

Madam's 3651

Chapter 3651 Sister Nian has tracked down that person

Facing fate, I have no strength to resist, so I can only be like a fish on a sticky board and let others slaughter me.

But she is no longer in her early twenties, and she is no longer that woman who can only cry and do nothing.

"Send someone to pick up Xicheng immediately." Nie Qingru made a decisive decision: "We must take Xicheng away before her men arrive."

"yes."

Shadow didn't dare to show any neglect on his face, and hurried to do it.

Nie Qingru took a deep breath, turned pale and called him to stop, and suddenly said in a soft voice: "Do you think I am not cruel enough, so you will give her a chance to anger me again and again. If I was cruel from the beginning, she would have no chance to kill me." I've gotten to the point where..."

Shadow turned around and didn't dare to answer, but quietly looked at the woman who was suddenly tired: "This subordinate doesn't know."

In fact, he knew it in his heart.

Nie Qingru may not have been cruel to Qiao Nian at the beginning, because he was willing to let Qiao Nian go. It was purely that the empress thought that a yellow-haired girl in her early twenties would not cause much trouble, so she just let Yu Qingliu show up to embarrass her at the beginning.

They never expected that there was such a large force behind Qiao Nian, let alone that Qiao Nian himself was tougher and tougher than they imagined.

One wrong step, one wrong step.

until today.

But the shadow is not sure if Nie Qingru had killed Qiao Nian at the beginning... If Qiao Nian was not prepared, it would not be impossible.

But there are no ifs in this world, let alone assumptions.

"Empress, don't worry. Master Xicheng will be fine!" He comforted Nie Qingru and hurried to find someone.

Nie Qingru also picked up the phone on the sofa, digging out a number to call the other party with a dignified expression.

"beep..."

The call got through.

But unfortunately, the signal at sea is not good, and it is even more difficult to have a signal in stormy weather.

When she got through the phone, probably due to the impact of the storm on the high seas, the signal rang once and then a mechanical female voice came out.

"Sorry, the number you dialed is out of area."

Nie Qingru raised her brows and clenched her phone tightly. The light and shadow cast a pale complexion on her face, and her breathing was difficult.

First Research Institute, Feng Yu's office.

The girl sat on the sofa with her legs crossed and waited for someone to come back. She was talking to the person on the other end with a mobile phone in one hand and turned on the video.

"I said QIAO, can you find me a more reliable person to help me next time? Are you sure this thing is reliable?!"

In the video, Jian Jin looks expressionless and shifts the camera to the side a little. A man with bird feathers enters the camera arrogantly. His emerald green hair is messed up by the sea breeze, looking like a parrot with teeth and claws.

Obviously, he also heard Jian Jin's merciless complaints, and immediately exploded: "I'm so unreliable. Children, it's the 21st century, why do you judge people by their appearance!"

"Fuck you kid!" Jian Jin kicked her sideways.

The slender waist controlled to dodge flexibly, and said mercilessly: "Fuck, just talk, don't make any moves. If you break my face, can you afford it?"

Jian Jin's temples were throbbing wildly, almost annoyed to death by this guy, she turned her head and looked at the * the other end of the video and couldn't help but said, "Why don't I throw him into the sea, and I'll bring the person you mentioned back for you, no Need him to drag his feet here."

Qiao Nian was convinced after watching them start a video chat until now, and said, "Slim waist control is good at tracking, so you can find people at sea with you."

Chapter 3652 Sister Nian also wants to knock down the boat

"Okay." Jian Jin looked at the man who was not at all like a man with his fangs and claws, curled his lips, unwilling to agree.

"Oh! What kind of eyes do you have!" The slender waist control happened to see the corner of her mouth, and looked up angrily: "Don't believe it?"

Jian Jin didn't bother to argue with the two of them, she walked to the other side with her mobile phone and continued to talk to the * the other end of the video: "QIAO, what do you want to do when we find someone?"

On the other end of the video, Qiao Nian propped up her jaw, her eyes under the peaked cap were bright and glaring, and she was surly and arrogant: "She wanted to knock down my boat before... Coincidentally, I had the same idea!"

Jian Jin gasped: "You mean..."

Qiao Nian said succinctly: "When the person is tracked down, the ship will be thrown into the sea, and then the lifeboats will be used to rescue the people who fell into the water one by one. Their losses, including the cost of the ship, will be covered by me! I want to catch them." live with that person."

Jian Jin instantly understood what she meant.

The man left Independence Island by water, and very carefully chose a cruise ship that was half fishing boat and half commercial.

There are many ordinary people on the cruise ship.

It is almost impossible for them to board the boat and arrest people without alerting these people...so QIAO's method is very simple and rude.

Sink that ship without hurting anyone, she will take care of all the losses, and ensure the safety of other ordinary people.

The high seas are originally three-way sea areas.

It is normal for any accident to happen in this sea area.

Jian Jin has been in the illegal area for a long time, and has long been numb to these things.

But she knew that Qiao Nian was not this kind of person. Qiao Nian had principles and bottom lines, and she would not break her bottom line for a certain purpose.

Although this method would be more troublesome than other methods, Jian Jin still didn't complain, and nodded, "Okay, I promise to catch you."

"Thanks."

Qiao Nian thanked softly through the mobile phone video.

Jian Jin smiled, and gave her a high-five across the screen: "Our relationship is divided by talking about these things. If you really have time... Whenever you come to the illegal area to play, Boss Lu misses you very much."

Qiao Nian couldn't meet Lu Zhi peacefully until now, so he rubbed the space between his brows and said with some headache, "Let's talk about it."

"Okay, it depends on your time." Jian Jin knew how many things had happened between the two of them before, and she also knew that Qiao Nian hadn't been able to have no grievances with Lu Zhi, so she didn't force her: "I won't tell you, first Go and explain to them."

"good."

After Qiao Nian finished talking here, she saw Jian Jin hang up the video, the phone screen lost its light and went black.

She was still waiting for Feng Yu to come back, and she was not in a hurry to leave, so she found the plug-in board to charge her phone, and at the same time used the idle computer in Feng Yu's office to open up the local area network of the high seas to track it...

In the car, she was looking up the route of this 'SEVEN' leaving the Independent Continent.

Qiao Nian called Jian Jin.

The high seas have always been Jian Jin's territory.

Although this is a three-way zone, Lu Zhi loves to intervene in this kind of three-way zone, otherwise, why would he be called the king of the gray zone.

It can be considered that Nie Qingru and this person are unlucky.

As soon as Qiao Nian called, Jian Jin happened to be working in a small fishing village not far from the sea area she mentioned, and the city of Beijing was also nearby.

Chapter 3653 There is a problem with the satellite signal

Qiao Nian asked the two of them to help intercept the ship.

She tapped on the Starlink satellite positioning map lightly, scanned and found several speedboats on the map through the local area network.

That was the speedboat that Jian Jin drove to chase people.

In the southwest direction of the sea, the ferry carrying 'SEVEN' was heading towards Continent M at a steady speed.

Because this ferry is for both commercial and fishing purposes.

It doesn't sail fast.

Qiao Nianmo calculated the speed of the two parties, and estimated that Jian Jin and the others would take about two hours to catch up with the ferry.

And two hours... the ferry probably just arrived at the junction of the high seas and the waters of Continent M.

Emotions filled her eyes, and she used the mouse to drag the map to the junction of the two sea areas. Through the satellite map, Qiao Nian immediately found something wrong.

—There is a boat!

She saw about five or six cruisers rushing towards the commercial and fishing ferry... that speed was aimed at picking up people!

Nie Qingru...

Qiao Nian narrowed his eyes, and his movements were not slow. He immediately pinpointed the number of the ships and searched for the person behind them.

Sure enough, those ships belonged to the forces of the hidden family. Nie Qingru must have sensed something, knowing that she wanted to keep people.

Qiao Nian's expression was slightly cold, and the corners of her lips curled up into a smile, quite dry, then picked up the phone and called Jian Jin again.

"People from the Hidden World Family are also here, you all have a quick fight!"

"How did they come?"

"I don't know." Qiao said without talking nonsense: "Remember my words, no matter whether you find anyone or not within half an hour of sinking that ferry, you must leave there immediately!"

She knew what Nie Qingru was like, and she didn't want to drag Jian Jin into it.

Jian Jin wanted to say something else: "But QIAO..."

Qiao Nian was very resolute: "Listen to me. I have a way to prevent her from finding you. In short, evacuate immediately after half an hour."

After she finished speaking, she ignored Jian Jin, hung up the phone, took a picture of Jian Jin on the map on the computer, and sent it to Jian Jin, and then sent the exact latitude and longitude information of the fishing boat on the map and the location she predicted would arrive in two hours. Send it to Jian Jin together.

Waiting for Jian Jin to reply her message.

Qiao Nian told her in a leisurely manner that the signal would be lost for two to three hours, so that she could get ready.

Jian Jin sent her an OK emoji back.

Qiao Nian walked back to the computer, looked sideways at the satellite network in the high seas area on the computer, half-closed his eyes and closed his eyes, then dragged the chair and sat down, and quickly tapped the keyboard with his left hand to operate.

She only has one hand to use.

It only took less than ten minutes to successfully cut off the satellite star area network in the high seas, completely cutting off the network signals on the high seas and even the major junctions!

No network signal means that some unprepared ships will lose their tracking direction, and it is difficult to track the specific location of the fishing boat you want to find again under such circumstances.

This is what Joe wanted.

She watched the red dots of all the ferries on the high seas satellite map disappear, put her left hand lightly on the keyboard, raised her eyebrows, and waited for Nie Qingru to respond.

"What?!"

"You said Xicheng lost contact on the high seas?"

Nie Qingru flung the glass in his hand and hit the ground, the red wine in it splashed and stained the expensive carpet.

But no one cares about that right now.

Nie Qingru walked in front of the shadow, breathing heavily, grabbed his collar, and asked through gritted teeth: "Say, what's going on?!"

Chapter 3654 Those in the Privy Council will not let you go

Shadow's neck tightened, and he struggled to breathe. He reluctantly said, "Queen, it's not just Xicheng Shao who has lost contact, but all ships in the high seas have lost contact."

"..." Nie Qingru let go of his hand slightly.

Shadow was able to breathe a little bit: "Someone activated the satellite network, causing all the signals in that sea area to be disconnected. It is difficult for us to find the detailed location of the ship on which Master Xicheng is boarding through satellite signals."

Nie Qingru had bulging veins on the back of her hand, and said a name without hesitation: "It's Qiao Nian."

Shadow looked up at her, his eyes were touched, but he didn't dare to say anything.

The current situation is obviously caused by Qiao Nian. Only Qiao Nian has the ability and courage to cut off the entire satellite network in the high seas.

"The subordinates have asked the hackers of the Hermit Family to decipher the Trojan horse program as soon as possible and restore the satellite positioning signal in that sea area."

"It's just...you know her abilities well, I guess that Trojan horse program may not be able to decipher for a while."

Hongmeng's son is not called for nothing.

Qiao Nian has released several programs on the market, whether it is a Trojan horse, a virus, or iris verification, all of them are top-notch technologies.

The hackers they raise are not bad.

Compared to a king of hackers like Qiao Nian who came out of a wild way, he is not only inferior in strength, but also in his treacherous thinking when designing Trojan horse programs.

Qiao Nian's virus has never been so difficult, but that no one can guess her thoughts.

She always puts the loopholes of deciphering viruses in an unexpected place, which is the most difficult...

"Her target should be Master Xicheng."

"Of course I know what she wants to do!" Nie Qingru couldn't breathe well, so she couldn't control her temper.

She seldom walked around in such a gaffe, but the current situation forced her to calm down and think about a solution.

Nie Qingru stopped in the middle of the walk: "No, I can't wait!"

Shadow saw her walking in front of him in a hurry, with a sullen expression on his face, anger in his eyes, and said: "You put pressure on the capital in my name."

"Empress?"

"Put pressure on them in business dealings, put forward my demands, and tell them that if anyone touches the people on that ship, I will definitely destroy the business cooperation project that I promised before at all costs!"

She held Smith Bank in her hand, so she naturally had the capital to speak harshly.

If Nie Qingru insists on tampering with the bank settlement system, let alone how much she will lose, but it will definitely cause huge losses to many companies in Beijing.

She meant to threaten the opponent to stop even if both sides were hurt.

Shadow certainly understood her plan, but he hesitated to remind her: "Queen, the Privy Council knew that there might be..."

Xue Lao and others are now extremely dissatisfied with the Queen.

If the Queen insists on going her own way and destroys business cooperation, the Privy Council doesn't know how much trouble will be caused.

Now their situation in the Privy Council is not very good.

Although the conservative faction headed by Mr. Xue is ostensibly approaching the queen, in fact Mr. Xue is only for the benefit of the hermit family, not listening to the queen.

And the radicals they had firmly grasped gradually became uncontrollable after Leonard's death, and began to lean toward neutrality, no longer following the Queen's orders.

As for the church.

The archbishop never took them seriously, and there were not many conflicts between the two sides, but the neutral faction headed by the archbishop was a group of hard bones, and no one was easy to mess with.

Chapter 3655 I only know about the signal now, it's too late

Calculated in this way, their right to speak in the Privy Council has actually been weakened a lot.

Old Xue is also extremely dissatisfied with them this time, if the Queen does something to disappoint the old guys in the Privy Council at this juncture.

The Privy Council still doesn't know how to deal with the Queen.

"I know everything you can think of, but I won't leave Xicheng alone." Nie Qingru lowered her gaze, and said no more: "Do as I say!"

Shadow bowed his head heavily: "Yes."

Nie Qingru looked at the back of him leaving again, and tried to take a deep breath this time so that she would not be affected and lose control of her emotions.

She turned around rationally and went upstairs, first contacting those who were going to pick them up.

Nie Qingru thought clearly.

She wanted to put pressure on Beijing City, and tried her best to rely on the people Qiao Nian cared about in Beijing City to stop the lunatic, and then let other people rush to the sea area where she had located to save people as soon as possible.

Nie Qingru didn't know what Qiao Nian wanted to do. This kind of anxiety about losing control of things made her every step up the stairs extremely heavy...

But she knew that no matter how heavy her heart was, she couldn't fall down.

She absolutely cannot accept that Xicheng had an accident in the high seas and died at the hands of Ji's family!

At this time, dark clouds over the high seas and light rain fell.

People under the drizzle feel irritable.

The busy crew members on the deck are still complaining about the rain, and continue to worry about whether they will encounter thunderstorms at night.

None of them knew that they had become the center of the storm.

The two forces are about to clash and collide fiercely with them as the center in this sea area!

After leaving the deck, Zhai Xicheng did not go back to his room, but took a breather and smoked in the narrow aisle of the cabin.

His browbones drooping hair sticks to his face wet with raindrops, his pale skin is very fragile, his eyes are sick and evil hidden under the broken hair.

He bit the cigarette with his two thin lips but didn't smoke it, he just put it near his mouth, leaning against the narrow edge of the aisle, looking as if he was about to jump into the sea.

Such a strange person, with a strange aura...so that people who were interested in his appearance dare not approach him.

He leaned there indifferently, when he heard a crew member come out from the narrow aisle of the cab below and cursed in a low voice: "Damn, today is really unlucky! Let it rain, let it be a thunderstorm. The signal on the ship is still out of order." .I don't know when the signal will be restored, otherwise it would be * to lose the navigation route in this kind of ghost weather!"

The young man in a black hoodie raised his eyes slightly when he heard this sentence, clamped the cigarette on his mouth with two fingers, looked at the person who came out and whispered: "When did you lose the signal?"

The crew member who came out didn't expect that there would still be people smoking outside in this weather. He asked himself, but he didn't hide it: "It's been an hour or two."

The crew came over and asked him for a cigarette.

Zhai Xicheng took out one and handed it to him.

The crewman lit a cigarette in the cold weather and puffed out white smoke. Then he tilted his head with a soothing expression and said, "Let me tell you, don't tell other people. The captain won't let us tell, for fear of causing trouble for other guests." panic."

"We are in the high seas. This sea area is like this. There are minor glitches every now and then. Generally, the problem is not serious. This time it is just a disconnection of the signal. Maybe it will be restored after a while."

The crew sighed: "I just complained because I felt that it was too unlucky to encounter a signal failure in such a ghostly weather. Brother, don't forget to take it to heart, don't be afraid..."

As he spoke, he patted the young man's shoulder as a sign of comfort, but he didn't notice the slight change in his face.

Chapter 3656 Who said that sister Nian is a reasonable person

Zhai Xicheng tried to calm down: "You said our ship lost signal for almost two hours."

The crew took a puff of cigarette, looked back at him, and said with a smile, "What's your expression? Are you scared? Didn't I tell you not to be afraid. This is how this hellish place is. Hey, if I had known you were afraid, I wouldn't have told you." I said it! If the captain finds out that he will definitely be angry with me, don't tell others... We didn't lose the signal, I suspect that there is a problem with the satellite signal in the high seas."

The crew member was also upset at this point, took a deep sip of the cigarette, and held the * of the cigarette between his hands: "What a * of a weather! I hope there will be no heavy rain tonight, and the signal will be restored as soon as possible!"

Zhai Xicheng had already guessed what was going on with the 'lost satellite signal', so he turned around and walked into the cabin with a blank face.

"Hey, brother. Where are you going?" Seeing him walking back without saying a word, the crew called him from behind.

Zhai Xicheng turned a deaf ear and walked faster and faster.

at this time.

The crew exclaimed: "Ah, what is that! Pirates?"

Zhai Xicheng was about to open the door and go in, when he heard the surprised voice behind him, he couldn't help but stop, and looked back.

The crew member's face changed suddenly in fright, and he didn't care about smoking. He threw the cigarette * on the ground, stretched his neck on the railing, and looked at it: "Didn't it mean that the big guys attacked the pirates in this area a few days ago, and the pirates have stopped a lot? Damn it Yes, where did the pirates come from?"

Zhai Xicheng walked over and saw where he was looking.

The weather is bad today, and the sea surface visibility is extremely low.

In a misty black mist, they could see laser lights passing through the fog of the sea from a distance, and there were about four or five speedboats chasing towards them quickly...

The sound of water breaking through the waves in front of the speedboat is getting closer.

The crew member cursed, no longer wasting time, and said in a hurry: "I'll notify the captain!"

...

Zhai Xicheng was left in the narrow passage.

His temples throbbed wildly, watching the speedboat team that was about to approach them in five minutes, and a beast-like sneer escaped from his throat.

"Qiao Nian!"

He rarely underestimates a person.

This time he was wrong!

But Zhai Xicheng was never someone who would be caught without a fight.

He knew better than anyone that these speedboats catching up from outside M state could not be the people Nie Qingru sent to pick him up.

He was not frightened by the sudden unexpected situation in front of him, he quickly collected his mood and immediately turned around and walked back to his room.

Zhai Xicheng took each step quickly and steadily.

From his point of view, he still has five minutes to react.

He is sure that the other party will not do things too badly, at least he will catch him alive... If he wants to catch him alive, he may even negotiate with the people on board.

All he has to do is to seize the time of negotiation between the two parties and escape immediately.

He entered the room with his front feet, packed all the things he wanted to bring in the room less than five square meters, and prepared to go out.

But at this moment.

I only heard a female voice breaking the wind.

"Shoot the boat down for me!"

Zhai Xicheng suddenly opened his eyes wide, and before he had time to react, he felt the hull of the ship being hit, and the place where he was standing was shaking...

Rao thought that he had no plans to spare, so he couldn't help but swear at this moment: "Fuck!"

Jian Jin found this commercial and fishing ferry according to the location of the thin waist control along the way, and immediately raised her hand to let people go to work.

Before they caught up, she explained their next plan to the people under her.

Chapter 3657 I saw this man, he was on the boat

What she brought was Tianchen's best hands.

The person in charge of aiming and shooting is very good. He just sunk the warehouse at the bottom of the ship to destroy the hull and let the sea water pour in to achieve the purpose of sinking the ferry.

They don't hurt people.

"Prepare the lifeboat."

Jian Jin saw that the small ferry in front of her began to tilt and sink, and immediately waved her hands and arranged for her men to start fishing.

"yes."

Her men started to launch the lifeboat in an orderly manner. At the same time, these people also drove the speedboat to rescue those who were frightened and chose to dive for survival at the first time.

The slender waist control watched this scene, grabbed a handful of his emerald green bird feathers, and said with a click: "Boss's shot is at least nine figures. You are really prodigal."

Qiao Nian said that he would bear all the damages.

Where is this cannon threatening? It is simply the most expensive firework in the world, okay?

Jian Jin crossed her arms and glanced at him impatiently: "QIAO didn't spend your money, what are you doing here, like a bitch!"

Slender waist control is the most annoying when people say that he looks like a woman, so he snapped back angrily: "Yes, you look like a man. You are the most like a man! I will go back and give you the best man award..."

"Be careful of the time. QIAO said we would stay for half an hour at most. Since she spent so much money to sink this ship, let's not let her spend it for nothing." Jian Jin turned her head and ignored him.

Although the thin waist control was not convinced in his heart, he knew the occasion clearly and did not quarrel with her again.

Most of the small ferry fell into the water, and many people have jumped into the water and been rescued.

Those people found that Jian Jin and the others had no intention of hurting anyone, and began to consciously approach the lifeboat they lowered.

Watching people being picked up one after another.

Slender Waist Control squinted his eyes and searched around, his expression became serious: "There is no such person."

Jian Jin was holding a tablet in her hand, on which was the photo that Qiao Nian had sent her. The man in the composite photo was blurred in pixels, but she could roughly determine what he looked like.

While she was looking for someone with a small waist, she was also looking for someone on the lifeboats.

She also found that the rescued people did not have the person they were looking for.

"Could it be that the information given by QIAO is wrong." Jian Jin was a little puzzled.

Most of the people in the sea were rescued, and the rest were exposed on the surface of the sea. You can probably see what they look like.

She found no suspicious person.

Jian Jin couldn't help wondering: "That person isn't on this ship...?"

Thin waist control is rare but serious: "Impossible."

Jian Jin was angry and didn't want to talk to him.

Slender waist control said to himself: "Sun never makes mistakes, since she found out that the person is on this ship, she must be there, there is no way to make a mistake!"

Jian Jin took a deep breath and felt it made sense.

She is a quick-witted person, and since they didn't have much time, she simply looked around, grabbed a man who looked like a sailor by the collar, pulled him up, and handed over the photos on the tablet, feeling extremely impatient. asked, "Have you seen this man?"

The crew member was frightened, his face turned pale, and the corner of his eyes trembled. Looking at the photo on the tablet, he gasped: "Uh, isn't this... isn't this the person on the deck?"

"Have you met him?" Jian Jin heaved a sigh of relief.

The crew got a chance to breathe, and hurriedly said: "I have seen... seen. This man is quite strange. Before the sea changed, he was still drinking on the deck and said a few inexplicable words."

Chapter 3658 No, we have to go!

Jian Jin didn't care about this, and interrupted him: "Where is he now?"

The crew member fell down on the lifeboat and shook his head: "I don't know either. I only know that he was still on board before you came. I saw him smoking in the aisle with my colleague... I don't know where he is after that."

"..." Jian Jin's expression became serious when she heard this.

When they shot down the ferry, people were still on board, so what's going on now? People disappeared in the sea out of thin air?

All their conversations fell into the ears of Slender Waist Control, Slender Waist Control had the same expression as hers, frowning tightly, as if he couldn't believe it: "What's the matter? He turned into a butterfly and flew away?"

Jian Jin rubbed her brows angrily: "I know a hammer."

The slender waist control looked down at the time on the watch, and said impatiently, "No, only five minutes."

sun said, whether they can find someone or not, they must evacuate here within half an hour.

It took them ten minutes to sink the ferry, fifteen minutes to save them... and now it's less than five minutes.

Time is running out, if no one can be found, they will have to withdraw first.

Jian Jin took a deep breath and took off her jacket, without saying a word: "I'll go into the water to find it!"

The slender waist control didn't have time to stop her, and she jumped into the water with a strong figure, and she disappeared on the sea level...

He scratched his hair and muttered to death, then he also took off his coat and hurriedly talked to the others before jumping into the sea.

Because of the bad weather on the sea.

Visibility in the water is too low.

If you can still see a field of vision of about 100 meters on the sea, then after entering the water, the slender waist controller finds that he can only see within two or three meters within his reach.

With this kind of visibility, let alone looking for someone, it's enough not to be swept away by the undercurrent in the sea.

He managed to find Jian Jin's location in the water, but he didn't find where Jian Jin was. He couldn't hold his breath, so he could only float to the surface to breathe.

When he broke through the water and took a breath of fresh air, he saw Jian Jin emerging from the water a few meters away from him.

He swam over and didn't say anything harsh, just said: "No, we can't find anyone in this weather, so we have to go up first."

"Um."

Jian Jin went down by herself, knowing that there is no way to find anyone at the bottom of the sea.

She is not a stubborn person, so she followed the slender waist control and climbed onto the nearest speedboat first.

After they went up, the subordinates handed each of them a towel to wipe their faces, the water on their bodies rustled down, and the wind started to blow on the sea.

No matter how unwilling Jian Jin was, she could only say coldly: "Get ready, let's go."

Slender Waist Control casually wiped the water off his body, then looked at the dozens of people they rescued, but no matter how hard he searched, he couldn't find the face they were looking for.

He really couldn't figure out where that person could go in this situation?

Could it be that that person can really fly?

He looked at the time, and it was already at the point Qiao Nian said.

They can't stay any longer.

sun never talks nonsense, since they have to leave within half an hour, there is a reason for doing so, they have to leave.

Slender waist control can only help others tie the lifeboat to the speedboat and prepare to evacuate.

The waves on the sea broke.

Several speedboats came and went quickly.

There was no movement on the calm sea for a long time, until it was quiet for five minutes, and there was no sound, and the people lurking at the bottom came to the surface in embarrassment.

Chapter 3659 You come back first

The young man was still wearing a hoodie, but he didn't have the leisurely arrogance of putting the hood over his head. It would be so embarrassing to be soaked in the water now.

Fortunately, he was carrying a defensive leather bag and a small oxygen cylinder on his body.

He should have saved his hand long ago, so he has a small oxygen cylinder like this by his side. Although this oxygen cylinder can't last for too long, it's good to help him avoid the most critical search.

Looking at the wrecked ferry and the empty sea level, Zhai Xicheng's face was about to sink. He couldn't imagine that if the pedestrian stayed for a few more minutes to exhaust his oxygen or if the weather was better today and the visibility of the seabed would be better. , what will be his final result...

In short, it will not barely escape the opponent's search like it is now.

He hasn't been in such a mess yet, but he knows very well in his heart that he will have to float on the sea for an unknown period of time, until the people from the Hermit Family who come to pick him up find him here.

In this kind of weather, even if he floats alone in the icy seawater, even if he is rescued afterwards, at least he will be soaked off a layer of skin.

"Qiao Nian..."

Zhai Xicheng's lips were purple with cold and read a name.

He drifted on the sea for about two hours, until the blood in his whole body was about to freeze, and he was about to lose consciousness... Finally, he heard the sound of a siren coming.

Before Zhai Xicheng lost consciousness, with his blurred vision, he saw several familiar faces pulling him up from the sea, and called his name nervously.

"Master Xicheng."

"Young Master Zhai."

"Young Master Zhai, please be sober. Doctor, hurry up and let the doctor come over!"

Hearing the voices of these people shouting, Zhai Xicheng strenuously pulled the muscles at the corners of his lips that had been numb from the cold, and stared blankly at the rainy sky.

The gloomy dark clouds were completely suppressed.

The weather is unbelievably cold.

His lower body has long been unconscious. Fortunately, Nie Qingru's people came quickly so that he would not freeze to death on the sea.

Zhai Xicheng could hear the chaotic footsteps on the deck, but he no longer had the strength to pay attention to these.

All he could think of was a name.

Qiao Nian.

He has never suffered so much in his life.

Qiao Nian almost killed him this time, and made him so embarrassed, they are settled.

It was the first time he wanted to kill someone so excitedly, and it had nothing to do with the grievances he was obsessed with before. He was like a lion eager to hunt in the wilderness, and suddenly found that there was another person in this world who could fight with him evenly. contest.

The blood in his whole body is boiling, the capillaries are screaming crazily, hoarsely yearning for...

"Young Master Zhai, the empress's phone number." Someone knelt down and carefully handed the hands-free mobile phone to his ear with fear on his face, not daring to look at the distorted and excited expression on his face.

Zhai Xicheng heard that the person on the other end of the phone was probably asking him if he was okay, what happened and so on.

Zhai Xicheng's body was extremely exhausted, and he didn't fall into a coma thanks to his willpower. He didn't care much when he heard the voice on the other end of the phone, and his hoarse voice was filled with frightening madness: "I'm fine. I just...found A fun opponent...it was so much fun."

M continent.

Nie Qingru's castle.

When she heard the crazy voice of the person on the other end of the phone saying something like 'interesting opponent' between sobriety and coma, her eyelids twitched violently.

"You come back first."

Chapter 3660 It's time for her to teach the ignorant junior a lesson

At the same time, someone came in from the outside and walked up to Nie Qingru. Seeing that she was on the phone, she respectfully stood aside and waited.

Nie Qingru lowered her voice: "We'll wait for you to come back safely!"

Finished speaking.

She hung up the phone.

Muscles on his face tensed and trembled, he glanced at the subordinate who was standing honestly aside from the corner of his eye, and walked straight to the sofa.

"Speak."

The man with the bowed head said in a low voice: "Queen, our people have already found out. It was someone who sank the ferry that Shao Shao was riding on in the high seas. Everyone on the ferry was rescued, and Shao Shao stayed there alone. The other party should have retreated in time without finding anyone. Now the satellite signal on the high seas has been restored, but we can't find any traces of ships nearby..."

The high seas are vast seas.

If they want to check, they can only find out whether there are traces of ships in the area where the accident happened.

Once it exceeds a certain range, it is difficult to determine whether those ships are ships in the accident area or just passing by nearby...

Nie Qingru had already walked in front of the leather sofa, but now she was staggering, and she tried to hold on to the armrest of the sofa with her hand to stand firm, with bulging veins on the back of her hand, and her graceful face looked extremely out of control: "You mean... she sank the ferry? !"

The man with his head down didn't dare to look up: "Yes, this is the result of the investigation."

"Ah!"

Nie Qingru slapped the armrest of the sofa heavily, her face distorted and out of control: "Very good! She really deserves to be my good granddaughter!"

No one in the living room dared to speak, and their breathing became lighter.

Nie Qingru suppressed Taotao's anger, but the anger still rushed from the soles of her feet to her forehead, causing smoke to rise from the top of her head, and her lips trembled uncontrollably.

She was almost sure—Qiao Nian found out about the pirates trying to sink their ferry on the high seas before taking revenge on her.

She just did this on the front foot, but her good granddaughter took revenge on Xicheng for the same thing, and returned it to her exactly the same!

What he did was more ruthless and thorough than her.

"Hehe." Nie Qingru sneered twice, and was also annoyed: "Go and inform Mr. Xue and the Privy Council that I have something to discuss with them."

The subordinates did not dare to delay, and immediately went to do it: "Yes, Your Majesty the Empress."

Nie Qingru stared at his leaving back with deep eyes, the hatred flowing in his eyes was like a venomous snake, ready to bite at any time.

She contacted Shadow again and asked him to go to the pier to pick him up in person, and then arrange the best hospital and expert doctor for Zhai Xicheng to go there with Shadow.

After finishing all this, Nie Qingru straightened the fox fur on her body, put on velvet gloves, and walked out of the castle gracefully.

Get in the car and tell the driver: "Go to the Privy Council."

As Her Majesty the Empress of the hermit family, she will never allow to be slapped in the face one after another, otherwise, where will she put her face in the future.

So she has to discuss with the old guys in the Privy Council how to give Joe a resounding counterattack!

Nie Qingru is sure to convince the gang of the Privy Council.

Because the development of the matter to this point is no longer her business alone, but also concerns the face of the entire Hermit family.

This time she is bound to teach the junior an unforgettable lesson!

Qiao Nian was still waiting for news from Jian Jin and the others in Feng Yu's office.

When Jian Jin received a call, she was not surprised, and she was in a mood to comfort the lost one: "It's okay, I didn't catch it this time, just catch it next time."

"But QIAO... You managed to find out the whereabouts of this person. Let him escape this time, and it will not be so easy to catch next time!"
