

Madam's 3591

Chapter 3591 followed them unexpectedly

After they made the Mingshui mansion incident in Independence Island, it didn't take long for them to fight back, which made them very anxious for a while.

Follow Qiao Nian's style of doing things.

Under normal circumstances, she will retaliate immediately and there will be no other actions. They will maintain peace for a period of time.

It's just a coincidence that the genetic drug came this time, not to mention that the queen doubts the identity of the genetic drug and Mr. K who consigned it behind the scenes.

Even he was skeptical.

It's just that Qiao Nian didn't get involved in the current situation, and the Pharmacy Association didn't have any contact with outsiders...

This genetic drug might be consigned by someone to the Pharmacy Association.

Shadow thought about it intermittently for a while, then told the driver with heavy eyes, "Drive, go to the warehouse."

"..."

The driver was silent, and immediately drove to the place he explained.

Shadow doesn't seem to be afraid of the driver knowing this at all.

Because they were looking for a dumb person from the beginning, and he was a person who was bred from a group of children from the war-torn area and had no culture.

Such people keep their ears to hear orders clearly, but lose the ability to speak and write to reveal secrets.

Even if he falls into the hands of the opponent, facing such a person who lives purely as a tool, he can't get any useful information.

This is why Nie Qingru chose such a person to drive for herself.

She even trained a lot of people like drivers to work for her.

All of these people have received rigorous training since childhood, just to make them a handy tool.

The car silently rolled over the autumn leaves.

No one noticed that a minute after they set off, a taxi also coincidentally drove in the same direction not far from them.

There was a lot of traffic in the car, and Rao was as cautious as the shadow, but he didn't notice a taxi following behind him. He only looked through the rearview mirror to see if there was a private car following them.

After finding out that there were no suspicious vehicles, he was relieved.

After all, it's just a genetic drug, and it's not a big deal.

Shadow leaned on the back of the chair and began to close his eyes and meditate.

*

The driver of an ordinary taxi frequently peeked at the * the passenger side.

But when she stopped her car, she said that the person in front of her was her uncle, and she was helping her aunt to keep an eye on the cheating uncle.

Then he was given money to let him keep up with the car in front of him no matter what, but it was impossible to follow too obviously.

This reason did not surprise him.

After all, they are in their line of business, and they have never encountered any passengers.

It is not surprising to occasionally encounter this kind of passenger who catches the mistress.

He was just attracted by the unrestrained temperament of the * the co-pilot, and always felt that this oriental girl was a bit different from the general passenger who caught the mistress.

What is different, he can't say it himself.

After getting in the car, Qiao Nian took out her mobile phone and started playing. With her downcast eyes and calm expression, she couldn't tell that she was really helping her aunt catch the evidence of cheating 'uncle'.

But her calm performance made the driver feel less dazzling.

After all, she is young, so she may have been entrusted by her family to help, so she is so relaxed and not panicked.

He stopped looking at Qiao Nian and focused on keeping up with the car in front.

At this moment, Qiao Nian received a message.

Chapter 3592 This is Nie Qingru's true strength

【Y: Got the money. 】

Qiao Nian stared at the line on WeChat for a while, and thought of something, she edited the message carelessly with her white fingers and went back.

She didn't wait long when the phone vibrated again.

Qiao Nian looked down and saw the news that the other party had returned.

Be concise and to the point.

Just one word.

【Y: Yes. 】

She looked up with drooping eyelids, and saw the question she asked— 【Is that man at the banquet arranged by you? 】

The following is Ye Fanchuan's answer.

【Y: Yes. 】

Qiao Nian didn't have any extra expressions on his face, but the doubts in his heart disappeared, with a feeling of 'it really is him'.

Because the man started bidding, provoked Nie Qingru, and then easily abstained... a series of actions are very similar to someone's style.

The kind of calm and playful style.

Just support Ye Wangchuan.

She figured out that the man belonged to him, and she thought of Nie Qingru's expression when she heard the man easily say that he had abstained from filming.

She raised the corners of her lips and smiled lightly.

I'm in a good mood.

However, her good mood seemed very strange to the driver, who peeked at her several times while waiting for the traffic lights.

This was the first time he laughed out loud when he saw someone being caught.

Just waiting for the red light, the driver couldn't help but sideways and said: "Little girl, is your uncle really in that car? That car is not cheap..."

He knows the license plate, it seems to be some kind of luxury car.

He doesn't know the specific price, only the logo.

The oriental girl in front of her is wearing an ordinary sweater and a peaked cap. She looks like an ordinary person. Does she have an uncle who drives a luxury car?

Just when the driver was very confused.

After the girl replied to the message, she put the phone back in her pocket, slightly raised her head and met his gaze, quite casually: "En."

The driver didn't expect the girl to look so good under the peaked cap.

He suddenly believed in the setting that the little girl's aunt can find a rich man. If her aunt looks like this, it's normal to find a rich man.

The taxi followed the Rolls-Royce all the way to a stop in front of a building in the city center. Qiao Nian rolled up the window and saw the shadow getting out of the car with a suitcase. He looked up at the row upon row of tall buildings and walked in.

The driver also stepped on the brakes and stopped on the side of the road: "Your uncle went in."

Joe read to him and prepared to get out of the car.

The driver took the money and tip, and when she was about to go down, he said a lot: "...I didn't expect Uncle Ni to be an executive of Smith Bank."

Smith Bank is the largest private bank in State M, controlling 40% of State M's wealth.

Qiao Nian paused, then got out of the car and closed the door, and said to the driver, "Thank you."

She watched the taxi disappear with exhaust fumes, and then looked at the building in front of her across the road.

Rows of buildings are bathed in the night, and the lights are so bright that it doesn't look like night. You can see the prosperity inside from the outside.

She had heard of Smith's bank settlement system in State M a long time ago, and occasionally their goods going to State M need to be settled through this bank.

It's just that she never thought that Nie Qingru is the owner behind this bank.

No wonder Nie Qingru was able to sit firmly at the top of the Yinshi family, even if the Nie family held her back, no one dared to question her.

Because she holds 40% of the wealth of State M, as well as the settlement system.

Most transactions in State M cannot bypass her bank settlement system, that's why those families and individuals are so afraid of her.

Chapter 3593 Don't wait for me, you go straight down

And hold her carefully!

The root cause is nothing more than Nie Qingru choking their economic lifeline.

Qiao Nian only felt a pain in his head, and the building in front of him seemed like a monster with teeth and claws in the night that could swallow people up at any time.

For the first time, she realized what kind of enemy she was facing.

Nie Qingru is not as simple as it looks on the surface, but she did not expect that Nie Qingru is so deeply entangled with the secret interests of the hidden family and M state.

If she wants to move Nie Qingru in the future, she will be an enemy of the entire M state.

Qiao Nian didn't stand still and blow the wind.

After a brief headache, she pressed her browbones and forced herself to calm down. Then I found a place near a tree and used my mobile phone to temporarily replace the computer to hack into the bank's security system.

This place is Nie Qingru's lair. Unlike other places, the security system is very complicated and cumbersome, making it difficult to invade from the outside.

Another person might not have touched the door of the security system, and the alarm system has been triggered seven or eight times.

Fortunately, this person is Qiao Nian.

Nine out of ten of the awesome security systems on the dark web are all from her hands!

Nie Qingru probably didn't want to use her things. The bank's security system was created by other computer experts, and it is also extremely top-notch.

It took Qiao Nian a full half an hour to barely get the monitoring authority of the elevator and corridor.

She looked for several elevators, and finally found the figure of the person she wanted to track on the fifth time...

She stopped, her eyes firmly fixed on the video—

*

The man in the elevator didn't know that there was a pair of eyes on the other side of the road watching his every move through his mobile phone.

He just inexplicably felt that today's elevator was extremely dull, and there were factors of instability floating in the air as if it didn't circulate.

He looked down and pulled off his tie, frowning.

This was just a small gesture of personal discomfort, but it shocked the bank executives who accompanied him in the elevator.

The fat Mediterranean man wiped the cold sweat from his forehead, and carefully observed him: "Master Shadow, is there something wrong?"

As he spoke, his eyes flicked wildly.

There is only a palm-sized space in the small elevator. If there is something wrong, you can find it at a glance... But there are only two people in the elevator, he and the shadow, how can there be a third person?

Shadow loosened his brows and returned to his usual expressionless expression: "There is nothing wrong. You don't need to go out when you get down to the 8th floor."

"I know, it's the old rules." The obese bank executive hurriedly said with a sigh of relief.

Everyone in Smiths Bank knows that the 8th floor is a forbidden floor, except for Ying Ying and Nie Qingru who have permission to stop the elevator on the 8th floor, the elevator will not stop on the 8th floor.

Now the 8th floor shown on the employee elevator is actually the 9th floor, just to cover up the truth.

The real 8th floor is a storage library.

It can also be said to be a large vault.

This secret is only known to three or five people inside the bank.

The elevator quickly reaches the real 8th floor.

With a ding, the elevator door opened.

Outside is the brightly lit corridor. From the direction of the elevator door, you can see the high-grade carpet on the corridor.

The obese bank executive was so perceptive that he didn't even look outside, respectfully said to the shadow: "Go in, I'll wait for you in the elevator."

Shadow walked out of the elevator without looking back: "Don't wait for me, just go down."

"OK."

The bank executives did not dare to disobey, and reached out and pressed the button on the first floor.

Chapter 3594 Sister Nian mixed in

The elevator doors slammed shut, and the fat executive who accompanied him disappeared from sight.

Shadow held the suitcase tightly, and slowly walked towards the huge safe in front.

He faintly felt that there was still a pair of eyes watching his every move, but there was no one around.

Shadow walked to the door of the vault, not knowing where his sixth sense came from, and suddenly looked up at the hidden camera in the corner at the top of the corridor.

That glance happened to meet Qiao Nian's gaze.

At this moment, outside the brightly lit building, the girl leaned against the tree and let out a sigh, raised her hands and raised her peaked cap, narrowed her delicate eyes, and watched with great interest the man in the video staring at the camera with eyes like a poisonous snake. .

That look seemed to discover her existence!

An ordinary person might have already panicked.

Qiao Nian didn't panic, she even licked her lips, took out another fruit candy from her pocket and tore it open, slowly waiting for the man's next move in the video.

She believes in her craft.

Shadow couldn't have guessed that she was here, so the so-called staring hard at the 'surveillance camera' was nothing more than his body's keen sense of facial features that he had cultivated through years of extreme training.

He should be aware of it, but there is no evidence.

Speculation without evidence won't last long.

Qiao Nian put the tip of her tongue against the candy, lowered her eyes again, and sure enough, she frowned and looked away when she saw the man who was staring at the camera and trying to catch her.

After he hesitated for a while, he reached out and pressed on the metal door of the vault.

You Lan's verification area popped up his palm texture information, and after about a minute, Qiao Nian saw the heavy metal door open in front of him through the monitoring...

Shadow also walked in with a suitcase at this time.

After he entered, the metal door of the vault closed, and the surveillance video became empty again, leaving only a corridor.

Qiao Nian rested her chin on her fingers, with a relaxed expression, as if she had long expected that she would not be able to see the scene inside the vault.

According to her short-term observation, there are two surveillance systems inside and outside the vault.

What she invaded was only the monitoring system belonging to Smith Bank, and she did not have the authority to get the monitoring system of the vault.

Qiao Nian licked the candy with the tip of her tongue for a while.

It didn't take long for her to see the door of the shadow vault open again, and the disappeared man came out with no suitcase in his hand.

She looked like a lone wolf ready to hunt, with the corners of her mouth curled up, leaning against a tree by the road and waiting patiently...

Soon Shadow came out of the building, accompanied by several people, got back into the Rolls-Royce, and the car drove into the night...

After the buttocks of the Rolls-Royce disappeared and the people at the bank turned around and went back, she pressed down on the brim of her hat, moved her hands, and walked towards the row upon row of buildings at a leisurely pace.

*

Smith Bank, as the largest fund transfer office in State M, has financial elites working 24 hours a day to ensure that every transfer of funds through the bank can be in place smoothly.

So it's not surprising that someone comes to the bank at 9 o'clock.

Qiao Nian had made an identity for himself when he hacked into the bank's security system, and got the fingerprint code of that person who usually signed in.

When she entered the bank, she scanned the QR code with her mobile phone very calmly, walked across the brightly lit marble floor, and walked to the elevator.

Shadow had just left, and the front desk was at its most relaxed and weak at the moment. Almost no one noticed that another person came in, waiting for the elevator at the elevator.

Chapter 3595 She only has half an hour

The front desk is still talking about the previous episode.

"Well, did you see that? That's his right-hand man, right? I guess it's him from the respectful look of our President Kerry."

"I don't know either. I was on vacation when you saw it last time, and that person doesn't come here often. I haven't seen the person who told you so far."

"Didn't you see it just now? It's that person, the man in black, the right and left hand. I know the car parked outside."

Then the elevator came down.

The girl wearing a peaked cap listened to the gossip and laughter that wafted from time to time in her ears, and she kept her eyes on the entry point to pick up the goods.

The elevator doors close.

Someone at the front desk noticed the small movement in the elevator, glanced at the elevator entrance, and said strangely: "I just saw someone enter the elevator."

"People from the technical department!" Her companion patted her on the shoulder and said nonchalantly, "I saw it too. The people in the technical department are just like this. They are all night owls and work long hours of overtime, so people often come at this hour."

The young receptionist who was skeptical also felt that what the little friend said made sense, and left the figure in his mind behind.

"...may be."

She said this, but her heart was still a little beating.

Mainly, the figure she just saw didn't seem to enter the employee elevator, but the elevator used by the big man mentioned by her colleagues just now.

Others are still talking about the previous topic.

Tell how powerful that person is and how high his status is.

She felt that she was thinking too much.

Who would dare to come to Smith Bank alone to find fault? She must have misread the elevator just now because she was dazzled and didn't see clearly...

**

Go up all the way in the elevator and stop at the 8th floor.

With a ding, the elevator doors opened.

The girl pulled down the brim of her peaked cap to cover her delicate and eye-catching eyebrows, and walked out slowly.

She has already hacked this level of monitoring.

Now the people in the security room will only see the picture she took before, which is the empty corridor and the vault door.

Qiao Nian knew that no one would notice her coming up, so she walked to the door of the metal vault at the end in no hurry.

There is a faint light on the faint blue verification area here, as long as she puts her palm on it, a warning will be triggered, and her whereabouts will be revealed in an instant...

Qiao Nian stood in front of the metal safe, calmly took out a chip the size of a phone card from his pocket, his eyelashes drooped, and he suppressed the perverseness in his eyes.

The next second the chip is attached to the verification place.

Fingerprint lines appeared at the faint blue verification area, gathered into light spots, and there was only a click 0.001 seconds before the alarm was about to sound.

The verification system developed by the world's most advanced scientists was successfully invaded by a virus, and then the blue light flashing on it was replaced by red light. It is also the process of fingerprint lines converging into a palm print, and the palm print before the shadow is engraved in a blink of an eye.

‘Ka—’

The seemingly impregnable vault door opened by itself.

Qiao Nian put away the fingernail-sized chip, put it in his pocket, and swaggered into the vault...

This virus can paralyze all systems for half an hour, and the system will return to normal after half an hour. This is also to prevent people from discovering the existence of the virus.

That means she must find the antidote within half an hour.

Once the virus paralyzes the system, Nie Qingru will immediately find her breaking into the vault—

Chapter 3596 There is a safe hidden in the wall

After Qiao Nian came in, he silently scanned the situation in the vault.

This vault is more than 300 square meters, and Nie Qingru's private collection is neatly arranged in different areas, including antiques and priceless jewelry.

Because of the particularity of this place, not everything will be put here, so what can be put here are the things that Nie Qingru thinks are important.

Qiao Nian walked around inside and saw many antique calligraphy and paintings, and even saw a controversial figure painting.

Mona Lisa.

She looked at the third ordinary oil painting in the antique collection area, turned slightly sideways, looked at the well-preserved oil painting on it, and raised her eyebrows, showing a little surprise.

In fact, well-known appraisers from all over the world have been skeptical about the so-called authentic portrait in the museum, but it has never been verified.

After all, this painting is so precious that it is impossible for anyone to check it casually.

Qiao Nian saw this oil painting in Nie Qingru's vault at the moment, and was almost certain that the painting displayed in the museum was a fake!

However, even such a precious collection in Nie Qingru's vault is just piled up outside. It can be seen that there are many good things in her vault.

Qiao Nian...has a little money.

So she was not particularly interested in seeing these collections, she didn't even touch them, and she fixed her eyes slightly when she walked to the end.

It was a wall with no gaps, and there was a large blue and white porcelain vase on the side of the wall, which seemed to be just a corner for storing items.

Qiao Nian found a subtle difference.

She walked over and reached out to touch the wall, then bent her fingers and tapped on the wall. After hearing the unusual echo inside, she made sure that she was right.

So she took a step back, and then set her eyes on the blue and white porcelain placed on the side, and walked around three times.

The bottom of the blue and white porcelain seemed to be glued to the bottom, and it made a clicking sound when it was turned. After Qiao Nian tried to turn it three times, the wall changed.

It doesn't look like anything special. There is a hidden space on the wall, and there is a small safe inside.

The safe is embedded in the wall, and it is difficult for ordinary people to imagine that there is a safe hidden in the wall.

Qiao Nian narrowed her eyes, her expression changed from casual to dignified.

She walked over to check how the safe was opened, sat cross-legged on the ground and began to try to open the safe in front of her.

The most primitive method used in this safe does not rely on high-tech fingerprints or irises, but keys.

Don't think about it, the only key must be in Nie Qingru's hands, and Nie Qingru carries it close to her body, so it's hard to get it.

Qiao Nian searched around in the safe, found a wire and a metal pick, sat back down again, pursed her lips and tried to open the safe with the tool in her hand.

Time passed by one minute and one second.

Half an hour is just around the corner.

Even though she was calm enough, she became anxious as time went by, so she speeded up her hand movements and kept touching the lock inside with the wire through the gap...

Qiao Nian's back was drenched in cold sweat, and a layer of sticky sweat dripped from his palms. He failed to operate the tools accurately several times.

Fortunately, she has a big heart. In the last five minutes, she used the small tool in her hand to break through the lock of the safe and open the safe in front of her.

There are only two floors in this hidden safe, and the upper layer is messy with some brown file bags, which should be important contracts or the like.

Chapter 3597 Still didn't guard against the mechanism inside

Qiao Nian didn't touch it casually.

Her eyes mainly fell on the lower floor.

There are only two things on the bottom floor, a porcelain bottle with only an inch long and a black agate box, and there is an old photo next to these two things.

This should be a photo from decades ago.

Even if it is well preserved, the edges of the photo are showing signs of age, the edges are turning yellow, and the colors on the photo will start to fade when they come into contact with the air.

Qiao Nian narrowed her eyes and saw that the person in the photo was not Nie Qingru or Ji Qing, but a young man.

When the photo was taken, the man in the photo probably just came of age, and his early 20s made him look youthful and energetic.

He smiled brightly at the camera, showing a mouthful of dazzling white teeth, and he could feel the momentary happiness of the person in the photo through the photo.

...Who is this guy?

She took the photo with her first, and then checked the time on her phone. There were only four minutes left.

Such a short time allowed her to think about other things, and she didn't have time to distinguish whether the antidote was in a porcelain bottle or an agate box.

She only has two full belts on.

Porcelain bottles are smaller and easier to put away.

Qiao Nian took the porcelain bottle first.

Then she reached for the agate box, and the moment she picked it up, she saw that there was a hidden button at the bottom of the box.

The hidden button is pressed by the box, as long as no one moves the box, the mechanism will not be triggered.

But once someone takes the box without knowing it, and loses the weight of the box itself, the hidden buckle will pop out immediately.

Oops!

A light flashed in Qiao Nian's mind, and his body instinctively carried the box and rolled backwards faster than he could think, and at the same time shot the machine crossbow in all directions.

The cold and dark arrows shot towards her from all sides of the wall, but if Qiao Nian was a second behind, he would be shot into a sieve and killed on the spot.

Although she was strong and agile, she lowered her head and rolled to avoid the hidden arrows at the first time, but she couldn't prevent this deadly trick.

Right arm was pierced by a sharp arrow, Qiao Nian's brain tensed up, resisting the sudden pain that swept through his brain, he clutched his arm and stepped back...

She just took a step out.

The entire vault sounded the alarm, and red lights flashed in the vault, at least three minutes earlier than she expected.

Qiao Nian clutched his arm and raised his head, looking directly at the direction of the hidden surveillance camera in the vault, with no extra expression on his face.

It is almost certain that there is no problem with her chip, but that the alarm system of the entire vault has been triggered the moment she moved the box!

Judging by Nie Qingru's strict control over the box, one can imagine with his toes that the alarm must have connected to Nie Qingru's mobile phone.

At the same time the alarm sounded on her side, Nie Qingru had already received the message—

**

Facts have proved that Qiao Nian is right.

Outside the charity dinner.

Miss Sippoll had just sent this distinguished guest to the intersection, and was about to say a few last greetings.

She heard Nie Qingru's cell phone ringing. It wasn't a normal incoming call, but a sound similar to a radar alarm.

She was dazed for a moment, but before she could react, she saw that Her Majesty, who had always been proud and honorable, suddenly changed her face, took out her mobile phone in a gaffe, and stared at it, her eyes and the aura she exuded were extremely terrifying, It's like being stepped on the bottom line.

Chapter 3598 Sister Nian is injured

"Empress, what happened?" Although Miss Xiboer felt that she should shut up, she still had to make a fuss when she heard the voice.

Nie Qingru seemed to have entered her own world. She didn't hear her voice at all, her eyes were red, and she was about to kill someone.

She saw the girl in the surveillance camera who was supposed to be in Independent Island just looked up, as if she was looking at her from afar.

Nie Qingru's nerves were sharp and tingling, and his face was distorted and furious.

"Qiao Nian!"

She didn't expect that one day the members of the Ji family would dare to destroy the most untouchable wound in her heart, and that kind of monstrous anger swept over her, almost making her lose her mind.

"How dare she! How dare she!"

She dared to do anything, but she didn't speak.

Miss Sippoll was frightened by her reaction at this moment, she stood there helplessly, wanted to speak but didn't know what to say.

Nie Qingru completely forgot that she existed. After being furious, she pressed her temples to force herself to calm down, turned around and got into the car, and slammed the door.

Extremely suppressed angry voice.

"go to bank!"

The black Rolls-Royce drove towards Smith Bank, like a poisonous snake running in the dark.

...

In the car.

Nie Qingru still had a cold face, with a terrifying aura lingering around her body, she immediately called Shadow.

The alarm was also received over there, and they were picked up immediately.

"Queen, I'm already rushing over there, and I've ordered the bank not to let anyone out."

"I won't let her escape!"

Nie Qingru heard his assurance, her face was still terrified: "If you can't keep her people, you can keep her life."

"..." Even the shadow on the other end of the phone fell silent for a moment, never expecting her to give such an order.

Nie Qingru's meaning is very clear.

If she can't keep Qiao Nian's person today, she can ask for a dead one!

But the Queen and Qiao Nian are related by kinship.

Qiao Nian is the only descendant of the Queen in this world.

Is the queen going to kill her?

Shadow thought of Nie Qixing again, and somehow his voice was much lower: "Yes."

Nie Qingru heard the silence in his voice, and said coldly: "She is not my granddaughter. She is just an evil with Ji Wu Falcon's blood on her body!"

That dirty, disgusting blood.

She thought it was extinct twenty years ago.

Who knew that she would still be pecked by an eagle today.

Nie Qingru was no longer the woman who could only compromise. Decades of ups and downs made her stand at the pinnacle of power, so how could she tolerate Qiao Nian's retreat.

She is going to kill this little evil today!

"I want her to come and go, understand?" Nie Qingru sat in the car and asked lightly, as if saying that the weather was fine.

Instead of a grandmother referring to her granddaughter.

Shadow is no longer silent this time: "Yes, empress."

**

The mechanism at the bottom of the safe made Qiao Nian not expect so much.

But she reacted quickly.

The moment the vault door closes, you dodge and roll out, and if you are half a second later, you will be stuck inside and can only be caught with your hands tied.

She knew she was running out of time.

The person below must be taking the elevator and going up to catch her.

She turned around and ran towards the emergency staircase on every floor, and then chose to run in the opposite direction without any hesitation.

She didn't go to the first floor according to the inertial thinking.

Instead, run up to the 9th floor.

The steel needle pierced through the wound on the arm and tore the muscles. She had to endure great pain every step she took, but Qiao Nian's steps were firm and her movements were not slow at all.

Chapter 3599 Found the person who was knocked out in the men's bathroom

She went up to the 9th floor first.

When the others heard the alarm and were still panicking about what happened, they walked quickly into the women's bathroom, entered a cubicle, gritted their teeth and pulled out the 20-centimeter-long steel needle on the right arm.

The gushing blood immediately wet the sleeves of her sweater. Qiao Nian turned pale, and tore off the fabric of the T-shirt inside to tie it under the wound, temporarily stopping the bleeding.

She threw the steel needle on the ground, then left the bathroom without a sound, pressed her peaked cap in a hurry, turned to the stairs again, and walked to the 11th floor.

At the corner, I found a single female employee rushing over to cover her mouth, knocking her unconscious with a hand knife and dragging her into the bathroom.

This time she didn't go into the women's room but chose the men's room, swapped the clothes on her body with the female staff's, and then supported the person to sit outside the first cubicle of the bathroom, closing the window of the bathroom, lest the other party catch a cold during the coma .

Only then did he put the peaked cap on the other party's head, took off the female staff's glasses and put them on his own, and walked out without haste.

The entire building is ringing with high-pitched sirens.

Many people don't know what happened, they just know it's not a good thing.

Everyone's attention was on the alarm. No one noticed when Qiao Nian in uniform appeared, let alone saw her take out the fire alarm hammer and tap on the fire alarm.

Waiting for someone to be doused by the fire sprinkler overhead, she shouted in a guiding voice: "...it's on fire."

At this time, everyone's nerves are highly tense.

Suddenly being doused by the fire spray above the head, the whole body was terrified. In addition, they heard someone shouting for fire, and everyone panicked to the extreme.

At this time, someone shouted: "Run! Run downstairs!"

The others reacted suddenly as if they had found the backbone. They turned around and ran downstairs without bothering to take their things.

It may be garish to go down alone.

But dozens of hundreds of people were running down, and that one person was like a drop of water entering the sea, completely hiding his whereabouts.

The movement on the 11th floor also affected other floors. Some people saw others looking down and ran down, and ran down in fear even though they didn't know what happened.

There are more and more people going down.

No one saw a strange face in uniform and rimless glasses mixed in, and went with them to the first floor.

...

Shadow hurried to the vault, opened the password door and found that it was empty, and there was no shadow of Qiao Nian at all.

He knew that the person ran away.

He immediately blocked the elevator, trying to block the people going down from the elevator.

But soon he found that Qiao Nian didn't seem to get off the elevator. He remembered the emergency exit stairs in the building again, and led people to search all the way from the first floor to the eighth floor.

Surprisingly, there was still no trace of Qiao Nian.

Only then did Shadow realize something, and led people upstairs to look for it.

They quickly found a * steel nail in the bathroom on the 9th floor. Shadow ordered the entire floor to be searched, but they couldn't find the girl.

He rubbed his forehead again, forced himself to calm down, and continued to search upwards.

On the 10th floor, they went straight to the bathroom.

However, this time the restroom on the 10th floor was extremely clean, and there was nothing.

Then 11 floors.

The women's restroom is still empty and empty.

But soon the people under him reported the news to him.

"A female employee in the men's restroom was knocked out and placed in the aisle, and her clothes were changed..."

Shadow reacted immediately, and said sharply, "Take me there!"

Chapter 3600 People ran away?

He followed to the men's bathroom and saw the female staff wearing Qiao Nian's clothes, and the familiar peaked cap...

Shadow's temples were throbbing, and he felt like a fool being played around for the past ten minutes.

However, more bad news is yet to come.

Someone hurried in looking for him.

"It's not good! Lord Shadow, someone damaged the fire alarm, and now many employees are clamoring to get out on the first floor."

Shadow turned his head abruptly, and a careless face appeared in his mind.

- Qiao Nian!

He didn't care much, and immediately gave an order: "Contact the security immediately and tell them not to let anyone go!"

He closed his eyes again, and stopped the person who was going.

"Tell them to draw a gun if anyone tries to break in!"

"yes."

The man didn't dare to delay and galloped down.

At this time, the people under him had already helped the unconscious woman up, and standing in front of him hesitantly asked: "Do you need to wake this woman up for questioning?"

Shadow turned around suddenly, and a cold and dark voice came: "No need. She doesn't know anything!"

Finished speaking.

Shadow rushed to the elevator without looking back.

He sketched in his mind how Qiao Nian dragged his injured arm and ran in the opposite direction calmly, how he pulled out the steel needle on the 9th floor, turned around and ran to the 12th floor. And how to knock out a female staff member of similar stature to change clothes, quietly break the fire alarm when the entire building staff is in a panic, mix in the crowd and incite everyone to run downstairs...

If it weren't for someone else being here, her plan would have succeeded by just a little bit.

Shadow was shocked to find that the young girl was scary.

It was also at this moment that he suddenly understood why the empress always used the description of perverts and monsters when referring to the members of the direct line of the Ji family.

Qiao Nian is only 20 years old, and he can do what he is now in the face of emergencies.

How amazing and stunning was Ji Wu Falcon back then to force the entire Hermit Family and M State to the point of bowing down to him? !

The elevator finally stops at the 12th floor.

Every minute and every second here made him shudder.

Before getting on the elevator, Ying Ying took the time to call Nie Qingru.

**

The black Rolls-Royce Phantom rushed to the bank building in the dark.

Along the way, she followed her order and went straight to the red light without stopping for a moment. The car was speeding like a ghost in the dark night.

In the car.

Nie Qingru saw the shadow call jumping on the phone, and picked it up with a sinking face: "The person ran away?"

When she spoke, she was extremely depressed.

A rusty smell rose from the throat.

Eyes full of murderous intent.

Fortunately, the shadow did not bring bad news, although it is not good news.

"You mean she was injured?" Nie Qingru's eyelids rolled up, but her cold eyes remained calm: "It's not too much to pay for what she did. It's just an injury, and it's worth reporting to me."

She didn't give Shadow a chance to explain, she looked at the scene of the car running outside the window, and said indifferently: "I know what you're thinking."

"She is not my granddaughter. If you have to count, she is just a dog of Ji's family. I made it very clear to you before. Keep her, life or death!"

There was a low reply from the other end.

Nie Qingru didn't want to care about his inner feelings, so she hung up the phone with a blank expression, and threw the phone on the back seat.

She put her hand on her forehead and pressed it, and the glance she had made with the * the mobile phone surveillance screen came to mind.
