

Madam's 3801

Chapter 3801 If I were you, it would be nice to be alive

She asked Guan Yan as a matter of course: "You help me go up and call her, just say that I have given her the list, when can I leave."

Guan Yan heard them talking about the list before entering, and now understands the cause and effect of the matter, and raised his eyebrows: "Let's go?"

"She's not going to let me go?!" Mrs. Xie was shocked and frightened.

Qiao Nian did not agree to her conditions before, and never promised that she would write off the list as long as she wrote it down.

But she has written all the lists, what else do she want?

Guan Yan didn't know what Qiao Nian was going to do with Mrs. Xie. At this moment, Qiao Nian was still upstairs and she hadn't come down, so she couldn't decide.

But she couldn't understand Mrs. Xie's domineering attitude at this juncture, so she took the water and deliberately held the cup against the wall to scare her.

"The old lady is here, just stay at our Hongmeng headquarters for two more days. What are you doing in a hurry, anyway, you can't leave the illegal area after you go back, right?"

"She really doesn't intend to let me go?!"

Old lady Xie grasped the point, her complexion became as pale as paper, and she stood there with her palms pinched, her whole body shrouded in shock and anger.

Guan Yan looked at her surprised and frightened look with satisfaction, and answered her with a smile: "I've said it all, it would be too natural to say that leaving. Sun wants to keep the old lady at our Hongmeng headquarters for a few more days. You Wait a minute, I'll ask someone to arrange a room for you, so you can stay here with peace of mind!"

"..." That little wolf cub wants to take care of her!

Old lady Xie looked at Guan Yan's expression that didn't seem to scare her, and staggered with weakness in her legs. Fortunately, she didn't lose her composure by grabbing the armrest of the sofa next to her.

Her lips trembled for a long time and wanted to make trouble, but when she thought of the girl's eyes that were colder than Lake Baikal, she swallowed the anger that had just sprung up.

Only Guan Yan could be heard mocking with a half-smile: "But we have limited guest rooms here, so I can only ask someone to clean out the utility room."

Utility room...

Old lady Xie suddenly raised her head and glared at her fiercely, her fingertips trembling with anger.

Guan Yan met her angry gaze, lowered his head and took a sip of water, smiled provocatively at her, and said meaningfully: "If I were the old lady, you would be glad that you still have a life, instead of worrying about waiting Whether to live in a guest room or a utility room."

Old lady Xie's eyes flickered, and she understood in her heart that people have to bow their heads under the eaves, and finally bowed their heads: "I...understood."

The next day.

Qiao Nian didn't get up until nine o'clock in the morning, and went downstairs to eat breakfast. Only after listening to Guan Yan's words did she remember that she forgot Mrs. Xie downstairs yesterday.

Guan Yan saw her eating a piece of bread, and said softly, "Sun, what are you going to do with that old woman?"

Qiao Nian took a bite of the bread, took a half sip of the milk, and frowned, as if she had a headache: "...I don't know."

"How about directly..." Guan Yan made a gesture of 'solve'.

Qiao Nian glanced at her, took another bite of the bread and put it down, suddenly lost his appetite. Leaning back in the chair, feeling tired and cold all over his body: "I haven't figured it out yet."

"You lock her there first, and then deal with it after I think about it."

"...All right."

Qiao Nian sat upright again, picked up the slice of bread from the porcelain plate and continued to eat breakfast silently.

Seeing that she was not in high spirits, Guan Yan didn't have anything to say. He was about to go to the kitchen to get his own breakfast when he heard the girl ask her unhurriedly.

"Did those people in the hotel do anything?"

"They."

I became interested when I talked about Guan Yan, and forgot that I was going to get breakfast, and told all about those people's overt and covert operations since Mrs. Xie was taken away yesterday.

In the end, her peach blossom eyes sparkled, evoking a trace of charm and coldness: "Except for that Zhai Xicheng who can hold his breath, the others have more or less tried to run outside."

Speaking of this, she had to sigh with emotion: "But that Zhai Xicheng is really calm, some of them were taken away by you, and he is still like a normal person, not afraid that you will find him next. I don't know where he got the confidence..."

It's Sun's personal enmity with him.

New and old hatred add up, the next one to find him is very likely!

The other people who were trapped in the hotel were in a hurry to find a way to escape, but he didn't move at all, staying in his room with peace of mind.

This kind of person is either too big-hearted, or... crazy.

It's not scary, not what a lunatic is.

"Continent M hasn't shown up until now, so he has nothing to be afraid of." Qiao Nian said without even moving his eyelashes.

Guan Yan looked at her: "Sun, you mean that..."

"She received the message two days ago, and she hasn't responded until now. Don't you think it's abnormal?"

"When you say it, you really..." It's a bit abnormal!

Qiao Nian pursed her lips and said arrogantly, "Wait, wait and see what they want to do."

In fact, since the old lady Xie was taken away by Ye Wangchuan yesterday, everyone in the hotel deeply felt the threat from the Hongmeng.

Before they were able to whitewash the peace and regard the current situation as a confrontation between the two sides, maintaining a delicate balance.

Then what happened yesterday made them deeply understand that there is no so-called confrontation and balance at all.

Qiao Nian just ignored them.

Once people want to come to your door, they have no ability to resist!

For the children of these big families, no one has ever really experienced this kind of situation where their lives are controlled by others.

Starting last night, everyone including Singer began to think of ways to get out of this 'cage' urgently.

Yesterday, some courageous people also tried to leave the range of the hotel. Without exception, the moment they stepped out of the hotel, there was an infrared sniper spot on their chest.

A small red dot is enough to warn them.

The brother who tried boldly retreated to the hotel lobby immediately, and the infrared sniper spot aimed at their chests disappeared.

Such attempts also let them fully understand where the bottom line of the Hongmeng lies.

Hongmeng no matter how they contact the outside world, none of them is allowed to leave here!

This feeling of being locked in a cage is very uncomfortable, especially when the safety of life is not guaranteed, every minute and every second is getting more and more difficult...

Most people in the hotel stayed up all night.

When we woke up in the morning, everyone had thick dark circles under their eyes, looked tired, and didn't even have the energy to say hello to each other.

Singer also put on a big panda eye, he didn't even wear a skirt, he came down with a casual coat and milk pants.

She saw that everyone in the lobby had the same sad face, and the atmosphere was heavy. She couldn't help leaning on the stairs and exhaling: "We can only be fooled by the Hongmeng like this?!"

"What do you want?"

The failed attempt last night made everyone feel bad.

Chapter 3803 I'm going to ask Zhai Xicheng for clarification

Seeing that Singer lost his temper, someone couldn't hold back the cold sarcasm: "You can leave if you are not satisfied, as long as you can leave!"

"You..." Singer's face was extremely bad, he held his breath, and squeezed out his teeth: "I can't leave, but what happened to the Hermit Family?! It's okay for us to be oppressed and bullied in their territory. They claim that the hidden family only has this strength... It's been so many days, they haven't figured out a way, what's the point of hiding in the room every day! Acting like a tortoise?"

Zhai Xicheng didn't move for a long time, and stayed in the room and couldn't come out. The big guys were somewhat disappointed.

After all, the hidden family is the strongest among them, and he is acting on behalf of Her Majesty the Queen.

As a result, after so many days, they still know how to get together to find a way, that Zhai Xicheng doesn't care about things at all, and doesn't even show his face.

Their attitude naturally caused dissatisfaction among most people.

Singer's scolding was ugly, but it was in their hearts.

"Don't say that, the hidden family may be thinking of a way..." Someone reluctantly came out to smooth things over, and the reason was not convincing.

Sure enough, Singer doubled his cynicism: "Yeah, we don't know who the Red League will take away next time. When all of us are taken away, they will figure out a way!"

At that time, all of them will be dead, and the hidden family will just come to collect their bodies, wouldn't it be perfect!

Singer didn't say what she was thinking directly, but the meaning behind the words was clearly expressed, and everyone could hear the meaning behind her words.

As a result, everyone's originally sluggish faces became even more ugly.

The entire hotel is shrouded in a gloomy cloud...

Singer probably couldn't bear this miserable atmosphere, thought for a while, and gritted his teeth: "I'll go to Zhai Xicheng and ask him to see if he can do anything!"

If there is really no other way, she simply stands up and surrenders to the Red League, to see if the other party is willing to let her go.

After all, what the old guy from the Xie family said had nothing to do with her directly. Maybe she has a better attitude, and the sun from Hongmeng is willing to let her go.

Singer wanted to understand his plan, so he did what he said, and hurriedly went upstairs to find Zhai Xicheng.

...

Upstairs.

The door of Zhai Xicheng's room was closed tightly, and there was only a secret guard from a hermit family outside guarding the door.

Singer came up with a click, went straight to the door and confronted the hidden guard, raised his eyebrows and said, "I want to see Shao Zhai."

"?"

"I have something to ask him." Singer did not budge, raising his jaw with a very obvious attitude. Today she wants to see Zhai Xicheng no matter what!

"Young Master Zhai is not free." The dark guard blocked the door expressionlessly, his muscular physique blocked most of the door, as if he would not let Singer go in and disturb the people inside.

Singer didn't expect the other party's attitude, so he couldn't help stretching out his hand to pull, and raised his voice: "Get out of the way!"

The dark guard grabbed her wrist with one hand, pulled her away forcefully, and warned coldly: "Miss Xin, I advise you not to make trouble here."

Singer's wrist bones were about to be broken, and he gritted his teeth in pain. The voice became louder: "I must see him today, if you have the ability, kill me!"

The dark guard was annoyed by her noise, and was about to teach her a lesson. I heard the person inside say coldly: "Let her in."

Chapter 3804 They have action tonight

Singer heard the voice inside, rushed away the strong man in front of her, and said very proudly: "Did you hear that, he let me in."

The dark guard engraved a face, his face twitched a little, he stepped out of the way sullenly, and didn't make a sound.

Singer seemed to push the door arrogantly and go in, but in fact he didn't have any confidence in his heart, so he would walk lightly and close the door by the way.

As soon as she entered, she saw a young man standing by the window with his back to her, covering his lips with his hands and coughing dryly twice: "Ahem."

The young man turned around when he heard the voice, and looked back at her.

Singer felt inexplicably guilty as soon as he touched the other party's eyes that seemed gentle but actually had no warmth, subconsciously avoided the other party's sight, and dryly explained his previous aggressive behavior: "That...Young Master Zhai, I am not Deliberately making noise outside."

"Everyone has been trapped here for several days, and they don't know what to do, so everyone asked me to come up to you and ask... When will the Hermit Family take care of us?"

Before she came up, she thought of arguing aggressively with Zhai Xicheng, but she really lost her aura when she stood here.

Singer didn't know why she didn't dare to confront Zhai Xicheng head-on. She just instinctively felt that the man in front of her was very dangerous.

It is the kind of danger that once provoked, it may be targeted by a poisonous snake.

So she obviously came to question why the other party hadn't moved, but in the end she didn't have the confidence to speak: "Young Master Zhai, everyone is very worried. Look..."

Singer peeked at the expression on the man's face as he spoke.

Zhai Xicheng twitched the corners of his mouth, looking lifeless: "That's what you came to me for?"

"Ah, um..." Singer was embarrassed.

Zhai Xicheng didn't bother to bother with her about her insults to the Hermit Family outside, so Qingling said, "We're leaving tonight."

Singer suddenly came back to his senses: "Tonight?!"

Zhai Xicheng looked into her eyes and said unhurriedly: "The plane has already landed at the airport closest to here. As long as nothing happens, we can leave tonight."

"Then, Hongmeng..." After Singer was pleasantly surprised, he immediately became worried.

The illegal area is the territory of the Red League.

They are leaving by plane, will Qiao Nian not know?

Zhai Xicheng seemed to know what she was thinking: "Don't worry, everything has been arranged. Just follow up when the time comes..."

Singer is still in a state of unrest.

Hearing Zhai Xicheng's voice that seemed to be a smile but not a smile continued: "... If anyone can't keep up, they will have to stay here forever after tonight!"

The word forever made Singer shudder, and a chill ran up her spine. She immediately expressed her position: "Don't worry, Young Master Zhai, I will definitely follow you."

Zhai Xicheng didn't speak, just stood there and looked at her with a sneer.

Singer is not a person without eyesight, so he smiled at him awkwardly, and hurriedly prepared to go out: "Then I won't bother Young Master Zhai."

She ran fast as she spoke.

Before she opened the door and was about to go out, Zhai Xicheng 'kindly' reminded: "If I were you, you wouldn't really think that you can make casual calls here, in case something gets out..."

Singer turned around abruptly, and said solemnly, "I understand, Young Master Zhai."

"That's good." Zhai Xicheng withdrew his gaze and looked out of the window again, as if everything around him had nothing to do with him.

Singer just felt oppressed just by his side.

She didn't dare to stay and went out quietly.

Chapter 3805 Master Wang already knew

Before she went down to inform everyone, she had already planned in her heart that she would greet everyone later, so that those people would not reveal the news in advance.

In order not to be known by the Hongmeng, they will be even more unable to leave!

at the same time.

Hongmeng headquarters.

"My Lord, they have made some noise."

"oh?"

"People from the K organization began to gather there. Besides them, there was also an Airbus plane that landed on a nearby private apron. It seemed that they couldn't wait any longer."

Ye Wangchuan paused his hand that was receiving the water, curled his thin lips slightly, showing a clear expression, and then casually said to the person on the other end of the phone: "Got it. Keep an eye on them!"

"Yes, Mr. Wang." The person at the other end responded.

Ye Wangchuan pressed the call on the bluetooth headset, connected the water, went around the bar, passed the living room, and saw Guan Yan was also talking to Qiao Nian.

When he walked over, Guan Yan had just finished speaking.

was asking Qiao Nian: "Sun, do we care?"

The girl was wearing a dark blue sweater, curled up on the sofa, with a black laptop on her lap, wearing a peaked cap, exuding a sleepy aura around her.

Probably heard Guan Yan asking her, the girl raised her eyelashes, her eyes were dark, she seemed to think about it, and said in a hoarse voice: "For now."

Ye Wangchuan walked over and put water in front of her, only to see that she was using 3D simulation technology to build a model on her laptop.

It seems to be a high-precision weapon model, which already has a basic prototype in the computer 3D composition.

Qiao Nian seemed to be playing it as a game model, and he was very lazy.

He looked away, and didn't ask Qiao Nian if it was the ultimate weapon left by Ji Qing, but tapped the glass to remind her: "You have dark circles under your eyes, and you didn't sleep well last night? Rest for a while. "

"Hmm." Qiao Nian has been building models on the computer for the past few days, and his mind is full of how to visualize the research of Ji Qing.

She slept until midnight for several nights and woke up unable to sleep, so she just got up to make models. The dark circles under her eyes must be heavy.

She would definitely not take it seriously if someone asked her to rest, but this person is Ye Fanchuan... Qiao Nian obediently put away the notebook, reached for the glass and lowered his head to sip his water. Bring it up: "Guan Yan said that Nie Qingru made a move."

Ye Fanchuan peeled off a plum candy from nowhere, put his slender fingers to her lips, and said in a bewitching voice, "Open your mouth."

Qiao Nian saw the candy handed to him, smiled, opened his mouth to bite, and licked his fingertips as if casually.

Just that.

She looks really innocent.

Ye Wangchuan's Adam's apple rolled down, his eyes narrowed, and his scrutiny fell on the girl.

The girl was as lazy as a cat, she didn't look at him at all, she just bit the candy, her voice was indistinct: "Where did you get the candy?"

"Bought for you."

Qiao Nian glanced at him, a bit disbelieving.

Ye Wangchuan considered that there was a third person in the living room, so he held back the lingering eyes on her lips, and brought the topic back to the right track: "There has been movement in the hidden family you just mentioned. Do you mean the K organization?"

"You know?" Guan Yan was a little surprised.

She originally wanted to reduce her sense of existence, and was about to sneak back into the room.

Hearing that Ye Fanchuan directly pointed out the K organization, he showed a slightly surprised expression.

Chapter 3806 Do you want to ask Lu Zhi for help?

Ye Wangchuan didn't have any extra emotions, he threw the candy wrappers into the trash can, took out a tissue to wipe his fingertips, and said flatly: "They even prepared the plane. It seems that they will save people in these two days. "

"Today." Qiao Nian's eyelashes were pitch black, covering up the emotions in his eyes.

When Guan Yan and Ye Wangchuan looked at her, she sneered as if thinking of something, and leaned slightly on the sofa, her whole body was extremely frivolous: "Nie Qingru is a man of action, since she made a movement, whether I will notice or not to her actions."

"She will definitely do it as soon as possible, so as not to have long nights and dreams!"

Qiao Nian paused, seeming to be emotionally depressed: "I just didn't think of one thing..."

She didn't go on.

Ye Wangchuan suddenly understood what she was thinking.

She didn't expect that Nie Qingru would do this for Zhai Xicheng. When faced with a choice, Nie Qingru gave up her own brother without hesitation.

However, this time, she chose to find a way to 'rescue' Zhai Xicheng without hesitation, even when her own situation was unclear.

For Qiao Nian, it is inevitable that he will think of Ji Qing again...

"You want to take this opportunity to explore her background in the illegal area. It just so happens that she came to your door, which is a good thing for us."

"really."

Qiao Nian didn't have a sad personality in the first place, even if he felt unhappy, it was only a momentary emotion, and the moment passed and passed away.

She thought about it for a while, and without hiding her thoughts, she raised her head and looked at the two of them: "Nie Qingru still has residual power in the K organization, I have already considered it. If she just called these people, she shouldn't have delayed it for two years." It's been three days since I've taken any action...I don't think things are that simple!"

The K organization used to take orders from Nie Qingru, but was later controlled by Lu Zhi and became its own force.

Nie Qingru has a deep scheming mind and is good at calculating people's hearts. It is normal for her to still have people in the organization. These people are not something that Lu Zhi can eradicate in a day or two.

But why did Nie Qingru delay for three days before doing it?

This is not Nie Qingru's usual style.

Unless she has a backhand.

"If she arranges other people besides those from the K organization... The Red League is not good at armed conflict. Our manpower may not be enough." Qiao Nian said very directly.

She has always been a person who says what she says.

Although saying that the Red League, as one of the two major forces in the illegal zone, lacks manpower is a bit of a slap in the face, it is actually a lack of manpower.

Hongmeng is not a desperate organization.

They're a hacker league after all.

Just to cooperate with the business in Continent F, they are also involved in some diamond transactions, and sometimes they need to **** the goods manually, and they have trained a group of people.

But if you really want to confront someone head-on, Hongmeng may not be sure to win.

Nie Qingru definitely knew this, so she was prepared.

"How about..." Guan Yan didn't want to say that, she glanced at the handsome man, then at Qiao Nian, closed her eyes as if desperate and said, "Sun, can you ask Lu Zhi for help?"

Guan Yan felt the eyes that seemed to be smiling but not smiling on him for a moment, scolded MMP in his heart, and had to explain with an apologetic smile: "Young Master Ye, I am not targeting you. The main reason is that the current situation is like this, Isn't this... a matter of haste?"

She said seriously: "Tianchen has a certain influence in the illegal area, and we usually cooperate with them. Even if we ask them for a favor, it is considered friendship and mutual assistance, and they should agree."

Chapter 3807 Wangye is a walking cheat

She didn't say the most important reason why Tian Chen would agree, but most people in the illegal area knew that Lu Zhi was interested in Sun.

It's just that the two parties seem to have not shown much.

Of course, Guan Yan would not say the reason directly, it would be too... deadly.

"Look, Young Master Ye..." She resisted her embarrassment and said in a embarrassed manner.

Ye Fanchuan glanced at her, but he didn't mean to be angry, and said directly to the girl who was having a splitting headache: "Moxi is in the illegal area."

Qiao Nian pressed his temple, a little surprised: "When did he come?"

"The night you decided to come to the illegal area to save people, I arranged for him and Ji Lin to come here in batches, and I also brought some people from outside."

He originally had some influence in the illegal area, but it wasn't as big as in Continent F and Independent Continent.

But with Ye Wangchuan's character, he will not let go of the territory of the illegal area. Over the years, there have been people who have been cultivating themselves in the dark.

If it wasn't for Qiao Nian's sudden need for manpower, he might not have exposed this group of people just like that. However, if Qiao Nian needs it, he doesn't mind that his painstaking efforts over the past few years are so 'wasted'...

"With the manpower of Moxi and Ji Lin, plus the manpower of the Red League, even if Nie Qingru has a backup arrangement, we should have enough people."

The implication is that they don't need to bother Lu Zhi.

Qiao Nian didn't pay attention to hear what he said, but was mainly immersed in the news that he was surprised that there were people in the illegal area.

And both Mo Xi and Ji Lin are here...

Ye Wangchuan How many things does he not know?

Qiao Nian twitched his temples again, and looked at him again with a look of scrutiny.

She always feels that someone is a bit too buggy.

After a brief distraction, Qiao Nian lightly tapped her knees with her knuckles, narrowed her eyes, and her delicate face was arrogant: "Then let her come, just to uproot her influence in the illegal area!"

At nightfall.

The wind is howling in the small town, and there are few pedestrians on the road. The originally desolate street seems to be shrouded in an unknown dangerous atmosphere tonight.

There is not even a shadow of a person on the road.

This weird atmosphere starts from the setting sun, to the point where it is already so heavy that it is difficult for people to ignore it when night falls.

"Are there still people from the Hongmeng outside?"

"Why do my eyelids keep twitching, will there be no accident tonight?"

Singer was very upset when he heard the whispering voice in his ear, and lowered his voice to scold them: "Be quiet! Are you afraid that others will not know that we are leaving?"

Others heard the news from her that the Hermit Family was coming to pick them up. Even if Singer was not their leader, everyone defaulted to obeying her command for the time being.

At this moment, Singer lost his temper, and the people she scolded didn't turn back as shamelessly as before.

Instead, he touched his nose silently, holding back his breath.

"I found that since the afternoon, the people who were watching us that I could see before had disappeared." Someone said in a low voice.

Of course, Singer also discovered this, so she also felt a kind of uneasiness in her heart, but she didn't want to show it in front of other people, and deliberately dismissed it.

"Since Young Master Zhai said that the Hermit Family will send someone to pick us up tonight, we'll just wait honestly and stop talking crows. No matter how powerful the Red League is, it's just a hacker organization. Can they still eat us up? ?!"

How about

Chapter 3808, did you bring people out?

Everyone was speechless for a while.

Singer's words are correct, Hongmeng is indeed just a hacker organization. But they are on other people's territory, and the Hongmeng is so strong, no matter what, they can't underestimate the Hongmeng.

...

Nine thirty in the evening.

It was already dark outside.

December, the winter wind howled, and there was no one on the street.

Outside the small town.

People from the K organization have arrived.

They first sent people to investigate the situation of the street controlled by the Hongmeng. They thought it would be troublesome to step into the other side's area.

Who knew that the spies sent out would come back soon.

"Boss, there's no one there."

"no one?"

The little leader of the K organization has a bald head. Hearing this, he stood up from the locomotive and looked down at his subordinates.

The younger brother under him who was inquiring about the news was as skinny as a chick, and he shrank his neck in fright when he looked at him fiercely.

"Boss, really, really no one."

Instead, the bald man frowned, his expression became serious, and he touched his weapon with his hands down, feeling uncertain: "The person who told us that there are all Red Leagues outside, how could they have no one around?" There?"

His younger brother shook his head: "I don't know, but I looked around, and there is really no one outside."

The bald man was silent.

He vaguely smelled danger.

At this time, the other party's people are strictly guarding that street. Maybe he won't be uneasy.

The K organization is not a vegetarian in the illegal area, as long as Tianchen doesn't get involved, he is sure to **** people from the Hongmeng sun.

Even if you can't take away all the people the Hermit Family wants, you can at least take that Young Master Zhai away.

But right now...

The bald man couldn't help but become cautious: "Look here, I'll make a phone call first."

"Yes, boss."

Dozens of people carefully watched the surroundings, and surrounded the area with water.

The bald man didn't go far.

He just walked to the corner of the road and found a quiet place to call State M.

The other end is still awake, and should be waiting for news from their side.

He answered the call in seconds: "Hello, how's it going? Did you bring him out?"

"Queen." Be careful with the bald man.

Even though he knew that the person on the other end of the phone couldn't see him, he still had a flattering expression on his face, and said cautiously: "We haven't done anything yet. It's like this... I sent my brother to check the situation nearby. The people from the Hongmeng are not here. I suspect there is something tricky here, has the Hongmeng received the news...?"

Another Oceania thousands of miles away.

Nie Qingru just got out of the shower and was wearing a nightgown. She held a goblet in her hand and walked out of the window.

She stood where she could overlook the bustling scenery of the entire M state, as if she was stepping on this magnificent scenery under her feet.

She held the wine glass in one hand and the phone in the other, listening to the bald man carefully report the current tense situation in the illegal area.

Hearing that, she just took a sip of her wine and sneered: "So what if she knows?"

The bald man was stunned by the rhetorical question: "Empress?"

Nie Qingru squeezed the cup and said in a calm manner: "The illegal area is her territory, and it is normal for her to receive some rumors. Follow the original plan! People must be evacuated from the illegal area tonight."

Chapter 3809 Praying mantis catching cicada and oriole behind

"But the Hongmeng probably set up an ambush..."

Nie Qingru heard that the other party didn't want to take risks, squinted her eyes, revealing a dangerous message in her eyes, and said half-comfortingly and half-threateningly: "Just do what I tell you, and I will naturally not let you suffer."

"...yes."

"In addition, I have to remind you again."

"Empress, tell me."

Nie Qingru ignored the flattery in the other party's voice, and her tone gradually became fierce: "I don't care if other people can evacuate safely, but you have to remember to protect my people. If my people lose a hair...you know mine Style of doing things."

The family that went to the illegal area to capture the last survivor of the Nantes Alliance has a good relationship with her in private, and she has received several calls in the past few days.

Especially Y Guoxin's family, please find a way to save her daughter.

These are not important to Nie Qingru.

The reason why she is willing to take care of this matter this time is because Zhai Xicheng is among these people.

Otherwise, with the current situation where she is still entangled with the capital, she really can't spare her hands to meddle in such nosy matters.

She would give these people away to that evil person for nothing, and watch that evil person provoke the people of these families with cold eyes... and she can still take advantage of the fisherman!

Nie Qingru thought of this, squeezed the red wine glass again, and tried to lower the unsmooth breath in his chest: "Remember, I want you to bring people out at any cost!"

"Yes, Empress."

"Go."

Nie Qingru put the phone back on the phone holder, the inevitable light flashed in his eyes, he raised his head and drank the red wine in his hand.

She went back to the window to look at the night scene outside, waiting for the good news tonight!

Hongmeng knew that it would be best for her to fight tonight, and it would be best if that little wolf cub confronted her as arrogantly as before. In this way...she could break the "one hand" of this little wolf cub with her own hands, and let the little wolf cub fight her head-on. The cub gets a taste of failure.

Nie Qingru can't wait to see tonight's good show begin!

Illegal area.

The bald man hung up the phone and returned to the crowd with his mobile phone.

Everyone looked at him in unison.

Someone dared to ask: "Boss, what do you say? Shall we do it tonight?"

"It's already here, what do you think!" The bald man's face was extremely grim, and he could see that he was very unhappy on the phone.

Everyone dared not find him unhappy, and held their breath to listen to his orders.

The bald man put away his mobile phone and looked up at the dark street ahead. He always felt that the dark road was like a wide open mouth, waiting for them to throw themselves into the net.

He was unwilling to take the risk in his heart.

But the attitude of the person on the phone just now is already very obvious—I have to do it tonight no matter what!

The bald man gritted his teeth, and reminded the people under him with a cold face: "Let a small team go in to find out the bottom first, and if there is no problem for them to go in, the rest of the people will go with me."

He paused, turned around and nodded at a few people, and said in a deep voice: "The others stay here to meet us, and if you find something wrong, immediately send us a signal flare. Do you understand?"

The few people he named answered in a hurry: "Understood!"

The bald man let out a 'huh', still not sure what to do, he was very afraid that he would be ambushed and caught in a urn, but he had no choice but to shoot, and at this moment he couldn't help himself.

He lowered his eyebrows, waved his hands, and made a silent forward movement: "Let's go!"

Chapter 3810 Sister Nian directly throws the signal flare at her face

On the top floor of an old residential building a few kilometers away from them.

Guan Yan put down the binoculars in his hand, his peach-blossom face showed a hint of interest, and excitedly said to the girl who was also standing in front of the long-distance viewing mirror: "Sun, the fish is hooked."

Qiao Nian also saw the group of people at the intersection wearing night clothes rushing into their ambush range, she just straightened up and pulled on her peaked cap. There was no extra expression on her delicate face, she was very lazy: "What's the hurry, wait a minute Wait, everyone hasn't arrived yet."

She narrowed her eyes: "Wait until they bring out the people inside before doing anything."

Guan Yan picked up the small binoculars in his hand again and looked at the movement in front of him. He couldn't help but click his tongue and sighed with emotion: "I just didn't expect them to send people over. They dared to come in to pick them up even though they didn't find our people. They eat Has the heart of a bear and the guts of a leopard? Still can't use his brain."

Normal people have to be vigilant when they see this "empty city plan", and refuse to step in easily... These people just don't seem to be afraid of death, it's exactly what Sun said.

They're going to do it tonight anyway!

When Qiao Nian heard her chattering, he didn't react much. He slightly raised his brows, his dark eyes shining brightly in the dark night, like the king of the night. She put her hands in her pockets casually, and answered Guan Yan's words casually: "Because someone asked them to take risks."

"..." Guan Yan looked back at her.

Feeling her sight, Qiao Nian sneered and stood on the rooftop, with an unruly aura all over her body, and said inexplicably, "She thought she was the one who caught the turtle in the urn, so of course she couldn't wait to throw the 'bait' in it." , Wait for me to accept the move."

Guan Yan didn't quite understand: "Sun, you mean Nie Qingru?"

Qiao Nian looked into the dark night and didn't answer her.

They waited for about half an hour, and finally there was movement from the hotel.

People from the K organization have joined Zhai Xicheng, Singer and others, and they are ready to evacuate here immediately after receiving them...

Qiao Nian saw the people coming out of the hotel and preparing to leave the street through the remote viewing mirror on the roof, raised her red lips, and took out a signal flare from her pocket.

She aimed the signal flare at the group of people who were evacuating nervously on the road, and pulled the ring, only to hear a "呖—" sound.

The signal flares shot straight at the people on the road like bullets from where they were, and the dazzling light illuminated the whole road for a moment, making the night as bright as day!

At the same time, it also breaks the balance in the dark.

Let everyone discover their existence!

The signal flare that came straight to everyone's door pierced through the wind and roared. This arrogant and provocative way undoubtedly attracted everyone's attention.

"Someone!" Singer was the first to spot the people on the rooftop across the street not far from them.

Don't need her to point to the rooftop, now everyone with eyes has spotted the people on the rooftop.

Everyone panicked suddenly.

"Damn, we are ambushed!"

"The people from Hongmeng really didn't leave."

"What do they want!"

The bald man looked at the people who were in a mess and tried his best to comfort them, telling them not to panic.

But the effect is very general.

These people were trapped in the hotel for several days, and Qiao Nian had already suffered from a nervous breakdown by being surrounded by Qiao Nian and not using his hands.

At this moment of nervous escape, they were suddenly rushed towards their faces by signal flares, and most people's nerves were on the verge of collapse.
