

Madam's 3681

Chapter 3681 The hidden family has missed the best time

Old Xue heard that these heads were getting bigger, and looked up, the people of the Leonard family are still sitting here, their dispensable attitude has already explained their position...

So in fact, only he and Nie Qingru were discussing this matter in the huge council hall.

With his hands on his forehead, he had no choice but to stop: "Queen, we can't offend the two bosses from Continent F."

"What do you mean?" Nie Qingru was very displeased.

Mr. Xue couldn't control whether she was happy or not, he looked into her eyes and said seriously: "We also have a lot of cooperation with Continent F, and before that, Cage has expressed dissatisfaction with us because of the high seas. If this The next time we stop his ship... Cage is bound to tear himself apart from us."

"Are we still afraid..." Nie Qingru frowned.

Mr. Xue didn't wait for her to finish: "Empress! It's not a matter of being afraid or not. The hermit family has been passed down to this day, and we are not afraid of any forces. But you have to understand that we also need to cooperate with outside forces!"

"I know you don't care if you offend David, and I don't care either." He eased his tone: "Because I know that the person standing behind David is Qiao Nian, and we and Qiao Nian have reached a point of no return."

Xue Lao raised his voice again and emphasized: "But we have to be afraid of Cage... Most of our cooperation with Continent F is through this arms dealer, and we already have a rift with the other party. If we break up over this matter, we will lose too much. Even our Hermit family can't afford so much loss... So this matter was doomed from the moment the other party persuaded Cage to come forward to * the supplies!"

If David was the only boat today, he would agree with Nie Qingru's decision to block the boat with both hands.

But Qiao Nian chose to bring Cage in. This is not as simple as the conflict between the two of them, but also involves a third party.

The F continent boss is famous for his violent temper.

Before, they had an extremely unpleasant quarrel in the high seas, and the other party did not quarrel because of the affection of their hidden family.

But it would be hard to say if it happened again.

Xue Laodao: "Queen, you must put the overall situation first!"

"..." What he meant was to let her watch him being slapped in the face!

Nie Qingru's chest was heaving and unsteady, and she tried her best to restrain her emotions, but the cold aura of rage still leaked from the corners of her eyes and brows.

She suppressed Yunse, her voice hoarse: "Don't forget, this time is our revenge for betting on the reputation of the Yinshi family. If it doesn't work, I won't be the only one who will be ashamed, the entire Yinshi family will be ashamed together. This Once you decide to do this kind of thing, don't worry about it, worrying too much will only lead to failure!"

Old Xue wavered: "Queen, I need to think about it again."

Nie Qingru couldn't hide the disappointment in his eyes, he didn't say anything, and let Mr. Xue start to call other people to discuss whether to stop the ship.

The failure of the Hermit Family to respond immediately meant that the ship carrying chips and rare earths passed through the high seas and arrived at the agreed port smoothly.

David and Cage meet at the pier.

Both of them are big bosses in F continent, and they are neither friends nor enemies in private, so they greeted each other friendly this time.

On the Beijing side, Bo Jingxing brought people over to unload the goods and go to the Nine Institutes, and everything was proceeding in an orderly manner.

Bo Jingxing also immediately made a video call to Qiao Nian who was far away in Independence Island to inform her that the goods had arrived smoothly.

Independent Continent.

Chapter 3682 Received something

Qiao Nian was in the living room getting water when he received the call. He opened the refrigerator door, took a bottle of Evian from inside, walked to the sofa and sat down.

"...There has been no movement in Continent M so far."

"oh."

She responded, and immediately put the phone on the coffee table, unscrewed the cover, raised her head and took a sip of water, and said to Bao Jingxing, "I see."

Bo Jingxing looked at the girl's exquisite eyebrows, and said in a low voice against the night wind on the pier: "Qiao Nian, I apologize to you for what I said that night."

The girl's eyebrows and eyes were quite frivolous, but when she heard the man in the video whispering "I'm sorry", her eyes moved slightly, she slowly put down the water in her hand, and said casually: "What did you say that night?"

"I..."

"I didn't take it to heart, and you don't have to take it to heart."

Bo Jingxing instantly understood what she meant, a wry smile crossed his lips, he couldn't help shaking his head with a smile and said, "If you say that, I feel even more sorry."

Qiao Nian would scold him or show him face.

He felt better.

However, Qiao Nian was very magnanimous, and always tolerated the excessive words he said that night, which made him unable to let go.

Qiao Nian is very straightforward: "You don't have to think so much. We are just ordinary friends. It's normal for you to have your own concerns."

Bo Jingxing looked deeply at her, and apologized in an extremely gentlemanly way: "I'm sorry."

"..." Qiao Nian didn't respond this time.

She doesn't like to accept other people's apologies, especially Bao Jingxing's apology that insists on apologizing to her, which is actually quite boring.

She knew very well that she and Bao Jingxing were acquaintances who had met a few times at most, and they might not even be considered ordinary friends.

This time, when encountering the suspension of cooperation in State M, Bo Jingxing, as the person in charge of the Ninth Institute, approached her to ask her about countermeasures. In fact, there was nothing to apologize for.

If the person who asked her that night was Ye Fanchuan, she might feel a little uncomfortable.

But Bao Jingxing asked her, she really didn't feel offended.

People are distant and close.

She never felt it was wrong.

Bo Jingxing also saw the impatience and indifference suppressed by the girls in the video, so he didn't continue this topic, and instead said: "These two from F State..."

Qiao Nian loosened her brows: "You don't need to stay. I told David to leave after delivering the things."

Bo Jingxing breathed a sigh of relief: "Thank you."

"En." Qiao Nian responded this time, and it was an answer: "You don't need to thank me, it is calculated that I caused this conflict, and I should be responsible for it."

"Elder Ye talked to me about this. He said that this day will come sooner or later, and I thought about it for myself. What the old man said makes sense." Bao Jingxing smiled brightly, "So Miss Qiao, you don't have to take responsibility. Take care of yourself. You are still the youngest among us. I don't have as much pressure as you when I am your age. You don't have to shoulder so many things."

"OK."

Qiao Nian didn't explain his thoughts to him, but just nodded, looking quite talkative.

Bo Jingxing knew that she didn't take what he said to heart because she promised so soon, so she wasn't sad, so she found a topic and hung up the phone with a smile.

Qiao Nian hung up his phone and received a call from Jian Jin.

"Who are you on the phone for so long. I called you several times and you are still on the phone."

"a friend."

Qiao Nian does not go around in circles.

"Do you need something from me?"

Jian Jin remembered the business: "Didn't I say to help you find that person last time? I found something."

Chapter 3683 I found that person's name, Zhai Xicheng

Qiao Nian sat up straight, with a serious expression: "Say."

Jian Jin said: "I checked on the black market, and there really is a person called SEVEN. The time when this person appeared was half a year before and after the time you created the brand SEVEN, which means that half a year after you created this brand, someone used this as a pawn." Nicknames appear on the black market..."

Qiao Nian had thought early that the other party's name SEVEN was not a coincidence.

Didn't expect to have his eyes on her long ago.

Jian Jin continued: "He first appeared on the black market as a hacker, and he took several orders rejected by the Red League, and he completed it very well. At that time, he was well-known on the black market, but after he gradually became famous and was accepted by the Independent Continent He disappeared from the black market not long after the Hacking Alliance saw him as an olive branch...Because he appeared for a short time and was not well-known, no one paid special attention to this person, and no one picked up his background..."

"Apart from this?" Qiao Nian had an intuition that Jian Jin had found something.

Facts have proved that her sixth sense is still so strong!

Jian Jin smiled and said: "QIAO, you will make me feel very unfulfilled."

Jian Jin didn't hold back anymore: "In addition to this, I also found out by coincidence that this person's name is Zhai Xicheng."

Qiao Nian raised his eyebrows, a little interested: "You're sure."

She also checked SEVEN herself.

But what Jian Jin said was not found.

Jian Jin didn't expect to be questioned, so she was very sure: "Sure! I can't make a mistake. His name is Zhai Xicheng, it's absolutely true."

"How did you find out?" Qiao Nian grasped the key point.

"Ahem." Jian Jin laughed, "That's right, I found it by coincidence like that."

Qiao Nian didn't speak.

Jian Jin knew that she was not good at lying, so she simply admitted: "Well, I didn't find out. It was Big Brother Lu!"

"Lu Zhi saw that I was looking for this SEVEN on the black market, and threw me a piece of information. The name of this person and the hacker who took orders that the Red League did not accept on the black market were written on it... I don't know where he came from. These things he found... But it seems that he has been checking this person for a long time."

Jian Jin suspects that Lu Zhi may have been secretly investigating these materials since he knew that Qiao Nian wanted to investigate the cause of Jiqing's death.

It's just that he has an awkward personality, and he doesn't want to help QIAO explicitly.

"He should have other channels." Jian Jin thought about it and said, "But since he gave me this information, it means that everything in it is true."

Qiao Nian hummed, but couldn't tell what it felt like.

She didn't want to owe Lu Zhi a favor, but it seemed that she owed him again.

This feeling is really not good, but the information that Lu Zhi found is very important to her.

"By the way, QIAO, I heard about the chip. Why didn't you ask Tianchen for help this time? In fact, as long as you ask..." Jian Jin said hesitantly.

Qiao Nian interrupted: "Nie Qingru is watching you, I can't involve you in it."

"Phew, let's do it." Jian Jin let out a foul breath, and stopped talking about this topic: "Anyway, if you need help, remember to tell me, I don't want to get involved in big things, just open your mouth about small things."

Qiao Nian agreed.

Jian Jin seemed to be very busy, so she hung up the phone in a hurry after talking to her briefly.

Qiao Nian looked at the hung up phone, and then remembered the name Zhai Xicheng that Jian Jin told her, which happened to correspond to Nie Qingru's former boyfriend with the surname Zhai that Shang Feng Yu mentioned.

She seems to have grasped a corner of the truth, and is about to lift the curtain that has been covered for decades.

Chapter 3684 Met an acquaintance

In the following period of time, the battle between M State and Jing City became intense.

Nie Qingru made great efforts this time to teach Qiao Nian a lesson by suppressing Jingshi, and Jingshi was just too young and refused to bow his head.

The two sides are fighting back and forth in several business cooperation.

As a large economy, Continent M is backed by the hermit family, which is more competitive than the Beijing city that developed later.

Nie Qingru intentionally embarrassed the Beijing city, and frequently intercepted the cooperation negotiated by the Beijing city.

Nine times out of ten, Beijing suffers losses.

As the time goes.

M Zhou and Nie Qingru are suppressing more and more.

The end of November.

A cooperation project that the Beijing scientific research team had been discussing with Country C for three years was once again disturbed by Nie Qingru from behind. Jiang Zongjin was so angry that he didn't even eat dinner.

Jiang Li also heard about this from his family, so he called Qiao Nian backstage during the concert.

The girl at the other end of the video is wearing a homely black and white striped sweater and is getting up to charge her phone. When passing by the camera of the laptop, the V-neck pulls down a piece of white collarbone, lazily.

"etc."

"good."

Jiang Li blinked his eyes, realized that he was almost stunned, and immediately slapped his face to wake himself up.

He participated in a platter concert today.

Besides himself, there were many singers coming, and he was ranked last to sing three songs.

Originally, with Jiang Li's popularity, it was impossible to participate in this kind of platter-like concert. After all, the standard is too low. He has a lot of fans, so he can hold a tour by himself.

However, Jiang Li heard from his manager that 50% of the proceeds from the concert would be donated to children's charities, so he wanted to participate.

He's not in the dressing room at the moment, leaning against a corner in the corridor outside.

There are few people here.

Except for a few staff members who go to the bathroom to pass by, few people notice him here.

Unfortunately, someone still saw it.

It was still Tangning.

"Young Master Jiang?" Tangning was wearing a red evening gown with a graceful figure. Just passing by with the staff, she noticed Jiang Li who was videoing with someone in the corner of the corridor.

Out of politeness, she stopped to let the staff go first, and walked over to say hello to Jiang Li: "Why are you here alone?"

Jiang Li looked up and saw the person coming, remembered the identity of the familiar person, nodded and said, "You're here too? I'll call Niannian."

"Miss Qiao?" Tangning was surprised.

Jiang Li's gorgeous blue short hair is particularly dazzling, and he smiled: "Who else is it if it's not her."

"Speaking of which, I haven't seen Ms. Qiao for a long time. Now that we've met, let me say hello to Ms. Qiao." Tangning hesitated for a moment, and said cautiously.

She entered the entertainment industry this year.

With the status of the Tang family, Tangning didn't need to enter the entertainment industry to develop.

However, since the Tang family offended Qiao Nian two years ago, the family's momentum has been declining year by year, and the circle has always favored the high and trampled the low.

Tang Ning was also lucky, she was recognized by Zhang Yang, and was protected by Zhang Yang and entered the small circle in Beijing to avoid being bullied.

But this year Zhang Yang started to take over the business at home, so he doesn't have so much time to meddle in outside affairs.

Tangning encountered some troubles again, so she had to enter the entertainment industry to avoid the storm.

The entertainment industry is not so easy to mess with.

Tangning entered the entertainment industry without telling others about her family background, and she doesn't know much about her family background, so she is still an 18th grader.

Usually being suppressed by artists of the same company.

She came to the platter concert this time because the other party couldn't understand her, so she found the 'gold master' to act like a baby, and deliberately threw her here to humiliate.

Chapter 3685 Grandpa and your dad are afraid that you will think too much, let me comfort you

The other party's 'funder' was one of the directors of the company, so Tangning's manager dumped her here.

Jiang Li probably knows something about her, but he doesn't mind meddling.

Seeing that Tangning just came over to say hello, he nodded, "Okay. Wait a minute, she's going to charge her phone."

Jiang Li just finished speaking.

The girl at the other end of the video has turned back, pulled out the chair, and Bafengfufu is leaning on the back of the chair, with her elbows resting on the back of the chair, looking very lazy.

"Call me what's up?"

"I'm fine and can't call you?"

Jiang Li got angry.

The man who changed hands was still a gentleman. He pointed the camera at Tang Ning who was embarrassed, and said to her, "I met Tang Ning."

Tangning saw Qiao Nian looking at her from the other end of the video, straightened her back nervously, and said politely, "Miss Qiao, long time no see."

Qiao Nian squinted her eyes and stared at her face for a while, remembering, then nodded casually: "Long time no see."

"I still have a concert, so I won't bother you and Young Master Jiang." Tangning is a person who accepts as soon as she sees it, and out of respect for Qiao Nian, she said that she would say hello before leaving, not deliberately. Ingratiate yourself.

She greeted Qiao Nian and signaled Jiang Li to leave her alone.

Jiang Li also moved the video camera to his side, watched as Tangning lowered his voice and mouthed to say that he would take a step first.

He stared at Tang Ning's back as she lifted her skirt and left. Before Tang Ning disappeared around the corner, he inadvertently saw that the cross suspenders she was wearing seemed to be disconnected from the corner of her eye.

Jiang Li frowned subconsciously, not sure if he was dazzled.

But the other party had already disappeared around the corner, and he didn't have time to see it clearly.

"Why are you looking for me?" Qiao Nian was talking to him at this moment.

Jiang Li forced himself to regain his sanity: "Oh, I'm asking you if you know that M State has stolen a project that Uncle has been working with for three years."

The girl pondered for half a second: "I heard about it."

Jiang Li sighed: "Grandpa asked me to tell you not to worry about it, and uncle also asked me to enlighten you. Both of them are not easy to speak, but they think it is easy for me to speak. How can I, a big man, comfort others? They I don't blame you, and don't take it on yourself, don't have psychological pressure. You just know what it means."

Qiao Nian frowned, and smiled for a while: "Okay, I see."

"I brought the words here." Jiang Li stared at her face, for fear that she would regret it: "Don't think about it, you should eat and sleep. When you come back, you'd better be active, lest the old man beat me and think I didn't Guide you well."

"It can't be beaten to death." Qiao Nian rarely joked with him.

Jiang Li glared at her.

But Qiao Nian who saw the video didn't seem to be affected by this incident, he finally let go of his suspenseful heart, recalled the casual glance just now, frowned and said, "I won't tell you for now."

Qiao Nian was not good at chatting, so he said 'OK'.

Jiang Li hung up the video and went back to the dressing room to find people who didn't see Tangning. He happened to bump into his manager and grabbed his arm casually.

"Where's Tangning?"

"Brother Li?"

"Did you see her?" Jiang Li still remembered the tie on the back of Tangning's dress, with a serious expression on his face.

His manager didn't know why Jiang Li paid attention to the 18th line in a circle, so he said after thinking about it: "It's almost time for her to play."

Chapter 3686 Master Wang directly blew up the topic

Just at this time, the voice of the host announced the curtain came from the background.

"...Let's invite the new generation of actress Miss Tangning to play!"

Jiang Li's eyebrows jumped, he let go of the manager's arm, and walked quickly to the lifting platform.

"Brother Li, where are you going?"

"Wait for me."

The agent chased after him.

Jiang Li walked quickly, just in time for Tangning to take the stage. His distance was enough to clearly see the tricks in Tangning's dress behind her.

He has been in the entertainment industry for a long time, even if few people dare to provoke him, he has seen and heard a lot of tricks in the industry.

In the past, he didn't care about other people's business, because the rules in this circle were like this, and he himself was just playing tricks.

But this time he couldn't pretend he didn't see it.

Because Tangning and Qiao Nian knew each other.

Another Tangning is a young woman, if the other party succeeds in this trick, it means ruining a girl's reputation.

Jiang Li pushed past the double obstruction of his manager and staff after only a brief consideration, and stepped onto the stage, amidst the brilliant lights and music on the stage.

Tangning held the microphone and turned to look at him in astonishment.

Jiang Li took off his coat expressionlessly and put it on her body. Amid the exclamation from the audience and the camera, he supported Tangning's shoulder and said in a low voice, "Hold on to my coat. There is something wrong with your skirt."

Tangning was stunned for a moment. She noticed that the straps on her shoulders were slipping down while being pulled by Jiang Li. She reacted without showing off. She calmly grabbed the coat Jiang Li put on her and followed Jiang Li step by step to leave the stage and Spotlight Range...

Qiao Nian only found out about the big commotion Jiang Li had made in the afternoon.

Gu San told her that the trending search has exploded.

Jiangli Tangning's name was the most searched on the top, and many people began to pick out Jiangli's background, including Jiang Zongnan and Jiang Zongjin.

Jiang Zongnan is fine.

Jiang Zongjin was discussed again because of this entertainment gossip, and someone found out the news that the Tsingda University scientific research team failed to cooperate with country c, which seriously affected his daily life.

Qiao Nian frowned when she heard this, she didn't care about Jiang Li's scandal, the main thing was not to let it implicate Jiang Zongjin.

Before she had time to clean up the messy trending news on the Internet, she opened Weibo and found that all the hot searches about Jiang Zongjin had been removed, and the topic squares discussing Jiang Zongjin had also been bombed.

The means are tough.

A firm attitude.

She knew who did it without even thinking about it.

Qiao Nian came down from the second floor and met someone who happened to come out of the room. When they met, she raised her eyebrows and went straight to the point: "You made the trending searches on Weibo?"

Ye Wangchuan raised his eyebrows in response: "Shouldn't it be bombed?"

Qiao Nian couldn't help but hooked his lips into a smile, and gave him a thumbs up: "Well fried."

Ye Wangchuan walked to the refrigerator and brought her a bottle of water and was about to hand it over, then he retracted his hand as if remembering something, his eyelashes drooped slightly, his pupils showed the girl's eye-catching face, and his voice was charming: "I'll give it to you." Would you like some tea or coffee?"

Qiao Nian narrowed his eyes and stared at the water in his hand, not knowing why: "Huh?"

Didn't he take a bottle of water.

Why does it have to be so troublesome?

Ye Wangchuan opened the refrigerator door and put it back, turned around and said, "It's almost time for your aunt, you will have a stomachache if you drink it cold."

Qiao Nian: "..."

She remembered the thing about preparing a drawer of sanitary napkins for her in the round city Ye Wangchuan.

She is used to being controlled now, but she didn't rebel much. She didn't drink if she didn't drink, and walked to the sofa with her legs up: "Warm water. I don't want to drink tea and coffee."

Chapter 3687 The more anxious she is, the more difficult the situation is

"Okay." Ye Wangchuan was really spoiled by her, and went to get a cup to fetch hot water for her without saying a word.

I don't feel how condescending my actions are at all.

Ye Shao in Beijing City was taken care of by others since he was a child, and he rarely needs to do things by himself in life.

Even if Ye Wangchuan is not a squeamish person, he has stayed in Continent F and Continent M, but as long as he is free, he really does not need to do it himself in life.

But ever since he picked up Qiao Nian at the roundabout, he often took care of Qiao Nian, as if it was a matter of course, he did so naturally.

Ye Wangchuan quickly took a cup of hot water and handed it to the girl, not forgetting to remind: "It's a little hot, drink it later."

"En." Qiao Nian first held the cup in her hand, and the warmth came from her fingertips. She relaxed and raised her eyebrows to look at him: "Why don't you ask me about the research project?"

"Nothing to ask."

Ye Wangchuan looked at the girl's relaxed shoulders and neck, sat down next to her, picked up an apple and peeled it, the simple things he did were extremely pleasing to the eye.

"She is also anxious and will look for trouble more and more regardless of the consequences. The more she does this, the greater the pressure within the hidden family..."

Ye Wangchuan handed the peeled apple to her, with a straight nose and thin lips, as if there were small hooks in his eyes: "Let's eat some fruit first."

"..." Qiao Nian was fed a lot of fruit by him recently, and he even had a headache when he saw the fruit, but Ye Wangchuan insisted on giving her vitamin supplements, so he could only take it unwillingly.

She took a bite of the apple to vent her anger, and her brows and eyes relaxed, not so sharp and perverse, but more warm and peaceful.

Ye Wangchuan saw that she was obedient, with clear eyebrows and eyes, so he said calmly: "The old man told me about this. He also meant the same thing."

"Nie Qingru keeps fighting against the capital city to grab these projects... The more she grabs, the bigger the stall will be. In fact, it is herself and the hidden family who are the ones who will finally come back."

He is like a stream of melting ice, with a calm and proud voice, as if everything is under his control, and he always places himself between heaven and earth to overlook the overall situation.

"The Hidden Family is certainly powerful and involves all kinds of business. But after all, they are not a whole, but a group of interests gathered together for the benefit. Nie Qingru's grabbing these businesses will inevitably require the people below to digest... But the people below her They have their own projects and plans, so their plans are disrupted."

"It's fine if the number is small, but she's too impatient and eager for quick success and wants to teach you a lesson, so she's not patient enough. There must be a lot of opposition within the Hermit Family, at least not as supportive of her suppression of Beijing at the beginning. This time she swallowed the chip project again... The Leonard family should be the first to find her."

The Leonard family is mainly involved in the chip business.

Nie Qingru severely suppressed Beijing City in terms of chips this time, and made the Leonard family back down for her plan.

The Leonard family lost a lot in terms of price and raw materials, and it also disrupted the original plan of the Leonard family.

The other small families did not dare to confront Nie Qingru, so they could only swallow their resentment.

As one of the three giants of the Privy Council, the Leonard family is also backed by radicals, which is not so easy to dismiss.

Lei Kai got angry with Qiao Nian and told her about the change in the attitude of several elders in the family towards Nie Qingru.

She just didn't expect Ye Wangchuan to know the tricks in it.

Chapter 3688 The Leonard family really came to the door

In fact, Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan's guess was very accurate.

In the afternoon, the Leonard family received a notification that Nie Qingru intercepted the cooperation between the Beijing scientific research team and country c at a low price, and put this project on their heads. The elders of the several families could no longer sit still after discussing, and formed a team and went straight to the Privy Council to find Nie Qingru for an explanation.

"Empress, why are we taking over this project again? If I remember correctly, we took over a similar project not long ago."

"Empress, we also have our own signed cooperation list to do. Every time you make decisions for us without notice, it will make us very embarrassed!"

"You should replace this project this time. The number of projects in our hands is already overloaded, and we can't take on more..."

Lei Kai is one of the speakers introduced by the Leonard family to arrange in the Privy Council.

It's just that he is still young and can speak on behalf of the family in the Privy Council.

In the current situation where all the elders in the family are present, he can only stand aside and act as the background board.

So Lei Kai was very clear about his position from the moment he came in, and he made room for several family elders to negotiate with Nie Qingru.

These people are about the same age as Nie Qingru, and some of them are older than Nie Qingru...Suddenly five or six people surrounded Nie Qingru and talked nonstop emotionally, even Nie Qingru himself could not resist.

She probably figured out the purpose of the few people who rushed in, and made a 'pause' gesture.

The room fell silent.

She sat on a leather swivel chair, supported her forehead with her hands, and stared at the elders of the Leonard family present with her sharp eyes and eagle eyes: "This is for collective honor!"

A few old lives are obviously not easy to fool people.

After she spoke, several people quickly exchanged glances and pushed one of them out to negotiate with her.

The old man who stood up had gray hair, three-dimensional and strong facial features, and responded neither humble nor overbearing: "But empress, we have taken on enough responsibilities. This time you did not inform us in advance, and now our foundry has reached its maximum capacity! Even if you kill us, we will not be able to complete the project you have given us. If you insist on us accepting the order from country C, we will have to return Feiteng's order."

Nie Qingru suddenly took his hand away, his expression changed slightly.

Everyone in the Hermit family is aware of Fei Teng's relationship with Smith Bank.

It can be said that behind Feiteng is the capital injection from Smith Bank, but Nie Qingru wisely chose to be the president personally.

In fact, she is the boss behind the internationally famous Internet company.

Feiteng made its fortune through the Internet.

High-tech industries such as computers and mobile phones.

Their demand for chips is much greater than that of the general industry.

These old things are bringing Fei Teng out at this time, clearly wanting to threaten themselves!

But Nie Qingru had to face up to this problem: "...Let me think about it again."

"Empress, take your time to think about it. We are not in a hurry. It's not that we don't want to work for the Hermit Family, but we just want to tell you about our actual difficulties." The old man who spoke was respectful.

Nie Qingru gave him a cold look, his face was covered with a layer of frost, but he didn't say much: "I know. You go out first."

"Okay, Empress, rest, we won't bother you anymore."

Several people achieved today's goal and did not stay. They called Lei Kai and went out from Nie Qingru's lounge.

Chapter 3689 Zhai Xicheng Appeared

Wait out of the lounge.

It took Leonard a few older generations to hold back the deliberate contempt on his face, and said to Lei Kai: "We will take action to suppress Fei Teng's delivery date. If the Queen comes to you from the Privy Council, you know what to do?"

Lei Kai nodded: "I understand."

The old man was very pleased: "That's good."

They met again to discuss specific countermeasures, and left Lei Kai alone at the gate of the Privy Council so that they would not be sent away.

Lei Kai watched their vehicles drift away, then turned around and walked into the Privy Council at a leisurely pace. After thinking about it, he sent a message to Qiao Nian who was far away in Independence Island.

He didn't reveal too much information about the hidden family, but just vaguely conveyed to the girls the news that they were unwilling to accept the order from country c.

This was Qiao Nian's reward for finding out the real culprit who killed the patriarch for him.

The patriarch is not a good person, but he raised him from a young age, making him respect and adore him like a father.

He had promised in front of that person that if she found out the real culprit who killed the patriarch, he would owe her a favor and he would definitely repay her in the future.

Just revealing news that does not affect the overall situation, it is not difficult for him, and it will not harm the interests of the family.

Lei Kai is very happy to do this.

Because he also can't understand the aloof queen.

After all, if it weren't for the instigation of the queen, the patriarch would not have died in Independence Continent, and almost had no bones left.

He wanted to see the Queen fall from a height.

After sending the message, Lei Kai deleted the text message, and then walked into the majestic arch of the Privy Council without looking back.

Not long after Nie Qingru left in the Leonard family, Shadow led a young man knocking on the door while avoiding eyeliner.

"Come in."

"Squeak."

The door opened.

Shadow led the people in, walked up to Nie Qingru's square desk, put his hands crossed, and called out respectfully: "Your Majesty, Young Master Zhai is here."

Nie Qingru stopped writing, only then did he notice that there was a person behind him.

The man was 1.89 meters tall and tall, and he was covered in a hoodie to cover most of his face. Only the green stubble could be seen from his chin.

"Auntie."

Most of his eyes were covered by the hanging bangs, but he could tell that those eyes were beautifully shaped, and his smile must be bright and bright.

Nie Qingru's lingering hostility suddenly dissipated when he said "Auntie", and even the usual strong edges and corners were softened by a few inches.

"You came."

She even got up and walked over, patting the young man's arm with extra concern: "Why don't you stay at home and rest for a few more days?"

"My body has recovered, please ask Uncle Ning to bring me out to find you." The young man's eyes fell on her hand unconsciously, and a trace of disgust flashed in his eyes, but it was well hidden and fleeting.

When he faced Nie Qingru, his voice was a little clear.

It doesn't match his appearance at all.

But Nie Qingru liked this very much: "If you want to see me, just ask someone to tell me. I can go to your residence to find you."

Zhai Xicheng didn't answer, but changed the topic without any trace: "Auntie, I heard that people from the Leonard family have come to look for you?"

He walked to the side while speaking, avoiding Nie Qingru's touch on his arm in a disguised form.

It's just that he did these things very naturally, as if they were just inadvertent actions, not because he deliberately wanted to avoid Nie Qingru.

Even Nie Qingru didn't notice anything wrong with his behavior.

Chapter 3690 If it was Zhai Xicheng

Only the shadow who had been standing by and watching could see Zhai Xicheng's small movements, pursed his lower lip, then looked at Nie Qingru who was in high spirits, lowered his eyes to look at his toes and did not speak.

Nie Qingru was in a very good mood: "They just left."

Zhai Xicheng found a place to sit down, and looked up: "Oh? They don't want to take the order from country C?"

"You know?" Nie Qingru asked casually, and immediately did not hide anything from him: "They use Feiteng to talk about the matter, and they don't want to accept the list from country C."

Zhai Xicheng raised his lips and said with a smile: "Then... what is Auntie going to do?"

Nie Qing squinted her eyes in disbelief, as if she was still thinking: "I'll think about it later."

The Leonard family is not active. She needs to think of a way to do both. It is best to persuade the Leonard family to actively cooperate with her.

She is unwilling to give up the order from country c. Only in this way can Jing Shi and Qiao Nian be dealt a strong blow.

She has invested a lot of money and energy and will never allow this plan to fail.

Zhai Xicheng seemed to hold her mind: "Auntie, why don't you leave this matter to me? I might be able to find a solution."

"You?" Nie Qingru was silent for a moment, looked him up and down, but didn't immediately agree.

She is a woman who is ambitious, capable and capable enough to be cruel and ruthless.

So she doesn't trust others easily.

But the person in front of her had a pair of bright eyes and a clear enough voice to smile like that person, so she hesitated.

"What can you do?"

Zhai Xicheng knew that she would give him a chance: "I haven't thought about it yet."

He called again: "Auntie...you don't believe I can do well?"

Nie Qingru can be ruthless to anyone, but her heart will always be shaken when she meets those eyes. After just looking at each other for a few seconds, she softened her heart: "Be careful. The Leonard family is not that active, so tell me before you do anything."

"Okay." Zhai Xicheng quickly agreed.

Nie Qingru frowned, looked at him again, and pursed her lips.

Zhai Xicheng came here because he wanted to take the right to dispose of the Leonard family from her. Now that he had achieved his goal, he didn't want to stay here any longer. After exchanging pleasantries with Nie Qingru patiently, he found a doctor. The reason for coming to check him up left first.

Shadow sends him out and comes back.

Nie Qingru has returned to her noble appearance which is difficult to get close to at ordinary times.

"Queen." Shadow walked over, and stopped shouting after he wanted to speak.

"Huh?" The woman sitting on the chair carved from red nanmu still has a certain style even if she is not confused, she lightly raised her eyelids and pretended to be majestic.

She was still reading a document in her hand, her eyes were like sharp knives falling on the shadow and scratching: "I know what you want to say to me. You can see it, but I can't see it."

Shadow is dumb: "Then you..."

Nie Qingru's expression could not tell the tiredness: "He called me big aunt."

Shadow was silent for a moment, thinking of another person.

Master Qi Xing also held his hand with bright eyes and often asked him why the 'godmother' hasn't come to see him, whether he has not behaved well recently, etc.

However, what Young Master Qixing didn't know until his death was that even though the Empress loved him somewhat, she once thought of giving him her seat.

But these nurturing and love are nothing in front of another person, if the empress was forced to choose status and this young master Zhai.

Will the empress sacrifice young master Zhai without hesitation?
