

Madam's 3741

Chapter 3741 This little wolf cub is really ruthless

The team from country c walked away.

Several negotiators who followed Bo Jingxing looked at the back of the other party who left angrily and were a little worried: "Young Master Bo, do you think this cooperation will not be yellow?"

Bo Jingxing finished sorting out the documents on the table, without raising his head, he was very relaxed and wanton: "No, wait and see the result."

Several negotiators had heavy expressions, not as relaxed as he, and left the conference room with heavy hearts.

Three days later, things really went as Qiao Nian expected.

Country c finally let go of their angrily after some discussions, that is, the price that Qiao Nian told Ye Maoshan had doubled the original negotiated price.

Country c also understood that it could not find any other partner besides the capital city. It was very happy when the contract was signed, and the two sides even held a small press conference.

At the press conference, both parties expressed their expectations and prospects for this cooperation.

This press conference was also broadcast live on ins, triggering small-scale discussions in this field.

【When can Beijing take orders for chips? WHT, what am I missing? 】

【Before I said that the recent development of Beijing City is very good, especially the several research and development projects of the scientific research team of Tsinghua University are very interesting. It seems that I am right, this press conference is enough to explain everything. 】

Compared to the passionate discussions of netizens from all over the world on INS.

Nie Qingru was under tremendous pressure.

Country c had reached the step of signing a contract with Beijing City before, but she intervened and succeeded in cutting off Hu through the base price and relationship.

Later, she was unable to complete the project, so that country c had to seek cooperation from Shangjing again, and the other party doubled the price and signed a harsh cooperation contract.

Country c was probably furious, and at the same time they negotiated with Beijing, they sent a team of lawyers to file a lawsuit against them, asking them to make up for their own losses.

It's just a small thing.

Nie Qingru is not unable to come up with this little money.

But country c's approach is a bit of a slap in the face.

This is what annoys her the most and is unacceptable.

"When will the lawyers from country c come over?" Nie Qingru took a glass of water for herself, turned around and asked the shadow standing quietly beside her.

Shadow raised his head quietly, and his voice was smooth and without ups and downs:
"Tomorrow."

Nie Qingru took a sip of water while holding the cup, raised her eyes and said coldly: "Let our legal team get ready, if they want to have a relationship, they can fight with them. But public opinion must be in our hands, try to focus on cooperation. If it fails, they will be stingy and seek compensation from the higher-ups."

"I see."

Nie Qingru's brows were filled with gloom: "That little wolf cub is really ruthless. He even offered to pay twice the original price before he would cooperate."

"She has long expected that this price is the psychological price limit that country C can accept. She just wants to anger country C and kill people with a knife."

Treating my grandmother so ruthlessly.

No wonder she's that guy's kind.

Like a wolf staring at its prey, it bites the neck of the prey even after thousands of miles.

Nie Qingru was restless for a while, raised her hand to suppress the frenzied eyebrows, and asked in a calm tone: "How is Xicheng? Is it better?"

She has been too busy for half a month.

I really don't have time to go to the hospital to visit Zhai Xicheng.

Shadow heard this name, and then saw Nie Qingru wearily walking towards the sofa and sitting down. The whole person was hidden in the light and shadow and looked so tired: "Master Zhai was discharged from the hospital the day before yesterday. Now he is recuperating at home and has not gone out for the time being."

Chapter 3742 Finally reached cooperation with country c

"Um."

Nie Qingru softened her expression, as if she had heard the only good news.

"Queen." Looking at her, Shadow hesitated to speak: "Young Master Zhai..."

Nie Qingru turned her head, her cold and pale face was already covered with signs of time, if there is still a trace of warmth in her profit-driven eyes, it is probably now: "Stop."

She raised her hand to stop Shadow from continuing.

"I know what you want to say, I owe his family."

"...yes."

Shadow lowered his head.

Nie Qingru sat in the living room for a while, probably took a rest, and thought of a solution: "Keep an eye on the capital city."

Shadow raised his head: "What do you mean?"

"Didn't the little wolf cub want to use this opportunity to slap me in the face? Just in time, I also let her know that things in the world are not so easy to go your way."

Nie Qingru lightly touched the velvet gloves on her fingertips, her thin lips raised, and she still looked a bit like a young man.

The eyes are too cold.

"It's time for us to bury nails in Beijing."

The smooth progress of the negotiation with country c was beyond the expectations of Beijing, but everyone was very happy after the cooperation was successfully concluded.

Even Jiang Zongjin drank a lot of wine, was drunk at the celebration banquet and was sent back to the staff dormitory.

"Uncle Jiang, I'm leaving first."

The person who sent him back was Bao Jingxing. After placing him on the sofa, he was about to change his shoes and leave.

Who knew, he heard a man's deep sobs behind him.

Bo Jingxing was taken aback for a moment, then turned around to see the man lying on the sofa who didn't know when he sat up, the shadow was projected on the wall, hunched over in pain like a frustrated man.

"I did it."

Bo Jingxing didn't expect to encounter such a thing, so he hesitated whether to leave. I heard Jiang Zongjin's drunken murmur again: "Ji Qing, I did it."

Seasons...

Bo Jingxing seemed to have heard this name somewhere, he paused with his hand holding the car keys, and then remembered the scene when he heard this name in Independent Island.

Qiao Nian's mother?

Jiang Zongjin was still raving, with painful whimpers, very depressed and as if he had endured for a long time before he could vent his emotions: "But you are gone."

"...you are gone, and I have not been able to take good care of our daughter."

"Miss her..."

Jiang Zongjin's voice dropped to a lower tone when he said this, with grief and guilt, mixed with inexplicable discomfort.

"Nian Nian is too tired for her."

Bo Jingxing put down his hand hooking the key completely, remembering what he had said to Qiao Nian that night in Independent Island.

His conscience seemed to have been bruised, and he couldn't face what he thought he would never regret this night.

Bo Jing made a move, walked over again and took a glass of water for Jiang Zongjin and handed it over, silently comforting: "Uncle Jiang, drink a glass of water."

He wants to stay and take care of Jiang Zongjin.

Although he felt that Jiang Zongjin didn't need him to take care of him, it was better to be able to do something than to never be able to make up for his mistakes.

Bo Jingxing took care of Jiang Zongjin and drank water. Seeing that he fell asleep drunk, he went to the house and got the quilt out.

Looking at the crude and masochistic furniture in the room, he went out to smoke a cigarette, sighed and dialed Ye Wangchuan's phone number.

There was no answer for the first time.

He persevered and played several times.

Ye Wangchuan finally answered: "Speak."

is quite cold.

Chapter 3743 something happened

Bo Jingxing thought about why his friends were so indifferent towards him, so he smiled wryly, and said sincerely, "I apologize for what happened before."

"..."

"I shouldn't have said those words. I was too impatient. Qiao missed her... If I need to apologize, I am willing to sincerely apologize to her again. If you need my apology, I will apologize until you are satisfied. Sorry, Wangchuan."

Several minutes passed.

A cold and proud male voice came from the other end: "This is the last time."

Bao Jingxing understood what he meant immediately, smiled, and relaxed, throwing away the cigarette **** in his hand, he was in the mood to joke: "I have known you for twenty years, and you just made Qiao Nian angry once because of me. If you want to break up with me, you almost beat me to death. You are really my brother~!"

Before Ye Fanchuan met Qiao Nian, he really never thought that his friend would be so passionate and ruthless when they were in love.

This is not dating, this is a **** fool!

Bo Jingxing smiled: "I will remember, there will be no next time."

"Chick."

Ye Wangchuan lazily responded, this matter is over.

Looking at the moon outside, Bao Jingxing seemed to remember something, and before hanging up the phone, he asked, "By the way, do you know what kind of person Qiao Nian's mother is?"

Uncle Jiang had to be drunk before he dared to think about it, dare to say it, and even lived with abstinence for twenty years, almost masochistically living to complete the things they agreed upon.

He suddenly wondered what kind of person Ji Qing was like.

After a long time, Ye Wangchuan's lazy and clear voice came from the other end of the phone: "I don't know, but to be able to give birth to such a daughter, she must be a memorable person."

"Tsk. Can you not show your affection?" Bao Jingxing smiled, but felt deeply in his heart.

A person who can be missed by everyone is at least a good person.

It's a pity that good people don't live long.

After the cooperation between Beijing City and Country C, it also means that everyone from the scientific research team to the Nine Institutes will start to get busy.

Jiang Zongjin put himself into work the next day after sobering up, working overtime as if desperately, keeping an eye on every process.

Nine Bo Jingxing sits in charge, and he is also responsible for the coordination of various units, trying to arrange the most reasonable assembly line plan.

After several days of hard work, Beijing delivered the first batch of finished products to country c for inspection.

Country c received the finished product and immediately tested it. The quality is very good, and they are not ashamed of the extra price they gave.

Country c immediately fed back the result to Beijing City, and Beijing City started large-scale production after receiving satisfactory news from the other party.

According to the agreement, their real first delivery time is set at the end of the month.

The end of December.

The first batch of goods from Beijing came out in a hurry, everyone was relieved, and they didn't forget to share the good news with Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan who were far away in Independence Island.

There are still seven or eight days before the delivery. Everyone planned to take advantage of this time to have a holiday, so that everyone can take a good rest so that they can start the second batch of production.

Unexpectedly, something happened on the second day after everyone had a happy dinner. The staff responsible for the inspection found many defective products in the first batch of goods.

It was like a bolt from the blue hitting everyone's minds, catching people from the Nine Institutes and the research team of Tsinghua University by surprise.

No one expected that such a big mess would happen in the last few days...

Chapter 3744 Find the ghost first

Bo Jingxing and Jiang Zongjin rushed to the scene immediately to check.

"Uncle Jiang, how is it?" Bo Jingxing is not a person in this professional field, so he is not very clear about the problem of the defective products found in this batch.

I saw Jiang Zongjin bent down and squatted on the ground to pick up one of the chips and inspect it carefully, then inserted it into the inspector and operated it. : "These chips all lack a process."

"A process is missing?" Bo Jingxing lost his mind: "Why is there a process missing?"

They have someone in charge of every process, and they are strictly controlled, so they are afraid of mistakes.

The inspection products sent to country c before had no problems, but the first batch of goods had problems.

Jiang Zongjin shook his head: "Chips are small and look very simple, but in fact the technology involved is complicated and difficult. If there is a problem with a single process, you can't ask for it."

"I just looked at this batch of goods, and they all have the same problem. Someone must have been negligent, or..." He didn't want to say that, but looked at Bao Jingxing seriously and met his eyes: "Or someone deliberately tampered with it."

The participants in the C-country project are all the core members of the nine institutes and the scientific research team. Everyone has worked together for many years. Even if there is a one-tenth of a million luck, Jiang Zongjin is unwilling to think about it.

But the facts are in front of us, apart from a serious mistake in the first batch of goods, this can no longer be described as a coincidence, it can only be deliberate!

This person is too poisonous.

Bo Jingxing had seen too much of the dark side of human nature, and took the words with a grim face: "Uncle Jiang, you can see which process is wrong. I'll investigate right away. No matter what the truth is, let's find out this person first!"

"good."

Jiang Zongjin only hesitated for half a second before agreeing.

The two soldiers divided into two groups.

Re-study the problem of this batch of defective chips, and make sure that I have not missed anything. The other immediately told Mr. Ye and the others about the situation, and discussed the next countermeasures.

...

Ye family.

Ye Maoshan was still teasing the birds before receiving the news. He teased the thrush in the cage with a grass root, and fed the thrush some food from time to time.

The thrush has developed spirituality long ago. As soon as it sees it, it jumps to the front of the cage, spreads its wings and jumps up and down, just like dancing in the cage, beautiful and tight.

Ye Maoshan is also a bird-loving person, a typical old Beijing hobby, and he is going to take the bird out for a walk after feeding the bird later.

Who knew that when he turned around, he received a call from the housekeeper, saying that it was Bo Shaofa.

"Why is he looking for me at this point?" Ye Maoshan put down the bird food, wondering in his heart, but still wiped his hands and answered the phone.

"Hello, Jing Xing." He just started.

"Mr. Ye, you finally answered the phone." Bo Jingxing hurriedly told him about the chip in detail as if he was relieved.

Ye Maoshan's expression became uglier the more he listened, and his reaction became more serious as he listened to it. He was no longer in the mood to play with birds, and strode out: "Where are you? Have you found that person?"

Bo Jingxing also said that Jiang Zongjin was checking all the chips that had problems, and the person in charge of the confirmed process caught them.

Ye Maoshan got angry from the heart, and said in a deep voice: "I'll go there right away."

If such a big thing happened, he couldn't go there alone.

Ye Maoshan hung up on Bao Jingxing and asked the driver to drive him to find people from Wen's family and Wei's family. The three families went to the Ninth Institute together.

Chapter 3745 I caught the ghost, it's really not me

Everyone in the Ninth Institute felt that today was unusual, and the atmosphere was extremely serious. Even those who were not involved in the chip project felt the signs of an accident.

Everyone was in a hurry, trying to reduce their sense of existence, which was in stark contrast to the relaxed atmosphere in the Jiu Institute in the previous two days.

When Ye Maoshan rushed over, it was already two hours later.

The Wei family came to the Wei Building this time.

The one from the Wen family is the old man of the Wen family.

Among the three, Weilou was the youngest in seniority, walking humbly at the back.

He is completely two people now and two years ago in the city circle, without the glaring bird hair, his hair is shaved into a square, and he is wearing a neat leather jacket, all relying on a handsome tough face with sharp edges to support his appearance, Very tough and masculine.

The old man of the Wei family went there two years ago, and his father is not in Beijing, so today he will take the place of the Wei family.

Fortunately, Wei Lou started to take over the Wei family's affairs in the past two years, so he doesn't know anything. He not only knows how to be humble, but also opens the door for the two elders with kindness.

"Grandpa Ye, Grandpa Wen, you go in first."

"Um."

Ye Maoshan's straight-forward temper was not polite to him, so he nodded and walked in.

Old Master Wen walked behind and praised him with a smile: "Grow up."

Wei Lou was stunned for a moment, and then he didn't know what to think of, smiled and said nothing, and waited for the two to go in before he followed behind.

In addition to Bao Jingxing, there was another person who was confronting Bao Jingxing with clenched fists and red eyes: "It's not me."

The man with his back to them was tall and burly, he couldn't see his face clearly, but he could feel his excitement.

"Young Master Bo, you believe me, it's really not me." Jiang Tianzhi's face was sweating, and he desperately explained: "I have no reason to do this, why should I betray Jiusuo. I..."

Bo Jingxing was cold, and only said lightly: "Then explain to me why there happened to be a problem with your process? Give me a convincing reason, and I will believe you."

"I." Jiang Tianzhi couldn't argue.

Standing where he was, he felt a bucket of cold water pouring down his head, and a gust of cold air rushed up from the soles of his feet, and his mind went blank.

"I don't know why it's going wrong..."

"alright."

Bo Jingxing made a stop gesture for him, as if he didn't want to listen to his 'sophistry' anymore, he took off his glasses and rubbed his swollen temples, his peach eyes were full of haze.

"Nine houses can't tolerate people who betray, and I can't tolerate such people either!"

Just at this time.

Out of the corner of his eye, he saw Ye Maoshan and the others coming in, and quickly got up to meet him: "Old Ye."

Then he saw the two people behind him, and quickly called out: "Old Wen."

As for Wei Lou, he is the same age as him.

He just nodded politely: "Young Master Wei."

Ye Maoshan waved his hand first, gesturing to the person standing in his room: "Is he the ghost you mentioned?"

"The one caught so far is the most suspect." Bo Jingxing said.

Ye Maoshan walked over and walked up to Jiang Tianzhi, his sharp eyes seemed to be able to penetrate a person's soul: "Sell Jiusuo?"

Neither salty nor light tone.

But it makes people stand uneasy.

Jiang Tianzhi changed his expression slightly, but still insisted on looking at him: "I didn't."

Ye Maoshan raised his eyebrows, as if he didn't expect him to refute, so he didn't speak for a moment.

Jiang Tianzhi looked at him with bloodshot eyes, very painful and excited: "It's really not me, and I don't know what's going on. You believe me!"

Chapter 3746 Think about who betrayed the Nine Institutes

Ye Maoshan narrowed his eyes, with the corners of his mouth down, and did not speak.

Bo Jing walked beside him and said in a low voice: "He has been refusing to admit or explain who ordered him."

Jiang Tianzhi felt a burst of sadness when he heard this. Knowing that the explanation was useless, he still clenched his fists, gritted his teeth and said in a low voice: "I really didn't do it..."

Bo Jingxing glanced at him, and didn't say whether he believed it or not. The main reason was that they only found Jiang Tianzhi, the 'inner ghost'. Just like what he said, Jiang Tianzhi was the most suspected.

He never uses emotion to judge right and wrong, and tends to speak with evidence.

Ye Maoshan said lightly at this moment: "Apart from him, is there anyone else suspicious?"

Bo Jingxing took a deep breath: "I haven't found it yet."

"Where's Zong Jin?" Ye Maoshan stepped forward and sat down.

Bo Jingxing said: "Uncle Jiang is still inspecting the batch of discarded chips, and I'm still having people inspect other chips to see how many are discarded."

"Old Ye, what should we do now?" Bao Jingxing was more concerned about this: "The ghost can be caught slowly, but there are still five days before the delivery time. If we can't deliver it... it will definitely cause dissatisfaction in country C. Secondly, this is The farce of being unable to deliver the goods when the first order was received in Beijing has a great impact on our reputation, which is not good news."

Ye Maoshan blew his beard and stared at him: "I want you to tell." This is not something to put on the surface!

Bo Jingxing was embarrassed for a while.

Ye Maoshan didn't care about him, but he was just out of temper. Thinking about it, he quickly arranged: "First ask someone to quickly count the number of business trips. Then we will find someone to start work immediately, and rush the goods within 24 hours to see how much we can get out. You guys Calculate the shortage of goods, and I will go to the negotiating team of country C with Mr. Wen and the others to talk to them and see if we can make a private reconciliation and delay the delivery time."

"I'm afraid it will be difficult to talk to country c..." Bao Jingxing was full of worry.

Ye Maoshan naturally knew that it was a bit difficult, so he raised his hand and patted his shoulder, and said in a slow voice: "There is no other way, we will know the result after we talk about it."

"..." Bao Jingxing fell silent.

Ye Maoshan continued: "In addition, I will contact Wang Chuan to see if he can do anything. In short, we should split up and try our best to solve the problem, instead of standing here entangled in who is right and who is wrong, and who is responsible."

"good."

Bo Jingxing is not a entangled person, he is naturally active, so he will make arrangements immediately.

Instead, Jiang Tianzhi was left in the room, standing there nervously, neither leaving nor staying, very embarrassed and cramped.

Ye Maoshan noticed him, took a sip of water, glanced at him, majestic and calm: "You should also think about what happened."

"You... believe me?" Jiang Tianzhi almost cried at that moment, raised his head in disbelief.

Ye Maoshan lowered his eyes, without much expression on his face, still very serious and full of oppression: "I believe you are useless, you have to find a way to prove your innocence, otherwise you can't change the result just by relying on others to believe you. Think about it carefully Which link went wrong, if you didn't do it, you can definitely think of some clues."

Jiang Tianzhi fell into deep thought after hearing his words.

He has been conscientiously guarding his own process, and it is said that it is impossible to go wrong, but what Bo Shao means is that only his process has problems...

Since it is impossible for him to miss the process, someone must have tampered with it while he was not paying attention.

Chapter 3747 In fact, everyone knows it well

And he was very careful in those days, and Bo Jingxing blocked their production line, so it was impossible for outsiders to get in touch with the chip project.

A figure flashed in his mind, as if a thunderbolt had split through the thick fog, and the vision suddenly opened up—it was just that this person surprised him, and he didn't want to believe it.

Before Ye Maoshan and the others left the house, he said hoarsely: "On the third day of the project, someone sent me an access control card."

Wei Lou walked at the end, turned his head and glanced at him: "Who?"

"He is my younger brother. He was supposed to participate in this project this time, but Master Cheng didn't choose him, and finally gave me this opportunity."

Jiang Tianzhi took a deep breath and said his name with an extremely complicated expression: "Yu Wenhao."

Since Yu Wenhao repeatedly targeted Qiao Nian because of jealousy, Master Cheng has been extremely disappointed in him. Although he still retains his status as a direct disciple, he no longer relies heavily on Wen Hao.

Jiang Tianzhi could see that Master Cheng wanted to grind his junior brother's temperament by being snubbed, so that he would stop being impetuous.

However, Yu Wenhao didn't seem to be aware of Master Cheng's deep meaning. After returning from the M state weapons exhibition, his personality became more gloomy, solitary, and didn't get in touch with other people.

Only occasionally talk to him.

That day, he lost his access control card for some unknown reason. Yu Wenhao picked it up and said he would bring it to him. He accidentally knocked over the water glass and wet his coat.

He just went to change his coat and walked away for a while.

Jiang Tianzhi explained in detail how he changed his coat and walked away: "When I came back, he was still waiting for me there. I asked him, and he said he would wait for me to hand over the access card to me. I didn't think so Duo, I thought he was acting responsibly. And he left after giving me the access control card, I didn't notice anything wrong..."

In fact, if Ye Maoshan hadn't reminded him, he might not be able to remember the episode of that day until now.

Jiang Tianzhi plucked up his courage, looked at Wei Lou and said, "If someone really destroys the chip through me, the only possibility...is him."

"Chi." Wei Lou waved his hand and left without saying anything.

He hates these tricks in the gutter the most.

But he has seen a lot of people like Weiying and Shen Jingyan playing tricks, and he is very experienced in dealing with people who like to make small moves behind their backs.

When he walked out of the room, he turned his head and said to Ye Maoshan and Mr. Wen: "I won't go with you to find the delegation of country c."

His thick black eyebrows suppressed his evil spirit, and said to Ye Maoshan: "I'll catch someone."

He is not good at negotiating.

The Wei family is not in the business of negotiating.

He is better at catching villains.

Ye Maoshan saw his hot and vigorous appearance, and suggested to him: "It's enough to catch him back, and see who is behind him."

"good."

Wei Lou couldn't help saying again.

"Actually, old man, you also know who it is, don't you? Besides the empress of state M, who else could deliberately sabotage the cooperation project."

Ye Maoshan glared at him: "You are a big kid."

However, he could tell from his tone that he didn't mean to refute. He was acquiescing to Wei Lou's guess, but he still said: "It's useless to guess right, we have to have evidence."

Wei Lou hummed, planning to leave first.

Ye Maoshan also said to Mr. Wen: "Let's go too, go and talk to the other party first, and see if it can be delayed for a few days."

Ye Fanchuan received a call from Mr. Ye a few hours later.

Chapter 3748 I still want to run at this time

He was wearing a nightgown at home, with a belt loosely tied around his waist, revealing a white collarbone. His skin was like jade, and he was taking a sip of water from the refrigerator in his hand.

Hearing Ye Maoshan suppressed his anger on the other end of the phone and briefly told him about the situation in Beijing, he probably understood it. Slightly drooping the water in his hand, he responded casually: "So the current situation is that country c only agrees to delay the three-day delay, but Bo Er said that it will take at least ten days to complete the project. There is a difference of 7 days in between, and you have not The solution was delivered on schedule..."

"You don't need to repeat it to me again." Ye Maoshan was simmering in his heart, suppressing his temper and said: "Country c won't let go no matter what, do you have a way to make up this batch of goods?"

Ye Wangchuan casually put the water on the bar, hooked the high chair and sat down, the long legs with bent knees were clearly boned, straight and long: "I asked Ji Lin to look for the Leonard family, they should have extra inventory."

"Are they willing to help?" Old Master Ye hesitated to speak: "They are not from the Hermit Family..."

Ye Wangchuan supported his chin with one hand, and said calmly: "Didn't you teach me since childhood that the prosperity of the world is for profit, and the world's hustle and bustle is for profit."

"That's what I said." Ye Maoshan still didn't think that the Leonard family would stab Nie Qingru in the back at this time.

"As long as the benefits are enough, they will refuse for no reason. You just wait for my news." Ye Wangchuan's voice is light, calm, but invisibly giving people a sense of security that can be entrusted to.

"Be careful with yourself."

Ye Maoshan doesn't know how much power he has outside, so it's meaningless to talk about it.

He thought of something that he could tell Ye Wangchuan: "By the way, the inner ghost caught this time knows you and Niannian."

"who?"

"Yu Wenhao."

Ye Maoshan reported his name: "It is said that he is the closed disciple of Master Cheng, and because Master Cheng did not let him participate in the chip research and development this time, he was dissatisfied with what happened. The kid from the Wei family has already gone to arrest him. Let's see if he escapes. If he doesn't go through the customs, he can still be caught."

"En." Ye Wangchuan replied faintly with drooping eyelashes, not very interested.

"In short, you should be careful outside, and take care of your girlfriend, don't be fooled around all day long!"

Ye Maoshan hung up the phone.

Ye Wangchuan looked at the dimmed light on the phone screen, got up and went into the kitchen to personally prepare the lunch for Qiao Nian.

...

There is a time difference between Independence Island and Beijing.

It was early morning on Independence Island, and it was already night in Beijing.

The weather is deep in winter, and the temperature at night is close to zero. The geographical location of Beijing is not good, and it is destined that this kind of winter night will not be warm.

Around nine o'clock, there was light snow in the sky.

In the blink of an eye, the pattering sleet turned into heavy snow, covering the ground with a layer of velvet white.

The Beijing Airport is full of people.

The central air-conditioning is turned on inside the airport, which is like two different worlds from the ice and snow outside.

Even if it is close to ten o'clock in the evening, there are many people in the international airport who are preparing to go out and get off the plane. Some of them are talking and laughing, and some are in a hurry.

In this bustling space, a thin man stood beside the restroom at Gate 231 of Terminal T3.

At the man's feet was a red suitcase with a cotton coat on it, but what was strange was that the man took off the coat, but did not take off the glasses and hat that covered his face.

Chapter 3749 Your name is Yu Wenhao? that's the name

The plane still has an hour to take off.

Gate 231 has many people sitting on chairs waiting for ticket check, and there are still many vacant seats for Cold Steel chairs.

But the man huddled next to the bathroom didn't intend to go over. He was holding water in a paper cup, and leaned in the corner to drink water.

It's actually more like lowering your presence there and passing the time.

Because he drank the half-filled glass of water in his hand for almost an hour and hadn't finished it yet, and he still took a sip from time to time while holding it in his hand.

He is really acting weird.

It's just that most people at the airport just come to catch a plane, and no one will pay attention to whether there is a weird person with strange behavior around them.

Most people didn't look at him.

Occasionally, one or two young girls secretly glanced at him, and turned around to discuss with their friends: "Hey, do you think the guy over there is a star? Look, he still wears glasses and a hat, and uses a scarf to cover his chin." , Isn't this standard for celebrities to avoid paparazzi?"

"Him?" Another little girl glanced up and down at the man dodging by the bathroom, half-jokingly said: "Look at his panicked look, I don't think it's a celebrity hiding from the paparazzi, but more like running away after committing a crime people."

"Hee hee. Your mouth is really poisonous."

"I'm just telling the truth."

The two whispered a few words and then changed the topic to entertainment stars, and never looked back.

The two chatted from Jiangli, the hottest celebrity at the moment, to the stage scandal that happened not long ago, and from the scandal to the 18th-line female star Tang Ning who just debuted...

They were talking in full swing.

Suddenly, one of the girls' eyes lit up, and she grabbed her little friend's arm excitedly and shook it nervously: "Wo Cao, Wo Cao! Look at the direction of 3 o'clock, there is a super handsome guy! Hurry up, don't lose a year!"

"Where?"

Another little girl looked in the direction she was pointing, and sure enough, she saw a man with a small butcher head striding towards them on the right.

"Wo Cao! This is a star!"

"I think so too? New debut? I haven't seen it before! This height and good looks... Could it be someone from the model circle?"

"possible..."

The two suppressed their excitement and were guessing where the handsome guy came from, when they saw a man in a leather jacket passing by them, creating a gust of wind.

The two little girls held their breath, and waited for the person to walk away before they dared to grab each other's hand and screamed: "So handsome!"

...

Their voices were not small, which attracted some people's attention.

The man who was absent-mindedly leaning in the bathroom before raised his head vigilantly, and immediately stuffed the paper cup in his hand into the wastebasket, pulled up the suitcase and prepared to run first.

Who knew that as soon as he took a step, a long leg blocked his way in front of him.

Yu Wenhao looked up from the toe of the other party's shiny shoes along the long legs, and saw the other party's well-maintained waist and abdomen to that tough face.

And a pair of amorous eyes that don't quite match that face.

"Yu Wenhao?" The man's voice was unhurried, he just blocked his way, and he took out a lighter from his pocket as if he wanted to smoke.

But soon the other party realized that this was the airport, and put the lighter back, and used his height advantage to look down at him.

"Is that the name?"

"..."

Yu Wenhao's heart was held invisibly, and his heart beat so fast that it was about to jump out of his chest cavity. His throat was so dry that he couldn't refute immediately.

Chapter 3750 Caught the inner ghost

Weilou put his hands in his pockets, and glanced at him again: "Isn't that your name?"

Yu Wenhao swallowed, and finally found his own voice: "You've got the wrong person."

He said he took a detour and pulled the suitcase to leave.

The man turned sideways to let him pass, and just as he secretly breathed a sigh of relief, he grabbed the handle of his suitcase with one hand, and when he turned his head, he grinned at him with a half-smile: "It seems to be you."

Hum!

Yu Wenhao's mind kicked, and he went blank for a moment, then he let go of his hand suddenly, and ran away without thinking about his luggage.

That posture was like fleeing for his life, rushing forward like crazy.

It's a pity that he reacted quickly and ran fast. Weilou was already prepared to catch up almost at the same time he started running.

Whirlwind kicked Yu Wenhao from behind.

"Ah!" The person who fled in panic fell to the ground in response, and the kicked one slid on the ground for half a meter before stabilizing, ignoring the distorted face in pain, trying to get up and continue running.

However, it was too late.

Weilou had already walked in front of him, stepped on the back of his hand that was about to get up with his toes, crushed it hard, and sneered: "Why are you running? You dare to betray Jiusuo, and you are afraid of being caught?"

Yu Wenhao was horrified, realized that he could no longer escape, gritted his teeth, raised his head with bloodshot eyes, and said hoarsely, "I, I want to see the teacher!"

"Tsk." Wei Lou squatted down and pinched his chin with his hands, and smiled with a snort: "Only you have the face to be a master?"

Yu Wenhao's throat was dry, and he was more fearful. His eyes were full of horror and he couldn't imagine the future. He only felt that everything was over and his brain was dark.

"I, I want to see the teacher."

He could only insist on repeating this sentence to this man, as if he could be forgiven for seeing the wrong things Master Cheng himself did: "I won't tell you, I want to see my teacher."

Wei Lou smoothed the sneer at the corner of his mouth. Seeing that there was no warmth in his peach eyes, he bent down and twisted his collar like he was catching a chick and pulled him forward: "Okay, I'll take you there."

The people at gate 231 at the airport were stunned. Everyone looked at them, their mouths that couldn't close in shock seemed to be watching the shooting scene of a gangster movie.

Soon the airport security rushed over.

Wei Lou explained the situation to them, asked them for handcuffs, and threw Wen Hao's handcuffs into the back of the car.

Don't talk nonsense with him: "I have a bad temper, you'd better be honest. If you make trouble with me on the way, I don't mind sending you to God."

Yu Wenhao's little thoughts just moved were extinguished in an instant, and he could only lie on the carpet in the back row, looking extremely embarrassed and pitiful.

Qiao Nian muted her cell phone in the lab, and she didn't know even if someone called her or sent her a message during the period.

So when she knew that there was a problem with the chip in Beijing, it was already time for Ye Wangchuan to come and deliver her meals.

Ye Wangchuan's dishes are rather bland, and he only made one spicy dish for her. Qiao Nian is not a picky eater, but he will still eat the spicy dish first when eating.

Ye Wangchuan watched her staring at the spicy chicken, and stretched out his slender hand to slightly shift the order of the dishes for her, signaling her to eat some green vegetables.

Qiao Nian raised his head and glanced at him cynically, but said nothing, silently picked up two chopsticks of green vegetables, and frowned as he ate.

Ye Wangchuan saw that she was bored to eat again and was unwilling to add vegetables, so he broke the principle of not talking about food that he had insisted on for more than 20 years: "You are menstruating, and you will feel better if you eat more vegetables."
