

Madam's 3711

Chapter 3711 Some people are born to be the focus

The middle-aged woman was full of surprise and couldn't restrain her emotions, but she still shook hands with Qiao Nian politely, and said in an emphatic tone: "I have read your article. I am very interested in the techniques you wrote about brain surgery, and I have always wanted to contact you. You discussed these technologies in private, but you never expected to meet me here at the end of life. I will seize the opportunity to ask for advice later."

"You are welcome."

Qiao Nian has a good attitude.

The middle-aged woman changed her attitude of ignoring Qiao Nian at the beginning, and invited the two of them to the table. During this period, she mainly asked Zhong Liulu, and secondly, Qiao Nian also asked a lot of technical questions about the surgery.

Qiao Nian mentioned Chinese medicine to her, Amway, the craniotomy surgery recorded in ancient times, and some herbal medicines with natural anesthetic ingredients discovered by Chinese medicine long ago.

The middle-aged woman listened fascinatedly, as if opening the door to a new world, and asked Qiao Nian several questions related to Chinese medicine.

Qiao Nian was very patient when talking about Chinese medicine, and gave her answers one by one. By the way, he talked about acupuncture and rehabilitation of Chinese medicine, and its therapeutic effect on stroke and polio.

China's 5,000-year-old civilization did not come by chance, from Qiao Nian's mention of craniotomy to the discussion of acupuncture and moxibustion for stroke hemiplegia.

The middle-aged woman became more serious as she listened, and her expression became more solemn as she listened. She fell into deep thought several times in the middle, as if she was thinking while listening.

Besides her, everyone else at the table also listened to a lot.

They quickly discovered that Qiao Nian was not just a showman brought by Zhong Liuliu. She was calm and calm. She had a lot of knowledge that they didn't get involved in, and she answered questions fluently about many technical skills... She is a person with real skills.

Sitting in it, Hua Ci was worried that Qiao Nian would be embarrassed when she recognized her at the beginning, but later found that Qiao Nian didn't seem to notice her humiliation at all... and then saw that the whole audience was overwhelmed by the girl's convincing expression. The aura was under control, and everyone's eyes unconsciously followed Qiao Nian.

Her expression became complicated.

Qiao Nian is not a person who likes to show off, and she doesn't speak that kind of eloquent talk, but a very willful, even careless tone of voice.

But some people sit there like a light, the focal point of all eyes!

Hua Ci recalled that he had asked this person in front of him with a sarcasm yesterday—'Are you a doctor? '

Now I hear the girl chatting indifferently and casually with her team leader about the technology in the field that she is not qualified to touch.

She just felt as if she had received a loud slap in the face where no one saw it. No one cared, but it hurt a lot.

The guests and hosts enjoyed the meal.

After the meal, the middle-aged woman was still unsatisfied and wanted to drag Qiao Nian to continue discussing the previous technical topics, and wanted to ask more questions.

However, Qiao Nian was not familiar with them, and had no obligation to explain their doubts to them. He was just helping Zhong Liulu to repay a small favor.

So when the other party proposed to continue the chat in another place, she found a reason to refuse.

Zhong Liulu also proposed to go back to the hospital by the way at this time.

Although the middle-aged woman was extremely disappointed, she still politely brought Zhong Liulu and Qiao Nian outside the hotel with a group of people from the medical organization, and thanked Zhongliu Liu for taking time out to have dinner with them again.

Qiao Nian helped Zhong Liulu block most of the interruptions at the table, and now he is not interested in listening to the other party's interpersonal communication, so he walked to the side and lowered his head to play with his mobile phone.

Hua Ci found an opportunity to approach the past at this time: "Joe, Qiao Nian."

Chapter 3712 Do you have to do one thing in person and dare not admit another thing behind your back?

Qiao Nian raised her head, and when her bright black eyes touched her face, she thought for a second before remembering who she was, and she looked away lightly.

"Is there something wrong?"

This attitude is very cold.

Hua Ci bit her lower lip and stood there in embarrassment, as if she felt eyes from all directions were looking at her, especially those colleagues.

"Did you misunderstand?"

Qiao Nian stood in a carefree posture, with one hand in his pocket, and the free hand was still holding the phone. Hearing this, he raised his black eyebrows and looked at her strangely.

Hua Ci gritted his teeth, and said clearly: "Qiao Nian, I think you have misunderstood my relationship with Wang Chuan. I am a brother and sister with him, not the kind of relationship you think. I didn't expect you to misunderstand, but Since you have misunderstood our relationship, I think it is necessary for me to explain to you that we are fine."

After listening to her series of words, Qiao Nian finally figured out what she was doing to stop him.

When he was about to put away the phone, he sneered. Although he was about the same height, Qiao Nian gave a condescending sense of oppression: "Who told you to talk to me? Him?"

Hua Ci was surprised by her attitude.

Ye Wangchuan has a noble status, even though she grew up in a foreign environment, she still knows that some people are destined to be different from ordinary people.

She never thought that Qiao Nian would have such an attitude when getting along with Ye Wangchuan.

She thought that even if Qiao Nian managed to get the Ye family's approval, she would still be a daughter-in-law's way of getting along.

"Um, I... no, I came to explain to you myself." After a brief surprise, Hua Ci pulled himself together: "I think you misunderstood..."

"I never misunderstood anything, and I never told anyone about you." Qiao Nian interrupted her directly, saying very straightforwardly: "If you think I said you behind your back, then you are overthinking. I am right. You have no malice or interest."

Hua Ci's face suddenly turned pale, pinching the palms of his hands, and watched helplessly as the girl tried to pass her to find Zhong Liuliu. She didn't know where the courage came from in her heart, and suddenly asked loudly: "If you didn't say anything, why did Aunt Ye and Wang Chuan come to me? You clearly said it, so there's nothing wrong with admitting it! I can't handle it." I understand why girls in your country like this kind of practice of doing one thing in person and another in the back, is it interesting! I have come to you, and you can't admit it generously."

Her voice was not low, and she instantly attracted the attention of other people in front of the hotel.

The middle-aged woman was still exchanging greetings with Zhong Liuliu, and while she was waiting for the car to arrive with Zhongliu, she turned around and heard people from her team yelling at Q, which seemed to be a bit of a personal conflict.

She was stunned for a moment, and Shanshen quickly looked back at Zhong Liuliu's face: "This, this should be a misunderstanding."

Zhong Yiliu lowered his face, and his expression became colder visible to the naked eye: "What kind of misunderstanding requires you to shout at the friend I brought outside?"

The middle-aged woman was extremely embarrassed and apologized in various ways.

"I'm not the one you should apologize to!" Naihe Zhongliu had already lost his attitude, ignored her, and walked towards Qiao Nian after leaving her.

On the other side, Qiao Nian had already left her and was about to leave, but Hua Ci still yelled at her.

She was never the type to argue with people who lost their minds, but Huaci's few words still touched her bottom line.

Qiao Nian stopped, turned around and looked at her coldly: "You want to talk to her face to face?"

Chapter 3713 Sister Nian smashed her face on the spot

Hua Ci regretted it a bit after she finished speaking, after all, Ye Lan's warning was still vivid in her ears, and she was not really a sibling.

But there is no reason to take back what has been said.

She pursed her lips and met the eyes of colleagues around her: "I just don't think it's interesting for you to do one thing in front of your face and another behind your back."

"OK. Then do something interesting according to what you said." Qiao Nian walked back, took out his phone, found someone's WeChat, and dialed a video in front of Hua Ci.

The other end was connected almost instantly.

The video was connected, and a handsome man immediately appeared on the other end of the video, with a pair of cool eyes that were extremely beautiful.

Hua Ci's heart trembled, and he reached out to grab the phone: "What are you doing?!"

How could Qiao Nian's skills allow her to touch the phone, raised her hand a little, and said to the person on the other end of the video, "I mentioned yesterday's doctor in front of you?"

Ye Wangchuan judged the situation in just a second, his eyebrows twitched, seeing Hua Ci's eyes were a little cold, and he answered: "No."

"OK."

Qiao Nian patiently asked him again: "Do you have a sister?"

Ye Wangchuan on the other end let out a low laugh, in a helpless tone: "My mother only gave birth to me."

"Oh." Qiao Nian answered, and told him to hang up first.

After she hung up the video, she looked up at Hua Ci with disdain, and asked her in a manic tone, "Do you need me to call Aunt Ye again?"

Hua Ci's blood was cold all over her body, and she was so embarrassed that she wanted to find a crack in the ground to sneak in. She opened her mouth, but she was still afraid that Qiao Nian would hit him, so she stopped with a voice as thin as a mosquito's feet: "No, no need."

Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows and looked at her: "So you understand now, I didn't tell you behind your back?"

"I misunderstood you, I'm sorry." Hua Ci only thought that Ling Chi's execution was nothing more than that.

However, Qiao Nian did not accept her apology: "You don't need to apologize to me, and I don't need your apology. I just want to tell you that foreign education has not made you a better person, and the girls in China are not you. Imagination is inferior. If your so-called free enthusiasm is based on pretending to be deaf and dumb about other people's boyfriends, no matter where you go to educate, you will not be able to change your character."

These words are not unreasonable!

Besides, he still said that directly in front of so many people.

Even Zhong Liuliu was shocked.

Qiao Nian's personality is relatively cold, but he has always been tolerant towards the elderly and women, and there are very few moments when he is so sharp and shameless.

Qiao Nian didn't look at Hua Ci's pale face for a moment, and turned to leave. Before leaving, she tilted her head and said coldly: "My boyfriend doesn't have an older sister, so please don't go to him with siblings next time. I want to be happy." , he will be willing to ignore you for me. I didn't do that, but I just think that liking itself is not wrong. I never thought of trampling on anyone's liking. If you trample on it yourself, then your liking is really worthless! "

She didn't say anything more.

Walked to Zhong Liuliu and patted his shoulder: "Let's go."

"good."

In fact, Hua Ci herself is a very good woman, so even in the end he could see that behind Qiao Nian's stern look, she always kept a tolerance for the same sex, at least she didn't really mean to humiliate Hua Ci.

I just hope that Hua Ci can think clearly about Qiao Nian's last words, what he did wrong and what he said wrong.

"Alas." Zhong Liuliu looked back at Hua Ci who was staying where he was, shook his head, sighed, and followed Qiao Nian away.

Chapter 3714 Master Wang vented his anger on Sister Nian

In the car.

Qiao Nian's temples were swollen and painful, and he leaned against the car window not wanting to speak.

Zhong Liuliu was sitting in the co-pilot seat. Looking back at her, he looked irritated and didn't talk to her. He thoughtfully gave her a relatively quiet environment to rest.

Gu San first sent Zhong Liuliu back to the hospital.

Watching Zhong Yiliu's back disappear at the entrance of the hospital, he turned the car and asked the girl in the back row: "Miss Qiao, shall we go back?"

"Um."

Qiao Nian has adjusted his mood now, took out his mobile phone from his pocket and played two games, one MVP. When she was about to start the third round, Guan Yan's phone call came in.

Qiao Nian picked it up, opened the car window, leaned his elbows out of the car window, and the night wind slipped through his fingers: "What's wrong?"

"Have you finished your meal yet?" Guan Yan probably only asked her when she returned to the villa.

Qiao Nian looked at the intersection: "Go back soon."

Guan Yan snorted, and immediately mentioned it to her: "Have you read the news?"

"What news?" Qiao Nian was having dinner with Zhong Liulu tonight, and she really didn't have time to play with her mobile phone. She had been playing games for a while before, and she didn't usually like to watch news feeds, so she really didn't know what Guan Yan said. what news.

"Huh, he didn't tell you?" Guan Yan was very surprised.

The corners of Qiao Nian's eyes moved, and she always felt that the person she was talking about was Ye Wangchuan.

Before she could ask, Guan Yan said by himself: "During your meal time, a shooting occurred in front of the Smith Bank building. One person was injured, but no criminal was caught."

Accidents like this often happen in M state, and the news is almost out of date.

Qiao Nian knew that Guan Yan had mentioned this on purpose, so there must be more to it.

"This shooting case is not the point. The point is that I'm not looking for Zhai Xicheng's whereabouts recently? So I found two people, one of whom was tracking Zhai Xicheng's whereabouts, and the other was watching Nie Qingru. You also know their relationship, I was thinking about it I might be able to find something. It turned out that I really ran into it—not long after the shooting happened, Nie Qingru hurried to the hospital to visit the victim, and kept her identity secret for this trip, so she passed in a low-key way."

Guan Yan expressed his guess: "Do you think the victim is Zhai Xicheng we have been looking for?"

And she felt that it was not an accident that Zhai Xicheng was suddenly shot in the street. It was very likely that Ye Shao, who was protecting Sun's back, did it.

After all, Sun was almost put on by someone a few days ago, and suffered a small injury. Then something happened to M state when he turned around. The coincidence is not so coincidental.

Guan Yan would be surprised when Qiao Nian said he didn't know the first time he said 'he didn't tell you'.

"I don't know." Qiao Nian really didn't know this time, she guessed the same as Guan Yan, and looked up to see Gu San who was driving ahead: "I'll hang up first."

Guan Yan muttered: "Then you come back quickly, I'll wait for you here."

Qiao Nian hung up the phone first, put down the phone, looked at the driver through the mirror on the left side, and asked after thinking about it: "He did what happened in State M?"

Gu San just stopped the car and waited for the red light. When Qiao Nian asked him, he reacted sincerely and said: "I don't know Miss Qiao. I have been staying in Independent Island, and I am only responsible for your safety."

Qiao Nian did not speak again.

But she could tell from Gu San's words that at least Gu San knew about it, so there is a high probability that Ye Wangchuan did it.

He vented his anger on her?

Qiao Nian couldn't describe this feeling, his heart was like being bitten by an ant, and the numb feeling flowed through the whole body along with the blood supply. She raised her hand to cover her heart, and the beating heartbeat of her hand beat against her palm, again and again, powerful and reliable...

Chapter 3715 Nie Qingru is going crazy

She suddenly understood Qiao Chen's feeling every time he saw Fu Ge in his early years, the feeling of being protected.

Even if she doesn't need someone to protect her, that person will always be there, always standing in front of her, standing up for her. The previous unhappiness disappeared and became less important.

Qiao Nian thought for a while, then picked up the phone and called someone: "Hey, didn't you say you wanted to pay me back the favor, do me a favor."

Outside the emergency room of M State Hospital.

Nie Qingru walked out of the consultation room with an almost livid face. The **** smell in the air still stimulated her nerves and reminded her of the previous scenes.

Shadow bid farewell to the doctor and walked over to observe her carefully: "Empress, are you okay? You look bad."

Nie Qingru leaned on the railing with one hand and closed her eyes.

Shadow looked at her with a really bad expression: "The doctor said that Young Master Zhai had only a minor injury, just take out the bullet in his shoulder, and it won't be life-threatening, just need to take care of it for a few days."

Zhai Xicheng was only shot in the shoulder, not seriously injured, and the other party didn't intend to pester him, so he packed up his things and ran away immediately after the shocking shot.

When their people ran to the opposite building to check the sniper spot, there was only a field of cigarette butts left there, and the cigarette butts had been carefully burned without leaving any information.

"The other party has no intention of killing Shao Zhai." Shadow said truthfully.

However, his words stimulated Nie Qingru's already fragile nerves. She raised her head almost nervously, her red eyes seemed to kill people: "If she wants Xicheng's life, can I just watch?"

"Queen..." Shadow stopped breathing, stretched out his hand to touch her, but had to hang down again: "Young Master Zhai is not that one."

He wanted to tell Nie Qingru that that person had already died.

Dead for decades.

But he dared not and could not say it.

Because he only mentioned it vaguely, Nie Qingru reacted violently as if he was stimulated: "If it were him, I would have cut that evil barrier into pieces! No, I should have done this a long time ago. I should have killed him regardless of the consequences." Her. As long as she dies, all troubles will be solved, and there will be no more worries."

Nie Qingru had blue veins on his forehead, as if he had made up his mind: "You go to contact..."

Shadow was afraid that she would do something irreversible on impulse, so he quickly interrupted her: "Queen, Qiao Nian can die, but he must not die suddenly. Otherwise, we will not be able to explain to Continent F, the First Research Institute, and the illegal area." ."

Nie Qingru stared at him intently, his eyes wanted to eat people.

Shadow stood stiffly where he was, refusing to back down.

Fortunately, Nie Qingru was only impulsive for a moment, and she controlled her emotions for a short time, and said in a low voice: "I really can't bear it."

"..." Shadow looked at her again, but didn't speak this time.

He knew where Nie Qingru's bottom line was.

If the queen cares most about profit and power, then there is a person who is above these two, but that person has been dead for too long.

Zhai Xicheng is not that person.

Shadow felt that he was not worthy of Nie Qingru sacrificing what he had worked so hard to get all these years for him.

"Young Master Zhai is fine." That was all Shadow said at the end.

Nie Qingru left traces of time in the corners of her eyes. She was silent for a moment, then sneered: "I know. I just think I've had enough!"

She made up her mind this time: "Go and find out who did it. If it has something to do with Qiao Nian, I will definitely not let her go!"

"Yes, Empress."

Before Shadow walked away, he saw the people under him rushing over to report: "Queen, boss, people from the Leonard family are here."

Chapter 3716 The person who came to Zhai Xicheng

Nie Qingru hadn't sorted out her emotions yet, and her emotions were exposed: "What are they doing here?"

Shadow wanted to speak but stopped looking at her, and then lowered his head to stare at the toe of his leather shoes, without saying anything.

Nie Qingru pinched the center of her brows, suppressed the haze in her eyes, and said in a deep voice, "Let them come over."

Several people from the Leonard family came over soon. Among the group of old men in their 60s and 70s, there was only one young man, Lei Kai who grew up with Leonard.

Lei Kai came over to say hello to the shadow, and then walked to the corner and stood side by side with the shadow as a background board.

Shadow observed him solemnly, and Lei Kai didn't seem to be acting abnormally, so he looked away suspiciously.

"Empress, we have heard about a small accident outside Smith Bank." The old man in charge took the lead to break the silence and said, "Come here and have a look."

"Thank you for your hard work. People are fine, and they are still breaded inside." Nie Qingru nodded nobly, as always, dignified and arrogant.

The old man didn't mind, he looked in the direction she said, and suddenly said meaningfully: "The empress knows the person who was shot this time?"

Nie Qingru turned her head and stared at him suddenly: "What do you mean by that? Ask me?"

The old man didn't hold back, and hurriedly bowed to apologize: "Of course I didn't question the meaning of the empress. It's just that we found out the identity information of a person who reported us behind the scenes."

"Oh?" Nie Qingru's heart beat faster.

The old man met her eyes: "Coincidentally, it's the young man who was shot this time."

Nie Qingru immediately narrowed her eyes, without showing any expression on her face, she just reminded lightly: "Have you checked it out? Don't be used as a gun."

She has been in a high position all year round and feels oppressive.

The old man was obviously affected, but he still straightened his back and smiled: "Queen, of course we won't come to you to ask for someone without evidence."

"..." They still want people?

Nie Qingru sneered before she had time.

I heard the old man's cold voice: "An hour ago, we found out that the account book at home was stolen. The exact time of the theft cannot be determined, because all the monitoring along the road has been destroyed, and the technicians have not yet been able to restore the data. But that ledger contains all the revenues and expenditures of our various foundries around the world this year, that is to say... the reported ledger is also on it, and this ledger can be used as the most original evidence, ironclad evidence."

Nie Qingru's throat seemed to be pinched by an invisible hand, her expression fluctuated: "You mean..."

She felt that Zhai Xicheng was not so ignorant.

But she couldn't be 100% sure that Zhai Xicheng didn't do it. The timing of this juncture is too ambiguous, and only Zhai Xicheng is the most suspected.

The older generations of the Leonard family obviously thought the same way, and the old man bowed his hands to her in an extremely blunt manner: "Queen, we are all members of the hermit family. We have private conflicts that can be resolved in private. We will temporarily discuss the matter that was reported before." No matter right or wrong. But the theft of the ledger has touched our bottom line! Whether it is brought up or told here, we must have an account, and the ledger... we must get it back!"

Nie Qingru knew how important the account books of a large family were, and she knew the seriousness of the matter, so she had no choice but to lick her lips and endure the other party's heckles.

"He is still bandaging the wound, and he is not very sober. I will give you an explanation when he is sober."

Chapter 3717 Nie Qingru is not sure if Zhai Xicheng did it

"We can wait..." The old man was unwilling to let go.

Nie Qingru's face was frosty: "You mean you don't believe me anymore?"

These words were a few degrees colder.

"..." The faces of the older generations of the Leonard family are not very good. Anyone who sneaks into the house and steals an important account book that can be strangled will not have a good face, not to mention that the other party even reported them, which made them burnt out. ...If it weren't for Nie Qingru's face, they would not have come here today by themselves, but brought someone here and directly arrested them.

At this moment, Lei Kai stood up and called to stop the old man who was still trying to confront Nie Qingru: "Uncle, don't be angry, let's trust the queen first."

The old man breathed a sigh of relief, as if he had found the steps, and looked at Nie Qingru lightly, without the politeness and respect he had before: "In short, this account book is very important to us, I hope the Queen will take this matter to heart and give us an explanation as soon as possible. "

"certainly."

After Nie Qingru answered, she turned back in a low voice not to be outdone: "It is still not certain that my people took your account book, I just promise to help you ask, if it wasn't for him, I wouldn't be able to take care of your family affairs. I can trouble you to try harder to find out how to lose the ledger!"

"Hmph!" The old man could no longer hold back his cold snort, shook his hands coldly, and said to the Leonard family behind him, "Let's go!"

Lei Kai walked at the back, spoke politely to Nie Qingru, then turned his head, followed the others and left the hospital corridor without looking back.

Shadow and everyone walked slowly approaching: "Queen, why do I feel strange?"

"Of course I know it's unlikely, but at this point in time..." She was so annoyed that she whispered, "I'll just ask him."

In the consulting room.

The doctor has given emergency treatment to the man in the room and is telling him to pay attention.

Nie Qingru smelled a strong smell of blood in the whole room when he entered. When he looked to the side, he could see **** bullets and suture tools such as scissors and tweezers that had just been taken out of the tray.

In addition, Zhai Xicheng also took off his jacket, revealing the bulletproof vest he was wearing underneath.

The angle of the shot was very tricky, and it happened to hit his left shoulder where the bulletproof vest couldn't cover it, and a little further forward would be able to use up one of his hands.

Of course the other party didn't let him go on purpose, but he was aware of the danger at the time and dodged within 0.001 seconds, avoiding the joints.

That shot missed the joint of his left shoulder, barely keeping an arm.

The doctor did not give him anesthesia according to his request, and he didn't say a word during the process, as if he didn't know the pain and endured it numbly.

It's just the rain of sweat on his forehead and the pale color of his lips, but he still betrayed the fact that he was not ignorant of pain, and actually endured a very tolerable pain.

"Don't get water on the wound these days, and try to use this hand as little as possible..."

"Quit spicy food, tobacco and alcohol, etc."

"Usually rest early, don't be too tired. Come over every three days to change the medicine, and stop until the wound starts to scab."

"good."

Zhai Xicheng's voice was broken in a hoarse voice.

Nie Qingru walked in from behind him, seeing this scene, even if she was full of anger, most of it disappeared, and a kind of indescribable annoyance surfaced in her heart.

Zhai Xicheng suddenly turned around and found her just as she was clenching her palm tightly. With a flash of light in his eyes, he barely managed to call out to her, "Auntie."

Chapter 3718 Of course it's your sister

Nie Qingru's tense nerves were stirred again, she didn't even notice that the anger she had just provoked had gone down, she walked over to him and asked, "Are you okay?"

"The doctor said to rest." Zhai Xicheng picked up his coat with his right hand and prepared to drape it over his shoulders to cover the bandaged wound.

Nie Qingru snatched his coat, frowned and said, "You're all injured, why are you messing around!"

She didn't overdo it, and called out coldly: "Shadow."

The man who came in after her walked over and took the clothes from her hand like a mountain, silently draped them on Zhai Xicheng's shoulders, and silently pushed them aside.

Nie Qingru glanced across Zhai Xicheng's face, which was five times like the person in his memory, and raised his hand to press the gap between his eyebrows: "Xicheng, let me ask you. Are you still looking for someone to get the account book of the Leonard family?"

Zhai Xicheng was still thinking about who caused his injury this time when Shadow put his coat on him. Hearing this, he froze for a moment: "What account book?"

"You don't know?" Nie Qingru was dazed now, watching his expression: "People from the Leonard family just came to the door and said that the family's account book was lost. You also know that this is a special time, their account book is the best report evidence of..."

"I didn't take it." Zhai Xicheng said categorically: "I'm not so rash. I did it to find someone to report them, and I want to give them a warning. It's not easy for you to come forward, so I will do it. But I didn't let anyone touch their ledgers... I can clearly distinguish what can be moved and what can't be moved. Once I move the ledger, the bottom line of petty trouble will be crossed."

Nie Qingru saw that his expression did not seem to be fake, and his expression gradually became dignified: "You didn't find someone to do it, who is it?"

The Leonard family is not a small family, anyone can get in.

Not to mention finding such an important account book and taking it away smoothly, and destroying the monitoring along the way.

She believed in Zhai Xicheng's ability, so people from the Leonard family came to her and couldn't be sure if Zhai Xicheng did it.

But now Zhai Xicheng denies it.

So who did it?

Zhai Xicheng's eyes were secretive: "Qiao Nian."

Nie Qingru looked up at him, shocked: "Her?"

She immediately denied: "Impossible! How did she do it in such a short period of time? Continent M is not her territory, so she can't do it."

If Qiao Nian could sneak into the Leonard family's lair and steal such an important account book without anyone noticing, she wouldn't have almost risked her life just to get into her vault.

Zhai Xicheng thought more than she did, and thought of a possibility: "Is it possible that someone from the Leonard family is helping her?"

"..." Nie Qingru looked at him very strangely: "Do you know what you are talking about? The status of the person who has access to the ledger is not low, why would that person help her? This is not a small favor. And it involves family interests ..."

Zhai Xicheng didn't care: "As long as the ledger is not circulated, it won't harm the interests of the family! It will only indirectly cause the Leonard family to fight us."

Nie Qingru fell into deep thought.

Zhai Xicheng was even more sure that his guess was right: "They came after me!"

He is still not sure whether the sniper and the theft of the ledger were done by a serial bureau or two groups.

However, no matter whether it was a serial game designed at the beginning or the two groups of people worked separately, they trapped him in it very skillfully.

Chapter 3719 Master Wang finally knows to send a message to sister Nian

After all, Zhai Xicheng is not an ordinary person, and in a blink of an eye, he raised his pale lips and smiled with interest: "Auntie, I have a way."

the other side.

Lei Kai sent off several elders in the family one by one, opened the door of the off-road vehicle and sat on it, took out his mobile phone and sent a message.

Within half a minute, the person on the other end returned to him.

【Q: Thank you. 】

Lei Kai looked at the text message for half a second, narrowed his eyes, deleted the text message without hesitation, emptied the trash can, and then took out the calling card, broke it and threw it out of the car window.

He changed his phone number again, turned it on again, and the phone was quiet, as if he had never contacted the outside world at all.

He just started the car, and before he lowered his head and stepped on the gas pedal, he saw the account book that he brought out and hid in the car, his eyes darkened by an inch, he put the account book away, grabbed the steering wheel with both hands, drove to the end, turned the car and left Hospital parking lot.

The account book was taken by him.

But he made an appointment with Qiao Nian, he will not disclose this account book, Qiao Nian does not look at this account book, the account book is with him, and it will be found by "coincidence" after a while...

After doing this, he will completely repay the favor he owed to the girl at the beginning, and he will feel at ease from then on, and the two have nothing to do with each other.

Lei Kai knew that what he did was somewhat apologetic to the trust of the family, but which family was not dirty.

When Mr. Lei died suddenly, few people in the family were willing to track down the real culprit. Even when they knew that the real culprit had a close relationship with the queen, they almost made Mr. Lei die unjustly by being deaf and blind for profit.

So what he did was just a counterattack in disguise to those people, including the queen!

The black off-road quickly disappeared on the road like an arrow from the string.

Qiao Nian also received the last message from Lei Kai, telling her that she would no longer owe favors.

She deleted the text message, blocked that number, and then turned on the computer to erase all traces of her contact with Lei Kai through that number.

After finishing all this, the girl closed the computer, and her eyes fell on the still mobile phone.

She was waiting for Ye Wangchuan to contact her when.

Zhai Xicheng was shot in the afternoon, and so far no one has contacted her, or even mentioned it.

She waited until the next morning and woke up after a nap. It was close to 9:30 before receiving the news from Beijing.

[Y: Still angry? ]

Qiao Nian had just finished breakfast at that time, without him, Gu San didn't dare to prepare milk for her, mainly Qiao Nian didn't drink it.

She held the bottle of Evian in one hand, and looked down with the mobile phone in the other hand, just in time to see the short sentence in the dialog box.

"Tsk."

Qiao Nian crushed the bottle and threw it into the trash can, raised his eyes and said to the person on the sofa, "I'm not playing anymore."

"Ah, sister Qiao, are you coming?" Qin Si pulled her to play the game, only played one round, waiting for the second one, and stretched his neck unwillingly.

Guan Yan just came out to see this, kicked the man on the sofa, took out his mobile phone: "What game, I'll play with you for a while."

Qin Si had always been a guy who valued **** over friends, immediately put Qiao Nian aside, and went over to introduce the game to Guan Yan, telling her how to download, create an account and so on.

The two of them were in harmony when they were playing, you and I chatted around the game sentence by sentence.

Qiao Nian took a deep breath, suppressed the irritability surging in his chest, and took out his mobile phone expressionlessly to go upstairs to change clothes.

Chapter 3720 Sister Qiao doesn't look angry

Winter is approaching.

Independence is getting colder every day.

Qiao Nian was wearing a knitted sweater inside, a camel-colored horn-buttoned coat outside, and a black shoulder bag that had never changed for thousands of years.

She went down from the second floor, greeted Gu San, and went out to the First Research Institute.

Wait for the girl's back to disappear at the entrance.

Guan Yan, who has been 'concentrating' on playing games, put down his phone, raised his chestnut curly hair around his ears, his narrow peach eyes flew across, and hit Qin Si's chest beside him with his hand, gossiping in a low voice: "What's the matter, Young Master Ye? Didn't coax people back. I can see that Sun is still angry."

Qin Si had just told Zhang Yang and others that he was going to start a game with his girlfriend, and asked them to give him the highlight moment. When he heard that his eyelids did not lift up, he said slowly: "Sister Qiao is not angry, I See if she is fine. She should eat and drink, she doesn't look angry."

Guan Yan stared at him for several seconds with silly eyes, and found that Qin Si's handsome face did not have any emotional fluctuations, and was quite serious, as if he really thought so.

She was speechless immediately: "You have been in love so many times, who did you talk to?"

"Huh?" Qin Si raised his head, still immersed in the excitement that would later lead her to team up and kill in the canyon, his eyes were blank, and he obviously didn't react.

Guan Yan patted his phone on him, got up in a very speechless way: "I won't play anymore."

Qin Si gave her a hand: "Why, didn't you just say you wanted to play with me." Say it well and stop playing if you don't want to.

Guan Yan squinted at him, making sure that he hadn't reacted yet, pursed her cherry lips, looked at him and said, "I used to think you were a sea king, tsk, now I see the wrong person."

"?"

Guan Yan brushed his hair, and said loudly: "People rely on technology, you..."

Qin Si's eyelids twitched, a little annoyed: "What's wrong with me?"

Guan Yan replied to him expressionlessly: "You rely on your background."

If Qin Si hadn't been reincarnated well enough, he really wouldn't be in the sea. As long as his ability to observe words and emotions is not as strong as a dog on the side of the road, it's no wonder he can find a girlfriend.

He is purely a proud son of heaven who has been the focus of attention since he was a child. He has a good appearance and the ability to play. He is a natural young master.

Qin Si's brain hurts, and she still hasn't understood the meaning of her words.

I saw the beautiful and flamboyant woman covering her eyes with half of her hand, lamenting there as if she had been deceived: "So I have played with an innocent little boy."

Innocent little boy. Qin Si: ...

I thank you!

Guan Yan took her hand away, and she didn't know what she thought of, staring at him with burning eyes, wishing to stare at him as a flower, and at the same time that Qin Si was terrified, she said faintly: "Then what... ask you The question... you should still be that one, right?"

"Which one?"

Qin Si swore that he didn't hear anything at first, until he met the woman's overly beautiful peach blossom eyes with confused eyes, and his eyes met.

He didn't know where his sixth sense came from, and he reacted suddenly, a thin layer of red quickly appeared on his ears hidden under the black hair, and he jumped up: "Damn!"

"Are you still a woman? How can someone ask this kind of question? This question is suitable for casually asking in the living room?" He was not in tune, but the burning reaction was not fake.

Guan Yan suddenly understood the answer, sighed for himself in his heart, turned around and was about to go back to the room: "I'm going to calm down."
