

Madam's 3641

Chapter 3641 Sister Nian has a way to check people

Old, old.

It's time to give up the position to the young people.

Simon turned back, walked to the desk, took a deep breath, picked up the internal phone, and notified the board of directors to hold an emergency meeting immediately.

Qiao Nian walked out of the chamber of commerce alliance building and found a place to drink water, sat down and ordered a glass of water.

Half an hour later.

Not far away from the side of the road came the roar of a sports car's accelerator pedal.

Guan Yan got out of a flamboyant red Ferrari convertible, swayed on high heels and walked towards the seat where Qiao Nian was sitting.

She is wearing a tight leather skirt that outlines her bulging figure, and the maroon waves are curled up, which is even more charming and attracts people's attention.

A lot of opposite and same-sex eyes were attracted along the way.

Qiao Nian was holding a glass of water and took a sip while leaning against the back of the chair as if dozing off, but when he raised his eyes, he saw someone flirting like a peacock, the saliva almost dripping down his throat. Fortunately, she reacted quickly, swallowed it expressionlessly, silently put the glass on the table, and covered her face with her mobile phone...

"Boss, I miss you so much!"

Guan Yan gave the girl a big hug enthusiastically, no matter how many eyes he attracted.

She immediately went to the opposite side, opened the chair and sat down, then called the waiter to order a cup of Icelandic black tea, then put the wallet on the table, brushed her hair, and asked the person opposite: "You asked me to come out Who to check."

Qiao Nian was almost hit by her chest, finally regained his composure, rubbed his painful temples, and said in a hoarse voice, "A man from M state."

The waiter just brought over the drinks.

Guan Yan winked at the shy little boy waiter, and ran away as if he blushed and fled.

She turned her head and looked at Qiao Nian with a puzzled face: "What the hell?"

The back of Qiao Nian's head seemed to be hit again and again with a wooden clapper, her beautiful eyebrows frowned, and she raised her hand to press down on the brim of her hat, revealing only her sharp jawline: "Find out for me who appeared in Independent Island within this month. People from State M, I want their list."

Guan Yan took a sip of black tea and spit out the straw: "I'm afraid this is quite a lot, right? I can get the entry list, but how do you lock down the person you're looking for?"

The number of people entering and leaving Independent Continent within a month is eight hundred if not one thousand.

Sun finds suspicious people from such a long list, no less than finding a needle in a haystack, the chance of finding it is too small.

Qiao Nian raised her red lips, leaned back slightly, and smiled, quite arrogant and arrogant: "Who told you that I will look slowly."

"?"

"Actually, the way to find this person is very simple."

Simple? Guan Yan suspected that there was something wrong with his ears.

... Finding one person out of a thousand or eight hundred people, can this be called simple?

Qiao Nian looked into her eyes and said: "I just need to check the movements of these people and see who has frequently appeared near the Chamber of Commerce Alliance and Simon's residence during this time."

Guan Yan was taken aback, and realized that Qiao Nian's method was highly feasible!

Before Qiao Nian could move her injured right hand, she rubbed her uninjured hand against the rim of the cup on the table, and continued casually, "This is Independent State after all, that person can change his entry and exit records but not his own actions." Trajectory. As long as you check from the surveillance cameras at various intersections, you can always find someone."

Guan Yan resisted the shock in his heart, and murmured: "Sun, this method is not simple, but it can be realized for you. Another person... this method is basically useless."

Chapter 3642 sun, what kind of hatred does he have with you?

Use the entry and exit photos of the other party to check the surveillance...

Only Qiao Nian can use this method.

Because looking at the independent continent, there is no system that she cannot invade.

"If that person changes the entry and exit photos..." Guan Yan suddenly remembered after drinking his saliva.

Qiao Nian had thought about this a long time ago, smiled, and looked sharply: "It's very simple. But if anyone's photo on the list doesn't even have a trace of movement in the road surveillance video, it can also prove in reverse which fake he used. ID card. Then I can call up the entry and exit footage of this fake identity... If he even handles the entry and exit footage, it will be easier. I will ask Simon to check all the overseas entry and exit information and asset background of this fake identity. As long as he People have appeared in Independent Continent, so it is impossible to go without a trace..."

After hearing this, Guan Yan couldn't close her mouth wide open, so it took her a long time to give her a thumbs up, and said sincerely: "It's a good thing you didn't check me, Sun. Otherwise, you could find out what color underwear I'm wearing today! "

Qiao Nian's eyelids twitched, and he glanced at her leisurely.

Guan Yan immediately shut up and got down to business: "Even Simon said he had a grudge against you, boss, how did you provoke him? Hey, could it be that you have always abandoned him?"

"Use idioms well." Qiao Nian reminded her impatiently.

Guan Yan also made a joke: "Haha, I'm just talking. If you really give up on him, he will not kill you, but make you responsible."

She propped her hands on the table to admire the girl's overly attractive face, and exclaimed, "It's really cheap."

Qiao Nian's scalp was numb from her staring, she moved her eyes, leaned back, folded her chest with one hand and said, "It's business. I really didn't know there was such an enemy."

"Isn't that Queen's person?" Guan Yan frowned.

Qiao Nian shook his head: "I think what Simon means, this person has a personal grudge against me."

"We have offended a lot of people, but no matter in the illegal area or F state, there are really not many people who are so big that they bother to go to such a big trouble to kill them. Some of them have been honest recently. In fact, I didn't go out on my territory. Besides, even if they did it, the people from the illegal area and F state would not dare to admit it... I'm honest, the method of killing you in the Mingshui Mansion is too shady and illegal. No one in the District and F Continent can do it!" Guan Yan fell silent for a while as he spoke, not in the mood to joke anymore.

Qiao Nian was worried about being stared at by such a cunning and scheming guy.

After thinking about it, Guan Yan raised his head and said, "I don't have anything to do recently, so I'll stay here for the time being. I'll leave after your work is done."

Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows and glanced at her.

Guan Yan shrugged his shoulders with a relaxed face, not giving Qiao Nian a chance to refuse: "Boss, don't say you won't let me stay. My boyfriend is still here. Anyway, I should pamper him when I'm in love. Don't worry about it." People dumped me, isn't it too miserable for me."

"He will dump you?" Qiao Nian didn't even believe a single punctuation mark, and he knew why Guan Yan stayed, but he didn't expose his good intentions.

Guan Yan smiled, and also relaxed and joked: "Why not? Young Master Qin's good looks, good figure, family background, and the famous ladies who chased him in Beijing lined up from the streets of Chang'an to the end of the street. Over the past year, the family has frequently urged marriage. He got another fiancée in just one day. I don't know how long I can be a girlfriend, and I might be laid off tomorrow."

Chapter 3643 She will not be a woman attached to a man

Qiao Nian looked at her quietly for a second: "You...what do you think?"

"What do you think?" After Guan Yan finished speaking, looking at Qiao Nian's expression, he couldn't help but suppress the cynical expression on his face, and twitched the corners of his mouth. He still smiled in the same way, "I don't think much. Yes. For example, me! I can't settle down. He wants me to go back to Beijing to marry him. If nothing else, I won't be able to pass the test at home. Qin's house is clean, and they like me come in. It's hard to do. I'm not willing to give up the career I've worked so hard for so many years, just to make myself look bad just because of a man."

So she thinks simply.

Qin Si liked them and they were together.

Qin Si will separate when he has a fiancée in the future.

It is impossible for her to give up the Red League and the business in hand for Qin Si, and let herself become a woman who can only depend on men.

No matter how intoxicating love is!

So one step counts as one step, and the steps they can walk count as one step.

"Fortunately, I've been sensible since I was a child." Guan Yan raised his head, his eyes wandering: "I knew from the beginning that I couldn't be with him for long. So I have been reminding myself not to fall into it for so long, and now my feelings for him are just like that Son. I admit that I am not tired of it yet, but I am not sure that I will get tired of it one day..."

A scum girl is not a scumbag, and she doesn't want to give a man a home.

Anyway, Qin Si probably has the same mentality as her.

She checked Qin Si, a playboy, playing games in the world. He is not the same person as Young Master Ye, and it will be much more peaceful when the two separate.

Qiao Nian was never used to meddling in other people's feelings, seeing what Guan Yan said didn't matter, and she couldn't say anything, so she changed the subject and asked, "Did you bring your computer?"

Guan Yan is a person who can control his emotions. He got up immediately: "In the car, I'll get it for you."

Qiao Nian said 'hmm', and watched her leave before picking up her mobile phone to find Qin Si's WeChat, and sent Qin Si a location.

The other end returns in seconds.

【Qin Si:? 】

【Qin Si: Sister Qiao, why are you sending me this? 】

【Qin Si: Are you done with your work? 】

【Qin Si: I'll ask Mr. Wang to pick you up. 】

Qiao Nian looked at his series of messages, thought about it, and decided to give him another chance to enter messages with one hand.

【QN: Guan Yan is with me. 】

The message was sent successfully.

The other end was quiet for three seconds, and then there was the sound of swishing news vibrations.

【Qin Si: I'll be right over. 】

【Qin Si: Don't let her go. 】

【Qin Si: Sister Qiao, please, keep her until I come over! 】

In the villa.

Ye Wangchuan watched Qin Si drop the game controller and change clothes in a hurry to go out, so he couldn't help but stop and asked him, "Where are you going in such a hurry?"

Qin Si pressed his eyebrows, tried his best to calm himself down and said, "Sister Qiao just sent me a message saying that Guan Yan is with her, and I'm going to go there."

A few days ago, his mother was urging the marriage so hard that he told his family that he had a girlfriend.

Who knows how the * can contact Shang Guanyan.

After asking Guan Yan about the situation, he actually told Guan Yan that he would be engaged to have a fiancée soon, and the family had already selected several suitable marriage partners for him.

If his mother hadn't let him know about it afterward the night before, he wouldn't have known about it.

Guan Yan didn't even tell him this, how could he not be in a hurry.

He knew that Guan Yan was in Independence Island, and he always wanted to explain it to her after he knew about it.

But he made appointments with Guan Yan several times and didn't come out. After finally hearing about her, Qin Si had to rush over of course.

He hurriedly took the car keys: "Wang Ye, I'm leaving first."

Chapter 3644 sun, I bet he will ask for your contact information

"etc."

Ye Wangchuan called him to stop, and took the scarf on the sofa and walked over.

"I'm with you."

Qin Si frowned, not very happy to take him with him, and muttered: "What are you doing, I finally met my girlfriend, and you are still going to be a light bulb."

He spoke in a low voice.

But there are only two of them here.

Ye Wangchuan is not deaf either, so he glanced at him: "I'll pick up my girlfriend, can't I?"

Qin Si pursed his lips and walked ahead.

Ye Wangchuan followed behind, his stunning face raised his eyebrows, and added without haste: "Or do you want her to stay there and be your light bulb..."

What kind of light bulb?

Qin Si came to his senses.

Wo Cao, makes sense!

Sister Qiao was there, and Guan Yan couldn't see herself at all.

He rolled his eyes, changed his uncomfortable attitude just now, turned 180 degrees, and immediately made a gesture of please, took the initiative to let the porch out, and said with a dimpled smile: "Hey, Master Wang, you go first!"

Qin Si stepped on the gas pedal all the way to smoke, and hurried to the location Qiao Nian sent him after 20 minutes.

He parked the car on the side of the road, hurriedly got out of the car and went straight to the coffee shop.

In the coffee shop.

Guan Yan has almost finished his coffee, and is bored watching the girls operate the computer.

"Sun, you haven't found it yet?"

"Face analysis in progress."

Joe didn't even think about it.

The peaked cap blocked most of her face, only revealing a good-looking silhouette. Sitting there with a tall figure, her unique temperament attracted the attention of many opposite sexes.

Guan Yan obviously noticed those eyes looking at them, and propped his chin with his painted hand, blinking peach blossom eyes and staring at the girl who was busy invading the system: "Hey, boss. There is a handsome guy at 45 degrees on the left who watched You have been here for a long time. I bet he will come over and ask you for your phone number~ Come and take a gamble?"

Qiao Nian just imported all the entry and exit information in the list that Guan Yan got into the system, and was doing face recognition. Looking at the progress bar on the screen, and hearing her whispering in his ear, he leaned back, He casually turned his head and looked in the direction she said.

There was a table of foreigners sitting not far to their left, about seven or eight people, all in suits and leather shoes, they should be white-collar workers who came out to talk about things nearby.

There are many companies in Independent Continent, and the major forces also need these financial talents. For example, the Chamber of Commerce Alliance has raised many such senior elites.

It's not surprising to see such young people around here.

Qiao Nian only glanced at her and then retracted her eyes. She didn't take that look to heart, and she didn't notice that when she turned her head, a handsome blond guy with a high nose and deep profile lit up his eyes, showing a row of neat teeth to his friend, smiling. brilliant.

Qiao Nian: "Not interested."

She focused on the progress bar of the computer on her lap again, and leaned on the back of the chair with her slack shoulders, this time she really didn't even bother to lift her eyelids.

Guan Yan's computer is not slow.

The progress bar is halfway through soon.

She picked up the water glass on the table, and just about to take a sip of water, she felt a shadow beside her.

Qiao Nian frowned, stopped drinking water, and turned her head away.

"Hello beauty. Can I exchange a phone number?" The man who spoke was one of the people at the next table she glanced back at just now.

Blonde, blue-eyed, extremely young, looks fairly sunny and upright, with a mouthful of white teeth, and a bright and sunny smile.

Chapter 3645 Pry the corner of the wall face to face, cow but...

Qiao Nian watched Guan Yan leaning forward and backward smiling, her temples twitched twice, she pursed her lips and said expressionlessly, "Sorry, no."

You're welcome!

The young man was obviously a little disappointed, but he still persevered. He took a pen and wrote down his phone number on the table paper and handed it to Qiao Nian.

"This is my contact information, the beauty can call me if it is convenient."

He didn't wait for Qiao Nian to refuse, and smiled again: "I don't think you are from Independent Continent, so you should come here to play, right? I have worked here for several years, and I can be your tour guide to take you around."

Guan Yan whistled, and winked at Qiao Nian in a rascally way: "Sun, look how enthusiastic this handsome guy is, or you can accept it."

Qiao Nian gave her a tricky look, the coolness in his eyes deepened, and a look of impatience appeared on his pretty face.

She doesn't like to be interrupted, especially when she is busy with business, whoever interrupts her! And she had clearly rejected it just now, so it's a bit annoying that the other party is still pestering here...

"I said, I..."

"She has a boyfriend."

At this time, someone pushed the door and came in, and the clear and clear voice like a spring breeze broke in, but there was a kind of toughness that could not be refused.

Guan Yan originally sat crookedly in his seat to watch the excitement, but now his back felt a chill, he quietly sat up straight, coughed and pretended that he didn't exist.

She's a bit too memorized, and she was caught after watching the excitement once. I hope Young Master Ye won't think that she is pimping, otherwise she will be unlucky...

Ye Wangchuan walked in with big strides, his appearance and temperament alone overwhelmed all the men in this small coffee shop.

He walked up to the blond young man who struck up a conversation with Qiao Nian, stretched out his hand and took the napkin with the phone number written on it from the man, his deep eyes scanned the number on it, and his thin lips raised: "Oh. Are you interested in my girlfriend?"

Many polite inquiries.

The blond young man blushed, and was so embarrassed that he wanted to find a crack in the ground: "As long as we are not married here, we can have the freedom to make friends."

Qin Si came in first to say hello to Guan Yan, and when he heard this sentence, he looked at the man in surprise, just like looking at a monkey.

How old is it, and there are still people talking to Wang Ye like this.

Niu, this man is quite handsome.

Qiao Nian pressed her temple, but she was also very annoyed: "I didn't give him his phone number."

"I know." He saw the situation inside just outside the store, and it was purely because this man came to strike up a conversation one-sidedly.

However, his mood was still provoked, and he smiled, and the gentle and noble face could see the hostility: "Can't see myself? There is no mirror at home, so there is always peeing. You are just digging my wall like this? You Which of the three of us do you think is blind?"

The blond young man looked very bad after being swept away, and the friends at the table behind him also stood up to support him.

"What's the matter with you guys? Bullying my friend? Don't even look at where this is, why, you're going to fight."

The man who made the sound was tall and burly, with muscles all over his body.

As he spoke, all seven or eight people at the table stood up, all of them with uneasy expressions, as if they were going to bully the few with more people.

The coffee shop clerk was terrified, afraid that they would fight in the shop.

Qin Si laughed angrily when he saw this, and put the tip of his tongue against his chin and let out a muffled laugh: "Come on, who is afraid of whom?"

Chapter 3646 Sister Nian found that person

Ye Wangchuan was calmer than him, and threw the napkin he received between * into the trash can in front of the blond young man, then turned his head, and said without any emotion on his face: "I'll give you three seconds Time to roll, if you don't leave, which hand you used to write this string of phone numbers today, I want your hand."

He spoke calmly, as if saying that the weather is fine today.

The blond-haired young man and the circle of friends behind him were stunned by Ye Wangchuan's aura, and couldn't figure out what the background of the people in front of him was.

After all, they weren't the three-educated thugs of the Independent State. Seeing that they just wanted a phone number to make a fuss like this, the blond young man didn't want to mess things up to the point of no end, so he gritted his teeth and let his friends go.

A group of them hula la left.

Qin Si was still angry: "Master Wang, you just let them go like this?"

He * wants to beat those people up.

WTF.

Ye Wangchuan ignored him, walked to Qiao Nian, saw that the progress bar on her computer had reached 100%, and began to analyze the results.

An entry and exit information pops up on the screen.

【SEVEN, male, 26, from M state. 】

There is also a photo attached above.

The face of the person in the photo does not look like it was normally taken at the airport security checkpoint, but more like a fake photo synthesized by high-tech AI.

Qiao Nian saw the photo on the entry-exit certificate at first glance and saw that it was a fake photo, but this is not the point.

The point is...

She tilted her head, and said in a serious voice, "Do you think the person in the photo looks a lot like the person in the photo I brought back?"

Ye Wangchuan frowned, originally he didn't think about it, but after she reminded him to think about it on the old photo, he found that Qiao Nian was right.

"You mean..."

Qiao Nian is very straightforward: "I mean the photo on this is fake, the identity is fake, but the person is probably not fake!"

Qin Si also leaned over to take a look, but didn't understand: "What are you talking about, what do you mean?"

Qiao Nian pointed to the photo on the screen and continued to analyze with Ye Wangchuan: "Look at the degree of fraud in this photo. He is a smart man. Since he can tamper with the entry and exit records and obtain a false identity for himself, why not use the This fake photo is made to be more real, but to make it so fake that people can see it at a glance."

Guan Yan also listened and stared at the girl.

Qiao Nian is very confident: "It means that his purpose is to let us find out that this is a fake photo. No one will continue to search for a fake photo. We will definitely find other ways and ignore this photo instead. But ...He's a smart guy and good at thinking backwards. What if he used a real 'fake' photo in all the fake profiles?"

The photos are photoshopped. That's right.

But what if I use my own photo to upload it?

Who would have thought that under the traces of his PS is his own real photo.

This is a kind of reverse thinking.

Using common sense of human nature to mislead others.

If Qiao Nian hadn't found that old photo by chance from Nie Qingru's vault in M State, he wouldn't have thought about it, and he might have been misled by this person...

But she has seen old photos that Nie Qingru treasured.

There are no gratuitous associations in this world.

That person is so likely and so coincidental that a random fake photo on the Internet will look somewhat similar to the man in Nie Qingru's old photos.

Chapter 3647 Boss, what kind of hatred does he have with you?

There is only one possibility—that person is related by blood to the man in Nie Qingru's old photo, possibly a relative.

"I'll check this person."

Qiao Nian is a person who does what he says.

She immediately intercepted the 'fake' photo on the entry-exit information and imported it into the independent state traffic monitoring system for face tracking.

Just as she thought.

Ten minutes later, the result came out.

This face was photographed at the intersection near several chambers of commerce and Simon's residence, which shows that this man did appear in Independent Continent!

Guan Yan was dumbfounded when he saw the result: "Sun, you guessed it all."

Seeing the result, Qiao Nian's complexion became heavy, and he closed his eyes, feeling a little tired.

Guan Yan didn't notice this, and asked her: "But what kind of enmity do you have with him? Do you remember this face?"

She knew that Qiao Nian was a little face blind.

Generally unfamiliar people can't remember faces.

Qiao Nian opened his eyes, his black and white pupils were dark, as if he had guessed something, his voice was hoarse: "I haven't seen him before."

"Then he..." Guan Yan didn't know what to do.

At this time, Ye Wangchuan reached out to take the notebook from the girl, closed it and returned it to Guan Yan, and changed the topic: "There is soup at home, so I'll take her home first. Let's chat alone for a while."

Guan Yan was suddenly interrupted, his red lips parted slightly, and just about to say something, he met the man's dark, deep and slightly warning eyes.

She came to her senses suddenly, then turned her head to look at Qiao Nian's expression of not wanting to speak, and shut her mouth wisely, as if she agreed.

"You go first, I will take a screenshot of this person's information and send it to the email later."

"Thank you." Qiao Nian really didn't want to continue talking about this topic, so she got up and said something to her, and patted Guan Yan on the shoulder by the way: "I will tell you when I find out."

Guan Yan laughed, and didn't blame her for not telling himself: "Okay."

Qiao Nian followed Ye Wangchuan out.

The weather in November is a bit cold outside the coffee shop.

"Wait a moment."

Qiao Nian went out first, when she heard the people behind calling her.

She paused slightly, and then felt a warm scarf around her neck to wrap her tightly.

The originally cold weather became less severe, and her mood seemed to be gently caressed by something, which straightened her restless heartstrings.

Ye Fanchuan walked to the side and held her hand, and walked with Qiao Nian to the car parked on the side of the road, while casually asking: "Simon's matter is settled?"

"En." Qiao Nian was still thinking about the photo, and replied a little absent-mindedly: "He doesn't want to drag down the Union of Chamber of Commerce's plan to resign as president, and bear the consequences alone."

Ye Wangchuan reckoned that for Ji Nan's sake, she would not really let Ji's family fight with the Chamber of Commerce Alliance. This result was within his expectation, not a surprise.

The two just walked to the front of the car.

Ye Wangchuan let go of her hand, and opened the passenger door for her: "It's cold, get in the car first."

Qiao Nian stood there, paused for half a second, he didn't know where the desire to talk came from, and suddenly said: "That person... If I guessed correctly, he should have something to do with Nie Qingru. He..."

She didn't say it.

Because it's not sure yet.

If the man in the photo and Nie Qingru had been lovers, the young man who looks very similar to the photo might still be somewhat related to her.

This feeling is * * up.

But Qiao Nian was not sure if things were as she thought.

Ye Wangchuan seemed to know what she was going to say, his eyes were very calm, and he interrupted her: "Nie Qingru is Nie Qingru, you are you. The grievances of the previous generation have nothing to do with you, if he blames these on you, it means that he has a problem with his mind. Nian Nian, there is nothing to worry about, just do what you should do."

PS: This person has no blood relationship with Sister Nian, but has some relationship with the old hag, but not blood relationship

Chapter 3648 What others have, my family also wants to have Niannian

Qiao Nian glanced at him, and his depressed mood suddenly disappeared. Seeing him smile, he copied it into his pocket with one hand: "That's right."

"Otherwise." Seeing that she was in a better mood, Ye Wangchuan stepped aside, walked around to the driver's seat and opened the door: "Get in the car, God Qiao."

Qiao Nian raised his eyebrows with a 'tsk', bent over to get into the car, and stretched out his hand to pull the seat belt: "Are you jealous about what happened just now?"

Ye Fanchuan generally wouldn't call her 'Shen Qiao', unless he liked to call her that when he was not very happy.

Qiao Nian put on his seat belt, drooping his eyes and thinking about it again: "I didn't even see what he looked like."

Ye Wangchuan walked around to the other side and closed the car door at the same time. Before he could fasten his seat belt, he turned on the air conditioner in the car, turned up the temperature, and immediately fastened his seat belt. When he heard the girl's words, he raised his eyelids and was angry. She smiled and curled her lips: "Do you still want to see what he looks like?"

Qiao Nian tilted his head to look at him again, and took the time to lean back in the chair without saying a word, just relying on that eye-catching face is quite attractive.

Ye Wangchuan's eyelids twitched, his thin lips smiled and faded away, and he also felt that his reaction was too immature, but his chest was like a stone: "That person looks average."

Qiao Nian blinked slowly, her lips were dry, and her black eyes fixed on him: "Then why are you angry?"

"..." Ye Wangchuan was caught off guard by her rhetorical question.

She continued to say unhurriedly: "I don't seem to be blind yet...Why do you want to let go of your good-looking and rich boyfriend and run to hook up with him."

Normal people will not give up on him to choose someone else.

Qiao Nian thought she looked quite normal.

She doesn't like to explain her words and deeds to anyone, but this person is him, and Qiao Nian doesn't find it difficult to explain.

"I have been checking the entry and exit records of the person he said after I found Simon from the Chamber of Commerce Alliance, and I didn't pay attention to the people around me at all."

"The man came to talk to me suddenly by himself. When he asked me for my contact information, I refused immediately. But I didn't expect that he would not give up, so he took a pen and wrote his contact information to me."

Qiao Nian's tone was calm: "...Even if you didn't come, I wouldn't ask for that piece of paper. And I'll tell him that I have a boyfriend, and let him stop harassing me."

The ups and downs in Ye Wangchuan's heart were easily calmed down. He pursed his lips but couldn't hold back the corners of his mouth. Thousands of stars fell into his eyes and printed the perverse but serious face of the girl: "I really want to get married right away."

Qiao Nian paused for a second, then rubbed the space between her brows, and said speechlessly, "I never said I disagreed, but you insisted on waiting until the legal age."

Actually, if they insist on getting married, they can register abroad.

She is now 20, and has long been authorized to register for marriage abroad, so she doesn't have to wait another year.

Ye Wangchuan had a smile on the corner of his mouth, and said gently but forcefully: "Wait another year. If others have it, my family will also have it!"

For example, a grand marriage proposal ceremony.

Like a perfect wedding.

Like a night to never forget.

Qiao Nian knew what he meant, and didn't pay attention to these things, but at this moment, for the first time, he didn't say anything to spoil the atmosphere.

Ye Wangchuan quickly changed the subject: "Where are you waiting?"

"The first research institute."

He started the car: "I'll take you there."

Qiao Nian happened to be a little tired, so she hummed and leaned on the back of the chair, took out her mobile phone and sent Feng Yu a message telling him that she would go to find him soon.

Chapter 3649 I wanted to send a rose at her funeral at the same time.

The high seas are under extreme weather, with black clouds overwhelming.

The sea looks dark and extremely dangerous in the absence of light, and the visibility at sea level is less than 100 meters. Even experienced sailors dare not take it lightly when sailing in such ghostly weather.

The sea was very stormy, most of the guests were hiding in the cabins, and there were only a few scattered figures on the deck.

A man in black, black trousers and a hood is holding a bottle of beer, leaning on the railing and looking at the sea level, drinking leisurely.

Not far from him were two crew members complaining about the extreme ghost weather.

"...the dark clouds are getting lower and lower, so there will be no thunderstorms at night."

"With the wind and the waves, it would be terrible if there was thunder and rain again. I hope God will not let us be so unlucky!"

"Hey. We are lucky. A few days ago, someone took down a large pirate organization on the high seas with iron and blood. Otherwise, this kind of ghost weather is the easiest way to run into that thing~! At least we don't have to worry about running into pirates this time... "

"You said who was the person you were looking for when there was a lot of trouble in M state... I heard from my cousin from far away that a big person blocked all inbound and outbound planes and air routes for 10 hours that day. The terminal was inexplicably unsealed again."

"It's all about big shots, how can we civilians know?"

The young man drinking with his hands on the railing lowered his head and let out a chuckle from his throat, and suddenly said as if mocking: "They are here to arrest people."

Several crew members who were chatting while avoiding the wind and waves in the corner immediately spotted him.

Everyone looked at each other in blank dismay, wondering why this man would come to drink on the deck in such a ghostly weather?

Seeing that no one spoke.

The young man turned around, revealing the young and gentle face under the hood, with a smile on his lips, but the smile didn't reach his eyes: "But that man ran away."

What the * is this man talking about!

The young man didn't care if they could understand or not, as if it was just for talking: "The man also cleaned up the pirates on the high seas, and gave the big man you called a loud slap in the face!"

"Hey." He suddenly laughed as he spoke, looking very happy: "Good fight! I've wanted to do this for a long time. Unfortunately... not the time yet. She happened to slap me this time, counting I should also thank her for letting me out, but I couldn't thank her in person, and I couldn't offer a bouquet of flowers on her grave to thank her."

According to his original plan, Qiao Nian was already dead.

He should dress up and present a beautiful flower to this legend at the funeral, it must be a delicate rose.

Because only burning red is suitable for someone like Qiao Nian, pale chrysanthemums are not suitable for her, and a pure color like white is not suitable for the dirty blood flowing on her body!

It's a pity that he failed to realize his plan, but let the other party notice the trace...

But so what?

This game has just begun, and it is too early to say who will win and who will lose.

"Who are you?" A crew member dared to ask.

The young man watched a small fish in the sea being swallowed by the black waves. He raised his eyelids and looked over, saying his name: "SEVEN."

While everyone was still looking at each other, he suddenly dropped the beer in his hand without interest, turned around and walked towards the cabin...

Chapter 3650 Does she still want to kill her grandmother herself?

M continent.

Nie Qingru has not finished cleaning up the mess after what happened a few days ago.

Because of her impulsive behavior.

In the past few days, not only the Privy Council has been looking for her frequently, but also people from aviation and shipping are also looking for her, which makes Nie Qingru unbearable.

She also got rid of the members of the Privy Council and went home in the evening. When she got home, she threw down her big hat brim, showing her sinister face, and asked the people who followed: "What's the news from the Independent Continent?"

Shadow acted softly: "Ji Lingfeng has already had an operation, and he should be out of danger if there is no accident. Mr. Zhong is still taking care of him in the hospital, and he has also transferred some special medicines developed by the Pharmacy Association..."

"Hmph." Sitting on the sofa, Nie Qingru sneered, "He's lucky."

If it weren't for that wicked person who was willing to take the risk to get the antidote for him, the grass on Ji Lingfeng's grave would have grown three feet high!

Nie Qingru was upset when she thought of the things she had taken away: "What about her?"

Shadow raised his head slightly: "Qiao Nian hasn't done anything recently. He stayed at Yaomen's base and didn't go out. Today, he went out to meet Simon. I don't know what the two talked about. She left the Chamber of Commerce Alliance not long ago. It seems that she didn't quarrel. However, not long after she left, Simon called the core personnel of the Chamber of Commerce Alliance to hold an internal meeting and proposed to resign. This should be written by Qiao Nian!"

Nie Qingru never concealed her distaste on her face: "It's her handwriting, how normal. Isn't the Ji family's direct lineage just like this! Whoever offends them, they will definitely kill each other."

Shadow was silent and did not speak.

Nie Qingru probably felt bored. He bent down, picked up the wine bottle on the table, uncorked it, took a glass for himself, poured a glass of tequila and held it in his hand: "Where is he? He hasn't come back yet."

Shadow deserves to have been by her side for decades, even if Nie Qingru blurred what she (he) said two times in a row, she still understood who Nie Qingru was asking at the first time.

"Don't worry, the young master is on his way back, by water. His own ability is there, and Qiao Nian is not so easy to detect his existence."

"Um."

Nie Qingru took a deep breath, not emotional.

Shadow was hesitating whether to let her call me, when she received a call.

Shadow knew the rules very well, covered the receiver and said, "Queen, I'm going to answer the phone."

"Go." Nie Qingru shook the wine glass in his hand blankly, absent-minded.

Shadow walked to the side and quickly picked it up. He didn't know what was said there, his expression became ugly, and he hurried back within two minutes. Talk to Nie Qingru: "Something happened."

Nie Qingru had just taken a sip of wine, and it was uncomfortable to get the spirits into her throat, and it seemed uncomfortable to hear the shadow's panicked voice.

She put down the glass and asked coldly, "What's the matter?"

Shadow gritted his teeth and said, "Qiao Nian has found out about the young master! According to the news we received from people on the high seas, she seems to want to keep him on the high seas."

"What?!"

Nie Qingru was calm enough to stand up at this moment, her molars were clenched tightly, and her face was distorted in disbelief: "How did she find Xicheng? No, what the * is she trying to do! Take the antidote from me It's not enough, Qi Xing's death is not enough... What on earth does she want to do! Is she really going to kill her grandma herself for the revenge of the season!"

Nie Qingru's chest was heaving and unsteady, and the huge anger poured in, causing her mind to hum non-stop, as if going back decades ago.
