

Madam's 3781

Chapter 3781 A bright light hit his eyes

at the same time.

Zhai Xicheng also moved.

He didn't run around with headless flies like the others, but chased towards the southeast with a clear target.

There is an entrance to the southeast of this forest, and only there can go up the mountain.

If he wanted to avoid being tracked, he would hide in the mountains.

It turns out he was right.

An old man with a seven or eight-year-old child is destined to run slowly. He didn't waste much time chasing the grandpa and grandson.

"Ah! Grandpa." As the child kicked the stone on the ground and accidentally fell, the old man finally stopped as if giving up.

The old man helped up his little grandson who fell to the ground and wept. He didn't look at the person who was chasing him, and said without turning his head: "You have been chasing me for twenty years because you just want to bury all the projects she studied in the ground... I've said it many times, I don't know anything. Believe it or not, our group has only worked around humanitarian aid since we realized it and finally separated. What research, projects you are talking about...I have no idea! "

"I believe in you." Zhai Xicheng responded faintly behind him, his voice was filled with laughter, and he was very gentle and easy to talk.

The old man didn't seem to believe that the other party would say that, as if a desperate person suddenly saw a glimmer of hope and immediately looked up at him.

Zhai Xicheng is undoubtedly a young man.

He wore a hood to cover most of his face, but his eyes were bright and bright, which made people relax their vigilance.

"you..."

"Shh." Zhai Xicheng made a hissing gesture for him, took out a gun from his pocket, and loaded it casually in front of the old man.

The expression of the old man changed slightly, he put his grandson behind him and looked at him in disbelief: "Didn't you say you believed me..."

"Yeah, I believe you." The sound of the pistol being loaded and his rambling voice formed a deliberate harmony.

Zhai Xicheng looked into the other person's eyes, and smiled suddenly: "Oh, just because I believe you doesn't mean I will let you go. Have you ever heard a sentence?"

"..."

"Only the dead can make people feel at ease in this world!"

After he finished speaking, the black muzzle of the gun was aimed at the old man's temple.

After 20 years of hiding, he finally faced this day. The old man couldn't tell whether it was more fear or more relief.

His voice was extremely dry due to nervousness. He looked at the young man he had never met before and said his last plea: "My grandson doesn't know anything. He is still young. Can you send him back to my friend's house after I die? ? Since you have found me, you should know where I am hiding."

This is his only request.

Zhai Xicheng raised his lips, but he didn't soften his heart. He just raised the corner of his mouth and said, "He will accompany you soon after you die. Then you can take care of him yourself, don't you feel more at ease?"

"You don't even spare a child?!"

The old man's face really changed now, and he couldn't believe he pulled the little boy back two steps, angry and scared at the same time.

"He doesn't know anything!"

Zhai Xicheng didn't want to talk to him, and was about to do it.

Suddenly, there was a whistle of a motorcycle in the woods, buzzing from all directions, as if a lot of people had come.

In Zhai Xicheng's first reaction, a figure like an old enemy appeared in his mind. He put away the frivolity in his eyes, and was about to shoot at the old man.

Just at this critical moment, a bright light hit his eyes from the opposite side.

Chapter 3782 Still shot

Zhai Xicheng's eyes were hurting, and his trigger finger slipped. The momentary pause was enough for someone to take the old and the young away.

"Hold on to me."

Girls' voices always have the power to calm people's hearts.

After Zhai Xicheng covered his eyes and moved his hands away, and briefly adapted to the strong light, he only saw the back of a motorcycle driving away.

And the old and the young who were not far from him just now have been taken away by the other party.

His expression turned cold, he raised his hand and aimed at the direction the motorcycle was driving away to catch up with a few shots, if it wasn't for the time limit.

With his skill, he might still hit the tire.

However, the few shots he blind-fired were also very accurate, and he could see the small sparks from the bullets hitting the metal frame.

Zhai Xicheng still couldn't keep the motorcycle, he just watched it flick its tail and disappear from his field of vision with a kick of the accelerator.

He turned cold and Ma Shan took out his mobile phone and made a call: "Qiao Nian is here, let's leave first."

Almost at the same time.

The girl riding on the scooter is also talking to someone through the walkie-talkie in her ear: "I have already received someone, don't miss it, let's go first."

"good."

Without further ado, Guan Yan gave an order to Dahuayi and the others to withdraw first. Their purpose today is to **** people, not to fight these people here to the death.

The sound of roaring motorcycles in the woods faded away.

Two off-road vehicles were parked outside, and the man in white shirt and black pants was leaning against the side of the car, waiting for the people inside to come out. Soon he heard the sound of a motorcycle coming from inside.

"Sister Qiao and the others have come out." Qin Si stood up straight.

Sure enough, they quickly saw the person coming out of it.

Qiao Nian was ambushed as soon as she landed in the illegal area. In addition, her status as a big boss made people afraid, and there were not a few people staring at her.

In order to avoid trouble, she didn't think about making a big disturbance this time, and only brought a few capable people from Hongmeng over.

Since they can't make a fuss, they certainly can't go head-to-head with this big group of people.

So when Qiao Nian knew that Michelle and his grandson had left their hiding place, he came up with an impromptu way to grab people by moving around flexibly.

They also rushed over like stars and moons, but fortunately they were in time.

Qiao Nian was the first to come out.

Qin Si only heard the screech of brakes, and saw the girl step on the ground, take off her helmet, and shake her hair.

Oh shit, handsome.

Qin Siyou was handsome for a second.

Qiao Nian had already hung his helmet on the front of the car, turned around and said to the people behind him, "Get out of the car."

Behind her car, there are an old and a young person who just got into the car.

The little one was okay, he got out of the car obediently.

The situation of the old man is not so optimistic.

"He was shot." Ye Fanchuan walked over at some point, held the arm of the old man who got out of the car, and spoke to the girl in a deep voice.

Qiao Nian turned his head at this moment and saw the blood oozing from the clothes on the old man's chest, and then looked at the dying old man who didn't make a sound. There was nothing he didn't understand.

Her expression was a little ugly, she lowered her voice, and looked at the silent old man with dark eyes: "Why didn't you say you were shot!"

When she led the people away, she heard gunshots behind her, and knew that it was Zhai Xicheng who reacted and fired.

At that time, she did not expect that the person behind her would be shot.

Because she never thought that someone would be shot, she held back without saying a word.

The old man was dying, his eyes kept falling on the little boy, and he spoke weakly: "I don't want to cause trouble for you."

Chapter 3783 Sister Nian: Save people first

Although he is old, he doesn't know where these people came from.

But he has a hunch.

These people are here to help themselves.

In fact, he has been feeling this way for the past few days. Someone has been helping him in the dark, so that he can hide with his grandson for several days without being found by those people...

Ye Wangchuan pinched the girl's wrist bone, and said in a low voice: "He's seriously injured, don't talk about it, let's send him to the hospital first."

Qiao Nian took a deep breath: "Pick him into the car first, and I'll give him an emergency bandage, otherwise he will go into shock before he reaches the hospital."

"good."

Ye Wangchuan called Qin Si to help, and first moved the person into the car.

Qiao Nianjiang made a simple bandage for the old man on the existing things in the car to prevent the old man from bleeding to death.

At this time, Guan Yan and others also came out one after another.

Seeing this scene outside, I was more surprised than pleased.

"What's going on?" Guan Yan walked over.

Qin Si roughly told her about the situation, but didn't have time to elaborate.

Seeing that the girl had already bandaged the old man, she got out of the car, ignoring the blood on her hands, and said to the group: "He was shot."

"We have to go to the hospital to take out his shrapnel first, don't waste time, let's go."

"Sun, here..." Guan Yan frowned, and turned around to show her what to do with those people in the grove.

Qiao Nian wanted to save the old man's life more than dealing with those people in the grove, so he didn't care too much and said, "Save the people first."

"Okay." Guan Yan can probably understand her desire to save people.

This old man has something to do with Sun's mother no matter what, and he was hunted down because of Sun's mother.

Sun has nothing wrong with wanting to save people first.

As for those people...

Guan Yan glanced at the dark grove, raised her beautiful lips, and smiled: "Anyway, it's still in the illegal area, and I can't escape."

The purpose of Qiao Nian's visit this time was only to save people, and the person they were looking for was accidentally shot, so the group of them came and left quickly.

Soon there was no one to be seen outside the grove.

...

Inside the grove.

People from several families have gathered together, numbering in the twenties.

Old lady Xie was the one who reacted the most and had the most embarrassing expression.

"You said Qiao Nian saved the man?"

"Why did she come?"

"She knows?"

Old lady Xie kept asking anxiously in front of Zhai Xicheng, as if Qiao Nian was more terrifying than Yan Luo.

"Impossible... How could she know this secret." She seemed very afraid that Qiao Nian would know what happened back then, and would talk to herself for comfort.

It's just that she couldn't comfort herself this time.

Because the facts are very obvious in front of you.

If Qiao Nian didn't know anything about it, how could he appear in the illegal area at this time and rescue the old man again.

Since she appeared, it means that the secret of their besieged Jiqing back then can no longer be kept secret!

At least Qiao Nian knew some truths.

Old lady Xie's heart beat faster just thinking of this, her whole heart was about to jump out of her throat, and her face became paler and paler.

"What does she want to do, what exactly does she want to do!"

She murmured with emphasis on her mouth, but her heart was full of panic.

Qiao Nian knew that Ji Qing's death back then wasn't scary, but what was scary was that Qiao Nian's attitude now was to pursue it to the end!

what is this?

Want to settle accounts with them?

Chapter 3784 We must leave the illegal area immediately

Zhai Xicheng didn't talk so much nonsense, and told everyone concisely: "We have to leave immediately."

"Now?"

"where to?"

Many people are skeptical.

Zhai Xicheng didn't change his face: "Leave the illegal area."

—leave, leave the illegal area? !

As soon as the words came out.

Everyone was stunned.

Everyone looked at each other, seeing surprise and puzzlement in each other's eyes, and then quickly moved away, frowning.

Singer refused unceremoniously: "We managed to find the whereabouts of that person, but he accidentally let him slip away. Are you crazy to let us leave the illegal area at this time?"

Only Mrs. Xie felt cold and knew why Zhai Xicheng was in such a hurry to leave.

Standing there was uneasy, his face was ugly and terrible, he grabbed Singer, and said with a sullen face: "You just listen to him. If you don't leave, none of us will be able to leave!"

Singer shook his hand: "What nonsense are you talking about. We are going to catch someone soon, anyway, I won't go."

Others saw the tense atmosphere in front of them and didn't know which side to stand on.

A thin monkey-like man saw the tense atmosphere, and smoothed things over in the middle: "Okay, okay. We're all together, what are you guys doing~ We have things to discuss, don't quarrel."

Singer had been extremely dissatisfied with Zhai Xicheng for a long time, and now he took the opportunity to be more aggressive, and sneered with his arms folded: "I don't dare to quarrel with the Queen of the Hermit Family. But I also have a mission this time. , Now people have run away, the task is not completed, and I am not going anywhere."

"This..." The thin monkey also came with a family mission, and immediately looked at Zhai Xicheng: "Young Master Zhai, why don't you ask the queen?"

The hermit family has always been the leader of them.

Now that this situation is happening, it is natural for everyone to find a solution to the Hermit Family.

Who knew that Zhai Xicheng turned around and left indifferently: "You don't want to leave, don't blame me for not reminding you later."

He left without looking back, unexpectedly leaving so many people alone!

He left.

Nie Qingru's Nie family's secret guards sent to him also turned their heads and left, and in a blink of an eye there were only a few remaining families in the grove.

Singer kicked the treetop hard, and his face was twisted with anger: "Fuck, what does he mean! People who are still in the hermit family, is this the attitude of the hermit family?"

The others didn't expect Zhai Xicheng to leave as soon as he said it, without saving any face for everyone, so they left them behind.

Everyone's face is ugly.

Someone grasped the key point, and mentioned a sentence: "What is the background of the group of people who came today? Why did they save Michelle? They also have something to do with the incident twenty years ago?"

Twenty years ago, the hunting season of the big families was a secret, and only the family members who participated in the hunting knew this secret.

There have been almost no rumors in these years, and it can be said to be very secretive.

Now there is only the last person left in the Nantes Alliance. As long as they get rid of the last insider, this secret will be completely buried in the sea.

An accident happened to the last person...

Everyone in the twenties feels uncomfortable at the moment, the feeling of being cut off at the door, can't tell the boredom, it's more aggrieved and unwilling.

"Who the **** is Qiao Nian?"

Everyone looked at Mrs. Xie who was the only one who knew.

Chapter 3785 They are on other people's territory

Because she was the only one who reacted the most when Zhai Xicheng said this name, obviously she knew the group who came today.

Twenty or so pairs of eyes stared at her, full of curiosity about the name.

The old lady Xie was silent for a while, and squeezed out a sentence from her stiff muscles: "She is Ji Qing's daughter. She was hidden by Ji Qing in the Orphanage around the city more than ten years ago, and she has only been found now..."

"These are not the point." She didn't care to explain so much to these people, looked around everyone with an embarrassed face, and said, "The point is that this is an illegal area."

"What's wrong with the illegal area?" Even the woman who had just been **** off by Zhai Xicheng was aroused by curiosity, and couldn't help answering.

The muscles on the old lady Xie's cheeks were stretched and trembled, she clenched her fists and squeezed her teeth out: "The illegal area is her territory."

"She is sun."

The boss of the Hongmeng.

sun.

Even the uninformed have heard of this name.

Everyone's expressions changed.

The old lady Xie didn't care about that much, and reluctantly said: "Let's go back quickly, listen to the words of the Hermit Family and withdraw first. Michelle is not the point, the point is that since she has found out here, we can't leave if we don't leave." Lost."

**

Facts have proved that Zhai Xicheng is very smart and quick to respond.

When Xiao Shulin and his group returned to the hotel and were about to find connections and leave, Zhai Xicheng had already come down from upstairs.

Seeing the people who just came back now, he was condescending: "...all our fake IDs have been blacklisted in illegal areas, and there is no way to leave the country."

The illegal area is the same as the independent state.

Access control is very strict.

However, no matter how strict the management is, there will always be loopholes that can be exploited. They came to the illegal area this time using false identities in order to keep a low profile as much as possible.

Zhai Xicheng tried to buy a plane ticket with his identity in the illegal area as soon as he came back, and immediately found that his fake identity was on the blacklist.

Since he is on the blacklist.

Then the identity of other people must have the same result.

Sure enough.

Others did not believe in evil at first, and each tried to use their ID cards to buy air tickets, boat tickets and other means of transportation that could leave the illegal area.

Soon they discovered that Zhai Xicheng was right—they were exposed!

No matter how they try to refresh, the prompt that pops up on the phone will always be that there is a problem with their ID card.

"Fuck!" Singer's expression changed.

Old lady Xie was shocked all over her body. She needed the support of people around her to barely stand still, her face showing panic: "What does she want to do... What exactly does she want to do..."

She intuitively guessed what Qiao Nian wanted to do.

But because she guessed what Qiao Nian was thinking, Mrs. Xie couldn't find peace for a moment, and was in constant fear.

She pinched the servant's arm, suddenly thought of something, calmed down a little, and said to the others: "I'll go upstairs first."

As she spoke, she hurried upstairs to the room.

During the period, she passed by Zhai Xicheng and she didn't try to seek relationships. The eager look seemed to be thinking of a way.

But everyone was anxious about being blacklisted, and no one noticed Mrs. Xie's little trick.

Only Zhai Xicheng sneered when he saw her hastily going up, his eyes full of ridicule: "I'm still dreaming."

Upstairs.

Old lady Xie returned to the room and immediately tried to contact the independent state family.

Fortunately, although Qiao Nian restricted their entry and exit, they did not interrupt their signal, and they were still able to communicate with the outside world.

Chapter 3786 No one will take this to sell face

As soon as the phone got through, Father Xie just picked it up.

The old lady Xie told him about the situation she encountered in Independent Island, and she didn't care so much, so she asked him in a hurry.

"Hurry up and help me think of a way. It's best to go to your sister and let her find a way to intercede for me. No matter what, let me go back and talk."

"Mom, do you mean that Joe has read it?"

"It's not that evil! In short, I'm trapped in the illegal area with other people and I can't leave for the time being. I'm afraid I won't be able to leave if it drags on! After all, we are different from them, and we have something to do with that evil... You Go find Yun'er and the others, let her let me go no matter what..."

Father Xie was confused before, but only now did he understand what Mrs. Xie meant: "Tingyun and the others didn't know that you participated in the tragedy twenty years ago. If they knew..."

"So what if they know? I am their biological mother, so they want to see me die?!" Mrs. Xie didn't care.

"You hurry up and ask them for help, I want to get out of here as soon as possible."

Seeing that his own mother is so confident, Father Xie can't say anything more, but he privately thinks that this time he may not be as optimistic as the old lady Xie.

Not to mention whether Xie Yun and Xie Tingyun were willing to help, as far as Qiao Nian's attitude was concerned, he didn't think Qiao Nian would sell their family's face.

After all, this matter involves a human life, and no one will take it to sell face.

But the person trapped in the illegal area is her own biological mother after all, and she participated in that incident for the sake of the family.

Father Xie couldn't ignore her.

"I see."

"I'm waiting for your good news."

Old lady Xie hung up the phone and finally felt a little relieved, her frown slightly relaxed, and she was still wondering where Qiao Nian knew the truth back then.

And if Michelle falls into Qiao Nian's hands, will Qiao Nian know about the thing Ji Qing studied?

But as soon as this idea came up, she overturned it.

People in the Nansi Alliance probably don't know what Ji Qing has studied, and the thing Ji Qing studied died in the sea with Ji Qing, and no one knows.

That thing should never appear again.

Thinking of this, Mrs. Xie put her worries behind her, and stopped entangled.

Hospital.

The old man was sent to the hospital by Ye Wangchuan and immediately sent to the operating room.

Retrieving shrapnel is a complicated and lengthy process.

The entire operation lasted nearly 5 hours. They waited from dawn until the door of the operating room opened in the afternoon, and the doctor came out from inside.

"How is it, doctor?" Qin Si was the first to catch up and ask.

The doctor took off the mask, exposed his tired face under the cover, and smiled relaxedly: "The operation was successful, and the patient is out of danger."

"Huh." Qin Si breathed a sigh of relief.

The doctor scanned the people waiting in the corridor, and said dutifully: "Although all the shrapnel in the patient's abdomen has been taken out, he is still in anesthesia and coma due to his age. It may take some time for the patient to recover." He will wake up, you have to take good care of him during this time..."

"I see." Qin Si nodded, thanked him solemnly, and followed him, saying, "I'll go with you to prescribe the medicine, and I'll check with you about the situation by the way."

"good."

He followed the doctor away.

Chapter 3787 Sister Nian still has things to do

"Tsk." Guan Yan watched him deal with these interpersonal relationships with ease, smacked his lips, straightened up and walked in front of the girl: "Boss, it will take time for the person you rescued to wake up, what are we doing now?"

She said uncertainly: "When he wakes up and asks us clearly...?"

Qiao Nian has been sitting on the rest bench provided for the family members in the corridor. Hearing this, he raised his peaked cap and showed a bright face: "I have nothing to ask him."

"Uh." Guan Yan said bluntly: "If you don't ask him, why save him?"

She thought that the reason why Qiao Nian rushed to this place where nothing **** happened to save people was because he wanted to find out things from this person.

Qiao Nian rubbed the center of her eyebrows, and lowered her eyes indifferently: "Nothing. I just want to save him."

Guan Yan did not understand: "..."

Ye Wangchuan understood what she meant, walked over and handed her a cup of warm water, and said in a warm voice, "Since you are fine, drink some water to moisten your throat first."

Qiao Nian took the paper cup, and the fingertips that touched the paper cup sent a burst of warmth to the bottom of my heart, dispelling the cold in my heart.

She lowered her head and took a sip of the hot water. The ice and snow under her eyes gradually melted, and her lips became warmer: "I just want them to know that I already knew the truth."

The things that those people tried so hard to conceal, and even killed innocent people to bury, now fall into her hands.

Qiao Nianguang thought of this, and could imagine how uncomfortable Nie Qingru would be if he found out.

With Nie Qingru's suspicious personality, he might not be able to eat or sleep.

Qiao Nian hadn't been immersed in this emotion for long, raised her thin eyelids to look over, and suddenly asked Guan Yan: "By the way, have you done what I asked you to do?"

"You said you wouldn't let them go?" Guan Yan made an OK gesture and said with a smile: "I've put them all on the blacklist. It's not easy for them to leave now."

This matter is also thanks to Ye Wangchuan's help.

These people are very cunning and made them all have false identities. She missed a few at first, and it was all thanks to Ye Wangchuan who gave her a complete list.

She doesn't know where Ye Wangchuan got the complete list, but it doesn't seem to be through channels in the illegal area, and it should be obtained from M state if nothing else...

The above list is excellent.

Several big families from several continents were involved, and even the Xie family from Independent Continent were also involved.

If there is no accident, this list is still the most basic list. I am afraid that apart from these people, some families did not come.

"Two hours ago they tried to go through immigration under their false identities, and these people should have found themselves unable to get out."

Qiao Nian pulled down her peaked cap, her wrist bones were protruding, her skin was white and translucent, and there was a casual chill in her lowered eyes: "Continent M doesn't know that I have meddled."

Guan Yan looked over puzzled, so what?

Qiao Nian raised the corners of her lips, and licked her dry lips. She was flamboyantly cold, mad and tugging: "Of course I want to let my good grandma know about this, otherwise the stage is set up, and what's the point without the audience?" mean?"

She gets up to leave the hospital.

"You inform her, at least let her know that the person she cares about the most is trapped in the illegal area and cannot leave. She will come to me."

"OK." Guan Yan should come down.

After Qiao Nian handed over the elderly and children in the hospital to Qin Si, he didn't stay too long.

Besides this, she has one more important thing to do.

Chapter 3788 Did you go to the wrong place?

Qiao Nian didn't go far.

She left the hospital and took a taxi to the black market.

The black market in the illegal area is located on an inconspicuous street north of the central city. Outsiders who don't know the situation of this street will only think that this is an ordinary road.

But people in the illegal area are well aware of the unusualness of this road.

Except for those who have been in the black market all year round, they will go to this street, other people basically dare not approach the range of this street.

The taxi driver just stopped at the edge of the block, and said to Qiao Nian: "I can't go to the front, so I can only park here. If you want to go, little girl, you have to go by yourself."

"Yeah, okay." Qiao Nian raised his hand and pulled down the brim of his peaked cap, got up and scanned the QR code to transfer the money, then opened the door and got out of the car.

The driver waited for her to get out of the car, stepped on the accelerator, as if he didn't want to stay in this block for too long, as if there was a scourge here...

After Qiao Nian got out of the car, he put the phone back into his pocket, turned around and put his hands in his pocket and walked towards the black market.

It started when she entered the black street.

There are countless pairs of eyes staring at her along the street.

The whole street looks ordinary, nothing special.

But in the shops on both sides of the road, whether it is the store manager or the small worker who carries the goods, everyone is full of inquiry and scrutiny when they see strange faces appearing on the black street.

It's not obvious what they do.

At least they themselves think that what they do is not obvious.

Until the back of the girl walked into the depths of the dark street.

A bald man biting a cigarette turned his head and talked to his friend: "Hey, did you see that? There was a girl who just walked in. She looked no older than twenty years old. Why did she come to the black market street? Did she go to the wrong place? "

From the moment Qiao Nian stepped into the range of this street, everyone noticed her.

The bald-headed friend naturally also saw the girl walking into the depths of the black market, stooped to pick up his goods, and replied indifferently: "Mind your own business."

He put down these words indifferently, took his goods and left.

The bald man spat out the cigarette **** he was biting in his mouth, cursed and followed into his small shop.

The shelves of the small store less than ten square meters mainly contain tobacco, alcohol and snacks, which look exactly like the non-staple food stores that can be seen everywhere on the roadside.

However, only those who know how to do it know.

In addition to buying tobacco, alcohol and snacks on the shelves, you can also buy all kinds of guns and ammunition that are not in circulation.

The black market deserves its due.

It's just that their entire street is like this. On the surface, it looks ordinary. Only those who understand can buy what they want here.

Otherwise, this is just an ordinary commercial street...

**

Qiao Nian walked along the black market street all the way to a shop selling fishing gear, stood at the door and raised her eyebrows, then raised her leg and walked in.

'Ding Dong'.

The electronic sensor at the door remembered that the clerk who was dozing on the counter seemed to be woken up from a nap, rubbing his eyes and yawning, "Here we are, what do you want to buy?"

The girl pulled down her peaked cap and walked in.

The clerk noticed the appearance of the 'customer' who came in.

Looks extremely young, no more than twenty years old.

Typical oriental appearance.

is still a woman.

He froze for a moment, frowned instinctively, and said to the girl who came in: "Uh, did you go to the wrong place?"

When did Black Market Street come in with such a strange face.

He subconsciously regarded Qiao Nian as the kind of little girl who came here by mistake occasionally. After frowning, he felt impatient to be awakened from a good dream, and waved her away: "Hey~ we don't have anything you want to buy here, go out and play. ."

Chapter 3789 Sister Nian came to buy news

Who knew that the girl did not leave obediently, but walked to the counter where he was standing, took out a ring or something from her pocket and put it on the glass counter.

Voice is low.

"I'm looking for your boss."

"us..."

The clerk just wanted to roll his eyes and say, 'Our boss is also someone you can meet whenever you want'?

In the next second, he saw the snake-shaped ring that Qiao Nian placed in front of him. The snake eyes on the ring were decorated with dark green gemstones, and it seemed to come alive under the light.

That's not the point.

The point is that this snake-shaped ring is shaped like an S.

The clerk's expression changed slightly after seeing the ring, and he suddenly raised his head to look at the girl standing in front of the counter, wearing a peaked cap, mysterious and low-key.

For some reason, he remembered the outside world's description of the boss in the illegal area. He wore a peaked cap all the year round and seldom showed up, so he was low-key.

"sun...?" The clerk couldn't believe that he would meet this boss face to face. After blurting out, he reacted extremely quickly, and the expression on his face changed again and again. He didn't dare to delay for a second, and he didn't dare to ask the girl to answer. Holding the ring in both hands, he said solemnly, "Wait a minute, I'll call our boss right away."

This store is not big.

But in addition to the places where all kinds of fishing gear are placed outside, there is also a universe inside.

The clerk opened the cloth curtain used to cover the room and walked in quickly.

Qiao Nian waited outside boredly for about ten minutes, and a fat middle-aged man walked out of it.

"Oh my, what wind brought you here." The middle-aged man, who was as fat as a steamed bun, came out with a smile on his face, walked up to the girl, rubbed his hands, and returned the ring: "The Hongmeng came to me because I wanted to buy it." What?"

He was smart enough not to call Qiao Nian's name directly like the clerk, but to call him 'you'.

"Please put away your ring."

"Um."

Qiao Nian took the snake ring from him and threw it into his pocket. Without talking nonsense, his eyes fell on him casually, and he said succinctly, "I'm buying some news."

"You say."

This fishing tackle shop was originally in the business of buying and selling news.

Of course the price is high.

Qiao Nian happened to have some money and was not short of money, so he came to find him: "Zhai's family in M state. I want news about them, anything."

"The Zhai family?" The fat man is a mobile database. When Qiao Nian reported the name of the person he wanted to check, his eyeballs rolled, and he immediately corresponded to the person she mentioned.

He definitely knew what Qiao Nian was going to ask, with a puzzled expression on his face, he slightly raised his eyelids to be cautious: "This...I'm afraid I can't sell it."

He didn't dare to offend the hidden family, and he didn't dare to offend the person in front of him.

racked his brains to find a way to explain: "First of all, we don't know much information, and second, someone is not allowed to investigate this family."

He didn't say 'you' any more, and opened his mouth in disbelief: "Look, Sun, it's not that I don't want to sell you information, it's really...powerless."

Qiao Nian didn't give him any nonsense, and directly asked the price: "50 million."

"Huh." The fat white man gasped, as if he was shocked by her generosity.

He hesitated for a while, still hesitating whether to do this business: "Sun, even if I sell you the news, I don't know much. I'm afraid you won't be satisfied with what you get."

He is telling the truth.

Back then, Nie Qingru deliberately blocked news about his relationship with the Zhai family in M state, even if they only had a few superficial news here.

Chapter 3790 We are going to be closed for a while

Of course.

There is nothing outside of them that can be found.

He was uneasy to charge 50 million for this little thing.

But he didn't give 50 million, and he didn't want to risk offending the Hermit Family to sell this news.

The fat white man observed Qiao Nian's reaction, and opened his mouth: "Sun, how about..."

"50 million is a lot." Qiao Nian took out a silver lighter from his pocket and flicked it for a while, his brows and eyes were cold and impatient: "I only buy news. Whether I am satisfied or not is my business, I will not look for you trouble."

The white fat man understood that this meant that he insisted on buying the news, and he was not shy. He turned around and gave the clerk a wink, then smiled and said to the girl, "Then wait a moment, I'll get the news."

Black market news will give you a leather bag.

It contains what the buyer wants, and it will be written clearly on it.

As for how the buyer handles the contents of the leather bag after reading, they will not be responsible after they sell it.

And the same news that they will not do a second sale, the cowhide bag is equivalent to a buyout.

After a while, the clerk took out a leather bag.

The fat white man handed over the cowhide bag to the girl, and continued to say worriedly: "...there is very little news about the Zhai family now, and all we can know is inside. Because the things inside are a bit thin, you come out again. I can't take advantage of such a high price, so we will give you another message for free."

Qiao Nian raised her eyelids: "Say."

The fat white man glanced at her: "The young master of the Zhai family who is still alive has inherited the remnants of the Zhai family. I heard that he is a character."

Qiao Nian finally looked up and looked at him.

The fat, white man lowered his eyes secretively, avoiding her scrutinizing gaze, looking at his eyes and nose, as if he was afraid of being dragged into this muddy water.

Qiao Nian saw his attitude, pulled the corner of his mouth, put the leather bag under his arm, and walked away: "I will transfer the money to your account."

"You walk slowly."

The fat white man watched her leave before his smile dropped.

They naturally have their own channels for selling news on the black market, and they also know many secrets that outsiders don't know.

Like...

Sun's life experience is inextricably linked to that of the Hermit Family.

He also knows that Zhai Xicheng is in the illegal area at the moment, and Sun has come back from Independent Island... In case that young master Zhai has an accident in the illegal area...

The fat white man was very prescient and immediately turned back to the clerk and said, "Clean up, we will be closed for a while."

"boss?"

"hurry up."

They offend people from time to time when they sell news, and sometimes they also encounter such things that need to avoid the limelight.

Generally, when encountering such a situation, they will close their doors for a period of time, and wait for the limelight to pass.

The clerk is also familiar with this set of operations, so after the fat man said that he was going to close the door, he quickly prepared it.

Qiao Nian called Guan Yan after getting the Zhai family's information.

Not long after, a fiery red sports car stopped at the intersection of Black Market Street.

Guan Yan half-lowered the car window and greeted the girl who came out slowly: "Boss, this way." Qiao Nian opened the door to get in the car, sat on the passenger seat, fastened her seat belt, pressed her eyebrows, Some irritately said: "Let's go back first."

"It's okay." Guan Yan saw the leather bag she put on the car out of the corner of his eye, and asked a lot: "Are you here to buy news on the black market?"
