

Madam's 3791

Chapter 3791 Our situation will be even worse by then

"Checked the Zhai family." Qiao Nian didn't hide it from her, put his hand on the car window casually, and glanced at the leather bag that hadn't been opened: "From the tone of the person who bought the news, it seems that there is only one left in the Zhai family. Go down to Zhai Xicheng alone."

Guan Yan stepped on the accelerator with half his foot, and was about to turn the steering wheel. Hearing this, he was startled for a second, doubting his ears: "What do you mean?"

"Hey, I also want to know what it means." Qiao Nian responded casually, and said, "Go back and have a look."

She always felt that the relationship between Zhai Xicheng and Nie Qingru was delicate.

And she always wanted to check Zhai Xicheng's background, but she didn't find anything useful through other channels.

It happened that she was going back to the illegal area this time, so she thought of going to the black market street to buy news in person.

Guan Yan saw that she hadn't looked at the contents of the cowhide bag yet, so she didn't say anything, turned around and said, "Okay, let's go back first."

The fiery red sports car drove away at lightning speed.

at the same time.

M continent.

Nie Qingru has received the news that Qiao Nian has gone to the illegal area, and has trapped several families including Zhai Xicheng in the illegal area and is not allowed to leave.

Her face has been cloudy since the morning, and no one dares to approach her easily.

This situation lasted until the shadow came back with the old man in blue, and she slightly suppressed the haze on her face, and smiled politely: "Old Xue, you are here."

Now the conservatives in the Privy Council are still on her side, and Nie Qingrugui has to win over her as an empress. She has a friendly attitude and asks the servant to make a cup of tea.

People in M state like to drink black tea.

The strong aroma of Earl Gray tea wafted in the living room. Mr. Xue picked up the tea set and took a sip, and said straight away: "Your Majesty, what do you want me to do?"

"It's nothing."

Nie Qingru took a deep breath, staring into his eyes with a sharp eagle hook.

"Qiao Nian knows what happened back then."

This is the first blockbuster.

Nie Qingru knew that this news alone was not enough for her to ask the old fox to help her, so she threw a second blockbuster right after the other party was in a daze.

"The last person in the Nansi Alliance fell into her hands. If... I mean, if there is something left by Ji Qing in that person's hands. Then if the research results fall into her hands, the effect will be better than in Ji Qing's hands Let's get stuck in our throats."

Nie Qingru adjusted the shawl on her body, and said lightly: "Ji Qing has taken my feelings into consideration, and has never announced the research results. But if it falls into the hands of that evil person, let alone she will take the results What to do, as long as that achievement becomes a reality in her hands, then our hidden family will be under the control of others forever!"

The weapons in their hands will disappear, no longer threatening.

Nie Qingru got his wish and saw the old man's face change, so he took the time to make his request: "They are still in the illegal area in Xicheng, and Qiao Nian has already restricted their access. If she catches one or two more people to find out what Jiqing was at the time How to die tragically in the sea, our situation is even more difficult."

She looked at Mr. Xue, and said kindly: "I remember that you still have a force in the illegal area that you haven't used before. It's time to use it."

Old Xue's expression changed again and again, he even forgot the exquisite tea set in his hand, and he didn't express his opinion for a long time.

The main force that Nie Qingru wants is that he has cultivated it for many years, and it can be regarded as the number one hole card in his hand.

"Queen, I have to think again."

Chapter 3792 There is too little information about the Zhai family

Nie Qingru saw that his heart was shaking, half-closed his eyes, crossed his hands on the table, with an inexplicable expression, and said slowly: "Old Xue, time waits for no one."

Hongmeng headquarters.

Guan Yan drove Qiao Nian back to that unremarkable small white western-style building.

When Qiao Nian came back, Ye Wangchuan and Qin Si were still in the hospital.

She went in from the entrance and dropped the leather bag to get a glass of water. She sat on the sofa and took a sip of water. Then she picked up the leather bag that was thrown there, untied the twine wrapped around it, and pulled out the materials related to the Zhai family from it.

50 million only buy a thin piece of paper.

It records information related to the Zhai family.

Guan Yan saw that she was holding the cup in one hand, and holding the thin paper in the other hand to read, so she couldn't help leaning her head to take a look.

"How about Sun? What is the origin of this Zhai family?"

"Tsk."

Qiao Nian read the above content at a glance, twitched the corners of his mouth, lowered his eyelashes, and probably understood why the boss who sold her news had no idea why he had to give her some insider information before leaving.

She handed over the piece of paper she had finished reading: "You can see for yourself."

Guan Yan took the piece of paper from her hand, lowered his eyes and looked at the content on it curiously, and the more he looked at it, the more he frowned: "M state, a family engaged in information technology. That's it...?"

The information on the paper is really poor.

Guan Yan once doubted whether the things in his hands were materials bought from the black market, how could it be so thin.

She continued to look down patiently: "There are 16 people in the family, the most famous of which is Zhai Xiao, who is known as a talented musician."

She seemed to grasp the point, and immediately looked at the girl: "Is this Zhai Xiao Nie Qingru's lover?"

Qiao Nian was noncommittal.

Guan Yan just took it as her acquiescence.

Then I continued to look at the content on the paper, and soon saw the last sentence: "18 years ago, a fire broke out in Zhai's house, and all 16 members of the family were killed in the flames. When the rescuers arrived, no one was left alive. "

The content on the paper ends here.

Guan Yan held the paper in his hand dumbfounded, and frowned: "Then what happened to Zhai Xicheng? It said that there is no one in the Zhai family, but Zhai Xicheng is clearly still alive."

There are many wealthy families on several continents.

The Zhai family is not a very high-ranking family in M state, and there is no particularly amazing talent in the family.

Whether a family like this exists or perishes, it is difficult to attract attention.

Few people cared about the fire at Zhai's house back then, which is why no one knew about the fire when Qiao Nian searched for news on the Internet.

If it weren't for the fact that there is still such a file in the black market, with Nie Qingru's style of covering the sky with one hand, he would have wiped out all the news about the Zhai's fire outside, and it would be difficult to find traces...

But why did Nie Qingru erase the news from that year? Did the fire that nearly wiped out Zhai's house have something to do with her?

Qiao Nian couldn't figure out what was the connection here, and vaguely felt that Zhai Xicheng was very dangerous, the kind of dangerous person that even Nie Qingru couldn't control.

Seeing that she didn't respond, Guan Yan seemed to be thinking about something, silently put the piece of paper back to its original place, and asked in a low voice: "Sun, there is no useful information in this document, what are you going to do next? Those people are still trapped in the illegal area, if you want to deal with them as soon as possible, otherwise one or two will escape if they don't keep them together..."

Chapter 3793 They are all trapped here by the Red League

She was telling the truth.

Although the illegal area is their territory.

Hongmeng is not omnipotent.

At least compared to David's power in Continent F, the Red League doesn't have so many manpower available in the illegal area, and everyone is mainly hackers. If they really want to do murder and arson, they are not very proficient in their business.

Qiao Nian was still thinking about the relationship between Zhai's fire and Nie Qingru, when she heard her mentioning those people, her white fingertips slightly curled up and tapped on the table, making a 'tat-tat-tat' sound, and it took a while before she casually Say, "I want to see someone."

The weather in the illegal area is terribly cold in winter.

The town near the mountains is much colder than the urban area.

Mrs. Xie is getting old, and her body is no stronger than that of young people. In the past two days, when the temperature drops at night, she can't stand the cold.

Father Xie's delay in hearing from her was also one of the reasons why she had trouble sleeping and eating.

"How long are we going to be stuck here?"

"I'm so fed up with this * place!"

The people from several families downstairs got together again, some complained angrily about the * weather, and some complained that they couldn't bear the life here.

But even so.

Everyone knew very well that they couldn't leave for the time being.

"The people who watched us outside haven't left yet?" Singer's face was sullen, and his charming face was quite haggard.

She was wearing a red dress with a pinched waist designed like a blooming gardenia, which set off her beauty and charm, and was a stunner that men would take a second look at.

However, no one's eyes were on her right now, and everyone was paying close attention to the strange faces outside.

Some people leaned against the side of the car to smoke.

There are also people like the residents here who come out with garbage bags to throw garbage.

Without exception, these people have a strong hostility, and they are not ordinary people on the outside.

The families that were able to participate in the hunting season were not ordinary families. They sent out to hunt down the last survivor of the Nance Alliance this time, and they were also the juniors of their own family.

These people, like Singer, are people who have seen the world.

They know exactly how many pairs of eyes are hidden outside, and how many snipers may be hidden in the dark.

They have never stepped out of the hotel since they discovered that the outside is different, and have been huddled in the hotel to form a subtle confrontation with the people outside.

"What exactly does Hongmeng want to do?"

"Since that day, that sun hasn't appeared again. She didn't show up and didn't let us go. What is this? Punish us to go to jail right away?"

Singer was sharp-tongued, and was so angry that he pulled away the chair and sat down, his chest heaving and falling.

She didn't understand what Qiao Nian wanted to do.

She was about to be driven crazy by this tense and depressive atmosphere.

"Have you contacted the family? What did the family say?" Someone asked her.

"Hmph." Singer sneered, and looked over angrily: "What else can I say, my family said I'm still trying to find a way."

In fact, apart from being closely monitored, Qiao Nian and Hongmeng did not cut off their contact with the outside world.

They can still make phone calls and surf the Internet.

Except that they couldn't leave here, that person didn't seem to restrict their movements, making it hard to figure out what she wanted to do.

The more Singer thought about it, the more irritable he became. Just at this moment, he saw Mrs. Xie coming down the stairs, and immediately raised his willow eyebrows: "Didn't Mrs. Xie say that she could leave here soon, why are you still staying here like us? Didn't leave. Could it be that I haven't contacted my family yet?"

Chapter 3794 No one knows what sister Nian thinks

Old lady Xie immediately lowered her face and glared at her viciously: "I will leave sooner or later!"

"Cut." Singer felt that it was boring, and he didn't bother to argue with her.

She could see that this old woman didn't have a close relationship with that Sun from Hongmeng as she said, and what she said before that she could leave here soon was just bragging.

These people have enmity with Sun.

How could the boss of the Red League let them go so easily.

The events of the past two days made everyone present tense. Everyone was in a bad mood, and they had quarreled several times in private.

Now they can't get out, so they can barely stay together.

"If I knew this kind of thing would happen, I wouldn't agree to come to any illegal area. I didn't participate in the incident at all, so why should I bear it?"

"That's right. Whoever is involved is going to find someone. Those of us are just here to find someone according to the request of the family. God knows that we are involved in this kind of thing."

Continuous complaints.

I was implicated both inside and outside the words.

Old lady Xie, as the only person present who had participated in the hunt, was undoubtedly embarrassed by being squeezed out.

She was about to go back to the upstairs room with a gloomy face.

Suddenly there was a knock on the door.

Everyone in the hotel lobby followed the sound and looked over.

I saw a black car parked outside the door at some point, and a young man got out of the car. The double-breasted windbreaker set off the man's slender figure. Picking it up, he looked inside, very talkative: "Excuse me, is Mrs. Xie inside?"

The audience was dead silent.

Right now at this juncture, they're all stuck here.

At this time, how could the person who came to us be an ordinary person, and the other party would name and name one of them as soon as they came up.

Needless to say who it is.

Singer swallowed his saliva: "Are you?"

The man seemed to be easy to talk to, but he wasn't as easy to talk to as he looked. At least he didn't pay attention to Singer, and he didn't even linger out of the corner of his eye: "I have something to do with Mrs. Xie, please someone call someone for me."

"..."

Everyone looked at each other vigilantly, but no one moved.

About ten seconds passed.

The man at the door suppressed the smile in his eyes, moved his slender fingers down the front of his clothes, and slightly curled up the corners of his lips: "It seems that everyone is unwilling to help this favor."

The atmosphere, which was already close to freezing point, dropped by one degree, and everyone felt the oppression from strangers.

Singer sensed the danger very sharply, and pointed to Mrs. Xie who was not far from the stairs: "She is there."

Upstairs.

The dark guard learned about the following situation and was reporting to the young man in the room.

"Young Master Zhai, Ye Wangchuan is here."

"The Xie family was taken away."

"The people who were staring at us outside have not left yet."

Zhai Xicheng stood by the window and saw Mrs. Xie get into the car step by step and turned her head twice, watching the car drive away.

A dark light flashed across his eyes, and he said indifferently: "At last, she can't help but find someone to settle the account of the year."

The dark guard couldn't figure out his mind, so he peeped at him puzzled.

Zhai Xicheng seemed to have eyes on his back, he knew what the dark guard was thinking even though he didn't turn his head, and said softly, "Oh, Qiao Nian is not the kind of person you think who would retaliate indiscriminately."

Chapter 3795 I want a list of people who participated

"Since she asked someone from the Xie family to leave, it means that she wants to find the person who participated in that incident back then. As for the people trapped downstairs...she doesn't bother to take revenge."

Those downstairs are just juniors sent by the family. Except for the old lady of the Xie family, none of the old people who participated in it at the beginning came forward.

Since Qiao Nian found out the truth, he must know that these people are just pawns of the family.

The reason why she didn't let him go.

I'm afraid it was made for those old things who participated in it at the beginning.

Let those old things sit on their knees.

"Young Master Zhai, then we..." The dark guard probably understood what he meant.

Zhai Xicheng sneered, looked away from the window, and looked back: "Us?"

There was mockery and sarcasm in his eyes, but he was not afraid: "We are different, I have a grudge against her."

Back then, he used Simon to assassinate Qiao Nian in Independent Continent.

Later, Qiao Nian attacked him again in the high seas.

They are very different, and no one will let the other go.

"Is there any news from M state?" Zhai Xicheng asked him softly, not in a hurry.

The dark guard was about to tell him this, and immediately lowered his head with breathless concentration: "The empress tells you not to worry, she will help you leave soon."

"oh?"

Zhai Xicheng is well aware of how unhappy Nie Qingru's situation is now. He has a way to leave by himself, but he doesn't.

Wen Yan just smiled, but the smile didn't reach his eyes.

"Then I will wait for my aunt to rescue me."

Qiao Nian was waiting in the small foreign building for Ye Wangchuan to bring someone back.

She didn't wait long.

There was the sound of parking outside.

"Sun, you're back." Guan Yan glanced outside, slightly raised his chin to signal her to look outside.

Sure enough.

Qiao Nian soon saw Mrs. Xie who followed Ye Wangchuan in step by step.

Old lady Xie was embarrassed from the moment she came in, and her anxiety reached the extreme when she finally saw the girl standing in the living room.

But she is a person who is good at disguising, even at this point, she can still greet girls with a smile that has nothing to do: "Qiao Nian, I heard that you are looking for me."

Guan Yan clicked his tongue, looking at her with admiration in his eyes, as if admiring her for being able to pretend to be familiar with her elders at this point.

is quite able to pretend.

She is used to the straight-forward personality of people in the illegal area, and she doesn't like dealing with people like Mrs. Xie, so she said to the girl: "Sun, I'll go back to the room first, and you can talk slowly."

"OK."

Qiao Nian responded, and casually walked in the direction of Mrs. Xie, and stopped in front of the person who licked her face and pretended to be familiar with her.

"Long time no see, Mrs. Xie."

"..." Mrs. Xie couldn't figure out what she meant. She forced a smile on her face and pretended to be nonchalant: "Yeah, I haven't seen you for a long time. I didn't expect to meet you here. You came to the illegal area...?"

She only heard Zhai Xicheng say that Qiao Nian was the one who robbed the last member of the Nansi Alliance, but she didn't see it with her own eyes.

So at this moment, she still had the last chance to hope that Qiao Nian didn't come here for the events of the year.

Who knows that soon her dream will be shattered.

"I want to know the list of people who participated in that incident."

"..."

The old lady Xie was terrified, pinching her palms to force herself to calm down, and wanted to deny it: "I... I don't know what you are talking about. I didn't know what it was at the beginning."

Chapter 3796 Sister Nian knows everything

Qiao Nian pulled up a nearby chair and sat down, with a cute expression on his face: "You don't know?"

The old lady Xie stood there, sweating profusely on her back, but she didn't dare to wipe the sweat, so she tried her best to pretend to be stupid: "I really don't know what you are talking about."

"..."

Qiao Nian looked at her for a few seconds and looked away. The slightly drooping bangs covered the brow bone, making her sharper. She had a lighter in her hand.

Old lady Xie watched her flick the lighter, and the faint blue flame lit up.

It was a simple action, but the hidden murderous intent was obvious.

Qiao Nian wanted her to die.

This realization made Mrs. Xie gasp, and a gust of cold air shot up from the soles of her feet. She looked at the girl who pursed her lips in horror, and said in a low voice before the other party spoke: "You and Ting Yun He and Yun'er know each other anyway. I'm also considered half of your elder, according to the seniority of the family, Yun'er is your aunt. You should also call me grandma..."

She had the nerve to lick her face and say this.

It's a pity that these words were useless to Qiao Nian, but instead exposed her guilty conscience even more.

Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows to see that she was impatiently bringing Xie Yun and Xie Tingyun out to intercede, her eyes were dark and there was not much emotion in it.

"I'm a man with limited patience."

"..." Mrs. Xie was still reluctant to say.

Qiao Nianying held the lighter in her white hand and clicked on the spark, and lazily reminded her: "If I didn't know anything, I wouldn't have come to you."

"Since I found the illegal area, I won't come to you for no reason. So if I were you, instead of acting stupid here, I might as well be happy. This way everyone will feel better. Maybe for Aunt Xie's sake, I will let you live."

"How much do you know?" Mrs. Xie is not a fool.

Qiao Nian has talked to this point, and it is unrealistic for her to say that she doesn't know anything.

She is still not sure how much Qiao Nian knows.

"all."

"..."

Old lady Xie took another breath of air-conditioning, and the air-conditioning poured into her stomach, causing spasmodic pain, which stimulated her temples to throb.

She didn't fully believe what Qiao Nian said, and tentatively said, "So you know why Ji Qing died?"

Qiao Nian didn't answer her immediately.

The puzzled expression on Mrs. Xie's face gradually calmed down, she clenched her palms tightly, and said calmly, "Qiao Nian, I advise you not to pursue it. The dead are already dead, and the living must live on!" I admit that you are very powerful, even more powerful than Ji Qing..."

As soon as her voice changed, she suddenly became sharp: "But you have to be clear, even if Ji Qing is replaced by you now, once you get involved in this matter, you will die without a whole body!"

Her warning with righteous words did not seem to be false, as if she was planning for Qiao Nian inside and out, even if she was not sincere, it sounded like the elders caring for the younger generation.

The girl just glanced at her indifferently, and answered casually: "Because of nuclear dissolution?"

"you?!"

Old lady Xie seemed to be frightened, and she looked at her with horror, her eyes filled with shock as if she had seen a ghost.

"You...you know?"

Her tongue didn't seem to be her own, and she stammered out a sentence.

The shock in those eyes did not diminish at all.

Qiao Nian knows?

How could Qiao Nian even know this?

This is the secret of secrets!

If Qiao Nian knew this, then what she said before was true, she really knew everything!

Chapter 3797 You are not qualified to negotiate terms with me

Qiao Nian stood up again at this time, taller than Mrs. Xie by half a head in height, and standing together had a visual sense of disdain.

"Are you saying that I know about nuclear dissolution, or that I know about the anti-nuclear defense system...or you know that you hunted her just to keep it from spreading?"

"you you you..."

Old lady Xie's fingers trembled as if she had a stroke, and she couldn't control the expression on her face that cracked anymore. She looked at Qiao Nian as if she was looking at a lunatic again.

"What the * do you want to do!"

"Since you know this, you still want to ask me for the list of people who participated in that year. What do you want to do? Do you really want to give Ji Ji revenge?!"

"why not?"

"..."

The old lady Xie choked when she asked rhetorically.

But her mind was full of crazy, crazy, Qiao Nian crazy thoughts.

This matter involved several continents, and more than a dozen families participated, all of which were top families, including the huge hermit family.

Joe wants to avenge the season, how ridiculous, how crazy?

Does she know that once people outside hear that she knows about 'nuclear dissolution' and 'anti-nuclear defense system', those people will take the initiative to find her without her coming.

She wants to fight everyone alone.

What was she thinking?

"Aren't you afraid of death?" Mrs. Xie didn't care about Qiao Nian's life or death, she just couldn't understand whether it was Qiao Nian or Ji Qing, what was going on in these people's minds.

Qiao Nian didn't answer her question directly, but said indifferently: "You just need to tell me the list of the year, whether you are afraid of death is my business, it has nothing to do with you."

Old lady Xie looked at her deeply, took a deep breath, and the blue veins protruding from her forehead relaxed, as if trying to understand something, she asked silently: "I will tell you the list, will you let me go?"

She doesn't make bad deals.

Jo Nian wanted her to give this list, which meant that she would betray those people who cooperated with her at the beginning, and she could never offend those people in vain.

But Mrs. Xie is very clear that the current situation does not allow her to think so much, and she will talk about the future. What she needs to solve is the immediate predicament.

"I told you the list, but you have to let me go, this is my condition. You can agree or not... But I'm ugly, if you don't agree, I will definitely do nothing explain."

"You are not qualified to negotiate with me." Qiao Nian's dark eyes swept over: "As long as you are still alive, I have a thousand ways to make you speak."

Old lady Xie showed an aggrieved expression, gritted her teeth and squeezed out: "Qiao Nian, you are Ji's family after all, and I am your elder!"

"So?" The girl looked over with sarcasm in her eyes: "Isn't Ji Qing your junior?"

Old lady Xie was like swallowing a fly, and the resentment in her stomach turned into foam and dissipated silently. On this matter, she really didn't have the confidence to yell at the other party.

In the end, Qiao Nian didn't promise that she would let her go. He threw her a pen and left her alone in the living room: "I'll give you an hour to think clearly and write."

After finishing speaking, Qiao Nian turned around and went upstairs.

at the same time.

Independent Continent.

Father Xie has been stuck outside Ji's old house for several days, and finally met Xie Yun's car going to the hospital.

He didn't care about his dignity, and immediately got into the car and told the driver: "Driving in the traffic jam!"

The driver of Xie's family turned around obediently with palpitations, chased after Xie Yun's car and stopped it, and the car body lay across in front of the black Bentley to block the other party's way.

Chapter 3798 Mom is also for you

Bentley car.

He Lin turned around and whispered helplessly to the lady in the back row: "Ma'am, it's your brother's car."

Xie Yun had just been slammed by the brakes and hit her forehead. Now that He Lin said that it was Xie's father's car that blocked them, she was suddenly upset.

She opened the car door: "Wait for me in the car."

He Lin watched her get out of the car to meet Father Xie, thought about it, hesitated for a while, and sent a message to Ji Lingfeng about this matter.

Outside the car.

Xie Yun got out of the car and saw her elder brother, she knew why he came, and before the other party spoke, she expressed her attitude concisely: "Brother, you don't need to talk. I can't talk to Nian Nian, I can't do this! "

Facing her resolute attitude, Father Xie opened his mouth, his face slumped, and his voice was still hoarse: "I know you are very embarrassed, but she is our mother after all. She gave birth to us and raised us, even if everyone blames her She, we as children can't leave her alone..."

Xie Yun didn't start, frowning: "Brother, stop talking!"

She doesn't want to hear that.

Father Xie didn't give her a chance to leave, he stretched out his arms to stop her, and said in a deep voice, "Qiao Nian took Mom away! You really don't care about her life?!"

Xie Yun suddenly turned to look at him.

The anxiety on Father Xie's face was not fake. Seeing her looking at him, he smiled bitterly, but still didn't let go of his hand: "I also just received the call. Mom has been taken away for two hours and hasn't returned... I want I'm not in a hurry and I won't block the door to find you."

"Xie Yun, even if you don't want to take care of this matter, at least help me find out the news and let me know if mom... is still alive."

One side is his own mother, and the other side is his own big brother.

Xie Yun's heart was split into two parts and was thrown into the frying pan. She couldn't do anything ungrateful, and she couldn't really just watch old lady Xie die.

Xie Yun pinched the palm of her hand, and her nails sank into the flesh to barely stabilize her mind: "...so why did she participate in that kind of thing in the first place?! I don't understand why she would do that."

Father Xie's expression became more and more bitter: "She...she is for you."

Xie Yun was stunned for a moment: "For me?"

Father Xie faced her and took a deep breath: "You should know Ling Feng's affection for his sister. Mom did it for the family, but why not for you."

Xie Yun and Ji Lingfeng's marriage is related to whether the in-law alliance between Xie's family and Ji's family is solid. Mrs. Xie realized the specialness of Ji Qing at the beginning and wanted to stabilize the marriage for Xie Yun, so she participated in that matter. .

Otherwise, given the situation of the Xie family, she would not have mastered that top-notch weapon at all, and she would have no reason to hunt Ji Qing.

to be honest.

Her interest is not in Ji Qing's research, but in wanting Ji Qing to disappear.

"I didn't ask her to do this!" Xie Yun is such a smart person, Xie's father only needs a few words to make her figure out the joints.

Her face was pale, and she looked over with anger in her eyes.

Father Xie knew that Xie Yun was innocent in the whole matter, but it was related to the life and death of Mrs. Xie, so he could only use his sister's guilt, even if it was just a little bit: "I know you didn't let her do that, but you see For the sake of mom's consideration for you...you don't want to ignore her, okay?"

Xie Yun's palms were scratched, and her fingernails were bleeding. These stinging pains were nothing compared to the feeling of Xie's father's words slapping her face.

Chapter 3799 Miss sister will not answer the phone

After a long silence, she still didn't give Xie an accurate reply: "Niannian has helped me a lot."

"Xie Yun..."

"She saved Ji Nan and Ling Feng, even if she asks me to give her life back, I won't say anything."

Father Xie's expression changed: "...But."

Xie Yun didn't give him a chance to continue. She took his hand away from her and said expressionlessly, "I'm going to the hospital to get medicine."

Father Xie wanted to stop him, but saw He Lin get off the car.

He was afraid of Ji Lingfeng and Ji's family, so he didn't dare to go forward to block the way, so he could only watch Xie Yun get back into the car.

He Lin didn't say anything, walked up to him and said politely: "Mr. Xie, look at this car..."

He refers to the car that Father Xie blocked the way.

Father Xie's face twitched, and he endured it and said, "I'll ask the driver to move it away immediately."

"Then I'll trouble you." He Lin said trouble, but turned back without looking back with a very honest body.

Father Xie stood there for a moment, driving with a sullen face, and ordered the driver to move the car.

As soon as their car moved away, they saw a black Bentley drive past their car and drive away.

The driver could feel the calm atmosphere in the car, and asked tremblingly, "Sir, shall we follow?"

Father Xie's temples were throbbing, he rolled up the car window, closed his eyes resignedly, and said, "No need. Go to the suburban manor!"

Xie Yun refused to call Qiao Nian, so he could only go to Xie Tingyun and Nan Tianyi.

It's just that Xie Yun is unwilling to help. Xie Tingyun has been more independent and cold than Xie Yun since he was a child, and the possibility of agreeing to help is very slim.

If it weren't for the fact that this matter was related to the life and death of Mrs. Xie, Father Xie really didn't want to send her to her door to find her unhappy, but he had no choice.

Only to try.

Qiao Nian received a call from Xie Yun in the evening.

The jumping number on the mobile phone has not been hung up, and she has not answered it, but just let the name on the screen light up and go out.

Qiao Nian was wearing a loose bathrobe, and her short shawl hair was still dripping water. She didn't use the blower, so she took a clean towel and wiped the water from her hair. When her hair stopped dripping, she put the towel in Throwing it aside, the whole person sat down on the sofa and put the laptop on his lap.

She just turned on the computer.

The phone on the table lights up again.

Qiao Nian glanced over and saw Xie Yun's name jumping.

She rubbed the space between her eyebrows, a little depressed.

She knew exactly why Xie Yun was calling at this time, so she didn't want to answer Xie Yun's call.

Everyone does not stand at the same angle, even if they answer the phone, it will only be embarrassing.

Qiao Nian didn't get up to pick up the phone, the name on the phone jumped for more than ten seconds and went off again.

She turned her eyes away, concentrated on the computer, opened a contact software and sent a message to Xiao Yaokong to ask him about the situation in Beijing.

Slender Waist Control probably didn't see the news, so he hasn't replied to her yet.

Qiao Nian was not in a hurry, he clicked on his mailbox and dealt with the emails in it one by one.

In addition to some bills, there are also important reports from F Continent and Chengfeng Group in her mailbox. Qiao Nian herself doesn't like to deal with these, and every time she sees these reports with complicated data, she gets headaches, but as an important One of the bosses, certainly can't be completely left alone.

Qiao Nian got up and picked up the cup to get a glass of water, ready to read these forms slowly...

Chapter 3800 You can even do S-level experiments, afraid of this

Ye Wangchuan knocked on the door and came in at this time.

"Come in."

Qiao Nian was getting headaches from the reports in the emails one after another, so she raised her head to take a rest and pressed the bridge of her nose.

Ye Wangchuan walked in from the outside and handed her a thin piece of paper: "She wrote out the list you want."

"So fast?" Qiao Nian was startled, and reached out to take it.

Ye Wangchuan took advantage of her looking down at the list in her hand, and noticed the data report on her hand, and then remembered the tiredness in Qiao Nian's eyes when he entered the door, and said, "This...do you want me to help you?" ."

"What?"

Qiao Nian raised her head.

Noticing his gaze, following along and seeing the complicated financial statements on his computer, he immediately understood what he meant.

She handed over the laptop very bluntly, and breathed a sigh of relief: "You come."

"Tsk."

Ye Wangchuan took the computer from her hand and walked to the desk, hooked up a chair and sat down, with a hint of helplessness and pampering in his brows: "You are not even afraid of the S-level experiment of the First Research Institute, but you are afraid of dealing with it." these reports."

Someone helped her solve the big trouble, and Qiao Nian devoted herself to reading the list written by the old lady Xie. She lowered her eyelashes and didn't bother to raise her head. She just opened her mouth and said, "That's different. The experiment is interesting to do." , the report looks too boring."

Ye Fanchuan put her black notebook on the table, called up the reports she said were boring, tapped the Enter key with her slender fingers, and glanced at the long mail on it...

From the above, there are at least twenty or so emails. I don't know how long Qiao Nian hasn't read them all.

"Do you want to see all of these?"

"ah."

Ye Wangchuan frowned, with deep helplessness on Jin Guijun's face, he opened a blank form, sorted out the data based on the contents of her email report and filled it in, and said.

"I'll make a summary table for you. Just read the summary table later, so you don't have to read each one."

"good."

The girl stretched her body and mind, and the depression around her body dissipated a lot. With her legs crossed, she tapped her fingers on the paper full of lists, with a thoughtful expression.

The house fell into silence.

The warm lights shone on the two people, and the two were doing their own things, but they were unusually harmonious, like a warm picture scroll.

Downstairs.

After Mrs. Xie handed over the list to Ye Wangchuan, she waited in the living room for someone to come down.

She waited and waited.

After waiting for almost an hour, no one came down from upstairs.

Old lady Xie was apprehensive from the beginning, but she became somewhat annoyed later on, and couldn't suppress the anger of being underestimated in her heart more and more.

She finally waited until Guan Yan came out of the room, ignoring the fear of shouting: "That..."

Guan Yan came out to fetch water, and when he heard the words, he turned around and pointed to himself: "You called me?"

"Yes, call you."

The old lady Xie didn't know her identity, and thought she was just one of Qiao Nian's subordinates, and said very bluntly, "Help me go upstairs to find someone. Ask Qiao Nian when she will come down, I'm still waiting for her here. "

"Oh?" Guan Yan reacted, and asked back with a smile that was not a smile: "Looking for Sun? Why don't you go up and find her yourself."

Qiao Nian's subordinates all have this attitude?

The old lady Xie was a little dissatisfied, but she couldn't express it well, so she suppressed her anger and said with a straight face: "You are here, why should I go up to look for it?"
