

Madam's 3611

Chapter 3611 Slag thought he was a cat catching mice

At the same time, the sails of the luxury ferry were raised, and the huge K letter on the white sails was recklessly hunting in the sea breeze.

At this moment, all the ferries in the port were prohibited from leaving, and the only ferry that left naturally attracted everyone's attention.

Some people were surprised, some were dissatisfied, and some were dumbfounded.

In short, no one thought that there would be a ferry that could leave Hong Kong despite the ban of the hidden family...

"What's the matter with that ship? Why can they go, but we can't?!" Some people were so angry that they gritted their teeth and stomped their feet.

Those with a little insight and knowledge of the inside story hurriedly made a booing gesture to him: "My ancestors, please shut up. Didn't you see the sign on the sail? That's the ferry of Cage, the largest weapons dealer in continent F. , of course they can leave."

Some people didn't recognize the K logo on the sails, they stared blankly at the departing ferry, and murmured, "Who is that?"

Nie Qingru spoke very little along the way, and she said coldly until she was almost at the port: "Are you sure that car is parked outside the pier?"

Nie Qingru sneered three times: "I thought she was capable, but she wanted to go on the high seas."

If she catches someone, she must be smashed to ashes to eliminate the hatred in her heart!

The shadow in front said softly to her: "If they want to leave state M, they can only choose the plane or the port. Now these two places are blocked by you. She probably only received the news that the airport is not allowed to travel, and she doesn't know that the port is also not allowed. Walk."

Nie Qingru always thinks that Qiao Nian is not a reckless person. Since he didn't choose the plane, it's unlikely that he didn't check whether he can leave before coming to the port.

But she is getting angry now, and she is not very rational. She is unwilling to delve into the small details, and only thinks that things are really what the shadow said.

"Don't blame me for being rude when she bumps into my hand!"

At this moment, the black Rolls-Royce drove all the way into the dock and stopped at the innermost part of the port.

After parking the car, the driver turned around and said to the distinguished woman in the back row: "Queen, the port is here."

Nie Qingru took off the velvet gloves, and sneered thoughtfully before getting out of the car: "Where do you think this little mouse in the gutter will hide when it finds out that it can't get away? It should be near the container that the mouse should be carrying."

Qiao Nian arrived at the pier one step ahead of her, counting the time, she should find that she couldn't leave.

Based on Qiao Nian's character, she can probably guess that she will catch up, so what follows is a classic game of cat and mouse.

She is a cat who takes care of herself, while the little evil is a mouse running around with her head in her arms. Once the mouse is caught, the cat has the right to decide whether to live or die.

Shadow opened the car door for her as silently as a mountain, and stood respectfully outside the car door waiting for her to get off.

Nie Qingru sneered and stepped down on the ground: "If she didn't touch the box, I would give her a good time for her mother's sake. But she shouldn't, absolutely, shouldn't, shouldn't, shouldn't, shouldn't, shouldn't, shouldn't, shouldn't, shouldn't, and this time I It will teach her to be humble!"

Something that my mother didn't teach me since I was a child, really can't be put on the stage!

Nie Qingru couldn't hide the extreme disgust on her face. After getting off the car, she looked at the sea surface from the corner of her eye. She thought she would see the calm sea level, but she was the first to notice the bright spot on the sea surface. A ferry was leaving the port...

Nie Qingru's complexion changed suddenly, and he pointed over there: "What's going on!"

Chapter 3612 Nie Qingru: Bomb it down for me!

Shadow followed his finger and turned his finger, and immediately found the ferry that was about to leave the port. The ship had already set sail, and it would leave the port completely in ten minutes.

He couldn't help but look solemn: "That's Cage's boat..."

Nie Qingru's face was extremely bad, and he said sharply: "I don't care whose boat it is, didn't I say that no ferry is allowed to go? Who actually let it go!"

At this time, the person in charge of the pier rushed over. Seeing the three of them, he carefully wiped off his sweat: "Queen, Lord Shadow."

The person in charge looked blankly, looked at the sea and immediately understood what Nie Qingru was asking, and immediately bowed and said respectfully: "That is Mr. Cage's ferry in Continent F, Mr. Xue from the Privy Council let it go, don't worry, only this boat is the exception. All the other ferries stayed at the port."

"Qiao Nian!"

Shadow only heard her gritting her teeth and shouted a name, and looked at the figure on the deck in shock, and saw the girl standing by the railing against the wind, the wind whipped up her shirt and flapped it, and the other party seemed to see them too. look over.

Just one glance, arrogant and decisive!

It's Qiao Nian!

It is said that they are several kilometers away on the boundless sea level, so they should not be able to see that person's face clearly.

But the shadow was Qiao Nian who instantly confirmed that the girl standing on the deck was the one who followed up the safe alone and took away the contents of the safe.

The biggest Waterloo in his life also fell into her hands...

"Stop that ferry for me!" Nie Qing gave orders loudly and loudly.

The person in charge of the pier was stunned. Looking at the ferry that had already left the port, he said in a daze: "Queen, what you said to stop means..."

Nie Qing rushed to Tianling Gai with blood, and clenched his molars: "Didn't we have cruise missiles buried in various ports? Shoot them down for me!"

The Hermit Family controls every aspect of Continent M, and the major airports and ports seem to be under the control of the Hermit Family.

And what is more suitable for port interception and ambushes than cruise missiles.

So it's not a big secret that there are cruise missiles under the major ports, but no one expected that there would be a day when torpedoes would be used.

The person in charge of the pier was stunned. He once suspected that he had auditory hallucinations in his ears. He stood there in a daze and looked at Nie Qingru nervously: "Female, empress, are you kidding me? That ferry belongs to Mr. Cage. We use torpedoes to destroy it." Beating down is tantamount to enmity with Mr. Cage. It's not appropriate..."

The largest weapons dealer in Continent F is Cage. Cage also has his own research and development team. Many of the high-end weapons on the market come from him.

Their hermit family also maintains a friendly and cooperative relationship with Cage.

If they bombarded the ferry with torpedoes, the means would be more drastic than blocking all the airports and ports in Continent M.

This is no joke!

That big arms dealer in Continent F is notorious for penny-pinching and revenge.

If they rashly did the thing of bombarding that man's ferry, they would even go to Continent F to apologize and compensate for the loss.

People may not talk to them.

Nie Qingru's eyes turned red: "I asked you to blow the boat down for me, don't you understand?!"

Chapter 3613 Queen, the Privy Council asked you to answer the phone

The person in charge of the pier was cold from head to sole, sweating profusely all over his body, still not daring to be the first bird, stammering: "Queen, I, I don't have this authority. If you insist on doing this, you have to discuss it with the Privy Council elders. Dare to launch the missile rashly without a warrant..."

What he meant was that he dared not move.

When Nie Qingru was not so angry and powerless, the momentary killing intent almost made her angry at the fat man in front of her.

That person was also considered clever, sensing the hostility surrounding her, he winked at the staff around him, and a dock worker like a skinny monkey slipped away quietly.

Nie Qingru's chest heaved and heaved, trying to calm down, but as long as she saw the figure getting farther and farther away on the deck from the corner of her eye, she thought of what Qiao Nian had taken away.

She couldn't calm down.

"Are you afraid of the consequences?"

"Empress."

Nie Qingru's deep eyes looked calm and calm, but beneath them were turbulent waves. Standing proudly at the pier, she said coldly, "I will take this responsibility, no matter what the price is. I want you to blow that ferry down immediately!"

She must not leave future troubles, and she must kill that little evil tonight.

No one can stop her!

The person in charge of the pier was shocked by her decisive tone, and for a while didn't know what to do... There was no room for him to refuse right now.

Is he really going to bomb Mr. Cage's ferry?

Fortunately, at this time, Shadow suddenly received a call. Seeing the number of the caller, he first walked aside to answer it, then changed his face, hurried to Nie Qingru, and handed the phone over: "Queen, the number from the Privy Council. It's Old Xue."

Nie Qingru's eyelids twitched, and she gave the person in charge of the dock a cold sidelong glance, as if guessing what the Privy Council people were trying to do when they called her at this time.

She didn't reach out: "No. Tell them, I'll go back after I finish handling the port."

Yang Ying didn't take back the phone, but insisted: "Mr. Xue wants you to answer the phone!"

Nie Qingru looked at him carefully.

Shadow gritted her teeth and did not back down, still handing her the phone respectfully.

Nie Qingru's eyes dimmed, knowing that Shadow would not persist for no reason, it must be something the Privy Council members said, and Shadow thought she had to listen.

She slowly stretched out her hand and put the phone to her ear, and the calm voice of Mr. Xue came from the other end. There was no warning or excitement, but a very calm statement: "Dear Your Majesty, we have followed your request. Blocked the airport and port. You stop here, we are still your loyal subjects. If you insist on disregarding the interests of the entire family and bombarding the ferry in Cage, F, with missiles, we will launch impeachment against you at the same time Procedure. At that time, you will no longer be Her Majesty the Empress of the Hermit Family..."

The reason why the Privy Council exists is to restrain the Queen's power, and their biggest trump card is the impeachment procedure.

Under normal circumstances, the Privy Council has no right to initiate impeachment procedures, and even other families of the Hermit Family will not agree to the Privy Council impeaching the Queen without reason.

But once Nie Qingru got off that ferry tonight, the Privy Council told her clearly how much she would pay!

"The Hidden Family believes in you, and you should also set an example. We don't care how big your reasons are to stop that ship, but if you sacrifice everyone's interests to achieve your own goals, the Hidden Family will not need you again."

Chapter 3614 Your girlfriend is so young

The Hidden Family is originally a huge interest group composed of hundreds of families. Nie Qingru can lead the entire Hidden Family, and she can also use the Smith Bank under her control to coerce the Hidden Family into her use... But she has a limit to everything, and she can't cross the bottom line.

The call from the Privy Council tonight was to tell her where the bottom line of her life was.

Nie Qingru has come to this point, no one has dared to threaten her for a long time, but at this moment, facing the cold wind on the pier, she feels threatened for the first time.

"You asked me to let her go?"

Old Xue was very calm: "We can't offend Mr. Cage, it's not in our interest."

Nie Qingru clenched her palms tightly, watched the figure on the deck getting farther and farther away from her control, and sneered suddenly: "I didn't expect that I would hear the same words in twenty years! Time is so fast, nothing has changed. I'm still not strong enough."

"You are the Empress of the Hermit Family..."

"Hmph!" Nie Qingru sneered, noncommittal, but she had to bow her head under the threat: "I will remember today's coercion."

What she means is that she is willing to let go...

Nie Qingru's nerves were stimulated by the words "Yingming", and the veins on his forehead swelled up. He suddenly lost his composure and smashed his mobile phone on the ground, and then suddenly turned to look at the ferry that was driving away.

The people on the deck seemed to have clairvoyance, and they knew what was going on on their side. They raised the corners of their mouths and waved to them.

—Capital arrogance!

Nie Qing fulfilled her wish and her eardrums buzzed, she shook her hands, turned around and stopped looking, and said with a low voice, "Let's go!"

The ferry has left the port.

Ever since Ye Wangchuan took her aboard and she saw the K mark on the sail, she knew that Nie Qingru couldn't keep herself tonight.

It's just that she didn't expect Nie Qingru to give up so easily.

It seems that no matter what, in her eyes nothing is more important than interests. Even the ashes of the most important people are nothing more than that.

If a person only has interests in his heart, he will only be a monster driven by interests while alive.

"what are you doing."

A man's lazy and casual voice came from behind.

Qiao Nian turned around and saw Ye Wangchuan walking over. She suddenly felt much better, leaning her back against the railing and said, "It's nothing, just look outside."

Ye Wangchuan looked past her and saw the pier. Nie Qingru had already taken people away, and they had long since disappeared from the pier.

Ye Wangchuan withdrew his gaze, looked at the girl's side arm again, pursed his thin lips tightly, suppressed the dark and turbulent emotions in his eyes and said to her: "Come with me, the doctor is waiting for you inside. The wound on your arm needs to be treated. so as not to get infected."

Qiao Nian hung her right hand down all night. She didn't show any emotions. Even though the wound on her right arm was deep and the muscles were torn, she didn't show it at all. Besides, no one saw that she was hurt.

The team doctor of the ferry was waiting for them to come over in the cabin room. When he saw the pretty face of the girl who came in, he couldn't help being stunned.

"...so young?"

Ye Wangchuan walked over and dragged a chair, motioned Qiao Nian to sit down, and then half-jokingly said to the team doctor: "I don't look old either."

Chapter 3615 No one thought she was injured so badly

He himself is not very old, but the superior temperament is too strong to make people ignore his own age, and his appearance is too extreme, it is even more difficult to notice that he is only in his early twenties.

The old team doctor touched his earlobe, smiled, and waved to Qiao Nian: "Come here, little girl, I'll show you."

Qiao Nian walked over, and Ba Fengfu sat down.

"Where are you injured?" The old team doctor couldn't see where she was injured, so he simply asked her.

Qiao Nian turned sideways, with a hoarse voice: "This arm."

The old team doctor looked a little serious when he saw the blood oozing from her shirt, but seeing that there was not much blood on the sleeve, he still thought it was a minor injury.

"Then take off your coat and let me see."

"kindness."

Qiao Nian also has a short-sleeved T-shirt outside her shirt. This is her usual habit of wearing a sweater, and she always likes to wear a T-shirt inside the sweater.

After she slowly took off her coat, the two people in the room realized how badly her right arm was injured.

There was a one-centimeter circular wound on the top of her arm, and it was only because of the cloth strips below that it did not bleed, but this also caused the blood circulation in the arm to be poor, and the skin and flesh outside the wound turned white... You can feel the pain just by looking at it.

The old team doctor couldn't believe how many times he saw her, he couldn't imagine how a young girl could manage to look like a normal person with such an eye injury.

Ye Wangchuan also had cold eyes, curled up his slender fingers, his eyelids jumped a few times, tried his best to suppress his emotions, and said to the old team doctor in a hoarse voice: "Then I'll leave it to you!"

He cleaned the outside of the wound for Qiao Nian with the tools prepared on board, then cut off the necrotic carrion outside the wound with scissors, applied medicine to the wound, and finally wrapped the injured part layer by layer with gauze...

After he finished all this, cold sweat broke out on his forehead, and he looked up.

The girl closed her eyes, but she didn't make a sound despite her pale face. Even when he cut off the carrion with scissors, she didn't cry out in pain.

This endurance... The old team doctor came from F continent and couldn't help but admire people who are not afraid of death.

He put away all the tools, and couldn't help saying to Ye Wangchuan: "Your girlfriend...not bad!"

Ye Wangchuan didn't speak, but looked at him and asked, "Do you want to hang her up?"

The old team doctor made sense after thinking about it, so he said to him: "Okay, I will find an anti-inflammatory drug for her, and you can hang up with her later."

He was quick to do things, and after a while, he rummaged through the box and cabinet to find anti-inflammatory water and infusion injections, put on an IV for Qiao Nian, and then smiled at Ye Wangchuan: "You two talk slowly, I'll go out first."

Ye Wangchuan said: "Thank you."

The old team doctor waved his hand, said 'young man', turned around and did not go out.

The sound of the waves beating against the hull of the boat outside, Qiao Nian opened his eyes wearily, and leaned on the chair with his whole body relaxed, as if he had no interest in talking.

But she still pulled herself together, glanced at the man who said nothing and pulled a chair to sit next to her with black and white clear eyes: "Aren't you angry?"

Ye Wangchuan was really laughed at by her: "Is it useful for me to be angry? God Qiao won't take it easy."

Ye Wangchuan pressed her on his shoulder at this time, and said calmly: "You go to sleep first, I will watch the IV, and wake you up when the IV is finished."

Chapter 3616 The master is so spoiled that there is no limit

Qiao Nian leaned on his solid shoulder and was still a little dazed, she thought he dragged the chair over to break things off with her, and talk about her by the way.

It turned out that he just sat up to give her a place to lean against.

"You..." She is actually not used to relying on others.

As soon as she moved, her head was held down by a big hand to prevent her from moving: "I know you are tired, so go to bed first. Let's talk when you get up!"

Ye Wangchuan felt that the struggling head on his shoulders seemed to pause, and gradually relaxed, and he no longer wanted to sit upright.

He said calmly: "There are too many people you want to protect, but to me, no one is more important than you."

"If something happens to you to find an antidote for Ji Lingfeng, I won't let him go."

Everyone is not as important as you to me!

Qiao Nian's tense nerves completely relaxed at this moment, hooked the corners of her mouth, leaned quietly on his shoulder, licked her lower lip, and said softly: "Actually... it hurts a bit."

When her right hand was injured, she didn't feel that the pain was unbearable. She endured the unbearable pain before, because no one would listen to her cry of pain, so she would not open her mouth no matter how painful it was. It was unnecessary and meaningless.

But now she suddenly felt that the pain in the injured place was unbearable, at least she suddenly wanted to say it.

Ye Wangchuan was full of anger and didn't know what happened, so he extinguished it because of these five short words. He put his arms around the girl's shoulders, and his tone softened: "Go to sleep first."

"Yeah." Qiao Nian seemed to be subdued, and didn't move any more, closing his eyes obediently and getting ready to sleep.

She originally thought that she would not be able to fall asleep under any circumstances after tonight's nervous tension, but she was far from what she imagined. Breathing on his pillow with the faint smell of

Ye Fanchuan felt that the person leaning on his shoulder fell asleep, he was like a towering mountain, he quietly reached out his hand to slow down the drip speed, and then sat back to the original place, unwilling to wake up the person who finally closed his eyes to rest.

Someone came in halfway, and before they had time to speak, they met a pair of cold and deep eyes, and made a gesture of booing them.

Everyone is not a fool, so they laughed when they saw this scene.

The people on the ferry behind knew not to disturb them by entering the room, so no one pushed the door to come in.

Three hours later.

Qiao Nianhang's bit has been lost.

Ye Wangchuan looked at the empty bag, woke up the girl who was still sleeping, and said in a low voice: "I'll help you take out the needle, don't move your hands."

"Ah." Qiao Nian's eyes were full of bleary eyes. He was still awake after being called up. His half-closed eyes were filled with moisture and sleepiness. He didn't even hear what he said clearly, so he replied: "Well, you can do it."

Ye Fanchuan glanced at her, saw the girl sitting there with eyes half drooped, sleepy, then looked at the infusion tube on the back of her hand that had started to bleed backwards, pulled out the needle nimbly, got up and moved her half-numbed body and The girl said: "Sit still and don't move, I'll find you a cotton swab."

He dug out the medical kit from the old team doctor's cabinet, found a cotton swab inside, took out one, turned it back and pressed it on the back of Qiao Nian's hand.

"Press yourself."

"Well."

Qiao Nian was still sleepy, lazily and obediently, he took a cotton swab to press the pinhole on the back of his hand.

Chapter 3617 The old witch still doesn't want to let her go

There was a little bleeding at the pinhole, and a drop of blood came out. She didn't care about this little bleeding before, but this time she honestly used a cotton swab to stop the bleeding. Looking up, that pretty face was too eye-catching: "Are we going to continent F with them next?"

Cage's ship must go to Continent F, but never to Independence Continent.

It's not that the quality of this ferry is not good, but that a big weapons businessman like Cage has a very special status, and it is easy to cause panic wherever he goes.

His boat cannot run wild.

"We're almost on the high seas." Ye Wangchuan went to the window and opened the cabin window. The sea outside was pitch black, and it was impossible to see where it was, only the sound of the waves crashing on the shore could be heard.

Qiao Nian didn't know how he could tell where they were from the pitch-dark sea area, but now she was half asleep and woke up, as if remembering something, she put her hands on the corners of her eyes: "Ji Lin said that pirates have been rampant recently, I can let Dai Wei sent someone to pick us up..."

Ye Wangchuan turned his head and said something meaningful: "It's too late."

"?" Qiao Nian frowned, before he could react to what he said, it was too late, when he heard someone knocking at the door.

Ye Wangchuan said: "Come in."

The person who knocked outside came in.

The man saw them with a serious expression, nodded to Qiao Nian to say hello, walked up to Ye Wangchuan, and said with a serious face, "The pirates are here."

Qiao Nian's heart skipped a beat, she was extremely surprised.

This ferry is hung with Cage's sails, and it is said that no pirate would be so stupid as to run to provoke a ship with a K logo.

Or there is another possibility - someone is offering them enough benefits that they are willing to take risks for it!

Qiao Nian thought of someone.

Her eyes turned cold, and she pulled the corners of her mouth mockingly, her heart felt dry for no reason, and the cold and dry feeling made her suddenly want to find something to divert her attention.

Qiao Nian's fingers on the right moved slightly, pulling the muscles to the wound on her arm, and the whole arm immediately felt sharp pain, reminding her that she was still a wounded patient...

It was rare for her to be so powerless, she scolded * in her heart very irritably, there was no extra emotion on her face, as if she didn't know who was behind the scenes, only the slightly frowned brow revealed her current * Feeling.

The person who knocked on the door and came in didn't pay attention to Qiao Nian's reaction, and was talking to Ye Wangchuan the whole time: "The locusts on the sea used to avoid us when they saw us, but this time they came here with some kind of madness."

He said in a slightly irritable tone: "There are more than 20 pirate ships gathered outside, all of which are small boats, trying to surround the ferry. These small boats are nothing to fear, I am worried that they want to scuttle the ferry."

Here is the sea!

The sea is boundless.

Their ferry is not a small tonnage, but the sea can swallow any ship with a large tonnage. Once the hull is damaged, this place is different from the land.

The boundless sea will immediately swallow up the entire ferry. In this kind of high seas, there are 20 or 30 ferries sunk by pirates every year.

In the event of an accident, no one will be able to save them in time.

The man turned his head and said seriously: "They sneaked up in the dark, and they didn't start the engine when they were ten nautical miles away from us. They all rowed over with manpower, so the brothers below didn't notice their approach. Now at this distance, Even if we wanted to fire, it would be too late."

Chapter 3618 My Lord has long been prepared

Big ferries are equipped with weapons and ammunition depots. Pirates also know this. They choose to approach ten nautical miles away under the cover of night to avoid the range of artillery fire...

These ants have been posted, even if it is too late to fire now.

They are like leeches attached to your legs. They must * your blood before they fall, otherwise you will not be able to get rid of them.

Qiao Nian's thoughts turned sharply, and she put her left hand on her thigh and tapped lightly, again and again, thinking about how to solve the current difficulties.

At this time, it is too late to call David or Guan Yan.

They have to solve the puzzle before the pirates can gouge the ship.

"Let the driver flick the tail and turn around, and drive in the southeast direction first, and drive at the fastest speed." Ye Wangchuan gave the order at this time without haste.

The man was a little confused, he hesitated to speak: "Those pirates drive speedboats, which have been refitted. Even if we turn around and change directions, we can't get rid of them."

Qiao Nian looked up at Ye Wangchuan, with clear ears and eyes: "Do you want to delay time?"

The man didn't expect Qiao Nian to talk to her, so he glanced in her direction again, and after thinking about what she reminded him, even though he felt that this method didn't actually solve the problem, it was the best solution at the moment.

"I'm going to order the people below."

He thanked Ye Wangchuan, and then hurried out to make arrangements.

There were only Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan left in the cabin. Qiao Nian looked at that person and suddenly became less anxious: "You have other arrangements."

She said it very firmly, as if she was sure that Ye Wangchuan still had a backhand.

Ye Wangchuan pursed his lips and smiled: "If I didn't arrange it, I wouldn't take you on board."

He extended an invitation to Qiao Nian: "Let's go, I'll take you up there to see the excitement!"

Qiao Nian followed him out to the deck, and felt the authenticity of what Ji Lin said about the pirates on the high seas when he saw the twenty or so speedboats and pirate ships surrounding their ferry under the searchlights under the sea breeze.

Such arrogant and provocative whistles came and went one after another, as if this ferry was a huge prey surrounded by them, and sooner or later they would bite and fall down.

"Won't she feel guilty for indulging pirates to plunder on the high seas for her own benefit?"

As soon as the words came out.

She laughed first herself.

Brows and eyes lowered, with a dry expression: "Yes, how could she feel guilty. In her eyes, except for herself, everyone is an ant. How can the life and death of a group of ants be more important than her interests."

Ye Fanchuan knew who she was talking about, but he couldn't see Qiao Nian's downcast look. He stretched out his hand and rubbed the girl's hair, then pinched the girl's face. Chuan withdrew his hand, as if nothing happened, took what she said just now and said, "Anyway, you have already got the antidote, and we can wait for you to go back and talk about the matter of the high seas."

Qiao Nian hummed subduedly, knowing that it was useless to get angry now, so he suppressed his anger, tilted his head and asked him, "How do you plan to get rid of these people chasing you?"

Chapter 3619 They are the ones who can't get away!

"Who said I gotta get rid of them?"

Ye Wangchuan stood beside her, leaning on the railing like her, the sea breeze rolled up the broken hair on his forehead, Qiao Nian noticed that he was wearing a black jacket today, his shoulders were broad and straight, and his jaw was cut neatly. , a change from the elegant and noble style before, a bit cool.

At this time, he also turned his head to meet Qiao Nian's gaze, and a circle of ripples in the depths of his eyes reflected her shadow, the proud son of heaven, wanton and insolent.

"I let KIMI speed up just to keep a distance from them, otherwise it is easy to hurt innocent people in a fight later."

Qiao Nian looked away for a moment, and saw the sound of a spiral machine tearing the air in the sky.

She raised her head suddenly, and saw more than a dozen fighter jets roaring towards the southeast, almost at the same time she found the traces of those planes.

Bang bang bang!

Countless fire lights illuminated the sky, tearing apart the pitch-black sea, allowing light to enter—

The flames are soaring into the sky.

The pirates who were aggressively chasing the ferry just a second ago panicked, stopped whistling, and stopped being rampant.

"Damn, they have a plane, run!"

There are very few fighter jet groups in the high seas. To take off these fighter jets, they need a carrier, and that carrier is the existence that makes these bold pirates tear their hearts apart—the cruiser.

The pirates below are crying for their parents and screaming for their mothers, and they are running around desperately in a speedboat, but the pursuit ability in the sky is by no means comparable to that of dodging at sea level.

There is a wall gap between the two sides.

When the sky was full of flames illuminating the sky, Qiao Nian saw Ye Wangchuan's cell phone light up, and the man standing on the deck put it to his ear without haste, and said casually, "Hello."

"Young Master Ye, those people..."

His eyes were dark, his thin lips curled up, and he looked at the pirate ship scurrying around in the night. His slender fingers clasped his mobile phone, and his voice was blown away by the wind: "Not long ago, they robbed our fishing boat. It's time to teach them a lesson." ! Let them know that even in the high seas, some boats cannot be moved! If they move, they will have to pay the price!"

"Yes, Young Master Ye."

The fighter plane chased the pirate ship and threw the tracking missile directly. It was a thunderous method to give all the pirates in the high seas a prestige.

The flames soaring into the sky lit up the pitch-black sea level, and the waves set off half a meter of turbulent waves. The evil speedboats were blown up on the sea surface just like this.

One ship, two ships...

A dozen speedboats all fell into the deep sea, and none escaped.

Wait for everything to end.

The sea level returned to calm, and only those on the ferry dared to look at the young man on the deck. Everyone's eyes were filled with shock and fear.

Ye Wangchuan faced the sea breeze and looked at the calm sea, there was no extra emotion in his eyes, no one knew what he was thinking.

Qiao Nian understood what he was doing when he said that the pirates had moved the fishing boat, and he didn't say anything hypocritical, so he said coldly: "If it were me, I would do the same thing."

These pirates were originally outlaws.

Only what Ye Wangchuan did today can let these people understand what the rules are!

At this moment, a helicopter flicked its propellers and stopped on the landing pad of the ferry, and Gu San opened the door from the driver's seat and jumped down.

Chapter 3620 Gu San is also here

Gu San's tough face instantly showed joy when he saw Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan, and he walked over quickly: "Miss Qiao, Master Wang!"

He scratched his head and said embarrassingly, "Miss Qiao, I'm not late, am I? I hurried over after receiving the order from Master Wang. Fortunately, I made it."

Qiao Nian looked at someone again: "You guessed that Nie Qingru would not let us go easily?"

From the moment he came to save himself, and on the way to the airport when he heard that the Hermit family had blocked foreign planes, he rushed to the port without any hesitation, and there was a ship from Cage at the port...

Now that Gu San appears, and the phrase "hurry up, hurry up", it can be seen that everything is under his arrangement, and even Nie Qingru's reaction is within his guess.

Qiao Nian suddenly remembered what Qin Si had said jokingly - 'Playing with the mind, you can play with the dead. '

He was really sorry for Qin Si's evaluation.

It's just a walking humanoid bug.

She could imagine how angry Nie Qingru would be when she received the news.

But Qiao Nian couldn't help laughing, anyway, she was quite happy, especially when she thought that Nie Qingru and the Yinshi family were not very happy, she was even happier!

Ten hours later, the helicopter arrived at Independence Island and stopped on the apron of the First Research Institute.

Feng Yu had been waiting for them to arrive outside the tarmac. Seeing that Qiao Nian came back unscathed, he finally breathed a sigh of relief, and said angrily, "You really can't do it all day. My old bones will be scared out of my heart sooner or later." sick!"

He was about to reach out to pat the girl's right arm: "...It's fine."

"Feng Lao."

Unknown, Feng Yu turned around and saw Ye Wangchuan's serious face, and heard him say: "Her hand was injured."

Feng Yu's eyes showed astonishment, and he suddenly looked at Qiao Nian again, his temples throbbed, as if he wanted to say something, but he couldn't get it out of his mouth.

His eyes were full of helplessness, and in the end he had no choice but to compromise.

"Even if I tell you, you won't take it to your heart. Next time, you will rush into any danger. Anyway, I will tell you, you are still young, and your days are still long. You are so troubled every day, in case One day I will toss myself away, I will not regret it after seeing you..."

Qiao Nian listened to his rambling, and never stopped in her footsteps. When she got to the door, she stopped and followed Feng Yu, "I'm going to the hospital."

Feng Yu was stunned for a moment, and immediately said: "I'll arrange a car for you."

"Okay." Qiao Nian thought for a moment, but this time he didn't refuse his kindness.

Feng Yu looked at the exhaustion on her face, so she couldn't say much about her, and immediately asked someone to arrange a car.

Qiao Nian came back this time with the identity of the First Research Institute, which means that as long as she doesn't tell, no one will know that she went to M state these two days and turned M state upside down.

Feng Yu arranged an unremarkable car for her, Qiao Nian got into the car first, the driver got Feng Yu's order, the driver was silent and didn't say much, and drove directly to the hospital where Ji Lingfeng was.

Independence Island is still in the evening.

The orange sunset glow renders the sky, and the sunset cloud drags out a long tail, like an airplane cloud.

Qiao Nian relaxed and rubbed the space between his brows, opened the car window, and let in the cool breeze outside. As if thinking of something, he took out his cell phone from his pocket and found the number in the blacklist.

Drag that number out.
