

Madam's 3701

Chapter 3701 As you can see, I am a doctor

"Joe, Miss Qiao." Gu San's mouth was watered, and he didn't dare to look at her, so he stood still and stopped: "Do you want to change clothes?"

Qiao Nian took a sip of water to moisturize his throat, and finally his throat was not so thirsty and uncomfortable. Hearing this, he turned around and twisted the cap of the bottle with his beautiful hands to look at him: "What do you need from me?"

Qiao Nian noticed that he brought someone with him.

is a woman.

Twenty-seven or eight years old, wearing gold-rimmed glasses, with a fair complexion, behind Gu San, he seemed a little cautious and curious, and he was still holding a medicine box in his hand.

doctor?

Qiao Nian raised his eyebrows, his eyes were surprised, he walked over and put the water on the table: "He asked you to come?"

When she said this, her voice dropped an inch, and she was hoarse and pleasant to hear.

The female doctor did not expect that the patient she wanted to see was a young girl, and she was so beautiful. She looked at Qiao Nian's beautiful eyebrows and eyes under the light, and she felt good. She raised her smiling face and said to the girl, "Hi, Young Master Ye asked me to come."

Qiao Nian's dark eyes fell on her like stars.

The female doctor is a person who has seen big scenes, with an extremely cheerful and enthusiastic personality. She raised the medicine box in Qiao Nian's hand: "As you can see, I am a doctor."

"Oh." Qiao Nian responded.

The female doctor walked towards her familiarly, put the medicine box on the table and opened it: "You come here first, I will check it for you."

She probably just remembered that it seemed too natural, covered her eyes again, and explained to Qiao Nian with a little embarrassment: "I didn't hear anything about your discomfort on the way here, so I brought the inspection equipment along with you." Well, anyway, you are fine now, I will check for you. No money~"

Gu San heard her nonsense, rubbed his face, and quickly said to Qiao Nian: "Hua Ci is Yaomen's personal doctor, and the old man usually asks her to see your body. She doesn't know your identity, so... Miss Qiao, don't be so fussy with her."

What he said was relatively simple.

In fact, the woman who came with him is strictly the adopted daughter of the Ye family, the daughter of Ye Lan's friend.

Ye Lan's friend died early, leaving behind a daughter living abroad. Ye Lan wanted to bring Huaci back at first, but the ten-year-old girl with memories was very resistant to leaving home to live in a strange place.

Out of love for her friend, Ye Lan hired a housekeeper to stay abroad to take care of her life, and also fully support her education and other expenses.

Ye's family is rich, and Huaci also strives for success.

At the age of 16, he was admitted to a first-class foreign university, and then continued his studies to study for a master's degree and a doctorate in medicine. He was also recruited by a top foreign medical team when he received his degree certificate last year. He is committed to medical research and overcoming intractable diseases. Count a genius.

Of course, because of her relationship with Ye Lan, she usually helps the Ye family with what she can.

For example, this time she happened to follow the team to Independence Island to find the old Zhong from the Pharmacy Association, and she rushed over without receiving a call from Ye Wangchuan.

Huaci herself did not expect to see Qiao Nian's young oriental face in Independent Island. Even though she is also of Chinese origin, when she was examining Qiao Nian, she couldn't help but look at the girl's overly delicate eyebrows and eyes, and at the same time dismantled Qiao Nian. Gauze, and said in a surprised tone: "I didn't expect the patient to be a young girl like you. I think you should still be studying? Why would you come to such a place?"

Chapter 3702 Sister Nian: What a coincidence, I am also a doctor

Once Qiao Nian knew that she was the person called by Ye Wangchuan, he was quite cooperative with her, and sat there and let her remove the gauze for herself: "Which kind of place?"

Hua Ci didn't hear the sloppiness in her tone. He opened the first roll of gauze and saw the wound on Qiao Nian's elbow and wrist, and took a breath: "It's just Independent Island. Outsiders are generally not allowed here, and Wang Chuan will bring you here." Right? He is too irresponsible, why leave you here alone and run back by yourself. "

In her subconscious mind, independent continents and illegal areas where there is no legal system are very dangerous. A delicate girl like Qiao Nian should never set foot here.

Hearing this, Qiao Nian put his other uninjured hand on the back of the chair, his black eyelashes drooping: "Oh."

Hua Ci looked up at her, always felt that the girl in front of her was too calm, and felt a strange feeling in her heart, but she didn't say anything, and speeded up to re-bandage Qiao Nian.

"You bear it, it will hurt a little."

She treated Qiao Nian like a little girl who didn't know much about the world, and she didn't forget to teach while taking the medicine: "It's not safe here, I'll tell him back and let him arrange a plane to take you back first."

Qiao Nian's eyes flickered, and he glanced at her again. I don't know what came to mind, so I asked inexplicably, "Are you familiar with him?"

Hua Ci bandaged her beautifully, raised his head, and smiled in his eyes: "Of course. He is my brother."

"Oh." Qiao Nian raised her lips and smiled.

I know it well.

Sibling love.

It happened that Gu San went out to answer the phone and came back, so he handed his mobile phone to Qiao Nian when he came back: "Miss Qiao, Master Wang is on the phone."

Qiao Nian was very cold: "No answer."

Gu San was taken aback: "Huh?"

He almost blurted out asking why.

Fortunately, I held back.

He put the phone back to his ear again, and coughed dryly to cover up his embarrassment: "Then what... my lord, Miss Qiao is still bandaging and can't answer the phone."

"How is she doing?"

Actually, just as he handed the mobile phone to Qiao Nian, Ye Wangchuan had already heard the * the other end of the mobile phone resolutely refuse.

He is used to being rejected, so he asked gently: "Are you injured? Seriously?"

Gu San looked at Qiao Nian's bandaged arm again, and thought for a while: "Miss Qiao has a little scratch, but it's not serious. Miss Hua is already dealing with it."

At this time, Hua Ci chased away people.

"Okay, I want to see her back and other places, you go out first." She pointed in the direction of the door, signaling the man to avoid it.

"Okay." Gu San touched his nose and was about to go out.

Qiao Nian pulled up the sleeve of the bathrobe at this moment, and rejected Hua Ci's kindness: "No need, I have already dealt with it briefly. Just give me an anti-inflammatory drug."

Huaci immediately frowned: "How can I do that. It's better for me to help you. I'm a doctor."

Qiao Nian's brows and eyes were dry, and she looked at her with dark eyes, and her voice could not hear the emotion: "I am also a doctor."

"You?" Hua Ci looked her up and down, obviously not believing what kind of doctor Qiao Nian could be at his age.

Before she had time to continue, Gu San finally realized that Qiao Nian had run out of patience, so he quickly grabbed Hua Ci to stop her: "Okay, let's go out first."

"Uh, didn't you ask me to come and treat her? The wound hasn't been treated yet..." Hua Ci disagreed.

However, Gu San was so strong that he had already pushed and pulled her out.

After he pulled Hua Ci out, he hurried in to pack the medicine box that Hua Ci left behind.

Chapter 3703 She sued me behind my back?

He was very obedient, and he didn't forget to look at Qiao Nian's face before taking the good things out: "Miss Qiao, I'll bring you the medicine later."

"kindness."

Qiao Nian doesn't like to blame others, and she doesn't like the feeling of being out of control, but she is really not in a happy mood at the moment.

Before Gu San went out to close the door, she said, "Let him deal with this kind of thing himself next time."

Gu San's heart trembled, and he screamed inwardly, but he still dutifully explained to Qiao Nian: "Master Wang doesn't know. He is usually quite slow in this regard, and he is also worried about you, afraid that you will get hurt and won't say anything... Zhong The old man is taking care of Emperor Ji in the hospital, and it happens that Miss Hua is a woman here, so Master Wang..."

Master Wang grew up like a proud son of heaven.

It can be said that since kindergarten, there has been no lack of all kinds of admiring eyes in life.

He grew up in this environment, and he has long been immune to the love of others. Unless the person he likes, as long as he doesn't run up to him and speak directly to other people, it will be difficult for him to pay attention to what others are thinking, because there is no need and so much energy to understand.

Especially Huaci is Ye Lan's adopted daughter, so she never sees Ye Wangchuan once a year.

Hua Ci herself did not show any act of admiration in front of Wang Ye. According to what she expressed, she simply regarded Ye Wangchuan as her younger brother.

Sometimes I would open my mouth and yell a few words.

Master Wang looked at the face of the eldest lady, and didn't bother to care about her. When she grew up abroad, she had a more enthusiastic personality.

Gu San also realized later that Hua Ci might be interested in Wang Ye.

But this Master Wang didn't pay attention to it himself. Of course, he didn't need to bring an unimportant person in front of Master Wang.

He really didn't expect Qiao Nian to see Hua Ci's thoughts at a glance.

Gu San panicked: "Miss Qiao..."

Qiao Nian hadn't had a good rest for a few days, and when Hua Ci kept nagging in her ear, she couldn't hold back her temper.

"I know."

"Miss Qiao, are you really not angry? I..."

Gu San was still peeking at her expression.

Qiao Niangang's temper tantrum has passed, but he is tired and drowsy: "Give me some anti-inflammatory medicine later."

"good."

Gu San saw the fatigue in her eyes, and hurriedly said: "Then Miss Qiao, go to bed early."

He gently closed the door.

It was only then that I reached the stairs, and when I saw Hua Ci who was still a little angry standing at the stairs, my brain hurt.

"Miss Hua, what did you say to Miss Qiao?"

He went out to answer the phone for a while, could it be that Huaci said something at that time?

Hua Ci was stunned for a moment, and immediately looked over with wide eyes, not very happy: "What do you mean? What did I say? Did she tell you that I said her?"

She herself liked Qiao Nian quite a lot, and at first glance, she felt that this girl had a dashing spirit. Why are you still complaining behind your back?

What's more, she didn't say anything, she just said that Independent Continent is not safe, and she kindly planned to ask Wang Chuan to send her back to Beijing... Is this also wrong? !

Hua Ci grew up abroad, with a straightforward personality, she immediately went to find Qiao Nian: "I'll ask her."

"Stop." Gu San grabbed her arm, not allowing her to go, and said a little unhappy: "Miss Hua, please don't cause trouble for me. Master Wang asked you to come over and help Miss Qiao see the injury, Since Miss Qiao doesn't need it, I'll take you back to the hotel first."

As he spoke, he dragged Hua Ci down the stairs with a very tough and resolute attitude.

Chapter 3704 Have you met Master Zhong?

Hua Ci was panicked, her brows were furrowed and she still didn't understand what was wrong with her. She seemed to be very enthusiastic throughout the whole process and didn't say anything. What does the other party mean by doing this, embarrassing her, playing her on purpose?

Hua Ci has replaced Qiao Nian as the kind of little girl in Beijing who likes to play tricks, and she feels more and more dissatisfied.

However, Gu San didn't give her the chance to go to Qiao Nian to question her face to face. He had already stuffed her into the car and sent her back to her residence by force.

Hua Ci lives with the medical organization, in a decent hotel in Independence Island.

Gu San sent her to the hotel entrance without getting off the car: "Miss Hua, I won't send you up."

Hua Ci bit her lip, silently unfastened her seat belt and opened the door to get off, then stood by the door and explained angrily, "I didn't bully her!"

"I know." Gu San looked at her in surprise, not knowing where she got the confidence to bully Ms. Qiao, so she responded in a face-saving way: "Miss Hua, I can't stop the car for too long, you can go up."

Hua Ci slammed the car door shut with a sigh of relief in his chest, and walked back to the hotel on high heels.

Gu San watched her enter the elevator, then stepped on the gas pedal with confidence, turned the car around and left.

Hua Ci returned to the suite she lived in the hotel, put the medicine box on the table and knocked heavily, causing a blond female colleague who lived with her to look at her in surprise.

"What's wrong with you?"

"without."

"Didn't you go to see a patient? How is that patient? Is the condition serious?" Her colleague asked curiously.

Hua Ci's face became more and more embarrassed, and she didn't know how to describe how Qiao Nian made her feel. She shook her hair and answered irrelevantly: "What kind of mentality do you think the little girls are nowadays? Why do they like to play tricks?"

"You're young." The blond female colleague held a water glass and smiled calmly: "Little girls who have never seen anything in the world are like that."

Hua Ci frowned. Is that so?

In her mind, the image of the girl holding back her strength, unable to hide her inner self, sitting on a chair and obediently cooperating with her to change her dressing appeared in her mind.

Huaci couldn't connect a person with that kind of temperament with a little girl who likes to complain behind her back.

The other party did just that!

Her blond female colleague approached her: "What's wrong with you? Why is your face so ugly? The patient you met was difficult?"

"...I don't know, forget it." Hua Ci forced a smile.

Her female colleague raised her eyebrows and looked very proud: "Then you don't care about it! We are not doctors who specialize in treating patients. It is a blessing for her to let you see a doctor in several lifetimes. She doesn't cherish it herself, but you still feel sorry for her." ?"

Hua Ci remained silent and did not refute.

As a top international medical organization, they are of course different from doctors in general hospitals, and their social status is different.

Hua Ci rubbed his face and walked back, still upset: "I just can't figure it out."

"Don't think about it if you can't figure it out." The female colleague grabbed her shoulders and said to her excitedly: "I followed the organization to the hospital to see Master Zhong today!"

Hua Ci's eyes lit up: "Have you seen it?"

"Master Zhong was busy treating a patient with a very special status, so he took time to see us and left." The female colleague said sadly.

But in a blink of an eye, I became excited: "I heard from the people in the organization that Master Zhong promised to have dinner with us tomorrow night and talk about the research project on medicine. Are you going?"

Chapter 3705 She is the next generation hostess of our Ye family

Hua Ci finally heard something happy: "Of course I'm going."

The female colleague bumped her with an elbow: "Are you happy? Are you happy? So I said why are you entangled with a patient. We have given face to see her in this capacity. You are still angry for her and lowered your own grade!" "

Huaci didn't want to refute anymore this time.

She acquiesced to what her colleague said.

Just at this time, the phone in her bag vibrated.

The female colleague tilted her head and saw it: "Someone is calling you."

Hua Ci thanked her, then bent over to open the bag and took out the phone, looked down at Ye Lan's phone, frowned, talked to the female colleague, and went back to the room to answer the phone.

"Hello, Aunt Ye."

"I heard you went to Independence Island? How is it? Are you still used to it?" Ye Lan cared as always, just out of the care of the elders, not very close.

Hua Ci smiled and walked to the balcony: "I came with the organization, it's okay. You should also pay attention to your health, and I will go to Beijing to see you when I am free."

"Okay." Ye Lan replied, ready to hang up.

Hua Ci hesitated for a moment, then opened his mouth and asked, "Aunt Ye, do you know that there is a very young girl beside Wang Chuan?"

"Who are you talking about?" Ye Lan reacted a little before realizing who she was referring to by the 'young girl'.

Immediately, the cold brows and eyes softened: "Oh, you said Nian Nian. I know, what's wrong?"

Hua Ci didn't understand why she had such an attitude, and asked very puzzled, "You know she came to Independent Island?"

Ye Lan glanced at her, and said without knowing it: "I know, what happens after she is in Independent Island?"

Hua Ci couldn't help raising her voice: "Independence Island is different from other places. It's very unsafe here, and there are everyone. It's dangerous for a little girl like her to come here... Wang Chuan shouldn't have brought her here, you should arrange it quickly. Send her back."

Ye Lan kept her expression relaxed on the other end of the phone, leaning on the leather chair in the office more relaxedly, until she heard Hua Ci talking about Qiao Nian on the phone, the warmth on her face gradually cooled down, and she used a kind of gentle But a solemn voice interrupted Hua Ci's long speech: "Hua Ci, this is Wang Chuan's own business, and I have no right to intervene. Do you understand?"

Hua Ci was expressing her disapproval fiercely, but when she heard this, it seemed as if someone had slapped her across the face, and her fair face flushed red.

She clenched the phone tightly, extremely embarrassed: "I... I'm sorry, Aunt Ye."

Ye Lan still gave her face: "Your mother entrusted you to me, and I have always treated you as my half daughter to teach, but you have to understand what Wang Chuan is going to do. In Ye's house, except for the old man, even I can't say it." He. After all, you and Wang Chuan are not related by blood, and he is not your real brother. You can just joke with him. He will not embarrass you for my sake. But it does not mean that he likes to be meddled Personal matters, he has a bad temper, and sometimes I can't hold him down."

Ye Lan just didn't say clearly 'you crossed the line'.

Hua Ci, however, could understand what she was saying. After realizing what Ye Lan meant, her mind went blank, and she was so embarrassed that she wanted to find a crack in the ground: "Yes, I'm sorry."

Ye Lan probably heard something, and reminded her in an unclear way: "Nian Nian is someone who even the old man likes, and I like it too. She will be the hostess of our Ye family's next generation in the future. She is younger than You are young, let her go."

Chapter 3706 Whirlwind face

Hua Ci's face lost all color, and she didn't even notice that her nails were stuck in her flesh: "I... got it."

Ye Lan pretended nothing happened and cared about her, then hung up the phone.

Hua Ci mechanically took the phone away from his ear, and slid on the sofa, unable to calm down for a long time.

The girl's eye-catching and arrogant face appeared in her mind again, and she couldn't connect Qiao Nian with the next generation of the Ye family's mistress.

Qiao Nian is the next generation hostess of the Ye family, which means she is... Ye Wangchuan's fiancée!

Huaci's fingers curled up unconsciously again.

She grew up abroad, advocating freedom and chasing sincere love abroad. She looks down on the old-fashioned way of fiancée.

She knew that Ye Wangchuan had a fiancée who had been engaged since childhood, but she had never met her before, so she always pretended not to be this person.

When this person actually appeared in front of her, the impact was too great.

Hua Ci only realized his feelings at this moment. In fact, he had a strange feeling for his "brother" whom he hadn't seen much since childhood.

The expression on her face was a bit sad, she was shrouded in the shadow of the light and she was very fragile, but in her heart she couldn't help but have an unscrupulous thought - Qiao Nian was not good enough for Ye Wangchuan.

Hua Ci's uncontrollable thought gradually expanded in her mind, she grabbed the phone, with half of her face shrouded in shadow, and sent a message to editor Ye Wangchuan in worded words.

She wrote a long paragraph, probably explaining what happened tonight, saying that she didn't know Qiao Nian's identity at first, but she didn't act to bully him. I hope he won't misunderstand Yunyun. At the end, I casually asked if girls in China are more sensitive, or girls in this grade are easily misunderstood.

She still used the more playful tone that she was always good at, and the scale was just right, between a friend and a neighbor's sister, a relatively hearty tone.

However, not long after this text message, she received a call from Ye Wangchuan.

Huaci's heart beat like a drum, she stood up nervously and walked around twice before answering in unconcealed excitement: "Hey, Wang Chuan."

The voice on the other end of the phone is rather noisy, Ye Wangchuan should be outside.

She was about to say: "Don't worry, I'm fine. I'll explain it to you, so as not to cause misunderstanding. I really didn't bully your girlfriend... I don't know why she didn't let me change her dressing later. Why don't you call and coax?"

Generally, in the face of her half-joking tone, the man would not say anything out of politeness.

Yet surprisingly.

Ye Fanchuan's low and mellow voice with unknown meaning came from the other end of the phone, as if wrapped in a layer of frost, a faint warning came out: "When will it be your turn to take care of my affairs?"

"Wonderful River?" Hua Ci froze in place.

Ye Wangchuan's casual tone came: "The Ye family raised you up, and when you grow up, you help to do something within your ability. I think this is a fair deal. But since you don't know your identity, then I will be straightforward. From now on, you only need to contact my sister-in-law. You are the daughter of her old friend, and I respect her life as an elder. As for others, you don't need to contact me again. Except for my sister-in-law's own personal support, the Ye family will withdraw all funding for you!"

Hua Ci's eyes widened, and a gust of cold air rushed from the soles of her feet to her brain, making her feel like falling into an ice cellar. She gritted her teeth and clenched her phone tightly: "I didn't do anything wrong!"

Chapter 3707 My sister-in-law didn't tell you, I'm protecting my shortcomings

"I know." Ye Wangchuan smiled, quite coldly: "If you make a mistake, this is not the end. Didn't my sister-in-law tell you? I'm just protecting my weaknesses."

Hua Ci couldn't describe how she felt at this moment, the feeling of earth-shattering and humiliation made all the cells in her body tremble.

Her fingertips trembled, and she wanted to say something else: "She filed a complaint with you? Did she say something..."

However, what responded to her was the phone that had already hung up.

Hua Ci froze on the spot, as if she had been slapped again, which made her ears ring and her mind went blank.

She sat back on the sofa again, hunched over and covered her face, unable to calm down.

What did she do wrong?

She didn't even have time to talk about Qiao Nian's coquettish operations, such as saying that she was a doctor in order to prevent her from taking medicine.

She was clearly the one who was wronged, but no one stood by her, as if she had become a villain.

In addition, Ye Fanchuan's seemingly flirtatious statement of 'The Ye family will withdraw all support for her' actually had a great impact.

The several medical projects she is currently researching all rely on the Ye family's financial resources, and her studio burns tens of millions every year to maintain the expenses of various medical research and charitable donations... Once the Ye family is unwilling to give her financial assistance, Everything she's running now will be shut down.

Ye Lan is nice to her.

But she started to receive a large amount of financial assistance from the Ye family after she started working for Ye Wangchuan.

What Ye Lan gave her was only pocket money, not enough for her to develop her career.

Huaci hurriedly contacted Ye Lan after a short period of pain and distraction, told Ye Lan the ins and outs of the matter, held back her shame and asked Ye Lan to help her ask if this was a joke.

Ye Lan didn't say anything because she was a girl, and turned to look for Ye Wangchuan.

However, this time even her face is useless, Ye Wangchuan is really not joking, he has already called and ordered to cut off the funds of Huaci medical project.

Ye Lan was angry, but he also knew that Hua Ci was hopeless this time.

It's okay to offend Ye Wangchuan himself, but to offend Qiao Nian... She really doesn't want to intercede.

After all, Hua Ci is the daughter her friend entrusted to take care of her, Qiao Nian also saved Ye Qichen's life and cured Ye Qichen's leg disease... She is dozens of years older, so she can clearly distinguish which is more important.

In the final analysis, this matter was that Hua Ci crossed the line, and none of them noticed Hua Ci's thoughts, and Hua Ci himself also misunderstood his position, ran to Qiao Nian, talked nonsense, and showed his love for Qiao Nian. see.

Ye Lan felt wronged by herself, and went to see Ye Wangchuan twice, but didn't even look for him again, acquiescing to Ye Wangchuan's handling of Huaci this time.

She called Huaci back, and tried to be as gentle as possible: "...There is no room for maneuver in this matter. Don't worry, I promised your mother to take care of you, and I will still give you the living expenses that should be given to you. For things other than life, you are still young and you can work * your own."

The sentence "It was originally something other than life" beat Huaci's face pale, and revealed the fig leaf on her dignity.

Even if Hua Ci wanted to say something more, Ye Lan had nothing to say when she reached this point, so she had to painfully try to accept the reality.

All this in just one night.

Qiao Nian didn't know.

After Gu San came back and gave her cephalosporins, she ate two cephalosporins, then turned off the lights and phones, and went to bed.

Chapter 3708 Go to dinner with me at night

She didn't rest for three days, only squatting for a while in the afternoon, she didn't rest well at all, and the medicine she took also had a sleep-promoting effect.

This sleep Qiao Nian didn't wake up until noon the next day.

Qiao Nian didn't go downstairs after waking up, but got up first and took a cold shower. After clearing his mind a little, he dried his hair and went back to the computer to finish the things he didn't finish yesterday.

She is in Zhadi West City.

Zhai Xicheng is extremely cunning, Guan Yan is still spending time tracking down his whereabouts, but Qiao Nian found something interesting.

M state has not been peaceful recently.

Since the Hidden Family obeyed Nie Qingru's order to compete with the capital on a large scale, the following several business-oriented families have been tossed hard.

These families are at the bottom of the three, six and nine ranks, and have little say.

Originally they dared not speak out.

But ever since Nie Qingru wanted to attack Beijing with chips, he had a conflict of interest with the powerful Leonard family.

The Leonard family took the lead in delaying the supply of the Feiteng Group invested by Nie Qingru. Nie Qingru did not fight back for the time being, but the seemingly calm waters suddenly changed yesterday—an executive of the Leonard family was reported for gray operations , was taken away by the procuratorate that day.

This news is undoubtedly a bombshell.

The Leonard family and Nie Qingru teamed up to suppress the explosive news, but there was still news leaked on the Internet. Qiao Nian found this yesterday.

Zhai Xicheng didn't show his face, but Qiao Nian had a strong sixth sense. This matter was operated by Zhai Xicheng behind the scenes!

She had a good night's sleep, and the bruises on her back and elbows were much better. Now she propped her knees with one hand and her chin with one hand, leaning casually on the back of the chair, her eyelashes drooping, unable to hold back the interest in her eyes: "Interesting ."

It was really interesting.

This Zhai Xicheng can do two things at once.

While arranging for someone to warn her, every penny must be counted.

On the one hand, he was able to stab the Leonard family with a backhand, threatening to go back in disguise.

Nie Qingru acquiesced to such radical and crazy behavior?

Qiao Nian was thinking about this question when he saw the phone screen light up.

She picked up the mobile phone on the table and looked down.

is a hidden number from M state.

【The family is divided into two factions, one faction wants to find the queen for an explanation, and the other group advocates peace and prosperity to deliver Feiteng's orders. Now the two factions are arguing fiercely and have not yet made a decision. 】

Qiao Nian deleted the text message after scanning it.

She knew that this was Lei Kai's trick.

But she is not interested in knowing about the struggle between the Leonard family and Nie Qingru. What she really wants to think about is how to teach Zhai Xicheng a strong lesson.

"Knock knock."

There was a knock on the door.

Outside is Gu San's cautious voice.

"Miss Qiao, are you still sleeping?"

Qiao Nian noticed the time, it was already four o'clock in the afternoon.

She stretched her waist, stretched her stiff neck, and was about to stand up when she received another call from Zhongliu Liu.

Qiao Nian picked it up with one hand: "Hello."

"Come to dinner with me tonight." Zhong Liuliu was full of energy as always, with a loud voice and a strong body.

The person who knocked on the door probably heard the voice in the house and fell silent.

Qiao Nian glanced at the door, thought for a while, and walked towards the door while holding a phone call: "At night? With whom."

"A group of medical research people." Zhong Yiliu was extremely irritable: "I didn't want to go at first, but their team leader did me a small favor before, and the other party invited me repeatedly, so I couldn't refuse."

Chapter 3709 The roses sent by Master Wang were all ignored

"You know I don't like this kind of occasion. Let me go there alone. I might as well stay in the hospital and read a few drug research data paper reports. But I don't know anyone else in Independent State, so it's not easy to call Xiao Ji is going with me, so I can only find you."

"You always think that I'm good at dealing with unfamiliar people..." Qiao Nian walked to the door, put one hand on the doorknob, and couldn't help but ask back.

Zhong Yiliu said as a matter of course: "We'll go have a meal and leave. I listened to the project they told me, and it happens to be the field of brain science that you are relatively good at. You should do me a favor."

"What time?" Qiao Nian owed him a lot of favors, and of course it was impossible to refuse, so he asked the time.

Zhong Yiliu reported the time: "Six o'clock, at the downtown hotel."

Qiao Nian hummed, and said casually: "Just send me the address of the hotel, and I'll be there on time."

"good."

Zhong Zhongliu probably had other things to do, so he hung up the phone in a hurry after telling her about it, and went about his own affairs.

Qiao Nian put away the phone and opened the door.

As soon as you enter your eyes, you will be flooded by a sea of red roses. The gorgeous damascus roses at the door are blooming all over the corridor, and you can tell that there are a lot of them just by looking at them.

Gu San, a big man, stood cautiously in the middle of a bunch of rose bushes at the door, holding a mobile phone as if he was making a video call with someone. Seeing Qiao Nian open the door, he said in a low voice, "Miss Qiao has come out."

Qiao Nian glanced at him, already guessing what was going on.

Before Gu San greeted her, she walked out through the roses at the door: "I'm going out tonight, I won't be eating at home."

"..." Miss Qiao didn't see the flowers at the door?

Gu San was stunned for a moment, watching the back of the girl going downstairs, he didn't react for a while, wondering whether he should catch up or not.

"My lord..."

He reacted and quickly picked up the phone and looked at the man on the other end of the video: "Shall I still give the phone to Miss Qiao?"

"No need, wait for me to go back."

Ye Wangchuan should have just returned to his home in Beijing. It was night over there. A tall and dignified man was standing at the window in a bathrobe and holding a glass in his hand. There was still steam on his black short hair, and his silhouette The lines become more * and charming in the dim light.

Rao Gu San was stunned, hesitated and said: "Miss Qiao must have misunderstood, or I will find an opportunity to explain to her again."

"It's okay, you don't need to worry about it." Ye Wangchuan took a glass with his slender and white hand and took a sip of water to moisten his throat. His thin lips became more rosy and red with water stains, but he even curled up the corners of his lips, very patiently : "She was angry for the first time, and she was quite obedient."

Gu San glanced at the roses covering the corridor, and then at the back of the girl who walked away without looking back, it was so rustling.

Where did Master Wang get the word 'good'?

Miss Qiao's whole body has nothing to do with this word.

"I'll be back as soon as possible." Ye Wangchuan didn't have much to explain about Hua Ci, and he also knew that Qiao Nian didn't misunderstand what he had with Hua Ci.

Gu San had no choice but to respond: "Okay."

Five thirty in the afternoon.

Qiao Nian leaves the house on time.

She asked Gu San to take her to the hospital to pick up Zhong Liuliu first, and then go to the place for dinner with Zhong Liuliu.

This time, the medical organization invited Zhong Liuliu to dinner, so the other party booked the box.

Qiao Nian and the others were about to arrive outside the box at six o'clock, and the waiter who led the way opened the box door for them and introduced them to the place.

Chapter 3710 Let me introduce, this is Q

This is a large box that can accommodate two tables, and there is also a leisure area for putting clothes and drinking tea after meals.

But tonight there was only one table, and cold cuts, drinks and snacks were already served on the big round table. In addition, all the people from the medical organization who invited Zhong Liulu to dinner this time were all present.

The leader was a middle-aged woman with a short cut. When she saw Zhong Liulu arriving, she immediately greeted them warmly: "Boss Zhong is here. It's so splendid. Come in, come in."

Zhong Zhongliu led Qiao Nian in first.

The waiter who brought them over was very discerning. After the two entered, he closed the door for the people in the box to isolate them from outside disturbances.

Qiao Nian was one step behind Zhong Liulu. The casual clothes she was wearing today consisted of only a round neck T-shirt under the white cotton clothes, so she was not afraid of the cold.

She didn't pay much attention to the people in the box from the moment she stepped in the door, she walked in casually, and waited for Zhong Liulu to greet people.

She doesn't have a big cold.

But Qiao Nian's appearance is too outstanding, and she's young, plus she has to accompany Zhongliu over for dinner, so it's rare for her to go out without wearing a peaked cap. That outstanding face is exposed to everyone's sight, how could others ignore such an appearance? exist.

"Who is this?"

"very young."

"I've never heard that Mr. Zhong has a granddaughter."

Zhong Liuliu was simply exchanging greetings with the middle-aged woman, while the others were whispering in private, all eyes were attracted by the aggressive girl.

Only one person watched Qiao Nian come in from the outside in shock, his face was pale, and he grasped the table cloth with his knuckles.

...Isn't this the person from yesterday?

Hua Ci's eyeballs were about to pop out, trying to adjust his breathing, not wanting to lose his composure in front of other people.

But her heart was pounding, as if she had been shelled into countless pieces and fell to the ground. She couldn't describe whether she was more shocked, more suspicious, or more of something she didn't want to face... embarrassment and want to escape.

"Who is this?"

Zhong Liuliu is also a person who doesn't like to socialize. A middle-aged woman who knows him naturally understands his temper. It's fine to chat a few words. Then she brings the topic to Qiao Nian who is next to Zhongliu Liu. She looks curiously at him and says with a smile. : "Could it be your relative at such a young age?"

Zhong Yiliu couldn't hide his pride when he mentioned Qiao Nian: "No. Let me introduce you, Q."

He turned his head and told Qiao Nian the identity of a middle-aged woman. She is one of the founders of a medical organization and has a great reputation in the world.

Qiao Nian was not interested in these things, but she nodded politely and said politely, "Hi, nice to meet you."

The middle-aged woman looked like the one who lost her composure after being shocked, she stared at Qiao Nian's face and lost her voice: "You are Q???"

Of course she knows about Q.

There is a Q God in the Pharmacy Association, who is not from the association, but the few prescriptions left in Zangshuge are recognized by Zhong Yiliu's senior disciples very much.

In addition, Q has published articles in many top journals.

Her articles are not research papers that are generally used to brush up resumes, but honestly, every article published will trigger an upsurge of discussion in the medical field.

She remembered that there was information about Q circulating before, but after that, she searched the Internet for some reason and couldn't find it.

Q is so young.

And like Zhong Liuliu, he is in Independent Continent.
