

Madam's 3751

Chapter 3751 Don't mention that person's name next time

"It's the third day." Qiao Nian didn't even bother to lift his eyelids, and said with a very reasonable look, "I'm already on the third day, so I don't need to pay attention to these things."

She used to live a rougher life. When she came to her aunt, she would take a painkiller to withstand it. She would do whatever she should, and would not postpone her affairs because of her menstrual period.

In the past few days, she went to bed early and woke up late according to Ye Wangchuan's request, and drank brown sugar water, which was enough for her health.

Health care made her suspect that she was not in her early 20s, but in her seventies and eighties.

However, the usually talkative person is very stubborn in this matter, staring at her every time, he must watch her to rest.

Ye Wangchuan didn't say a word, picked up the serving chopsticks and picked up a piece of crispy chicken nugget for her, paired with green vegetables, before casually saying: "Eat, eat less."

Qiao Nian has always been helpless with gentleness, sighed, raised his hand as a gesture of surrender, and continued to eat with chopsticks.

She was very attentive while eating and didn't talk much.

Ye Wangchuan waited for her to finish eating, and handed her a bowl of chicken soup.

Qiao Nian stared at the chicken soup handed to him and hesitated for half a second, then took it over cruelly, pinched his nose and drank it in one go.

She looked like she was taking medicine, which made Ye Wangchuan couldn't help but raise the corners of his mouth, the smile on his lips was full of helplessness and compromise towards her.

"I stewed all morning..."

Qiao Nian returned the bowl and said weakly, "So I drank it all."

If she hadn't known the chicken soup he specially stewed for herself, she wouldn't have drank it today.

Why.

Gentle and innocent.

But some people's gentleness is quite terrible!

She was so full of food and drink that she was lazy and didn't want to move. Then she saw Ye Wangchuan putting away the food box and talking to her about the things in Beijing in a leisurely manner.

Qiao Nian listened casually at first, almost dozing off, her eyelids half drooped, covering those beautiful black eyes.

Until she heard Ye Wangchuan say that Mr. Ye and Jiang Zongjin were in a hurry, she finally opened her eyes and looked over clearly: "I can ask Lu Zhi for help."

Qiao Nian was a little hesitant before she said this, but she acted urgently, she knew that Ye Wangchuan wouldn't get it wrong.

Who knew that as soon as she finished speaking, a hand with distinct finger bones covered her eyes to prevent her from looking, and said in a soft tone: "I can solve it, you don't need to find him."

Qiao Nian blinked her eyelashes, noncommittal: "How do you plan to solve it?"

Ye Wangchuan looked at her face that was close at hand, and there was an electric current from the eyelashes gently scratched in the palm of his hand, and he slightly pursed his lips: "I asked Ji Lin to find someone from the Leonard family, and the matter has already been resolved." We've talked about seven or eight."

"You found someone from the Leonard family?" Qiao Nian was a little surprised, and thought about it: "Then Nie Qingru will be * off if she finds out."

"Hmm." His eyes fell on the girl's open and closed red lips, he was a little distracted, and suddenly called out: "Nian Nian."

Qiao Nian couldn't see, only heard his voice hoarse, and he was stunned for half a second: "Huh?"

Ye Wangchuan raised the corners of his mouth slightly, with stars falling in his eyes, looking at the girl's white face in front of him for a moment, his Adam's apple up and down: "Kiss?"

"..."

He didn't wait for Qiao Nian's answer, he withdrew his hand suddenly, pulled him into his arms and lowered his head.

After the kiss was over, he buried his head in the girl's neck and said in a low voice, "Next time, remember not to mention that person's name."

"What?" Qiao Nian gasped for breath and realized who he was talking about.

Ye Wangchuan had already settled his emotions and sat up straight and began to tell him how Ji Lin and the Leonard family traded.

Chapter 3752 Because of Qiao Nian, didn't you give up on me a long time ago?

Qiao Nian just sat there and listened to him talking about how to solve this predicament.

The whole person is not very interested.

In the middle of the process, she was still a little distracted, and the scene of the kiss just now kept replaying in her mind.

Qiao Nian pressed his forehead, not knowing what was wrong with him, so he took a deep breath and tried to force himself to concentrate.

Finally, Ye Wangchuan finished his plan without haste, Qiao Nian pulled off his peaked cap, leaned back, very lazy: "Okay, just follow your arrangement."

**

Beijing City.

Wei Lou personally brought him back.

Because Yu Wenhao wanted to meet Master Cheng on the way, he said that except for Master Cheng who came over in person, he would not explain to anyone who asked him.

Wei Lou knew what his plan was, and after bringing him back to the Ninth Institute, he asked Bao Jingxing to notify Master Cheng and others to come over.

Because Jiang Tianzhi was involved in this matter, Jiang Tianzhi was also brought here.

In a blink of an eye, the room was full of people.

Ye Maoshan, Master Cheng, and Jiang Zongjin are all here.

Besides, Bo Jingxing, as the person in charge of the Nine Institutes, must be there, plus Jiang Tianzhi and Weilou... There are people in every corner of the small conference room.

Where did Yu Wenhao see this battle.

After he entered the door, he lowered his head, with a white face, staring at his toes without speaking, like a piece of wood stuck in the middle.

Wei Lou put his hands in his jacket pockets, saw that he was silent, sneered, raised his foot and kicked him from behind, urging him impatiently: "Say it. Everyone you want to see is here, pretend to be dumb with my young master now?"

"Ah." Yu Wenhao had fallen and injured his knee before, but he was suddenly kicked from behind to the bend of his leg, almost kneeling on the ground.

Seeing his pitiful look, Wei Lou said in a cold voice, "Don't put on that look, make it look like someone is bullying you. As far as what you did, no matter how pitiful you are now. No victims. Put away the show and save!"

Yu Wenhao's face turned blue and white after he said it, he raised his head and looked around the room, his eyes fell on Master Cheng, and he called out: "Old, teacher."

Master Cheng immediately turned his head away, extremely disappointed in him, he didn't even want to look at him again.

Yu Wenhao saw his reaction, his heart turned cold, and he called out more and more sadly: "Old, teacher, I'm sorry."

Master Cheng suppressed the anger and disappointment in his heart, and finally looked back at him: "Who asked you to tamper with the program."

Yu Wenhao met his stern eyes, hesitated for a moment, and said slowly: "I told you, can you forgive me?"

"Huh?" Master Cheng was almost laughed angrily by him: "Are you bargaining with me? You made such a big mistake yourself. You never thought about being sorry to your senior brother, or to your colleagues and Qing who worked day and night. The members of the big scientific research team... until now you are still thinking about how to get yourself out. Wen Hao, you have disappointed me so much!"

Yu Wenhao seemed to be hit * the head by a wooden clapper, and his brain buzzed.

Looking up at his teacher's angry and disappointed expression, he was silent for a moment, as if he had been stimulated by some kind of stimulation, and blurted out: "Didn't you disappoint me a long time ago?!"

Master Cheng paused and frowned: "What are you talking about?"

"You gave up on me a long time ago." Yu Wenhao pinched his palms, his eyes were red: "From the day I offended Qiao Nian, you have been disappointed in me! Isn't that why you didn't let me participate in this chip project? So don't tell me that you are only disappointed now... this hypocritical rhetoric, you believe it yourself... ah!"

Chapter 3753 How much do you think your life is worth?

Before Yu Wenhao finished speaking, someone slapped his left cheek vigorously. While his eardrums were buzzing, his face was slapped to one side, and the smell of blood filled his mouth.

Master Cheng's hands were still in mid-air, his fingertips were trembling, he didn't know if it was a reaction of anger or extreme disappointment, the angry slap didn't show him any sympathy.

"You are selfish, narrow-minded, and only see yourself. This is why I am disappointed in you!"

"..."

Master Cheng's chest fluctuated violently, and he slowly lowered his hands, as if he was extremely disappointed in him: "You are right, I am not worthy to be your teacher. I am teaching you knowledge, but I can't teach you how to be a man. It is my dereliction of duty. You Just treat me as a teacher without me!"

Yu Wenhao was still unconvinced when he got slapped at first, but now he was anxious when he heard Master Cheng said that he wanted to sever ties with him, and reached out to grab Master Cheng's clothes: "Teacher, I was wrong."

Master Cheng avoided his hand, turned his head and said to Bao Jingxing and the others: "I'm sorry, I'm tired. He can handle his affairs as he wants. I also made a mistake this time. After this matter is resolved, I will write a Submit the review paper."

Everyone watched Master Cheng leave.

Jiang Zongjin looked at the back of Master Cheng leaving, paused, turned his head and said to the people around him, "I'll go out for a while."

Only Mr. Ye and the others were left in the room.

Master Cheng left.

Others are not so patient with Wen Hao.

Bo Jingxing pushed up his glasses with his hands crossed over his chest, with a smile on his lips, he walked up to the distraught Yu Wenhao looking gentle and harmless, and lifted his chin.

"How about it, figured it out? Let's talk about it."

"I can say."

Yu Wenhao met his eyes, hesitated, and insisted: "But you must ensure that I will let me go after I finish speaking, and you can't make things difficult for me."

"Pfft." Bao Jingxing laughed.

Seeing Yu Wenhao's instantly livid face, he suppressed a smile: "Sorry, what did you say? I didn't hear you clearly, please say it again."

Yu Wenhao vaguely felt the danger, but at this juncture he had to fight for the best interests for himself.

So he gritted his teeth and looked at Bao Jingxing and repeated what he said before, "I want to ensure my safety."

"oh."

This time, Bao Jingxing responded without changing his face.

In the next second, he suddenly grabbed his shoulders, raised his knees and slammed into his stomach.

Just like that, Yu Wenhao's eyes turned black in pain, and he knelt down on the ground and covered his stomach for a long time without recovering.

Bo Jingxing pulled out a handkerchief from somewhere to wipe his fingers, squatted on the ground, grabbed his chin again, and raised his face with five fingers to look at himself.

"Who gave you the confidence to talk to me like that?"

"you..."

"Do you know how much disaster you caused and how many people have to pay for your mistakes?"

"..." Yu Wenhao shrank his angry eyes, obviously guilty.

Bo Jingxing looked at him condescendingly and forced him to listen: "It took ten years for the scientific research team of Tsinghua University to break through the chip constraints, and it took us a year and a half to negotiate this order with Country C. And you, to vent yourself The dissatisfaction in my heart turned a blind eye to the hard work of so many people and almost screwed everything up."

"That's it, do you still have the face to negotiate with me here? Do you think you have enough face, or do you think your rotten life is worth enough?"

Yu Wenhao heard that he seemed to want his own life, and his shoulders trembled in fright: "You can't punish me in private."

Chapter 3754 She is an emotionless machine

"Hey, are you afraid of death?"

Bo Jingxing let go of his grip, stood up again, and looked at him out of the corner of his eye: "Don't worry, a dirty thing like you is not worthy of me."

"Huh."

Yu Wenhao lost all strength to support himself, and fell heavily to the ground.

I heard Bao Jingxing's ruthless voice announcing the final result of his treatment: "I will hand you over to the police, and these things you have done are enough to sentence you to more than 20 years. You can spend the rest of your life in prison! "

"No!" Yu Wenhao raised his head suddenly, his eyes widened in disbelief: "Impossible. Don't. I want to see my teacher!"

He crawled on the ground in a panic, trying to stand up and rush out to find Master Cheng to help him.

When he touched the people around him, Jiang Tianzhi, who had been silent all the time, pushed him away, looked at him coldly and said, "Yu Wenhao, this is all the result of your own fault. If you have a little conscience, don't." If you become a master again, you will be responsible for what you do!"

Yu Wenhao couldn't hear anything, only Bo Jingxing said that he would hand him over to the police and he would be sentenced to 20 years...

He couldn't stop talking: "I want to see the teacher, I want to see the teacher."

No one in the room paid attention to him.

Watching him pretending to be crazy, Wei Lou felt his eyes were hot, so he straightened up and said hello to Bao Jingxing: "You guys go ahead, I'm leaving first."

Bo Jingxing looked at his back as he left gracefully, and said, "Thank you."

Wei Lou raised his hand without looking back: "I'm not helping you, nor helping your friends. I'm helping Qiao read."

Bo Jingxing squinted his eyes, as if thinking of something interesting, raised the corners of his mouth like a fox, took out his mobile phone and sent a wechat message to his friends far away in Independence Island—[Wang Ye, you have a lot of rivals in love.]

After sending the WeChat message, he realized that Ye Maoshan was still here. He quickly put away his phone, and walked up to Mr. Ye respectfully: "Mr. Ye, look..."

"I have nothing to look at." Ye Maoshan came to see the ghost they had caught. He had been drinking tea one after another just now, and did not participate in the interrogation of Yu Wenhao: "Just do as you said."

In fact, they can deal with Yu Wenhao privately, and even use some tricks to make Yu Wenhao open his mouth. But no matter what, Yu Wenhao is Master Cheng's closed disciple. No matter how disappointed Master Cheng is with Wen Hao, they still have to give this old gentleman the respect they deserve.

Handing Yu Wenhao to the police is the best result.

"good."

Bo Jingxing obtained his consent and immediately called the police.

He has a special status, the police did not dare to neglect the call, and quickly sent a police car to pick him up, and the siren whistled past the door of the Nine Institutes...

**

Yu Wenhao failed to run away smoothly, and was sent into a police car by the Nine Institutes.

M state received the news immediately.

Nie Qingru was too lazy to lift her eyelids when she heard the report from her subordinates, and waved lightly: "I see, you can go out."

The people under her hand bowed slightly, and asked cautiously: "Queen, do we not care?"

"Take care?" Nie Qingru looked at him in surprise, ruthlessly: "Why should I take care of it? From the very beginning, he was a chess piece destined to be useless."

How could someone be so cruel in this world?

The people under her only felt a chill rushing from the soles of their feet to their heads, and they didn't even dare to raise their heads. After saluting respectfully, they quietly retreated out.

The shadow came in when the person was going out. He passed the person and walked up to Nie Qingru: "Queen."

Chapter 3755 The old witch just found out that she was swayed by the master

"Is there any progress?" Nie Qingru was in a good mood, shaking the red wine glass in his hand.

Shadow lowered his head slightly: "The latest news I heard is that country c is only willing to delay receiving the goods for three days, but Yu Wenhao damaged a large number of chips this time. Even if they rushed to work, they couldn't finish it in three days."

"Pfft." Nie Qingru sneered, feeling more and more cheerful, holding the wine glass with his fingertips, and asked with a smile: "Where is that little wolf cub? Do you know the news?"

"She should know."

"Oh?" Nie Qingru said unhurriedly: "Then what is she going to do? Ask Lu Zhi for help?"

Shadow raised her head, her eyes showed a woman's confident and flamboyant face, no matter how many marks the years had carved on her face, she could not conceal her own charm.

Nie Qingru was also an amazing genius in the hidden family back then, otherwise she would not have been selected as a marriage partner.

Shadow knew very well that Nie Qingru had already bought out the chips in Tianchen's hand a few days ago, even if Qiao Nian went to Lu Zhi, Lu Zhi would not be able to provide the goods to help.

This is the game Nie Qingru set up—a dead game!

Press people into a dead end step by step, watching that person scurry around like a mouse, and then block the possibility of people inside escaping early.

This is Nie Qingru.

Nie Qingru saw him distracted, and raised her eyebrows in dissatisfaction: "I'm talking to you."

Shadow came back to his senses, and quickly lowered his head: "She hasn't moved yet."

"..." The smile on Nie Qingru's face was slightly restrained, and the brows were immediately covered with a layer of haze: "No action?"

Shadow repeated: "Yes, Qiao Nian has not moved for the time being."

"Little wolf cub is not a person who just sits and waits to die." Nie Qingru hoped to see the other party make some moves, but Qiao Nian did not respond to the news... That made her feel uneasy.

Shadow saw her worry, wanted to go forward but didn't dare, so he forced himself to stand still, and comforted in a low voice: "Queen, don't worry, everything is in our plan now, even if she moves It won't change the outcome."

Nie Qingru exhaled foul breath: "You are right."

Soon they understood that Qiao Nian's lack of action was not a sign of bad behavior, but that he had already given the matter to Ye Wangchuan with confidence.

She just nestled in the laboratory to make experimental data with peace of mind.

Nie Qingru knew that it was three days after Ye Fanchuan reached a cooperation with the Leonard family from under her nose, Beijing City successfully delivered the goods to Country C.

As soon as she got the news, she went to find someone to investigate where the goods in Beijing came from.

Especially when she found out about the Leonard family, she was so angry that she almost vomited blood out of anger.

"Prepare the car."

As soon as she received the result, she got the car ready.

As soon as she got in the car, she ordered coldly: "Go to the Privy Council!"

Her car drove all the way to the gate of the Privy Council. Nie Qing hurriedly got out of the car and went straight to Lei Kai's lounge, and opened the door with a bang.

Lei Kai was still talking about things with people, and several people in the lounge were startled when they heard the movement at the door, and turned around to see Nie Qingru who came in full of evil spirit.

Everyone took things wisely: "Then what, the empress has something to do with you, so I'll leave first."

"That's right, let's come back later."

Before the group left, they did not forget to respectfully greet Nie Qingru and call her Your Majesty the Empress.

However, Nie Qingru's temples were throbbing, and she couldn't control her emotions at all. She walked in with a sullen face, and no one responded.

She threw her handbag on the sofa and said condescendingly: "Tell me, why are you guys?"

Chapter 3756 Your Majesty, we did not know the boss behind it in advance

Lei Kai sorted out the documents and materials left on the table, very calmly: "What is the empress referring to?"

"Heh! Things have come to this point, do you still want to play dumb with me?"

Lei Kai understood the purpose of her coming to find him, folded the documents and put them back in the cabinet, turned around and sat on the chair leisurely: "Her Majesty is talking about chips?"

Nie Qingru rested her hands on the desk and stared at him like a torch: "Why did you stab me in the back? Give me a reason."

Lei Kai said bluntly: "We don't know who the boss behind the Kemi company we cooperate with is. After all, we only know the identity of that person an hour before you."

"You don't know..." This reason is really ridiculous.

Nie Qingru also sneered mercilessly: "I don't know!"

Her eyes were as sharp as a blade, and she patrolled Lei Kai's face, sultry and bloody.

The feeling of being targeted by a poisonous snake is very uncomfortable. Lei Kai tugged at the collar of his shirt, took a breath, and continued without changing his face: "Actually, the other party's offer is very good, 50% higher than the market price. .You are also a businessman, so you should be able to understand that it is difficult for anyone to refuse to cooperate with such a premium. We reached a cooperation with the other party under such circumstances. Before that, we didn't know who the boss behind this company was. few."

Lei Kai spoke in an orderly manner, as if the truth was what he said, the Leonard family reached a cooperation with Ye Wangchuan unintentionally, and stabbed Nie Qingru in disguise.

However, the truth is of course not so simple.

In fact, not long after that Mr. Ji Lin approached him, they investigated the identity of the boss behind that company.

But so what?

The benefits offered by the other party are beyond what Nie Qingru can give.

Before, because of Zhai Xicheng's affairs, Nie Qingru had repeatedly shielded Zhai Xicheng, and Zhai Xicheng had touched the core interests of the Leonard family several times...

Double reasons, the elders of the family agreed to this cooperation after discussion.

"Your Majesty, I am very sorry for the current result." Lei Kai calmly expressed his apology, which seemed to be very sincere.

During the whole process, Nie Qingru's pair of poisonous snake-like eyes firmly observed his every word and deed, as if trying to pull away his appearance to see the soul.

After Lei Kai finished his speech prepared in advance, he shut up, and the old * sat on the chair waiting for Nie Qingru's reaction.

Finally, Nie Qingru propped herself up on the desk, half-closed her eyes and brushed off her clothes, turned around and picked up the handbag she had left on the sofa, without looking back: "Is this the reply you Leonard family gave me? Then I got it."

Finished speaking.

She opened the lounge door and slammed out.

"Boom!"

The door was slammed shut.

Looking at the closed door, Lei Kai picked up the internal phone and called the elders of the older generation in the family: "Hey, the queen just found me to ask for an explanation, and I have already spoken according to your instructions."

He looked at the door that was slammed shut, and continued unhurriedly: "But it seems that the queen doesn't believe my statement."

The old man on the other end of the phone hung up the phone after a few words of reassurance.

Lei Kai put the receiver back to its original place, calmed down a bit, and then concentrated on the things he hadn't finished before.

**

The Leonard family is not worried that Nie Qingru will retaliate against them afterwards.

Chapter 3757 is interesting, who did it?

In fact, since Zhai Xicheng made a report in order to force them to accept the order from country c, the relationship between Reina's family and Nie Qingru has become delicate.

This time everyone knew it was revenge.

Nie Qingru also knew that Reina's family was taking revenge on her, but it was as bad as the Reina's family had estimated in advance.

In the car.

The driver who was driving did not know when he became a man who was as silent as a mountain.

He opened the door for Nie Qingru, waited for the other party to get into the car, closed the door carefully, and then went around to drive in front.

All the way are reticent.

It was still Nie Qingru who, after a brief headache, propped her forehead and said to him with pale lips: "I was put together."

"Empress, please rest first, don't think about it."

"They didn't look for Tianchen, they actually looked for the Leonard family. This Ye Wangchuan... I underestimated him."

She gritted her teeth.

Nie Qingru has always been good at playing tricks on people's hearts. This is the first time she has been played around by others, and finally realized that she has been played.

This feeling is really not good.

"What are you going to do with the Leonard family?" Shadow asked in a low voice while driving after silence.

Nie Qingru had a terrible headache. After thinking for a while, she opened and closed her lips with a gloomy face: "I can't touch them."

"West City had a bad fight with them not long ago, and later there was a farce about losing the ledger. At this juncture, I will fight them again over the chip matter. I am afraid that the Leonard family will form enemies with us in the future. ."

Ye Wangchuan came to the door after accurately judging the situation.

Nie Qingru's temples were throbbing, he closed his eyes, and suppressed his worry: "My authority in the hidden family has begun to weaken. If I continue, it will only reduce my right to speak."

She told Shadow again about her going to Lei Kai, and explained the situation at that time in a few words.

"Now the Leonard family insists that they didn't know in advance. In this case, I can't move them even more, otherwise I will become unreasonable."

The more Nie Qingru analyzed, the more clearly she could see how the opponent blocked her with a move, making her face the current dilemma.

If she decides with the Leonard family, she will lose an important partner of the Privy Council and form a personal enmity with the Leonard family.

If she doesn't care about the Leonard family, her plans these days, including Yu Wenhao, who gave up before, will be in vain.

If you lose in one step, you lose the whole game!

"I remember that Xicheng was discharged from the hospital today, so I went to the hospital first."

Nie Qingru looked at the speeding scenery outside the car window, and ordered the driver faintly.

Shadow stopped talking, and silently drove the car to the hospital smoothly.

**

"how's it going?"

"Beijing City delivered the chip as scheduled, and Country C is very satisfied, and the two parties have reached a further cooperation."

"Oh? Where did they get the chip?"

"It is said that the chip was obtained from the Leonard family."

In the hospital.

Zhai Xicheng had already changed his clothes and was about to be discharged from the hospital. At this moment, he threw off the person Nie Qingru arranged to protect him by his side, and hid in the stairway where the monitoring was blind.

Standing directly opposite him was a man in a protective uniform, reporting to him the latest news from various places.

"The Leonard family?" Zhai Xicheng's eyes lit up, and the corners of his mouth pursed, as if interested: "It's interesting. Who did it?"

Chapter 3758 He is a lunatic

He thought it was Qiao Nian.

Who knew it wasn't the person he thought.

"Ye Wangchuan. Master of Yaomen."

Zhai Xicheng became more and more reckless: "Oh, him, you have said less. Besides being the master of Yaomen, he is also the master behind the dark castle. He is not a person to be trifled with." But he likes to chew on difficult things bones!

The man in the overalls on the opposite side of him whispered: "The queen doesn't seem to want to care about this betrayal with the Leonard family."

"Oh." Zhai Xicheng was not interested in this, he just twitched his mouth, as if he didn't hear it, and played with his phone.

The man braved up and said a little: "Young Master Zhai, in fact, the empress did this... probably to protect you."

Before he finished speaking, a metal edge was suddenly pressed against his forehead.

It turned out that it was Zhai Xicheng who suddenly pointed the phone at his temple, pressed it against his forehead like a pistol, and made a movement of pulling the trigger.

He also chuckled and imitated the voice: "Ah. Boom!"

The man's heart trembled, he was so frightened, cold sweat broke out on his forehead, he stood there and didn't dare to move, even though he knew it was a fake, his legs were still trembling with fright.

At this time, Zhai Xicheng put away his phone, and looked at him with a smile as if he had succeeded in a prank: "Scared?"

"...Zhai, Shao Zhai."

Zhai Xicheng shook the phone in front of him, looking gentle and easy to talk: "It's a phone, not a real gun, what are you afraid of?"

The man looked at his smiling face, and became even more frightened. His legs softened and he wanted to kneel down: "Master Zhai, I was wrong."

"What are you doing? Get up, those who don't know think I'm bullying you." Zhai Xicheng grabbed him and prevented him from kneeling.

The man maintained a half-kneeling posture, neither continued nor stood up.

But Zhai Xicheng didn't let go. The two sides were in a stalemate for half a second. The man still stood up stiffly, but he was so frightened that he lowered his head the whole time, trembling.

Zhai Xicheng saw his trembling legs, and smiled inexplicably: "Are you so afraid of me? I won't eat you."

"I'm sorry, Young Master Zhai." Zhai Xicheng is a lunatic, and he dare not provoke him. He already knew that he had done something wrong and shouldn't talk too much, but at the time his brain got hot and he didn't know how to say it.

Zhai Xicheng then suppressed the smile in his eyes, and glanced at him lightly: "Have you been with me for ten years?"

"Eleven years."

"Then remember my rules, do more and talk less." Zhai Xicheng looked at the cold sweat on his forehead, and reminded him without changing his face: "This time I will pretend I didn't hear it, and you didn't say it either. If And next time..."

"There will be no next time, Young Master Zhai."

Zhai Xicheng let out an 'hmm' from his throat, as if to let him go this time, raised his hand to look at the time on his watch, and explained to him: "I'll go out first, you wait here for another half an hour Go out again."

...

When Zhai Xicheng returned to the ward, Nie Qingru and Ying Ying were inside.

Shadow frowned when he saw him come back, and asked in a deep voice, "Where did you go? I just asked the doctors and nurses but they didn't see you."

Zhai Xicheng raised the medicine in his hand: "I'm going to get the medicine, and I went to the bathroom by the way."

Shadow intuitively felt that he was lying: "Why don't the bodyguards take it?"

Nie Qingru rubbed the center of her brows when she heard this, and called Shadow: "Okay, I didn't wait long."

Zhai Xicheng glanced at the shadow provocatively, walked over and called: "Auntie."

Chapter 3759 Miss Nian focuses on the last experiment

Nie Qingru's expression eased a lot, and he asked about his physical condition with concern, and then asked if he had recovered well in the past few days, including what the doctor said.

Zhai Xicheng answered one by one.

Nie Qingru calmed down a little: "Since the doctor told you to rest more, you should stay at home and rest recently, and don't go out and run around if you have nothing to do."

"I know, auntie." Zhai Xicheng's eyelashes drooped, looking completely docile.

Nie Qingru seemed to see another person through him. She was distracted for a few seconds, then quickly recovered and said, "I know you were not convinced when you lost to her last time. I will find a chance to let you out, but no Now, don't run around during this time, and... try not to provoke the Leonard family."

Everyone present knew who she was referring to.

Nie Qingru is talking about Qiao Nian.

When Zhai Xicheng heard this name, his blood boiled. He pressed the tip of his tongue against his jaw, trying to calm down his surging heart, and lowered his head: "Okay, I will listen to you."

Nie Qingru looked at him a few more times, and finally said softly: "Your uncle's ashes are in her hands, don't worry, I will * them back."

The smile on Zhai Xicheng's face disappeared in an instant. I don't know if it was because he heard that his uncle's ashes were robbed or simply heard his uncle's name.

He quickly controlled his emotions, didn't smile, but was calm enough: "Thank you, auntie."

Nie Qingru patted him on the shoulder: "I still have something to go, you wait and let Shadow help you with the discharge procedures."

"good."

Zhai Xicheng nodded with his shoulders sunken.

Nie Qingru stopped staying and went out first.

Shadow walked behind, seeing the ambiguous expression on his face, and frowned slightly to warn him: "The queen has lost a lot because of you, if you still have a little conscience, put away your little calculations, don't let her down!"

Zhai Xicheng raised his head to look at him, his eyes were calm, as if there was only an empty coolness left in the two cold pools: "My aunt even thinks that I have given my granddaughter to vent my anger, so what can I do to my aunt? Uncle Ning, you Thinking too much."

Shadow couldn't tell how he felt the moment he met his gaze, it was very uncomfortable anyway, especially what he said was also uncomfortable.

Shadow didn't say anything more, and walked out: "I'll go through the discharge procedures for you."

Zhai Xicheng clicked his tongue and watched them leave.

Independent Continent.

First Research Institute.

There has been a lot of commotion outside these few days. After the Beijing city delivered the chips as scheduled, M state was equivalent to suffering another dumb loss.

Recently, dissatisfaction with Nie Qingru within the Hermit Family has been increasing day by day. Only the conservatives are left among the three giants of the Privy Council, and they continue to support the Empress.

And Nie Qingru's own property is also suffering countless losses every day because of the confrontation with the Beijing city this time.

Such a long-term loss is obviously not a good thing.

The Hermit Family held frequent meetings to discuss whether they should continue to unilaterally suppress Beijing.

The archbishop was the first to stand up and express his disapproval of the continued suppression of Beijing.

The Leonard family also stood with the archbishop for the first time this time, and also expressed their unwillingness to continue to let the hermit family suffer losses.

...

These have nothing to do with Qiao Nian.

She devoted herself wholeheartedly to breaking through the last experiment. Apart from Xu Yi and Feng Yu who were helping, she even got Xie Tingyun here.

Chapter 3760 Sister Nian finally unlocked the last experiment

Xie Tingyun deserves to be the first person in physics.

With Xie Tingyun joining, solutions were found for several difficult problems that could not be solved before, and the experiment became smoother.

In the next half month, Qiao Nian devoted herself more and more to it. Sometimes even Ye Wangchuan might not be able to see her when she came to deliver her meals.

Not going back to the villa at night, Qiao Nian began to sleep in the laboratory again.

She stayed up like this for 20 days regardless of day or night.

Finally, on the morning of the 21st day, Qiao Nian solved Ji Qing's last secret left on the USB drive.

That is the accurate data obtained at the end of a series of S+ experiments. The experiment is difficult, but the final result on paper looks very simple.

Simple as a string of meaningless numbers.

"What does this mean?" Xie Tingyun stayed with Qiao Nian for nearly a month, his watery face couldn't hide the tiredness.

She looked at the series of strange numbers and symbols that Qiao Nian had copied down, and she couldn't help but be dazed, her eyes rarely showed strange emotions.

"Nian Nian, do you understand?" Xie Tingyun couldn't understand what was written on the paper, so he asked Qiao Nian.

Not just her.

In the laboratory, Feng Yu, Shi Fu and Xu Yi all looked solemnly at the girl sitting on the table in the middle of the laboratory.

Qiao Nian moved her hand slightly, pinched the pen in her hand, lowered her extremely long eyelashes, and the light and shadow fell on her superior facial features to outline an arc.

She seemed to be thinking, but didn't answer right away.

Xie Tingyun noticed her chapped lips, and reached out to grab the paper in Qiao Nian's hand like dissuading: "Forget it, don't think about it. We are not in a hurry, you go back and take a shower to rest. Next, what is the meaning behind this number, we will discuss it slowly when we get back..."

But before her fingers touched the paper, Qiao Nian spoke slowly, her voice hoarse and hoarse, "It's Morse code."

Xie Tingyun paused, surprised: "Morse code?"

Qiao Nian tilted his head to meet her eyes: "Yes."

Xie Tingyun could see the seriousness in her clear eyes, which didn't seem to be fake, and she started to lose her mind for some reason.

"What the * is she... hiding?"

Ji Qing would rather die than hide the U disk, the last experiment in it is not the truth behind so many unsolvable S+ experiments.

What awaited them turned out to be another string of complex and mysterious Morse codes.

"I don't know." Qiao Nian answered very simply.

After she finished speaking, she folded the paper and put it in her clothes, got up to get the coat and mobile phone in the cabinet, and turned to the four people in the laboratory: "I remember I found an experiment record she left at home. Maybe there is a way to unlock the password. I'll go back first, and you guys wait for my news."

Xie Tingyun opened his mouth, and the words changed into: "You should pay attention to rest, these are not in a hurry."

The girl nodded sensibly: "Well, I understand."

Xie Tingyun looked at the back of her leaving recklessly, and knew that she only agreed to it to reassure herself, and actually didn't plan to rest at all.

Seeing Qiao Nian open the door of the laboratory and leave first.

She smiled wryly, and looked back at Feng Yu and the others in the laboratory: "Dean, Vice President, I'm not feeling well, so I'm leaving first."

"Okay." Feng Yu knew that she was not feeling well, but just thinking of her deceased friend felt uncomfortable, so she gently advised her: "You also go back and have a good rest."

Xie Tingyun nodded politely, walking in a hurry.
