

Madam's 3731

Chapter 3731 Sister Nian is thinking about science and technology

Before Qiao Nian moved, he saw him put the towel aside, and walked naturally to get a glass of warm water and handed it to her.

"Hold warm hands."

Ye Wangchuan took her hand, pinched the fingertips, put the glass in her hand and let her hold it to warm her hands, and then picked up the air conditioner remote control panel on the bed to turn on the heating in the room.

Only then did he go back and pick up the towel to wipe off the dripping water on the neck line again, leaning against the side of the cabinet one step away from Qiao Nian, his eyes looked lazy and sexy: "Come to find me so late?"

Qiao Nian was almost hooked by him. Fortunately, he had strong self-control, so he held the glass in his hand to warm his fingertips, walked over and sat on the sofa in his bedroom: "Hua Ci hasn't left yet."

Ye Wangchuan's movement of wiping the water paused for about half a second before realizing who she was talking about. He paused with his fingertips and frowned with thick eyebrows.

Qiao Nian is not the one who came here to make a small report, but she just said in a down-to-earth manner: "She has been blocking the entrance of the hospital recently, clamoring to see Mr. Zhong, which caused trouble for Mr. Zhong, I plan to ask the bodyguards to 'please' her to leave. "

She knew what Hua Ci wanted to do when she wanted to meet Zhong Liuliu, and she even knew what Hua Ci would say to her even if she was willing to take the time to see Hua Ci.

Qiao Nian found Huaci's actions at this moment rather boring because he could guess everything.

Not long ago, she kept saying that domestic girls like to play tricks, but what she is doing now is even more ridiculous than the little tricks that she looked down on domestic girls before.

Hua Ci is a stalker, right?

But maybe in her eyes, it is just the unrestrained and never giving up that belong to foreign countries.

Qiao Nian didn't want to understand Hua Ci's thoughts, but felt annoyed, so he raised his eyes to look at someone: "You've made a mess, why don't you solve it?"

"Did I provoke you?" Ye Wangchuan held the towel with his slender fingers, and couldn't help laughing: "I don't seem to have provoked her."

Qiao Nian looked him up and down, and hummed sincerely: "Your face is annoying."

Ye Wangchuan has never seen such a reason, half-jokingly said: "Then I will cover my face when I go out?"

Who knew that the girl thought about it seriously: "It's not impossible."

The next time he was completely speechless, he curled his lips and put down the towel, and said casually, "I'll call my sister-in-law later and ask her to get him away."

"OK."

Qiao Nian can't make this call to Ye Lan, but it is more appropriate for Ye Wangchuan to come forward.

Zhong Liuliu is the person she invited to help see the doctor. It is really inappropriate for Hua Ci to harass the old man at the hospital gate all the time.

Ye Wangchuan saw that her fair skin was becoming more and more beautiful under the light, and walked over and bent over to tuck her hair hanging from her eyebrows behind her ears: "God Qiao is angry?"

Qiao Nian raised his eyelids slightly, his thin eyelids closed his beautiful pupils, his face was printed in his pupils, his heart felt hot for no reason: "I'm thinking..."

Ye Wangchuan listened attentively, and played with the ends of her hair by the way, like a lazy and arrogant nobleman: "What do you think?"

"Is there a technology in the world that can shrink you down to the size of a thumb, and then I will carry you with you in my pocket, so that you won't lose your masculinity."

"..."

Ye Wangchuan paused for half a second before laughing happily, and answered quite seriously after a while: "Then do your research, and I'll wait for your results."

Qiao Nian glanced at him, feeling bored.

Looking at him again, thinking left and right, he suddenly reached out and grabbed him, leaned over and buried him at the position of his collarbone, and opened his mouth to bite.

Chapter 3732 Ji Lingfeng wants to see her

Ye Wangchuan felt the tingling sensation from the skin where her teeth were grinding against her collarbone. It wasn't particularly painful, so she was licked soothingly, and her tailbone trembled.

The girl who caused trouble raised her head calmly, met his eyes provocatively, stared at the marks left by his collarbone pointedly, and snapped her fingers: "Stamp it."

Ye Wangchuan had mist-like red marks at the end of his eyes, his extremely long eyelashes drooped slightly, and his eyes were fixed on the person below him without blinking.

"It's not obvious if you cover it like this."

"Do you want to build another one?"

Qiao Nian raised her neck slightly, her throat rolled, and before she could speak, the man standing in front of her leaned down with his hands on the armrests of the sofa, and pressed his thin lips, which were soft and steamy, to pry her lips and teeth open. Hoarse and low: "Open your mouth."

A kiss captured the city and occupied all the thoughts in Qiao Nian's brain.

"Hmm." She even had to keep her head up to feel better.

Fortunately, Ye Wangchuan was restrained enough. A few minutes later, he barely opened the distance between the two of them, the veins on the back of his hands were tense, he straightened his waist and hurriedly said: "I'm going to take a shower."

Qiao Nian didn't realize it until she saw him striding away into the room. The light shrouded her body, making her skin as white as jade.

I feel pretty good.

Even Qiao Nian was still in the mood to remind the direction of the bathroom: "Tsk, didn't you just come out of the shower?"

The next second, the sound of water splashing in the bathroom sounded, blocking her voice.

Qiao Nian stretched out on the sofa, pulled out her mobile phone out of nowhere, and was about to play a game to pass the time and wait for the people inside to come out.

Then I received a call from Ji Nan.

She got up and went out to pick it up: "Hello?"

Ji Nan was probably outside, and the background was noisy: "Nian Nian, my dad is out of the hospital, and he wants to see you. Do you have time?"

Qiao Nian closed the bedroom door smoothly, leaning her thin back against the wall next to her, and subconsciously reached out to feel for the lighter in her pocket.

As a result, I caught nothing in my hand.

She remembered that the lighter was in her room, and she didn't bring it out.

Qiao Nian rubbed the center of her eyebrows, her chest was filled with distress and she didn't answer Ji Nan immediately.

Knowing the complicated relationship between her and Ji Lingfeng, Ji Nan hesitated for a moment and said softly: "If you don't want to see him for a while, I'll tell him, you don't have to make trouble."

Qiao Nian put one hand into his pocket, raised his head slightly, his dark eyes were particularly cold in the slightly dimly lit corridor: "Why did he suddenly want to see me?"

"I don't know about this..." Ji Nan told the truth.

Qiao Nian pursed her lips and thought for a while: "I'll go find you, and I'll be at the hospital in about an hour."

"You, are you willing to..." Ji Nan was a little surprised, and then excited, his voice raised a bit.

Qiao Nian sank into the quiet air, and said lightly, "I just want to know what he's going to say."

"Okay." Ji Nan didn't care so much, and said very excitedly: "I'll wait for you outside the hospital, and send me a message when you arrive."

Qiao Nian's throat moved slightly, before he could speak.

Ji Nan has already hung up the phone.

She stood quietly in the corridor for a while, thought about sending Ye Wangchuan a WeChat message, then went back to her room, changed her clothes, put the peaked cap on top of her head, lowered the brim of the hat, and went out.

It was already forty minutes before she arrived at the hospital.

Chapter 3733 I've been out for so long, it's time to go back

When Qiao Nian got out of the car, she saw Jinan squatting on the side of the road. She walked over and patted Jinan on the shoulder from behind: "What are you doing squatting here?"

Ji Nan thought it was an outsider who patted him casually, and he was quite irritable. When he looked up, he saw Qiao Nian coming. The annoyance on his face was wiped away, and he replaced it with a happy expression. He stretched out his hand to grab Qiao Nian's arm: "Let's go, I will Mom, they are all waiting for you inside."

Inpatient Department.

Zhong Liuliu was explaining to Xie Yun the precautions for taking care of the patient. Xie Yun listened carefully and asked a few words from time to time.

Zhong Liuliu patiently answered her one by one.

Outside the huge ward, there were several elders from the Ji family, the second elder and the fourth elder, and there were also a few familiar faces that Qiao Nian had seen.

These people gathered together with a strong aura, even if they were not so respectful in front of Xie Yun, they just stood there and didn't leave.

Now seeing Ji Nan leading a girl over, everyone glanced at the person brought by Ji Nan inadvertently, and everyone was refreshed for a moment.

Especially the second elder of the Ji family, when he saw the girl's domineering face, he remembered how he ate at the Intercontinental Hotel not long ago.

"Joe, Miss Qiao." Even though he didn't want to greet Qiao Nian any more, with Simon's example in front of him, he stiffened his neck and shouted.

Among the elders of the Ji family, he had the highest seniority and qualifications. He took the lead to greet Qiao Nian politely, and the others rushed to greet Qiao Nian without hesitation.

"Hi, Miss Qiao."

"Miss Qiao is here."

Zhong Liuliu was originally talking to Xie Yun, but raised his eyebrows when he saw this posture, thinking it was very interesting: "Q, you are here."

Qiao Nian nodded, and stood in front of him: "Is he recovered enough to be discharged from the hospital?"

Zhong Liuliu mentioned that his condition was much more serious: "Thanks to the antidote you found from M state, the operation was very successful, and he recovered almost. The rest is up to him to recuperate. You are a doctor and you know about rest. Where is it?" It's all the same. It's more convenient for you to have a family doctor at home, and there's no need to stay in the hospital all the time."

Most resting patients insist on staying in the hospital mainly to prevent unexpected situations, and it is too late to be sent to the hospital to delay treatment.

Ji Lingfeng's situation is special.

Ji's family has their own private doctor, who is an expert. They can always have a doctor to take care of them at home, so it is very difficult for accidents to happen.

Zhong Liuliu considered this before agreeing to discharge Ji Lingfeng from the hospital.

"I'm going back too, and the association still has a lot of things waiting for me to do." Zhong Liuliu put away his pen and said to her: "I've been out for so long, and I've been relying on those little * to guard the house, and the lab doesn't know what's going on. Look, I have to go back and see."

The pharmacy associations are all medical madmen, and their favorite thing to do is to spend time in the laboratory tossing all kinds of exotic medicines.

With Zhong Liuliu absent, Robert couldn't hold back the situation.

Sometimes it is inevitable to encounter embarrassing things and find Zhong Liuliu, and Zhong Liuliu is also anxious to go back.

Qiao Nian put his hands in his pockets and nodded, not talking nonsense: "I'll have someone arrange a plane for you."

Guan Yan flies all over the world, so he owns a lot of private jets, and there is one parked at the airport in Independence Island. Qiao Nian doesn't really need these, so he didn't buy them and only used Guan Yan.

Zhong Zhongyi put his hand on her shoulder and patted her twice, his eyes were kind and gentle: "The patient wants to see you, so go and see him."

"good."

Qiao Nian came all the time, and he didn't pretend to come down.

Chapter 3734 Those who didn't know thought you were the patriarch

Before letting go of his hand, Zhong Liuliu smiled at her, squeezed his eyes, and signaled her to pay attention to her surroundings: "To be honest, if I didn't know about your situation, just because of the excited appearance of these people, I would have thought you were the one. The head of the Ji family."

Qiao Nian glanced at him, indifferent, apparently not interested in the joke, and said to him, "I'll go in first."

Zhong Liuliu just made a joke, and immediately waved to her: "Go."

Before going in, Qiao Nian greeted Xie Yun and asked her how she was doing recently, and then went to Ji Lingfeng's ward unhurriedly.

She talked to two people during the whole process.

Zhong Liulu and Xie Yun.

As for the rest of the Ji family, including the second elder of the Ji family who greeted her first, Qiao Nian didn't even give her a look.

Full of arrogance!

The second elder of the Ji family and the others looked embarrassed, so they had to take a deep breath and find a step for themselves: "Miss Qiao is still as cold as ever."

Xie Yun and Ji Nan knew why Qiao Nian didn't let him go down the steps, so they didn't speak, as if they didn't hear him talking to himself.

The gloomy face of the second elder of the Ji family became more and more cautious and embarrassed, and he even wanted to walk away when his temper came up, but he thought that Ji Lingfeng's health was fine and he was about to be discharged from the hospital.

He knew that now was not the time to lose his temper, so he could only suppress his anger, stop talking, and keep silent.

Inside the ward.

After Qiao Nian went in, he hooked up a chair and sat down in front of the bed. Looking at the man in the ward with his eyes closed on a pillow, he spoke first, "I heard you were looking for me."

Ji Lingfeng actually heard footsteps as soon as people came in, but he thought it was Ji Nan or Xie Yun, so he didn't open his eyes.

Hearing the girl's sloppy tone at this moment, he immediately opened his eyes, and saw Qiao Nian sitting beside his bed.

The eyes of the two met in mid-air, and they separated soon.

"I thought you wouldn't come to see me." Ji Lingfeng sat up on his support, still sick, his voice extremely hoarse.

Qiao Nian went back straight away: "I even took the medicine for you, so there's no need to be pretentious about this trivial matter."

Ji Lingfeng was taken aback for a moment, and then his eyebrows relaxed, with a rare smile: "That's right."

Ji Nan told him everything.

Qiao Nian took the risk to look for medicine in Nie Qingru's vault in Continent M because of him, and almost never came back.

He had a big reaction at first, he wanted to see her at the time, and then he slowly figured it out, and he didn't bring it up to Zhong Liuliu until he was about to be discharged from the hospital.

"Are you okay?" Ji Lingfeng looked at her.

The girl's brows and eyes are frivolous, somewhat like the shadow of the woman in his memory, but not exactly the shadow of that person.

Ji Qing is gentle, her eyes are always filled with fragments of starlight, the same radiance is powerful but not scorching.

Qiao Nian is just the opposite, more like the aurora in the North Pole, unforgettable at first sight but accompanied by the freezing cold of the world of ice and snow, repelling people thousands of miles away, full of aggressiveness.

Ji Lingfeng saw the confusion in her eyes, and also realized that the question he asked was stupid, but just at that moment he blurted out and asked: "It's okay, I just asked casually."

Qiao Nian looked at the white hair growing from his temples, was silent for a moment, and then answered casually: "It's okay. That's it."

Ji Lingfeng's reaction arc was very short. When she realized that she was answering her previous question, her eyes lit up and her voice was much lighter: "You are nothing like your mother. She...wouldn't do anything to steal medicine, she never I have disobeyed that person, and I only want to make that person happy since I was a child."

Chapter 3735 The fog of the past finally dissipates

"So she died." Qiao Nian said very directly, interrupting him.

Ji Lingfeng seemed to be strangled by the neck, and his expression was in pain: "Yes, she died, and she died for many years. I was also one of the people who contributed to the flames, and I killed her."

If this was said in the past, Qiao Nian might believe it, but seeing the man on the hospital bed putting his fingers through his hair and hugging his head in excruciating pain.

She was suddenly relieved.

"You don't have that ability."

Ji Lingfeng raised his head: "What?"

Qiao Nian crossed her arms, her eyes were cold and calm: "You're not cruel enough."

He is not cruel enough to kill people.

Only a heartless and ruthless person like Nie Qingru can do it. How could a man like Ji Lingfeng, who is still sitting on the hospital bed covering her face in pain, kill Ji Qing...

"How did she die?" Qiao Nian looked at him and asked the question she had always wanted to ask the most.

Ji Lingfeng seemed to be caught in a huge painful memory, his handsome and mature face gradually wrinkled and distorted in the memory: "I don't know what happened that day either."

"When I heard the news that day, I rushed there desperately. When I got there, I only saw a mess. She... couldn't even preserve her body."

Ji Qing died without a burial place, not even a body was left, and was blown into countless pieces and fell into the deep sea to feed the fish. The whole scene was horrible.

Ji Lingfeng still remembers that he was on the verge of a mental breakdown, the sky was falling, and he just wanted to avenge her desperately.

But he couldn't.

At that time, Xie Yun had already given birth, and he had hugged the baby who was still in the swaddling position the day before. The baby lay weakly in his arms and spit bubbles at him. He couldn't forget the touch.

In addition, besides his newborn child and his wife who cannot live up to him, Ji's family members are all watching him.

Some of the older generation knew what he was thinking, and knelt outside the old house that night to ask him to give up revenge, and those uncles even knelt down and passed out.

He finally failed his love, failed to track it down, and avenged her, so he could only set her name as a taboo and not allow anyone to mention it.

Of course, he has been looking for the child that Ji Qing once told him was pregnant.

Before finding Qiao Nian, Ji Lingfeng was not even sure whether the child was born or not for more than ten years, but relied on his numb belief to support him day by day.

"She has been researching a project. That project seems to be very dangerous and has affected the interests of too many people. At that time, many forces warned her openly and secretly, and she was not allowed to continue researching, but she refused to listen and stubbornly insisted on doing it. , and even quietly left Independent Continent, and went to Beijing for several years under anonymity. It was not until...she was found again that the peaceful life was broken."

Ji Lingfeng tried hard to recall the bits and pieces of the past: "I don't know what the project she was researching, but her death must have something to do with this project."

Qiao Nian seemed to have no reaction, she sat in front of the bed with a blank expression, her eyelashes didn't even move, she didn't seem to have any mood swings.

But those who are familiar with her know that she is not calm, and even a little angry.

"Because of this, she killed her own daughter?"

Ji Lingfeng was surprised: "You know?"

Qiao Nian didn't answer directly, but looked at him with those clear eyes: "She didn't participate?"

Ji Lingfeng avoided her eyes, and he didn't know how to answer: "Participated."

Chapter 3736 That marriage without love ruined everyone

"There is a reason why she did that. There is a past between her and your grandfather. Your grandfather did something sorry for her, so she took revenge on your mother."

"So she just can't vent her anger." Qiao Nian finally understood, sitting sideways on the edge of the hospital bed, her eyes were full of ice: "If she can't win against those who bully her, she will bully the weak. Tsk, she is really capable!"

Ji Lingfeng opened his mouth, but finally did not refute her words: "The previous things were too complicated, and they involved the grievances of the previous generation. I can't say who is right and who is wrong."

"So what is the grudge?" Qiao Nian was impatient.

Ji Lingfeng looked at her again and again, seeing the impatient expression on the girl's cold and dry face, and she moved her dry lips: "Your grandfather...is a very good person. He is extremely successful in all aspects...It can even be said that he is a genius born out of nowhere It's true that he is a genius. No one knows his origin, only that he became famous in the illegal area and the Independent State at the age of 18, and soon became the uncrowned king of the Independent State..."

Ji Lingfeng's whole body was shrouded in the light by the window, casting a thin layer of gleam on his outline as if he was lost in memory.

"He is very strong, very powerful, but he is not a good person."

Qiao Nian frowned, but didn't comment.

Ji Lingfeng smiled lightly, and continued: "He pursued to be stronger and better all his life, and his extremely strong talent and IQ made him lack empathy for others."

"At that time, he had already ruled the Independent Continent and became the undisputed master of the Independent Continent. In order to expand his sphere of influence, he inevitably encountered the cake of the Hidden World Family. Your grandfather has always been used to being strong, and you have been fighting with the Hidden World Family for a long time. Come and go, he was also the first person who could challenge and push the Hermit family into a dead end."

"The Hidden Family didn't want to continue to consume so much, so they negotiated a private settlement with him and agreed to a series of conditions. At the same time, the Hidden Family proposed marriage to consolidate the relationship between the two parties."

"He chose your grandma." Ji Lingfeng sighed at this point.

Qiao Nian interrupted him blankly: "She's not my grandmother."

Very firm.

No room for maneuver.

Ji Lingfeng looked at her: "At that time, you... Nie Qingru had a boyfriend who had been dating for many years, and the two were childhood sweethearts, and the relationship had reached the stage of discussing marriage. Of course, she did not agree to accept the family's arrangement to marry a stranger, so she went on a hunger strike. If you protest, you must regret the marriage."

"The marriage between Independent Continent and M Continent is already a certainty. The Nie family does not allow her to do so, and your grandfather will not allow her to do so either."

"So what did he do?" Qiao Nian recalled the old photo that was treasured and hid, and looked up at him with dark pupils.

The corner of Ji Lingfeng's mouth twitched, and he said in a low voice: "He arrested the man and gave Nie Qingru an ultimatum for the man's safety. In the end, Nie Qingru compromised and put on a wedding dress to get married on the wedding day. The wedding was held."

"There was no love in this wedding, including your grandfather, they just regarded the marriage as a transaction. Afterwards, because this marriage involved the marriage of two continents, even if the two had no love, they could not choose to divorce. She was imprisoned In Independent Continent, she didn't start looking for the man back then until your grandfather died unexpectedly. And that man died in the first year of her marriage..."

Chapter 3737 Although there are thousands of people, I will go, and I will die without regret

After Ji Lingfeng finished speaking, he couldn't calm down for a long time.

He resented Nie Qingru for killing the woman he loved the most, but in this matter, he couldn't accuse her of being crazy.

Nie Qingru endured love for twenty years, only to find that the person she desperately protected had long since died, and when she found that body, only bones remained.

This pain is enough to drive people crazy.

"She hates your grandfather, hates everyone in Ji's family... She also has such hatred for your mother, so she... did such a thing."

Ji Lingfeng was silent for a moment: "After I knew your existence, I thought about letting you come back, but I found that time did not erase her hatred for your grandfather, but it became more and more intense. I was afraid that she would continue to attack you, so I put it on I don't accept your attitude. I hope she won't implicate you with the grievances of the older generation for the sake of your innocence. Qiao Nian, I'm too naive."

Qiao Nian leaned back slightly, leaning back on the chair, her slender neck leaking from the collar of the sweater, her skin was fair and dazzling.

She pinched the bridge of her nose with one hand, and immediately looked at the man lying on the hospital bed with sharp and rational eyes.

"So you feel sorry for her?"

"I..."

"No matter how pitiful she is, she shouldn't let others pay for her pain!" Qiao Nian's eyes turned cold, but his heart suddenly burst into flames, as if any spark falling could ignite a prairie fire: "I owe her The person is Ji Wusun, the hidden family, and the person who was forced by her Nie family to marry. Of these three people, one she had no time to retaliate, one she did not dare to retaliate, and the other she could not retaliate... So she took the responsibility of her life Don't you think it's ridiculous that all the resentment is on your own daughter? Did Ji Qing cause the tragedy in her life? Did Ji Qing kill that man? Or did Ji Qing let her compromise and marry?"

"What did Ji Qing do wrong besides being born in her belly?"

"She just said she hated that person, and rightly stood on the moral high ground and sentenced innocent people to pay for their lives. This is the biggest joke I've ever heard!"

Qiao Nian seldom talked so much, he poked Ji Lingfeng's heart tube word by word, tearing his heart to pieces, tearing away the superficial carelessness and revealing that he couldn't face his cowardly self inside.

"you're right."

He can give Ji Ji revenge, but he dare not pursue what happened in the first place.

He doesn't even have the right to miss that person.

"Zi la—"

At this moment, Qiao Nian pulled out the chair and stood up, looking down at him: "I know what you want to tell me. Since you don't know who surrounded her and killed her back then, I will find out by myself."

Ji Lingfeng saw that the girl was about to open the door and go out, so he called out, "Qiao Nian."

The girl who opened the door with one hand didn't look back, nor did she leave immediately, but stayed where she was with her back to him, waiting for him to speak.

Ji Lingfeng looked vaguely: "Do you know what it means that you want to investigate this matter?"

"I know." The girl's playful voice came from the door faintly: "I found what she hid in Ji's old house. There is a folder inside, and there is a sentence written on it, which is her last words."

Ji Lingfeng's eyebrows twitched, he raised his eyes suddenly, and his heart beat faster: "What, what?"

"—Where the Tao is, even if there are thousands of people, I will go there, and I will die nine times without regret!"

Her voice was blown away by the wind, but she was as firm as ever.

"I want to find out what it is that she would rather die to defend."

Chapter 3738 Sister Nian sent Zhong Liuliu away

She wanted to see what made Ji Qing never regret that she would rather be bombed to death on the sea than to hide what it was.

Where the Tao is.

Although there are tens of thousands of people, I will go there, and I will never regret it after nine deaths!

Qiao left without a sound after reading, leaving only Ji Lingfeng with half of his body leaning out of the hospital bed, reaching out to catch the slanting sunlight on the ground.

The air is filled with the smell of disinfectant.

He seems to have returned to twenty years ago...

Outside.

Ji Nan and Xie Yun waited until she came out before walking forward. Jin Nan touched her shoulder and said with concern: "What did my dad tell you?"

Qiao Nian was so interested that she didn't even bother to droop her eyelids: "It's nothing."

Seeing that they had been talking inside for so long, Ji Nan came out without saying anything as if he knew it was impossible to tell her, and was about to ask again.

Xie Yun tugged on his cuff, signaling him not to ask.

Ji Nan held back his curiosity, took the car keys and said to the girl, "Let's go, I'll take you home."

Qiao Nian didn't ask him to send him off, but asked him to stay and accompany Ji Lingfeng back to the old house to recuperate. He went to find Zhong Liulu again and arranged for him to fly back.

She called Guan Yan, and Guan Yan arranged the itinerary in just a few words, and sent a car to pick him up.

Qiao Nian called Zhongliu Liu to Independence Island, and when she left, she was the one who went to see him off, watching Zhong Liulu get on the plane, and the plane taxied off and disappeared into the blue sea and blue sky.

She turned around and turned back.

Ji Lingfeng recovered and was discharged from the hospital and returned to Ji's family. The Ji family, which had been in turmoil for more than half a year, finally settled down.

Ji Lingfeng is a vigorous and resolute person.

On the third day after he went back, he began to liquidate the people who were ready to move during his absence, and pulled out the nails in the lower halls.

He called several elders of the Ji family to Juyi Hall.

He has always been a tough person, and he didn't say much after everyone came. Xie Yun pushed the wheelchair to the conference table, and threw a thick stack of investigation materials in front of the elders.

"See for yourselves."

Several elders silently picked up the documents thrown in front of them in a dignified atmosphere, and looked at them one by one, the more they looked, the worse their expressions became.

These documents carefully list the good things they have done in private during this period, including forming cliques in private and colluding with outside forces.

The elders who were named looked at it in awe, and moved their hands holding the document away a little, not daring to read any more.

"Have you finished watching?" Ji Lingfeng asked calmly when he saw that a few people headed by the second elder stopped watching first.

The second elder of the Ji family and the others couldn't hold back their face, covered their lips and coughed in embarrassment, and their eyes wandered: "Ahem, patriarch, why did you let us see this? These are all misunderstandings. The situation at that time was too complicated. We..."

"Everyone is my elders, uncles and uncles." Ji Lingfeng interrupted him forcefully.

The anxiety in the heart of the second elder of the Ji family eased a little when he heard this. It seems that the patriarch's words are not as serious as he imagined.

Who knows that Ji Lingfeng changed the subject: "It stands to reason that I shouldn't care about you if I don't look at the monk's face or the Buddha's face, but I have passed through the gate of * once, and I have seen many things. Second uncle is getting old, and he should Have a good rest, don't you think?"

He named several names one after another.

It's all the elders who are very active this time.

The reason why these people can be active during this period of time is because they not only have high seniority in the Ji family, but also have a high status, and they hold a lot of business in the Ji family.

Ji Lingfeng's attack without warning undoubtedly slapped everyone in the face.

Chapter 3739 On the throne, only sacrifice

The second elder suddenly slapped the table and got up: "What does the patriarch mean?"

Ji Lingfeng suffered from a serious illness, and his whole body was seriously ill. He seemed not very energetic, but it did not affect his aura as a direct descendant of the Ji family.

"I said it's time for Second Uncle to rest."

He was very oppressive, looked around everyone and said slowly: "Of course, you can rest if you don't want to rest. In order to prevent the family from being in turmoil like before, I have already thought of a solution. If you want to stay in this position, I will The only way is to make everyone unique. The Ji family can only have one patriarch, and the person who sits in an important position can only focus on assisting that person. In order to prevent anyone from showing selfishness, I can only use the most primitive and simplest method—— Cut the weeds and root them out."

As soon as these words came out, the audience was as quiet as a chicken.

Several elders looked at each other, and no one dared to say anything.

The second elder opened his eyes even more, in disbelief: "Patriarch, you..."

"The old patriarch established this rule when he was here. I took over this position at a young age and considered that this rule was inhumane, so I tacitly agreed to abolish this rule for so long. But after all kinds of things, I now understand that he set this rule at the beginning. In the profound sense, this rule is very good, and I will continue it."

The audience was silent again.

Anyone with eyes can tell that Ji Lingfeng is serious.

Different from the drastic approach last time, this time Ji Lingfeng looked extremely gentle and talkative, as if discussing with them.

It was even more oppressive and suffocating than last time.

The second elder sat back down on his seat in despair: "Who do you want to support to be in power?"

The second elder didn't wait for Ji Lingfeng to answer, and raised his eyes sharply: "Qiao Nian? She is not suitable for the head of Ji's family. She doesn't think about the consequences when she does things, and she is too straightforward to know how to be roundabout. I don't deny her ability, and I believe that Ji's family is in her hands. The hands will go to a higher level. But the same Ji family may be completely destroyed in her hands! Because she dares to do anything, but the leader of the family can't be like this. If you want to learn to think about the family, you are doomed to sacrifice some thing."

Ji Lingfeng smiled: "Sacrifice..."

He thought of himself.

Then the eagle-like eyes fell on the second elder, and he said slowly: "You are right, so I didn't think about asking her to take my place."

"I will train Ji Nan well in the next few years until he can take over the family instead of me. During this period, I hope that all uncles will be more honest and don't let me down."

Pale tone.

There is a raging hostility hidden below.

Even if the elders were unconvinced and willing in their hearts, they knew that now was not a good time to confront Ji Lingfeng.

The patriarch made up his mind this time, fearing that he would never give face to them old fellows again.

Smart people know current affairs.

They don't want their pulse to be broken in a moment of enthusiasm.

"Then I will trouble you, uncles, to find He Lin to hand over." Ji Lingfeng said lightly seeing that they stopped talking one by one.

The second elder moved his mouth, and when he spoke, he could see that Ji Lingfeng had restrained his suppressed hostility under calmness, and after all, he did not object any more.

Xie Yun waited for him to finish speaking, then patiently pushed him out of Juyi Hall and back into the room.

The two of them didn't speak a word along the way, and when they got there, Xie Yun made a faint voice: "Have you thought about it?"

After this incident, Xie Yun didn't care who inherited Ji's family, but she didn't expect Ji Lingfeng to change her mind.

"Ji Nan needs to grow up." Ji Lingfeng didn't say much, and didn't look back: "Thank you for these years."

"..." Xie Yun's eyes were hot, but she didn't speak, she pushed him in silently, and took him a cup with hot water to drink medicine.

Chapter 3740 Sister Nian: No, charge them twice the price

In the next few days, Qiao Nian locked himself in the laboratory more and more to solve the last secret in the USB flash drive.

She goes out at eight o'clock in the morning and doesn't go back until ninety o'clock in the evening.

If it wasn't for Ye Wangchuan's insistence on bringing her meals and picking her up every day, Qiao Nian might even simply live in the laboratory and be too lazy to move.

Fortunately, Ye Wangchuan was at home, and someone was watching over her, so Qiao Niancai didn't spend all her food and lodging in the First Research Institute as before.

as time flows.

In the blink of an eye, half a month passed.

Since the loss of the ledger happened, although Zhai Xicheng moved fast enough and ruthlessly to pinpoint the person in charge of the Leonard family, forcing the other party to let him go.

But the report he worked so hard to make was also nothing.

As a result, the Leonard family was of course unwilling to endure their nausea and continue working for Nie Qingru, and immediately rejected the C-country project.

Nie Qingru found a way to find other families to accept the project after the Leonard family rejected the project, but the technical requirements of this project in country C are too high.

In Continent M, apart from the Leonard family having this technology, other forces are powerless even if they want to 'eat' this project.

They showed country c several samples but failed to satisfy the other party. Country c also realized that they might have been deceived.

So c country Maliu contacted the scientific research team of Shangqing University, and boldly proposed the willingness to cooperate again.

Ye Maoshan called Qiao Nian as soon as he received the news.

Qiao Nian was still in the laboratory at the time, and it was rare for him to find time to lean against the edge of the laboratory table when he received the call. His eyelashes drooped slightly, and he licked the corner of his lower lip. He said in a dry tone, "Do they want to cooperate again?"

Ye Maoshan asked her very carefully: "Nian Nian, shall we pick it up?"

Qiao Nian paused for a second, then smiled: "Okay. But that's a different price!"

She quickly reported the number to Ye Maoshan, and doubled the price on the original basis, almost turning from a 10-digit order to an 11-digit one.

Ye Maoshan was a little hesitant: "Is the price too high?"

Qiao Nian is very confident: "They have no choice, but at this price, they will accept it."

She paused, and without waiting for Ye Maoshan to speak, she continued casually: "If you don't teach them a lesson, there will be more such things in the future."

Ye Maoshan understood: "Okay, I'll discuss it with your father later."

"By the way, aren't you busy recently?" Ye Maoshan became concerned after talking about the business: "Don't be too busy, pay attention to rest."

Qiao Nian replied him a few words vaguely, and after Ye Maoshan hung up the phone, he put the phone back into the locker, and when he returned, he said to Xu Yi with clear eyesight, "Come on, let's continue."

The country c team soon received a reply from Beijing.

Beijing City agrees to accept the order, and the conditions will be discussed separately.

In the beginning, their team had an optimistic attitude, thinking that the so-called negotiation of conditions was just a formality because of Beijing's benevolent style of doing things.

Who knew that when it came to the negotiation field, the string of harsh conditions that Bo Jingxing threw out without saying a word made the negotiation team of country c blush on the spot.

After some bargaining.

The negotiating team led by Bo Jingxing didn't intend to make any concessions at all, the price was still the same price, and he didn't want to do it.

In this way, the c-country team had no choice but to say with a dark face that they would go back to discuss it, and could not give an answer immediately.

Bo Jingxing also held his breath, stood up and shook hands with the other party, and said as soon as his thin lips touched: "Please go ahead, we will wait for the news."

It looks polite, but in fact, it has already won in terms of momentum.
