F Continent.

Since Ji Lingfeng had an accident on the high seas, Nie Qingru blamed the pirates, and this unwritten rule in the high seas has almost become a waste of paper.

Chapter 3567 I made a mistake, sister Nian is the one who came to help

Since a 'pirate' started this, the remaining people have no reason to continue to abide by the agreement. After all, these people are not people who are afraid of death when they become pirates on the high seas.

During this period of time, hundreds of people died on the high seas, all of them died at the hands of pirates, and they also died at the hands of Nie Qingru in disguise.

Ji Lin is in charge of the route between Continent F and Continent M of the dark fort.

He was worried that some pirates who didn't have eyesight would get their ideas on his brothers, so he thought about ordering a batch of equipment just in case.

He thinks that the two kinds of equipment are too advanced, and there is almost no circulation in the market. Only the hermit family has a small amount of equipment.

Others can't buy it if they want to.

"En." Qiao Nian nodded, knowing what he meant, and immediately said to him: "I told Cage, you can buy what you want by taking this ring as a token."

"You mean...?!" Ji Lin was so shocked that he stood up and looked at the girl sitting on the sofa at a loss, his brain still a little slowed down.

"Don't you want these cargo planes?" Qiao Nian leaned back, his eyes calm, and said, "I helped them in their research and development, and he owes me a favor. I said before that what I want after the results come out." You can get it from him."

David only does diamond business in State F.

They don't use sea freight much, but air freight more often.

Furthermore, Continent F itself is the stronghold of many arms dealers. What Ji Lin wants is also shipped from Continent F. Even if David needs it, he doesn't need to buy it by sea.

She really doesn't need this favor very much.

So before leaving, when Bo Jingxing and Ye Wangchuan talked about Ji Lin's difficulties, although she was playing with her mobile phone, she actually listened to it.

This just happened to be coming to M state for business, so I simply asked someone out and handed this ring to him face to face.

This ring was found after she searched the room for a long time before she left. If Ji Lin didn't ask for it, she would have lost it somewhere.

"I told him in advance."

Qiao Nian thought for a while and then said: "But you know the rules in this business, and you are very cautious in doing things, just in case he wants a token. This ring is a gadget I made with David before. They If you accept this, just show it to him."

At that time, the Hongmeng had no so-called collective markers.

Slim Waist Control Fei is clamoring to design a logo that everyone has and belongs to them.

Qiao Nian knew how to design, added the rare ore that Daji got, and finally made four rings, one for each of the four of them.

The outside also recognized this ring.

It's just that Qiao Nian rarely wears it.

"Didn't you come to ask me for help?" Ji Lin brainstormed for a long time before he could come up with a sentence.

Qiao Nian blinked and looked at him strangely: "Huh? What can I do for you?"

"That's the one..." Ji Lin didn't know what to say, with mixed feelings in his heart.

He thought that Miss Qiao was looking for him to ask him for help, but instead, he came to help him a lot.

This feels... kind of irritating.

Qiao Nian realized: "Oh, you said that."

"I have found a way to sneak in."

Ji Lin didn't know what she was going to do when she came to State M so far. Hearing what she said about getting in, he just wanted to ask her.

Qiao Nian's phone turned on.

Ji Lin caught sight of the familiar headshot that jumped out of it, swallowed his words for a while, watched Qiao Nian get up and picked up the phone and said to him, "I won't delay you when the things are delivered."

"Play slowly, I'll go back to the hotel first."

She shook her phone, left the box and walked out without looking back.

Chapter 3568 Sister Nian lost her vest

Qiao Nian walked out of the box door.

There was a sound of boiling questioning inside.

"Boss, who is Miss Qiao?"

"Boss, does she know Cage? Wocao, few people know that one in Continent F, even more mysterious than that David in Continent F. She is a little girl who is under 20, right? Where did she know Cage? That ring of yours, if I'm not mistaken, it's the Snake Ring, the token of the founders of the Red League."

Snake Ring...

The entire box fell silent.

After a few seconds, someone murmured belatedly: "It is said that the eyes of the founders of the Hongmeng Snake Ring are made of special materials, which are related to meteorites. Under the infrared light, the snake eyes will show the symbol of S." , I don't know if this is a fake."

Snake rings are very famous on the dark web.

As long as you search carefully, you can find pictures.

The founders of Hongmeng were all computer experts, but none of them came forward to delete the photos that were circulated on the Internet.

The main reason is that the ring itself is not afraid of counterfeiting.

Counterfeiters can imitate the shape of the ring, but they cannot imitate the pair of ores on the serpentine ring that are stronger than the iris technology, the most advanced anti-counterfeiting technology in the world.

There is also the S icon that was cleverly designed in the gem by the designer at that time and displayed when encountering infrared rays.

Most of the people in the box thought about the strongest anti-counterfeiting mark on the ring, and all their eyes fell on the ring in Ji Lin's hand.

The snake-shaped silver ring shines brightly under the light, and those green snake eyes stare at everyone as if they were alive.

The same idea came to everyone's mind.

This workmanship...

Even if it is a fake, it can be regarded as a fake.

If the meteorite ore that comes with the ring is not too difficult to copy, the appearance of this ring alone is enough to bluff.

"Boss..."

Ji Lin came back to his senses at this moment, looked around the eyes of the people in the room, opened his mouth, and put the ring away solemnly: "This ring is real."

"Boss, do you think this ring is real?"

"impossible."

The phrase 'Impossible' speaks the voice of the people present.

Everyone was distracted.

If this ring is real, what is the identity of the girl who came to the boss?

There are only 4 snake rings on the market.

One is in Guan Yan's hands.

Guan Yan has been wandering around the world all year round, living in no fixed place, like a drifting wind.

One is in the hands of the slim waist controller.

Slender waist control is a full-fledged nerd, he hardly goes out, and stays at the Hongmeng headquarters in the illegal area all year round.

Another one is rumored to be in the hands of arms dealer David.

David is needless to say, the boss of continent F.

It is not normal to go out without ten or eight snipers ambushing nearby.

As for the owner of the last snake ring, it is self-evident—SUN, the leader of the Red League.

It is said that this snake ring was written by SUN. After the design was completed by SUN, it was handed over to the other three, and she kept one for herself.

But this is just a legend.

Hongmeng sun has always been mysterious, except for her superb hacking skills, there is no evidence that she can design.

The shape of this ring is really outstanding. Regardless of the meaning it represents, even if it is sold outside as a luxury jewelry design, it is probably a popular classic.

Will that girl be...sun?

Someone said, "Wouldn't she be sun?"

Ji Lin glanced at the speaker.

The man has a big back, blond hair, and blue eyes, with tattoos all over his body, a typical feature that foreigners like, and he likes to leave a brand on his body to commemorate something.

Chapter 3569 I didn't expect sister Nian to help him

Over the years, apart from the untouched hands on his face, there are dense tattoos all over his neck, and he can't wait to fill every gap in his skin.

Wung Ze has been with him for several years.

Since he was assigned to State M to take over the affairs here, this Wu Ze has been by his side and is very loyal.

Ji Lin only took one look at him and then looked away. He quickly picked up the glass on the table and took a sip of the spirits, and immediately said, "Of course not."

He knew that Qiao Nian came to M State for a very important matter.

I just don't know what Qiao Nian wants to do.

But with Ms. Qiao's character, she probably won't stay here for too long, probably only a few days.

Since she used an alias, she didn't let him pick her up at the airport, and she was even willing to make a special trip to find her as a female companion. She definitely didn't want to be noticed.

Ji Lin thought about what he had seen girls say when they dealt with these situations before, and raised his eyes to meet Wu Ze's astonished eyes: "A friend who does wholesale."

"?"

Wholesale?

Wholesale snake ring? Still know Cage? He also said that he could sell his face to buy them a concept transport plane that has not yet been sold outside?

Why is wholesale so popular?

Everyone's expressions became complicated, and no one exposed their boss's lame lie.

God TM engages in wholesale!

Boss might as well tell them that girl is Sun.

Ji Lin also realized how * he blurted out about being a wholesaler. He put down his wine glass, put his hand on his forehead, thought for a while and then corrected: "Don't tell me what happened today, if you let me know who is there Talking nonsense outside..."

He didn't expect that Qiao Nian came to help him solve the problem of not being able to buy the concept phone in Cage's hand... He thought Qiao Nian was just here to ask him for a little favor.

If he had known that Qiao Nian had asked him to talk about this, he would have found another way to arrange a meeting.

But Ms. Qiao trusted him and the people around him, and told him about Cage in front of these people and gave him a token.

A sense of responsibility arose in Ji Lin's chest, and he felt obliged to keep an eye on these people and not talk nonsense.

"You should know how I deal with traitors."

Ji Lin scanned the audience.

"As long as anyone leaks today's events, no matter what the reason, even if you tell me that you drink too much and talk in your sleep, you will be directly regarded as a traitor!"

The people in the box who were still laughing just now heard the warning in his words, and they all put down their foolish expressions on their faces, and became much more serious.

"Know."

"Don't worry, boss."

"Understood."

"We won't tell."

At the same time, someone whispered: "So the girl just now is indeed the legendary...sun?"

These people are different from those under Mo Dong and Mo Xi who stayed in Continent F and Independent Continent all year round.

The people under Mo Dong and Mo Xi had seen Qiao Nian several times and knew his identity.

These people have never seen Qiao Nian.

The main thing is that every time Qiao Nian came to M state, he was in a hurry, and left after finishing his work, rarely staying here.

Ji Lin helped her before.

But Ji Lin usually contacts her one-way, and then finds his subordinates to follow the orders. These people have never contacted Qiao Nian.

Today is the first time we meet.

It was such a shock for the first time.

"Sun is so young and beautiful... I don't know if she has a boyfriend?" Some people blatantly said that they cared about this issue purely because they had the guts of a bear.

It's no wonder that person blurted out his attention to such a tricky point.

Chapter 3570 Of course it's my master who made the video

Qiao Nian is good-looking.

But there are too many beautiful people in this world, and beautiful girls alone are not enough to attract the opposite sex.

But a beautiful, mysterious, young girl with a unique temperament, unrestrained and unrestrained, can attract the attention of the opposite * too much, she is definitely the best.

Especially this person is still sun.

As soon as Ji Lin heard that someone dared to ask this, cold sweat broke out on his back, and he immediately stared at the man in the crowd and warned: "If you don't want to die, you'd better not even ask this question in private."

Master Wang's possessiveness is not obvious but definitely a lot.

He still remembered that Miss Qiao praised Gu San's cooking not long ago, but this time when he went to Independence Island, Gu San was left in Beijing, and it happened that he couldn't leave due to 'something'.

Gu San is still like this.

If Master Wang heard that there was an idiot under him who cared about Ms. Qiao's boyfriend, he and this person would be sent overnight to spend the rest of their lives together in a place where nothing * happened!

Ji Lin looked awe-inspiring, looked at the man solemnly, and emphasized again: "No, don't mention this name in your mouth from now on, don't even mention it."

The man was also frightened by his eyes, and nodded in a daze, still wondering why the boss reacted so much, as if he was jealous.

Outside.

Qiao Nian walked out of the club and walked a few steps towards the corner. After turning the corner, he made another video call.

The other end rang once and answered.

It seems that she has been waiting for her to go back to the past.

The video was only connected for a second, and then a handsome and proud face of the man appeared. The background was at home, and Bao Jingxing flashed past the video.

"coffee."

"Put it on the table."

Ye Wangchuan's faint voice was slightly hoarse and charming.

"Tsk!"

Bo Jingxing clicked his tongue and then fell silent.

Qiao Nian couldn't see whether he was going or not from this angle, but only heard the slight sound of the rim of the cup hitting the table, then looked at the traffic on the road, put his phone in his pocket and looked for a place to sit and talk.

Ye Wangchuan watched Bao Jing walk away, and when he looked back, he saw the background of her video moving. He raised his hand and pressed the space between his eyebrows, and said, "Nian Nian, are you outside?"

Qiao Nian is still looking around for a place to drink water, but this street is surprisingly expensive, probably the location is too good, the rent is high, and there are not so down-to-earth coffee shops here.

There are clubs, clubs and other high-end places where she just walked out.

Otherwise, it is a western restaurant.

Qiao Nian casually replied: "En."

Then I saw a 711 supermarket not far away with my sharp eyes, so I walked over quickly, went into the supermarket, took a bottle of milk drink from the locker, and went to the counter to pay.

Then she took the bottle of drink and sat on the simple bench by the window, stepped on a high stool with long legs, stepped on the rail with one leg bent, put the phone beside her, unscrewed the drink, and swayed her eyelashes. The light from the road outside fell, and the black and white light and shadows shone on that beautiful and amazing face, which may be the reason for the pale skin, but it turned out to be terribly obedient.

At least in Ye Wangchuan's eyes, she rested her elbow on the wooden table, unscrewed the bottle cap with one hand, her eyelashes drooped and loose, she looked very obedient.

Just like when he first saw her, she was as good as hell.

"Why didn't you get coffee?" His voice was low, as if talking in someone's ear.

Qiao Nian raised her head for a moment, squinted at the person in the video, stopped drinking water, and slowly lowered her arms.

Paused for a full second, as if thinking, and finally asked myself this question in her mind: Yes, why did she subconsciously take a bottle of drink instead of coffee.
